In DEFENCE of the FAITH

IV

By M. N. CAMPBELL

WHEREFORE by their fruits ye shall know them." Matt. 7: 20. If we are to apply this scriptural test to our persistent critics, known as the "Reform Seventh-day Adventists," it will be rather hard on them. Criticism and fault-finding are not the fruits of the Spirit. A list of those fruits is found in Gal. 5:22, 23. "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law." It seems to fit in more closely with the fruits of the natural heart which are mentioned in Gal. 5:19, 21, among which are found hatred, variance, wrath, strife, and envyings.

There is another quality that characterizes their representatives, which is not very desirable, and that is the ungracious disposition to steal. The General Conference has found it necessary to closely guard the entrance to their office at Takoma Park, as some of these holy (?) "Reformers" used to slip in during the noon hour, open the filing cases of different officers, and take as much correspondence out as they could hide under their coats, and slip out. They did this in the hope that they might find something which they could use in their campaign of recrimination and misrepresentation. Just what particular brand of the "Reformers" did this, I cannot say, as they are very numerous. They do not hold together very well, and according to the latest statistics they are split up into twenty different divisions among themselves.

The following counsel concerning the so-called "Reformers" is given in Volume V of the Testimonies, page 144:

"Men professing to have new light, claiming to be reformers, will have great influence over a certain class. . . . Some one making high profession as a reformer comes to them, as Satan came to Christ, disguised as an angel of light, and draws them still farther from the path of right."

"Men and women will arise professing to have some new light or some new revelation whose tendency is to unsettle faith in the old landmarks. Their doctrines will not bear the test of God's word, yet souls will be deceived. . . . Some will be taken in the snare."—Id., p. 295.

"God has not passed His people by, and chosen one solitary man here and another there as the only ones worthy to be intrusted with His truth. He does not give one man new light contrary to the established faith of the body."—Id., p. 291.

"There are a thousand temptations in disguise prepared for those who have the light of truth, and the only safety for any of us is in receiving no new doctrine, no new interpretation of the Scriptures, without first submitting it to brethren of experience. . . . In the multitude of counselors there is safety."—Id., p. 293.

If this counsel is followed, it will save honest-hearted believers from being misled.

These people claim that the Spirit of prophecy teaches that our denomination has fallen; and the righteous ought to leave it. Here is a statement from the pen of Sister White, which appeared in the Review and Herald, Sept. 12, 1893, telling what Babylon is.

"It is our individual duty to walk humbly with God. We are not to seek any strange, new message. We are not to think that the chosen ones of God who are trying to walk in the light, compose Babylon. The fallen denominational churches are Babylon. Babylon has been fostering poisonous doctrines, such as the natural immortality of the soul, the eternal torment of the wicked, the denial of the preexistence of Christ prior to His birth in Bethlehem, and advocating and exalting the first day of the week above God's holy, sanctified day. These and kindred errors are presented to the world by the various churches, and thus the scriptures are fulfilled that say, 'For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.'

They also claim that Rev. 18:1-4 applies to Seventh-day Adventists. The only answer necessary to that is to read the chapter through. It very clearly applies to apostate churches that have rejected the third angel's message. The seventh verse of the chapter shows that it applies to the Roman Catholic Church and it is evident also that it includes the state churches that have allied themselves with the kings of the earth. See verse 9. Read the entire chapter, and it will be sufficient answer to these charges. This coupled with the quotation from the Spirit of prophecy above, showing what the Spirit of God points out to be Babylon, should end all misapprehensions on the subject.

One more quotation from the Spirit of prophecy which shows that the purification of the church will be accomplished not by gathering out the godly, but by the sifting out of those who are unspiritual and unconverted.

"In the absence of persecution, there have drifted into our ranks some who appear sound, and their Christianity unquestionable, but who, if persecution should arise, would go out from us. In the crisis, they would see force in the specious reasoning that has an influence on their minds. Satan has prepared various snares to meet varied minds.

"When the law of God is made void, the church will be sifted by fiery trials, and a larger proportion than we now antipate, will give heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils. Instead of being strengthened when brought into strait places, many prove that they are not living branches of the True Vine: they bore no fruit, and the Husbandman taketh them away."—General Conference Bulletin, 1891, p. 257.

These four articles that have appeared in the MESSENGER should be sufficient to safeguard our people from the misrepresentations of the people who profess a high standard of godliness, but whose experience apparently ends with the profession. May the Lord guard His people in these times of danger when Satan is working with all his might to deceive and mislead. Our safety is in holding fast to the faith of the third angel's message and standing shoulder to shoulder with our brethren until the Lord calls us home.

Rest Haven Training School for Missionary Nurses

"THERE is a most precious work to be done in our sanitariums. In them, Christ and the angels work to relieve suffering caused by bodily disease."—"Counsels on Health," p. 212.

"In these sanitariums young men and young women of ability and consecration are to be gathered, those who will conduct themselves in the love and fear of God, those who, when prepared for graduation will not feel that they know all that they need to know, but will diligently study and carefully practise the lessons given by Christ. The righteousness of Christ will go before such ones, and the glory of God will be their reward."—Id., p. 220.

In harmony with the above instruction, Rest Haven is endeavoring to train missionary nurses. In the fall of 1922 a class of ten young men and women were accepted, and our training school started.

During the years that have followed, thirty-seven young people have completed the three-year preparation for medical missionary service in the Master's vineyard. These young people have engaged in various lines of activity, including school nursing, preceptress work, treatment rooms, private nursing, Bible work, instructor of nurses, supervisor of nurses, teaching home nursing classes, medical aid in lumber camps and military hospitals, and we have one representative across the sea in China. Those who at present are not actively engaged in nursing lines are better neighbors and home makers, possessing knowledge which we are told is an opening wedge to help in spreading the third angel's message to the communities in which we live.

We as nurses receive many blessings in our work for the sick. It is a privilege to point souls to the Great Physician who can bless the treatments given, and bring healing. The expressions of gratitude from many sufferers, strongly indicate that they often appreciate the spiritual help received from our students as much as the physical relief.

The study of the Bible and Testimonies, emphasizing present truth, is a part of the training which is of utmost value. We endeavor to prepare the student to be able to give simple Bible studies to interested persons; and as opportunity is afforded, the senior nurses put into practice what they have learned. We have had the joy of seeing several souls go forward in baptism as a result of the seed sowing by faithful members of the sanitarium family. One plants, another waters, and God gives the increase.

The strictly medical studies are given their full share of attention, as we follow the regular outline of studies usually given in schools of nursing, with the addition of hydrotherapy, massage, electrotherapy, Bible, and health principles, and several other subjects required by the General Conference Medical Department.

We have found that our nurses after graduation have won their way into the hearts of people and God has given them success in their missionary endeavors for Him wherever they are—in our organized work, in private nursing, or in their own homes, living the truth and in many cases interesting their neighbors in this message.

From the above it will readily be seen that the operation of a training school for missionary nurses is a valuable asset to the cause of God and to finishing the work in Canada.

You May Have the Review For Less Money

THE Review and Herald has something interesting for every believer,—the busy worker, the student, the isolated church member, the family, the young people and the children; and the price has been reduced to $2 a year.

The Review has a special Review campaign on from May 19 to June 19, 1934, and if you will start saving your nickles and dimes from now on you will have the required amount before these special prices are over. Send your subscription to your Book and Bible House now.

The Review is our church paper. It brings us reports from the entire world field. It keeps us in touch with the progress of the message. It gives us good counsel for the home and instructs along the line of Christian living.

Many readers of the Review who have read it for a period of twenty and more years declare that they would rather go without meals than without the Review.

Take advantage of this exceptional offer and enjoy this good message-filled weekly visitor. J. H. ROTH.

Colporteurs Read This

A FEW years ago a colporteur was canvassing in ———, Nova Scotia. He sold a copy of Daniel and Revelation to a blacksmith and one to a shoemaker. The shoemaker believed his book taught error so he put it in the fire. The blacksmith read a little but soon tired and threw the book up on some boards overhead in the blacksmith shop. There it lay for many, many months covered with dirt and dust. A new family moved into the neighborhood. The man was a carpenter, and as he had a large family, he soon went in search of work. The smith shop needed some repairs and he went to see the blacksmith one day about having the work done. Terms were agreed upon and he went to work. As he was working he came across this book, all covered with dust. He took it down and said, "What is this?" "Oh, that book has been up there for many months. I have often threatened to burn it. It is no good, throw it in the fire," said the smith. The carpenter not having much reading matter asked the blacksmith for the book. He took it home and commenced to study it with his family.

He and his wife and four daughters accepted the message. Since that time one of the grand daughters has graduated from Melrose Sanitarium as a nurse and others, we know not of the family, are undoubtedly getting ready for the kingdom.

Well, dear colporteurs, I came across the above story in one of my recent visits in Nova Scotia. I just felt it would be an encouragement to you in your work. Eternity will have many remarkable experiences to relate. Be faithful, and may God bless you and give you success.

W. A. CLEMENSON.

COLPORTEUR LANTZ, after spending a couple of weeks at home is again in the colporteur field. In a recent letter he states he will have a $500 delivery in June.

We are sorry to lose one of our faithful colporteurs—Brother Ewald Oestreich, who is planning on returning to Germany on May 11. Brother Oestreich has given good service and his work will be missed. We wish him good success in his new field of labor.

FROM May 19 to June 19, the Review and Herald is offering the Review for one year for only $2. We hope many of our people may be able to take advantage of this reduced rate and subscribe. Send your order to the Book and Bible House.

MISS DOROTHY E. OSTOICH, of Chicago, has accepted a call to come to Maritime to act as conference and Book and Bible House secretary. She is a daughter of Elder M. Ostoich who has spent several years in the mission field. Miss Ostoich has had several years of office experience and will be able to give efficient service to the field.

IN making out remittances to the conference office, if the money is for books, periodicals, etc., always make the money order or cheque out to the Maritime Book and Bible House. If it is tithe or mission offerings, then make orders out to the Maritime Conference. A few are not doing this and it complicates the work at the office somewhat.

A BABY girl, Sybil Ruby, was born to the home of Bro. and Sister J. M. Ackerman on Wednesday, April 18.

THE new Harvest Ingathering magazine will be ready early in May. Let us plan to start early.

Lay Effort in Windsor, Ont.

DURING the year 1931, the Windsor church was promised a minister to hold an effort, but due to certain unforeseen circumstances, the plans did not go through and we were left without one.

Having looked forward for several years to the time when we could have an opportunity to reach the public with the truth of the third angel's message, we were greatly disappointed to hear that we would not have an evangelist at that time.

Disappointed, but not discouraged, we decided to turn the mid-week prayer meeting into Bible studies for the public. The results of these meetings were most gratifying, and by much prayer and hard work on the part of the church we had the pleasure of seeing fourteen souls baptized and received into the church in the latter part of July, 1932. During this time I had the co-operation of our conference president, Elder M. V. Campbell, whose heart and soul is in the evangelistic work. On one occasion, in spite of his activities in other places, he came at my request and preached a forceful sermon on "The Time of Trouble and The Last Generation." Needless to say, we were all happy at the results of this effort, and not one of those who were baptized has fallen out.

It has been wonderful to see the grace of God working on the hearts of these people and helping them to give up habits that had been seated for a life time.

In 1933, we were very fortunate in having a minister, Willard Dessain, who at present is in charge of the work in Montreal. Under Brother Dessain's effort, twenty took their stand and were baptized in the summer of that year.

At the request of our president, I again decided to hold Wednesday night meetings, and with a little newspaper advertising we are having very good attendance and the interest is rapidly growing.

I am also holding Bible studies in the village of Tecumseh, eleven miles east of Windsor. The meetings are being held at the request of two live members of our church, Sister Edith Clapp and Sister Ogilvie. The meetings being held in the home of the latter.

Of course, the voice of the dragon has been heard. One minister has raised his voice in protest against our meetings, and is doing very much to discourage those who have attended, but we are hopeful that the truth will prevail and that many souls may be brought to take their stand on God's side and be baptized at the close of this effort.

Let me say to the lay members who have ability to teach and especially to local elders, launch out in the faith of Jesus and rest upon God's promise to give you a rich harvest for your labors.

Pray for us, that we may continue in God's work and may have much fruit for our labor.

D. GEAUVREAU.

News From the Field

WE WERE very glad to have Elder Roth with us for some time before and after the convention. Elder Millner accompanied him to Windsor, Bracebridge, Paris, and Brantford. In the second place they spent two days holding meetings. Brother and Sister Snook are doing a good work in Bracebridge. Eleven adults are keeping the Sabbath. There is also a fine group of young people of junior age attending the services.

Hamilton: There are two Bible training classes operating here. One of them is under the leadership of Miss Cora Bowers, and has a membership of more than fifteen. Several of the members are busy giving studies at the present time. Bro. E. A. Jones is conducting the other group, and he has four or five interested people studying with them. If every church could follow a similar plan, more souls would come into the truth. Hamilton has two Dorcas societies in action. The work they are doing is commendable. Sister A. E. Henderson, an enthusiastic worker in this connection, is busy several days of the week visiting the sick and gathering up clothes. Every member of these two societies is a live worker.

Renfrew: Mrs. Louis Laforce is another soul-winner. Word has come from Elder R. A. Hubley, the district leader, that two adults are keeping the Sabbath as a result of Bible studies being given to them. It is hoped that a Sabbath school may be organized in this place before long. Sister Laforce has always been a good lay worker, and we rejoice with her in the saving of these souls. The Lord will use consecrated men and women everywhere in just such a way.

Man.-Sask. Camp Meeting

A NUMBER of brethren and sisters have made inquiry about our camp meeting. The local as well as the union committee has taken this matter into consideration and it was decided to hold camp meeting at two places in our combined field. In Winnipeg, July 6-10, and in Saskatoon, July 10-15. The meeting in Winnipeg will open Friday night, July 6 and the first meeting in Saskatoon will begin Tuesday night, July 10.

Further information will be given later, but I just wish to say that good help has been promised to us from the General Conference for our camp meeting this year. Elder H. H. Votaw, Elder J. W. McNeil, Elder R. Ruhling, and of course we will have our union brethren with us as well as our local workers.

In connection with this year's camp meeting there will be a lay evangelistic institute held. I hope many will attend.

Let us begin to pray and to plan for the success of our camp meeting.

Manitoba-Saskatchewan News Notes

BROTHER CLARK has started out two colporteurs in the Port Cities, Brother Farrow and Brother Connors. Just now he is in Winnipeg starting several new workers. Very encouraging reports have come in from the colporteurs out in the field, as you will notice by the reports in the MESSENGER.

DURING the first three months of 1934 over $150 came in for the evangelistic fund, that is from the cent-a-meal boxes. Considering that most of the boxes were only out about six weeks, we think this is a very splendid showing. Let us all be faithful in contributing our pennies so that when the boxes are opened again we may have an even larger amount to report. This money, as you know, is used exclusively for evangelistic work.

DURING the last three weeks four baptisms were held. Each one of the workers will no doubt report his own so I will just give you the names here. Elder Gerhart had a baptism in Winnipeg, as well as Elders Reile and Baybarz. Elder D. N. Reiner had one in the Port Cities, and Elder Demchuk is now conducting a baptismal class in Saskatoon. Elder Long reports a very encouraging interest at Brockington. Brother Balmer, who has been laboring at Hillside, has also a good interest there. If any of you do not have a cent-a-meal box as yet, kindly let me know and we will be glad to supply you with one.

DURING the past three months Brother Balmer has been conducting evangelistic meetings in the Hillside district. Through the courtesy of the local school trustees he was able to secure a school building. Although during much of the time the trails were bad, the attendance was very satisfactory, especially at the Sunday afternoon meetings. As a result a good interest has arisen and already a goodly number have expressed their desire to keep the commandments of God. A baptism class is being formed and soon these will have the privilege of witnessing for their Lord and Master in the rite of baptism. He also reports another interest has arisen about eight miles away and is hopeful that a number there will also decide for the truth. We hope that all our members will pray for our workers who are engaged in evangelistic efforts as well as other phases of the work.

Special Offer

SO MANY times these special offers and appeals mean money out of your pocket to advance a noble cause. This time it means money into your pocket. I see you are interested so will proceed to explain.

1. Every good Seventh-day Adventist has plans on the Review and Herald. Ordinarily this costs you $2.50. Between May 19 and June 19 you may subscribe for $2.00. Here you save 50 cents. Money saved is money earned.

2. Many of our people order the Big Four. These four magazines if ordered singly would cost $4.10, but when ordered in a group you get them for $3.00. During the special offer you get them for $2.75. These four are: Review, Life and Health, Liberty, and Present Truth.

3. Some of our people order the Family Group composed of the following: Review, Instructor, Life and Health, Liberty, Present Truth, Sabbath School Worker, and Church Officers Gazette. This whole list you usually get for $5.75 which is a saving, but during this special offer you need to pay only $5.50. Another substantial saving.

4. But you say, "My subscription does not run out for a few months or a year, so how do I benefit?" If your Review, Big Four, or Family Group does not expire now you may extend your subscription one year or more at the special rate.

Begin planning now so you can get your order in sometime between May 19 and June 19. D. N. REINER.

"No man can make or break a habit in a moment, but at any moment we can begin to make or break a habit."

MEN are usually more desirous of being improved in their portraits than in their characters.—Lowell.

Parents and Children.— Notice!

WHO does not like the visit of the Little Friend? The inspiring stories are so good and just make one desirous to live a noble life. The Sabbath school lessons which should be studied every day are written in such an interesting way. Does this good "Friend" come into your home? It is only $1.25 for a whole year.

If it should be impossible for you to subscribe for the Little Friend, which would be so disappointing to the child, and he needs the Sabbath school lesson, we have something new to offer you and that is the Inter-American Branch of the Pacific Press Publishing Association, puts out a children's Sabbath school quarterly which has all the lessons in for the quarter for the primary division. It is about the size of the senior lesson quarterly and costs five cents a copy. If it is absolutely impossible for you to have the good little visitor, Little Friend come to your home, do not let your child be without the Sabbath school lessons, as "There is no reason why Sabbath school lessons should be less perfectly learned by teachers or pupils than are the lessons of the day school. They should be better learned, as they treat with subjects infinitely more important. A neglect here is displeasing to God."—"Testimonies on Sabbath School Work," p. 10.

Put in your order early to your local Book and Bible House as it takes a little time to get the quarterlies from there.

Weddings

Miss Caroline Kerbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Kerbs, Last Mountain, Sask., was married to William Heinz of Semans, Sask., on April 29. The ceremony took place in the community hall in the presence of a large number of relatives, neighbors and friends. Lunch was served at the home of the bride.

FEBRUARY 18 was a happy occasion for the Willowmoor company eight miles south east of Battleford, for at that time Annie Seby became the happy bride of Peter Tofan. A number of believers, friends and neighbors had gathered to wish them well as they join hands for life. After the ceremony a lap lunch was served. They are making their home at Beauvallon, Alta.

Let Us Look Forward

RECENTLY, while on my way to visit in a new district, my train pulled in to a junction. Here a mixed train was standing on a side track. While the mail and express was being transferred I visited with two men who had loaded all their personal belongings into two cars. They were leaving the dry belt to go further north to enter land which the government was furnishing them.

Looking into their cars I saw their household effects—some machinery, horses and cows and a faithful dog. The dog was looking out of the car a little bewildered but he seemed to want to say, "I don't know where we are going but I will stay with my master."

The men told me that they had built up good homes in the dry district but year after year they had no crop and had spent all their money. The disappointed men were going to their new field. Their shoulders were stooped, their hair grey. Taking it all it made a sad picture. Old, disappointed men, having lost all, and now trying to build homes in a new district in their weakened bodies and old age.

My mind went forward to the time when there would be no disappointments but we would move to sure dwelling places.

A Stabilizer

MANY of the ocean ships have been equipped with stabilizers. When they encounter a heaving sea or storm these stabilizers keep them steady. So today our people, old and young, need the stabilizing influence of our church paper, The Review and Herald. These are times of stress and strain. Times of spiritual danger and apostasy. Our people, who read the good old Review, feel that stabilizing influence in their lives and are kept true to God and this blessed message.

We are rather low on the subscription list in Alberta. Only 160 families are subscribers to our general church paper. Think of what the rest are missing.

From May 19 to June 19 the subscription price of the Review will be only $2 instead of $2.50 as formerly. The Big Four will be $2.75 instead of $3. This offer holds good only between the above mentioned dates.

Send in your subscription early to the Alberta Book and Bible House, 16-19 Lineham Block, Calgary.

Alberta News Notes

BROTHER GERRARD and Brother Paddock made a friendly visit to our office on Tuesday. Brother Gerrard left in the morning for Lacombe to attend the institute but Brother Paddock waited over to speak at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting.

THERE has come into the office some old gold. It is estimated at $150. I think our people will be none the worse for having made this sacrifice. Some of it has been in the form of crowns off teeth, spectacle rims, rings, and so forth. If there is any more, send it in.

ELDER RHOADS recently visited the college, Edmonton and Lindbergh. In the latter place a good Sabbath school is in operation. There are some nice people there. With a little further instruction they will be ready for baptism. This is a new country. We are working these country places where it does not cost so much to carry on a series of meetings.

I WAS very much disappointed this morning, upon receiving a report from the treasurer of the General Conference, to notice that Alberta was the last one on the list in mission offerings for North America. I realize Alberta is hit about the hardest of any field in Canada, yet I thought our faithfulness would help us to make a better showing. If each one would even give a penny more a week it would quite materially change things. So we will do a little better this month, won't we?

Important Notice

PERSONS having books in their homes from the conference library please return them immediately. Kindly look through your books,—you may have some belonging to the conference that you may have forgotten about. This will be greatly appreciated.

The Indian Work at Rest Haven

FOR some time the Rest Haven Sanitarium has had the care of the hundreds of Indians who live in the two tribes near the institution. Our doctor visits them and they receive physical care in the sanitarium itself. Perhaps nowhere else in Canada do we have such definite contact with the Indians as we have at Rest Haven. This is a type of missionary work of the highest order and when it became necessary for special accommodations for the Indians to be provided, we were sure that our people would have this matter at heart. Why should we neglect this great field which is open before us here at our very doors?

Accordingly on Sabbath, June 16, a special offering is to be taken in all our churches for this work, and we trust that our isolated people also will remember this important matter in a special way at that time. It is hoped that we can raise three hundred dollars in British Columbia for this purpose. It should be remembered that we have not for a long time done anything as churches for Rest Haven Sanitarium and for their very fine missionary work. Let us make this offering of June 16 one of the outstanding events of the year in our financial program. H. A. LUKENS.

The Most Unusual Offer of its Kind

FOR the first time the Review and Herald, from May 19 to June 19, may be purchased for two dollars. Costing more than $3.00 to publish, the Review at $2.50 was a bargain. At $2.00 it is a wonderful value.

The Spirit of prophecy has given us the information that many would pass through the time of the latter rain without realizing that it had fallen. And yet the striking fact is brought to view that those who faithfully read the Review and Herald will know the times in which we live.

Far-reaching events of the greatest magnitude have happened within the last few weeks. These events change the entire picture of the world outlook. Did you know that the United States has now a national Sunday law? That the five States which had repealed their Sunday laws have recently re-enacted them? Did you know that this was to be the sign for us as was the Roman army surrounding Jerusalem a sign for the first Christians?

My dear brethren and sisters, if you would yourself remain in the truth, sacrifice no matter how greatly; secure two dollars and order the Review for this coming year. If you are already a subscriber another full year will be added to your present subscription if sent in during that month.

Remember the dates—May 19 to June 19. H. A. LUKENS.

Work Harder B. C. Members

ON the back page of the Review once a month is now being shown the standing of the conferences in North America as to the amount each conference has raised on the forty cents a week mission funds. For January the B. C. conference stood twentieth on the list with an average of $.137 per member, which is encouraging. But in February, B. C. was down to thirty-second place with an average of only $.115 per member.

What can we do, dear B. C. members? There is "a sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees." The Lord is calling us on. Other conferences are in this forward move and increasing their gifts to missions and we will not be left behind.

How can we give more? One way is the Investment plan in which we take the Lord Himself as our helper. Earn more to give by selling some of our good books, and magazines to our neighbors. This is a successful way, and there are many other ways.

Now is the time for each member to do something more; then your church will have more to send to the conference and the work of God will soon be finished.

Forward B. C.!

RALPH E. ROBINSON.

OSHAWA MISSIONARY COLLEGE

"Service—Not Fame"

Box 308, Oshawa, Ont.

Do You Know That—

MISS FLORYNCE BISHOP and Clifford Rees have left for their homes, the former for a visit and the latter, we fear, for the remainder of the term.

RIFFORD GODSOE, William Hall, and Robert Wall have heard the call of spring and joined the farm and dairy crews while Mr. Steward and James Leigh have returned city-ward.

WHILE erecting the fire escape on the north end of the administration building Mr. Brown had the painful misfortune of breaking a couple of bones in his left hand.

ELDER M. N. CAMPBELL was an unexpected visitor last Sabbath. We appreciated his report of the Spring Council and his message of encouragement during the service hour.

FOLLOWING a finger infection, Mrs. Lowry has been under medical attention for the past couple weeks. We are glad to say her hand is improving and the prospects are she will soon be back on duty.

A BOX and a half of delicious apples, all the way from British Columbia, a gift from Elder Lukens, arrived a few days ago and were distributed among the staff members and the student body. Thanks, Elder Lukens!

AROUND O. M. C. ambition is contagious—a neighborhood cat having demonstrated its desire for higher education last Sunday by perching on top of the power line pole by the principal's cottage.

PROFESSOR TERRY took a couple days off last week from preceptorial duties to act as factory chair salesman in the Muskoka district. We understand he brought home a sheaf of good orders and has promises of others to come when the tourist season opens.

IT isn't the easiest thing in the world to get up at 5 A. M.—particularly with daylight saving in force. But when a senior gets hold of a junior around that time of morning and whispers "Pancakes and maple syrup" in his ear, however sleepy, there just simply isn't any argument. And that's the way it came that seniors and juniors got away to an early start for an out-of-doors breakfast the other morning.

SUNDAY, April 29, was a red letter day for twenty young people—all juniors. Upon assembling in the English room and being fully instructed in all the responsibilities and properties of junior life by the principal, ballots were distributed and voting on the officers began. The following were elected: president, Jack Blacker; vice-president, Etta McRie; secretary, Mona Cooke; treasurer, Leonard Paddock; sergeant-at-arms, Leonard Leatherdale; advisor, Elder Smith. We happen to know all this for they kindly left their list of officers on the blackboard for public information. Three more have joined since organization, bringing the membership to twenty-three.

THESE are busy days for Mr. Loft-house, the farm superintendent, and his crew. With most of the fall seeding killed as a result of the cold winter, a great deal of extra work is having to be done. And then on top of all that he has six hundred small worries in the form of as many baby chicks.

C. J. C. News Notes

FRANK JONES recently went to Edmonton and brought back with him his bride, formerly Miss Sadie Jolin. Both are former C. J. C. students, and we wish them much happiness as they make their home in Rosedale valley.

PROFESSOR MARTIN on his recent trip to Edmonton was able to sell over $100 worth of hats made by Ruth Brown and Annie Wasylycia, two of our students. He has strong hopes that this industry may prove to be a real success.

WE have been very fortunate this past winter in that there has been very little illness, for which we are very thankful. John and Levi Neufeld must have fully recovered for they are both working hard in the chemistry laboratory, as is also their friend John Howard.

IT was a pleasant surprise to see Elsie Myles back again. This time she brought her mother and sister Jean along. Walter Ruminson, who went home to put in the crop, has also returned. Reuben Buhler has been putting in the school acreage which Mr. Edstrom states is to be larger this year. This includes an extra large garden. Peter Uniat and Marshall Price have been picking over the potatoes for the garden.

OUR worships have all been interesting and ones that we will long remember. Tuesday evening Professor Casey told us some of the providences in his life which made it possible for him to be at C. J. C. The girls' and boys' clubs gave us a father's program on Sunday evening. It made us envy Howard Farnsworth and Edward and Robert Shearer who are visiting their parents. The latter took the opportunity of driving home with their brother, Dr. William Shearer, of Seattle, who passed through a few days ago. The newly-elected officers of the above mentioned clubs will have charge of the Sunday evening worships for the remainder of the school year. They are Josephine Price, Arvida Bjurstom, and Elsie Myles; Donald Neufeld, Gerald Hockin, and Elbridge Ramsay, respectively.

TOMORROW morning the colporteur institute begins. Bro. P. D. Gerard, field secretary of the Canadian Union has already arrived and brethren Sather, Paddock, Clark, and Henriksen are expected soon.

THURSDAY afternoon, as a relaxation from our recent examinations we enjoyed supper down by the lake and played everything from last-couple-out to soft ball and volley ball until nine o'clock.

AT the request of the General Conference, Mr. Cameron, Lacombe photographer, took several pictures of our college which are to be used at the World Fair in Chicago this year.

ELDER RHOAD'S occasional visits, though short, are much appreciated. This time in addition to meeting with the local board, he spoke to us in worship.

Items of News From Rest Haven

IDA JOLIN, a second year student-nurse, was asked by an influential lady patient to explain why members of the staff observe Saturday in the place of Sunday. The following evening found Miss Jolin sitting close to the bedside of this lady giving a Bible study on the change of the Sabbath. After reading admissions of the change from authoritative sources, the lady expressed great surprise. "Read that statement again," she said, and was not satisfied until some of these admissions had been re-read four or five times. This lady was with us for more than three months during which time she was impressed by the spiritual lives of the nurses, and it was this which led to an opportunity for Miss Jolin to give this Bible study which the patient declared had been made very plain. She also read the "Marked Bible" before leaving and expressed a desire to return this coming summer and have further study.

PASTOR A. J. CAMPBELL, of the Solomon Islands, spent a recent week-end at Rest Haven. He spoke at the regular Missionary Volunteer meeting and also at the Sabbath service. It was impressive to listen to recent experiences portraying the remarkable advancement of the message in those distant isles of the sea.

THE sanitarium family was privileged to enjoy a week-end visit from Elder H. A. Lukens shortly after his return from the east. He gave a stirring address on the signs of the times in the light of grave happenings in the religious world. Deep interest was awakened in the minds of those present, amongst whom were some not of our faith. Before leaving for Victoria on Sunday, Elder Lukens attended the meeting of members of the faculty prayer band.

Attention World's Fair Visitors

BROADVIEW COLLEGE had the privilege last summer of entertaining as guests nearly one thousand visitors to Chicago's Century of Progress Exposition. The Fair was such a huge success from every angle that it was decided to continue it again in 1934. This year we are promised many additional attractions. Among these will be the S. D. A. exhibit in the Hall of Religions. The Ford Motor Company is building a mammoth million-dollar building to house its magnificent exhibits.

Broadview hopes again to be host to a large number of guests. The college is lo-

IN spite of his busy life, both in and outside the institution, Dr. Burden gave a very interesting lecture in the lounge the other day on the marvellous way in which the body is defended from disease. Quite a number of patients were present and all felt that they had spent a most profitable hour together.

WE have been made sad to learn from Margaret Beach of the death of her father in Vancouver. Our hearts go out in sympathy to Mrs. Beach and to the members of the family who are left to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and loving father. How good it is to know that the days of sad partings will soon be no more forever, for the glad day of Jesus' coming is at hand.

THE patronage has been climbing steadily since the first week in March. Last week the names of thirty-two individuals were registered as patients. Several more major operations have been performed in addition to other surgical work. Three little babes have quite recently opened their eyes. One of these, Richard, has been claimed by Bro. Wilbert Foulston, of Victoria. Congratulations have been expressed to him and his good little wife from many quarters.
