The Wyoming Camp-meeting

Asa Smith

Our good camp-meeting is now in the past, and the unanimous expression of those present was that it was the best camp-meeting ever held in this conference. The attendance was much better and more representative than we had expected. There were fifty delegates present, representing nineteen churches. Three new churches were admitted, the Carroll Church of eleven members and having a full set of officers, which is located about sixteen miles south and east of Sheridan; the Buffalo Church with seven members; and the Powder River Church, located about twelve miles east of Kaycee, Wyo.

The outside help was more than we have ever had before,—Elder Chas. Thompson, president of the Northern Union; Elder Russell, of our own Union; Professor Griggs, from Union College; Elder W. C. Hankins, who is in this country on a furlough from China; and also Mrs. J. P. Anderson, from China. The spiritual interest of the meeting was excellent. Very few left the ground without giving themselves to the Lord.

Brother F. Burton Jewell, who was our state agent four years ago, was present the last few days. He and his wife are under appointment to South Africa. and are booked to sail from New York, August 28, via England.

The business of the conference passed off very harmoniously. No change was made in the officers, except in the departmental secretaries, Prof. P. V. Thomas taking the work of educational and young people's secretary, and Brother E. H. Meyers the work of missionary secretary and canvassing agent, relieving Brother Fish, who takes up ministerial work. Elder Hale was chosen religious liberty secretary. The conference committee remains the same.

Credentials were granted to the following:—

Ministerial credentials: D. U. Hale, G. W. Berry, H. E. Reeder.

Ministerial license: H. A. Fish.

Missionary credentials: Asa Smith, Mrs. Asa Smith.

Missionary license: P. V. Thomas, E. H. Meyers.

Honorary credentials: G. A. Kirkle, J. H. Wheeler, M. B. Miller.

Self-supporting missionary credentials: Nora Hough, Mrs. Eva Osborne.

The president's report showed that there had been an increase in the membership and also in the finances over the previous year. The tithe receipts for the thirteen months ending June 30, 1913, were more than $9,000. The amount raised for missions was nearly $3,500, and the increase in the Sabbath-school offerings was 100 per cent over the previous year. The book work showed an increase of more than $6,000 over the previous year, and the work in the conference office has increased twenty-five per cent during the past year.

About thirty-five family tents were occupied. There were over two hundred camped on the grounds the last Sabbath. There was received for missions during the meeting $1,511.46, $300 of which was cash, the balance being pledges. Of this amount, $89.77 was the Sabbath-school offerings, and the balance was the midsummer offering. This is the largest amount ever raised at one of our camp-meetings. Surely we have reason to thank the Lord for the good spirit which was in the meeting. Not a word of criticism or complaint was heard in any way. The Lord is giving His people more of the spirit of unity and love for His cause.

On the last Sunday of the meeting,

General Interest

He Chose The Path For Thee

He chose this path for thee;
No feeble chance, nor hard relentless fate,
But love, His love, hath placed thy footsteps here.
He knew the way was rough and desolate,
Knew thy heart would often sink with fear,
Yet tenderly He whispered, "Child, I see
This path is best for thee."

He chose this path for thee;
What needst thou more, this sweeter truth to know,
That all along these strange, bewildering ways,
O'er rocky steps and where dark rivers flow,
His loving arms will bear thee all thy days?
A few more steps, and thou thyself shalt see
"This path is best for thee."

—Selected.

nearly the whole camp went out to the Wyoming Intermediate School, where twenty-two were baptized. Most of these were young men and women in the strength of youth. One aged sister of nearly four-score years was converted and baptized. It was a meeting long to be remembered by all who were privileged to attend.

Central Union Conference Camp-meeting Dates

North Missouri, Marceline	July 31 to Aug. 10
South Missouri, Clinton	Aug. 7-17
Nebraska, Seward	Aug. 21-31

Colorado, Denver	Aug. 21-31
West Kansas, Lyons	Aug. 28 to Sept. 7
West Colorado, Grand Junction	Sept. 9-16

Every camp-meeting should be an object-lesson of neatness, order, and good taste. We must give careful regard to economy, and must avoid display; but everything connected with the grounds should be neat and tidy. Taste and tact do much to attract. And in all our work we should present the discipline of organization and order.

Everything should be so arranged as to impress both our own people and the world with the sacredness and importance of the work of God. The regulations observed in the encampment of the Israelites are an example to us. It was Christ who gave those special instructions to Israel, and He intended them for us also, upon whom the ends of the world are come. We should study carefully the specifications of God's word, and practice these directions as the will of God. Let everything connected with the encampment be pure, wholesome, and cleanly. Special attention should be given to all sanitary arrangements, and men of sound judgment and discernment should see that nothing is permitted to sow the seeds of sickness and death throughout the encampment.

The tents should be securely staked, and whenever there is liability of rain, every tent should be trenched. On no account let this be neglected. Serious and even fatal illness has been contracted through neglect of this precaution.

We should feel that we are representatives of truth of heavenly origin. We are to show forth the praises of Him who has called us out of darkness into His marvelous light. We should ever bear in mind that angels of God are walking through the encampment, beholding the order and arrangement in every tent. To the large number of people who come to the ground, all the arrangements are an illustration of the belief and principles of the people conducting the meeting. It should be the very best illustration possible. All the surroundings should be a lesson. Especially should the family tents, in their neatness and order, giving a glimpse of home life, be a constant sermon as to the habits, customs, and practices of Seventh-day Adventists.

South Missouri Conference

W. A. Long, Field Agt.

Office Notes

Mrs. F. A. Washburn

This is a busy time at the office, as camp-meeting is almost here, and therefore we have not had time to report much to the OUTLOOK, but thus far everything has moved along nicely.

We are glad to announce to our people that Elder J. W. Westphal of South America, and Sister Mimi Scharffenberg of Korea, will attend our camp-meeting, and we feel sure that they will render some valuable service.

Elder Stanley met with the Carthage Church last Sabbath and reports that a goodly number from there are expecting to attend the camp-meeting. The week before that he met with the company at Branson, and while there baptized seven. One of our brethren there has been doing a good work, and brought the truth to these hearts.

For a time our church at Mountain View diminished so much that it began to look as if we would have to disband the church, but the Lord did not see it thus, and others have moved in. Elder Stanley made them a visit recently, bringing back a good report.

The church is again an active church, and we pray that it may continue to grow.

Good news comes from the tent effort at Marshfield, where Elder Mackintosh is conducting a series of meetings. The attendance is large, and many are deeply interested.

In a communication from Elder Anderson, he says, "We are not turning up anything great in St. Louis, but we have some dear souls who will decide in favor of the truth." Even bringing one soul to Christ is a great work, so they have much to praise the Lord for. Good reports come from the other workers, Elders Terry, Roth, and Willis. The last we heard from Elder Terry, he said seven had decided to keep the commandments of God.

Does our canvassing work in South Missouri look rather slim? We admit it does, but we are hopeful, and Brother Long, our field agent, is quietly working and preparing for a great campaign after camp-meeting; so just watch our canvassing work after that. Is there not some one, or several, who can come to camp-meeting to receive instruction and help, and then go right out in the field? There are two new ones just starting out, and we wish them success. They are Ray Seaman and Wentle Long. I wonder if we are all praying for this department of our work as much as we should? We know it is the Lord's work, and a great work, so let us, each one, remember to pray for our canvassers and field agent, and that the Lord will impress others to take hold of it.

We are hoping to see a large number of Sabbath-school officers and teachers at camp-meeting, and we also look for a number of young people. We are especially anxious that it will be thus. We earnestly ask the prayers of our people in behalf of the work for the young people and children at camp-meeting. Even though you are not there, will you not pray that this meeting may do just what the Lord desires it shall do for our youth? Let August 7-17 be a time of special seeking after God in South Missouri. We are nearing the end, and there is a great work to do for the youth and children. Do we have the burden for them as we should? Are we pleading with the Lord to give us wisdom to know just how to reach their hearts? Let us cooperate in this work. Let us go up to this meeting expecting great things, and then let us work for great things, and the Lord will not disappoint us.

Kansas Conference Association

The annual meeting of the Seventh-day Adventist Conference Association of Kansas will be held in connection with the annual conference and camp-meeting on the campground located one block west of the Santa Fe depot at Ottawa, Kans.

The first meeting of said association will be called August 26, at 4 p. m. The election of a board of trustees and such other business as may be necessary or proper to be transacted will come before the meeting.

W. F. Kennedy, President.
E. Harris, Secretary.

Go Forward

M. P. Manny

When the children of Israel left Egypt, they marched out with light hearts, rejoicing to think they would soon be free from bondage; yet they had not gone far until there came a crisis in their experience. Surrounded on either side with mountains, their enemy at their rear, and the Red Sea before them, from a human point of view escape looked impossible, yet the command was, "Go forward." We all know how they were delivered from their enemies.

To-day in our conference we are facing a crisis in our book work, on account of the drought. Shall we shrink from duty? The Lord loves people in dry weather as much as at any other time. If your effort would hasten the coming of the Lord, which I am sure it would, as every soul must be given this truth, would you not gladly respond to the call? Is it not true that the children of Israel had to exercise great faith to march right into the sea with no assurance of ever crossing? The same is true to-day. We will have to move with faith, knowing that the God of Israel is the same to-day as at the Red Sea.

Business is not going to stop because there is a partial failure in crops. Automobile agents are shipping in machines by the car load. They have the faith that they will be sold. We, with the greatest truth the world has ever had the privilege of hearing, should believe that we can sell these truth-laden books, even under adverse circumstances. We have the promise of the Saviour that He will be with us always, even to the end of the world.

Dear brethren and sisters, pray for this branch of the work, that we may see souls saved from these efforts.

Camp-meeting

N. T. Sutton

As the time is drawing near for our camp-meeting to convene, I trust that all our brethren are laying plans to be present, also that many prayers are ascending daily to the throne of God in behalf of this meeting.

Let us come to this encampment with the Spirit of Christ in our hearts, and let us be determined to be a blessing to some poor soul. My brethren, what a wonderful work the Lord can accomplish with such a camp. May the Lord help us to make the needed preparation for our coming camp-meeting. Remember the date and place, August 28 to September 7. Plan to be there.

Hutchinson

Lizzie Sutton

As it has been some time since there has been a report of the work from Hutchinson, and as I know the interest of the people in the conference in the work throughout the field, I take this opportunity of sending in a brief report.

I have enjoyed my work very much this summer. One of my readers has recently begun to keep the Sabbath. She and her children are enjoying the Sabbath-school. Others are interested, and I am sure that they will take their stand for the truth soon. Three have commenced to keep the Sabbath since I began work in this place. During the extremely hot weather, four of my readers asked for a vacation, so I have been a part of two days each week in working up a subscription list for the Signs. I have had some very interesting experiences in my Signs work, which have helped to drive away the tired feeling which one is subject to during the hot weather. I will just relate one. As we went to one door and told of our work, the woman said that they had sickness in the home. At that time a party present began talking to me about the Bible, and after we had talked a little while, I asked if our talking would annoy the sick. Just then a voice from the adjoining room said, "No; I have heard every word you have said, and I would be so glad if you would come in and pray for me." Upon entering the room, we found a poor man whose sickness has brought to him the knowledge that the one important thing had been left out of his life. As he expressed his regrets and desires, it was a great privilege to tell him of an ever merciful Saviour.

I am very thankful to have a part in the giving of the last message of mercy. Sister Lucile Daily has been working with me some. She seems to be enjoying the work very much. We trust that the readers of the OUTLOOK will remember the work here in their prayers.

Of Course You Are All Going

M. G. Huffman

Going where? Why, have you not heard that the annual camp-meeting of the West Kansas Conference is to be held this year at Lyons, Kans., from August 28 to September 17? If you have not as yet thought of going, begin at once, not only to think of going, but begin to make the necessary preparations to be at the first meeting, and remain until the last.

A strong appeal has been made by the leading citizens of Lyons inviting the camp-meeting to be held in their city, and have held out great inducements, and have made liberal offers to get the meeting there, hence it behooves every Seventh-day Adventist in the conference to make every legitimate effort to attend, and thus, by his or her presence, help to make this feast of tabernacles a success in every way, that the good people of Lyons will never regret having invited us to their city. But, above everything else, let us do all in our God-given power to make the meeting conducive to the salvation of many dear souls for whom Christ died. Who knows but that the effort at Lyons during the camp-meeting will lead some who are in darkness into the light of present truth. And it may be that before the meeting is over some will be rejoicing in the third angel's message.

Yes, of course you are going, and may the Lord help us each in making the preparations to attend. To this end let us all work and pray.

Field Notes

N. T. Sutton

Elder W. A. Shafer and his wife, who have been visiting Brother Shafer's parents and other relatives in this state since the General Conference, stopped off at Hutchinson a few hours. They were on their way to Norwich to spend the last week of their visit in this country with Brother Shafer's parents. They will leave for England next week for their field of labor.

Mrs. Pearl Shafer Evilsisor of Mt. Vernon, Wash., accompanied Elder Shafer and his wife on their way to Norwich. She will leave for her home in a few weeks.

Miss Eunice Crawford is visiting some of the churches in the western part of the conference.

Prof. H. H. Howard is making a tour among the churches, in the interest of the Hill Academy.

Brother A. G. Steinert writes that their interest at Russell is very good, and that they are very hopeful of a number of persons accepting the truth.

Elders Huffman and Bringle, who are laboring at Belle Plaine, are having a hard time in securing an attendance, but they are still pulling away, and there is some interest being awakened there. The truth will always find its way to the honest in heart, although many barriers may be placed in its way by the prejudice of man.

Elder H. L. Shafer is holding a series of meetings in Osborne. He has a very good attendance, and is hopeful of seeing some take their stand for the truth.

Elder S. S. Shrock reports a good interest at Wichita. Several souls were recently buried with their Lord in baptism.

The Kansas Sanitarium board met last week to consider some matters pertaining to the sanitarium. The sanitarium is enjoying quite a good patronage, and we only have words of encouragement to offer.

Irving Bivins, eight years of age, is canvassing in Hutchinson for the missionary number of the Little Friend. He has sold thirty-four copies, and ordered twenty-five more.

Where Shall I Go?

J. W. Christian

This is the question asked when we meet our young people and talk with them about the work and their relation to it. Where shall I go to get the preparation needed? That will depend upon your past school advantages. If you have finished the first ten grades, you should look toward Union College as the logical place for you to finish your preparation. She stands ready to receive you and give you a good, strong course in literary lines, and will devote special attention to the instruction and preparation needed to have a part in the closing work of the gospel.

If you have not finished the grades carried in the school operated in your home conference, you should give careful study to the course of instruction outlined in the home conference school. It may be that you will find there all that you need for a year or two. These schools are located in your own conference, under conference management, and will, in many cases, be much nearer your home. They have strong teachers, and are carrying the outline of work recommended by the educational department of the General Conference. The expense of maintaining these simpler schools is less than the more advanced, and therefore the tuition is materially less. There is nothing gained for a student in the preparatory grades to go to an advanced school, and according to the plan recommended by our educational department we are advising the parents and youth of these grades to attend the conference school in your home conference, but to all who are beyond these grades, we mention Union College as the school, planted under divine counsel, for the youth of God-fearing parents. Union College stands for the highest and noblest ideals in educational lines and character development. Find your place, and plan to be there this year.

Colporter Work

G. Fayette Knapp

As a business, little capital is required. It seems best to me to have $50.00 or $100 cash capital, but one can do with less. There is no worry about crops and droughts—a good crop of souls, the best crop on this earth, is hoped for. If followed faithfully each day, as others follow their business, it is bound to average good results for the time now, and the eternal results who can measure?

Knowing that this work is pleasing in God's sight, and that He will never leave nor forsake, and having the companionship of holy angels, and the "peace of God that passeth all understanding," why should not the canvasser be cheerful and happy in his work for the Master?

Of course, we will find some who will not appreciate anything that does not bring them money, and some may be abusive, but this should not discourage the colporter. The angler does not catch all the fish. We should "go forward"—"fish" and "hunt" for those who will be interested in the heaven-sent message, and our great Leader will surely give us results. Jer. 16:15; Luke 4:19.

What Figures Tell Us

H. A. Hebard

A scholarship in seven and one-half days is the record of a Nebraska canvasser, and $396.50 is the record made in ten days. We would like to call your attention to the number of hours worked and the value of books sold in the following. We will give the figures, and you do the rest.

Wk. Ending	Agts.	Hrs.	Value
May 3	6	168	$187.50
May 10	3	110	$115.95
May 17	5	138	$145.00
May 24	5	211	$186.40
May 31	7	190	$213.00
June 6	11	295	$377.45
June 13	10	348	$418.85
June 20	11	344	$450.00
June 27	14	488	$603.00
July 4	8	195	$260.25
July 11	6	236	$431.40
July 19	9	300	$557.05

There is only one week that they did not do better than a dollar an hour. What will these figures say to you when you take the average? They tell us that the truth-laden page is being left in the homes of the people, and that our workers are self-supporting. Can you not do something in your neighborhood?

The Value of Our Literature

"If I had one hundred thousand dollars, and ten years in which to give the message to Mexico, I would use ninety thousand dollars and nine years in filling the country with literature. Then I would use the good canvassers who scattered the literature, to follow up the work with Bible readings and preaching, using the last year and ten thousand dollars for this purpose." This striking statement, made by G. W. Caviness, on the subject, "The Place Our Literature Should Occupy in Giving the Message in Spanish-Catholic Fields," shows his high appreciation of the printed page. Let them fall like the leaves of autumn.

Notice

The next annual session of the Nebraska Conference of Seventh-day Adventists will convene in connection with the camp-meeting at Seward, Nebr., Aug. 21-31, 1913. The officers will be elected for the ensuing year, and such other business transacted as may properly come before the conference. Each church is entitled to one delegate to the organization, and one additional delegate for each fifteen of its members. The opening meeting will be held Friday, August 22 at 2:30 p. m.

Sanitarium Notes

Avis E. Baker

Dr. H. A. Green attended the camp-meeting at Hemingford, Nebr., and reports an interesting meeting.

Mr. John Syphers, class of '12, was a recent visitor at the sanitarium.

Mr. Joseph Larson, brother of the Misses Clara and Emma Larsen, senior nurses, is now at the institution, assisting in the work.

Mr. Ray Thompson, class of '12, is now connected with the work in the capacity of graduate nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar McNay, class of '10, of Des Moines, spent a short time at the sanitarium visiting friends. They are on their way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Maas, and from there they will go to Denver, where they will attend the camp-meeting.

Word has been received that Mr. Mullinnex, class of '12, has been suffering with typhoid fever for five weeks at a private sanitarium in Kansas City, and that he was able to canvass only three weeks after leaving officiating. They will make their home in Pueblo, where Doctor Frost has a good reputation in his chosen line of work. Their friends wish them much happiness in the years to come.

Miss Rachel Johnson, one of our 1912 graduates, was united in marriage to Dr. Edward Frost, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. L. L. McCamly, on July 29, Elder Altman

The Colorado Sanitarium Food Company is kept very busy manufacturing the different foods for a number of camp-meeting orders which have been received.

Every room in the sanitarium and all the cottages are occupied. Applicants are waiting in Boulder and Denver for rooms as soon as they are vacated. We feel that we have much to thank the Lord for, and to Him be all the praise.

Lovers of The Message

Should be sure to get a supply of the August Watchman for distribution among their friends who are unacquainted with the magnitude of the Great Second Advent Movement.

It not only contains a full-page half-tone illustration of the vast company recently assembled at the General Conference, in which many faces are plainly visible, but also contains splendid editorial, "The World's Greatest Enterprise," describing the most important work ever participated in by man and fostered by God for man's salvation.

The full-page illustration is alone worth the price of the magazine, as it visibly recalls that great company which is soon to stand upon the great sea of glass.

Get a dozen copies and let your neighbors get a glimpse of the magnitude of the great movement of which you are a member. Order of your local tract society to-day before they are all gone. In quantities up to forty, 5 cents each; over 50 copies, 4 cents each. To Canada, 5 cents straight. Single copies only a dime.

"Counsels to Teachers"

This is a new book by Mrs. E. G. White. It contains some matter that was in the little book, "Christian Education," which has been out of print for a number of years; also some of the matter in "Special Testimonies on Education," together with considerable new matter. It has been prepared with special reference to the needs of parents and students, as well as teachers, and will be most helpful in our school work.

The book contains 574 pages, uniform in size with the "Testimonies," with a full subject index and a scriptural index. At the close of each of the fourteen sections of the book is published a carefully prepared bibliography or reference index, to other writings of the author on the various phases of Christian education.

Price in cloth, $1.00; in flexible red leather, $1.50. Order of your tract society.

A New Book by Elder F.C. Gilbert

The title of this book, "From Judaism to Christianity," gives a good idea of its scope. The author, educated in his youth as a rabbi, is now a Christian minister, and has had a wide experience as a lecturer for many years. He is a thorough Bible student, conversant with both the Old Testament and the New. The knowledge the author brings to us in this work throws much light upon the Scriptures, and explains things not usually understood concerning the people who were the depositories of divine revelation for nearly 2,000 years before the New Testament was written.

The Bible was originally written by the Jewish people, hence we are debtors to them. The last chapter, the twenty-third, gives an accurate description of the Jewish people at the present time, their views and beliefs.

This book contains 384 pages, and is sold in two bindings.

The August Watchman

The July issue met with a hearty reception, and many good words were received from all parts of the field.

The August Watchman will be brimful of good things, and will be of usual excellence, a few of the leading features being quoted below:—

The World's Greatest Enterprise.

A Memorable Dialogue.

A Court Scene in Heaven.

The Apostles and the Law of the Ten Commandments.

Punctuation and Theology.

The Malasian Mission Field.

In addition to these valuable articles, the Watchman will always contain current comment upon world events that are attracting the attention of leading men. Every edition thus far this year has been practically exhausted, and the outlook is indeed very bright for a heavy sale of the August issue.

To indicate how the Lord is using our good magazine as a medium through which to win souls, we quote from a letter just received:—

"Report has just come to the office of another family accepting the truth as a result of a copy of the Watchman sold in New Orleans."

Do not many desire to assist in this good work by ordering 50 copies? They cost only $2.00. They can be sold for 10 cents each. This will give one capital with which to make a most excellent missionary start. Order early and often. Rates: 5 to 40 copies, 5 cents each; 50 or more, 4 cents; to Canada, 5 cents straight.

Just What Have I Been Looking For

While attending the recent General Conference, many persons received a copy of the tract, "The Darkness of Millennial Dawn," and frequently was it said, "Just what I have been looking for." In the tract Pastor Russell's teachings are shown to be vagaries, and the truth concerning the millennial reign of Christ is clearly presented. Send a dime for five copies to John N. Quinn, Takoma Park, Washington, D. C.

Prof. Herbert Lacey and family, recently from England, arrived in College View the evening after the Sabbath, last. Professor Lacey comes to take charge of the Bible department in Union College. His many years' experience as a minister and Bible instructor, and for the past several years as the head of the Stanborough Park Missionary College, Watford, England, will bring to the Bible department in Union College an added element of strength. The editor of the OUTLOOK enjoyed several years' acquaintance with Professor and Mrs. Lacey in Australia, and we extend to them through the OUTLOOK a hearty welcome to the work which they have accepted in connection with the college.

Splendid reports have come to us from various sources of the work connected with the Boulder Sanitarium. In a recent communication from Brother E. J. Baker, who is in charge of the business office, he writes: "Our institution is filled to overflowing, our patronage being about 120 house patients and twenty or twenty-five patients who are rooming outside and taking treatments here. Yesterday we had to refuse eight persons admittance to our sanitarium for lack of room, and we have twelve on our list who are waiting for rooms. We hope that this summer's business will be a record breaker, and we believe it will."

Prof. H. A. Morrison and wife are spending a few weeks in the mountains of Colorado for the purpose of recuperating their health.

Elder J. W. Westphal, who is in charge of the work in South America, made a brief call at the office while on his way to Boulder, where his wife will spend some time at the sanitarium while he is attending some of the camp-meetings.

Prof. M. B. VanKirk, who is in charge of the summer school at College View, left last Thursday to spend a few days at the North Missouri camp-meeting. Sixty-eight teachers are in attendance at the summer school, which has been in session in College View since July 1. The school will close August 13. This is pronounced the best summer school ever held in this part of the country.

President Griggs, on returning from the Wyoming camp-meeting, came by way of Kearney, Nebr., where he had a visit with Elder I. H. Evans, president of the North American Division Conference, who was on his way to attend some of the camp-meetings on the Pacific Coast.

Dr. Franklin Richards from Australia made a brief call at the office a few days ago. He made the trip from Australia on an English vessel as ship surgeon. He was enabled to spend three or four days visiting his aged parents in College View. He had to return the last of the week in order to catch his ship on her return voyage.

Elder Russell returned to the office last Wednesday, and left the following day to attend the North Missouri camp-meeting, which is held at Marceline, July 31 to August 10.

Brother Hebard is a busy man these days. He is out in the field inspiring his men, who are on the firing line, and bringing up new recruits to swell the number who carry the truth-laden books to the homes of the people.

"The first thing for acceptance of truth is to unlearn human doctrines and become as a little child."
