COLLEGE VIEW, NEBRASKA, JULY 18, 1916

NUMBER 29

Battle Hymn of Nebraska

(Tune- Battle Hymn of Republic)

Mine eyes have seen the dawning
Of a better day out west,
When the weary, struggling thousands
Of our people shall be blest,
And the wicked cease from troubling
And the weary ones find rest,
As we go marching on.

Chorus

Old King Alcohol is dying,
Hear his wretched victims crying,
Help us by your votes while trying
To make Nebraska free.

We are going to slay the monster
That perverts the rye and corn;
That has wrecked the homes of millions
And made countless thousands mourn,
We will strangle Old King Alcohol
As true as you are born,
As we go marching on.

O, the menace to this country
Is not on the ocean wide;
Not the Oriental peoples
By our plunderband defied;
What we have to fear of ruin
Comes from enemies inside,
As we go marching on.

Let us make our own state decent
We can do it if we try—
While we send to starving nations
All our surplus corn and rye.
O, for Mollie and the babies
Let us vote Nebraska dry,
As we go marching on.

A. L. Bixby.

"The honor of God, the stability of the nations, the well-being of the community, of the home and of the individuals, demand that every possible effort be made in arousing the people to the evils of intemperance."

Our Temperance Campaign

We wish to call especial attention of the believers in Nebraska to the following temperance plans in which we hope that every church and isolated believer will unite to make Nebraska dry at the November election.

It will interest the readers of the OUTLOOK, no doubt, to know what we are doing here at College View.

1. We first presented to the church the need of having a temperance committee whose chairman would be the temperance secretary of the church. Accordingly, a committee of five was appointed.

2. Definite plans were then laid by our temperance committee for our summer's campaign as follows:

a. A Temperance Rally on Sabbath, June 17, at the regular Sabbath forenoon service. At this meeting the following program was rendered:

Song.

Prayer.

Double Quartet: "Stand up for Prohibition."

"Our Relation to the Prohibition Movement," B. L. House.

"The Progress of Prohibition in America and Throughout the World," Prof. G. G. Andrews.

Temperance Solo: Mrs. Guy Offil.

"The Campaign in Nebraska," Attorney W. T. Thompson, Chairman of the Dry Federation.

"What We Can Do," J. R. Ferren.

Offering for Starting a Temperance Fund.

Closing Song and Benediction.

b. In July to have a Sunday night

Temperance Rally for the whole town. This will be conducted by a branch of the Dry Federation.

c. Another Sunday night rally a short time before election this fall, with our own speakers.

d. To start immediately a campaign to sell "The Shadow of the Bottle," the Temperance Instructor, and The Signs of the Times Prohibition Special in Lincoln and surrounding towns.

e. To give away just before election some temperance tracts in every home in Lincoln.

3. Fourth of July we had a church outing at one of Lincoln's pretty, quiet parks, and after a delicious luncheon we had a patriotic program. After some entertaining and patriotic speeches, Brother McEachern, our Union Conference field missionary secretary, spoke on the subject of "How to Make Nebraska Dry in 1916." Brother McEachern presented his theme in a taking way and closed by introducing "The Shadow of the Bottle," and our other temperance literature as the most effective way of educating the people aright. A report of the patriotic and temperance speeches appeared in the city papers the next day.

We are organizing here in College View for definite service, and we appeal to the dear brethren and sisters throughout Nebraska to co-operate with us and begin some similar programs and local campaigns. Now is the most opportune time for us to show our colors in Nebraska. We appeal to you to come to the front in this temperance campaign and show your true spirit of loyalty to the cause of temperance in helping to banish the saloon, the greatest enemy to the American flag.

Recently one of our canvassers was in a home with a leading church member and a minister of one of the first-day churches, and in their ignorance and prejudice they showed a very bitter spirit toward Seventh-day Adventists. They did not hesitate to denounce those who are spreading this blessed gospel light as proselyters and classed them with saloon keepers because of our opposition to religio-political Sunday laws. While the enemies of the truth have never found us favoring the saloon, yet many of them do not hesitate to misrepresent and cast reproach upon our unpopular cause.

The above incident ought to be an eye-opener to us as a people which will lead us to come out boldly in this fight against the liquor traffic and declare ourselves in unmistakable language in favor of absolute prohibition.

Next week we will explain more definitely the plans for the Nebraska campaign.

B. L. House,
Conference temperance sec'y.

Important Information

D. U. HALE

Many are interested in learning more of the details concerning the location of the intermediate school. The locating committee met; but not feeling clear as to what they should do, they decided to refer the matter to the delegates at the time of the camp meeting. I must confess that I was disappointed. However, I should prefer to be disappointed rather than have the committee act when they did not feel clear in the matter. All are seeing more and more the advantage of having a school of our own.

Our next urgent matter is the mid-summer offering, July 29. We are behind in our offerings for missions and the mission board is needing the money. It is urgent that we get our mission funds in on time, for our brethren, who have left their comfortable homes in this country to go to a foreign land, must be supported. Let everyone in every church mention the offering to his church officers, so they will not forget it, and let us have a large offering for the hastening of our closing work. Jesus is coming as soon as the work is finished. Our offerings help advance it. Let us do all in our power to hasten the day when we may leave this sin-cursed world for our eternal home.

Falls City

Our series of meetings began June 25, with but a fair attendance, despite the fact that we had advertised thoroughly both in the daily paper and with hand bills. However, at this writing things are much more encouraging.

Last night we spoke on the subject of Christ's second coming, to the largest audience we have had in this place. The tent was well filled, besides there were a number seated on the grass, and several auto loads; all of whom gave marked attention to the discourse. We might add that all of these, except eight were people not of our faith. In fact, we are almost doing pioneer work, as there is not one Adventist living in this city. However, there are three families living in the country who can get in to the meetings once in awhile.

We have had a great deal of opposition to our work by the preachers of the city, who have combined in a big union meeting every Sunday night in the City Park. Besides this, there is in progress in this little city of perhaps six thousand people, a Pentecostal tent meeting, a Holiness hall meeting, and a Spiritualistic tent meeting. However, the people are beginning to see the difference in the character of the various meetings, with the result that the interest and attendance at our meeting is on the increase. For this we thank the Lord, as it has been in answer to our prayers, coupled with hard work, that things are beginning to look more favorable.

While of course we cannot tell at this time what the results will be, we are determined by God's help to make the truth so clear that everyone who is honest will accept it. To this end we ask the prayers of the OUTLOOK family.

M. N. Helligso,
H. F. Saxton.

Camp Meeting

Are you getting ready to attend our camp meeting? August 17 will soon be here, and we want every church member in the conference in Hastings on that day. Come prepared to labor for souls. If you have any unconverted friends or relatives around you, bring them with you.

We have secured the use of beautiful Hartwell park, just north of the office and sanitarium, and want to have your tent pitched for you. We may not be able to floor all the tents before the date of the meeting, but if you can come a little early you can help us in flooring your tent. Those coming should write at once to the office concerning their wants, and we shall do what we can to supply them. Come let us seek the Lord together.

D. U. Hale.

Hastings Sanitarium News

We have had a considerable number of children patients recently. Some of these have undergone critical operations.

Miss Minnie Ehrke, who came to us from South Dakota a few months ago, has been placed in charge of the operating room.

Mr. Fred Rasmussen, of Marshalltown, Ia., a graduate of the Iowa Sanitarium, has connected with our work for the summer.

Miss Tresa Peterson returned from Washington, Kans., after having spent several weeks with her parents and relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Applegate have gone to Norcat, Kans., to locate on a farm there. They are being greatly missed by the sanitarium family.

Many applications for entrance to the nurses' training school have already come in. Among these are several for the Junior and Senior classes.

The lower floor of the Annex has been almost entirely filled with patients since the conference offices were moved. These rooms have been much needed in order to accommodate the overflow of the main building.

A new X-ray machine is being installed in our institution. This machine is one of the finest in the country and supplies a much-needed necessity in our work. It will enable us to make surer diagnoses and will also be an important means in treatment.

Miss Violet Ball returned from her visit to Denver, Colo., and has assumed the position of superintendent of nurses in connection with the sanitarium training school. Miss Ball is a graduate of the 1915 class and a registered nurse. The sanitarium family gives her a hearty welcome and all feel that she is thoroughly capable of carrying the responsibilities of this office.

Office Notes

Brethren B. H. Fruit and A. W. Sherman were callers at the office the past week.

Mr. Frank Andrus, our oldest colporteur, put in the most hours last week, numbering sixty-two.

Brother W. G. Elliott stopped at the office on his way from a visit in Kansas to his headquarters at Kearney.

We are sorry to hear that Elinore, the little daughter of Dr. O. H. Hahn is quite sick and is threatened with appendicitis.

Mr. V. E. Adams of Council Bluffs, Ia., is once more in the colporteur work, and at present is working at Lynch, Nebr.

Miss Werthie Hale and Miss Hildred Brown stopped for a short time in Hastings last week on their way from Holdredge to their new territory in the eastern part of the state.

Mrs. Hilda Cline stopped at the office last Wednesday on her way to Grand Island, where she will work with "Shadow of the Bottle." Mrs. Cline took quite a number of these books with her.

We are glad the Fourth of July did not interfere with our colporteur work this year. Our report for the week shows over $1,200.00. One of our colporteurs reports that only two families were away from home, and orders were secured at both of these places the next morning.

Brother R. A. Talcott, one of our old colporteurs, paid the office a visit last week. Brother Talcott has been a surgical patient at the old soldiers' home at Hot Springs, S. D., for sometime. He is much improved but not yet sufficiently recovered to take up the colporteur work, yet is at all times busy doing missionary work.

Sabbath, July 2, the Fairbury church held their first services in their new church building which is very favorably located in a quiet part of the city. Sabbath, July 8, this church held its Rally Day exercises, and were assisted in the services by Miss Howell. She reported a good attendance and a pleasant and interesting time.

The latter part of June, ten of the young people and workers of the Omaha English church took the Standard of Attainment examination in Bible Doctrines and all did well. By September it is hoped there will be a large class prepared in this church to take the Denominational History examination. Why not others follow their example?

Leo K. Chang is connected with Elder Seltzer's effort in Hastings as tent-master.

Brother Sherrig states that the meetings in Omaha started the night of July 1, with a good attendance.

Prof. C. C. Engle, instructor of violin in Union College, is assisting with the music in Elder Bernstein's meetings in Omaha.

Miss Peterson and Miss Peeke have both returned from vacations at their homes, and are now deeply absorbed in their work.

Friday, July 7, Brother Beardsley left Hastings in an auto for a three weeks' tour through the conference in the interests of the missionary and young people's work. Mrs. Beardsley and their two little girls accompanied him.

The July Watchman is a magazine that will appeal to the people at first sight. If you want to place the truth in the hands of your friends and neighbors in a most attractive and interesting form, just sell them a copy of the July Watchman.

Brother M. N. Helligso writes of the effort in Falls City. "We are getting on very nicely here. Our meetings are progressing with a fair audience,—not so large as we would like, but we are working to increase it, and I think from indications the last couple of nights, we will do so."

In a letter from Elder Bernstein, he states that his entire sanctuary outfit, including all his valuable charts, symbols, etc., have been lost in transportation from Denver, where he used them during the camp meeting. He is making every effort to get trace of them. This is indeed a terrible loss to Elder Bernstein and the campaign there in Omaha.

During the latter part of June, Brother Beardsley spent a Sabbath with the church at Tekamah. He says, "There was a good attendance, and among others, I was surprised to meet my old friend and former schoolmate, Russel Potter now of Vancouver, British Columbia, who was visiting his brother in that vicinity. He assisted in the services." The following Monday Brother Beardsley spent with the believers in Blair, finding them of good courage and anxious to do their part in forwarding this message.

Camp Meeting Location

At the time of our last committee meeting, the matter of the location of the camp meeting was considered. There was a difference of opinion by the committee as to whether the meeting should be held at Crawford or at Bridgeport, and as the committees were about equally divided, it was decided that the matter should be placed before the churches in the conference by a letter from the president. Accordingly, such a letter was prepared and sent to all the churches in the latter part of May. This letter gave some reasons for holding the camp meeting at Crawford and also reasons for having it at Bridgeport. The churches were asked to vote upon the matter and their decisions be sent in to this office. Up to the present time, returns have been received from the following churches in favor of having the meeting at Bridgeport, Nebr., viz.: Broadwater, Buffalo, Garland, Hemingford, Lisco, Minatare, and Mitchell. The churches of Bridgeport and Crawford were not considered, as they would vote for their home town. The Whitney church voted for Crawford. The Sheldon church notified us by a letter that no action was taken. At present, July 10, no word has been received from the other churches. The time of holding our meeting is fast drawing on, and many of our people are anxious to know the location in order that they may make their plans accordingly. The vote already secured gives a majority for Bridgeport even though the churches not reporting were to vote for Crawford, which is altogether unlikely, as some of them are located nearer Bridgeport. Therefore, I have been authorized to announce that the camp meeting will be held at Bridgeport, Nebr., September 21 to October 1.

ASA SMITH,
Sec. conference committee.

"It is important that the members of our churches should attend our camp-meetings. . . . Individually you need the benefits of the meeting, and God calls upon you to number one in the ranks of truth."

Office Notes

Alice Reid

The members of the Sheldon church celebrated the Fourth on the grounds of the Ross Sanitarium near Upton, Wyo.

Elder Sutton left evening after the Sabbath for College View, where he is in attendance at the annual board meeting of Union College.

Mrs. L. M. Davis, of Crawford, made a trip to Denver and Boulder, returning home in company with Mrs. Asa Smith on the Fourth.

Be sure to read the article on the location of the camp meeting, which appears in this number of the OUTLOOK. All should plan to be there.

A. F. Ferguson, elder of the White Owl church, sends an order for "Daniel & Revelation" to be sent to an interested person in Clough, whom he has hopes of accepting the truth.

Word comes from Miss Jennie Cook that she did not canvass last week, as three days in that settlement were spent in celebrating. However, we are looking for a big report this week from her.

Mrs. A. E. Stewart made the office a pleasant call between trains on the way to visit her son and family at Wayside, Nebr. Sister Stewart has been visiting in Iowa since leaving the coast about a month ago. She expects to spend the summer with her son.

Mrs. Phebe Hamp, one of our aged sisters in the conference, sends in a good order for tracts and books, which she uses in her missionary correspondence. She is receiving good returns from this work. Let others follow her example.

Evidently most of our colporteurs were "taken in" by the Fourth, but we trust they will all be forth-coming and do better work than ever. One was "stampeded," two fled to the rocks and the mountains, and two were delayed. The others we are unable to account for.

Mrs. Asa Smith and daughter, Floda Victoria, returned to Crawford on July 4. They have been at the Colorado Sanitarium for some time. An informal gathering at the park was planned by her friends in honor of the occasion, but late trains in Denver prevented the presence of the Smith family. However, we are assured that the Fourth was the grandest celebration ever spent in the Smith home.

Fort Morgan

W. A. Gosmer

On the way home from College View, I stopped for a few hours at Fort Morgan where Elder and Mrs. G. R. Hawkins are holding a tent effort. I found them very centrally located in a prominent place. They are doing some judicious newspaper advertising, and by the publicity thus given and the presentation of good, live topics, the Lord is influencing the people to attend. Only three meetings had been held at the time of my visit, but there is an increasing interest manifested. Brother Roy Miles and Sister Mabel Cannard are associated with the tent company.

Fort Morgan is a beautiful city of about 4,500 inhabitants. It is situated in the heart of a rich agricultural district. Elder Hawkins feels that a good work could be done in the surrounding country in connection with the city effort, if he had some means of transportation like an automobile. From the good beginning made, and from present prospects, a good work will be done in Fort Morgan this summer.

So far as we know at this time, all of the tent companies are doing well.

CAMPION ACADEMY

It is with pleasure that we announce to the patrons of our academy that we have secured the services of Prof. J. B. White, of Strode Academy. One of the best recommendations that Professor White has is the fact that he has been for seven years past the principal of Strode Academy, and has succeeded in building it up to its present attainments. Professor White is a man of prayer and work, and we believe that he comes to us in the providence of God. Elder Varner Johns will take the principalship of Strode Academy. We regret very much to lose Elder Johns and wife from our work in Colorado. But the work is onward, and there are toils and sacrifices for us all. For the sake of the cause at Strode Academy, we consent to release Elder Johns from the work in our field. We believe that God will greatly bless his work in his new field.

Plans are being laid to put in a water system at the school. The merchants of Loveland and the citizens of Campion are very much interested in the proposition, and we hope soon to have water for all purposes, with sufficient pressure for fire hose, lawn, etc.

The electric lighting plant has arrived in part, and the work of installing it will soon begin. Professor Edwards has practically completed the wiring in all of the buildings.

Next week we shall have something to say in reference to the annual mid-summer offering.

East Pueblo

H. A. Vandeman

The interest here is steadily increasing, and the outside attendance is good. Last night the tent was full, and a deep interest was shown in the subject "The Return of the Jews."

We have been earnestly seeking the Lord, and he has answered in a marked manner. Saturday night we gave the service over to the question box. Considerable interest was taken by some not of our faith in asking questions, both in writing and verbally. Some opposition was manifested. We feel that this is a critical time in our meeting. Pray earnestly for us the next week especially.

OTHER INTEREST-GRIPPING SUBJECTS COMING

The world is looking to Seventh-day Adventists for an explanation of the true meaning of present day conditions. Read carefully these very significant letters.

From a Pastor of Christian Reformed Church
"I have received gratis several copies of your weekly Signs of the Times. I think that an Adventist friend of mine sends them. I am profoundly thankful for it. I admire your positive stand against Modernism, Evolution, Christian Science, Spiritualism, etc., and also your unique knowledge of our portentous times."

From a District Judge
"Some good person or persons have been so kind and thoughtful as to send me the Signs of the Times, a religious newspaper having for its object the moral and spiritual interest of the people and the glory of the Master. I read it carefully; find much to commend and am benefited thereby. It makes no compromise with sin. Stands for purity in life. Would have all united in Christian fellowship and love. These are high ideals. We must stand for nothing less."

From a Pastor of a Congregational Church
"This awful war has undoubtedly lent impetus to the doctrines advanced by the Revelation specialists. I admire their stick-to-it-tiveness and concede to them a knowledge of mysteries of which I am ignorant. I promise, though nearly deluged with papers and magazines, to give more attention to your Signs."

Our missionary paper, THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES, has done and is doing a most effective work. During the next six months this paper will be full of the message. For the benefit of the readers the Publishers are passing on advance information as to some of the forthcoming articles.

It would be difficult to produce a paper with more truth-filled and convincing articles than the ones now appearing in the Weekly Signs. One of the greatest opportunities that will ever come to you to help give the message is afforded by this series. Help send it to interested persons in your neighborhood; Place it in the public Libraries; in the home of ministers, Sunday school officers. Help supply a church club, a club for a tent meeting in your community, or in the conference. And be sure to secure a copy for yourself.

QUICK ACTION IMPORTANT

The first article of the series by Dr. Magan appears in the July 11 issue. This prompts the suggestion that you send in orders immediately. Extra copies of the July and subsequent issues will be printed so that subscribers can begin with the first of the series if desired.

Fort Lupton

A. T. ROBINSON

Our Missionary Volunteer secretary, Elder J.W. Turner and the writer held meetings in the Fort Lupton church Friday evening, July 7, and over the following Sabbath and Sunday. The good spirit of the Lord was present in all the meetings held. The service on Sabbath afternoon was especially marked by the softening, subduing power of the Holy Spirit. Heartfelt confessions were made in the testimonies borne, which seemed to open the very windows of heaven for a copious shower of the latter rain. At the close of the service all except two in the congregation pressed closely together in front of the pulpit, when ministers and people entered into a solemn covenant to renew their consecration to God for personal service in the finishing of this work. It certainly seemed like a real foretaste of the experience foretold in Volume 9, page 126, under the heading, "A Reformatory Movement."

Considerable study was given to plans for personal effort along the lines of missionary activity. The members of the church pledged themselves to renewed activity along this line. Elder Turner assisted the young people in organizing a young people's prayer and work band.

Important Resolutions

Passed by the Colorado Conference
June 8-18

1. Whereas, The good hand of our God has in a special way been over the work in our conference during the past year, preserving the lives and health of our workers and of our people generally, preserving our church property and the institutions located within our borders from the destruction of the elements, and blessing our laborers with a good degree of success in the winning of souls to Christ, be it

Resolved, That we, as a conference, express our devout gratitude to the Giver of all our blessings, for the unnumbered tokens of his mercies and blessings during the past year; and that we hereby solemnly pledge ourselves to a renewed consecration of our lives, our means, and our all, for service in the finishing of his work in the earth.

2. Whereas, The CENTRAL UNION OUTLOOK, our union conference paper, is designed to be a unifying medium in our work throughout this union conference, be it therefore

Resolved, (a) That we urge all our people in this conference to become regular subscribers to the paper; (b) That we urge upon all our conference workers, faithfulness in supplying the OUTLOOK from week to week with brief reports of their labor; (c) That we encourage church and Sabbath School officers to send in frequent items of interest concerning the work in their respective churches.

3. Whereas, In pursuance of the recommendation of the North American Division Conference, at the Loma Linda Council, the Central Union Conference has so changed its constitution as to provide for quadrennial sessions; and

Whereas, It was further recommended at the Loma Linda Council that the local conference hold biennial sessions, be it therefore

Resolved, That this conference so amend its constitution as to provide for the holding of its conference sessions once every two years, and in order that one session of our conference may come in the same year that the Union Conference is held, and one mid-way between the sessions of the union conference, be it further

Resolved, That the sessions of our conference, following this one, be in 1918, 1920, 1922, etc.

4. Inasmuch as the Spirit of Prophecy tells us that "nothing is of greater importance than the education of our children and youth," we urge that an effort be made to place every child of Seventh-day Adventists under the care of a Christian teacher; and

Whereas, the supervision of the educational work needs a normal-trained, experienced teacher to organize new schools, help the teachers, and lift the standard of our school work,

We Recommend, That an educational superintendent be selected for this conference who will give his entire time to this work.

W. J. Huffman, the Central Union Conference auditor, is auditing the conference books this week.

J. R. Osborne has just arrived from the field full of enthusiasm and very much encouraged with the outlook.

Vernon Lovell writes that he made his scholarship for Union College in three weeks' time.

Elder J. S. Rouse attended Union College and the Union Conference board meetings at College View last week.

A. C. Madsen spent the Sabbath with the Joplin young people and reports a good interest in the two societies there.

Sister M. E. Lemons, of Cabool, writes that she has a very nice two hundred acre farm to rent to a good tenant. A splendid chance for a farmer who has a team.

Be sure to send in your orders for tents, rooms, etc., as soon as possible, as the indications point to a large attendance at the coming camp meeting. We must know in time to get our order filled, as the tents have to be shipped from Kansas City.

Elder Bellah writes from St. Louis that he has a good interest in the meetings there, although a rough element tried to break up the meetings. The police gave the tent good protection, so they did not succeed in their intentions. Pray for the work in St. Louis.

Elder Reeder also reports a good interest in Ava. A large audience still comes to hear the message, and they look for good results there.

Now Is the Time to Lift

R. A. UNDERWOOD

How many of you have read the article from Elder W. T. Knox, entitled "Our Mission Funds" in the Review of July 13? If not, please read the article. The General Conference pays out $54,000 every month to the missionaries already in the field, and the first day of August a party of forty sails from San Francisco to the Far East with Elder Porter and wife. This will add a further large expense. And this is not all. Twenty-five or thirty must follow this party within a month or two.

The demand upon our mission board are great. At present there is a deficit of over $122,000 in the General Conference treasury to say nothing of a surplus of about $100,000 that has been used which was on hand at the beginning of the year.

The amount that we are behind in our union is $14,315.13. Let every church and every conference give to its fullest ability, that we may no longer help to make this deficiency, which sum the General Conference needs in carrying on its work.

Camp Meeting Help

Excellent help has been secured for our camp meetings this year. Elder J. T. Boettcher, who has just arrived from war-stricken Russia, will attend the Missouri camp meeting, the first half of the Nebraska meeting, and the last half of the Kansas. Brother J. L. Anderson, who, with his family, is in the United States on a furlough from China, will attend the meetings. Elder Paap, Brother Eastman, and other General Conference workers will also be present. Decide at once to come, bringing a relative, friend or neighbor with you.

Items of Interest from Kansas

BURTON CASTLE

Elder McLay was in attendance at the Union College Board meeting at College View last week.

Elder Wilson conducted quarterly services at the Spivey Church last Sabbath. He reports very encouragingly concerning the work there.

Elder John Isaac, president of the Oklahoma Conference, spoke at the Wichita Church last Sabbath. He preached a very interesting and profitable sermon.

Two weeks ago, five colporteurs in Kansas had already earned scholarships. One earned his in eight days. Several other names could be added to the list now.

Brother J. F. Yaeger, of the Shaffer Church, called at the office and purchased some Bibles. He tells us the work of harvesting the grain has been successfully completed in his vicinity.

Our colporteurs are doing business in a hurry this year. The following telegram just arrived from L. E. Wright: "Send one hundred forty 'Bible Readings' mailing boxes. Rush order."

One who recently spent an evening with the Cedar Vale tent company was very favorably impressed with the manner in which the meetings are being conducted and the good results which are being seen.

Brother Allen has recently returned from Fort Scott where he has been assisting in the tent effort at that place. He reports encouraging progress, and that the two daily papers of the city are giving considerable space to the reports of the services.

A very favorable item in connection with the Wichita tent meetings is the fact that many are showing their interest by attending regularly. A Bible study preceding the regular service is being conducted for interested ones. One night each week is devoted to answering questions.

Why are the colporteurs having such good success?—Because they recognize the efficacy of prayer. Often they write asking to be remembered by us in prayer. Do you want a share in the success of their work? Then join with us at the time of our Monday morning prayer band when this faithful band of workers are especially mentioned at the throne of grace.

It is true the people have been busy harvesting their grain, but not too busy to buy a book when the Lord has impressed them to do so. Brother Carner's experience testifies to the truthfulness of this when he says: "I took a full morocco order from the stacker, after climbing up onto the stack. I also took an order in the same binding from the man who was running the header."

The Colored Camp Meeting

Leavenworth, Kans.

July 21-31 is the date set for our camp meeting. The gospel feast is now ready. Some of our most efficient workers will attend, and best of all, the Holy Spirit is promised and will be present to preside over the encampment. Now brethren and sisters, if it is in the providence of God that this provision has been made, it should be to us what the tarrying at Jerusalem in that upper room was to the disciples, —not a period of pleasure seeking, nor of friendly visitation, nor social entertainment. We are told by the servant of the Lord that "these days of preparation were days of deep heart-searching. The disciples felt their spiritual need and cried to God for the holy unction that was to fit them for the work of soul-saving." Today this is our greatest need. There are many blessings that await us if we will get in the attitude to receive them. "Let the heart break before God; let your house be set in order; prepare your children for the occasion; teach them that it is not of so much consequence that they appear with fine clothes, as that they appear before the Lord with clean hands and a pure heart. By so doing you will invite the Lord's presence into your homes, and holy angels will attend you as you go to the meeting, and their light and presence will press back the darkness of evil angels. Even unbelievers will feel the holy atmosphere as they enter the encampment."

You cannot afford to miss this meeting. Do not allow anything to keep you away from this annual Pentecostal gathering.

Order your tent from Elder W. H. Clark, 821 West 5th St., Topeka, Kans. Brother Henry J. Miller has charge of the furnishings for the tents and the writer will locate the people as they arrive. Meals will be served on the cafeteria plan.

J. W. Allison.
