I Shall Not Pass This Way Again

"I shall not pass this way again,
The thought is full of sorrow.
The good I ought to do today,
I may not do tomorrow.
If I this moment should withhold
The help I might be giving,
Some soul may die, and I shall lose
The sweetest joy of living.

"Only the present hour is mine—
I may not have another
In which to speak a kindly word
Or help a fallen brother.
The path of life leads straight ahead;
I can retrace it never,
The daily record which I make
Will stand unchanged forever.

"I shall not pass this way again,
O, then, with high endeavor,
May I my life and service give
To Him who reigns forever.
Then will the failures of the past
No longer bring me sadness,
And His approving smile will fill
My heart with joy and gladness."

To the Isolated Adornment

C. G. BELLAH

The Eden marriage was not a ring ceremony.

A ring on the hand means a wrong in the heart.

God used precious stones to beautify the earth, not man.

Israel made a god of their jewelry. Ex. 32:1-4. Will you?

After the flood, God, in mercy to man, covered up the precious stones.

God's judgments are against those who paint, powder, and wear gold. Jer. 4:30, 31.

Moses ground the golden calf to powder, and made the people drink it. Ex. 32:19-24.

Why idolize gold and pearls, when God will soon give us pearly gates and golden streets?

"As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman without discretion." Prov. 11:22.

Even Zion City, through its overseer, Wilbur Glenn Voliva, put a ban on engagement and wedding rings.

Read carefully and prayerfully God's instruction in regard to apparel and ornaments in Isa. 3:16-26.

The ornaments God would have us wear are the instruction of the father and the law of the mother. Prov. 1:8,9.

By selling the jewelry and giving the price to missions, one is sometimes saved the temptation of wearing it again.

Thank God there is something stronger than a little band of gold that holds together a Christian husband and wife.

The Godly women of Israel gave even their looking glasses for the making of the laver of brass for the tabernacle. Ex. 38:8.

"Let women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array: but with good works." 1 Tim. 2:8,9.

"And they came both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets, and earrings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold; and every man that offered offered an offering of gold unto the Lord." Ex. 35:21,22.

"Whose adorning let it not be the outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel: but let it be the hidden man of the heart, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price."

Among the Churches

H. C. HARTWELL

It will doubtless be of interest to our people throughout the state to learn something about the campaign which Elder W. F. Martin and myself have been making among the churches during the past three weeks. Within this time we have visited nearly all of our larger churches, and in each place Elder Martin has spoken to our people on the principles of religious liberty and has presented a statement of the situation that is now confronting us as a nation and as a people. These messages have stirred our people and thousands of copies of the Liberty Extra have been ordered for distribution among the general public.

During most of the trip around the conference, Miss Freda Willard accompanied us and rendered efficient service in stenographic work. Important letters were sent to the delegates of the constitutional convention which is to open on May 15 at Jefferson City. A number of articles were also furnished to the daily papers in several places.

As far as we were able to do so, we visited personally the delegates to the Constitutional Convention. We also had a very pleasant and satisfactory interview with the Secretary of State, Mr. Chas. U. Becker, at the State House, Jefferson City. In a number of instances we met with editors of daily papers.

We can truly say that all these men, with perhaps one or two exceptions, expressed themselves as being opposed to placing anything in the new State Constitution that would unite religion with the government, or form a basis for compelling Sunday observance by law. But while this attitude on the part of these men is encouraging, we should not allow ourselves to conclude that there is no danger. We should ever remember that there is a small but aggressive and determined minority of men who are working unceasingly for Sunday legislation, and our greatest danger from these men lies in the fact that the general public has the idea that there is no danger.

As a people we know by the sure word of prophecy that Sunday laws are coming, and one of these days, those who are working so hard will succeed in having Sunday laws enacted everywhere. Now is the favorable time to be educating the public in regard to the principles involved so that those who are honest at heart will know which way to decide when the crisis comes.

We are planning to continue this campaign by a liberal distribution of our literature among the prominent men of the state. The delegates have already been supplied with the little book "Freedom," and the Liberty Magazine. We can do no more effective work than to get our splendid religious liberty literature into the hands of the people, especially those who are influential.

Missouri News Notes

A. T. Friend, of Colorado, a former student of Union College, arrived at the office April 22 to arrange for canvassing. We are glad to number Brother Friend among our colporteurs for the summer.

We are receiving many orders for the General Conference Bulletin and the special Signs. Do you have yours? Bulletin $1.00; Signs, single copy 5 cents; 10 to 80, 3 cents each; 100 or more, 2½ cents each.

Brother R. T. Baer, president of the Austral Union Conference of South America, and Brother H. Meyer, superintendent of the East Brazil Union Mission, spent several days in Clinton while on their way to General Conference. We were pleased to have them call at the office a number of times, and are sure their report at the General Conference of the South American work will be interesting.

The church treasurers remittances should be sent in May 1. We hope that all may be received by May 3 or 4.

The rainy weather of the past few weeks has hindered our colporteurs considerably, but we are glad to send in a good report again this week. Remember God's bookmen.

If you have not received information relative to our special offer on the Conflict Series or on its separate volumes for this quarter, and are interested, write the tract society at once.

Brother D. U. Hale, our former conference president, spent Sabbath, April 22, and several days following visiting with relatives and friends in Clinton. We were very much pleased to have Brother Hale and his good wife with us again.

We have a good supply of "Freedom," Religious Liberty Tract No. 8, and Liberty Extra. We are pleased to say that over 15000 of the latter have been ordered by our people during the past two weeks. Do you have your share of each?

Kansas Sanitarium

Stopping here for a visit on our way east from Colorado last September, we found a busy place, and as they were needing some help, we began work in a few days and have found plenty to do ever since. The new rooms added last summer have been filled mostly with surgical patients. The institution has had a good patronage. We have some of the best people from the city coming for care and treatment; and while receiving physical help, they ask questions about our message and seem glad to get literature.

The class work for the year will soon close. Nine seniors are getting ready for their graduation in a few weeks.

A city office has been opened down town in the Beacon Building. Drs. Christmann and Owens each have their hours there.

God has greatly blessed the work of the institution, and we hope to see it continue to grow and prosper.

Dedication of the Arkansas City Church

MRS. ELIZABETH LONGGOOD

By the good hand of our God, the liberality of our own people, and the hearty cooperation of the business and professional men who gave liberally of their means, so that the entire debt was lifted on our church building at Arkansas City, we were enabled to hold the dedicatory services, April 9.

A goodly number of friends and neighbors were present and attentively listened as Elder F. W. Paap gave a vivid presentation of the present world conditions and an account of our world-wide work. He said that the Seventh-day Adventist denomination have now entered one hundred nine countries and are now using one hundred twenty languages and dialect; that 1347 missionaries had been sent in the past ten years to all parts of the world, and that in 1921 five million dollars worth of our literature had been sold. For the benefit of our visiting friends, he gave statistics concerning the number of Sabbath schools, churches, primary and advance schools with their enrollment, the total offerings, the offerings per capita, etc., and in summing up his remarks said that he was pleased that this little modern structure we were giving this day to God for His service could be added to the other seven thousand churches of Seventh-day Adventists scattered throughout the earth.

Elder Abbott of Wichita, in most heartfelt words invoked God's blessing upon the little church and its members.

We were glad to have the pastors of the First Presbyterian church and First Christian church present and take part in the services, also some of the best musicians from these churches. The City Symphony Orchestra also rendered some most beautiful music, which was greatly appreciated by all who attended the services.

We are indeed thankful that the timely message given at this hour has made good impressions upon different friends who were present, and we trust that eternal benefits will be realized by some.

"There is no crisis with the Lord."

Eighty Two, and Fighting

FELIX A. LORENZ

One of the oldest soldiers in the army of Prince Emmanuel in the Kansas division is a lone brother, eighty-two years old, in a quiet little town of two hundred. He is all alone in the truth in his community, lives all alone in a humble little home in the edge of town, but that is headquarters of the cause of truth in that region.

He got his first fighting lessons in the Civil War, where he served his country valiantly against the foe. He learned there that we never stop fighting until the battle is won. And so, although he has passed the maximum allotment of four score, he does not have time to think of retiring, not until the battle is won.

Every day, every opportunity, as he meets men and women, he witnesses for his Captain by telling others of the love and peace of God, and by passing out truth-filled literature. Faithfully, untiringly, he keeps at it, and depends upon the promise that God will water the seed.

Every month his missionary report comes to the office and shows how earnestly he labors. And today a letter accompanied his report. It will cheer your heart, and perhaps lead others of the two hundred fifty isolated ones in this state to emulate this good example.

"Dear Brother Lorenz:

"I am sending my report for missionary work during the month of March. I am of good courage in my blessed Lord and Master who has done so much for poor unworthy me. I thank and praise His holy name. My sister-in-law has come into the truth from reading matter that I have sent her.

"Yours in the blessed hope."

Do you not feel justly proud to be in an army with such faithful heroes in its ranks? But how does it make you feel as you compare yourself with this feeble old brother? Have you held the enemy back in your section of the battle line as faithfully and earnestly as he has in his? How many of your relatives and neighbors is the Lord seeking to bring to the truth through your efforts?

Come, let us draw up lines of battle for a fresh charge. In the power of our King, through literature, care of the suffering, Bible studies and soul winning labor, let us go forth with Him, conquering and to conquer.

Enterprise Academy News Notes

Elder B. G. Wilkinson is with us once again. He arrived late the night of April 17.

The fifth period grades were passed out to the students April 24. This is next to the last time this will be done this year.

The "Crucifixion," a sacred meditation by John Stiner, was sung by the Enterprise Academy choir Saturday evening, April 15.

Prof. D. D. Rees spoke to the student body in chapel the morning of April 24. He gave us hints of an ideal student.

A recital was given in the academy chapel on April 13 by the voice and piano students. The chapel was well filled, and the program was enjoyed by all.

The Junior-Senior picnic was held Easter Sunday in a grove by the river 14 miles from the academy. There were about 40 students in all who went. Prof. L. O. Knowlton acted as chap-eron.

The English II class has been extremely interesting the last two days. The members of the class have memorized selections from their favorite poet and are reciting them to the entire class.

Felix Lorenz spent a few days at the academy. His chapel talk of April 12 was very helpful to all who heard it. He talked on "Character Building." Character is no stronger than its weakest trait.

It was with pleasure that the students listened to Prof. C. A. Russell in his most interesting talk, April 25. He plans to stay with us during the Missionary Volunteer institute, which is being held at Enterprise Academy, April 25-27.

At chapel time Tuesday morning the students and faculty gathered on the lawn around the flag pole, which the Seniors gave as a present to the school this year, to raise the flag. To begin this out-of-door program, Mrs. Lowry sang for us. Mr. Floyd Lineberger gave a short speech in behalf of the Senior class. The school orchestra was present and played the "Star Spangled Banner" as the flag was raised. The response that Professor Saxton gave was very appropriate. We were very fortunate in having Elder B. G. Wilkinson with us at this time, and it was with great pleasure that we listened to the few words he gave us.

Brother R. C. Baker is at the academy for a few days in the interest of the colporteur work.

Our commencement exercises will be held May 4. It is hard for us to realize that our school year is so soon to close.

Kansas News Notes

Miss Fay Eagle met with the Atchison First church over Sabbath, April 22.

Mrs. Ida L. Dann of Grantville was a caller at the conference office last Wednesday.

If you desire the General Conference Bulletin during the time of the General Conference, your order should be sent to the tract society office by return mail. The price is only $1.00.

Elder B. G. Wilkinson left Thursday for the General Conference and while en route will deliver the commencement address at the Loma Linda College of Medical Evangelists.

Entertain your children by giving them interesting books to read. "Friends and Foes from Field and Forest" can be procured from the tract society for $1.00.

Dwight Reeder and Miss Grace Brown from Oswego represented the Oswego church in the Missionary Volunteer convention in Kansas City, Mo.

If you are not a subscriber to the Review and Herald you should send in your subscription at once as you will receive 55 issues for $2.50. Two issues a week will be printed during the time of the General Conference.

Mrs. Louie Watkins, Mrs. John Bland and Elder and Mrs. F. L. Abbott from Wichita were in Kansas City over Sabbath and Sunday attending the Missionary Volunteer convention.

Every individual should be acquainted with parliamentary rules. The little book entitled "Diagram of Parliamentary Rules," which formerly retailed for 75 cents, can now be procured for 60 cents from the tract society.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo C. Cornell, and Mrs. Herbert Griffith attended the Missionary Volunteer convention in Kansas City, Mo., over Sabbath and Sunday, April 22 and 23.

Even though a new series of tracts is now ready for distribution, the tracts in the Bible Students' Library and Words of Truth series continue to have a good sale. We have a limited stock of these on hand, and should be glad to continue to fill orders for them.

Miss Ethel Morehead, one of our office employees, spent Sabbath with her parents at Troy.

"Argonauts of Faith," which was in the Junior Reading course for 1921-22, can now be procured for $1.00.

The book "House We Live In," is one which every child should read. The retail price of this book is $1.00.

Mr. J. L. Ballard of Oswego, Mr. A. B. Cornell of Ottawa, and Mr. W. B. Hoover of Independence were callers at our office Monday on business.

The "Big Book" which is given as a premium with the Little Friend can be purchased separately for 75 cents. Place your order with the tract society.

As long as our stock of "Epidemics" lasts, we will sell them for 10 cents a copy when ordered in lots of ten or more at a time.

Decatur Church

D. P. Wood

Sabbath, April 22, was a happy day for the church at Decatur. The members and visitors were privileged to be witnesses at a baptismal scene at which time sixteen went forward with their Lord in baptism. This was the culmination of the efforts put forth by Brother V. O. Punches who was sent to this church early last November to conduct a series of meetings. From the first the interest seemed to grow. The splendid class of new believers who were baptized into the faith and taken into the church will be a material help and strength to this company with its many activities. The interest manifested at the baptismal scene by the unconverted convinces one that lasting impressions were made for the truth and that soon others will join the ranks of those who are on their onward march to Zion.

Elder Irvin Blue, wife, and daughter Margaret, who had just returned from India were present the last two days. The words of encouragement which he brought of the rapid progress of the work in India greatly strengthened all who were present. We cannot help but believe there are brighter days ahead for this company of people and that this, the oldest land-mark of the message in our state, will still be a big factor in raising workers to finish the work.

Oakdale, North Platte and Gothenburg

D. P. Wood

Much time has been spent in visiting the churches the last few months. Of special interest was the meeting with the Oakdale church on April 8. The members of the Petersburg and Meadow Grove churches were privileged to join with Oakdale in the three services of the day. I was glad to see so many present and on time and note the splendid response that came from the words spoken. All seemed to be encouraged to greater faith in living the message in the home.

April 15 was spent with the church at North Platte. Here a splendid company came together, some having driven more than forty miles to be present. In this company were those who were not of our faith. I was glad to see the earnestness on the part of those who were holding forth the light of truth, and feel that through their faithfulness others will join their church.

The next day I spent with Elder Miller and Brother Oss at Gothenburg where they have been conducting meetings for the past few weeks. This splendid company which has just been raised up will soon be ready for organization. More will be said about the work in this place a little later.

Nebraska News Notes

Brother F. C. Clark reports that eleven students from Shelton plan to spend their summer vacation canvassing in Nebraska. We are glad to welcome these students to this good line of work.

Elder Wood and Elder Shaw drove to Hastings Friday, April 28, accompanied by Miss Alvina Osiek, Leland Wood and Maurine Shaw. Elder Shaw will go on to Shelton to deliver the baccalaureate address at the academy Sabbath.

Dr. Gordon Andrews of Union College left for Hastings, Friday, April 28, where he spoke to the Hastings church, going from there with Elder Wood to Shelton Sabbath afternoon. Dr. Andrews delivered the commencement address at Shelton Academy evening after the Sabbath.

H. W. Sherrig, manager of the periodical department at the International Branch of the Pacific Press, gave a stereopticon lecture at the College View church Thursday evening, April 27. The purpose of the lecture was to arouse an interest in doing more work for the foreigners in our land. Surely this work is as important as sending missionaries to work for the same nationalities in their own countries.

Sixteen were baptized at Decatur Sabbath, April 22, as a result of Brother Punches' effort at that place.

Most of our tracts in the Bible Truth Series are on the shelves now, and we hope to receive the rest very soon. The sample packages have not yet arrived, but orders for them will be filled as soon as our stock comes in. Judging from the orders received already, we believe this series of tracts is just what our people have been wanting.

Brother Wm. Ortner and Brother F. H. Boettger, students from the Clinton Seminary, expect to be at Hebron, Nebr., about May 10 to begin canvassing in that vicinity. They will be prepared to work among the foreign speaking people as well as those of our own nationality. We hope they will indeed have a prosperous season.

There are a number of societies that have not yet ordered any of the General Conference number of the Signs. This number is to be ready May 1 and will be just the thing to use in letting our friends know who Seventh-day Adventists are and what they believe. Price to separate names and addresses, 4 cents each; 10 to 80 to one address, 3 cents each; $2.50 a hundred or $22.00 a thousand. A few nice orders already come in. Let us have yours now.

News Notes

Elder J. M. Fletcher and Brother J. M. Barto were in Crawford last week.

Miss Stout and Miss Baker recently spent a day with friends in Chadron, Nebr.

Elder Blosser has been in Crawford during the past week, helping out in the colporteurs' institute which is being held here.

Brother Ross visited the brethren at Lisco last Sabbath. It was decided definitely by the church there to have a church school this year.

Brother Dinius of the German Seminary expects to be in this territory in about a week. He will work among the German people of Scottsbluff County.

Brother H. R. Cassman's first delivery will take place on June 1. We are glad to know that so many "Bible Readings" are going into the homes of the people of Deadwood and vicinity.

Now is the time to subscribe for the General Conference Bulletin. Be sure to do it now, as the conference will soon be in session and you will not wish to lose a number of the Bulletin.

Those whose subscriptions for the Review are about to expire should renew at once, so that they will receive the extra numbers which will be issued during the General Conference session.

Word has been received from Brother Davis that he expects to be in the field about May 9. We shall be very glad to welcome Brother Davis into conference work again, after spending the winter at Union.

W. R. Babcock spent the Sabbath with the church at Casper. The Sabbath school there is being ably conducted by Sister F. E. Wertenberger, and there is a spirit of cooperation on the part of the officers and members of the Sabbath school. Such cooperation is bound to bring results.

We are receiving remittances from all over the conference on the Extension Fund. We are glad to see this fund being increased from day to day. If you have not sold your books yet, will you not please do it at once, and help out this great work? Some are ordering more of the small books.

Brother and Sister Lee Canady and sons Ivan and Lloyd spent the Sabbath in Crawford.

We are glad to welcome Brother S. R. Graybill back to the conference for a time. He has been in California since last fall.

Word has been received from Elder Hirlinger that most of the carpenter work on the new church building at Hot Springs will be completed by the last of this week.

Up to this time, fifteen people have definitely decided to keep the commandments as a result of the effort held in Crawford. Others are attending services regularly, and may take their stand later.

If there are those in the Wyoming Conference who have clothes that could be used by children and parents, kindly get in touch with Mrs. Frank E. Brown, Buckhorn, Wyo. These will be greatly appreciated.

Owing to the interest created by the meetings held at Crawford, a number of people have been purchasing Bibles. We have a supply on hand, and should be glad to send you a Bible catalog if you are in need of a Bible.

Obituary

FOCKLER: Alma Estelline Fockler was born at Lead, S. Dak., Mar. 11, 1896. In 1905 the family moved to Piedmont, S. Dak., where they have since resided. In 1916 Estelline completed her normal work in Spearfish and since that time has taught public school in the Black Hills. She was greatly loved by all her pupils. Her life of toil, while only short in this world, was lived to bless others.

She was teaching public school in Lead when on March 19 she was stricken with pneumonia. Everything possible was done to save her life, but to no avail. Friday morning, March 31, she peacefully fell asleep. She had confessed her sins and given her heart to the Lord and was resigned to His will.

Funeral services were conducted from the home. Nearly 300 people gathered to pay their last tribute of love to a real friend.

She leaves to mourn their loss a loved father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Fockler; a sister, Mrs. Millie Sutherland; and two brothers, Roy and Reese.

We believe Estelline sleeps in Jesus and will come forth at the first resurrection to meet the blessed of all ages.

We are sorry to report the sickness of Mrs. Yale this week. We trust that ere you read these lines she will be able to fill her place in the office again.

Optimism is one noticeable characteristic of all we meet these days, and there is a reason. Never was there a more favorable outlook for big crops than now. Colporteurs take notice.

"Just received letters from the Clinton Theological Seminary, also from Union College, assuring us that our boys in each of these places are of good courage, and they are looking for big things this summer." So reports our field secretary, Brother Snideman.

We now have two live magazine workers in the city of Denver, and the Lord is most wonderfully blessing them as they scatter our truth-laden periodicals. Only eternity will reveal what good has been done. Work, for the night is coming when no man can work.

It was a treat to listen to Elder J. J. Birkenstock of South Africa, who was a visitor at our office this week, as he related to us some of the many interesting experiences attending the progress of the work in that field. We wish every reader of this paper could have been privileged to hear what he had to tell us. The Lord is truly blessing in South Africa.

Elder R. A. Underwood was a welcome visitor last Sabbath, and his talks given at the York Street church in the forenoon and at the South Side church in the afternoon were much appreciated. His remarks were such as to sober the minds of the large congregation in attendance, and make all to more fully realize the purpose of God for His people.

Elder J. E. Patzkowski, our German minister, came into the office today bringing with him Brother Bates, who is at the head of the book work in Germany. Brother Bates cannot talk English, but through the interpretation of Elder Patzkowski we were most interestingly entertained and everyone was filled with much enthusiasm and zeal as a result of his visit.

Office Notes

Do not forget to plan for campmeeting, —Cedaredge, July 6 to 16.

Elder W. M. Andress is now conducting classes in home nursing with four of the churches. Each class contains twelve to sixteen members, and the work is being much enjoyed by each one.

Elder Sutton recently spent some time with the Green River church. While there an election of officers was held, and it is expected the work will move along nicely. Sister D. W. Gibbs was re-elected as leader.

We are receiving good remittances from the isolated members of our conference for the Big Week. If each member does as well as those from whom we have heard, there will be no question about the Inter-Mountain goal.

Elder H. W. Sherrig will give a stereopticon lecture on our publishing work in the Grand Junction church the evening of May 1. Elder Sherrig is on his way to the General Conference, and the Inter-Mountain Conference appreciates the privilege this lecture will give to our members.

The colporteurs' institute is beginning at Delta this week, April 27. A number are expected to be present and several plan to enter the field work at the close of the institute. We look forward to seeing many pages of truth placed in our conference during the coming months. Let our people remember these faithful workers, and pray that angels may go before them.

The last one to join the ranks of the colporteur in our field is without doubt the oldest in the Inter-Mountain Conference, if not in the colporteur ranks. Brother Kratsenburg is past seventy-nine, and plans to spend all his time in the work. He took forty-five Current Topic books with him, and plans to work the Grand Valley. Let us remember this brother in prayer.

A new book which has recently come to our office is entitled "The Officers of the Church." This is written by Elder J. A. Stevens, home missionary secretary of the General Conference, and sets forth in a clear manner the duties of each officer. Each officer of the church should have access to this book.

Do not forget to place your subscription to the General Conference Bulletin at once. The price is $1.00 for fifteen numbers.

This year the campmeeting in the Inter-Mountain Conference will be held at Cedaredge, July 6-16. In the past some have objected to Grand Junction because of the heat, but with an altitude of nearly seven thousand feet, no one should stay away on that account. The Commercial Club of Cedaredge is doing all in their power to make this annual meeting for our brethren a most pleasant one, and each member of the conference should respond. Plan now to be present for the entire time.

VAUGHAN: Mrs. N. L. Vaughan was born at Otterville, Mo., May 1, 1853, and departed this life Mar. 19, 1922, aged 68 years, 10 months, and 18 days.

In 1882 she was married to George Musgrave at Clifton, Ariz., and to this union was born one son, Henry, who now resides at Rulison, Colo.

Our deceased sister was married the second time to N. L. Vaughan, January, 1891, and to this union were born two children. One died in infancy and one who is now Mrs. Guy Orser lives at Ignacio, Colo.

Sister Vaughan accepted the third angel's message in 1905 and joined the Seventh-day Adventist church at Farmington, N. Mex. Truly it can be said, "She walked with God," for during her sickness of cancer, which continued for several months, her relatives and friends who were with her noted her godly Christian faith and fortitude.

Our sister sleeps in Jesus, and we laid her away to await the Life-giver, and if faithful we shall meet her when Jesus comes. A husband, two children, two brothers, five grand-children and many friends are left to mourn.

BRICKMAN: Mary Katie Brickman was born in Franzasen, Russia, Jan. 8, 1852, and died at her home near Emporia, Kans., Mar. 15, 1922.

Sister Brickman was a member of the Lutheran church until 1893, when she heard and accepted the third angel's message as given in Revelation 14. She was baptized and became a member of the Seventh-day Adventist church at Tampa, Kans. She loved the message dearly, spending much time in prayer and Bible study. Her voice was often heard in praise to God for his mercies to her.

She leaves a husband, two sons, and four daughters, with many other relatives, but they are comforted by the blessed hope. She passed away with the full assurance that her Saviour would call her when He comes to gather His people.

Funeral service was held in the Seventh-day Adventist church at Emporia, Kans., and we laid her to rest until the resurrection morning.

W. L. NOTT.

CHRISTMAN: Mrs. Annette Christman was born at La Grimardie, Department of Pu de Dome, O'Auvergne, France. She was a daughter of E. and Annette Laroche.

Having come to this country in 1868 and settling at Clifton, Ill., she was in 1869 united in marriage to Albert Christman at Kankakee, Ill. To this union were born three children; Henry Lewis Christman, David Christman, and Paul Christman.

She died at the home of David Christman, Oswego, Kans., Mar. 26, 1922, aged 83 years, 2 months, and 26 days. She embraced the third angel's message in 1876. She is survived by her husband, five children,—two by the first marriage and three by the second—fifteen grand children, and six great grand children.

Words of comfort were spoken by the writer, from Rev. 14:13.

B. G. WILKINSON.

On April 6 the senior class presented their class program. The main feature of the program was a class prophecy, entitled "The Future."

The chorus, under the direction of Oliver S. Beltz, gave a concert program at the church, night after the Sabbath, April 22. A large audience enjoyed the program.

The Kansas and Missouri students held their annual picnic on April 16 at Epworth Park. They were taken to the Park in trucks, where they played baseball and other games and spent a pleasant day, returning early in the afternoon. Professor and Mrs. Kirk were the chaperons.

A recent Saturday night was "open house" at North Hall. The boys of South Hall were invited over and shown through practically every room in the building, and we must say there were some very beautiful rooms. Charming "guides" escorted the boys through the dormitory, giving names of the occupants of each room and pointing out interesting things to be seen.

Messrs. A. A. Rupert and W. H. Nash gave their senior oratorical recital at the college chapel Saturday night, April 15. Mr. Nash read an original manuscript and "The Two Runaways" by Edwards. Mr. Rupert read "The Campmeeting at Doyles" by Parker and a selection from Carleton. They both gave the "Quarrel Between Brutus and Cassius" from Shakespeare.

Former graduates who have been with us the past week are Lee Marsh, Missionary Volunteer secretary of Iowa; Miss Alvina Osiek, bookkeeper and stenographer of the Kansas Sanitarium; and L. C. Palmer, principal of Maplewood Academy, Maple Plain, Minn. We understand that Professor Palmer was successful in securing two teachers from the class of '22 for Maplewood next year.

Tuesday night the Inter-collegiate Association banquet was held in the South Hall dining room. Representatives from Cotner, Wesleyan and Union participated. After the banquet those present were entertained in the college chapel by an interesting stereopticon lecture given by Mr. B. L. Morse, a returned missionary from Africa who is attending Union this year. The next meeting will be held at Epworth Park, May 11.

Special to General Conference Sunday, May 7

The Central Union delegation to the General Conference will leave Sunday, May 7, on the Rock Island. The train leaves Lincoln at 3:50 Sunday afternoon. The connecting train leaves Kansas City at 11:00 Sunday morning, and Wichita at 9:35 in the morning. The route west of Denver will be the Rio Grande Western and Western Pacific, leaving Denver at 8:15 Monday morning. Arrival time at San Francisco is 5:45 Wednesday evening. Special tourist sleepers are provided for the delegation. Reservations may still be made. Certificates entitling purchaser to special rate for a round trip ticket will be sent from this office. The ordinary certificate will not do.

A car will leave Lincoln on May 15, the day the summer rates become effective. For further particulars regarding this car address the Central Union Conference.

Pacific Press Branch News Items

Records kept in our office indicate that during 1921 our colporteurs in the Central Union sold our books to the value of $56,500.00. The average sales per hour amounted to $1.63. This is a much better average than was made a few years ago. For the first quarter of this year our average sales per hour amount to a little over $1.50, though some individual averages rarely fall below $2.50. We anticipate that during the coming summer the average for all colporteurs will steadily increase.

Elder W. F. Martin was one of our callers this week, while in Kansas City in the interests of the religious liberty campaign that is now being waged in Missouri. He held two meetings with the church and the response was good. This is the time to circulate Liberty and the religious liberty tracts. We have ordered 8,000 of Tract No. 8, which is a one-cent tract of eight pages, entitled "Pointed Question." These tracts come in convenient packages of fifty.

We are glad to see orders coming in for "Hymns and Tunes," our old church hymnal. Our Sabbath school book has largely crowded out the regular church hymnal in many places, and we hope that these orders mean that "Hymns and Tunes" will again be generally used in all our churches. We have sold about forty copies just recently. There is no collection of hymns as suitable for church service as is our own collection of message-filled songs,— "Hymns and Tunes." Why not buy these books for your church?

We made a shipment of 207 books to Central America this week. Such shipments are a little out of the ordinary for us.

Prof. H. U. Stevens and family passed through Kansas City recently en route to the West. We were glad to see them again after their ten years in the "Neglected Continent."

Orders continue to come in for new tracts. Evidently the packages will be popular. A large share of our stock is now on hand, and we hope that the rest of it will arrive very soon.

Our new book announcement for this week is "The Officers of the Church." The price is but 60 cents. There are 90 pages. This book is designed to help you, no matter what office has been given you. It will help eliminate mistakes; it will make your work easier; it will tell you what your duties are. Brother J. Adams Stevens of the General Conference office is the author.

Brother Boex, who has charge of our colporteur work in the European Division, called at our office in company with Brother Neufeld, while in the city en route to the Clinton Seminary. We were glad for their visit, and for the story of the triumph of our literature work in Europe, in the face of the poverty and distress of the people. The Lord surely has set His hand to finish the work.

Union College News Notes

Professor and Mrs. Morrison have entertained each of the senior classes. Each class report having had a most enjoyable evening.

The exhibition by the gymnasium classes was very entertaining. The drills show steady practice under the careful supervision of the instructors, Miss Melda Ragsdale and Charles Baker.

Nebraska State Superintendent, Mr. John Matzen, recently visited Union and gave a very interesting chapel talk. He spoke very highly of the grade of work done at Union.

Self-government week in North Hall proved that the girls are quite capable of self-control. Miss Blanche Hunter was elected as student preceptress, and with her were associated duly elected monitors for each floor of the dormitory.

On April 8, Miss Ona Marie Roos, student with Mrs. Marie Jones-Anderson gave her senior piano recital. Miss Roos played the 'Moszkowski E Major Concerto, assisted by the Union College Orchestra, Carl C. Engle, director.

The Junior class recently organized and chose for their officers, Rufus Roy, president; Edith Ragsdale, vice-president; Melba Mattox, secretary, and Ralph Reed, treasurer.

The Mendelssohn G Minor Concerto, with orchestral accompaniment, was played by Miss Ruth Curtiss Johns, student with Mrs. Marie Jones-Anderson, April 15. This was Miss Johns' senior piano recital. She was assisted by Miss Margaret Perry, of Lincoln, who rendered several vocal numbers.

Mrs. E. M. Long, formerly in charge of the laundry and still a member of the South Hall family, will leave this week to spend the summer with an old-time friend, Mrs. Wm. P. Alcott, in Massachusetts. Mrs. Alcott is a cousin of Louisa M. Alcott and is the last member of the family to bear that name.

Union College is highly favored in having had visits from several returned missionaries recently. Elder and Mrs. O. Montgomery and Professor and Mrs. H. U. Stevens and little daughter from South America, and Elder Straw from Africa, spent several days with us. They gave stereopticon lectures on the countries they represent as well as interesting accounts of their work among the heathen. Both Professor and Mrs. Stevens are graduates of Union, Professor Stevens having also taught eight years in the college.

The fine display of work done by the Arts and Crafts departments during the past year brought out a large number of interested observers from the village as well as some from Lincoln. It was an unusually good exhibit. Judging from the display of fine paintings, hats, gowns, appetizing dishes from the domestic science classes, and the useful articles made in the woodwork classes, Union's students are receiving a very practical education along with their book work.

On Tuesday evening, April 25, the seniors gave a formal banquet for President Morrison and family, at South Hall dining room. During the four-course luncheon, music was furnished by a trio composed of Miss Blanche Hunter, Miss Hazel Nicola and Mr. Krotz. Professor Robison was master of ceremonies, and a number of the class responded to toasts given to the guests and on various phases of school life. Following a reading by Malcolm Hause and a vocal solo by Mrs. P. A. Field, Mr. Mills presented Professor and Mrs. Morrison with a little gift as a token of the regard in which they are held by the class of '22.
