The Nebraska Camp Meeting

August 21 to 31, 1919

Shelton, Nebraska

HELTON is the place. August 21-31 is the time. You are the one who is expected to be there to help swell the attendance at our camp meeting.

The town of Shelton is cooperating with us to do everything possible to make our camp meeting a success, and your stay in this town pleasant and congenial. The town is giving us our grounds, with water and light furnished free of expense. The grounds are very pleasant, joining the town on the north, very close in, and are skirted on one side by Wood River, with plenty of large trees for shade.

We have ordered extra tents this year. We expect to have a sufficient number of tents, so that no one will be obliged to suffer any inconvenience because of tent shortage. There will be sufficient rooms in this town for those who are unable physically to camp in tents. The commercial club of the town are doing all they can to get in touch with those who have rooms to rent. Please send in your order as soon as possible for a tent, furniture, and floor. The rent for the ten days on the tent will be $4.00; the floor, $2.00; half-floor, $1.25; the price of bed springs will be as usual—double springs, 75 cents; single springs, 50 cents.

We are expecting to have good help at our camp meeting this year. Elder Prescott is to be present with us during part of the time, and his studies you can not afford to miss. He is one of the deepest Bible students in the denomination. Elder Everson, who spent seven years in Italy as a missionary, will also be present part of the time. He will take the night services every night during his stay. Elder Everson has had wonderful success with his work in New York in getting many people to accept the third angel's message. It will pay you to bring your interested neighbors with you. We have been promised some good German help. Elder Nord and Brother Carlson will be on the ground to assist in the Swedish work. Union and local conference workers, will be present to give spiritual help and counsel.

We are renting a large pavilion from Carnie-Goudie, which we trust will add to the comfort of those who attend our camp meeting.

J. S. ROUSE.

Camp Meeting Is for You

C. M. CHRISTY

It is important that every one both young and old should attend the camp meeting. We need to meet together and receive the divine touch, the inspiration of each other's testimonies, that we may better understand our work, not only in our homes, but in our churches and the communities in which we live.

In the days of Israel the Lord asked the people to assemble three times each year in holy convocation. They came to these great assemblies bringing to the Lord their offerings of praise, their sin-offerings and their tithes. They spent the time in recounting the mercies of God, in offering praise and thanksgiving to his name and in studying to make known his wonderful works to the world about them. In doing this they went from these meetings fortified against the corrupting influence of idolatry and worldliness about them, and through their associations they were bound closer to the Lord and to one another. The Lord undoubtedly called his people together then because these gatherings were necessary to their spiritual growth and development. It was at these times that they could lay aside their worldly cares and draw nearer to God and discuss the unseen realities before and about them. We are told that many of them who lived at some distance from the place of assembling must have spent more than a month of each year in going to camp meeting so to speak.

If the children of Israel needed the benefit of these gatherings in their time, it is very evident that in these days of world-unrest and thickening peril, when men's hearts and minds are being absorbed in worldliness and money-making and being turned away from the thoughts of God and the stern realities before us, we need them much more.

Some living a distance from the camp meeting, have reasoned like this when thinking of the expense of traveling: "I guess I will stay at home this year and in place of spending the money for car fare, etc., I will give it to the needy places in the cause." The Spirit of Prophecy says, "We should not reason so. God calls upon us to take our place among the rank and file of his people. Strengthen the meeting all you can by being present. Put forth extra exertion to attend the gathering of God's people. . . . It would be far better for you to let your business suffer than to neglect the opportunity of hearing the message God has for you upon the campground. You can not afford to lose one such privilege."

We expect to have good help at our young people's tent. There are some rich blessings in store for us. Professor Rees, our new Missionary Volunteer secretary will be present, also Professors Benson and Morrison. You will want to meet all these brethren who have special interest in every young person. Come prepared to do your part in making the meeting the best ever and bring a friend with you. Do not forget your song book, "Make Christ King."

Visiting the People

The past two months I have visited a number of our churches and many isolated families. All have lifted so nobly in raising funds for our Shelton Academy that I take this way of thanking our brethren for their help.

As I visit the many homes and talk and pray with our dear people, I am convinced that they sense the times in which we live, and are on "higher ground" spiritually than ever before. The family altar, where the children learn to pray, in every home visited, has seemed so good to me. "It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth."

I hope to see all whom I have visited and those whom I expect to visit soon, at the camp meeting. I believe the Lord has a special blessing awaiting us at the camp meeting that we can not afford to miss.

To the juniors, I wish to say, we have special meetings planned for you. Meet us on the campground.

OLLIE G. MANFULL.

News Items

Elder Garton was called to his father's bedside in Indianapolis, Ind., last week.

Professor and Mrs. Andreasen and daughter, Eunice, are spending a few weeks in Colorado.

Brother Christy is enjoying a visit from his two brothers, Ralph and Loren.

Elder L. E. Johnson and Elmer Helligso closed their tent effort at Sutherland recently.

Elder B. H. Shaw and Brother Gibbs are now holding a tent effort in Shelton, Nebr. They report a good attendance.

Miss Gibbs is able to be around again. She left for Republican City Friday to spend the Sabbath with the church there.

Miss Queen Weinheimer, who has been teaching school in South Dakota the past year, returned to her home in College View recently.

Elder Rouse spent Sabbath, July 26, with the Grand Island church. From there he went to Cozad, where Elder Garton and Mr. Ross are holding a tent effort.

We were pleased to have Mrs. Geo. A. Williams call on us last Wednesday. Brother Williams came to Lincoln in answer to the governor's special call for an extra session of the legislature.

Let us not forget the date of camp meeting, and do not forget to plan to be there. We are renting some extra tents, and will do our best to secure rooms for those who desire them.

Miss Florence Howell is at the present time quite ill, and will not be able to resume her duties in the conference for some little time. Mrs. H. H. Howard will have charge of the educational work during Miss Howell's illness. She will also have charge of this work at camp meeting.

Camp Meeting - - Who Will Go?

F. W. STRAY

The influenza has claimed a few who attended last year. Nearly all others will be present this year and many more with them. We have good reasons for believing that the attendance this year will exceed the record attendance of last year.

Why are so many planning to attend camp meeting? It proceeds from the deep-seated conviction on the part of our people that the times demand it. A time of plague and pestilence, long foretold, is just before us. It may be a recurrence of the influenza epidemic, which the medical fraternity freely predicts. It may be some other epidemic as baffling to the medical profession. There is an epidemic of crime, immorality, lawlessness in the land.

To an Adventist the only hope of deliverance from plague of disease and pestilence of sin is the redemption that is in Christ Jesus our Lord and his soon return to make an end of sins. "Because iniquity shall abound the love of many shall wax cold." Every well-informed Adventist now recognizes that from now on it is a real death struggle for life. He must now avail himself of every opportunity and make use of every means of grace in order to win the final victory over sin in the flesh and in the world.

The camp meeting is a great assembly, ordained of God for the deliverance, instruction, inspiration and blessing of the Advent host. Between rain and heat, army worms and grasshoppers, the promising wheat crop is a great disappointment in Kansas. The corn crop may soon follow the same course. "That which the palmer worm hath left hath the locust eaten; that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpillar eaten." Joel 1:4. "The day of the Lord cometh, for it is nigh at hand." Joel 2:1. "Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breast; let the bridegroom go forth from his chamber, and the bride out of her closet." Joel 2: 15-16. "And it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions." Joel 2:28. "Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labor of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat, the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls; yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the Lord God of my salvation." Hab. 3: 17-18.

In view of what is sure to come, we must have this experience, brethren, and the Lord himself through the prophets of old has issued the call to all, young and old, in this time to attend the assembly, to leave all other business or pleasure, and to make "first things first."

A camp meeting announcement containing full information, will be mailed at once to every family. If you do not receive it, write the office and a copy will be mailed you.

Office Notes

MABEL EZELL

Miss Faye Eagle spent Sabbath and Sunday with the Arkansas City church.

The Union field missionary secretary, J. B. Blosser, was in the office last week.

Mrs. F. I. Mohr returned home last Thursday after spending two weeks at Nekoma.

We are still shipping "World in Perplexity." Ten copies can be had for $1.35, post paid.

W. B. Hoover, of Neodesha, who was in the city on business last week, called at the office.

Brother E. A. Jones was in the office Tuesday, and reports a good interest in the meeting at Wellington.

Elder M. G. Huffman returned to the office today after a two weeks' visit with the churches at Salina, Palco, and Hill City.

Remember the camp meeting date, August 28-September 7, at Winfield. The camp meeting Bulletin and order blanks will be mailed soon.

Dr. Dean, of the Kansas Sanitarium, occupied a part of the hour in the East Wichita church last Sabbath. Elder Blosser spoke in the Wichita church.

We are sorry to report that thirty church clerks have not reported for the second quarter ended June 30. A report from these churches will be appreciated.

Elder Henry J. Miller, who is conducting an effort in Wichita for the colored people, reports that seven have taken their stand and have kept the Sabbath for two weeks.

We have just fourteen copies of "Christ's Object Lessons" on hand which we will sell at 70¢ post paid. Remember this is a helpful book for the Sabbath school lessons.

Denver

Our work is moving along very nicely in the South and North Denver churches. In South Denver, we are making progress with our new church building. We are erecting a church that will accommodate about 400 people. A good basement is being made for church school purposes. There is a big interest in this part of the city.

We recently baptized seven persons, some for each of these churches.

Our Sunday evening services in our North Denver church are well attended; some are taking their stand for the truth.

G. W. ANGLEBARGER.

Longmont

A. E. HAGEN

We began our meetings in Longmont, July 10. We found most of the church members had been seeking God for the meeting, and those who had been carrying a real burden were ready, without urging, to carry the announcements of our meetings.

From the beginning many striking evidences of the leading of God were manifest. The local church elder, a man with a vision and burden, secured a choice location which had always been barred for any purpose. The writer also secured the most prominent corner in town on which to place our large, daily bulletin board. The mayor was very reluctant to give his consent but we went in the name of the Lord of the armies of Israel.

We have been without musical help until the past week, but have secured the services of Brother Victor Johnson, who with his violin and leadership is making the music a worthy feature. Also Bible and ministerial help has been delayed as Brother C. W. Allen, who is to connect with the work, has been delayed, leaving the burden upon the writer and tent master, Earnest Harper. However, "God has provided divine assistance for all the emergencies to which our human resources are unequal."

The interest and audiences grew from the start until now we have a good attendance. We have the usual crowd of transient attendants, but many of the same faces have appeared every night. If a precious harvest is not ours it will not be for the reason that God has not led the way.

Pray for souls in Longmont.

Leadville

In answer to a call for meetings, I spent from July 9-28 in Leadville. About seventeen years ago, a tent effort was held at that place, and a company was organized, but nearly all soon moved away. One sister alone has been keeping the Sabbath there for several years.

We were favored in getting the free use of the Baptist church for the meetings. The daily paper opened its columns for a synopsis of the subjects presented, and these articles were read with interest by many who did not attend. A most friendly spirit was manifested by every one whom the meetings touched. The attendance was small, but as good as the other churches of the city. At the close of the meetings, two were baptized and a Sabbath school of eight members was organized. Others are convinced, but business interests stand between them and obedience. Some of these we believe will soon obey.

E. E. FARNSWORTH.

CHAFFIN: Little Emry Milton Chaffin, infant son of Harry and Clara Chaffin, died at Jaroso, Colo., March 22, 1919. While it was with sorrowing hearts the parents laid their first born to rest, yet they can look forward with joy to the time when the Life-giver will again restore to them their loved one. The funeral was conducted by the writer in the new academy chapel.

Over the Field

D. U. HALE

It has been my good pleasure to visit the remainder of the tent companies.

Sabbath, July 26, was spent with the Kansas City church. They are all rejoicing that they now have a good church building all their own. They are to hold their first service in it on Sabbath, August 2. You know the saying, "It never rains, but it pours." Elder Everson, the new pastor, is to be with them for the first time Sabbath, August 2, also. Their blessings seem to come in "bunches." We wish and pray for them a prosperous winter and that many souls may join them in helping to carry this message.

From there we visited the St. Louis brethren. Brethren Stueckrath and Neufeld are having very interesting meetings for the German people. It looks now as though several will take their stand for the truth. Their attendance is not large but those attending are interested.

Monday evening was spent with Elder Miller in Springfield. Although it was "blue Monday," yet he had between 35 and 40 present. His attendance has been as high as 300. He expects several to take their stand in the near future.

We are home again now to make final arrangements for the camp meeting. We expect a good attendance. Some are writing for rooms, but the conference will have no rooms to rent. There are buildings near the campground but whether rooms can be had or not, we do not know. We are going to considerable expense to try to supply tents for those who want them on the grounds.

Some are asking about rates on the railroad. We are making every effort possible to obtain rates. Will let you know in a circular letter if we obtain them.

"Don't speak impatiently."

St. Louis Side Lights

C. G. BELLAH

Brother Hale spent last Sunday in St. Louis.

The Central church membership is two hundred and one.

The Central church is easy to locate and easy to like.

Twelve members of the Central church took part in Big Week.

Twenty-eight have been added to the Central church this year.

Sisters Massey and Daily spent Big Week canvassing at Festus.

Last Sabbath four members were added to the Central church by baptism.

Brother Schwarz spoke in the church the Sabbath the pastor was absent.

There will be a large representation from the Central church at the camp meeting.

An effort is being made by a business firm in the city to buy our church property.

Eighteen dollars of tithe was received recently from Sister Miller, who is now in Florida.

Brother and Sister Spanos and little Teddie have returned from attending the Chicago camp meeting.

Sister Daniels has returned from Salem, where she was called to see Dr. Slawson's mother, who was very ill.

At the close of the Big Week the pastor and his wife spent the Sabbath at Poplar Bluff. While there, six were baptized.

Alma Gerhart, our Bible worker, returned from her home at Poplar Bluff, where she has been taking a much-needed vacation.

The pastor and his wife spent about four days canvassing during Big Week, and sold over three hundred dollars worth of books.

Seventy-five dollars in tithes and offerings was received by the pastor from Brother C. E. Quigley, who is working at Newport, Ark.

Three people have begun keeping the Sabbath as the result of literature sent out by the correspondence band of the Missionary Volunteers.

Errata

Under "St. Louis Side Lights" of July 22, it was stated that the Central church paid $1,000 tithe during the second quarter of this year. It should have been $1,600.

"Don't look where you know it isn't safe to walk."

Ten Reasons Why We Spent Big Week Canvassing

ELD. AND MRS. C. G. BELLAH

Because it was our duty to God to do it.

Because it was our duty to the people to do it.

Because we desired to prove our faith by our works.

Because the time is short in which to warn the people.

Because people are anxiously waiting for our literature.

Because this literature contains a present truth message.

Because there is so much to be done and so few to do it.

Because we had not lost our interest in the colporteur work.

Because of the rich experience we could get in no other way.

Because we expect to see souls saved as a result of this work.

TEN BLESSINGS RECEIVED

DURING BIG WEEK

Drawn closer to God.

Had many rich experiences.

Increased our interest in the book work.

Met people we had canvassed fourteen years ago.

Realized more than ever the whiteness of the fields.

Learned that our "hands had not forgotten their cunning."

Conscious of the fact that we did our duty and our best.

Secured a much-needed rest from the weary toil of the city.

Learned that books are more easily sold now than ever before.

Learned to pray more earnestly for Brother Lorenz and his band.

Gering, Nebr.

Thursday, July 17, 1919, found the Stewart Memorial Tent pitched in Gering, Nebr., and ready for the first meeting which was held that night. The attendance was small. However, it has increased until we now have a full sized congregation of interested listeners.

As we have at the present writing only held six meetings, we can not tell of any special interest except on the part of some who have heard the truth elsewhere or, as in the case of some, those to whom some one has been and is sending our truth-filled literature.

Pray for the work here.

Our company consists of Harry B. Davis, Mrs. E. R. Osborn as Bible worker, Mary Miller as pianist, and the writer. C. H. MILLER.

News Notes

ALICE RIED

The tent workers at Broadwater report continued interest and attendance in their meetings.

Ruth Richmond returned to her home at Rapid City, S. D., to rest a few days preparatory to taking up the colporteur work again.

The city workers have finished canvassing Cheyenne, Wyo. Dena Grein and Goldie Jenkins will work Laramie next, and Lillian Hoyt will work in Kimball, Nebr.

Mrs. Mary Land says a Sabbath school of seven members has been organized and meets at her father's home, Brother John Marshall, about twenty-five miles east of Gordon, Nebr.

Chas. Baker, who is working in Duej County, Nebr., established a record for one week's canvassing in the Wyoming Conference. In forty-nine hours he took thirty-five orders for "Great Controversy" which amounted to $172.00.

Elder N. T. Sutton visited the church at Rapid City and the brethren at Lead on his way to Plainview, S. D., to hold a few meetings with interested people there, and baptize those who were awaiting an opportunity.

The Harvest Ingathering for 1919

This is the opening shot of the Harvest Ingathering campaign for the Central Union Conference. It is none too early to begin planning for this important undertaking. The Watchman Press have just informed us that the material for this work will be ready by the first of August. Get in your initial order for campaign materials early. These will consist of:

- Thermometer Goal Charts
- Individual Goal Cards
- Booklet of Information and Instruction
- Official Solicitor's Card
- Worker's Follow-up Pad

The church home missionary leader should see that his church is supplied with these materials. The General Conference has chosen October to be the official Harvest Ingathering month, and a goal of $300,000 has been set. Last year $200,000 was realized from this effort on the part of our people. Five dollars has been set as the individual goal this year, with the understanding that if that amount is not reached in October, the campaign be continued until it is.

Last year we were hindered somewhat in our efforts by the influenza epidemic. By getting an early start this year we ought to make up some of this loss, besides reaching the goal set for this year. It will be well for us to reckon on emergencies, but we must carry out our plans regardless of what may arise. There will doubtless be emergencies to meet again this fall and winter, but the work of God must go forward in the earth. There are experiences yet before us of which we have never dreamed before the work is finished. These can and will be met and overcome by courage and devotion and a stalwart faith in God.

Very much will depend upon the thorough organization for this work which is carried out in each of our local conferences and churches. The General Conference have asked the home missionary department to push this campaign again this year. I should like, therefore, for every officer in the home missionary department of the Central Union, from the leader of the church down to the least worker in the smallest division, to join with me in making this year's Harvest Ingathering effort one which will go far beyond the goal set for this conference.

Our share of the goal, based upon a per capita membership, amounts to $34,531. The membership of the Central Union Conference is computed to be 10,724, which would mean that each member would have to raise $3.22 to reach the above amount. Last year we raised $13,592.32 in this Union, which meant $1.27 per member. But as has been said, the General Conference have placed $5.00 as the individual goal, to be worked for until attained. If every one should do this, we should gather in from this Union $53,620.00.

I cannot help but believe that this grand result is possible if we organize our forces early, and get an early start with the papers. Look for further instruction regarding the Harvest Ingathering campaign for 1919 in the next issues of the OUTLOOK.

Is Your Home Passed By?

R. A. UNDERWOOD

Is your home passed by without the weekly calls of the oldest pastor and minister in the denomination?

I refer to the weekly visits of the good old Review and Herald. The Review and Sabbath Herald was first published in 1850. I once had a copy of the first issue. A little sheet called Present Truth had been issued in 1849, but the Review and Sabbath Herald, as its name is known and has been known for nearly seventy years, first commenced its work on the half century mark of the nineteenth century. For seventy years, or nearly so, this faithful minister has been going to every home that would invite its presence. I well remember in the first issue of the paper sent out to the believers that Elder White, its first editor, made a statement in a footnote that the next issue would be sent out as soon as money came in to pay for the printing. What would you think to see a notice in the Review of today, stating that the next issue would be sent out as soon as the money was forwarded to pay for its printing? We can exclaim, "What hath God wrought!"

We have, according to the report, a few more than 10,000 church members in the Central Union. In round numbers it is 10,724. On the basis of three to a family, we should have a few more than 3,300 copies of the Review and Herald coming into the Central Union Conference. According to the records we have 2,442 families who are receiving the Review in our Union. Taking from the 858 families not receiving the Review, about 333 families taking the foreign periodicals, the German, Scandinavian and others, would leave something like five or six hundred families, on the basis of three members to a family, that were not taking the Review before the special effort was put forth to get the Review into every family in the Union. I hope the next report will show that every family reading the English language, or those who do not take any of the foreign papers will have the Review coming to their homes.

Teachers Wanted

D. D. REES

There is at least one branch of work in the Central Union Conference that is greatly suffering for the want of workers, and it is a very important branch, too. It is missionary work of the highest order, for on page 168 of "Counsels to Teachers" we read: "Special care should be given to the education of the youth. . . . This is the noblest missionary work that any man or woman can undertake."

Many of our young people are eagerly looking forward to the time when they can be active missionaries. Here is a chance to be a missionary right in the home conference, and the call is very urgent.

At least fifty more church school teachers are needed in the Central Union Conference. Think what an army of children the lack of these fifty teachers will send to the public schools! Our children should be in our schools, but how can we have schools without teachers? Do we not have young ladies throughout our conferences who are qualified to teach who will come to the help of our children at this time and answer this great missionary call? All such should write immediately to the local conference educational superintendent or to the Union Conference educational secretary.

May the Lord forbid that the lambs of our flock have to attend public schools for the want of consecrated, Seventh-day Adventist teachers.

"Meekness is imperfect if not active and passive; if it will not enable us to subdue our own passions and resentments, as well as qualify us to bear patiently the passions and resentments of others."

"Don't go to sleep until you forgive everybody."

Union College News Notes

On Sabbath, July 26, Elder Everson occupied the church pulpit. At the close of the sermon, several of the summer school students were baptized.

Miss Myrtle McLellan, who has been attending the Nebraska University summer school, left last Tuesday for Missouri, where she will spend the remainder of the summer visiting relatives.

Mrs. Eugene Stout was called by telegram to Viborg, S. D., telling of a serious accident to her brother, Clarence. Mr. Stout later received word of Mr. Aalborg's death and left to attend the funeral.

Prof. E. C. Kellogg, en route to South Dakota, stopped a few days with friends in College View. Mrs. Kellogg is visiting relatives in Oregon. Professor Kellogg will continue his study of medicine in the Kansas University next year.

At the home of the bride's parents in Hawarden, Ia., Miss Lola Garrett and Lawrence Vollmer were united in marriage, Elder J. N. Anderson officiating. Mrs. Vollmer was teacher of English in Union last year and Mr. Vollmer served as chorister. Mr. Vollmer has accepted a position with the Plainview Academy faculty for the coming year.

Miss Maybelle and Walter Hahn were married July 10 at the home of the bride in Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Hahn for the past two years has been connected with Oswego Academy as preceptress and teacher, and Mr. Hahn has recently been released from military service. They are at home to friends at Redfield, S. D., where Mr. Hahn is a member of the Plainview Academy faculty.

The summer school closed with a teachers' institute, at which were present to assist in the work, Miss Sarah E. P. assistant educational secretary of the General Conference; A. F. educational secretary of the Union Conference; D. D. educational secretary of the Central Conference; and the following superintendents: Miss Edna Kilgus, Iowa; Bert Rhodes, South Dakota; Miss Alice Anderson, North Dakota; F. A. Page, Colorado; Miss Alma, Kansas; A. C. Madsen, Missouri; J. M. Fletcher, Wyoming. The meetings were well attended by the teachers, who reported having gained many helpful suggestions and much personal instruction.

and Mrs. L. E. Eckert are visitants and friends in College View.

Mrs. Eckert will remain here for the remainder of the summer. Both will attend Union next year.

Prospects are very bright for a good attendance next year. Let all bear in mind that school opens September 16, and plan to be here the opening day. Do not forget to bring a friend with you.

The Missionary Volunteer secretaries of the Central Union held a council in College View, July 25-27. There were present, J. W. Turner, of Colorado; H. E. Westermeyer, of Kansas; A. C. Madsen, of Missouri; C. M. Christy, of Nebraska; and J. M. Fletcher, of Wyoming.

The following, written by Miss Flora Vogan, and taken from the Workers' Bulletin of July 29, will be of interest to former students as well as colporteurs:

"Wednesday morning I took orders at every place, but a feeling came over me that I was not getting the spiritual strength that I need so much. I prayed earnestly for some experience that would give me more faith and a deeper Christian experience. I just felt as though I did not appreciate nor deserve the success I was having. The next place I went I found a wealthy lady who ordered seven 'Bible Readings,' four leather bindings and three cloth bindings. She bought them for relatives for presents. I am sure that it was God's power that prompted her to order them. Have had other experiences since which have helped me spiritually also."

Miss Mertie Wheeler has returned to her home in Marsland, Nebr., where she will remain until the opening of school, September 16.

Miss Lucille Searles, who attended Union in 1917-18, is in the sanitarium recovering from a sunstroke received while canvassing in Iowa. She expects to be one of Union's 500 next year.

Clinton Theological Seminary

The work at the seminary is in full progress, preparatory to the opening of the school in September. The normal building, when completed, will add greatly to the facilities of the institution and will be a monument of the efforts put forth by the solicitors and the brethren who helped with their means.

The basement of the building will be used for a gymnasium and the main floor will contain two large classrooms, two practice teaching rooms and two industrial rooms. Grades one to eight will be taught here. They will be under the direction of the normal director. Two critic teachers will have direct charge. These will be assisted by the normal students. Other minor improvements are being made which will add to the convenience of the work in general.

We are glad to report that the outlook for a full school is very encouraging. There exists a feeling of cooperation on the part of the teachers, students and workers. All are putting forth a special effort to make this the banner year. We shall be very glad to hear from any who should be here. Come, let us prepare to help finish the Master's work.
