

C.M.E. Postgraduate Assembly and Convention March 9-16

Some 2,500 physicians and surgeons who are graduates of the College of Medical Evangelists, the denomination's medical institution, are again focusing their attention on their Alma Mater, as the time for the annual postgraduate assembly and convention draws near, March 9-16, 1951. For them it is eight days filled with participation in the spiritual feast prepared by Dr. Arthur L. Bietz, pastor of the White Memorial Church, and his associates.

Religious services will be held in the White Memorial church the first two days of the assembly.

CLASS REUNIONS AND PRESIDENT'S DINNER

An ever popular feature of the assembly is the class reunions on Saturday night. Another social function is the president's dinner to be held in the Biltmore Bowl Sunday night, March 11, for physicians, their wives, and personal guests. At this banquet Dr. Elmer Henderson, president of the American Medical Association, will deliver a major address on the status of American medicine from an economic, political, and military point of view.

SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM

Especially geared to the needs of the general practitioner, the scientific program will be divided into two main parts: three days of lectures by 32 nationally famous medical speakers, panel discussions, more than 140 technical and scientific exhibits, and motion pictures, followed by three days of concentrated practice-useful special courses, to be presented by well-known professors. In addition to the principal speakers, more than 100 specialists representing every medical school west of the Rockies will appear on the program.

SCIENTIFIC SESSION AT BILTMORE HOTEL

Because a much larger attendance is expected this year than heretofore, the scientific sessions, beginning Sunday 9 a.m., will be held in the Biltmore Theatre located in the Biltmore Hotel in downtown Los Angeles.

SPECIAL COURSES

A new feature this year is the three days of concentrated special courses to be presented by well-known professors on the campus of the College of Medical Evangelists, Los Angeles Division, at the White Memorial Hospital. Fifty courses will be given in three-hour blocks, on the mornings and afternoons of March 14, 15, and 16, and will cover the major fields of medicine.

REGISTRATION

The registration fee for the assembly is $10.00 and for the special courses $15.00. Enrollment for the special courses will be by pre-convention registration only. Suitable credit for attendance at these courses will be given toward the requirements of the Academy of General Practice.

group of well-trained members, in companies of two each, to visit these homes. As a result of this visitation program almost 50 per cent of the homes where Signs had been a regular visitor were opened for Bible studies. As a notable example of its soul-winning effectiveness a lady soon accepted the faith. Her son immediately matriculated in one of our colleges and recently was graduated with a theology major.

4. Preceding expiration date each subscriber receives an attractive, urgent renewal appeal. During the past year approximately 5,000 Signs readers renewed their subscription as a direct result of this appeal. This represents about 3 per cent of the total Signs subscriber list—an unusually high average when we recognize that more than 85 per cent of the subscriptions to Signs are sponsored by friends and relatives.

5. United daily prayer within the walls of the Signs publishing house for the readers of Signs. Long years ago, in language quite prophetic, the assurance was given that "more than one thousand will be converted in one day, most of whom will trace their first convictions to the reading of our publications."—Review and Herald, Nov. 10, 1885. We believe that we are on the eve of the glorious fulfillment of this beautiful prophecy and that Signs is destined to occupy a large place in the program of coming events.

Let us all unitedly make a larger dedication with Signs this year and pray earnestly that the Spirit of God will move mightily upon the hearts of its readers.

same story that this new thrilling method of presenting present truth is about to reach millions of hearts. However, we must pass on word to you at this time that notification has come of a 40 per cent increase in the charges for the use of the television station time. This will mean a $47,000 increase in our budget for this work. We know that our people will rise to the emergency and do everything within their power, and with sacrifices, to roll up an offering on Sabbath, March 24, of not less than $120,000. How can we draw back or hesitate when God is so signally pointing the way and blessing the efforts which we have already attempted with this most modern method of reaching millions of hearts and minds who would never come to a public service?

Within very recent weeks another program under the leadership of Elder H. M. S. Richards has been televised from the west coast. This is another program which is being received with much favor and promises to become a powerful means of evangelism over a wide area in the western states.

This is our hour of opportunity, and it is felt that what we intend to do by this means, we must do quickly and most effectively now. We wish to appeal to all our people to come up to the help of the Lord in behalf of these mighty efforts to evangelize the great walled cities of the East and West. We urge every church pastor and leader to present this matter to our people very earnestly and repeatedly from week to week until the time of the offering.

Meeting of Union College Board

A few days ago the members of the Union College Board met for their annual meeting, spending two days on the campus of Union College. The president's report was very encouraging, telling of a good increase in enrollment for the second semester.

It was voted that each of the 13 conferences in Union College territory accept a goal for supplying students to the college for next year. The goal for the Central Union is 400 students. We feel that this is easily within our reach. President Hartman stated that he has a list of 750 young people in the Central, Northern, and Southwestern unions who are of college age and have the educational prerequisites, but are not in college. It is planned for representatives of the college or of the conferences to contact these young people in an endeavor to bring them to Union next year.

Brother V. S. Dunn, the manager, brought in the budget for the coming year. It was balanced without having to make further reductions in personnel, and because of economies which have been made during the past year it is hoped that it will not be necessary to increase tuition or room rates in spite of rising costs.

Nearly all of the members of the board spoke of the very good spirit they encountered while on the campus, both among members of the faculty and the students. We are living in serious days, and this is reflected in a more sober realization on the part of all that the work of God must soon be finished.

Money is accumulating in the college building fund, and it was voted to make the next building project a new dormitory to replace South Hall.

Union, our oldest college still in operation, will celebrate its sixtieth anniversary in May. It has given long and distinguished service, and the members of the board feel that it is making an even greater contribution to the cause of God today than at any time in its illustrious history.

Student Association Directs Gym Campaign

The Union College student association had charge of the convocation programs on February 12 and 13. There were talks by student leaders, discussion groups, and skits to arouse enthusiasm for the campaign to raise $15,000 for repairs on the auditorium. The leader in the campaign is Wilbert Dale; other leaders are Nina Engman, George Fischer, Bill Lehman, and Royce Williams. Stationery for writing letters was passed out in the convocation.

The students will be writing letters to friends and relatives in Union College territory, requesting monetary help to put in a ceiling and a new floor in the Union College auditorium. The floor has been patched so many times that there must be a new one to make it adequate for the wear that it receives. Insulation of the room of acoustical materials will make hearing in the auditorium much better than it has been heretofore.

Colporteur Institute

One hundred twenty-four students enlisted into the colporteur ranks during the annual colporteur institute held at Union College February 3-9. Many more expressed a desire to canvass this summer, which may bring the total near the two hundred mark by the time summer vacation begins.

A full week of instruction was given under the direction of Elder P. D. Gerrard, publishing secretary of the Central Union. Two instruction periods were held each day. The students were permitted excuses from class to attend these meetings.

The chapel periods were given over to experiences related by the publishing secretaries from the Northern, Central, and Southwestern unions. During two of the chapel periods the Colporteur Club presented a short skit on the origin of the colporteur ministry and the story of the first colporteur in action, George A. King, from Canada.

There are 90 students attending Union College at the present time who earned scholarships last summer. The prospective colporteurs are anticipating a prosperous summer this year, both financially and spiritually.

News Notes

The University Place members are an enthusiastic group of believers. One is surprised to find so many children in the Sabbath school. The members have started a church building fund because they are worshipping in a hired hall and do not have elementary school facilities. Elder R. S. Joyce was the visiting pastor there on Sabbath.

The Fremont church, having outgrown the building that has been their church home for so many years, was fortunate in being able to secure an attractive church building in a desirable location that provides room for growth. M. G. Dealy, who spoke at the morning service, February 10, reports that a house-to-house literature campaign was launched that afternoon. This will be continued each Sabbath until the opening of a series of meetings in March by the pastor, Stanley F. Pedersen.

Elder P. D. Gerrard and Brother J. N. Hunt met with the Omaha church members on Sabbath. Brother Hunt reported a splendid response by the members to Elder Gerrard's inspiring message encouraging every one present to greater soul-winning activity. In addition to a large increase in tithe for January, 1951, Elder J. E. Chase announced that more than 140 had pledged their personal assistance in the Omaha evangelistic plans.

Sunday afternoon Sister Kathryn Randolph met with the fine group of ladies in Omaha she has started in the magazine ministry.

Colporteur evangelist Miss Rose Nelsen has helped solicit nearly $300 in this year's Ingathering campaign.

Last Sabbath the manager of the Book and Bible House had the privilege of visiting the hospitable Falls City church and was the speaker at the morning service. Brother E. Jun conducted an interesting brief missionary service. Before leaving Falls City Brother C. J. Sumner spent time with some of the church officers discussing their work in regard to the Book and Bible House.

Ingathering News

Inspired by the zeal of the College View Ingathering program, Brother J. A. Mayer and Elder M. D. Oswald took major portions of three days, January 29, 30, and 31, Ingathering among the fine businessmen of Lincoln. "It was a real pleasure," declared Elder Oswald, "to go in and visit with these Lincoln business executives and to receive their generous offerings."

Friday, February 2, C. J. Sumner from the Nebraska Book and Bible House, and Elder Oswald made a call on one of Lincoln's leading citizens. Their visit was rewarded by a large liberal offering.

Elder Oswald reports that Sabbath, February 3, he visited in Brother Robert Johnson's district, speaking for the 11 o'clock hour, and conducting a home missionary and Sabbath school council meeting in the afternoon at the Wilsonville church.

On Monday, Brother Delton Coe of Republican City and Elder Oswald ingathered in Alma. For a day's effort they gathered in $64 cash, and many call-backs will be made in the very near future to swell the totals credited to the Holdrege district.

"God's goodness has been pronounced in this year's campaign," declared the conference home missionary secretary; "with His blessing the entire conference has enthusiastically entered into the Ingathering program. Our solicitors are being graciously received, and the generous donations they are bringing in are proof of heaven's favor."

Sabbath, February 17, is Ingathering Victory Day for the Nebraska Conference. On that day most of the churches and a major portion of the districts can relax—their mission has been accomplished. They have reached their goals. Inspired by dynamic vision, and propelled by enlarged dreams for super accomplishments the following districts have already reached their Minute-man goals: Elder Payne's Lynch district, Elder Mote's Platte Valley Academy, Elder Chase's Omaha district, and Brother Weis's Hastings district. The other districts, for reasons of territory restriction, have not reached their Minute-man objective, but have performed a splendid job by reaching and surpassing their last year's Ingathering totals.

Northeast District

The Northeast Nebraska district reaches from Ceresco in the south to South Sioux City in the north and from the Missouri river on the west to Wisner. Fremont, Blair, and Tekamah make up the churches for this district.

It was in this area that the first believers settled in Nebraska. The first Seventh-day Adventists came to Nebraska in 1866 and settled in Decatur. Because there were believers across the river in Iowa and, being few in number, they held their services in Nebraska one Sabbath and in Iowa the next. This plan of worship was followed for several years. The first church organization was established in Fremont in 1877. Elder Charles L. Boyd was the first conference president, and the first conference office was located five miles west of Fremont on the J. C. Midgough homestead. The Blair and Tekamah churches were organized in the 1880's by Elder O. A. Johnson, one of the first Bible teachers at Union College.

Elder Johnson kept a diary and recorded some interesting experiences. On one occasion he walked from Blair to Wisner, a distance of about 70 miles, to hold a Sabbath meeting. This was during severe winter weather. While holding meetings in Ft. Calhoun he was attacked by a saloon keeper and was so badly beaten that he had to leave the work for six months.

Since that humble beginning at Decatur in 1866, the message has continued to advance in Nebraska. But there are many places even here that have not heard the third angel's message. With the emphasis placed upon evangelism our plans are to hold meetings as often as we can and wherever possible.

We in the northeast Nebraska district are encouraged over the growth of the work here. There has been an increase in souls as well as in tithes and offerings. We have also been blessed in the Ingathering. By the time this issue of the REAPER goes to press we expect to have reached the Minute-man goal, an increase of over 150 per cent over 1948.

There are six students from this district enrolled in Union College, and seven are attending our academy. During the past two years much has been done to improve the appearance of our churches. The first Sabbath in January, the believers in Fremont worshipped in their new church which was recently purchased from another denomination. Plans are now being made for a dedicatory service sometime this spring.

What are our plans for the future? We plan to double our membership in the next four years. In order to accomplish this, attention must be placed upon evangelism. March 4 will be the opening date of a spearhead effort in Fremont. From there we will hold a similar series in Blair. We are planning to hold three such efforts this year. We will do our part to hasten the coming of our Lord.

Should Parents Study?

"The school and the home are closely linked together. Indeed, the home is a school, the foundation school, and the elementary school is but an extension in certain features of that foundation school. The home never ceases teaching the child, so long as he remains in it." Thus starts the instruction in one of the parent education classes.

Do parents need instruction in homemaking and child training? Consider how we attend classes to learn the art of stenography, music appreciation, teaching, nutrition, woodworking, business principles, and trades. Is it not much more important to learn the art of molding living clay entrusted to our care, lest it be marred in the making. We can never retrace our steps to cover our mistakes.

Realizing how far short we fall as parents, the Elementary Home and School Association of College View has organized again its parent education classes. These three classes meet once each week and extend through the months of January, February, and March. The parents attending have expressed great appreciation for the instruction and help they are receiving week by week.

As one course states in its purpose: These lessons "are windows placed in the walls of your life to enable you to see more widely and farther, the beauty and the meaning and the purpose in the parenthood God has given you."

And so, with a broadened vision of your task, we as parents can approach our daily round of duties, not with a humdrum attitude, but with pleasure and anticipation and a feeling of accomplishment. Character is built by the right use of simple, everyday, home experiences.

The teachers for our classes are parents who have children of their own in the age group of which they are teaching. This helps them to understand in a sympathetic way the immediate problems of the group. We, of the Home and School, appreciate very much the time and effort each of these teachers is putting into her class.

Credit should go to Mrs. J. G. Galusha for her ability in keeping a group of 30 young mothers coming to their study of the little child. Mrs. D. S. Rausten has a fine group studying the problems of the school child. Mrs. C. W. Reeder has held the attention of her group by calling in various speakers informed on the many perplexing problems of the adolescent. May we recommend these study groups to any church who wishes to strengthen the home life of its members.

Mrs. J. G. Galusha and her Parent Education Class

Plans for Union College

Plans to remodel and improve the gymnasium and auditorium at Union College were accepted at a recent board meeting. This is a campaign sponsored by the student body and one that is very much needed at the college.

We appreciate the enthusiastic way the students have entered into this campaign and feel confident that in a short time their goal will be reached and their progressive plans of improvement will be realized. I wish to appeal to the constituency of our conference to co-operate and to help wherever it is possible. We will be receiving letters from the students of the college, and I wish to take this opportunity to urge that all respond most liberally to their needs.

I spent three days on the campus just a few days ago and want to express my appreciation for the good spirit and feeling of co-operation among the faculty and students alike. We can truly be proud of Union College.

Thanks to Bible School

Another letter from a Bible correspondence school enrollee gives this thought:

"I want to thank God and you for bringing God's Word so close to me. It seems as though the Lord has blessed me so dearly. My greatest desire in life has been to go to Bible school, but it seems I haven't very much money to go; so God has made it possible through you that I can study your Bible correspondence course. I want to thank you for helping me, and may God grant your prayers which are pleasing to Him."

And again: "Just a word of praise for the ten lessons I have finished. I have received great blessings and light on Scriptures and enjoyed answering the questions. One cannot help but see that world conditions today point to the second coming of Jesus for His own, and only His own will be ready for His coming."

Your participation in the visitation program again on March 10 will help to bring these truths to many more. Let us enroll our friends and neighbors in this wonderful lesson study. E. E. HAGEN

God Leads in Ingathering

The following experiences enjoyed by Sister Carrick while Ingathering in Wichita can be repeated in other places. We know, though, that as you read these experiences you will be conscious that the Lord guides.

"When Sister Wiseman and I called at an office we found how the Lord had prepared the way. Mr. Johnson told us that another member of the Wichita Rotary Club had taken many pictures of our missions in Africa and while showing them he talked extensively about the good our missions are doing for the needy, and especially for the children. It had impressed Mr. Johnson so that it not only seemed a pleasure for him to give us a $25 check, but he also gave us the names of some who had seen the pictures and advised us to see the friend who had taken the pictures of our missionary work.

"While talking to a man who freely gives each year, he asked about world conditions. He said a man had told him that the Bible spoke of Rome and other nations, and that someday our country would fall. He seemed so interested in our discussion on Bible prophecy that I turned to Sister Hallock and asked, 'Haven't you a picture on Daniel 2?' 'Yes,' she replied, 'and if you would like to see it my husband and I would be glad to show it to you.' He said that he would like to see it and gave her his office and home telephone and home address.

"While soliciting a grocery store owner he asked us what we thought about the church federation. He said, 'Don't answer the way you think I want you to, but what you really believe.' I answered, 'According to the Bible it will not bring peace or prove a success any more than the League of Nations.' When we asked him if he had ever attended a Seventh-day Adventist church he said that he had not, but he knew all churches could not be right. He did believe that there was only one true church. Noticing his interest Sister Speer told him about our Bible course, and he let his customers wait while he signed for the Bible correspondence course."

You, too, can enjoy similar heart-warming experiences, but you must work at Ingathering to get them. In rare cases will such cases come in search of you. You must labor for God to enjoy them. Our Ingathering is still climbing. At the time of this writing we can report in excess of $51,000. We want all to finish their part rapidly. E. E. HAGEN

Check for Missions

Elder D. E. Reiner looks on as Elder Rees congratulates Elder Hagen for the large amount of Ingathering which has been turned in to the end of January and shows him the check that is about to be sent to the union office.

We are thankful for the progress of the Ingathering during the month of January and the loyal participation of our members in this great program. This check of $46,966.48 represents the largest amount for missions that has been sent to the union by the Kansas Conference in one month.

We are trusting that by the end of February we will be able to write another check for the remainder of our goal for the conference thus making the shortest period of time in which our members have engaged in the Ingathering.

I would like to take this means of thanking the many friends of the Central Union who remembered us with such kind expressions of sympathy during our recent loss. There were more than we could possibly answer personally, but your kindness has been a source of courage to us.

News Notes

At the recent colporteur institute at Union College Elder Loomer recruited 15 students for colporteur work in Kansas during this next summer.

Workers of the Kansas Conference spent from February 18 to 22 at the union conference session.

At a recent committee meeting it was voted to grant the request of Elder Clyde Kearbey and Brother Earl Patton to attend the spring term at the Seminary in Washington, D.C. They will be leaving the field right after the union session and will return the first of June.

Elder D. E. Reiner spoke in the Kansas City church on Sabbath, February 10. The church members certainly appreciated his enthusiastic and inspiring message. The officers of the Sabbath school and home missionary departments also received some timely counsel.

Elder E. E. Hagen met with the church at Fort Scott on Sabbath morning, February 10, and at Hepler in the afternoon.

Elder Loomer was at the Abilene and Junction City churches on Sabbath, February 10.

Brother Earl J. Gregg left the office Thursday to join his family in California and later to visit his parents in Portland prior to going to Africa.

Elder and Mrs. Don R. Rees attended the open house at Enterprise Academy. The occasion was the completion of redecoration of the girls' dormitory. It is now beautiful and commodious place to live.

The constituents of our conference will be pleased to know that the foundation of the new dairy pasteurizing plant at the academy has been poured. As soon as the weather clears, completion of the building will be under way.

For the month of January the workers reported five baptisms. During this month we were fully engaged in the Ingathering program in our field which accounts for the small number of baptisms at this time.

Elder Lutz reported four of these baptisms for Wichita. The other was by Elder Ehrhardt in Lawrence. Elder Ehrhardt has since had another baptism of seven on February 3.

Brother Dick and Brother Hawley of the Iola church were recent visitors in the office. They were discussing with the officers plans to accommodate a new children's room for the Sabbath school and a recreational room for the young people.

Brother S. S. Mohr of Abilene made a recent visit to Duquoin to study the possibility of moving the church building to a recently purchased lot in Harper. Plans for the new church or addition to the old one are being formulated.

January Baptisms

The baptisms reported by our workers for the month of January totaled 45 and 1 received by profession of faith. Elder Samuel Castillo reported the largest number for the month, namely 22. We list the names herewith:

Joe A. Valdez	Feliz Sanchez
Oralia Garcia	Elvira Armijo
George C. Martinez	Angie Armijo
Eva Marie Martinez	Alice Virginia Armijo
Jimmie C. Martinez	Teodoro Pacheco
Edward C. Martinez	Raymond Garcia
Max T. Martinez	Nicolas Martinez
Mrs. Eulalia Martinez	Gilbert Martinez
Virgie Martinez	Verna Sandoval
Elvira Barcelona	Rosa Pacheco
Guadalupe Gomez	Sally H. Garcia

Second in the number of baptisms was Elder J. B. Carter with 11. Both Elder Castillo and Elder Carter give credit for quite a number of those baptized to the active work of lay members. Elder Carter's baptisms are listed below:

Mrs. Malee Edwards	Gary Don Schade
Fred T. Fentz	Virginia A. Bishop
Jimmy Martin Webb	Doris Joan Barney

Marjune Jewell George Carpenter
Mrs. Carl D. Walling Winifred Carpenter
Mr. Carl D. Walling

Elders C. E. Smith and J. H. Nixon and Brethren Reile and Kostenko each reported three baptisms. Elder Smith's were: Donald David Lane, Arthur Steck, and Douglas Kitzrow. Elder Nixon's were Mrs. Janet Ecord, Dottie Franklin Parker, Roy Pat Parker. Brethren Reile and Kostenko reported Ola C. Cox and Elsie Shively as baptisms and Lola Martin by profession of faith.

Elder L. G. Jorgensen and Elder George Rasmussen each reported two baptisms for the month. Elder Jorgensen's were Homer A. Wyman and Mrs. Martha Dennison. Elder Rasmussen's were Gerald Neal Kelley, and Grace Louise Kelly.

We are happy that so large a number were baptized in the month of January and trust that as the weeks and months come and go there may be even a larger number accepted in our churches by baptism or by profession of faith. We would solicit the prayers of the readers of the REAPER in behalf of those who have newly been received into church fellowship and also we trust that you will pray that God will mightily bless our workers and our church membership that a constantly increasing number of people may find their way into the message and finally into the kingdom.

A Visit to Sterling

It was a pleasure to spend Sabbath, February 10, at Sterling in company with Brother Ellsworth Reile, the district leader. At the close of the 11 o'clock service I had the pleasure of baptizing three who were received into the Christian fellowship of the Sterling church. Brother Reile told me that in his district there were a number working with friends and neighbors giving Bible studies and doing what they can to bring the truth to those around them. They are hoping to have a baptism in that district about once each month during the year. It would be a very fine thing if this could be done in each district, and we believe that if the hearty co-operation of the church membership can be secured that this is not beyond the realm of possibility. The services of Brethren Reile and Kostenko are very much appreciated in district 1.

Our College Plans

At a recent meeting of the Union College board the matter of repairing the gymnasium was given consideration. There is need of a new floor in the building and also some acoustical material on the ceiling.

It was suggested that the student association of Union College might put on a campaign to raise the approximate $15,000 that it is estimated the improvements will cost. It was also suggested that we as presidents of the conferences place a note in the REAPER authorizing this and encouraging our people where they can to respond in a material way to the calls that come to them from various students of the college. More than this, I trust that every member will make it a part of his program to encourage young people of college grade to plan to attend Union next year.

Following the Lay Preacher

While I was in Durango last week I had the privilege of meeting Brother Ray Kelley who is one of our faithful lay preachers. He is holding weekly Bible studies with a family in Durango. This family is already keeping the Sabbath and is coming to the church services. They will undoubtedly be baptized before long.

Elder George Rasmussen reports that Sister Hood and Sister Elaine Franks are also conducting weekly cottage meetings. Our Durango lay preachers meet each Sabbath afternoon to review their Bible studies to be given during the week.

God will reward the faithful efforts of these lay preachers.

LEROY J. LEISKE

We have just received word from Mrs. J. E. Medill of Steamboat Springs, and she tells us that Steamboat Springs is the easiest place in the conference to do Ingathering. She went out soliciting for an hour one evening and received $45. The next evening she went out for an hour again and gathered in $35. We think this is a record for two hours work. Mrs. Medill and Mrs. Florence Fellers sent in $121.21. We certainly appreciate the faithfulness of these two members!

Strasburg Lay Preachers' Meeting

Brethren W. J. Gavin and E. F. Schade have been conducting an effort in the town hall in Strasburg. These brethren have greatly enjoyed bringing the message to the people of this community.

The greatest joy came, however, on Sabbath, January 20, when these brethren saw seven candidates baptized at the Denver North church. Those baptized included two married couples and three young people. Eight others who are very interested also came to witness the baptismal service.

We invite every Colorado lay preacher to make this year of 1951 a great year in soul winning.

LEROY J. LEISKE

News Notes

Elder LeRoy J. Leiske met with the Boulder Sabbath school council Tuesday evening, January 30, to discuss Sabbath school work. Dr. Page, the superintendent, and the entire group of officers and teachers are launching a great soul-winning drive, climaxing with a decision day on Sabbath, April 23.

Elder and Mrs. L. J. Leiske visited the North Denver church on Sabbath, February 3, then drove to Ft. Collins in the afternoon where Elder Leiske joined Elder Petersen, Brother Schlotthauer, and Elder Kepkey in a church officers meeting.

Elder Samuel Castillo baptized seven people at Monte Vista last Sabbath. These are quite largely the result of the faithful work done by the church elder, Tomas Sandoval.

Five were baptized and two were received by profession of faith Sabbath, February 10, by Elder G. K. Lashier. The seven united with the Porter church.

Elder J. L. Dittberner conducted a baptism on Sabbath, February 10, when 15 followed their Lord in the sacred rite, 14 of whom united with the Denver Central church and one with the Golden church. The one was the result of Brother Matthews' work.

Professor C. E. Stenberg from Campion Academy dropped in at our office for a few minutes on Sunday, February 11, to counsel with Elder Carter regarding the Campion church school.

Mrs. Frances Curtiss, a music student at the Colorado College in Colorado Springs, stopped in at the office one day last week for a short visit. We are always happy to have our people drop in to see us.

Elder O. H. Bentzinger, pastor of the Colorado Springs church, spent a little time at the office one day last week. He reports that the work is progressing well.

Elder R. J. Christian from the Review and Herald was the guest speaker at the Denver Central church on Sabbath, February 10. Elder H. L. Rudy, one of the vice-presidents of the General Conference, and Elder M. K. Eckenroth, one of the associate secretaries of the ministerial association, were also visitors at the Denver Central church Sabbath, February 10.

Elder LeRoy J. Leiske spoke at Campion Academy Friday evening, February 9, and also at the Sabbath morning service.

Farewell

Elder Harold F. Roll, secretary-treasurer and Book and Bible House manager of the Missouri Conference, has accepted a call to the Kansas Conference. While changes of this nature are frequent among Seventh-day Adventist workers, yet the parting is always painful.

We know that all our workers and believers will miss Brother Roll. We pray that God will richly bless his ministry in the Kansas Conference. Since Topeka is so near, we hope you, Harold, and your good wife Hazel, and son Gene will be frequent visitors to Kansas City, Missouri. The latch string in the conference will always be on the outside. R. S. WATTS

Missouri Endorses Campaign

The students at Union College have launched a campaign to raise money for the college gymnasium. At a recent meeting of the college board, it was voted to launch this campaign during February. The campaign will end March 15. I know that our Missouri Adventists are interested in this project. Students from Missouri will be contacting you by letter asking for a donation. Please respond if you possibly can.

We all love Union College. It is our college, and a Seventh-day Adventist college can function properly only when it has the loyal support of Adventist members. Let us give to this campaign so we can have a better equipped school for our own young people. Send your contribution directly to Union College, Lincoln, Nebraska.

Here and There

With evangelism the keynote in all denominational activities, it is gratifying to see the enthusiasm manifested by the youth of Missouri as they take hold of this work. Oak Grove church school with 42 students, has raised $534 for Ingathering, and are now entering two literature distribution programs to lay the groundwork for meetings to be held later by the district pastor. Joplin with 16 students raised over $330 and is also planning to assist in literature work. The youth of Jefferson City topped $225 in Ingathering. The school there has an enrollment of only six students. These schools represent only three of the 12 church schools in this field. A full report will be given later.

The church at Goldsberry voted in business session last month to reopen the church school which has been closed in recent years. Already plans are under way to repair and redecorate the building. The people of the church are delighted at the prospect of placing their children where they may gain a Christian education. Southwest City is studying a plan to provide transportation for students. If this problem can be solved they too will have a school next year.

The saving of our own youth is an essential part of evangelism. The schools and the M.V. societies in Missouri are joining wholeheartedly in every soul-winning activity of the church.

GUY C. WILLIAMSON

Our Faithful Isolated Members

As the January remittances roll in to the conference office, we are happy to see the fine Ingathering returns from many of our isolated members. We greatly appreciate the faithfulness of our isolated members who have gone out alone to their neighbors, friends, and business acquaintances and received contributions for the advancement of God's work in this conference and abroad. May the Lord bless you, dear conference church members, for your loyalty and devotion!

E. T. GACKENHEIMER

Thanks to Rolla Members

In our enthusiastic rush to report large achievements in Ingathering we sometimes fail to recognize the diligent and sincere giving and soliciting done by our smaller companies and Sabbath schools. Recently I have been visiting at Rolla where we have but few believers. To these good people we say, thank you. For many years now our believers at Rolla have had a very definite part in the achieving of our Ingathering goal in Missouri. Hundreds of dollars have come from Rolla and were personal contributions of the members living there, but never has there been much mention of the liberality of these good people. Contrary to what may have been recorded, large gifts from Rolla have made Ingathering much easier for the churches in the vicinity.

The Rolla Sabbath school is expanding, and we trust that in the future we shall be able to report Rolla as a separate organization. With Elder and Mrs. Jesske located here in this long-neglected section of the state, we should soon see tangible evidence of the seed sown by our radio program which was sponsored by Dr. and Mrs. Slawson and carried on by the Whitsett, Keymer, and Braley trio.

Sabbath, February 10, the churches of Bourbon, Salem, Rolla, and Owensville met in an all-day officers' meeting. The meeting was held in the lovely chapel which Dr. and Mrs. Slawson built in Rolla. Elders Watts and Gackenheimer from the conference office were present for the meeting.

Over the Top

The latest survey of the field revealed that this past week the Wyoming Conference shot past last year's achievement of $16,427 by $800 and is well on the way to becoming a Minute-man conference again.

Several towns that depend on tourist trade will be worked later in the spring and this, plus other contacts, will bring in another $1,000, which will push the conference over the super-goal which is $20.23 for each church member.

God has blessed abundantly with unusually mild weather and the energetic workers have seen the manifestations of the Holy Spirit in the liberal gifts of the Wyoming citizenry. Thus the work has been finished rapidly, which will mean that more time will be available for soul-winning efforts in the spring.

Many comments have been heard from the district pastors about the faithfulness and enthusiasm of the church members in the caroling and in the regular campaign. The present total reflects the consecrated efforts of the ministry and the lay members. To each one who had a part in this year's Ingathering campaign we give a hearty "Thank You"!

We truly praise God for His continued guidance and help, and we add our prayers to yours that the funds received will greatly hasten the work upon this earth that it may soon be finished.

MORTEN JUBERG

Casper Achievement

A double Minute-man goal per capita is the attainment of the Casper church in the current Ingathering campaign. With $3,100 in the till, a 10 per cent increase over last year, the group looks forward to receiving $300 more in later contacts.

During the caroling phase of the program, every house in the urban sections of the district was covered. Albert Traudt, Peggy and Barbara Ketchum were the leading solicitors.

Elder Paul Cales, with the help of band leaders Mrs. G. E. Barker and Mrs.

Morten Juberg, directed the business solicitation. The fact that Casper is noted as the breeziest city in Wyoming seemed to be no deterrent to the leaders and members as they worked during a week of spine-chilling sub-zero weather.

Special mention should be made of Mrs. J. F. Baker of Powder River who made a round trip of 80 miles on three days to help in the campaign.

MORTEN JUBERG

Torrington District

The Torrington district has gone over the top with a "bump." The contribution from Bump's Insurance Agency put us over the 1951 Ingathering goal of $1,340.

The chief laurels for this successful campaign go to the inspiring and enthusiastic work of the Torrington Missionary Volunteer society members who raised over $545 in caroling and door-to-door solicitation. Some of these energetic volunteers were out every night during the Christmas season. The only complaint was the lack of territory.

Discovering that a part of Lance Creek, a widely dispersed oil town, was missed during the caroling season, Torrington's undaunted volunteers returned on February 6, with the sound system and gospel songs to solicit over $41 in a few hours.

To foster the spiritual aspect of the Ingathering work over 250 copies of Your Friends, the Adventists were handed out during the solicitation. Thus the seed of truth was generously sown as the harvest of funds was reaped. Several impromptu Bible studies were given. A number of interests were discovered. A large supply of used clothing was gathered. God's Spirit and blessing were manifestly evident. We give Him the praise and thanks. ARTHUR HAUCK

Church Officers' Meetings

The church officers' meeting at Casper on February 10 marked the last of a series of meetings which were held at Rawlins, Worland, Cheyenne, and Sheridan. Despite threatening weather on two occasions, the gatherings were well attended with representatives from almost every church present.

Following the morning preaching services at which Elder E. R. Osmunson led out, a covered dish lunch was served. In the afternoon instruction was given to the officers by the conference staff. The various district pastors gave suggestions to the Sabbath school officers. Time was also provided for a question and answer period.

Provision was also made for the children. Mrs. Osmunson and Mrs. Juberg, assisted by church members, provided an afternoon story hour.

One cannot help but be impressed by the musical talent displayed at the meetings. Outstanding was the talent displayed by the young people. The Lander group and the Buffalo children's choir directed by Mrs. William Ross and Mrs. Mildred Songer, received many favorable comments.

News Notes

Mrs. Robert Thompson is spending a few days in Casper visiting her parents, Elder and Mrs. R. R. Newman.

Morten Juberg, conference departmental secretary, attended a colporteur institute at Union College last week. He reports that several students have expressed a desire to canvass in Wyoming this summer.

John Jensen, one of our faithful members in New Haven, has responded to the call to spread the printed page. The first day out he sold a copy of The Great Controversy, and a Baptist minister purchased Bible Readings.

Elder E. R. Osmunson was in Lincoln, Nebraska, last week for a few days attending the Union College board and the Central Union Conference committee meetings.

The Wyoming Conference office will be closed from Friday, February 16, to Sunday, February 25, to allow the office workers to attend the Central Union Conference constituency meeting in Kansas City, Missouri. If any emergency arises it is suggested that our members contact the district leader or the conference officers at the Robert E. Lee Hotel, Kansas City, Missouri.

The students from Union College are launching a campaign to solicit funds for the improvement of the gymnasium. The necessary improvements will cost approximately $15,000. The campaign will continue until March 15. We are confident that our people in Wyoming will give their full support to this campaign by making liberal contributions when invited to do so by the students.

Wedding

Miss Hope Haskins and Albert Underwood were married on Saturday evening, February 3, in a quiet service at the home of the pastor. Following the service the Coffeyville church sponsored a gift shower for the newly wedded couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Underwood are both members of the Coffeyville church. We wish for them the blessings of God as they establish their new home.
