The Ministerial Institute

S. E. WIGHT

The ministerial institute for the Central Union Conference was closed at noon Wednesday, February 23, Elders A. G. Daniells, G. B. Thompson and R. D. Quinn leaving that day for Minneapolis to attend a similar institute for the Northern Union Conference. Our workers remained here until Thursday afternoon, the 24th, also Elder E. E. Andross. We were joined that day by Brethren H. K. Christman, of the General Conference home missionary department; V. O. Punches, of Mount Vernon, Ohio, who has recently taken up work in connection with the home missionary department of the Nebraska Conference; and Ernest Lloyd, of the Pacific Press, at which time the work of the home missionary convention which began a few days prior to the opening of the ministerial institute, was finished up.

We had a most profitable season during the ministerial institute. The college lightened up the work of the students, and meetings were held twice a day in the chapel for them. Meetings were also held with the faculty and the local conference workers separate from the large congregation. Professor W. E. Howell was present for a large part of the meeting, and took an active part in making the institute a success. It was an occasion of great worth to all who attended, and undivided attention was given to the studies by these men of God. Surely the Lord visited his workers. We believe the good influence of this meeting will be felt throughout the field.

The brethren expressed themselves as being very much pleased with the way our people are taking hold of the $1.00 a week plan, and they hope to see many more names added to the list. During their talks to the workers, they pictured the conditions in foreign fields and said the time would probably come when the denomination will be asked to give $1.00 a week to foreign missions for all members on the church books. This will certainly sound good to every loyal Seventh-day Adventist, because we know it means the end. As times get harder and the work enlarges, God's people must plan for larger things, and the Lord will furnish the ability to do the work.

Missionary Volunteer Week

A riot in one of our American cities a few years ago called the traffic policemen away from their crossings. One crossing was getting badly jammed, and injury to individuals and serious congestion of traffic was likely to occur. A boy, who had high ideals of service and who had received some training to meet emergencies, sprang into the policeman's place and directed the traffic for several hours.

The ideal set before this denomination is that we should have a well-trained army of young people ready to spring into action at a moment's notice. "We have an army of youth who can do much, if properly directed and encouraged." "The Lord has chosen the youth to be his helping hand."

Every thoughtful man or woman must recognize that our greatest asset as a denomination is our children and young people. The young people now in our midst must be so trained that they will do valiant service in the finishing of the advent message.

spirit of prophecy has told us the way to train our children and young people to be missionaries in the future. To lay responsibilities upon them in the church now, and teach them how to labor for souls. But first of all, they must be converted. They must be taught the gospel in its simplicity, and led to make a full surrender of their lives to the Lord.

There is no more important work than this in our churches. And this is why the General Conference committee has recommended that we shall have a Missionary Volunteer Week. This week is to be observed in the Central Union, April 23-30. It is planned that meetings shall be held in all the churches and companies on this week, and that special attention shall be given to the children and youth.

Let all the members of the church unite in intercessory prayer that God will open the windows of heaven and pour us out a blessing at this appointed season.

M. E. KERN.

S. O. S. Call

The Central Union Conference Association committee, at a recent meeting, voted to hire $30,000 to relieve some of the institutions in the Union which are being pressed by creditors. These institutions are by no means bankrupt, but because of the stringency in the money market are unable to meet their demands unless help comes immediately. All who have money and are willing to lend this at four per cent for one year should send it immediately to the Central Union Conference, College View, Nebr. The security for this money is gilt edge. Send any amount from $50.00 to $5,000.00. Whatever you have will be secured by a Central Union Conference Association note, bearing four per cent interest. S. E. WIGHT.

The Pastor's Wife

When a pastor is needed to shepherd the flock—

To lead them and feed them and teach them to walk

In the straight, narrow pathway which leadeth to heaven,

And to follow the precepts the Saviour has given;

Many questions arise as to one who desires

To be called by the church; and who rightly aspires

To succeed to the work and the duties laid down

By the pastor beloved who has recently gone.

Is he gifted and learned?—In what school was he trained?

Is he fluent in speaking?—What degrees has he gained?

Is his manner attractive? And his voice not too loud?

Is he genial and social?—Will he mix with the crowd?

Is his stature too stubby?—Or is it too high?

Are his sermons too lengthy?—Or are they too dry?

Can he lead in the singing?—Can he sing every part?

Is his praying effective?—Does it comfort the heart?

These questions once settled, the new man is called

As the pastor-elect and is duly installed.

But in all this transaction, scant thought is bestowed

On the wife who must carry one-half of the load;

Who must put her whole heart and her soul in the work,

Ever zealous to labor, but never to shirk;

Who must visit the sick and be quick to respond

To the call of distress throughout all the year round;

Who must always be ready with welcome and cheer,

For the visiting brethren from far and from near;

Who must teach every Sunday a class in the school,

And inspire them to live by the blest golden rule.

Yet this is but part of the work that is done

By the pastor's good wife to help the cause on.

For, next to the Lord, the true pastor depends

On his faithful companion to hold up his hands;

On her counsel and prayers—on her faith and her cheer;

On her love and devotion when troubles appear;

For spirit with spirit is blended in one,

And each helps the other in all that is done.

When the Master shall gather his loved and his own;

And the books shall be opened and records made known;

In the book of remembrance of the deeds of this life,

There will be a bright page for the pastor's good wife.

And her labors of love, oft unknown on the earth,

Shall be manifest then, and appraised at their worth;

And the stars in her crown of rejoicing shall shine;

And her face be illumed with the joy that's divine.

We will gladly mail you a sample copy free that you may know just how good this message-filled magazine really is.

After seeing the paper and reading its stirring articles on the third angel's message, we feel sure you will want to either subscribe for it yourself, or to send a year's subscription to friends in Canada.

Change in Home Missionary Leadership

Miss Bessie Allen, who has done faithful work as home missionary secretary in our conference for nearly three years, has resigned her position and expects to leave very shortly for her home in Missouri. Beyond this, Miss Allen has not revealed her plans, but we bespeak for her success in whatever work she undertakes. Under her leadership the home missionary work in Nebraska has grown to large proportions, and we feel that there is a great future before this work.

We have been very fortunate in securing Brother V. O. Punches, who has been connected with the home missionary department of the General Conference, to lead out in this work in Nebraska. We believe that as he takes hold of this work we shall see great things accomplished, especially as our people grasp the significance of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, for we know that this work can never be finished until all our people become active workers.

I am sure that the prayers and good wishes of all our people will follow Miss Allen as she leaves us, and I trust also that we shall not forget to pray for the future success of this great and good work. D. P. WOOD.

Nebraska News Notes

The canvassers' institute will be held in Fairbury, April 1-10.

Elder Wood and Brother Punches plan to visit the church in Hastings, Friday and Sabbath, March 4 and 5.

We are glad to be able to announce to our people that the Review & Herald has returned to the old price of $2.50 a year or $1.50 for six months. We hope to receive many more orders for this valuable paper during the next few weeks.

A good sister from Canada sends in $30.00 in Canadian money, stating that it is to cover a pledge she made in Nebraska thirty years ago. Surely the Lord is working upon the hearts of his people to arouse themselves, get right with him and finish the work.

Elder H. E. Lysinger and Brethren Ernest Lloyd and V. O. Punches visited the church at Omaha Sabbath, February 26, in the interests of the Special Sabbath Signs, the Home Missionary Calendar, and the Laymen's Missionary Movement in general.

Brother F. C. Clark, our energetic field missionary secretary, is out on a campaign to line up canvassers and magazine workers for the summer's work. He is very optimistic in regard to the future of our book and magazine work. Better come and join the Bookmen's Army.

The ministerial institute and home missionary convention have closed a very successful meeting, and we will miss the faces of our brethren and sisters from out in the field; but our prayer is that God will go with each worker, and that the season of 1921 will be the most successful one we have yet seen.

The members of the College View Church have taken hold of the Sabbath Signs campaign in real earnest, having pledged themselves for the disposal of nineteen thousand copies. Our smaller churches are also rallying to this good work. We trust that many thousands of this good number may be placed in the homes of the people.

If there are some who feel that it is going to be difficult for them to raise their quota of 60 cents a week for missions, we would suggest that they might find time to sell some of our good magazines such as Life and Health, Liberty, Signs Magazine or Watchman, using the profits for missionary work. We shall be glad to explain the liberal discounts on these magazines in quantities of five to fifty or more of one number.

L. B. MATTHEWS

Thinking the readers of the OUTLOOK might be interested to learn something of the work and needs of our good intermediate school at Turners, Mo., we are glad to send along this word of the courage, sacrifice, and irresistible perseverance of our godly teachers and earnest, anxious parents in building up this center of Christian training for our boys and girls of southwestern Missouri.

It is sufficient to say, as all who have watched the strenuous efforts of this church the past ten years know something of its meaning, that the good hand of our God has and is with us, as witnessed in the successful work of our three godly teachers this year which is proving to be our best term.

But several here have not been able to meet the expenses—some are children of widows, some are orphans, some are children of mothers who do not have the husband's help,—so the good sisters of the church banded themselves together as a real Dorcas band. They have met every Wednesday afternoon, to sew carpet and rug rags, piece and quilt quilts, tie comforts, make new and repair old garments. Thus they have already added over $50.00 this year to the tuition fund, in order that the faithful teachers go not unpaid, neither that our needy, but bright, worthy, little ones go untrained—unprepared for a place in the soon-coming kingdom.

Is it not precious, the work which may be accomplished by a few earnest, soul-winning women when they have a mind to work? And so, though it was told that we could not possibly support our work here this year, through all uniting in working for this tuition fund there is now no indebtedness and we desire to make good to the end. For this reason we are sending this report of what we have done, and the request that if there are any who have nice, clean rags for carpets or rugs or quilt pieces they would like to donate to the worthy cause of educating our own lambs of the flock in the blessed truths of this last message of mercy, these be sent postpaid to the leader of the Dorcas work, Mrs. Mary Church, Rogersville, Mo., Rt. 2, Box 148a.

Kansas Sanitarium

F. C. DEAN, M. D.

The institution has been crowded during the past week. Every room was taken, and some rooms were occupied by two patients, while several people were on the waiting list. The treatment room patronage from the city has also been very heavy.

The remodeling and improving of the operating rooms is completed, and we are in a better position than ever to serve those who are in need of surgical work. It has been the writer's privilege to visit several of our churches during the past few weeks and give talks on the principles of health. We are planning to continue this work over the state, using the stereopticon as an aid.

It is time for our people to rally to the support of every phase of this great message by word and deed.

Wichita News

F. L. ABBOTT

An order for 6,500 of the Special Sabbath Signs was sent in to the tract society.

Tithe to the amount of $8,873.65 was paid in to the church treasurer during 1920.

Our 1920 quota for missions was $6,110.00. We exceeded this amount by $2,781.87, raising $8,891.87, an average of 71 cents a week per member.

Elder A. B. Campbell occupied the pulpit Sabbath, February 19, in the absence of the pastor who was attending the ministerial institute at College View, Nebr.

In Wichita we have two Sabbath schools, one at the church and one at the Kansas Sanitarium. We also have two Missionary Volunteer societies. All are prospering and a lively interest is manifested.

Recovery of Brother Bringle

After laboring in Kansas so many years, then having to "come aside and rest awhile" for the last five years because of disabilities internal, my reporting spirit has waned like many other things in my work has seemed along the inevitable line.

Instead of getting better, I gradually found myself yielding to conditions that hindered taking further active part in the work.

On January 26, accompanied by my companion, I came to Parsons, where I put myself in the hands of Dr. Paul Christman and from the X-ray examinations soon found the necessity of an operation.

Tuesday morning, February 1, at nine o'clock, I was on the table taking the anesthetic and at 9:25 the real work began. Elder B. G. Wilkinson, our beloved president, was present also with my wife, and Brother D. A. Teter, my brother-in-law, of Hutchinson.

At this writing, February 15, I am sitting up in bed writing letters to friends and to the OUTLOOK. I am beginning to sleep well at night, and food is palatable.

Many prayers have ascended to the throne of grace for me, and I have been in a thankful frame of mind all the time since I came out of the ether influence. Truly God is good to his people under every trying experience.

Just before the operation, Elder Wilkinson bowed with us in my room to ask God to be present, to guide the hand, to keep me through and make me well again for his work.

To date that prayer has been answered. While here alone in my room gratitude wells up in my heart toward God for all his loving kindnesses to me. I am full of gratitude to know there are so many brethren and sisters who have not ceased praying for my recovery.

Now my thoughts are, get ready for the last great drive of the last message to this swift-ending world.

A. S. BRINGLE.

Marriage

At 6:00 p. m. on Wednesday, February 16, at the home of the bride's brother near Bison, Kans., relatives and a few intimate friends gathered to celebrate the nuptials of Jacob Erdman and Miss Mollie Miller. The bride and groom were led to the altar by the minister, Elder B. Voth, followed by flower girls. After the ceremony the guests and wedding party sat down to a sumptuous repast.

The bride is well known to most of the Kansas people, having been connected with the Oswego Academy several years ago. The groom is a student of the Clinton Seminary.

We extend to the happy couple our heartiest congratulations and best wishes for a successful voyage over life's sea.

LOIS OLDSON-RAY

Are you needing magazines for your reading rack? If so, we still have quite a supply of back numbers of the Signs and Watchman. These can be had for 2 cents a copy.

Elder W. H. Clark was called from Nevada, Ia., to preach the funeral sermon of Sister Emma Kidwell. We were all glad to see him once more. It reminded us of the time when Elder Clark labored in the Kansas Conference.

We were pleased to have Brother Krisher, from Niles, call on us this week. He is stopping in town until his son, who is in a hospital here in Topeka, recovers from an attack of spinal meningitis. The attack was the result of an automobile accident.

SABBATH SCHOOL TEACHERS, OFFICERS, AND THOSE PLANNING TO TEACH, TAKE NOTICE! Our supply of the Teacher's Reading Course books has reached us, and we can fill your orders immediately. The course contains two books: "The Teacher's Pedagogy," for 60 cents; and "The Geography of Palestine," for 15 cents; or the set complete for 75 cents postpaid. This course begins the first week in March. Order early.

Brother Roy C. Baker was in the office a few minutes. He was on his way from College View, Nebr., to Wichita, where he will hold an institute for his colporteurs. He expects a good attendance.

If you have not received your supply of Sabbath Signs Special, you will know it is because we have not received our supply from the press. We are holding orders for twenty thousand copies. These orders will be filled as soon as possible.

Campion Academy Institute

FLOY CHRISTY

"Did you say you wanted to attend the teachers' institute this year, Vera?"

"Yes, May, I have been thinking that if I could get some practical help in discipline and school morals I would make plans to attend. Do you think it would be worth my while?"

"O yes, Vera, just listen while I tell you about the excellent institute we enjoyed last year.

"The Colorado church school teachers were summoned to Campion in the latter part of January. All teachers of the state, except one, were present for the entire institute; twenty-two in number. On Friday morning we assembled in the parlor of the girls' dormitory for our first session. Professor Page called the roll and we responded by giving the number of our individual school enrollments up to date. Professor Page is very much like a father to the teachers when dealing with school problems, and you will enjoy his leadership this year, I know. Professor Rees was present at our first session also, and he gave us the reports of the new rules which had been adopted by the General Conference, as well as much other valuable help throughout the institute.

"As soon as Professor Page could get our meal tickets signed up, we were summoned to dinner, and the delicious meals served in the academy dining room during our three days' stay there were one of the most enjoyable parts of our program.

"The teachers were hospitably lodged at several private homes around the academy, so after a very spiritual old-time Friday night meeting with students in the chapel led by Elder W. A. Gosmer, we found our ways to our respective sleeping quarters.

"The Sabbath day was wonderfully enjoyed by all. The Sabbath school, church services, young people's Missionary Volunteer meeting, and even the supper served in the evening seemed to be tuned up with special delicacies for the teachers. The night after the Sabbath Professor Rees gave a very interesting stereopticon lecture on our schools in the Central Union.

"Sunday was our busy day. Professor Robison, the normal director from Union College, gave us wonderful helps in every line of teaching we could consider. I hear he is to be at institute again this year, and you must not fail to hear him on the lines which trouble you. Elder Gosmer realized to a helpful degree the needs and problems of a teacher as shown by his timely advice on several points which we termed in our program "Round Table Topics." Elder Saxton gave valuable instruction concerning our Junior Missionary Volunteers, saying that if this Junior work were handled rightly, we should have less trouble about morals in our schools."

"Is that so, May? Well now perhaps I have found the key to my problem. I must study deeper into the Missionary Volunteer principles and rules, but go on, finish telling me about the institute."

"Well, Vera, Sunday evening was the climax. We were all invited to Professor Page's home, and were royally entertained by songs, readings, intellectual tests, and refreshments. After this pleasant social hour, at eight o'clock we gathered in the chapel, with many others, to hear Professor Robison lecture on 'Mr. Can't and the Lions.'"

"Monday was spent in discussing other school problems, giving the teachers a chance to get school supplies, teacher's reading course books, etc. All through the institute the teachers were invited to ask questions or give helpful hints on the topics under discussion. O, Vera, there were so many helpful things. Last, but not least, you get all your expenses paid to the institute by the conference, which amply makes up for the low salary you receive as a church school teacher. You certainly must plan to attend this year, Vera. This is your first term of teaching and you need all the helps you can get."

"You are right, May, I must attend. How I wish you were teaching this year instead of going to college, so we might go together."

A NEW BOOK—"Freedom--Civil and Religious." Now is the time to circulate this new book. "Shall the principles of civil and religious liberty be violated by un-American blue laws?" "Shall the rights of conscience and freedom in religion be taken from the public?" These are some of the topics discussed in this new book. Conditions demand that YOU circulate it NOW. Price 35 cents. In quantities, a 50 per cent discount will be allowed.

SABBATH SPECIAL Signs—A letter just received from the Signs of the Times office states that up to February 18, 684,831 copies of the Sabbath Signs Special had been mailed out from that office. At that date COLORADO had only received 7,154 of this number. Now, dear people, in view of the fact that there is at this time so much agitation on the subject of Religious Liberty, do you not feel that NOW is the golden opportunity to scatter among our neighbors and friends such literature as this SPECIAL Religious Liberty number of the Signs weekly? In quantities of 100 or more, they only cost you 2½ cents each. How many copies will YOU use? Order of your tract society.

Elder Gosmer plans to return from the College View institute Friday, the 25th. A number of the other Colorado workers will be returning to their field of labor at this time.

The Signs Magazine gives the message for the hour. In handling the March Signs Magazine you will find much popular sentiment, especially among business people, in favor of the principles for which this number stands. Brethren and sisters, "Let us work while it is yet day, for the night cometh when no man can work." Thousands of copies of this MARCH number of the Signs Magazine should be sold in Colorado. Five to forty-five copies cost you 11 cents each. Fifty or more 10 cents each. They retail at 25 cents.

While at College View last week, the writer had the privilege of meeting a number of the Colorado students, and was especially pleased to hear them say that they were planning to spend their vacation in their home state, Colorado. Some will enter the ministry, some assist in summer tent efforts and others take up the colporteur work. This is as it should be, and is just the training necessary to become efficient workers in this cause.

One day this week, it was our good pleasure to have Mrs. A. W. Farnsworth, Boulder Church missionary secretary, pay us a visit at the conference office. Sister Farnsworth represents a live, wide-awake church. We know this to be true from the volume of business the tract society is getting from this church. We wish that more of our church missionary secretaries would visit the tract society. Please accept this as a personal invitation.

Sister Farnsworth, of the Boulder Church, informed us at the office that a number of the members of her church are not receiving the OUTLOOK. If this is the case in your church, please let us know. Sister Farnsworth has promised to take this matter up with the church and send us the names and addresses of every family who is not receiving the OUTLOOK. Your conference president is very anxious that every family in the conference receive the OUTLOOK.

I can truthfully say I never was of better courage than now. Our work here never looked brighter. I have at present twelve readers and I expect a few more as soon as I can make arrangements with them. I also have four more new Sabbath keepers. However, these still need instruction and I will continue my studies with them.

I can never thank God enough for opening up the way for me to enter the work and for sending me to this place. The prayers and faithful, loyal support of these dear people have been a help and encouragement to me. Their willingness to work and help in distributing literature is certainly a help in more ways than I can say.

I should like to tell you of the experiences some of our people had while distributing the Signs Special, but space will not permit me to write only a few instances. We ordered 1,000 Signs Special, and in less than two weeks nearly all were distributed and almost enough money collected to pay for them. One of our dear sisters received $5.00 for one copy and several other very good donations, also a number reported some very good experiences.

We are praying that God will in some way open up the way in which we may build a church here this coming year.

As I write this article, I am in College View at the institute and I am receiving rich blessings from these meetings.

I hope to go back to my place of labor at Cheyenne and work as I have never worked before. I realize more and more how short the time is in which we have to work, and I appreciate as never before the blessed privilege of a part in this big movement.

MARTHA J. BALDWIN.

It is not the great service and the lofty aspirations which receive the approval of God, but the love and consecration through which the service is performed, be it little or great.—Mrs. E. G. White.

Obituaries

HANSEN: Jens Urias Hansen was born Aug. 25, 1844, in Lourup, Schleswig, and died in Exira, Ia., Feb. 4, 1921. He arrived in the United States in 1866, and the following year was united in marriage to Kristine Nielsen. To them three sons and one daughter were born. Of these Dr. C. A. Hansen, for several years pastor of the College View Church and now in Walla Walla, Wash., is well known.

Brother Hansen was much beloved by the church as was evidenced by the beautiful floral pieces sent to the funeral. His was a quiet consistent life. He was a faithful Bible student, diligent in his attendance at all exercises. He was laid to rest in the cemetery at Exira beside his wife to await the call of the Lifegiver.

ARMSTRONG: Lorinda E. St. Clair was born Nov. 1, 1848, in Meigs County, Ohio, and died Jan. 19, 1921, at the home of her son, George Armstrong, at St. Joseph, Mo. She lived in Ohio until after her marriage to Henry H. Armstrong, Feb. 15, 1898. From Ohio, they moved to Marshalltown, Ia., and thence to Missouri, in 1893.

Sister Armstrong was converted, baptized and joined the United Brethren Church very early in life. She and her husband became acquainted with the Sabbath truth through reading "Bible Readings," sold to them by a sister canvassing about the year 1890. They afterwards moved to Missouri, and were soon baptized and joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church, at Stanbury, Gentry County.

Brother Armstrong died October 20, 1906. He was a charter member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church at St. Joseph, Mo. At the time of his death, his son, George, was a student in Union College, but was then called home to thereafter care for his aged mother.

Sister Armstrong had been an invalid for eight years, having suffered a stroke of paralysis, which disabled her, so that she could never take care of herself, especially the last three years. Yet the Lord, in his mercy, saved her from much suffering. Two days before her death, she sat up in bed as usual. She fell asleep in Jesus, to await the call of the Lifegiver at his coming and the resurrection of the just.

The funeral services were conducted by the writer at the home of her son, George Armstrong, 1511 Ashland Avenue, St. Joseph, Mo.

She was the mother of seven children, five boys and two girls, five of whom are still alive, and are residing in St. Joseph. They were all present to see the remains of their beloved mother laid in the dust to rest from her labors.

JONES: Mary Jones, wife of Elder O. E. Jones, was born in Aberdare, Wales, and died in Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 30, 1921, being sixty years and nine months old at the time of her decease.

Elder and Sister Jones accepted present truth in Wymore, Nebr., thirty-three years ago. Shortly after, Brother Jones entered the field as an evangelistic colporteur. Later he served as field missionary secretary. From this position he was called to be district director and later ordained to the ministry.

In all these years of service and sacrifice, Sister Jones faithfully and uncomplainingly shared her husband's toils. Always of a cheerful and helpful disposition, she brought comfort into the lives of all she met, and gave positive evidence to the Christian's graces.

Sister Jones was the mother of six children, one of whom died in infancy. Their only son, Earl, is in business in Wyoming, but was at his mother's side when she passed away, as were two of the daughters, Ruth and Pearl. The other two daughters, Lizzie and Ethel, are with their husbands, Elder O. A. Hall and Dr. Herbert Jones, in China as missionaries under the auspices of the Seventh-day Adventists.

A mother in Isreal is sleeping, but her unselfish life will continue to bear fruit in the lives of those influenced by personal contact.

She often expressed a desire to see the children, but would not recall those farthest away.

She rests in the hope of a speedy reunion with loved ones. Interment was made in the Forest Lawn Cemetery, Glendale, Calif.

SWEARINGEN: J. A. Swearingen was born in Carrol County, Ohio, Aug. 26, 1855, and died at Greeley, Colo., Feb. 4, 1921. In January, 1877, he was united in marriage to Miss Fidelia Sprague. Five children were born to this union, two of whom are living, Mrs. Cora M. Komma, of Carr, Colo., and J. H. Swearingen, of Los Angeles, Calif. Besides his wife and two daughters, he is survived by two brothers who live in Kansas.

Brother Swearingen has been a Seventh-day Adventist for thirty-eight years, having been baptized in Solomon River, near Solomon Rapids, Kans., when a boy. He has lived an exemplary Christian life since. He never tasted strong drink, nor ever used tobacco, and never attended a theater. He was beloved by all who knew him, and we believe that he rests in Jesus. Friends at Greeley, and from Campion, contributed appropriate musical selections at the funeral. The hope of the resurrection was set forth by the writer to a large concourse of relatives and friends. Text, 2 Tim. 4: 6-8.

ARNBRECHT: Sister Katharina Arnbrecht was born Nov. 11, 1839, in Beidick, Russia, and died at her daughter's home, Mrs Sarah Mohr, in Bison, Kans., Jan. 14, 1921, aged 81 years, 2 months and 3 days. In the beginning of her 20th year she was married to George Kalben. To this union four children were born, three of whom, together with her husband having passed away. In 1873 she came to Lehigh, Marion Co., Kans., and here she was married again to Henry Arnbrecht. One daughter was born to this union. In 1890 Brother and Sister Arnbrecht accepted the third angel's message of Revelation 14 to which they remained true. Her husband died a little over two years ago. Sister Arnbrecht loved this truth, and her prayer was before she fell asleep, that God should forgive all her sins. She fell asleep in the blessed hope of a part in the first resurrection and will await the coming of her Redeemer in the Shaffer Cemetery, Shaffer, Kans.

Words of comfort were spoken by the writer in the Shaffer church on John 11:25.26. A. G. STEINERT.

Special Meeting at Kansas City

Elder A. G. Daniells, president of the General Conference, has consented to make a visit to Kansas City, March 4 to 6. It is understood that Brother Daniells will speak at the tabernacle at 27th and Benton Streets on Friday evening. On the Sabbath he will speak at the church on Linwood Boulevard and Charlotte at the regular morning service, and on Saturday night he will give an intensely interesting stereopticon lecture on the great world-wide work of Seventh-day Adventists. On Sunday evening, Elder Daniells will speak again at the tabernacle.

It is not often that we are favored with a visit from a man of such a broad and valuable experience, and so we are passing this notice on, because doubtless there are many of our people, either isolated or from nearby churches, who will wish to take advantage of this opportunity to attend these meetings. We sincerely trust that many will do so, for Elder Daniells will have a message of special importance and value for us at this time. H. C. HARTWELL.

Sabbath School Teachers and Officers, Attention

Are you still searching for something that will help you to be a more efficient teacher and leader in your Sabbath school? You need search no longer. Much of what you want can be abundantly supplied in the little book entitled "The Sunday School Teacher's Pedagogy," which has been selected as one of the books to be studied in the Sabbath School Workers' Training Course for 1921, beginning with the month of March. The study outline for this course will be found in the Sabbath School Worker, which should be followed carefully by every Sabbath school officer and teacher, and others who are preparing for work in our Sabbath schools.

The second book of the Training Course treats on "The Geography of Palestine." It contains a series of maps that will help the reader understand very clearly the Holy Land in ancient times as well as the time when our Lord was here on earth. Both old and young in our Sabbath schools need the facts and information given in this little volume.

Order through your tract society. Price on "The Sunday School Teacher's Pedagogy," 65 cents post paid.

Price on "The Geography of Palestine," 15 cents post paid.

Religious Book Week

Other denominations seem to be catching the spirit of setting aside certain weeks to make special efforts in missionary endeavor. March 13-20 has been set as their time to make special effort to place good books into the homes. This is something we can heartily engage in. Why not all our church members order some of our good books from the tract society, go to our neighbors with them during this week, and let them know their value? The plan is simple and while others are having their attention called to this plan will be an opportune time to make these visits.

Our colporteurs should also be wide awake to improve all such opportunities.

J. B. BLOSSER.

Our Work and Workers

Elder H. E. Lysinger, in company with Brother Ernest Loyd, of the Pacific Press, Mountain View, Calif., is spending a little time in the Missouri Conference in the interest of the home missionary work. They plan to visit the St. Joseph, Kansas City, Clinton, St. Louis and possibly other churches in the state.

Mrs. N. E. Holaday, well known in the Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska Conferences because of her past connection with the Life Boat Mission in St. Louis, Mo., the orphans' home in Topeka, Kans., and her church activities in Nebraska, passed away at her home in Lincoln, Nebr., February 26. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family.
