Draftees Wrongly Assigned

CARLYLE B. HAYNES

Seventh-day Adventist youth are still going into the Army and Navy. And the consideration shown their conscientious convictions regarding noncombatant service and Sabbath observance in time of war is in danger of being lost unless they give greater attention than some of our recent inductees have done.

We are having more difficulties regarding wrong assignments now than in time of war. Young men who have obtained their 1-A-O classification submit to assignment to the infantry, field artillery, and other combatant units, and take combatant training in the use of arms. They make no protest against it, and say nothing about it to regional representatives of the War Service Commission. We learn nothing of it until trouble results, and then the damage is done.

Men classified 1-A-O are rightly eligible for only one assignment in the Army, and that is to the Medical Department. In the Navy it is to the Hospital Corps. Any other assignment is a violation of their noncombatant status, an ignoring of their "O" classification. And if they consent to and take combatant basic training, they should not be surprised later to have their officers claim that they are not genuine noncombatants, for they have, without protest, submitted to combatant training.

We learn that our 1-A-O men have been told by officers that it makes no difference, now that the fighting is over, whether they drill and train with arms or not. Some have been told, "You are not going to kill anybody. The war is over; this is merely physical training. Take the gun."

It does make a difference. It establishes a precedent. It lets your church down. It disregards your classification. It denies your established right to noncombatant recognition, and a noncombatant status. It puts you on record as not being concerned about your noncombatant classification, and it is bound to create trouble for you, and for others, later.

What has happened, very likely, is that the Seventh-day Adventist youth now being inducted, together with their parents, paid little heed three or four years ago, to the instruction then published in our papers giving information about the directives, regulations and orders which the Lord enabled us to obtain which recognized and provided for the noncombatant status, classification, and assignment of our men. They were not then affected.

Now, however, without having informed themselves, they find themselves in service. Officers are in charge who, many times, are equally uninformed regarding the provisions worked out years ago to safeguard the noncombatant status. Hostilities have ended, and nobody seems to think it is of any consequence today whether a man is in a combatant or noncombatant assignment. So carelessness and laxity have developed.

I cannot emphasize too strongly the importance of holding what we have gained. It required the courageous devotion and faithfulness of many loyal soldiers to obtain the recognition God worked out for us. It ought not lightly to be tossed away.

We urge parents and youth to be true to the teachings of the church, to insist on the rights and privileges and concessions gained over the years, to maintain the noncombatant status. Our regional representatives are still in the field, and they can be called on at any time.

If you need help and information, ask for it. We will make it available immediately. If you are not informed who to write to in the various states of the United States, then write to me at 6840 Eastern Avenue, Washington 12, D. C., and help and information will be forthcoming at once.

If and when wrong classification or assignment occurs, protest. Continue that protest until you are rightly classified and assigned. Your noncombatant convictions have been given formal recognition and provision made for you to maintain them. You have come into a noble heritage. It cost something to obtain it; do not throw it away. Live up to your faith.

A "Must" Volume for the Present Times

More and more our positions on prophecy will come under challenge as the last conflict intensifies. We must be able to give a sound and convincing answer to every one who asks. We need to know the hidden strength of our historic fundamentals in prophetic interpretation. We need also to know how and when the confusion and departures on prophetic exposition all about us came into the Protestant churches that have swerved away from the sound positions of their founding fathers. We need to know just how sturdy and invulnerable our positions are on the great outline prophecies—on the year-day principle, the 1260 years, or the 2300 years, and scores of other points—particularly the focal point of 1844.

You will find all these, and the answer to hundreds of other vital questions, in the new Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers set. It is the result of thirteen years of intensive research by LeRoy Edwin Froom, editor of The Ministry. Thousands of dollars have been invested by the General Conference in gathering the full evidence from the Old World and the New. Volume III is now available—755 pages of text with complete documentation, and a full index and bibliography.

Impressively illustrated with thirty-two full pages of facsimile reproductions and six double-page graphic charts, this work is at once a history of prophetic interpretation, a handbook of ready reference, and a virtual encyclopedia of reliable information and verified sources and authorities on prophetic exposition. It is a "must" volume for the Seventh-day Adventist who wishes to be informed in this important field. Only $4.50, it is now available through your Book and Bible House.

Denver Sabbath School Association

Many helpful ideas and suggestions were presented to the Sabbath school officers and members at a recent association meeting in Denver. Representatives from all the churches in the Denver area were invited to participate in the rally, and new plans were discussed whereby the Sabbath school officers and teachers could be more efficient and effective in strengthening the work of the church and in winning souls for the kingdom of heaven.

We were privileged to have Elder Reiner from the Central Union with us. He emphasized the importance of careful preparation of Sabbath school programs, soulwinning, faithfulness in Bible study, and the privilege of giving liberal offerings to the mission fields of the world.

Soul-winning services were held at the Porter Sanitarium on Friday evening and at Greeley on Sunday night.

Building Progress at Campion

From various contacts with our church members and students throughout the conference, it would seem that the question uppermost in the minds of all is, "Will the south wing of our new dormitory be ready when school begins?" We wish our answer could be affirmative without qualifications, but so much depends on so many. If everyone, including every believer throughout Colorado, will do his part, the girls will be privileged

To the Country

This is an appeal for mutual cooperation in an exchange of information.

Many of our believers are in the cities. Most of them would welcome information of opportunities to go to the country.

Many of our believers are in the country. They may know of such opportunities — a house, a farm, a job, a place to establish a business.

District superintendents may have such information, and would be glad to have other Adventists move into their districts.

Any information of this kind will be welcomed by this office. And it may be just the thing that will enable a family to heed the call of God to get out of the cities.

Pass such information along.

to move into their new home on September 9. Our faith leads us to believe that our girls will not be disappointed.

Money, materials, and an ample crew of workmen is all that is needed to bring about this accomplishment. We are happy to report that we are experiencing very little difficulty obtaining material. Brick in sufficient quantity is on the grounds. Electrical equipment was purchased sometime ago. Window frames were ordered and received during the previous school year. Lumber has been obtained in various places as it has been needed. Our plumbing supplies have not yet been received, but we have reason to believe that they will become available also.

During the current week our crew of workmen will be augmented considerably. Additional bricklayers will join those working here now. More carpenters will become available as the need arises. It will help us considerably and prevent us from calling a halt to our building work at the academy if all unpaid pledges can be taken care of promptly. As you give to finish the work in all the earth, remember the needs of our youth at your academy. The needs are truly great.

All students planning to attend school at Campion Academy should send in their applications and room reservations promptly. Prospects are indeed bright for the new school term.

We solicit your prayers in behalf of the building work here at Campion. All things can be accomplished through our Master Builder.

FACTS CONCERNING . . .

"The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers" Vol. III.

★ Written by LeRoy Edwin Froom, editor of The Ministry, and instructor in History of Prophetic Interpretation at Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, Washington, D. C.

★ Published by Review and Herald Publishing Association, Washington 12, D. C. Artistically printed in large readable type, with quotations in slightly smaller type. Beautifully bound.

★ Comprises 755 pages of text, with complete bibliography and index in addition.

★ Based on original sources—the writings of the men themselves, usually from printings within their own lifetime.

★ Full data given on all works cited—place of publication, name of publisher, year of publication, and edition, volume, and number where indicated.

★ At the close of each item in the bibliography, a listing appears of all pages in Prophetic Faith on which the treatise is cited.

★ The large index is based on a threefold breakdown—author, topic, and each prophetic term.

★ All direct quotations reproduced verbatim et literatim, and verified from the originals, or photostat or microfilm copies.

★ Documented by thousands of footnote references, many with annotations.

★ Periodic summaries, accompanied by tabular charts, provide composite pictures that summarize the findings.

★ Thirty-two full pages of impressive illustrations—original paintings, composite facsimile reproductions of title pages and key extracts, and portraits.

★ Biographical sketches introduce the various expositors, thus adding personality and human interest to the recital.

★ The historical background of the times constantly portrayed as the setting for the developing or receding views on prophetic interpretation.

★ Approved by fifteen experienced readers, the various sections read by experts in their respective fields, and checked by competent research assistants.

★ Made possible by the incomparable Advent Source Collection of some 7,000 source documents—gathered from the great archives of Europe and North America, the Old World sources secured on two research trips, in 1935 and 1938, and representing a very heavy investment.

★ The four volumes of the set cover the entire Christian era in logical sequence—each volume comprising an entity fully covering its allotted period, but requiring the entire set of four to tell the complete story.

★ Volume III—now released—covers the Colonial American and Early National Writers on Prophecy (1639-1800), and the Nineteenth Century Old World Advent Awakening (1798-1844).

★ The publishers are already at work on Volume II, the next to be released.

★ Constitutes a comprehensive source work and a ready reference library.

★ Ideal for personal study and classroom use, as comprehensive section headings reveal the content of each major division of the chapter; these, in turn, being similarly organized under summarizing subheads.

Progress of the Colporteur
Work

As a result of a contact made by Brother Hagar, one of our colporteurs working in Great Bend, Kansas, a lady who appeared interested while he was canvassing is not only taking Bible studies but is accepting every point of faith as the studies progress. She is now paying tithe and has requested baptism.

Another colporteur, Mrs. Hadel, contacted a lady in Junction City during her canvassing work and enrolled this dear soul in the Twentieth Century Bible course. Now, after about the fifteenth lesson, this lady is interested in keeping the Sabbath, and Mrs. Hadel reports that she has already attended Sabbath services in our church.

From various parts of the field we are constantly receiving word about the interests which our colporteurs have started. We certainly do thank God for these interested souls. It is just a little more evidence that the colporteur plays a very important part when it comes to winning souls. We are glad to report that the colporteur work in the Kansas Conference is continuing on the upward climb, and we do believe that it will not be many months until there will be 40 colporteurs reporting in the Kansas Conference. Only about a week ago, Brother Frank Hale, who operates a successful business in Topeka, expressed his desire to do some colporteur work. His particular burden at the present time is to distribute the Message magazine and the Lord is richly blessing him.

Last Sabbath it was my privilege to speak in the Bethel church at Kansas City. Several of the brethren and sisters there expressed their desire to enter the colporteur work.

Yes, dear reader, this is the time to get our literature before the people. It may be that you, too, will be interested in having a part in the Lord's work. If so, please send a letter or card to the writer.

Bible Correspondence School

Each day brings many interesting letters to our office from people who are enrolled in our Bible correspondence school. The enrollment is increasing with each mail.

We received the following letter a few days ago: "I have to thank you on behalf of my husband and myself. We have found the Bible our source of strength in the past, but what he has gotten has been taught or read to him. We have daily prayers. I read my Bible regularly and thank God for the courage I have received from His word. I enjoy your letters very much."

One lady wrote the following note with her lesson on the state of the dead. "This surely was an interesting lesson. I did not understand all about it until now. There are so many wonderful things. God bless your work. Pray for me and my loved ones."

Another lady writes: "As I study God's word I find so many new truths that are building up my faith. I daily thank God for these lessons and would not exchange blessings received for all the wealth of this world. I am looking forward to the hour when our blessed Lord shall come for His own. I do want the Holy Spirit to lead and direct everything I say or do."

The following letter was received from a man in northwest Kansas: "I must say I have greatly enjoyed your Bible correspondence course. I spend quite some time reading the questions many times, and it is very interesting as well as enlightening. You can count me as a believer. I am quite sure Saturday is the Sabbath although as an officer of Sunday school and church work I have kept Sunday."

A nurse from southern Kansas sent in the following letter: "I have enjoyed the lessons. I am so glad to have been placed on the mailing list of the Bible correspondence school. I have been wanting such a course for a number of years and now my desires have been fulfilled. The second coming of Christ and the book of Revelation have always been interesting to me, yet a little difficult to understand. Please send me all information on the coming events which might help me to see more clearly, and please remember me before the throne of grace."

Each month we feature a "Book of the Month," and we find this is increasing the amount of donations we receive. Last month the free-will offerings of the Bible correspondence school amounted to $74. For the first six months of this year we have received $184.39 free-will offerings and $53.47 tithe, making a total of $237.86.

Many of the people who are studying the Bible by the correspondence method are deeply interested in the truth and several have asked for baptism or have been baptized. We ask an interest in each of your prayers that God will bless the seeds thus sown and that as a result many honest in heart will accept this great advent message.

JEAN SCHWAB, Secretary

News Notes

Elder J. H. Roth gave a report of the General Conference session at the Topeka Fifth Avenue church last Sabbath. Our people appreciate these reports.

Elder Roth and Brother Ochs visited Enterprise and Salina to discuss matters relative to the construction of our new dining room and chapel.

Elder Roth met with the building committee of the Newton church recently, and he reports that their church building program is being speeded up. The Newton church board voted to sell the Kansas Conference fifteen of the pews they purchased jointly with the chapel at Camp Phillips. These are to be used in the large auditorium at Enterprise.

Camp Meeting Sabbath School and Home Missionary Work

We trust many Missouri believers and their families will be in attendance at the Moberly camp meeting, August 20-25. The children never forget their experiences at camp meeting. Twice a day there are meetings for the youth of different age groups, particularly for the kindergarten and primary groups. Those above the fifth grade usually attend the junior meetings conducted by the Missionary Volunteer department.

When the Sabbath day comes at camp meeting, everyone joins heartily in all of the exercises of the Sabbath school, so bring as many of the children as possible. We shall try to have the best of leaders and teachers to make the camp meeting a sweet oasis in the memory of all who attend.

The home missionary work of our churches should receive special emphasis at the camp meeting. We need to have our vision enlarged, else how shall we reach the four million perishing souls in Missouri? Our aim should be "A Seventh-day Adventist church in every county of Missouri." There are 115 counties in our state. Elder Butherus, our conference secretary-treasurer, tells me there are now 58 churches in Missouri. We should have at least 57 new churches raised up. What a challenge to a people who believe the Lord is coming! Do come to camp meeting and let our lamps be replenished with oil and our hearts recharged with the advent hope.

Youth of Missouri, do you wish to have part in one of the greatest privileges offered to young people? Then direct your plans toward Sunnydale Academy. ### Missouri Tithe Corner

"God recognizes both the Sabbath and the tithe as holy. It is by means of these things that God is testing His people in these last days. Of these two holy things, which is the more holy? Let everyone answer the question for himself. Adam failed to recognize the evidence of God's ownership, so took of the tree, and proved himself unworthy of Jehovah's confidence. God must still test His people on that question of ownership, so the tithe now occupies the place in God's work of testing man, where once the tree of knowledge stood. It is holy unto the Lord; and the man who will not now recognize God's ownership in this way, cannot himself be recognized by Jehovah hereafter." — Tithing, pp. 8, 10, by R. D. Quinn.

students in the southern part of the state, real enthusiasm was expressed by parents and young people. All were anxious to learn more of the progress and school program for this opening year.

Our state constituency is backing us on every hand and have expressed their interest in an academy for our own Missouri youth.

Parents are sacrificing that their young folk might obtain a Christian education. One conscientious mother whose daughter will be a student of Sunnydale states that she will, if necessary, sell her cows and chickens in order that her girl might come to our school this year.

Our scholastic program has been arranged so that all the requirements necessary for state certification have been placed in the curriculum.

Two courses are offered: First, a general academic course allowing for the choice of a number of electives; second, a college preparatory course for those planning on definite college work.

Our bulletins giving details of classes offered, what to bring, finances, etc., will be sent to anyone upon request.

We believe that with the co-operation of our parents and youth this opening year at Sunnydale Academy will be of real educational and spiritual value to our charter students.

Assistant Superintendent

Sunnydale Academy Needs

As we think of the opening of school, September 16, for the first year of Sunnydale Academy's existence, we have a number of needs which our people may be willing to contribute, apply on schooling, or sell at a reasonable figure.

Books are needed for our library, such as Mrs. E. G. White's writings, other denominational books, travelogues, histories, biographies, etc.

Good pianos and other musical instruments are needed to aid us in making our band and other musical activities the best possible.

We can also use good dairy cows and heifers to build up our already well-established dairy until we are milking one hundred cows. Dairy cattle must be tested by veterinarians to be sure they are free from Bang's disease before bringing them onto the campus.

Kindly write us immediately of anything you may have to offer before sending it.

Yours for making Sunnydale Academy a very outstanding school in every way.

Northeast District Annual Convention

The annual Sabbath school convention for the isolated members of northeast Missouri, southern Iowa, and western Illinois will be held at 801 Broadway, Hannibal, Missouri, August 3, 1946.

This will be an all-day meeting. Sabbath school will begin at 9:45 a.m. A basket lunch will be served following the 11 o'clock service.

We hope to have several conference workers present and would like to have every church from the northeast district represented. Everyone come and help make this the best convention ever.

Baptism at Florence

Two young men were baptized at Florence following the morning service on Sabbath, July 13. Elder G. E. Hutches spoke at the 11 o'clock hour, and Elder D. C. Butherus and the writer assisted in the service. At the close of the meeting the candidates were invited forward, and Brother C. L. Bainer presented them to the church for membership subject to their baptism. We then drove to a nearby stream where nature had provided a beautiful placid pool in which the candidates were buried with their Lord in baptism, the writer officiating.

Credit for these decisions belong primarily to the wife of the candidate in one case and in the other to the parents, but it was interesting to know that their Sabbath school teacher had joined in the labors of these others and consummated these decisions. Sister Bainer reports that she has been using the Sabbath school class period as an opportunity to appeal for decisions for Christ and the results have been remarkable. This is a shining example for Sabbath school teachers.

News Notes

Brother H. J. Jarnes, who has been working in Jefferson City, Missouri, has accepted an invitation to become principal of the Kansas City Junior Academy. He will be taking up his new duties immediately following camp meeting.

Brethren Zytoskee and Jarnes visited Owensville, Wellsville, and Columbia on July 6. Brother Zytoskee preached at Owensville and Wellsville, and attended a business meeting at Columbia.

Brother Zytoskee visited Lincoln on July 2 and 3 contacting church school teachers. On July 9 and 10 he visited Springfield and Taneyville, speaking at the prayer meeting at Springfield the night of July 10.

Camp meeting opens Tuesday night, August 20, at 7:30 in the municipal auditorium at Moberly. Plans are being made for the seating of delegates at that first opening session. Plan to come on time and stay the entire time. Word has been received that Elder J. J. Nethery, newly elected vice-president of the General Conference, and Elder J. I. Robison, associate secretary of the General Conference, will be with us for our camp meeting session. Elder W. H. Anderson will also be with us. We are also expecting our entire union staff.

Elder D. C. Butherus made a business trip to St. Joseph and Sunnydale Academy on Tuesday, July 16.

Elder J. H. McEachern visited Moberly, Sunnydale, and Jefferson City over the week-end of July 12-14. He reports an active and growing congregation in the new church at Sunnydale.

On July 13 and 14 Brother Zytoskee visited Salem and Clinton in the interest of establishing new church schools.

Now is the time to secure your Christ's Object Lessons for Christmas gifts and other purposes for which such a fine book can be used.

Nebraska Camp Meeting Coming

It is none too soon to begin to make definite plans about going to camp meeting. When we think of the terrible condition this world is in, and how serious the times are in which we live, surely it will be a wonderful thing to come together to worship God and get better prepared for the time of trouble that is ahead. We trust that all can so plan and arrange their work that they can come. There are perhaps those who have grown careless and long to have the same sweet feeling of peace and joy they once had. There may be others who have been so busy and engrossed in their work that they have not taken much time to read and pray for many weeks and months. They, too, will want to come. The young people should come for the inspiration and blessing and new vision that they can receive at camp meeting. Special meetings and things of real interest are planned for the juniors and those still younger. Now is the time to pray for God to help you to get to camp meeting, August 30. Pray for a new blessing for yourself, your family and friends. God wants to do great things for His people.

There will be special music at every meeting. The public will be invited especially to the evening meetings. Special series of studies will be conducted during the ten days. Bring your Bibles and song books.

Watch for further announcement in the REAPER and also at your church.

D. E. VENDEN

New Workers Added

We are happy to announce to the readers of the REAPER that three young men and their wives have been added to the list of workers in the Nebraska Conference. Their names are Mackay Christenson, Marcus Payne, and Merlin Pierson. These young men are all graduates of Union College, having finished a few weeks ago in the class of '46.

They come to the conference highly recommended by the faculty of Union College, and we are pleased to have them in our field. For the present Brother and Sister Pierson are located in the Norfolk district; Brother and Sister Payne in the Grand Island district; and Brother and Sister Christenson will locate in Omaha.

We are happy to know that these young men have a burden to win souls, and we believe the Lord is going to bless them. Will you pray for them and for the other workers in Nebraska that they with the church members may be used to evangelize this great state.

McCook Dorcas Federation

The Southwestern Federation is scheduled to meet in the McCook church, July 31. The first session will likely begin at 10:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning of this date. Everybody come prepared for a good day. Elder D. E. Reiner of the Central Union and Elder E. E. Hagen of Lincoln will be present at this federation.

MRS. ROSWELL MCCOMB

Notice

The Central Dorcas Federation meeting will convene in Grand Island, Nebraska, August 1, 1946, at 10:30 a.m. in the Bible auditorium. All Dorcas organizations are urged to be present. Elder D. E. Reiner of the Central Union and Elder E. E. Hagen, home missionary secretary of the Nebraska Conference, will be the guest speakers.

Each Dorcas society is to give a report of the year's work and bring articles of handwork to display. An interesting program has been prepared, and we urge all to come and bring a visitor. Encouragement, inspiration, and helpful ideas will be gained by all present.

MRS. C. RUSSEL

Federation Secretary

Dorcas Work

The work of Dorcas is to be kept alive in the church until the end of time. These acts of kindness must never perish. True godliness is in visiting the sick, comforting the sorrowing, feeding the hungry, and in helping to clothe the naked. We are to be continuous in these acts of kindness.

The Gering society writes that during June another barrel has been packed for overseas relief. They are also preparing a shipment of shoes. This society of only nine members has a good report to render. Others are doing equally as well. Others sit by saying, "We can't do anything." There is something for all to do. Let us be busy at the right things.

E. E. HAGEN

News Notes

There are only a few weeks left until camp meeting opens on August 30. Make sure to check this date on your calendar so you will not forget.

Professor R. M. Mote, principal of Shelton Academy, was in Lincoln a few days ago in the interest of the academy. He states that they are expecting an overflow attendance this coming year.

Judging by reports that have come to the office, the boys and girls and junior leaders who have been at the junior camp at Chadron have had a wonderful time.

Brother R. G. Mote, manager of the Book and Bible House, spent several days this past week with Brother Barger, visiting the different churches in that district.

A Change of Workers in Districts

At the recent committee meeting following the conference session some changes were made in several of the districts of the Wyoming Conference. Since Elder Haas has left the Wyoming Conference and is now located in Nebraska, steps had to be taken to fill the vacancy at Torrington where a good interest has been created and must be followed up. The committee decided to ask one of our interns, Brother Stanley Kannenberg, to locate at Torrington immediately to carry on the work there. A little later Elder Estey and Brother Kannenberg will unite in an evangelistic effort in their territory. A number of the members of the church are located in and around Lingle and have asked for public meetings; therefore, definite plans have been made to conduct a good effort in that territory.

Elder Estey, who has been laboring in the Basin territory and who was located at Powell, has been asked by the committee to locate at Newcastle. There is a great deal of work being done in the little city, and we believe that Elder Estey will enter wholeheartedly into the burden of the work in that territory and lead the churches in their endeavors to build up God's work in the northeastern section of the state.

Elder Beans, who has been in charge of the Lander district and who has been blessed with splendid success in winning souls, has been asked to locate at Powell. We know that Brother Beans will render excellent service in carrying on the work at Powell and the surrounding territory.

Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Smith, who have recently come to us from Walla Walla, Washington, are at present working in Lander assisting Brother Beans in binding off his work. Following the work at Lander they will be transferred to Laramie to assist Elder Hagen in a strong evangelistic effort.

Elder Reile and Brother Chalker will carry on the work throughout the Basin territory, visiting the churches at Ten Sleep, Bigtrails, Worland, and Thermopolis.

We solicit the prayers of God's people throughout the Wyoming Conference in behalf of the evangelistic work that has been planned by the committee. If there ever was a time when God's people should arise and put on the whole armor of God, it is now. We are not wrestling against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers and the evil spirits of this world; therefore, God's people stand in need of divine help which will enable them to overcome the wicked one and be triumphant in the cause which they have learned to love.

E. H. OSWALD

Camp Meeting Special

It is seldom that we find ourselves in a position to offer a special like this one. We plan to make the following offer at the coming regional meetings recently announced.

	Catalog Price
1 I Love Books	$2.50
1 Great Prophecies	3.75
1 Daniel and the Revelation	6.75
Totals	$12.95
LOOK!! You get these three books in a beautiful black leatherette case for just $4.90 plus tax (ten cents), total $5.00.

It is possible that you will not be able to attend one of the regional meetings. If for that reason, or any other reason, you wish to have your set mailed to you, just add 15 cents to the special price and we will mail your set to you immediately.

These sets will make splendid gifts, or you may wish to keep an extra set or two in your library to lend to interested persons.

Obituaries

MORSE. — Eliza Jane Baker was born near Ashland, Ohio, on Jan. 10, 1849, and died Feb. 24, 1946, at her home in Holdrege, Nebr.

On March 29, 1870, she was united in marriage to Chancy L. Morse of Goshen, Ind. Two sons and four daughters were born to this union.

Her husband and one daughter preceded her in death. Those left to mourn are: Byron L. of Lincoln, Nebr.; Ira R. of Wilcox, Nebr.; Mrs. Mercia M. Walker and Eva B. Morse, at home; Mrs. Florence L. Jackson of Madison, Tenn.; and 10 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

The Morse family heard and accepted the message in 1894 through the labors of Elder Daniel Nettleton and others. Sister Morse was faithful to the end. For 30 years she read the Bible through every year until her eyesight failed. Sister Morse had lived in the vicinity of Holdrege for 60 years and won many friends through her countless deeds of kindness and hospitality. This loving mother in Israel will be greatly missed.

MANTZ. — Kathryn Kechter Mantz was born at Kolb, Russia, Dec. 16, 1888, and passed away in the Baker Hospital at LaCrosse, Kans., June 25, 1946. Miss Ketcher came to America in 1907, and in September of the same year she was united in marriage with Jacob Mantz. To this union were born five children.

Sister Mantz was baptized into the Adventist faith in 1914 and was a true and active member of the Bazine church. Her needlecraft made her of exceptional value for Dorcas work, and she constantly worked along these lines in her efficient way.

She leaves to mourn her husband, Jacob Mantz; her sons, Henry, Elmer, Edward, and Leo; and her daughter, Lillian.

Funeral services were conducted in the high school auditorium at Bazine, Kans., by Elder F. W. Ruddle, Elder L. J. Ehrhardt, and the writer.
