This Is Our Opportunity

Religious issues of tremendous magnitude are gripping the attention of mankind. Look at them—Sunday laws, the awesome spectacle of the Roman Catholic Council in Rome, the demand for Protestant unity, and the Supreme Court ruling on prayer in the public schools. With startling suddenness, religion has taken the spotlight away from space travel and the cold war. Everywhere men are discussing religious themes and their relationship to life.

Without question, this mood on humanity's part is God-directed and God-allowed. How long it will last, no one knows. However, we do know that today's tense world situation presents a marvellous opportunity for Seventh-day Adventists to visit their business friends, relatives and neighbours with Ingathering magazines and Bible Correspondence Course application blanks.

We are in a position to score great results for God. As men hear what God's church is doing to uplift humanity with its evangelistic, medical and educational programme, many will be impressed to give liberally to support such a cause. Because of the wide-spread agitation of current religious issues through the press, radio and television media, many will gladly enrol in Bible Correspondence Courses which explain the ultimate outcome of such issues. As the issues further develop, many will take their stand with God's remnant church.

This is our opportunity. Adventists should stream out of their churches each Sabbath with arms loaded with Ingathering magazines to be used later as they endeavour to visit each home in their community during the coming weeks. Who knows, an opportunity such as this may never again present itself. The shadows are lengthening. Let us arise and work for "the night cometh when no man can work." John 9:4.

Baptisms

Halifax, N.S. . . .

These three smiling girls were recently baptized (Sept. 29) in Halifax, N.S. They are members of the Fox Point Church. Left to right: Jeannie Meekins, Mrs. Russell Westhaver, and Judy Meekins. A fourth, not shown, was Peggy Baker.

At a previous baptism, held June 2, Brother Robert Logan joined the Dartmouth, N.S. Church and Sister Gertrude Porter the Halifax Church. They are shown here on either side of Pastor Fred Crump.

Stettler, Alberta . . .

We are happy to report the baptism of six precious souls in the Stettler, Alberta Church on September 29.

Five of the candidates gave their hearts to Jesus as a result of attending the Stettler church school and observing the consistent examples of our believers in the church.

Two of the youthful candidates, Pat Patterson, 14, and Dawna Brown, 12 have no Seventh-day Adventist parents. Mrs. Else Fischer, a German immigrant and former member of the Lutheran Church, studied for nearly one year, mainly with the help of her only son who embraced the Adventist teachings less than twelve months ago. She is married to a Seventh-day Adventist now residing at Spoden.

James White Library Dedicated

James White Library—the "heart" of Andrews University. Named in honour of James White, an early leader in the Seventh-day Adventist Church, this library welcomes through its open portals all those who earnestly seek knowledge and truth.

Charge desk and one of the five reading areas at the new James White Library. This well-lighted, well-equipped library serves all divisions of the University.

The James White Library at Andrews University was formally opened to the public at the dedicatory service held in the Pioneer Memorial Church on October 24.

Dr. Walter R. Beach, Secretary of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists with headquarters in Takoma Park, Washington, D. C., was the guest speaker at the dedication.

"Books are the tools with which knowledge is most rapidly and most successfully acquired. They put into our hands the key that opens the door of human commonplaces with a world of boundless horizons" stated Dr. Beach in his opening remarks.

Costing in the neighbourhood of $750,000 the library has 45,000 square feet of floor space with shelving capacity for 280,000 volumes. Approximately 120,000 volumes comprise the united library. It subscribes to nearly 1,000 periodicals, has seven professionally trained staff members, four sub-professional staff members, two library assistants, several clerical workers, and provides over 300 hours of work a week to 25 undergraduate students.

Of particular interest to denominational researchers is the Heritage Room which contains a collection of rare books which include the Advent Source Collection made by Dr. L. E. Froom as he wrote the four volumes of Prophetic Faith of our Fathers. Such items as Uriah Smith's old desk and William Miller's hatbox are on display.

The purpose of the James White Library was succinctly set forth in the concluding statement of the Act of Dedication, "May God make it (library) a place where teachers come to learn beside their students; where the public is welcome to share its riches; where the annals of God's church form a living part of the study resources; where thoughts may be born in youthful minds, be nurtured in places of labour at the ends of the earth, and return here in columns of print to quicken in other youths new thought, new dedication."

The facilities of the new library have already proven to be of value not only to all divisions of the University but also to the community. Two groups of fifty students each from the Berrien Springs High School have already made use of the library as well as twenty-five students from Bridgman's high school.

High schools and elementary schools from as far as South Bend, Indiana, have had field trips to the new library in order to learn library procedures.

The library has been well received by the non-Adventist community. Both at the time of dedication and at the open house on Sunday, October 28, large groups of adults from the surrounding community and neighbouring cities visited the library.

Experience Corner

Submitted by O. A. ROTIMER

Canadian Union Conference

On Thanksgiving Day while selling a few magazines, I met a young man who was interested in health. He mentioned the fact that he knew smoking was affecting his health seriously. When I promised I could help him stop smoking he told me that he had tried several times but had failed. He decided to buy the small medical book and was greatly interested in Desire of Ages and God Speaks to Modern Man. Though he was unemployed he paid cash for the three books. He is also going to make a careful study of the Bible.

In a few days I expect to meet an Anglican minister and his entire Sunday School staff. He said they would be pleased to see our books.

One evening as I was on my way home I noticed a small cabin in the brush just off the road. I got a little way down the road when I heard a voice say "Go back to the cabin," so I turned around and went back. I met a very nice young man with whom I had a Bible study, and sold him Modern Ways and Triumph of God's Love; I also had prayer with him. I would have missed this wonderful experience if I hadn't listened to that still small voice. This young man is sincere and I'm sure he will read the Triumph. May God bless all with whom we labour. I thank God for this wonderful experience.

A fine young couple with two children, with whom I have been studying for 17 weeks, started attending Sabbath School and church on October 6. We invited them home for lunch and they gladly accepted. We kept their children that Saturday night while they attended Pastor Vandeman's meeting. They are keeping the Sabbath and he was happy to be able to help at the church work bee. Pray for them and us as I continue to search for souls.

On my way home one Friday I was impressed to call back at a home I had visited about a year ago. The man was in the yard and invited me in. After I told him who I was he said he believed our message. As I had met only his wife previously, I was surprised when leaving to have him tell me that he knew who I was before I got out of the car.

The Lord is truly working on the hearts of the people in this area. The man told me he knows several people who believe in the Sabbath. I ask your prayers that God will continue to lead me to those who are honest in heart.

All the Maritime provinces were represented with nearly every church sending its young people. The programme began with Sabbath School led by Mrs.

L. L. Bock. A fine skit centering around the work of Elder and Mrs. James White and other early pioneers was given by Pastor and Mrs. R. L. Cheney. Pastor Cheney is the minister of the St. John Church.

Bishop Suggests that U.S. Pay Hollywood Not to Make Movies

A Methodist bishop has come up with a suggestion that may prevent other countries from having an inaccurate understanding of America as a result of poorly slanted motion pictures released by Hollywood. Bishop Richard C. Raines of Indianapolis Indiana, has suggested that the Federal Government pay Hollywood not to make motion pictures of this nature. He made the proposal in an address at the Detroit Council of Churches' 16th annual Reformation festival, in which he condemned many American influences abroad, particularly films. "If it is wise to pay farmers for not planting wheat," he said, "it is even wiser to pay Hollywood for not making movies." Just returned from a visit to Russia, the bishop based his thoughts on the reactions he had witnessed over there.

MV Rally in Calgary

Elder Skinner looking at posted rally theme.

During the worship hour at the Southern Alberta MV Rally in Calgary, MV's were challenged by Elder L. A. Skinner, Associate Secretary in the General Conference Missionary Volunteer Department, to do great exploits for God in this space age. Choosing as his theme, Adventist Youth in the Space Age, Elder Skinner made reference to the accomplishments of the astronauts and added, "Space is limitless." The goal one sets is the limiting factor in great achievement providing he works in co-operation with God in achieving these goals.

Under the direction of Harvey Bechthold, the Senior Youth Division of Calgary conducted the Sabbath School. Dr. Leon Grabow of High River moderated the lesson panel with Lorne Wombold, Olds; Dr. Richard Griswald, Calgary; Mrs. Ed Schultz, Calgary; and Matt Weststrate, Rosebud, panelists. Representative young people in the audience told why they had come to Sabbath School. Dressed in Arabian costume, Jerry Leiske of Rosebud, in an interview with Mrs. Marvin Dick, presented the mission appeal.

During the afternoon, questions were answered by Elder Skinner on Standards and Recreation and by Elder H. J. Campbell, Chairman of the Department of Religion at Canadian Union College, on Adventist Youth and the Spirit of Prophecy.

An evening campfire with Elder Skinner telling of Missionary Volunteering around the world, followed by the use of recreational facilities at Happy Valley terminated the day.

morning message Elder Anderson, Beiseker district pastor, showed the young people the joy to be found in Christian living by following the pattern of Christ's life. He appealed to the young people to be more active in Christian service and to remove from their lives those things that hinder their enjoying the fullness of the Christian life.

Young people's problems as suggested by MV's at the rally were discussed in a panel moderated by Elder E. Hillock, MV Secretary, and composed of Elder R. Spangler, district pastor. Elder A. E. Anderson, Ben Boettcher, Ron Graham, Keith Edgson, Sharon Cliffe, and W. Schram.

First Worship Services In New Grande Prairie Church

Pastor R. Spangler was the speaker during the first worship service held in the new church building in Grande Prairie.

Early in the summer the members of the Peace River district Churches gathered in the new Grande Prairie Church for the first Sabbath School and worship services. The church was filled to overflowing and many were standing in the hall and outside.

Sabbath School was under the able leadership of Mrs. Chris Helgason. Many special songs came from the members and visitors. The children met downstairs under the leadership of Miss Joanne Spangler and Miss Marlene Wageman. The church service was led by Pastor Russell Spangler and a brass trio from Peoria brought the special music.

We are grateful to God for this beautiful house of worship which was built by the pastor and members. It is truly a milestone in the Peace River district.

"Pathfinders, attention!" echoed through the valley at Camp Rundle as Robert Kyte, Kelowna, British Columbia, and Mike Luchak, Canadian Union College gave marching instruction to the Pathfinder leaders from British Columbia and Alberta during the Pathfinder Counsellor Training Course. The club directors could also be heard giving similar directions.

Elder L. A. Skinner, Associate Secretary, General Conference MV Department, led out in the Training Camp, assisted by Elder F. W. Baker, British Columbia MV Secretary, and Elder E. Hillock, Alberta MV Secretary. Topics such as Pathfinder Uniforms, Organization, The Pathfinder and the Leader, and Programming were presented and discussed.

Club directors under the leadership of Elder Skinner actively participated with their compasses in an orienteering session. Bean hole beans were among the delicacies tested during the camp out.

The 70 who completed the course will also have gained new ideas on how to teach nature as a result of the suggestions of Mrs. Kuhn and Mrs. Luchak.

Plans were formulated for a Pathfinder Fair at Kelowna, British Columbia, July 1, 1963.

Quill Lake Holds Harvest Festival

Nine churches were represented by approximately 250 people at the Quill Lake Harvest Festival where Pastor A. W. Kaytor, President of the Manitoba-Saskatchewan Conference was the guest speaker. Pastor Elmer Koronko of Moose Jaw, brought inspiring messages in song at the services throughout the day.

After a tasty dinner served by the ladies of the church, the Missionary Volunteer Society from the Saskatoon Church presented a programme entitled "Thankfulness."

Mr. Douglas Finlayson, Home Missionary leader of the Quill Lake Church, made all the arrangements for the use of the Legion Hall which was appropriately decorated for the occasion under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gardiner.

Fifty-five Dorcas workers from nine societies attended the Central Saskatchewan Federation meeting at Saskatoon Junior Academy, Sunday, October 21.

For a six-month period 120 workers gave 1016 hours of service to 173 persons with a cash value of $3,713.30. Mrs. J. R. Epp of Waldheim reported an increase in most items. Special note was made of an increase in literature distribution which rose from 24 pieces to 564 pieces.

Societies taking part in a panel discussion period concerning topics in the Dorcas-Welfare Manual were: Saskatoon, Macrorie, Fiske, Beaver Creek, North Battleford, Waldheim, Rosthern, Prince Albert, and Quill Lake.

Mr. Clasing, director of the Western Welfare Warehouse at Watsonville, California gave a report of Adventist relief work to disaster victims in the Philippines, Indonesia, and Korea.

To illustrate the principle of giving to all who need regardless of religious profession, he stated that in the recent Philippine flood 80% of those helped were Roman Catholics, 10% non-religious, 5% Protestants of various faiths, and 5% Seventh-day Adventists.

"Federation Uncle John" Hnatyshyn, as the daughter of one of the Dorcas ladies called him, throughout the day gave welcomed ideas as well as leading in the devotional. Relating to the shipping of clothing overseas he explained the difficulties involved in sending parcels through our warehouses in the United States. Until such a time as used clothing can be shipped duty free Elder Hnatyshyn urged the Federation to plan some means of stock-piling of clothing for emergency or disaster relief.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dovich, recently returned from mission work in Honduras visited the Federation. Mr. Dovich reported on the use made of bales of clothing sent to them from the warehouse.

Mrs. Brucks and J. M. Hnatyshyn examine a machete, the versatile instrument carried by practically everyone in the Honduras, while John Dovich, recently returned from that country, cautions them that it is really sharp.

Officers responsible for a successful Federation meeting are: Mrs. William Brucks, president; Mrs. Robert Finlayson of Quill Lake, vice-president; Mrs. J. R. Epp of Waldheim, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. R. J. Geates of North Battleford, assistant secretary-treasurer; and Pastor L. A. Shipowick, advisor.

North Battleford provided the soup for lunch and Prince Albert provided dessert. Saskatoon ladies served as hostesses.

Northeastern Federation Reports

Fifty adults and five children attended the northeastern Dorcas Federation held in the Canora Church on Tuesday, October 23.

There were representatives from Benito, Canora, Fenwood, Inglis, Hudson Bay, Swan River, Yorkton and Winnipegosis. Mrs. Harvey Deer, president of the Federation, was chairman of the meeting.

Mr. H. E. Clasing from the Welfare Service of the General Conference was the guest speaker. He stressed the "Call of Man", to help anyone in need. Pastor J. M. Hnatyshyn took the devotional part of the programme. His talk was based on Luke 10, pointing out how we must hasten to be about our Master's business and not spend precious time only saluting.

Reports were given from various societies present. During the past two quarters the members of these societies gave away 693 articles of clothing; 177 food baskets and spent 368 hours doing health and welfare work. They helped 139 persons, gave away 7 bouquets, and 17 pieces of bedding.

Dinner was served in the basement of the church.

During the afternoon an interesting film was shown of Dr. Albert Schweitzer and his work in Africa. He reached the souls of the natives by healing their bodies.

Mr. Clasing showed slides of the welfare centre in California where there is a processing plant for preparing clothes before shipping them overseas.

A panel discussion was presented by Mr. H. Clasing, Pastor L. A. Shipowick, Pastor Trynchuk and Pastor J. M. Hnatyshyn. The operation and various phases of welfare work were discussed.

MRS. ARTHUR DEER

Winnipeg Federation Reports

The semi-annual Dorcas Federation meeting was held in the Winnipeg German Church with representatives of five churches present.

The various reports were read and interesting stories of our Dorcas work related. The harvest is ripe, the labourers are few. What a challenge is ours, to feed and clothe the needy, and gain access to their homes for Bible study.

Our two guest speakers, Elder Hnatyshyn and Elder Clasing discussed our world-wide welfare work.

Slides on the Welfare Warehouse at Watsonville, California, and an interesting film entitled "Dr. Albert Schweitzer and Africa" were greatly enjoyed by all present.

MRS. PETER HEINRICH

Southern Saskatchewan Federation

The fall meeting of the South Saskatchewan Dorcas Welfare Federation with an attendance of about 50, was held in the Moose Jaw Seventh-day Adventist Church on October 22, under the chairmanship of the president, Mrs. P. Oleksow of Regina.

Elder John Hnatyshyn was in charge of the devotional, emphasizing the thought "Salute no man by the way". The work to be done demands no delay, it should be done with a smile and a Christian handshake.

The reports from the various societies showed that they have continued their good works throughout the summer, some reporting that by helping someone in need it resulted in souls being brought to Christ.

The guest speaker, Mr. H. E. Clasing, in charge of the Church's welfare warehouse in Watsonville, California, gave an informative talk describing the work involved in the sorting and packing of bales of clothing in preparation for shipment to needy areas of the earth. He urged the members to continue their service in the spirit of the Master who went about doing good while on earth.

Elder Hnatyshyn and Brother Clasing together with the Moose Jaw pastor, E. Koronko, appeared on CHAB-TV in an informal programme emphasizing the welfare work done by the church in Canada.

Mrs. Oleksow asked to be relieved of the responsibilities of president, so Mrs. J. Grosnick of Moose Jaw was chosen to fill out the balance of her term.

Elder L. Shipowick, Home Missionary Secretary of Manitoba-Saskatchewan conference conducted a question period and showed a film "Africa and Schweitzer". The members left for their homes feeling better fitted to carry on their responsibilities in their home churches.

Ontario-Quebec Conference

Three Dorcas Federations Assemble for Joint Meeting

At 10 a.m. on November 11, the three Dorcas Federations of the Ontario-Quebec Conference met together for a joint Federation meeting at the College Park Church in Oshawa. A fine representation from each of the Federations was present, although many had to travel a distance of several hundreds of miles.

Elder H. D. Henriksen, our conference president, in his devotional talk, brought to us thoughts on the subject of true love and helpfulness for those who are less fortunate than we are. Sister White tells us that Jesus often deprived Himself of necessary food that He might supply the need of another.

Mrs. J. M. Hnatyshyn, Central Federation President and Dorcas-Welfare Co-ordinator, presided in the chair at the business meeting which followed the devotional period. Elder J. M. Hnatyshyn, Canadian Union Home Missionary Secretary, took as his text Luke 10:4, particularly the latter part of the verse, "and salute no man by the way." Elder Hnatyshyn pointed out that although many people are in need of "saluting" or greeting and visitation, yet precious hours which could be spent in working for the needy should not be given to idle visiting with one another.

This being Remembrance Day, at this point a two-minute period of silence was observed in honour of our war dead.

Elder Soloniuk, conference Dorcas Welfare Director, discussed welfare development throughout the conference. Then he paid tribute to Elder and Mrs. Hnatyshyn who will soon be leaving our field to labour in Michigan. They will be greatly missed by all their friends in this area, as well as by those all across the Dominion who have learned to love them

Mrs. A. B. Ferrier of London, secretary of the Western Federation, presents a cheque of appreciation to Elder and Mrs. J. M. Hnatyshyn, Elder W. G. Soloniuk, Home Missionary Secretary of the Ontario-Quebec Conference, looks on.

Mrs. J. M. Hnatyshyn wishes Mrs. C. R. Neill God's richest blessings in her work as the new Central Federation President. They are accompanied by Mrs. W. G. Soloniuk, Central Federation Secretary, and Elder Hnatyshyn.

Mrs. J. W. Bothe and Mrs. H. D. Henriksen pause a moment at the serving table during the luncheon to flash smiles at the camera.

during their eight and one-half years of ministry in our Union Conference.

Mrs. C. R. Neill was elected to fill the office of Central Federation President which was vacated by Mrs. Hnatyshyn's leaving the conference.

The College Park Church ladies served a delicious luncheon at 12:30, and then followed a very interesting tour of the new Loma Linda Foods plant which is just starting to operate on the OMC campus.

As the Dorcas members left for their homes at 3:00 p.m., many expressed their appreciation for the blessings received from the fellowship with others of like faith and interests at this, another Federation meeting.

London Dorcas Society

(Report presented at the Federation, November 11, 1962)

Gratitude

We would like to thank God for the privilege we had to work for Him during the past months. We thank Him also for the opportunity we have to meet with other societies and be inspired by their zeal. Finally we thank the fine working group of the London Society for supporting our programme with great loyalty.

Programme of the Society

Distances prevent our members from assembling in meetings as they wish.

However each one takes upon himself the task to achieve a considerable amount of labour at home in behalf of the Society. The results of all this labour is finally gathered and enables us to conduct very successful sales and distribution of literature. Our latest "Sale" took place last week, November 6.

Sale

Broadly advertised on Radio and Television as "Seventh-day Adventist Dorcas Sale", last week's event gave us the opportunity to contact very fine people of all walks of life. They come in to look, investigate and buy some of the most attractive quilts, needle work, embroideries and of course baking of various nationalities, displayed by our society. The sale took place in the very heart of the London business section and channelled in more than one "Coffee-breaker". A very distinguished gentleman came in three times to treat his office companions.

At noon about twenty-two delicious vegetarian meals were served at reasonable prices. Very colourful literature was given to each visitor and customer.

With the help of our Dorcas workers, among whom we find some very co-operative gentlemen, $145.00 was added to the London Dorcas fund.

Kendalwood Church Celebrates 50th Anniversary

Union and local Conference officials and other distinguished guests attending the 50th Anniversary of Kendalwood Church. Mayor Christine Thomas is in centre front.

October 13, 1962 was a high day in the history of the Oshawa Kendalwood Church as the members and visiting friends celebrated its 50th anniversary. The church was filled to capacity to hear Pastor W. B. Ochs' inspiring message, "What Do They See In Thine House?" Pastor Ochs is Past Vice-President of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America, and a former member of the Kendalwood Church when he served as our Canadian Union President some years ago.

Mrs. Christine Thomas, Mayor of Oshawa spoke of the fine contribution Adventists have given to make Oshawa a better place in which to live. Pastor J. W. Bothe, President of the Canadian Union Conference, read the scripture reading, and Pastor H. D. Henriksen, President of Ontario-Quebec Conference, welcomed and introduced Pastor Ochs to the congregation. The Oshawa Missionary College choir provided the special music by singing "Choir of Angels Praise Thee" by Bortniansky.

It was in 1912 that our school at Lorne Park, just west of Toronto, was moved to its present site on the Oshawa Missionary College campus. Although regular services were held at the college, some of the members in the downtown Oshawa area decided that a more central meeting place was necessary because of transportation problems. After holding services in various rented halls for several years, this nucleus of believers built a church in 1934 in downtown Oshawa. About three years ago, the minister at that time, Pastor G. E. Anderson, and the first elder, Monte W. Myers, inspired the congregation to arise and build a new church to provide for the growing membership.

This beautiful new church was erected on a two-acre property on Kendalwood Road just west of the city of Oshawa. The total seating capacity is 364, which includes the balcony and choir loft besides the main auditorium. On the lower level are located the four classrooms of the Sabbath School department. At the rear of the basement are kitchen facilities and the Dorcas and Welfare room. Behind and above the rostrum is the baptistry with the pastor's office and the choir room to the sides of the rostrum.

The total cost of the construction of the building thus far is approximately $55,000.00. This figure includes the $9,000.00 paid for the lot. Appraisers from the General Conference in Washington value the church at $90,000.00. As the above figures indicate, a great deal of free labour by the members has gone into the construction of the church. Although the building is not yet quite complete, the members look forward to a day in the near future when this beautiful sanctuary can be dedicated, free of debt, to the honour and glory of God.

Health Clippings

By DR. and MRS. RONALD LAING

A Good Breakfast

Breakfast means break the fast from the 10-15 hour period when you have not partaken of any food. This is the most important meal of the day as "energy must be renewed, nutrients to the body tissues must be replenished, and vitamins and minerals, moisture and bulk must be present for their special functions. Stamina and strength for the hours ahead can be obtained in no other way."—Medical Dept. Gen. Conf. of S.D.A.

If we miss breakfast or just grab a quick snack our body will have to call on the reserves which should be kept in store for emergencies. Without this meal the blood sugar level falls and there may be various symptoms as lessened energy, no pep, a 10 a.m. headache, even dizziness and a lower level of physical and spiritual alertness.

"Various Medical papers have recorded the fact that intellectual and school efficiency are impaired by an inadequate breakfast. Manual efficiency in factory workers likewise is impaired when the breakfast is scanty or absent.—Nutrition for Life, by Lloyd Rosenfold M.D. and Doris Rosenfold, R.N.

The family that starts the day on a poor breakfast has been described as "the irritable and fretful youngster, the inattentive and nervous school child, the peopless and unco-operative teen-ager, the exhausted and nagging housewife, the tired and harrassed husband, and the ill and frail aged person." — Home Nutrition Instructor's Guide.

A better breakfast means better health, let's try to change the above picture.

Our sense of well being, vigour and zest for work seems closely to parallel the blood sugar level of the blood streams. For example a breakfast high in carbohydrate with a hot drink, cream and sugar, toast and jam, etc., will raise the blood sugar level quickly, but it will also fall quickly below the fasting level, and at mid-morning one gets that empty, all gone feeling. However, when one adds protein and vitamins in the form of cooked cereal or a nourishing prepared cereal plus milk instead of the hot drink, the blood sugar will remain above the fasting level till lunch time.

Here is a pattern for a good breakfast which should include one-third of our daily needs.

1. A Citrus fruit—or juice, for vitamin "C". e.g. orange, grapefruit, tomato juice.

2. Cooked cereals—as oatmeal, whole grain cereals, corn meal, natural brown rice, etc. These cereals may be varied by adding raisins or chopped dates.

Prepared cereals—homemade Granola, Ruskets or Muffets and shredded wheat are the best. Most prepared cereals are a poor substitute, nutritionally speaking.

3. A glass of milk—plus milk on the cereal.

4. Whole grain toast—with fortified margarine.

5. Fruit—Try to use as many fresh fruits as possible or dried fruits. e.g. dried peaches are very high in iron, prunes and raisins are also good sources. Dried apricots are rich in calcium, etc.

6. Protein—nuts, plain and toasted (not the salty, oil-sogged nuts), peanut butter or nut crush. For a special treat—Linketts, Vegalinks or breakfast beans.

Old Fashioned Granola

- 2 cups whole wheat flour
- 1/3 cup wheat germ
- 2 1/4 cups quick cooking Oatmeal
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/2 cup desiccated coconut

Blend or mix well in a separate bowl:

- 1/3 cup oil
- 1/4 cup water
- 3 tbsp. honey

Combine all. Work with hands until the mixture is crumbly. You may combine any other grains in these proportions. You do not need to oil the pan. Bake on a jelly roll sheet or a flat pan with a side ledge, at 275° for 1 1/2 hours or until golden. Stir frequently to make sure it all gets toasted well.

Blueberry Toast

- 2 cups frozen blueberries or a 12 oz. package. (don't thaw)
- dash of salt
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 tsp. lemon juice

Bring this mixture to a boil. Add to the blueberries 1/4 cup water and 2 level tbsp. cornstarch mixed well. Stir until thick or boiling, then slow boil or simmer for 5 minutes. Serve on toast.

Fruit Toast

To vary the fruit and toast part of the breakfast for the wintertime, heat a can of fruit with juice and thicken it with a little cornstarch or flour. Serve on toast. Tomatoes may be prepared the same way if your family enjoys them.

British Columbia—

Church School at "Mile Zero"

Dawson Creek (Mile Zero) on the Alaska Highway is to have a new church school. City Mayor Braden said, "May God bless and prosper your work in our city." Left to right — Mr. O. R. Johnson, building contractor, Elder Alex R. Hall, District Director, Mr. Raymond Wegh, colporteur-pastor, Mayor Glen Braden, Mr. B. H. Grant and Mr. W. Oliver.

On Wednesday morning September 3, a ground-breaking ceremony for a new church school took place in Dawson Creek, which is "Mile 0" of the Alaska Highway. Mayor Glen Braden; a reporter from the Star newspaper; Mr. Oliver Johnson, company leader for the Dawson Creek congregation, who is contractor for the building; Mr. William Oliver, church school board chairman; Mr. B. H. Grant, excavator; Elder Alex R. Hall, district pastor from Prince George; and Raymond Wegh, colporteur-pastor were present.

The church school will be located on the corner of 118th Avenue and 9th Street, one block from the highway bringing traffic from the east and south.

Mayor Braden commented on the fine location. After congratulating the Seventh-day Adventist congregation, Mayor Braden remarked, "In this present world where moral decay is so prevalent on every side this is one of the bright lights shining in the great darkness. May this church centre be a source of living waters for the thirsty, old and young, and may God bless and prosper your work in our city."

Pastor Hall followed with an address based on Psalm 127:1 "Man buildeth in vain except the Lord build the house", and portrayed the church's view on separation of church and state.

The first church school was held here four years ago. Mrs. Elmer Littman was the first teacher. Rented quarters have been used from that time until now. Mrs. Raymond Wegh is the present teacher. The new school will also serve for Sabbath services.

The erection of this representative building in the "Mile 0" city of the Alaska Highway will mark a milestone in the hopes and aspirations of the faithful members in Dawson Creek.

Book Display Coming to your Church

Someone has said, "To the making of books there is no end." The greatest heritage of Seventh-day Adventists is the multitude of invaluable publications, which Seventh-day Adventist authors have produced. Children and adults alike are ready to read whatever material happens to be at hand. Herein lies the challenge to all Christians of providing books that will help build strong Christian characters.

Because many church members find it hard to attend camp meeting where they would have the opportunity of becoming acquainted with what is published, the Book and Bible House manager and Publishing Secretary in British Columbia take the books to them during the two months preceding Christmas. They will cover about 7,000 miles and hold 26 meetings and displays. The books will be transported in a suitable utility trailer, just purchased for the purpose, and outfitted with 12 display cabinets. The schedule of appointments is listed below. When Brother White and Elder Suiter are in your area you are urged to make every effort to attend the display and provide your home with the blessings of your greatest heritage.

Christianized Industry

It was a real thrill! A Seventh-day Adventist "choir" creating beautiful music as it worked at sorting apples on an assembly line in a packing plant!

It was Saturday night. We were in the Okanagan Valley, rich with its harvest of apples, peaches, pears, grapes, etc. We had completed the Sabbath's appointments and my husband had been out for an evening appointment, finishing up by visiting an apple packing plant at the invitation of a friend.

Now, at 1:00 a.m. he had come in enthusiastically exclaiming, "Hurry and get your clothes on and I'll run you out. They're packing until 4:00 o'clock." His enthusiastic proposal stirred me into quick action. Never missing an opportunity for a new experience I hastily complied and we were off!

In a few minutes we arrived at the apple-packing plant where the entire crew, with the exception of one, were Adventists.

Why? These people work on the night shift, and instead of working Friday nights they are allowed to work Saturday nights, thus the shifts on Saturday nights are all Adventists. On other nights, of course, there are many other workers as well as Adventists.

As we watched the different operations — unloading immense boxes of apples, washing, grading, packing, and sealing the boxes of rosy fruit, we were impressed with the speed and agility of these Adventist workers. Knowing these very ladies had attended Sabbath School, church, and the afternoon Sabbath School Rally, that very day we asked them, "Don't you get sleepy? What do you do if you get sleepy?" They answered, "We sing," and a little later as we were watching another operation we were thrilled as we heard their voices ringing out in melodious harmony, their busy fingers and minds never slacking their pace.

We were told that in the past the two packing assembly lines had been manned by Adventists on one line, and non-Adventists on the other, and invariably the Adventist line always turned out the larger number of packed boxes. This failure to equal the output of the Adventist line had irked the non-Adventists so that now the packers are rotated every hour. However, the record of output for one night's work is held by an Adventist young lady working there, and has never been broken or surpassed.

We finally pulled ourselves away to our motel and bed, but the thrill of that night shift of all Adventist workers, their happy teamwork together, and especially those melodious and harmonious hymns ringing out in that apple-packing plant remain with me in appreciative memory.

The Doctor Is In No. 6, Medical Series

Note: Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Barber live in Victoria where his office has recently opened in a new building. They both come from England where he received his dental training and she her nurse's training.

Dr. Barber was born in Bournemouth, England, and educated there except for one year at Newbold College. His professional training in dentistry was obtained in Guy's Hospital in London. This is a large institution conducting a dental school and other work. Upon the completion of his professional training he practiced dentistry for one year in the city of London before moving to Canada.

Mrs. Barber is a nurse having obtained her education and nurse's training in the city of London, England, where she was born. She was trained at St. George's hospital in London. She practiced her nursing profession for five years in England before coming to Canada.

Their first work in Canada was in Westview, British Columbia, where for about six months Dr. Barber was employed by the school board of that area to do work for the school children.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Barber have their home in Victoria where Dr. Barber has established his dental office. He and his family are pictured above. Left to right they are: Dr. Barber, Susie, Mrs. Barber, baby Marie, and Daryl.

Dr. Barber now has his office set up in Victoria in a new office building. He is specializing in Oral Surgery. It was explained that in his new office he is equipped to give general anaesthesia. Of course, anything of a major nature will be taken to the hospital to be done.

He will also be catering to those who have difficult problems such as impactions, those who are sick, or for some other reason wouldn't be able to tolerate the strain of having work done without an anaesthetic.

He will also be able to do work for children. Some young children need a great deal of work, but it would be very difficult to get the work done without an anaesthetic. However, with it the work is accomplished within an hour or so, and when the child gets a little older he would have no recollection of a fear-some time with the dentist.

While waiting for his office building to be completed he went to the Yukon where he was serving the community in a small company town. When Dr. Barber arrived in that part of the world he found the temperature 51 degrees below zero, and during one week they had more than three feet of fresh snow.

Some of his work has been carried on in the Stikine River area at a place called Telegraph Creek. On one of his mission trips he went into a remote area where he found the people living in very primitive conditions. He reported that he had one meal in that area in company with three priests, an Anglican pastor and a bishop. The only food available for the meal was moose. We can well imagine that Dr. Barber was happy to get back to Victoria, although it gives him a real feeling of satisfaction to be able to help those who are living in unfortunate circumstances.

Let's Pause for a Breath of Summer Once More

PENTICTON —

The Penticton Kindergarten division of the Vacation Bible School had an enrolment of almost half of the entire school. Here the little ones wave balloons with their memory verses written on them.

The Penticton Vacation Bible School had a total enrolment of 55 with 41 of these from non-Adventist homes. Almost one half of the entire enrolment was in the kindergarten division. It really was a most successful session.

The parents were all amazed at how much was accomplished in so short a time and they expressed their delight with the results.

MRS. A. GILLESPIE
Penticton VBS

KELOWNA —

The Kelowna Vacation Bible School always has a good attendance, and this year was no exception. At the termination of the Vacation Bible School a weekly story hour was started in the church each Sabbath afternoon for the children of the community and church.

The Kelowna Vacation Bible School was attended regularly by about seventy boys and girls, most of whom were from non-Adventist homes.

Following the Vacation Bible School this year a Story Hour was begun in the Kelowna Seventh-day Adventist Church every Sabbath afternoon. We hope the attendance of non-Adventist children increases. Pray for this follow-up work.

WINFIELD —

A successful Vacation Bible School was held in the Winfield Seventh-day Adventist Church this year. About 40 children attended regularly, most of whom were from non-Adventist homes. This was the first VBS conducted by the Winfield Church.

This first Vacation Bible School for the Winfield Church was a greater success than expected. May God bless these boys and girls, and may they continue to learn more about God and lead their parents closer to Him as a result of this missionary endeavour.

MISSION CITY —

The Mission City Vacation Bible School children all enjoyed their crafts, but the most colourful display was that of the puffy-cellophane dogs made by the older children. Here is a line-up of several of the BOW-WOWS with the craft teacher, Mrs. A. N. How.

The Mission City Vacation Bible School had an attendance of 83 with 73 of these being from the homes of friends of the church. There were 82 certificates given out to the children who attended a well prepared Graduation service. Appreciation is expressed to the officers of the British Columbia Conference who permitted employees of the Conference staff to assist in conducting the Vacation Bible School. Mrs. W. E. Kuester was the director of the school.

NEW WESTMINSTER —

Mrs. Lila Paul, of the New Westminster Vacation Bible School reports that "we have three children coming to Sabbath School as a result of Vacation Bible School. I think we will probably have more when we start using the new church, as there are children who live near there."

CHILLIWACK —

There just wasn't room in the Chilliwack Church and school for all the children that came to the Vacation Bible School. Since they knew this would happen, Pastor E. L. Wilson had borrowed a large two-pole tent from the nearby Conference camp grounds. The tent proved an added attraction for the Vacation Bible School.

Chilliwack Vacation Bible School, held under the "Big Top" closed on Thursday, August 27. Director Mrs. E. M. MacLeod says it was the best ever held in Chilliwack. Thirty-eight children of kindergarten age took up all available space in the church basement, forty Juniors, and thirty-four Primaries occupied space in the large tent, loaned by the conference. Crafts were conducted in the school room.

A branch Sabbath School is being planned to follow up the interest developed.

MRS. W. SNOWDEN

LANGLEY —

Mrs. G. W. Curtis, Langleys Vacation Bible School Director, talks to Elder H. W. Beavon, pastor, about the beautiful work being done by two of the Vacation Bible School juniors.

SWAN RIVER —

Forty-four boys and girls enrolled in the Swan River Vacation Bible School under the able leadership of Miss Marian Deer from Canora. The success of the

THE BOB CAT ALSO CAME TO V.B.S. Jim and Duane Martindale brought a real live Bob cat to the Chilliwack VBS pet show. Note the really large paws and the short stub tail. The children's father found two little "kittens" in the woods where they were hungry. This little fellow likes to play, but it is a rough kind of play.

Vacation Bible School surprised all who took part. Many churches were represented by the twenty-nine non-Adventist children in attendance.

A family spirit prevailed when the Vacation Bible School at Glengarry School near Climax, Saskatchewan held their closing programme and picnic. The parents and friends expressed their appreciation for the meetings.

CHRISTIANITY SEES RAPID GROWTH IN KOREA

The Seventh-day Adventist Church reports that in the past five years it has almost doubled its membership in Korea. In 1958 its Korean Union Mission reported 75 churches with a total of 9,000 members. Now the Adventist churches number 156 with 16,673 baptized members and more than 72,000 keeping the Sabbath and looking toward baptism. Much of the work of instructing those desirous of joining the church is being done by laymen, because the missionaries and workers employed by the denomination are unable to keep up with the demand for instruction. The interest evidenced in Christianity, the mission reports, is unprecedented. Church buildings become too small to accommodate congregations almost as soon as they have been completed.

Weddings

GREENTREE-WRANGELL

The College Park Church in Oshawa was the scene of a lovely evening wedding on Sunday, November 4, as Gordon Eric Greentree and Ruth Louise Wrangell exchanged marriage vows at the altar.

The bride was given away by her uncle, Fred Wrangell of Ottawa. Her attendants were Margaret Maracle of Oshawa as matron of honour, Diane Bell, Wendy Mohns, Mrs. Ted Speed of Oshawa, and Marcene Speed of Emmanuel Missionary College, as candle bearers. The flower girl and the Bible boy were Cindy King and Richard Daigle of Oshawa. The groom was attended by his cousin, Wayne Vallieres of Hindsdale, Ill. as best man. The ushers were Nelson and Douglas Greentree, and Eric Wrangell of Oshawa, and Cliff Bell of La Sierra, California. Solos were rendered by Sidsal Norheim who sang "God Has Made Two Hearts As One," and Diane Bell who sang "The Wedding Prayer," the organist being Mrs. Alan Reeves of Oshawa.

Following the wedding service a reception was held at the Sandalwood Restaurant where relatives and guests wished the newlyweds the Lord's richest blessings and guidance. Mr. Fred Bell was Master of Ceremonies, and Wayne Vallieres proposed the toast to the bride. "Salveig's Song" by Grieg, was sung in Norwegian by Sidsal Norheim and dedicated to the bride's Uncle and Aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wrangell. Tony Reeves sang "I'll Walk Beside You," and Diane Bell concluded the reception by singing "A Perfect Day." Mrs. Alan Reeves and Meldra Joy Choban were the pianists.

Mr. and Mrs. Greentree will make their home at Fort Carson, Colorado Springs, Colorado, where Corporal Greentree is serving in the army as a dental technician.

E. E. DUNCAN, Pastor

WESTSTRATE-HEISTEK

Adriana Heistek and Pieter Weststrate were united in marriage on the thirteenth of September in the Central Seventh-day Adventist Church in Calgary. All the attendants were members of the immediate family of the groom. Both bride and groom are formerly of Holland. We wish them God's blessing as they have now established their home in Calgary.

TSCHRIITER-POWERS

Patricia Grace Powers and Orvin Wilbert Tschritter of Calgary, Alberta were united in marriage November 6, 1962 by Elder D. Skoretz. Pauline Jasman was the maid of honour and Ben Jasman served as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Orvin Tschritter plan to make their home in Calgary.

The Calgary Seventh-day Adventist Church is happy to welcome this new Christian home into its membership. We wish them joy, happiness, and eternal life.

MUNROE—Almost a century ago, September 20, 1864, in the Parish of St. Andrew, Manitoba, James Finley Munroe was born. He was a farmer until he retired, going to his rest October 2, 1962. His wife preceded him in death in the year 1939. Surviving him are three daughters: Mrs. Grace Morton, Winnipeg, Manitoba; Mrs. Carrie Carlson, Edmonton, Alberta; Mrs. Tolcey Ryan, Vancouver, B.C.; and four sons: Ross and John, Winnipeg; Fred, Vancouver; Rodney, Edmonton; and many grandchildren, great- and great-great-grandchildren.

For many years Brother Munroe was a member of the Winnipeg Young Street Seventh-day Adventist Church. He was a very pleasant, Bible-loving Christian. His final earthly resting place is St. Andrew's Cemetery, Lockport, Manitoba. The memorial service was conducted by Brother Ronald Myers and the writer.

GLADWIN—Mrs. Elizabeth Gladwin was born 69 years ago in Newcastle, England, and died October 25, 1962 in Dartmouth, N.S. She came to Canada at the age of seventeen, spending the remainder of her life in Dartmouth. Twenty years ago she accepted the Seventh-day Adventist faith and has been a consecrated member of the church ever since. Her quiet yet faithful life and consistent Christian witness have been a blessing in the church and community.

Mourning their loss are her two sons, Gerald and Wynyard, of Dartmouth; two brothers, David in England and Robert in Dartmouth; one sister, Mrs. M. Jones of New Zealand, and three grandchildren.

The members of the Dartmouth Seventh-day Adventist Church join these in sympathy over the loss of a beloved sister. Funeral service was conducted by her minister, Pastor Fred J. Crump, and Sister Gladwin awaits the call of the Lifegiver in the Dartmouth Memorial Gardens.

What Time Is It?

1st: It's time for giving — for at the Christmas season we plan our gifts to loved ones and friends.

2nd: It's time for our colleges to spend more money (than they have) to expand over-taxed facilities to meet the demands of increasing enrolments! And according to latest statistics on Canadian growth, we can expect this trend to go on.

Both OMC and CUC have broken registration records this year, and both schools continue to strain every capacity to give the best in Christian education to your sons and daughters.

3rd: It's time for asking: WHAT GREATER GIFT than the gift of Christian education to the youth of the Canadian Union?

There are many needs—besides the projects already planned within the allowable budgets by the boards and administrations of the respective colleges. It is to these extra needs we invite your consideration.

To you who are alumni, or former students, or friends of CUC or OMC — we invite you to include some of our needs on your Christmas "shopping list".

Write to the college of your choice (some may feel impressed to give to both). Learn of these extra needs, and make your gift to Canadian Christian education.
