Branson Hospital School of Nursing Third Graduation Exercises

JUNE MOYST, Instructor, School of Nursing

The third graduation exercises of the Branson School of Nursing took place September 11, 12, 13, when twenty-one nurses received their diplomas and pins.

Elder P. W. Manuel, President, Kingsway College, as Programme Chairman, opened the week end events with the Consecration Service on Friday evening. The Motto of the class was "Living for Others", and the aim was "To Finish the Task". H. Ward Hill, Pastor of the Willowdale Church, delivered the address. His central theme concerned habits which pattern our lives like a tapestry in which the Christian thread runs through the weaving and the Master artist is Christ, if we let Him take over. Miss Shirley Manchur, the class pastorette, responded, and the graduating class sang their hymn of dedication "I Would Be True".

The members of the graduating class were in charge of the Sabbath School programme. Dr. E. A. Crawford conducted the lesson study. The Baccalaureate Service, with Pastor Hill in charge, followed the Sabbath School programme. Elder Lowell L. Bock, President, Ontario-Quebec Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, as guest speaker, spoke on the role of the nurse in this materialistic age; this age of chaos, of headaches and tensions, tranquilizers and analgesics. The world seems to have a need to be excited or thrilled through uninhibited self-expression. We need to change anger into hard work; to change fear of old age and death into a feeling of responsibility, to change fear of war into ways of peace, fear of hurting others into kindness, fear of ignorance into efforts toward education. He emphasized that our success or influence depends upon tolerance and insight; we need to remove the block of misunderstanding. We are "Not what we say but what we are", (Desire of Ages, page 142). Character includes reliability. A man is only as good as his actual performance proves that he is. He directed this question to the group "What are you going to do about the profession which you now have?"

The climax came with Commencement Service which was held at 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon in the Northview Heights Collegiate Auditorium. Undergraduates formed a colourful guard of honour as the graduates in white uniforms and carrying Red Rose bouquets, marched to the strains of Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance." Dr. Richard Hammill, President of Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Michigan, gave the address. Dr. Hammill challenged the graduates to become learners rather than graduates who are "stillborn". A profession is that which is pursued for others and not for oneself. It's not what a person obtains from his profession but rather what he can contribute to the profession. Often we want to pass responsibility on; endurance is the prime characteristic of those who would do their work for the Master. Over dependency on science and material things of life may create a robot rather than a rich personality. A hand that is separated from the body can no longer function as a hand.

The presentation of the diplomas was made by Miss Geneva Bowman, Director of the School of Nursing, while Mrs. Florence Dunbar-Vella, instructor in the cation was presented to Miss Inge Ganz by Elder J. W. Bothe, Chairman of the Kingsway Publishing Association. Other prizes were as follows:

1. Professional Development — Mr. Rudolph Reinhardt, Miss Muriel Crawford.

2. General Clinical Proficiency — Miss Nancy Fehdrau.

3. Proficiency in Mother and Infant Nursing — Miss Eileen Perepelitza.

4. Proficiency in Medical-Surgical Nursing — Miss Inge Ganz.

5. Proficiency in Operating Room Nursing — Miss Joyce Haggkvist.

6. Co-curricular Activities leadership — Miss Alice Deer.

7. Citizenship — Miss Sharon Brown.

Appreciation was expressed by the valedictorian, Miss Sager, to all who shared in the preparation of the class for their professional service, as she reviewed the highlights of the three years they had shared together.

This brings to forty-seven the number of graduates from the School of Nursing; Mr. Rudolph Reinhardt gaining the distinction of being the first male graduate. Ten of these will remain on the Hospital Staff while the remainder leave to do service in other areas.

Elder Bock paid special tribute to Miss Geneva Bowman, who has been Director of the School of Nursing since its beginning. She has spent the past five years in organizing and preparing for the school, guiding in its growth and presiding over three graduating classes. Miss Bowman was presented with a movie entitled "This Is Your Life", which was especially prepared to depict scenes of her career life. Mr. A. George Rodgers, Administrator of North York Branson Hospital, presented her with a Chevron 8 Kodak Movie projector on behalf of the Administration and Hospital Medical Staff.

2,000 Baptisms

We rejoice and praise God for the wonderful way His blessings are resting upon Missionary Volunteers in their programme of MV TARGET 3000. Reports indicate that we have now passed the two-thirds mark with more than 2,000 baptisms from our evangelistic projects.

Victory is now in sight. We are certain to reach the 3,000 mark with the help of pastors and the backing of parents in our effort to commit every youth to some type of youth evangelism this year.

Tens of thousands of our youth are now engaged in Voice of Youth, Operation Fireside, Friendship Teams, or MV Branch Sabbath Schools. At times we are tempted to rest in such achievements until we take a closer look and discover that there are still hundreds of churches in the North American Division that have not yet shared in the blessings of this programme.

We should ever keep in mind that the results of this youth evangelism are twofold—to win some 3,000 souls to the Lord this year and to save our own youth. We see so many young people perishing right within our own church for the lack of participating with Christ in soul-winning. It is a fact that we must share or perish. This is the urgency for harnessing every youth within the church into a year-round programme of sharing his faith with others.

Young people, let your conference leadership get you started at once in a Voice of Youth, Operation Fireside, Friendship Teams, or an MV Branch Sabbath School. Let's save our youth in a programme that will also finish the work.

Review and Herald Special

The November 12 issue of the REVIEW will be a special issue, in that it will devote a number of pages:

1. To those who have been Adventists and have fallen away, and to non-Adventists who are well acquainted with our doctrines but who have failed to join us. What a great company! An article by H. M. S. Richards will appeal to all these to be baptized without delay. There will also be an article showing the great and rapid growth of the Movement over a century.

2. To the whole SDA membership to make all things right with God and man before the year ends. This includes an appeal to remove all misunderstandings with other members. Also, to be sure that delinquent tithe and pledges are squared up before the year ends. There will also be the first of a series on tithing.

Of course, there will also be a number of pages devoted to the regular depart-

We believe that each church will wish to order enough copies so every non-subscribing Adventist may receive one. Second, to order enough to send a copy to each one who has apostatized, and to those non-Adventists who know our truth well but are yet undecided. The names of such people can be obtained by asking the members to bring in all the names they can, plus names that the church clerk may have.

Radio-Television Breakthroughs

Breakthroughs for radio-television in North America's Evangelistic Advance were reported early in September at the annual Advisory Council of the Radio-TV Department of the General Conference, held this year at Voice of Prophecy headquarters.

Unprecedented use of mass audio and visual media was reflected in the report that before the end of the year, upwards of 50 radio stations in the United States and Canada will be using the Voice of Prophecy Daily Broadcast series. Faith for Today also reported a new high in stations using the television series on a public service basis.

Representing D. L. Michael of the Canadian Union Conference at the four-day meeting in Glendale, California was

W. G. Soloniuk, Secretary of the Home Missionary and Sabbath School Department. About forty persons from the various organizations attended the annual planning session of the denomination's radio and television work.

Expanded use of the 30-minute Daily Voice of Prophecy Broadcasts, and a carefully planned follow-up programme for both television and radio evangelistic programmes are vital ingredients of a North American evangelistic thrust in the next year, according to actions voted by the Council. Implementing these plans will be representatives of the Voice of Prophecy and Faith for Today programmes in the ten unions of the North American Division.

Other actions of the council included initial plans for a new departmental film and ever wider use of "The Word Is in the Air" film; plans for record-breaking offerings for Voice of Prophecy in 1964 and Faith for Today in 1965, and a stepped-up plan of securing more enrolments for Bible school courses.

Directing the Council programme were Elmer R. Walde and J. O. Iversen, Secretary and Associate Secretary of the Radio-TV Department; and I. E. Gillis, General manager of the Voice of Prophecy, who arranged local details in connection with the Council. Speakers included Elders H. M. S. Richards, W. A. Fagal, R. A. Anderson, H. D. Singleton, J. E. Edwards, G. R. Nash, R. R. Bietz, F. R. Millard; C. R. Anderson, MD, and W. E. Phillips.

The Message of Galatians

Paul in his writings to the church at Galatia gave much counsel that is applicable to the church today. The purpose of this new, well-written volume is to help make plain some of the difficult-to-understand passages of Paul's letters. It seems opportune that Pastor Mizher's book makes its appearance just in time for those who will wish a deeper understanding of the fourth-quarter Sabbath School lessons on Galatians. The price is only $2.00. Hardbound, with gold-stamped cover.

We fume and we spurt,
We mumble and we grumble,

Our vision grows dim,

Opportunities for Advance

In the space age the most modern means of communications must be available to the Church for the proclamation of its timeless message. While it is true that the essential content of the Gospel does not change, no one will deny that its presentation and application will often vary in keeping with a changing world and the shifting tactics of the great Adversary of men's souls. No less must the techniques and methods of proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ be varied consistent with new means of more effectively reaching the minds of men and women.

For many years the VOICE OF PROPHECY has been the outstanding example of the utilization of radio as a mass media of communications by the Church. For many years the number of station outlets carrying the weekly broadcast has not changed very much. But, the great need of the world, the growing numbers of people in need of a knowledge of the Gospel have not grown less.

It means that if Seventh-day Adventists are to reach those who need to hear the message the Church has to give to the world it must rapidly and extensively enlarge its radio voice. It has been suggested that this year it is time we doubled our efforts in order to double our advance. That means instead of providing the VOICE OF PROPHECY with almost $200,000. as was done by Seventh-day Adventists throughout Canada and the United States last year we must raise our sights toward a figure like $400,000.

In simple terms it means that this pioneer evangelistic thrust of the air waves sponsored by the Church is ready to double its efforts to extend the outreach of Seventh-day Adventists. In turn this means that all of us, yes, every one of us, must double our support of the VOICE OF PROPHECY.

Sabbath, October 10 is Thanksgiving Sabbath in Canada, how fitting to express gratitude to Almighty God for His blessings by giving a large, double any previous gift, and generous offering from a grateful heart, to the VOICE OF PROPHECY.

Community Outreach

Once again Seventh-day Adventist congregations throughout Canada and the United States will be marking the importance of their community witness in special services on Sabbath, October 17. Here in Canada the day is observed as

"Communications Day" in all our churches.

Upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee delegates to the quadrennial union session in Edmonton in 1959 voted to designate this Sabbath in the church calendar of special days as one calling for special observance. The dual purpose is to pay tribute to those many friends in the communications industry whose helpfulness and co-operation has enabled the Church to proclaim its unique message, as well as to stress the need of improving and enlarging the extent of the witness of the Church in the community by each individual member.

Many churches have invited some outstanding radio or newspaper personality as their special guest on this Sabbath. In other churches a special sermon is presented stressing the fact that in accordance with the divine instruction given to the early Christian church to begin at Jerusalem with its proclamation of the Gospel Christians must accept their responsibility to bear an effective witness to their faith in their own communities and neighbourhoods.

Another feature of this observance which has developed and which is entirely consistent with its essentially evangelistic purpose is the way in which many church members use this occasion to invite some friend or neighbour or some community leader as their guest at church on this particular Sabbath.

Whatever the exact form of the observance we believe that this special day in the Church's calendar of special days can fill a unique role in reminding every member of his responsibility, his personal responsibility for the widest possible community witness to his faith and of the assistance that many of our friends outside the Church render in enabling us to magnify the voice of the church in the community.

It is to be hoped that a prayerful and thoughtful observance of this Sabbath will help each church member to provide the answer to our Lord's affirmation in his great intercessory prayer that "I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. . . . that the world may believe that thou hast sent me."—John 17:15 and part of 21.

International Religious Liberty Secretary-General

Once again through the kindness of the General Conference Dr. Jean G. Nussbaum, M.D. secretary-general of the International Religious Liberty Association with headquarters in Paris, France, visited Canada making contacts with highly placed government and church dignitaries in Quebec City, Montreal and Ottawa. Dr. Nussbaum was also the guest preacher in Adventist Churches in Montreal and Oshawa.

Literature Evangelist Experiences

The Lord has many ways to bring His children into the fold. Sometimes it may be through the sale of a large set of our truth-filled books. It may be by means of the radio or again by our good programmes on television. Then we think of large evangelistic public meetings and of the born-again, Christ-centered life and religion of the child of God. Last but not least is the Bible Correspondence Course.

About eight years ago I had called on a family and enrolled the mother in the Bible course. Then visits were begun by Elder Trynychuk and others. This family are now baptized members of the church.

Surely there will be rejoicing in heaven when we meet with the ones for whom we have laboured. Let us enrol more souls in the various Bible courses.

I called on a home and canvassed them for Modern Ways to Health and as I was canvassing, I observed on a shelf a well-worn Golden Treasury of Bible Stories. The people said that it was the most used book in their home. The husband has read it through several times and the wife has read it through as well as reading it to the children. They said that the children prefer it above comic books or any other literature. Though they did not buy the Modern Ways that evening they asked me to call back later on as they want to get it.

Brother Del Sudds, Publishing Secretary of the Alberta Conference.

God wonderfully blessed Brother Del Sudds with a delivery of more than $2,200.00 worth of Gospel literature. This happened in only three and one-half days during Big Week. Over one-third of this amount was in cash. He was working in Hay River, North West Territories. Brother Sudds is Publishing Secretary in the Alberta Conference.

I called on a man that had the Bible Story for some months. He told me how much he enjoyed them and how many things he had learned from them. He is willing to learn more from the Bible. I was happy to enrol him in the Voice of Prophecy Bible course. I will turn his name over to the pastor in the district. He seems so sincere. I hope the Bible course will help him to see the true light.

G. RICHT

In answer to a letter requesting further information on the volumes Triumph of God's Love and Bible Readings for the Home, I called on a gentleman of Presbyterian background. He had seen these books advertised on the back of our periodical These Times which he had read while a patient in Branson Hospital. He had nothing but high praise for the attention he received in our hospital and particularly for Mrs. Buxton, M.D., his attending physician, and Pastor A. Blair, the former hospital chaplain, through whom he was enrolled and is presently taking our Faith Bible Correspondence Course. He also expressed his appreciation for the church services broadcast from the Willowdale Church to the hospital wards.

After he had written a cheque for both volumes with one year's subscription to the Life and Health magazine, I had prayer with him and his daughter. I have since contacted Pastor Hill who promises to call on him soon.

I called on a lady this week who had sent in a card. Right away she wanted to know if the books were S.D.A. I told her they were, then she told me about living in Oshawa across the road from Elder Soloniuk and how kind he and his wife were and how the children enjoyed Vacation Bible School there. I am sure this lady would not have purchased the whole set had it not been for the Christian witnessing of our good brother.

Could a Seventh-day Adventist Become Drunk?

F. B. WELLS, Temperance Secretary, Canadian Union Conference

Yes, a Seventh-day Adventist could most assuredly become drunk and yet not touch a drop of beer, whiskey, or any other beverage containing alcohol! How is such a thing possible? It is very simple — by making the stomach a distillery. After all, there are degrees of intoxication and not all who are regular drinkers become drunk, but they do become intoxicated.

How can one then cause the stomach to become a distillery? By overeating. Let us illustrate: one of our good brethren (or sisters) has worked hard all day and then at night comes home and eats a heavy meal, possibly a dinner. After that, our friend eases into a nice, soft chair to quietly read the paper or perhaps listen to the radio. While in this wonderful position of relaxation, our friend casually reaches into a box of rich chocolates on a nearby end table. Before too long a time, the person has a comfortable as well as full feeling in the stomach and very soon discovers he is not quite as alert as before the evening meal. Ah, yes, there is more food in the stomach than can possibly be digested and so with the help of all the sugars from the chocolates, etc., a perfect situation is set up for decay or fermentation. Sister White states,

"Intemperance embraces much. With some it consists of eating too largely of food which, if taken in proper quantities, would not be objectionable. All that is taken into the stomach above the actual need of the system becomes a dangerous element. It decays in the stomach, and causes dyspepsia . . . One who indulges freely in eating, who overloads the digestive organs until they are unable properly to care for the food eaten, is also an intemperate man, and he will find it impossible to discern clearly spiritual things."—Temperance, p. 162

Yes, friends, the book Temperance has many surprises for the reader. We discover in this important treatise many, many ways in which God's people have violated the laws of health almost as much as the drinking man or woman. "Temperance" takes on an entirely different meaning when one studies the counsel as given by His servant in this book.

Once again, we come to you for a liberal offering to further the good work of temperance education both inside as well as outside the Church. October 24th has been set aside as a day for this purpose. As we think of temperance and this important offering, we want also to think of "temperance" in its broader interpretation as it applies to each of us, children of God preparing for translation.

Alberta Workers' Annual Retreat to Camp At Canmore

The Alberta Conference Ministers, together with the members of the Medical, Dental, and Optometric Association, gathered for the Annual Retreat at the Camp at Canmore where instruction was given by Pastor Paul C. Heubach of the Department of Religion, Loma Linda University, on "The How Of Working Together For The Salvation of Mankind." "Leadership Training" was given by Mr. George Wallace of the Carnegie Institute. The Ministers were able to get together to lay Evangelistic Plans for the coming year. We trust that this meeting will bear fruit in a strong Soul-winning programme in the days ahead.

Pastor Heubach's Message

Pastor Paul C. Heubach answers the question: "Is My Redemption Sure?" "Yes", he says. "It is in Christ". "When Christ took human nature upon Him, He bound humanity to himself by a tie of love that can never be broken by any power save the choice of man himself." —Steps to Christ p. 72.

If we are lost it is because we choose to be lost. Christ isn't saying, "Come up if you can make it." Christ says, "I'll come down and we will walk up together." That's fellowship and that is the Laodicean message. "We will sup together." Paul caught the message. He did not say, "I am persuaded that I have all the answers." He said, "I know whom I have believed." His faith was in a person who had helped him.

Change in Association Name . . .

The delegates for the B.C. Association of Seventh-day Adventists convened at the Hope Camp meeting to consider the changes necessary in the name of the Association. To meet the requirements of the Society Act of British Columbia, it needed to be named as a corporation with provision in the by-law for an annual meeting of the membership. The new name to meet the requirements is, "The British Columbia Corporation of the Seventh-day Adventist Church." The word church was added to identify the corporation as the legal body of a church. The word "corporation" had to be substituted for the word "association" to meet the requirements. The membership of the corporation was reduced so that an annual meeting is possible. The policies of the corporation will, as formerly, be established and controlled by the Conference through delegates at the biennial session of the Conference.

Dr. Walden . . .

"Adventists have preached a health message for 100 years. Does it Pay?"

Dr. R. T. Walden from Loma Linda University told the audience of the many experiments conducted to find out how the health of Seventh-day Adventists compared with non-Adventists. These tests were interesting and proved that it pays to have a health message and to live by it. It was shown that Adventists have much less lung cancer and other diseases, and get heart trouble eight to twelve years later than others.

Dr. Walden said that there are three factors contributing to heart trouble about which we can do nothing. They are heredity, sex, and age. There are four that we can control: diet, exercise, stress, smoking.

In regard to diet, Dr. Walden said that a vegetarian diet is best, and fat intake should be relatively small. The use of oils is better than saturated and hard fats. Coconut oil is an exception as it is a saturated oil. Corn and safflower oils are good. Animal fats and fats from animal products are bad. Eat only as much as you need, said the doctor.

Exercise is very important. It stimulates good circulation and uses up some of the extra calories, and keeps the muscles in tone.

Stress should not be a troublesome area to Adventists, the doctor said. We have the answer in Matthew 11:28, 29. Jesus will give rest, mentally, spiritually, and above all emotionally. Emotional disturbances are hard on the heart. And smoking, of course is no problem to Adventists.

From this it can readily be seen why Adventists get heart disease later in life than others. We should thank God for this health message, the doctor said.

Dr. Walden, on another day, related the experience of his conversion and contact with the Adventist Church. He came into contact with an Adventist medical doctor while he was a practising veterinarian. Later, in the army, he came into contact with Adventists everywhere he went until he was baptized in China. He concluded by saying that God is extremely interested in each one of us.

British Columbia Camp Me

Elder T. A. Davis, Editor of the Philippine Publishing House, Manila, and his family appeared in costume to give the mission story for the last Sabbath of camp meeting.

Mrs. Malcolm Graham tells a story in her attractively decorated camp meeting Kindergarten department. All three children's departments were attractive and well operated. Mrs. A. Spent of Williams Lake was the Cradle Roll Department leader and J. B. Curtis had the Primary Department.

Mrs. B. J. Best, fourth from right, director of the Vancouver Health and Welfare Centre, had 38 of the church members trained in the operation of the Government Emergency Welfare Mass Feeding Unit. They were of much assistance in staging the demonstration. At right is A. G. Gilmore, Supervisor of the British Columbia Government Emergency Welfare Services.

Retirement Home . . .

Elder L. H. Davies, Secretary-treasurer of the B.C. Conference, announced at the camp meeting that the Conference is planning to build a retirement home in the city of Kelowna, B.C. This project will accommodate 144 persons.

The ladies examine some of the medical equipment in the Civil Defence Mobile Disaster Unit. Left to right: Mrs. B. J. Best, Mrs. Gladys Mason, and Mrs. V. Southwell.

The cost of this project, said Elder Davies, will be between $800,000 and $850,000. He also said that as soon as the members in the conference raise $85,000, that is 10% of the whole, the rest of the money will be in hand to build the home.

This home will contain one-bedroom units, bachelor units with bed-living room accommodation, a central lodge with dining facilities. It will have a lounge, beauty salon, etc. It will be one of the most modern in Canada.

The Conference has an option on something over seven acres in the city limits of Kelowna. This is fine level property in a good location. Bus service down town will also be provided.

Civil Defence . . .

A. G. Gilmore, Provincial Emergency Welfare Officer from Victoria; Charlie Burr, Provincial Supplies Officer from Victoria; and the Civil Defence Co-ordinator for the Fraser Valley area, Arthur Fraser, were at the Annual Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church demonstrating mobile feeding and health units. They fed about 1100 people with sandwiches and hot drinks.

Mr. Gilmore said that this mobile feeding unit was capable of serving up to 400 meals per hour of one dish of stew and a hot drink. They carry enough rations to make up 500 8 oz. servings of stew. Besides a fully equipped kitchen with all necessary utensils, they carry water to serve 1,000 cups of hot drink, and milk for infants and the drink. They carry 5,000 paper plates, 7,000 plastic disposable cups, 10,000 spoons, 100 blankets, 2 large tents, 16 x 24 feet for infants and special cases. This unit is equipped for quick feeding in case of emergency, and could within minutes be serving hot drinks. The unit is equipped with a large propane range, as well as a propane hotwater heater, steam table, and lights. At full capacity the propane supply is good for 1½ days.

The province expects to have six of these units ready for use by the end of the summer, stated Mr. Gilmore. They have four now.

Mr. Burr explained the operation of the Health Disaster Unit. This mobile clinic can travel 550 miles without having to refuel. They carry a generator to operate flood lights to light the immediate vicinity and light up the van itself for emergency medical services.

This unit is equipped with a water suction pump with which they can pump water from a stream, spring, or other water supply. This mobile clinic carries 12 stretchers fastened to the sides of the van and in emergencies can accommodate 16 stretcher cases. It is equipped with oxygen tanks, surgical equipment, sterilizer, obstetric equipment, dextran for intravenous feeding, and a two-way radio yet to be installed. They can perform considerable surgery with the equipment on hand, and treat burns, fractures, and other injuries.

The unit displayed at the Adventist camp on Sunday, is to work with advanced treatment centres in severe cases. The advanced treatment centres are set up in schools and can care for 500 casualties. This mobile clinic goes to help set these up. Also provisions are made to set up emergency 200-bed hospitals in schools. The plan, said Mr. Burr, is to stockpile 1½ million dollars worth of supplies in the province.

Evangelist Lacy Series Vancouver, B.C.

G. O. ADAMS, President, British Columbia Conference

On Sunday night, October 18, in the Queen Elizabeth Theatre, Georgia Avenue, downtown Vancouver, Evangelist Kenneth Lacey will open his first series of public meetings under the general title WAY OF LIFE EVANGELISTIC CRUSADE with a stirring presentation of the universal question IS THERE LIFE BEYOND THE TOMB? This meeting will start a continuous evangelistic programme covering the next many months.

Following the opening meeting in the Queen Elizabeth Theatre services will be conducted in the Cambie Auditorium, 635 West Broadway, Vancouver. In addition, various parts of the evangelistic programme will be held in our two representative churches recently constructed in the Metro area, namely VANCOUVER CENTRAL, Baille Street at West 37th Avenue, and WESTMINSTER, located on 10th Avenue at 6th Street in New Westminster. These attractive and adequate churches will add much to the success of the series.

Evangelist Lacey comes to us with a wide and successful experience in city evangelism, having laboured in such centres as Glasgow, London and Birmingham. Under the continued blessing of the Lord we are working and praying for a large harvest of souls in British Columbia. For the Vancouver campaign Elder Lacey will be supported by the following team: W. R. Archbold, Pastor, Vancouver Central Church; H. E. Reimche, Pastor, Westminster Church; ministerial interns Robert Tetz and Harry White; Mrs. Gladys Mason, Bible Instructor, and a large host of other church members dedicated to the extension of the gospel of Christ.

If you have relatives or friends living in the Metro Vancouver area please be sure to let them know about this evangelistic series. If you wish for us to send announcements to these dear ones kindly let us have the information right away. As these Christ-centered meetings begin October 18 in the Queen Elizabeth Theatre, let us pray that hundreds of souls make their decision for our blessed Lord and His saving Gospel.

Okanagan Sportsmanship Award

Sportsmanship awards were made to Bill Harasin and Sylvia Madarash at a track meet in which students from Okanagan Academy and Grandview Junior Academy participated. The meet was held in the Kelowna City park.

These two awards were not for the meet, but for sportsmanship during the year at Okanagan Academy. These were chosen by a committee of students and one teacher. They were based on general co-operation, attitude, ability and all-round sportsmanship. Also, the awards were to be presented to students who would be good representatives of the standards of Okanagan Academy. These were not awarded to those who may be proud of their achievements, but who are humble and willing to serve God and man.

Grandview Junior Academy received the most number of points at the meet for the day. Okanagan Academy won the ball game.

A delicious supper was served after the meet. This association of the two student bodies was enjoyed by all, and profitable to the building of Christian character. The good spirit among the students was evidence of the value of Christian Education. May God bless these students in all of their endeavours to serve their fellowmen in the work of God.

Six Nations Church Expands

The Six Nations Church members are busy building an addition to their church, reports Elder R. A. Matthews, Ontario-Quebec Conference Church Development Secretary. Each church member is co-operating in a special way, particularly those who have been coming out from time to time to work at the church.

May God continue to bless the members of the Six Nations Church as they worship together, work together, and look forward to the soon coming of Jesus.

William Johnson, was baptized approximately two years ago, is busy with James Newman putting white tile on the wall of the new addition.

Left to right: Margaret Newman, the church clerk and also the Junior Sabbath School teacher, is busy painting the window jams with Ilene Johnson who was baptized only two years ago and is now the Assistant Sabbath School Secretary.

Randy Johnson, three years old and the youngest member on the construction crew is holding a board while Ambrose Herkimer uses the saw skillfully. Brother Herkimer is eighty years old, and is the head deacon. He amazes everyone as he joins in and helps.

George Martni, one of the deacons, is well capable as a carpenter to perform various duties. In the picture he is seen putting in the door jams.

Haileybury VBS

A group picture of the VBS students and teachers.

Another successful Vacation Bible School was conducted at Haileybury again this year with more than forty students being enrolled, according to a report by the pastor, W. M. Mercer. In all, six denominations were represented at the school: Roman Catholic, United Church, Anglican, Salvation Army, Pentecostal, and Seventh-day Adventist, with about 70% of total enrolment non-Adventist.

One mother, a Roman Catholic, stated, "You folk have done more for my girl than anyone else including our own church; in fact I sometimes thought that I wouldn't mind seeing her become a Seventh-day Adventist." This family lives next door to our church! !

This year the pastor conducted a two-week evangelistic series of meetings in conjunction with the VBS programme; at least six of the juniors attended all but one or two of the 15 meetings with several of them indicating very definitely their belief in what was preached including the Sabbath truth. All the juniors are being enrolled in the Voice of Prophecy junior correspondence course.

Windsor Mourns the Passing of a Charter Member

Members of the Windsor Seventh-day Adventist Church learned with regret of the passing on August 30, of Mrs. Frances Leatherdale, one of its charter members.

Concerned for the advancement of the cause in Windsor in 1912, she prevailed upon Colporteur Countryman of the old Trumbull Avenue Church in Detroit, which she also attended, to spend one day in each week in Windsor, selling The Coming King.

By the time Elder Matthew Allen arrived in Windsor, there were already twelve believers in the city. After a short intensive effort, eight others joined the Remnant Church and on October 21, 1916, A. V. Olson organized the Windsor Church, an event in which Mrs. Leatherdale happily participated.

Born in Chatham, Ontario, on April 7, 1877, she first learned of Adventists there for her mother and brother were charter members of the Chatham Church.

Baptism at Hamilton

Sabbath, September 19, a baptismal service was conducted in the Hamilton Seventh-day Adventist Church. Nine precious souls were baptized, and four more joined the church by profession of faith.

Derrel Allen James, Sherolyn Greta Valerie James, Mr. D. Corbett and Mrs. D. Corbett joined the Kitchener Church, while Mr. Wm. Pope, Mrs. Marie Radia, Mrs. Mary Reid, Mrs. Leslie Kupi, Jr., Mr. Donald Poplawski, Mrs. Anne Duschene, Mr. Bryan Sharp, Miss Christine Bostad, and Miss Joyce Lyle joined the Hamilton Church.

Pastor J. M. Howard of Hamilton officiated at the service, and in his stirring sermon, gave steps prior to baptism: we must be taught, or discover the truth, we must believe the truth, we must repent of our sins, and confess our sins. Death to sin must prevail before we can rise to a new life with Christ.

Of particular interest to Adventist believers everywhere is Sister Reid who first heard of this message by reading a book left in a doctor's office. After this, about three years ago, one of our colporteurs, Brother Walter Kory, contacted her and she bought The Bible Story set and Triumph of God's Love. She also attended the Vandeman meetings in Hamilton. Following this she bought a set of four books, Footprints of Jesus, and finally, after studies by Pastor Howard, she was baptized. Sister Reid's ancestors have for many years followed all the light that has been granted them. In the early 1700's

Mrs. Mary Reid, being baptized by Elder J. M. Howard, as a result of her long quest for truth.

Walter Kory, now taking the ministerial course at Kingsway College, was instrumental in placing many truth-filled books in Mrs. Reid's home.

her ancestors were Covenanters in Scotland, and two of them, Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, were burned at the stake, while their son had both his hands cut off. Now, we welcome Sister Reid to the glorious fellowship of this Third Angel's Message.

JOHNSTON NEITHERCUT MEMORIAL FUND

The relatives and friends of the late Johnston C. Neithercut are desirous of establishing a Memorial Fund for worthy students at Canadian Union College. A sum of $2,000 has already been promised for this worthy cause.

Donations to this Memorial Fund may be sent to the Canadian Union Conference, 1148 King Street East, Oshawa, Ontario, Canada.

Johnston Neithercut gave thirty-eight years of faithful, devoted service to God and the work of the church. His kind, sympathetic interest in people made many friends for him. Conference workers, church officers, and many others were encouraged and heartened by his attention to their needs. He had a real interest in young people. It would be his wish that young people might be helped by such a memorial fund.

It is our hope that the many friends of his may be glad to contribute toward this fund.

L. E. DASHER

RIESEBERG—Henry Rieseberg was born in Washington, D.C., September 12, 1927, and passed away suddenly after a brief illness, August 14, 1964, at the age of 37. Henry graduated from Union College, Lincoln Nebraska, in 1948, taught school for a year, then served two years in the army. He graduated from Wall Walla in 1954 with a masters degree in education. Marilyn Johnson also graduated that year and in the fall they joined hand and heart in service to God. He graduated from the Seminary in 1955 with a degree in religion, then taught school at Indiana Academy. Then their overseas service began; first as principal of the Nigerian Training College, Nigeria, from 1958 to 1960 at Korala Academy, Liberia where he was ordained to the gospel ministry, and the last three years Elder and Mrs. Rieseberg served the cause of God in Tamale, Ghana as district leader. His heart was in the mission field. He was called to lay off the armour as a faithful soldier of the cross. He leaves to mourn his loving wife, Marilyn, four children, one sister in Chicago, and his father. We do not understand why our brother should be taken but we can trust our loving Father that someday we will understand. The Conference President assisted the pastor with the funeral service. He was laid to rest in the Lacombe Cemetery. He waits to receive from the hand of the Lifegiver a crown of immortal glory.

KINGSWAY COLLEGE REPORTS

GROWTH!

GROWTH!

For the past four years, KINGSWAY COLLEGE has enjoyed a steady upward growth. This year 354 students are studying in the academy and college. Another 148 are preparing for high school in the elementary school. Read on, and learn the ways Kingsway is growing

Physical Growth

The number of school buildings can only grow so fast. But a building can grow after it is initially constructed. The school store has been moved to another location, and living accommodations for sixteen student nurses have been added. A faculty home has been "adapted" to "home" six ladies. Trailers are "modified", and students move in. Growth! Progress! Until that new dormitory is started. This summer the cafeteria was modernized. Glass cases have been installed, with modernistic lighting. This not only displays the delicious food to a better advantage, but it also makes more "homey" the atmosphere in which it is enjoyed. Additional music studios are being supplied to a rapidly expanding music department.

Educational Growth

Additional teachers have been added in the science department, in the foreign language department and in the music department. Latin is being taught, a step forward in the language arts. The largest nursing class in our history presents twenty-five taking the first year of the course. Additional typing classes have been added. Home economics is being offered to an Adult Class. The community citizens are taking advantage of this opportunity. For the first time in many years, the school band has passed the 40 mark. Item by item, these factors spell growth, a GROWTH that will make its mark on our youth!

Economic Growth

Wages are higher than they have ever been! More students are working than ever before. The College bindery keeps over 40 employed. The College Wood Products sold $12,000 more in the two months before school opened this year than in the same period last year. A tie-in with a local bus company has provided driving-school-bus income for an increasing number of mature students. Meanwhile, maintenance, the bakery, the cafeteria, the janitor services, and various other openings keep many more gainfully occupied, "earning while learning."

YOU and Kingsway

Are you planning to grow with Kingsway? It is not too late to join the growing group here at Kingsway. Your personal growth here means a greater school, to finish that GREATER task. Young man, young woman—think it over—GROW with a Christian school—here at KINGSWAY!

New teachers and their wives/husbands added to Kingsway 1964-1965.
