"There Shall Be Signs"

E. E. HAGEN, Home Missionary Secretary, Central Union Conference

Nearly two thousand years ago Jesus said, "And there shall be signs" in the heavens, "and upon the earth distress . . ."—Luke 21:25. These words of Jesus have and are being fulfilled. Signs appearing in the heavens are a historical fact. We believe more will be seen. Distress among earth's many nations is current. This "distress" Jesus spoke of will take various forms involving calamities of natural disasters, in earthquakes, tidal waves, floods, tornadoes, famines; distress involving political upheavals; distress in unprecedented increases of crime; distress in moral collapse; distress in wars and threats of instant destruction of millions of lives. These distress signs are all about us. The end is near.

In 1874 a revelation was fulfilled that was given to the servant of the Lord, Ellen G. White, in which she saw that a paper was published on the Pacific coast, whose radiant streams of light would circle the earth. In 1874 the Signs of the Times made its appearance. This publication from its very beginning has revealed to its readers the meaning of signs already having appeared in the heavens, and through these years has pointed out that distress among nations, which today is on an ever mounting increase, are proofs that the end is near.

The Signs of the Times, under the blessing of God, has been instrumental in directing the feet of unknown thousands to the path that leads to the way of eternal life. "The publication of truth is God's ordained plan, as a means of warning, comforting, reproving, exhorting, or convicting all to whose notice the silent, voiceless messengers may be brought." Our personal responsibility is to see that these publications get into the homes—yes, into the hands of people, then the heavenly messengers can and will do their part. "Angels of God have a part to act in preparing hearts to be sanctified by the truths published, that they may be prepared for the solemn scenes before them."—Christian Service, p. 154.

The Signs of the Times is appointed to this work. Thrilling have been the stories showing how heavenly beings

What Will You Do May 8?

J. ERNEST EDWARDS, Secretary, Home Missionary Department, General Conference

Each week thousands of Dorcas and Welfare workers, both men and women, here in North America, give devoted service for Christ and humanity. They visit homes, gather clothes, process it at their centers, stockpile it for local emergencies and ship much of it on to the clothing depot for overseas disaster relief. They follow in the footsteps of Christ whose footprints they find "beside the sick-bed, in the hovels of poverty, in the crowded alleys of the great city, and in every place where there are human hearts in need of consolation."—Welfare Ministry, p. 119.

Every second year an opportunity is presented to help in world disasters and the Famine Relief program. Your sharing, your sacrificing on May 8 this year will make possible the continuation of a world Good Samaritan program, providing clothes for the needy, food for the hungry, help for orphans, medicine for epidemic victims, and relief for disaster sufferers. During the past year, 1964, almost eight million people in over 30 different countries were helped by your service and gifts. Over 300,000 pounds of clothes and twenty million pounds of food were distributed. Medical supplies and equipment valued at over $400,- have worked through human hands, to use Signs in bringing conviction to hearts! Its work of conviction will go on! Marvelous will be the continuing experiences as angels of God work with you to play their part. Our task is to send out the Signs. This is Signs evangelism month. Send them out, at least ten Signs per family, then pray that God's agencies will move upon men and women, children and youth everywhere to whom Signs has been sent, that they might become convicted as they read. More Signs sent means more souls won in this crusade of 1965.

000 were shipped and used. Around the world millions of hungry children, displaced refugees, homeless disaster victims were helped by your offering. Look at the list of countries:

Let us go to Korea, to the tent village of Top Won Ri, near the North Korean border. We peek inside one of these tents and we find a blind father and mother and sister. Only one little daughter can see. We'll call her Kim Bo. Too young to earn a living, Kim Bo goes out begging in order to provide for her blind family and herself.

Kim Bo attended Vacation Bible School and never missed, for she enjoyed it so much. But one day she failed

Dissertation To Be Printed

The doctoral dissertation written by D. W. Holbrook last spring will soon be published by the University of Nebraska

Dr. D. W. Holbrook

Press according to
Dr. Dale K. Haynes,
chairman of the Department of Educational Administration at the University.

The 250-page
study on Latin American education
has been approved
by the book editors
of the University Press who have stated that the study "is interesting and well written; the subject is important; the language is excellent; and the vignettes are pithy and well chosen."

Dr. Holbrook spent approximately three years in the actual investigation and drew on ten years of experience as an educator in Latin America for much of his work.

The study involves religious and political pressures on the schools of Latin America and carries the title An Analysis of the Religious and Political Influences on the National School Systems of Argentina, Brazil, and Peru.

At the present time the dissertation is being prepared for publication and it is expected that it will be ready early in June.

Rabbi Brooks Convocation Speaker

Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks, spiritual leader of Temple Israel in Omaha, Nebraska, spoke at the Union College Convocation on March 29. Rabbi Brooks is an instructor in Comparative Religion at the University of Omaha and has his Master's degree in Hebrew literature.

The rabbi lectures on college campuses under the auspices of the Jewish Chautauqua Society, an organization disseminating authentic information concerning Judaism, as part of an educational program.

His speech compassed the religious,
social, and moral problems in our culture.
"All of these areas are of interest to all religions," stated Rabbi Brooks, "and a religious background is a good answer to these problems, no matter what the faith." In addition to his talk to the students, Rabbi Brooks made a presentation of the Jewish Chautauqua Society's book grant to the Union College Library.

Dr. Leonhardt Receives Grant

Dr. E. A. Leonhardt, professor of mathematics at Union College, will be attending eight weeks of summer school at the University of Kansas. He has received a grant from the National Science Fellowship in which he will be taking a more extensive course in modern mathematics.

Thompson Receives Doctorate

The University of Nebraska granted to Gerry E. Thompson, principal of the Seventh-day Adventist under-collegiate school of Lincoln,
the Degree of Doctor of Education.

Doctor Thompson,
a graduate of Union College in '51, began study toward his doctorate in the summer of 1958. Supervised by Professor Merle A. Stoneman, Dr. Thompson

evaluated the teacher-education program of Union College. His dissertation contains more than 200 pages. Dr. Thompson said, "The project required an established criteria for the teacher education program. This was based on requirements and recommendation of state departments of education. A further survey of professional books, periodicals,
and journals was used to establish a general criteria."

A summary of Dr. Thompson's findings recommends that the teacher-training program be planned as a five-year program. He also advises that the student be required to spend more time in the field of mathematics. Several other recommendations were made.

It is the hope of Dr. Thompson that his study may be useful in developing a stronger teacher-education program,
as well as helping the college achieve accreditation with the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education.

Dr. G. E. Thompson

to come. After school the teacher went to her tent, to find out what had happened. He found Kim Bo crying, "I couldn't get any food today, and my family is hungry and I am hungry."

The teacher quickly turned and left. When he came back he brought a bag of flour. But the little "seeing eye" girl had already left home to continue her begging.

Our pastor has been distributing food and flour to all the desperately needy people of this area. One day he wondered if these people were "rice Christians," coming to the meetings for the food they were receiving. One night he decided to secretly visit every tent. He tiptoed around the tents and to his great joy he found they were studying their Sabbath school lessons, singing songs and praying before they went to sleep. Now he knew they were living the Christian life and that Jesus really meant something to them.

In this place there are 150 adults and juniors and about 150 primary and kindergarten children. You helped supply this tent village with the food so desperately needed to keep them alive.

Through our Seventh-day Adventist Welfare Services, you are providing 30,000 Koreans with food, clothing and medicine.

At a great Protestant Council a keynote speaker said, "The greatest need in the world today is a seven-day-a-week concern for others."

We know that disasters will increase, for the world will soon be visited by trouble and distress such as it has never known. (See Welfare Ministry, p. 136.) Share your blessings with the poor, the hungry, the cold, and the homeless in this troubled world.

In the one offering on May 8 we must raise at least $300,000 to meet the desperate needs of disaster victims, homeless refugees, and helpless orphans. Your sacrificial gift will assure millions that you really care. Now you can demonstrate your love. You can show your "seven-day-a-week concern." You can experience heaven's joys ahead of the coming of Christ by sacrificial giving on May 8.

The Girl With the Foreign Accent

Freida Hauser, a German girl, recently moved to a town in the beautiful Northwest to live and work. Because of her inadequate knowledge of English she found it very difficult to get used to the new environment and to make friends.

Fortunately there are some fine Seventh-day Adventists in the town who show concern for "the strangers in the land." An Adventist lady saw the need and told us about this girl: "We have a German-born girl living in our town who is very lonely for a German friend or something to read."

Who couldn't tell a similar story about other immigrants! Yet this sister did more than see the need and tell about it. She set in operation a plan of action to fill the need.

"I see in my last Signs of the Times," the Adventist wrote, "that I can send for the Signs in the German language. I asked her and she said she would be greatly pleased to receive them. So I will enclose a check to pay for her subscription. Please send her the Signs in the German language. Anything else might be appreciated."

All of us can provide help, just as this good sister did, for those we meet who speak another language. They need our help and many of them will be as glad as Freida Hauser to receive our literature.

You can send Zeichen der Zeit (German Signs of the Times) to all your friends, acquaintances, and relatives who speak German, for very little money. If they live in Canada or in the United States the cost to you, as a church member, is less than 15 cents a copy—one year's subscription for only $ 1.75. If the people to whom you would like to send the magazine live in another country, the price for a subscription is $2.00

As Christians it is our duty to care for the "stranger" and to bring him God's wonderful message of hope that helps overcome loneliness and that makes him feel at home even in a country that still is—and may always be—foreign to him.

God "loveth the stranger." . . . Love ye therefore the stranger." (Deuteronomy 10:17-19). This is the appeal of the One who loves us and made us citizens of the heavenly kingdom.

Remember then the immigrant, even if he has been here for many years. And if you cannot bring him God's message in his own tongue by word of mouth, send him a subscription to the missionary magazine available in his language.

"Signs of the Times" Produces Harvest

As in the days of the early church the Signs of the Times is playing a part in the distribution of the word of God to expand and hasten God's kingdom. We read: "And the word of God increased, and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith." Acts 6:7.

Story after story keeps coming in to our desk of how the Signs of the Times has helped to "increase the word of God." In our own State of Kansas we have just completed a survey of all the baptisms in the state for 1964. Of the 104 candidates who replied to our questionnaire, 23 indicated that the Signs of the Times played an important part in their conversion. This reveals that nearly one-fourth of those who reported to us had been contacted by the Signs of the Times. Forty-two of those baptized indicated that other denominational literature encouraged them to accept the message.

How important it is then that we "go forth with our publications into places where the third angel's message has never been proclaimed."—Christian Service, p. 149. There is a great work yet that needs to be done with the literature ministry, and the Signs of the Times, our monthly evangelistic messenger, should find its way into the homes of our loved ones, those in prominent positions of government, religious leaders of our day, our neighbors and friends.

Just recently there came to my desk a list of 100 subscriptions from one of our isolated sisters in Kansas and a check for $225.00, making it possible for her loved ones and friends in her community to know of God's message throughout the coming year.

In these challenging days we need to be filled with a spirit of sacrifice and missionary dedication to give the message of God's love in our troubled world. Then in the days to come when we follow up this good literature with visitation, we will harvest precious souls for the kingdom.

Five-Day Plan

Many times I have been asked if the Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking Clinics are worth while. With all the work and time involved are the results good enough to continue?

As the conference temperance secretary, I have felt that we should have the Stop Smoking Plan Clinics as often as possible.

Let me share with you the opinions of Elder A. E. Soper, pastor of the New Haven church.

Elder Soper and our Seventh-day Adventist physician at the Shawnee Mission Hospital, Dr. A. A. Armbruster, have now conducted six Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking Clinics with over 400 people having attended.

Here are some of his remarks: "Very successful, marvelous public relations." "Many show an interest in our faith." "At the closing night meeting many have asked for the address of our church and for further information concerning our beliefs."

"But, Elder Soper, do any of these folks ever attend church?" I asked.

"Oh yes," he replied, "a number of them have attended. In fact we have

Dr. A. A. Armbruster and Elder A. E. Soper, both from the New Haven church, during a question and answer period at a Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking Clinic.

baptized one person already and have several more interests with whom we are now studying."

He made one more observation that I feel is very important. It concerned the fact that of those in his regular Bible study group, most need to quit smoking. There have been numerous ones who have gotten the victory over tobacco in the Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking Clinic.

"The Future Destiny at Stake"

"How can houses and lands compare in value with precious souls for whom Christ died? Through your instrumentality, dear brethren and sisters, these souls may be saved with you in the kingdom of glory; but you cannot take with you there the smallest portion of your earthly treasure. Acquire what you may, preserve it with all the jealous care you are capable of exercising, and yet the mandate may go forth from the Lord, and in a few hours a fire which no skill can quench, may destroy the accumulations of your entire life, and lay them a mass of smoldering ruins. You may devote all your talent and energy to laying up treasures on earth; but what will they advantage you when your life closes or Jesus makes His appearance. Just as much as you have been exalted here by worldly honors and riches to the neglect of spiritual life, just so much lower will you sink in moral worth before the tribunal of the great Judge. 'What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?'"

"The wrath of God will fall upon those who have served mammon instead of their Creator. But those who live for God and heaven, pointing out the way of life to others, will find that the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. And they will hear by and by the welcome invitation, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.' The joy of Christ was that of seeing souls saved in His glorious kingdom; and for this joy He 'endured the cross, despising the shame.' But soon 'He shall see of the travail of His soul, and shall be satisfied.' How happy will those be, who, having shared in His work, are permitted to share in His joy!"—Counsels on Stewardship, pp. 212, 213.

Love In Action

The Pine Bluffs Dorcas recently has filled two community needs, resulting in notable goodwill.

Our church took the lead in making it possible for two Spanish-speaking children to attend school. Because of the language barrier, these children, ages seven and nine, have had no schooling. The latest report is that their school-mates have made them feel welcome and that they are doing well with their studies. It was our Dorcas ladies who came to the assistance of these children's mother at the time her sixth child was born. They assisted the doctor at the birth and then helped the mother in the care of her family and home. Now others in the community have shown an interest and are helping this family.

Bible studies in Spanish have been started with the parents. A Spanish Bible was given to them by our church and they appreciate it very much. They are listening to the Spanish Voice of Prophecy broadcast from Scotts-bluff, and have attended church.

Within one week two trailer homes in Pine Bluffs burned. Our Dorcas Welfare unit was the only group in the community prepared to give immediate assistance to the fire-stricken families.

As a result of these deeds, many opportunities have been presented in our community to explain and promote our church work. Though quite a strain on most of us, God gave us strength to serve and we are grateful.

MRS. MARVIN GLANTZ,
Dorcas Secretary

In Appreciation—May 8

Usually a thankful person is a happy person. It just seems to work that way. Could we awake each morning and not give thanks to a loving heavenly Father who, "exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think," cares for our every need? Let us take time to express our appreciation.

Besides just saying "thank you" another appropriate way of expressing our gratitude would be by a thank offering. A special blessing, a birthday, or many others that could be added would be reason enough to give an offering to express our thanks.

When millions are going to sleep hungry, when multitudes are without a home, when we could actually help to alleviate this to some degree, wouldn't this be a good time to stop and give thanks for our own abundance and give a liberal thank offering for others in real need?

You may show your thanks and share with others in need on MAY 8 when the DISASTER AND FAMINE RELIEF OFFERING is taken in all the churches of North America. This offering is taken every two years, and is used by Seventh-day Adventists Welfare Service (SAWS) to help people help themselves.

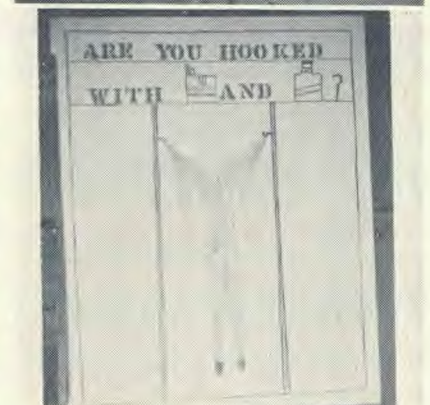

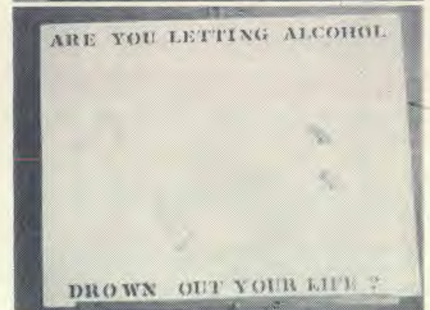

The savings container in your home, no doubt, is beginning to be quite heavy as they are preparing for May 8. May the Lord help us each to give a liberal thank offering for Disaster and Famine Relief.

This gave opportunity for expression of tribute to this couple who, with their children, have labored diligently, faithfully, and loyally to build up God's work in their area of Wyoming.

Nebraska

Platte Valley Academy Planning Committee

Platte Valley Academy was the focal point as nearly 100 people converged upon the campus Sunday, March 28, at ten o'clock. These picked representatives of the Nebraska churches were answering the call of Elder F. O. Sanders, Nebraska Conference president, to gather and give direction to the future of their conference academy.

The new food service building, built in '63, and the girls' dormitory, built in '61, left us with little doubt that the direction would be forward. A report brought to us by Elder J. L. Pogue, Nebraska Conference educational superintendent, startled us. Only one out of seven educated in public schools is saved for the church, while six out of seven educated at our academy stay by the church. These facts helped us see the urgency of Elder L. G. Barker's challenge, "Arise and build." Elder Barker is the educational secretary of the Central Union Conference.

To pinpoint the need, groups were guided on a tour of the campus. Old and new alike were seen—falling plaster and creaking steps contrasted with terrazzo floors and new furnishings. We shared the beautiful new cafeteria and the noon meal with the 105 students; but as we ate, we could not get out of our minds the 70 SDA youth around the conference who are in public school, 60 of whom will be lost to the church if something is not done.

The morning tour had exposed the immediate needs at PVA: an administration building, boys' dormitory, and four faculty homes. Elder Sanders, who has met like situations in several conferences, did not seem dismayed and presented the academy board's study showing an estimated need of $510,000 to provide these facilities. He called L. F. Webb, conference treasurer, to present a solution. The picture brightened steadily. The conference committee has studied the need and committed $240,000 of the conference association funds. Elder R. H. Nightingale and R. E. Spangle, Central Union president and treasurer who were present for the meeting, attested to the union's interest to the amount of $50,000, leaving a remaining need of $210,000. Could our churches come up to this kind of challenge? Well, they had in the building of the girls' dormitory; and the constituency of the Lincoln churches, though in a major school building program, announced they had already pledged to provide $50,000 of the $210,000.

This is the entire group attending the meeting held at the academy.

A picture review of the special meeting held at Platte Valley Academy and also are seen the groups as they toured the campus and buildings.

Elder Sanders' question was "What shall we do?" And the answer was unanimous! "SDA—STEAM DEAD AHEAD." Much still remains to be done in the way of preparation before the hoped for ground breaking in the spring of 1966. But one thing seems certain, we will move together as a conference of churches, bound by a common need and certain of a happy conclusion as we "STEAM DEAD AHEAD." You will each be hearing very soon how the Department of Stewardship will help each of the churches so that they in turn may have a bigger and better PVA for the saving of Nebraska youth.

Central States

From the President's Desk

Plans are being made for another great camp meeting session. Our camp meeting dates for this year are June 10-19, and we are happy to announce to the field that we will be having outstanding speakers and the finest of talent. May we give at this time a preview of some who will be with us.

The speaker for the nightly evangelistic meeting will be Elder J. M. Phipps, one of the leading evangelists in the denomination. Elder Phipps has done outstanding work in the Southern Union and now serves as director of evangelism in the Lake Region Conferences.

We will again be favored with a visit from one of the Voice of Prophecy groups. H.M.S. Richards, Jr., Brad and Olive Braley, and Del Delker will be featured on the opening night, June 10.

Also among our guest speakers this year will be Mr. Glenn L. Archer who is the executive director of P.O.A.U. (Protestants and Other Americans United). His organization seeks to maintain the American principle of the separation of church and state. Mr. Archer is a dynamic speaker. In his constant travels which carry him coast to coast he has become well known to countless audiences as one of the most effective speakers in public life today. Mr. Archer will speak Thursday night, June 17. Watch the REAPER, for every week there will be some announcement as to the roster of speakers and other guests. We will announce now, however, that we will be privileged to have the "Blendwrights" on the campground the first week end, June 11-12. This will indeed be one of the high lights of camp meeting.

We would urge each constituent to begin making plans NOW to attend camp meeting. This could be our last. By God's grace let us make it our best.

Rejoicing in Baptism

"Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into His death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."—Romans 6:3, 4.

How thrilling it is to see five members of one family take this step simultaneously. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anthony and their three wonderful daughters gave their hearts to Jesus through baptism on December 26 in the Golden church. While many were contemplating on the birth of Jesus, the Anthony family were experiencing a rebirth in their precious Lord and Saviour. "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."—John 3:3.

Mr. Anthony's mother, Mrs. Dikeman of Como, Colorado, has been an Adventist all of her life. The family usually lived on ranches great distances from Adventist churches. This made it difficult in keeping all the family together in the Adventist faith. Several years ago the Anthonys joined grandma in Como. Grandma immediately had the grandchildren attend Sabbath school at the Fairplay church. After some time the mother and father also began attending. They also enrolled in the Voice of Prophecy Bible Course. After moving to the Denver area, they witnessed the baptism of their sister, Mrs. Marguerite Benningfield and family. Shortly after this, with the help of Pastor Dan Goddard, these five precious souls made their decisions for Christ.

Many mothers cling prayerfully to the precious Bible text, "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it."—Prov. 22:6. Mrs. Dikeman can testify to this.

The Golden church, with the hosts of angels, rejoice in this baptism.

Stirred About Operation Search?

We are greatly cheered by the reports which have reached us thus far concerning "operation search." We wish more churches would report, because obviously the Lord is working with those who have gone into "operation" on this solemn activity.

For example, Elder D. R. Goddard, pastor of the Golden church, reports that on Sabbath School Rally day about 10 of their 24 listed missing members were present. These 24 had received three different types of invitations. The church had a luncheon at noon giving special attention and kindness to these people. A warm invitation was given to continue attendance. Elder Goddard says, "We will continue to work until all our missing members have been "searched out." He has twelve teams functioning under the leadership of four elders.

Elder O. T. Carner, pastor of the Fort Morgan church, states he has two teams functioning—and one lady has already returned to the church.

Elder B. A. Blecha, pastor of Denver East, reports that a father and his two children were attending Sabbath school but missing church services. The church leaders made two calls. The results? Husband, wife and children are attending both Sabbath school and church now.

Elder E. E. Lutz, pastor of Boulder, was in the office recently picking up additional supplies for "operation search" stating they were moving into complete coverage on this important project.

Elder A. R. Lickey, pastor of Denver Central, has supplied materials to our president for a most inspiring report on what is happening there. Please watch for Elder Reed's article in the REAPER. You will be inspired by it.

Elder O. F. Locke, Denver South pastor, has been assigned to write a separate article for the REAPER on what our largest church is doing. It will come soon—please watch for it.

of missing only one out of one hundred. That is only one per cent. In our conference, we miss an average of three out of every eight church members at Sabbath school time. That is approximately 40 out of every 100 or 40 per cent. My! somebody better get "stirred up." You know they said of Jesus that, "He stirred up the people." No wonder the parable pictures the shepherd searching so diligently and rejoicing so greatly after the sheep was brought back into the fold. Incidentally, let us not forget to rejoice over the returned ones. That is part of the parable, and it will help to keep them coming.

Thank God, many of our leaders are "stirred up" over this. They have organized well—but more than that, diligent efforts are being put forth and the Lord is blessing with good results. How is it with your church?

and cousin, Mrs. Bertie Richards, who is the mother of H.M.S. Richards of the Voice of Prophecy radio broadcast. Mrs. Major was born in Iowa in 1869 and came to Colorado at an early age. She was married in 1886 in Crestone, a mining town of southern Colorado. Present at her wedding were 30 guests, including four relatives, everyone of whom have passed on to their rest. Only one nephew remains among her immediate relatives. However, her usefulness has not been curtailed in spite of her advanced years. When, during a recent visit, a friend mentioned that a box of dolls and toys was being prepared for the La Vida Mission, supported by the Seventh-day Adventists, and located in New Mexico, Mrs. Major asked if she might make some scrapbooks to include in the box. Materials were provided and she was soon busy cutting and pasting. The results? Six beautiful scrapbooks and the hearts of little Indians in Navajo-land were cheered.

Mrs. Major is a member of the Congregational church.

We Want More

The members of the Sterling church have a new home missionary project underway. It's directed by their leader, Robert Kropp, and has already brought results. The plan is to place the book, "Your Bible and You," by Arthur Maxwell, into each unit of the motels in this city, so that those passing through may have a glimpse of the loving Saviour.

Books have already been placed in the Sterling Motor Lodge, which consists of 23 units. The owners, Denny and Selma Clark were so pleased with the books that they gave the church $25.00 to cover the cost of placing them there. Each book has within its front cover a little note which reads as follows:

Dear Traveler, This little book has been placed in your room by your friends, the Seventh-day Adventists. We hope that it will be of some spiritual benefit to you along your way. If you would like this copy for your own, you may take it with you. This volume may be replaced for the benefit of another traveler by mailing $1.00 to: (Address added with a rubber stamp) Traveler's Library, Box 309, Sterling, Colorado. The first letter received was from a representative of the U.S. Steel Company. He commented on how happy he was to receive the book and added the request of where he could get more books so that he could "send some of these wonderful books to friends." We've received a letter each week with payment for the book taken and feel justly rewarded.

Maybe, this same home missionary project can be used in your church. All you need are the books, enclose a Bible Correspondence Card, call on the motels in your area with a prayer in your heart. Why not try it?

- Times of Crisis, National and International

Ellen G. White helped to make Signs of the Times a strong prophetic voice. Many of the prophecies revealed to her became features in the Signs. During the forty years she was associated with this effective messenger of truth, it developed into one of the world's outstanding periodicals of prophecy. Today, the Signs still proclaims a message of warning and hope.

These great prophecies written for Signs by Ellen G. White and the account of their fulfillment will appear in this year's volume of Signs. Every Seventh-day Adventist and non-Seventh-day Adventist should read how these startling prophecies long ago recorded in Signs are now being fulfilled.
