Union College Activities

A Message from Europe

GEO. H. JEYS

Elder Guy Dail, who has been for twenty years one of the general secretaries of the European field, was in College View, November 6 and 7. Elder Dail was the first graduate from the literary course at Union College, graduating with the first class in 1895. As Professor Benson expressed it to the students in the college chapel, "He is one of the original seventy-three." He stands as a worthy example of what Union's graduates are. For the first eighteen years of his stay in Europe, Elder Dail was located at Hamburg, Germany, but on America's entrance into the war, he removed to Berne, Switzerland, where he is now located. He has attended the fall council of the General Conference, recently convened at Boulder, Colo., and is now returning to his home in Europe.

In his talk to the students in the college chapel he spoke from I Cor. 14:12, emphasizing the words, "Seek that ye may excel." He emphasized the need for trained men, and counseled all to finish the course that they had undertaken at whatever cost.

When asked what message he wished to send to the readers of the OUTLOOK, he said:

"Tell them that I am exceedingly pleased to see the class of young men and women that are in Union College preparing for service in this sin-cursed earth. My heart was touched when, this morning in chapel, the call was made for those to stand who had definitely given their lives to the cause of God for active service, and three hundred arose without a moment's hesitation.

"Of course China, India, Japan and the Islands of the sea are looking to these young people for leaders, but there is now another field. In lands where the brethren of the Central Powers can no longer work, and where, because of America's help in the recent war, both in sending men, food, medical supplies and other aid, Americans are held in esteem, our men and women from America will have to carry on the work. I pray that the Lord of the vineyard will send many young men and women from Union College to these fields of Europe and Asia."

Elder Dail expressed an earnest hope that many young men and women in the Central Union who are not now in college should carefully consider the advisability, yes, the necessity that they attend the college and fit themselves for God's service, looking at it as they will wish they had looked at it, when we all stand before the judgment bar and render an account of our stewardship. "But remember," said he, "that only whole-hearted, voluntary service will be worth while." It is his conviction that Union College still has a great future in the plan of God, in training men and women for the cause of Christ.

The parting message was:

"I wish to thank the faculty and students for the generous, noble Christian spirit that I see here in Union. I wish for my Alma Mater continued prosperity; and that it may still be a mighty training center from which there shall continue to go out a body of vigorous young men and women to minister the Bread of Life to the needy world."

Union College Harvest Ingathering

The students and teachers of Union College are working faithfully to reach their goal of $2000 for the Harvest Ingathering.

On Wednesday, October 22, school was dismissed and eleven bands went to their territory to work. Those who did not go with papers were organized into a labor band and gave the day's wages to the Harvest Ingathering fund. On returning home in the evening, all reported wonderful success. Between $600 and $700 was collected. It was immediately decided to give an opportunity to all to go again on Tuesday, October 28. Some bands voted to double their goals, and others secured almost double their goals.

Several auto loads went to the country and near-by towns, and a band of young men went to Omaha. At the close of the day, it was found that all had been very successful, some individuals gathering from $20.00 to $25.00 each.

Nearly $1200 has been collected, and from the spirit and determination that prevails among the students and teachers we expect this to be Union's banner year in the Harvest Ingathering work.

Union College News Notes

Imo Preston spent the last few days of October visiting home folks.

Lorena Snyder spent November 1 and 2 at her home in Sioux City, Ia.

A formal dinner was given at South Hall Sunday evening for the students and their guests.

Miss Carrie Graves, who is teaching at Republican City, spent Monday visiting friends at Union.

Milton Griesse and Dewey Kimbrell have arrived and expect to enroll for another year in Union.

Joe DeWitt was called home October 24 on account of his mother's illness. He reports her much better.

Word has been received of the marriage of Elsie Evenson and Harry Alway at Walla Walla, Wash.

Mr. Mike Stern has returned to his home in North Dakota. We hope Mr. Stern will be with us again in a short time.

Thomas Brooks Fletcher delivered his lecture on "Tragedies of the Unprepared" Saturday evening in the chapel.

Charles and James Larson were called home October 27 because of the serious illness of their mother, who was accidentally shot.

A patriotic program is planned for Saturday evening, in which the young men who have served in the army and navy are to take part.

A program was given Monday evening, October 27, by the Normal Department. The proceeds were given to the Harvest Ingathering.

Vera McCumber visited at the college, November 1 and 2, on her way to her home in Minnesota. She recently finished the nurses' course at the Boulder-Colorado Sanitarium.

Mr. Rex Jacobson was surprised by some of his friends at his home, Monday, October 27, the occasion being his birthday. He was presented with a large Union College pennant.

A "speech week" campaign is being planned, in which all students may compete for the prizes offered for best essays and posters. The aim of this campaign is to better the use of English in the school.

Floy Bowes visited her sister, Blanche, and friends at the college on her way to her home at Shelton, Nebr. Miss Bowes has been doing Bible work in South Dakota for the past year.

Miss Vera White, who has been connected with the Southwestern Union Conference office as stenographer has accepted a similar position at the Boulder Sanitarium. En route she visited friends at Union last Thursday.

Elder Meade McGuire, field secretary of the General Conference Missionary Volunteer Department, spent a few days at Union the latter part of the week. While here he organized a band for those who are planning on the young people's work.

Do you want to know what is coming on the earth

And do you want your relatives, neighbors, and friends also to know what is coming? Certainly you do. Let the Signs weekly help you inform them. It is made for that purpose. Here are the names of a few of our leading writers who wish to coöperate with you in the all-important work of helping your friends and neighbors to see the true meaning of present-day conditions, and prepare for the tremendous issues just before us:

A. G. Daniels
I. H. Evans
G. B. Thompson
F. M. Wilcox
C. B. Haynes
G. M. Price
G. W. Rine
B. G. Wilkinson
M. C. Wilcox
R. S. Owen
A. W. Spalding
and scores of others.

The Hour Calls for Larger Effort

Events of startling import are occurring daily. Their significance MUST be heralded to the world. Our leading men have repeatedly stated that the Signs weekly should have a circulation of 100,000. We are sure that if our people will lift strongly with us, it can be brought to that; and with a hundred thousand "silent preachers" going into that number of homes each week, probably a half million souls will be enlightened regarding the meaning of world conditions, and the rapidly approaching climax of all things. Are you able to double your Signs club this fall? Will you try to do so? If you cannot, then increase its size all you can. A blessing awaits you in it. Remember "SIGNS" DAY—NOVEMBER 22.

On Open Letter

College View, Nebr.,
Nov. 7, 1919.

Dear Co-worker:

The conference committee has called a special session of the Nebraska Conference to convene at College View on November 28--December 2, for the purpose of giving consideration to the sale of the Hastings and College View sanitariums, and also to select a location for a new sanitarium building.

We feel that this is a very important meeting. Therefore, we ask that a full delegation be elected from every church in the conference, and that the names of the delegates be forwarded to H. E. Rosenbach, at College View, as soon as elected. Please elect your delegates just the same as for the regular conference session at camp meeting time.

The conference counts this of so much importance that we have voted to pay the railroad fare of the church elders to and from the church, and to give all delegates free entertainment while attending. There will be meetings of much importance for the church elders, officers and conference workers at this special session; therefore, we are asking that you arrange for a full delegation to attend. Some good help will be prepared and very important instruction will be given. We are asking all our conference laborers to meet with us, to seek the Lord, to give help, and to lay plans for the great advance movement that has recently been planned by the General Conference committee at the meeting recently held in Boulder, Colo.

Please do not delay this matter, but elect your delegates at once.

Very sincerely yours,

NEBRASKA CONFERENCE S. D. A.,
J. S. ROUSE,
President.

"If you have any faith, give me a share of it. Your doubts you may keep to yourself; I have plenty of my own."

"The more we do the more we can do; the more busy we are the more leisure we have."

Does God Hear Prayer?

We have read and reread, with great delight, the inspiring words of old: "I cried unto the Lord with my mouth, and he heard me. Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me." The God that heard and answered David's prayer in his great sorrow and agony of heart is the same today. He hears prayers, and we know it, by our own and others' experiences.

A short time ago the writer went out to find a sick person; but instead, found two. The first one was not the one looked for, but accidentally, or rather providentially, found. I rapped at a door in the vicinity where the sick person was supposed to live, and a frail voice said; "Come in." I went in and found an elderly lady lying in her bed. I asked if she was the party I was looking for. She said she was not. She told me she had been lying sick since the day before and had not been able to get up and call her neighbors for help. "But I have been praying," she said, "all morning that God would send some one to help me." I said: "Your prayers have been heard, I am here to help you in any way possible." So I went out to a shed, cut and carried in some wood and coal, and got a good fire started. After the room had been heated, we read some precious promises from the Book of books, and praised God from whom all blessings flow. After we departed, I told her neighbors of her illness; and pursued my journey with more faith than ever that God hears prayer.

Shelton Academy Notes

Elder Shaw has had an attack of tonsillitis, but is much better now.

George Hutches and Lloyd Cowin spent the week end at the home of the former, in Stapelton, Nebr.

Elder Meade MacGuire has given us two good chapel talks lately,--one at chapel Wednesday morning and the second at worship that evening.

Brother R. T. Emery, the Union Conference auditor, has spent the past two days working on the academy books. He returned to his home last evening.

Elder F. G. Lane, of Omaha, spoke at worship Tuesday evening. His talk was on the great need of the mission fields. It is hoped that many from this school will feel called to give the message in foreign lands.

Our new chapel clock is here and has been installed. The money for it was raised by the juniors at camp meeting, and it bears the inscription, "Juniors, 1919."

Among the late arrivals here are: Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Patrick, of Lisco, Nebr.; and Mr. and Mrs. F. Christiansen, of Arcadia, Nebr. Both families have bought homes here, in order that they may send their children to the academy.

The Shelton Academy board, with the exception of Elder Sutton, of Wyoming, met on Tuesday of this week. At the chapel period, Elder Rouse gave a stirring talk to the student-body and faculty. The other members of the board also spoke a few words of cheer and courage.

News Notes

H. E. ROSENBRACH

L. B. Johnson, of Omaha, was in College View the middle of last week.

Brother F. A. Lorenz, after having been away nearly all summer, has returned to College View.

Brother E. F. Craig, of Lynch, has purchased a property in College View, and has started to move here.

Brother L. R. Houpt, of Carman, Nebr., has sold out and will move to Jaroso, Colo. He is one of our faithful conference church members.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stretter, of Healdsburg, Calif., are visiting relatives and friends in Nebraska. At the present time they are in College View.

Brother Cardy, a relative of A. N. Cardy, of Beatrice, was here a few days last week. He returned to Beatrice to spend Sabbath. Brother Cardy's field of labor is in Canada.

We are again reminded of the nearness of the Week of Prayer which will be December 6 to 13. We have a limited supply of German, Swedish, and Danish papers here in the office. If those who do not have a copy will let us know, we will mail you one.

The whereabouts of the following named persons is desired by Fern Williams, Republican City, Nebr., who informs us that they will be dropped from the church roll unless they are heard from shortly: Cecil Beah, Rosa Nicholas, Grace Martin, and Harriett Martin.

We certainly are glad to report that the Harvest Ingathering work is progressing better than it ever has. The College View church has been credited with nearly twelve hundred dollars for this fund, and more is coming in every day. This seems to be the experience of nearly every church in the conference. Union College has closed two days, at different times, and the students given a chance to go out and do soliciting. Very good results have attended their efforts.

Elder Rouse left Friday for Shelton to attend to some necessary business.

Brother E. A. Blodgett, of this village, has sold out, and will move to California.

We have been informed that the Fremont church has raised $555 for the repair of the church there. They intend to make it thoroughly modern, and give it a general renovating.

Kindly take notice of the special session of the conference, announced elsewhere in this paper, to be held November 28 to December 2. The sale of the two sanitariums now operating in Nebraska and the location and erection of a new one are some items of business to receive attention.

Special Session of the Nebraska Sanitarium and Benevolent Association

A special session of the Nebraska Sanitarium and Benevolent Association is to be held at College View, Nebr., Dec. 1, 1919, at 9:30 a. m., for the purpose of giving consideration to the sale and transfer of the Nebraska Sanitarium buildings now owned and controlled by said association.

Notice of Special Session of Nebraska Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

A special session of the Nebraska Conference of Seventh-day Adventists is called at College View, November 28 to December 2, 1919, for the purpose of giving special consideration to the sale and transfer of the conference sanitarium buildings, and the location and erection of a new sanitarium building.

Whitewood, S. D.

G. T. GLENDRAKE

At the close of the tent effort in Broadwater, Nebr., I was asked to make the Black Hills of South Dakota my field of labor. I tried in several towns to find a suitable place in which to hold meetings, but without success. Finally I succeeded in renting the Methodist church here in Whitewood. This is a beautiful little town of about 300 inhabitants.

On October 14 my first meeting was held, but the attendance was very small. The weather also was bad; rain, snow, muddy roads and heavy frosts contributed to cut down the attendance, the first two weeks. But in spite of all, the number of people attending gradually increased until at the present time about 50 people attend. The Presbyterian minister and his wife have been out several times and have so far been very friendly. He has even had me assist in the Sunday services in his own church. A prominent business man, who teaches a class of grown people in the Sunday school, told his scholars last Sunday that they ought to attend the meetings, and that they did not know what they missed by not attending.

It is too early as yet to predict what the results of this series of meetings will be, but I ask the readers of the OUTLOOK to pray for the work here, that the honest in heart may be gathered out, and a strong company of believers raised up.

Wyoming Conference News

ALICE REID

Elder Sutton spent Sabbath and Sunday with the Sheridan church, and Monday at Newcastle, Wyo.

Elder J. S. James visited the conference office Thursday on his way to Sheridan, Wyo., where a home missionary convention was held Sabbath and Sunday.

Elder J. M. Fletcher, from Broadwater, Nebr., was in Crawford Thursday and left Friday for Sheridan, Wyo., to attend the convention there.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Bowman, from the Western Washington Conference, have located at Wheatland, Wyo., and are very energetic in the Harvest Ingathering campaign.

The Crawford church have nearly reached their goal of $5.00 per member on the Harvest Ingathering fund, and the members are still at work.

Sister Mattie Pointer, of Sheridan, sends in an excellent report for her first week's experience in the colporteur work. She is canvassing in the city of Sheridan.

Arthur Nelson and wife write that they reached Honolulu, October 10, and had one day for sight seeing in that beautiful city. They will be located in North India, and their address will be 517 Abbott Road, Lucknow, India. By this time they have no doubt reached their destination, and are looking forward to letters from the homeland.

An Opportunity

A splendid opportunity is open to our children in the church schools for doing good and to assist in securing funds for the mission fields. A special influenza number of the Life and Health Magazine is now ready for circulation. It contains 16 pages of good, practical, helpful matter, good illustrations, and will sell readily. The people will gladly buy, for they are looking for help to meet this terrible scourge.

Let each church school secure a supply, and encourage the children to sell them around their homes.

No More Smokes

The Anti-Tobacco Annual convinces soldiers that the cigarette is not good for them.

The Instructor recently sent a soldier a copy of its Anti-Tobacco Annual. This soldier has just sent a letter to the Instructor thanking it for the Annual and ordering a good supply of the Annual for other soldiers. This one copy of the Annual, sent to this young man, caused five soldiers to give up the use of tobacco.

When they read the scientific facts given in the Annual against tobacco, some of them give it up at once. Thousands would do the same thing if they could have the Annual. The Annual does not antagonize the user of tobacco, but educates him. It will be a great blessing to every user of tobacco.

The Time is Here

We have again come to the time of year when we face our standing in mission funds as regards our quota of twenty-five cents a week for each member. During the greater part of the year the majority of our churches fall short of their quota; but by the close of December they have done their part, and the quota is made up.

There are several ways in which our people make up the weekly quota for missions: (1) by Sabbath school and church offerings; (2) by the investment fund; (3) by the Harvest Ingathering work; and (4) by the payment of pledges made for missions. All these funds thus raised by the churches count on the twenty-five cents a week quota.

Dear brethren and sisters in Colorado, I trust and believe that while we are far behind at this writing, we will all do our duty in helping the work in the far-off fields. The work of foreign missions now takes precedence among us, and it is the gifts of God's people that enables the mission board to send men abroad to warn the world. So remember the investment you have made, and also take your place in the Harvest Ingathering work which presents great possibilities at this time. And do not forget your twenty-five or fifty cents, or one dollar a week, or even more. God will bless us in doing our part just now.

W. A. GOSMER.

Important

The First Denver Seventh-day Adventist Church wishes to say through the columns of this paper that the church record has been carefully examined by ministers and officers, and they find that the said church record has not been revised for years, so that at this writing some have been found on the books who are dead and others who have been transferred to other churches, etc.

The church officers urgently make an appeal to the names listed below, or to those knowing the whereabouts of such. Please write at once to the West Denver Church clerk, Mrs. Henry J. Schultz, 743 Elati St., Denver, Colo.

All names not heard from by Jan. 1, 1920, will be dropped from the church record:

Mrs. M. W. Petty, Minervay Vaugunda, Catherine Shaw, Annie M. Shaw, Lucile Shaw Pierce, Susie Fellows, Ruth Farrell, Alwine Hohne, Lillie Fleming, Mineta Fleming, Dorothy VanVleet Larson, Sadie Miller Rogers, Evelin High, Mrs. Clarissa Thornton, Francis M. Stewart, Hans Smith, Mrs. Josephine Sherman, Mrs. Louis Williamson, Louis Yort, Pearl Stringer, Mrs. Katie Rau, Edna Schaffer, Nancy Pratt, Edwin McGinnis, Helen Graybill, Thelma McDonald, Grace Millison Mercer, Annie Morgan, Arthur L. Myers, Sylvia Myers, Mrs. Conrad Miller, Mrs. M. C. Lyman, Guda Loftman, Mildred Loftman, Lillie Kunkel, Amy M. Keehnell, Mrs. S. F. Tillman--Kinzer

A beautiful little scene occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Kinzer, Jaroso, Colo., on the evening of Oct. 30, 1919, when their daughter Bonnie, became the bride of Mr. Cecil Tillman. The wedding ceremony was performed by Elder John B. White. About fifty guests were present to witness the scene and enjoy the short informal reception which followed.

The bride is a graduate of Campion Academy, also a summerschool student of Union College. The groom is a soldier of the late war, having returned from France about six months ago. Mr. Tillman is manager of the broom factory, located on the school farm, and expects to have a class of boys under instruction. At the same time, he will be enrolled as a student in the Jaroso Academy.

News Notes

MARY V. WALTER

Brother H. A. Fish and Brother Coppock left today for Goldsberry to visit the church there. From there Brother Fish will go to Columbia and Armstrong.

Elder Raft, of the Scandinavian Union, passed through Clinton and visited the school. He spoke two evenings in the chapel, relating many interesting experiences, showing the progress of the third angel's message in spite of the war.

Many good reports are coming in from the field showing that all who are taking part in the Harvest Ingathering work are gaining many rich experiences. Do not let a single paper lay aside and not be used. The supply has been exhausted, but a new supply will be ready by November 15. Order what you need now so you will not be disappointed.

Felix A. Lorenz leaves the office the first of next week to take up work as assistant field secretary in the Lake Union Conference. We regret to lose him from our force of workers, but we pray that the Lord's richest blessings will attend him as he enters his new field of labor. A farewell was given for Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz on October 28. All the office workers and a few other friends were present. A pleasant evening was spent together.

On Sunday night, November 2, it was my privilege to attend service in the St. Louis Central Church. Brother Bellah is holding a special series of meetings, and there are a number of outsiders attending regularly. On Sunday night he spoke on spiritualism. The church is working with Present Truth in the immediate neighborhood of the church, and many honest hearts are being found. Can you not plan to use at least one set of this splendid paper in your neighborhood? It may be the means of bringing several into the fold.

On Sabbath, November 1, I attended Sabbath school and church service in the colored church at St. Louis. These members have been faithfully working to raise enough money to get a church building. They are crowded to the limit in their present quarters. If they continue their present zeal, it will not be long till they will have a new church home. Remember these people in your prayers. They are faithfully using our small books among their people.

Tuesday, November 4, Elder Guy Dail, from Switzerland, was here and gave a stirring talk in chapel. He told of the suffering, not only of our people, but of those in general in different parts of Europe. He said there would be thousands in Europe who would perish this winter from cold and hunger. But many believers are being added to our church, which shows that Satan does not have power to stop the work of God in the earth. The work will be finished. The question for us is, will we be among those who help to finish it? What are you doing for those nearest you?

At the home of her parents at Versailles, Mo., Miss Bertha Kintner was married on Tuesday afternoon to Mr. Benjamin W. Lange, of Osceola, Ia., Brother Fish performing the ceremony. There were only a few present at the ceremony. The church members from Florence expected to attend, but on account of rain were unable to make the trip. Mr. and Mrs. Lange will make their home this winter at the home of the bride's parents, Brother and Sister Kintner. We trust the Lord will richly bless this couple and make them a blessing in his vineyard.

GERHART: Chester Orville Gerhart was born in Philadelphia, Pa., Apr. 25, 1874, and died Oct. 27, 1919, being 45 years, 6 months and 2 days of age. He was married to Altie Elvira Lane, Aug. 7, 1906. He leaves a wife, daughter, sister, other relatives and a host of friends to mourn their loss. In him the home has lost a loving husband and a tender father; the church school, an earnest sympathizer; the church, a loyal supporter; and the neighborhood a valued friend.

Special Notice to Young People's and Home Missionary Societies

Back numbers of The Watchman Magazine are excellent literature for use in home missionary work. We have a limited quantity which we will furnish at 2 cents a copy, or $17.50 a thousand. As long as they last, we will fill a good portion of your order with the July and September, 1919, issues. Order early and get these late issues.

Kansas News Notes

F. I. MOHR

We are in receipt of a letter from Brother Faris, of Oswego, stating that he raised over $22.00 as his share of the Harvest Ingathering goal.

Miss Faye Eagle, our Sabbath school secretary, of Wichita, is in the office at this time attending to the mailing out of her quarterly supplies.

We find that the Harvest Ingathering is coming along nicely. The reports which are received from the different churches and isolated people are certainly good.

Miss Rachel Meier, of the Kansas Sanitarium, told us she gathered more than $30.00 as her share of the Harvest Ingathering work. This is the first time that Miss Meier ever worked in this way.

The committee has asked Mrs. Bonnie Mills, of Winfield, and Mrs. Elizabeth Longgood, of Kansas City, to connect with the evangelistic effort that is being conducted by Elder Everson, in Kansas City, Mo.

We can fill your orders now for the new 1920 Morning Watch calendar. We have a stock of 1200 copies on our shelves. These will be mailed at 5c per copy. Please order your Morning Watch now and avoid the rush at the close of the year.

The Enterprise Church and Academy students divided in different bands for the Harvest Ingathering, Monday, November 3. The cities of Abilene, Chapman, Junction City, Woodbine and Enterprise were worked. Monday evening we found that $318.12 was gathered. The goal was $200.

Brother W. F. Surber has been asked to take the home missionary secretaryship in the conference. Brother E. A. Jones, the former secretary of the home missionary department, has been asked to locate in Topeka to follow up the work that Brother Ira V. Minner is leaving.

The academy carpenters are building a piazza on the young men's dormitory. As soon as this is completed, they will leave for their several homes. The work done by these carpenters, and especially Brother J. L. Ballard, has been very much appreciated by the conference committee.

When Mr. B. A. Flack, cashier of the Dickinson County Bank of Enterprise, was solicited for Harvest Ingathering, he wished to know what the price of the Watchman was for the year. We were glad to tell him it was $1.50. He said, "I want the paper. Here is my check for $1.50."

Elder F. W. Stray and Brother H. S. Osterloh left Enterprise for Wichita to attend to some matters concerning the Kansas Sanitarium. Brother Osterloh has severed his connection as chairman of the Enterprise building committee. The services rendered by Brother Osterloh are very much appreciated by the committee.

We still have several copies of back numbers of the following magazines on hand: Watchman, Signs Monthly, a few Signs Weekly, third quarter Liberty, the Review and Life and Health. These will be mailed to you for the postage you will send us. Kindly order these at once, as we wish to make room for new stock.

The following committeemen and workers were here at the office for committee meeting: F. W. Stray, W. L. Nott, R. B. Stauffer, Bernard Voth, H. S. Osterloh, J. D. McBroom, H. C. Haughey, A. E. Johnson, W. F. Surber, W. E. Neff, A. S. Bringle and Prof. E. E. Pringle. Very important matters concerning the conference work and school were taken up.

Obituaries

HUFF: Mrs. Eva Huff died Wednesday, Oct. 15, 1919, at the home of Sister Emma Schultz, who, under the directions of the church, tenderly cared for her during her last illness.

Sister Huff was born in Russia 37 years ago, later coming to Denver, Colo., where she accepted the truth of the third angel's message two years ago.

She suffered much with cancer of the stomach. Her faith in God was firm to the end. She was alone in the world, yet not alone, as the Saviour was her companion. Her testimony was very encouraging.

Words of comfort were spoken by the writer.
E. R. LAUDA.

LARSEN: Mrs. Matilda Larson, born in Sweden in 1857, was instantly killed by a railroad train near her home in Denver, Colo., Oct. 8, 1919. She had lived in Denver since 1889. At the time of her death she had fully decided to obey God in all things and unite with his people.

We do not know why God should permit this sad accident, but we feel sure that God permits nothing to happen to his children but that which will best serve his purpose. We feel assured that Sister Larson will have a part in the first resurrection. She was laid to rest in the Crown Hill Cemetery, October 11. The undersigned, assisted by Elder G. E. Nord, conducted the funeral service. Words of comfort were spoken from 1 Sam. 20:3. "Surely as the Lord liveth and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death."

O. J. NERLUND.

HOFFMAN: Sophia Baumann was born in Kulmbach, Germany, Mar. 13, 1835. She came to America at the age of sixteen years. On Feb. 10, 1856, she was married in Baltimore, Md., to Johannas Hoffman. To this union were born ten children, six of whom are living. After residing in Chicago, Ill., for twenty-six years the family came to Dudley, Colo., in 1879. Mr. Hoffman died in 1882.

Sister Hoffman had been a faithful member of the Adventist church for over twenty-four years. Though widowed and struggling along to rear her family, she never failed to do a kind deed, say a kind word or perform a Christian act whenever the opportunity came within her reach. Never a needy one was turned from her door without his wants being supplied. She was a doer of the word as well as a hearer.

Sister Hoffman passed away Aug. 19, 1919, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Snell, with whom she had resided for several years, at Alma, Colo. Having lived in this mining camp for forty years she will be greatly missed in the community. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. P. E. Hearty.

America's Class War

If ever a magazine delivered a strong, convincing message at the psychological moment it is the December Signs. When men of every occupation, with the possible exception of the preachers and the undertakers, are on strike; when your newspaper contains little else but industrial disruption, rioting, mobbing; surely the world is in dire need of an explanation of these things that "are coming upon the earth."

Francis McClellan Wilcox looks beyond the present turmoil to the coming of Jesus Christ, the one-time carpenter of Nazareth, in his thought-compelling article, "What the Industrial Unrest Means to Me."

George W. Rine, in a contribution which many of the strong secular magazines would be glad to publish, gives the historical side of the age-long struggle between those who have and those who have not. You will learn many things in "The Class War is On."

Carlyle B. Haynes surveys the whole wide world and tells us that men's hearts everywhere are failing them for fear and perplexity. The last three paragraphs of "The World on the Rack" skillfully and beautifully point the perplexed man to Jesus and his coming.

George McCready Price, whose articles are being printed in several of the leading religious periodicals of the world, rehearses the aims and progress of the Socialistic movement in "The Gospel of Karl Marx." By all means get this article.

"What's Wrong with the World Anyway?" by Varner J. Johns, affirms the keeping of God's law as the duty of every man, and its transgression as the cause of our social and industrial ills.

"We Court 'Hi Cost'," by Orva Lee Ice, calls us back to a simpler mode of living as one solution for the high cost of living.

"The Kingdom of Love" by Arthur W. Spaulding is the third of his series, and because you have read the first two you will read the third.

"Is There a Live Devil?" by Tyler E. Bowen will tell you that there is a personal adversary, how he works now and what we may expect of him in the future.

"When Heaven Came to Earth" by Arthur S. Maxwell and "Subtracting Christ" by Horace G. Franks are very apropos to the Christmas season. They tell us the heart satisfying story of Bethlehem and its Christ, and of his influence on the world.

This is another issue of "The magazine with a message," that you are going to keep on file and which you will surely want that friend you are praying and working for to read.

Sermon Material

"Her husband preached Sunday evening in a small country Methodist church. For his subjects he takes them out of the Watchman, because he cannot find anything anywhere else that he gets so much help out of as he does this magazine."

This lady had been given a copy of the magazine last May, and since then she is always ready for the regular monthly visits of the agent. The agent who wrote of this incident is one of those working the same territory over each month with splendid success. It pays to follow up one's efforts. Even if you cannot put in full time as a regular magazine agent, you may have the satisfaction of creating a growing interest in the message by working a given territory every month as you are able.

What are you planning for your part in home missionary week this winter? There are many lines from which to choose, but there are few more pleasant and more successful than working with the magazines.

One agent in reporting the sale of one hundred and fifty copies in four hours writes, "The Watchman company have their magazine done fine, and I am confident of selling every number. The message is there, and all the pictures are fine."

The November number of the Watchman Magazine, now on sale is especially attractive. Among the articles that you will want your neighbors to read are "The Kingdom That Shall Not be Destroyed," "Shall we Mourn Forever?" "The Judgment of the Church," "Red Lights Ahead," and an editorial "What Think Ye of Christ?"

Wants Another Copy

From Osage, Kans., comes the following letter from a lady who recently purchased "Bible Readings":

"I purchased a copy of 'Bible Readings for the Home Circle' last summer of your agent, Miss Edna Wallace, and I like the book so well that I would like to get another copy for my brother for Christmas. The one I have cost $5.00, and I want another one just like it. I would like to have the agency for it, too, if it will not interfere with Miss Wallace; and could she have the commission on the book I buy from you? Hoping to hear from you soon."

In another community, one home was accidentally missed by a "Bible Readings" colporteur, and from it comes the following inquiry:

"There was an agent through here this summer selling the book 'Bible Readings for the Home Circle.' In some way I was missed, and I would like to obtain a copy of it in the cloth binding. Can I buy it from you, or can you refer me to some one I can get it of? If I can buy it of you, please let me know the price and I will send draft."

Such inquiries cheer the hearts of those who are carrying our large books to the people. The colporteur, when giving his presentation, never knows what interest may come from it. It is truly encouraging to note that during the first ten months of the year the sales of our subscription books in the Central Union amounted to $104,832.00 as compared with $83,895.00 for the same period of last year, a gain of almost $21,000.00. Splendid records of sales have been made during October. For example, during the week ending October 25, 24 colporteurs took orders for 37 "Great Controversy," 34 "Daniel and Revelation," 26 "Practical Guide," 72 "Bible Readings," and 151 "Our Day," value $1,310.05. This represents the work of only four conferences, as Wyoming's report hasn't been received. The Lord's blessing is evidenced by these constant inquiries, and the facts and figures which show continued progress. We trust they may not only encourage those who are having a part in this work, but many others whom the Lord may be calling to it.
