CONFERENCES CENTRAL STATES, COLORADO, KANSAS, MISSOURI, NEBRASKA AND WYOMING

VOLUME XXXV COLLEGE VIEW, LINCOLN, NEBRASKA AUGUST 23, 1966 NUMBER 34

These are a few of those won to the church this year by the Literature Evangelists of the Central Union conferences.

A Most Successful Way of # SAVING SOULS

While attending the recent General Conference in Detroit, Michigan, one of our sisters came to me and related an experience that truly thrilled my heart. She said, "I accepted this truth back in 1936 while living in San Francisco. As you know, you were the Publishing secretary of the Central California Conference at that time. Although I had three children and a home to take care of, you encouraged me to become a REGULAR half-time Literature Evangelist. So I dedicated 20 to 25 hours each week to the Literature Ministry with a determination to be faithful day by day. From the very start the Lord wonderfully rewarded my faithfulness. For 16 interesting years I sold our truth-filled literature right there in San Francisco. During this period of time it was my happy privilege to see more than 100 souls baptized, besides placing thousands of dollars worth of books and magazines in the homes.

"Literature Evangelism also made it possible for me to send all three of my children to church school, academy, and college. I can sincerely say that the most enjoyable years of my Christian experience have been spent in evangelistic canvassing. I was later called to be a Bible Instructor and am now working in the Southeastern California Conference."

A young Baptist minister accepted the message and I helped encourage him to enter the field of Literature Evangelism. After he had worked five years he wrote me a note stating that 200 had been baptized as a result of his Literature Ministry—44 of these were baptized during one year.

One Sabbath, right here in the Central Union a few weeks ago, one of our Literature Evangelists saw nine baptized. Today, as never before, we are seeing more baptisms as a result of our Literature Evangelist's work. Yes, this heaven ordained ministry is INDEED "A most successful way of saving souls."

The great and challenging need is for MORE AND WELL

Student Missionary Writes Again

John Felkel, UC's student missionary, is spending the year at Taiwan Missionary College. The following two experiences are taken from a recent letter from John.

"Last Saturday night I was riding on a motorcycle with one of the overseas workers when we noticed a crowd gathered along the side of the road. This road is a big modern highway that goes all the way from the college here into Taipei. We stopped the motorcycle and went over to see what was going on. An older man and two younger men were trying to sell some 'medicine' that they had demonstrated there, so we got in on the last part of the demonstration. The older man took a stone which must have weighed 30 or 40 pounds and dropped it about three feet onto the chest of one of the younger fellows lying on the ground. The stone made quite a THUD when it hit his chest but the young man immediately jumped up, showing that the 'medicine' had allowed him to take such torture without any harm coming to his body. One man in the audience bought some of the 'medicine' while we were there then quickly made his way to his bicycle and hastily rode off. He seemed quite embarrassed but later we thought it might have been because we were standing in the audience. The 'medicine' looked like it was a mixture of powdered rocks or some kind of colorful powder-like material. It cost about $.25 (U.S. money) for a small package of the stuff.

"My Chinese language study is in full swing now. I am exchange teaching with one of the students from the college here. I teach her English and she teaches me Chinese. First I had to learn a type of phonetic alphabet that is used to teach youngsters in school how to speak Chinese. There are 37 symbols in this phonetic alphabet and when someone writes these phonetic symbols beside the Chinese characters I can pronounce the word. To teach me Chinese, the girl uses a book that is used in the Chinese schools as a children's reader much like the first-grade readers used in the States. The book has the Chinese characters in it and beside them are the phonetic symbols which I use to correctly pronounce the characters. I couldn't possibly learn to write Chinese in one year so I am concentrating on learning to speak the language. I hope by the time my one year is over that I can converse quite readily in Chinese."

John writes that he might have a chance to go up into the mountains to see the tribal people before the summer is over. He plans to send movies, slides, and a tape recording soon for MV programs.

236 Feet of Bandages

Among several who have set an excellent record in the knitting of bandages for overseas use among the lepers, is Mrs. R. J. Henderson of the Topeka Nightingale Dorcas Society.

This society was organized on January 18, 1966, and that same evening they began to sponsor the project of knitting bandages for the lepers in the Mwami Hospital and Leprosarium in Zambia, Africa. By the middle of July of this year, Mrs. Henderson had knitted 55 bandages, with an equivalent of 236 feet. She figures it has taken her 511 hours to accomplish this.

Other societies in the Kansas Conference are carrying on a similar project for overseas shipment of bandages, and the mission hospitals are most grateful for the faithfulness of our ladies in making these bandages possible for those who are suffering with leprosy.

Fredonia

Voice of Youth Meeting

Youth of the Fredonia, Kansas, Church held a very well-planned and executed Voice of Youth Meeting, August 1-10. Services were conducted in the Fredonia church with Terry Morris and David Morris alternating as speakers for the ten-night series. Terry is a Junior pre-medical student at Union College. David will be a Senior theology major at Union College this fall. Although both of these young men are working long hours each day in a local cement company they took time to prepare their sermons and did an exceptionally fine job in presenting the messages to those who attended.

Other youth who participated in these meetings were Gayle Morris who served as receptionist, Sherita Bales who was pianist for the series, Peggy Morris, the chorister. Serving as ushers were Brad and John Morris. All of these young people plan to attend Enterprise Academy this year.

A word of appreciation is in order for Pastor and Mrs. Verne Hyland who met with the young people as they planned for the meetings and also attended and gave valuable counsel to the participants each evening. As Elders S. E. White, B. J. Furst, and the writer visited the Voice of Youth Meeting in August we were impressed with the preparation made to make these meetings a success.

May the seed that has been sown in this series of meetings bear much fruit for the kingdom of God in the weeks and months that are ahead.

May we encourage other MV Societies to follow the excellent example of the youth of the Fredonia church in conducting a Voice of Youth Meeting in your area.

News Briefs

Word has reached the Kansas Conference that a baby girl has been born in the home of Elder and Mrs. J. V. Schnell. Her name is Pamela Kay.

Elder Schnell has been asked by the conference committee to transfer to the Pittsburg district. He has been laboring in the Garden City district for over three years.

Dr. Bertram Carson, who has recently located at Enterprise, Kansas, has been well received in the community. There were 146 office calls during the first month of his practice there. In addition to this he has had a large number of house calls. We are glad they are in Kansas.

Dr. Alvin Wolfe is now located in Wichita, and is entering actively into his practice. They will be an asset to our people.

The special Fall Training School for new Kansas literature evangelists will be held in Lincoln, Nebraska, September 19-21.

Elder Paul M. Matacio, Illinois Conference evangelist, spoke at the Wichita first church, Sabbath, July 23. He chose the topic "How Should Seventh-day Adventists live as Christians?" for his sermon.

Eighty-third Annual Camp Meeting Closes

The eighty-third annual camp meeting for Colorado began August 5 and concluded Sabbath, August 13. This was the first full-length camp meeting in Colorado for a number of years. The program was a full one, the speakers were excellent, and the attendance was good. The General Conference sent a number of speakers who addressed both the senior and the youth departments.

Elder W. A. Fagal of Faith for Today was present over the first week end. Elder Reuben H. Nightingale led a full complement of men from the Central Union office who preached many excellent sermons throughout the encampment. Local conference pastors and office workers gave good service. And now that the camp meeting has concluded there seems to be agreement with the dear little elderly lady who has been attending camp meeting for a number of years who said, "This has been a fine camp meeting."

Special emphasis was given throughout the encampment to youth and children. Many special hours were devoted daily to services in the four to six divisions, other than the main auditorium.

A Pathfinder fair on Sunday, August 7, was an outstanding event which will be reported in the REAPER in the next issue. Our camp meeting closed with the final Sabbath morning sermon being given by Elder Neal C. Wilson, newly elected president of the North American Division, challenging Seventh-day Adventist families to measure up in their homes to what God expects a true Christian home to be.

Dedication of the Scottsbluff Spanish Church

On the evening of June 29, 1966, the hard work, the planning, the expectations and the joy of the members of the Scottsbluff Spanish church came to a grand climax. On that night we celebrated the dedication of our three-year-old church building.

At the time we learned that Pastor Raul Sanchez, pioneer of the Spanish work in Nebraska, would come through Scottsbluff on his way from the General Conference session, our members made definite plans to raise the money to pay for the church debt. The fact that the money was raised in such a short time is one of the greatest indications of divine help. May the Lord bless abundantly every dear soul who helped to make our project a happy reality. Among the ways used to raise funds were choral concerts, Mexican dinners and sugar-beet hoeing.

Pastor Sanchez is at present the president of the Pacific Mission in the Mexican Union. With him came his wife and three other pastors from Mexico, who added a little more Spanish zest to the dedication. With us also was Pastor W. H. Johnson from the Scottsbluff English church and, as a special guest from our community, the Honorable C. A. Thomas, mayor of the city of Scottsbluff. We regretted the fact that our conference president, Elder F. O. Sanders, was unable to be with us; but we received a cheering telegram from the conference office which was read to the congregation and very much appreciated by everyone.

Faith for Today IN COLOR

KOLN, Channel 10, Lincoln, Nebraska, will be carrying Faith for Today in color at 10 a.m., on Sundays.

Left: The Scottsbluff Spanish church was dedicated on June 29, 1966. Right: Pastor Raul Sanchez was the speaker at the dedication service.

The seating capacity of our church was taxed to the limit that evening and many folks had to remain standing. Many of our English brethren joined us in our happy celebration. After the song service, which was led by Pastor Jose Carpintero, enthusiastic leader of the Guasave district in the Mexican Pacific Mission, Bro. David Guzman, the secretary-treasurer of the Mission, offered the opening prayer. The Scottsbluff Spanish choir, wearing their colorful new robes, featured three special numbers. Bro. Alvaro Escamilla, one of the charter members of our church, presented the history of the Spanish work in Scottsbluff. During the program, time was taken to make manifest to the Mayor the noble purpose of our church in this area; he in turn gave a short but spirited speech expressing his appreciation for the humanitarian activities of our church, and in behalf of the city of Scottsbluff accepted our spirit of service. A beautiful violin number was presented by Harold Johnson, son of Elder and Mrs. W. H. Johnson. The dedication sermon by Elder Sanchez was challenging and appropriate. His enthusiasm was contagious, and his call for the dedication of our whole lives, as well as the church building, to the service of the Lord was accepted by all.

After the entire congregation had participated in the act of dedication, Pastor

CHANGE OF DATE

Due to a conflict, the Regional Meeting originally scheduled for North Platte on Sabbath, September 24 is being changed to Sabbath, September 17. All churches in this area are urged to remember this change in date and to plan to be present.

F. O. Sanders, President

W. H. Johnson offered the dedicatory prayer. At this point the joy that filled our hearts knew no limits; truly, this occasion was worth all the toil of the past months. With exceedingly happy voices the congregation sang a Spanish hymn, "Church of God, strengthen your love, keep watching and waiting for your Lord and King."

Our church dedication was made even more memorable by a baptismal ceremony for four candidates, conducted by Pastor Sanchez. Before this took place, our other Mexican guests gave us brief reports of the wonders of the Cross which are taking place in their respective fields.

You will gather from this report that our church dedication was a long meeting, and indeed it was. It reminded us of that memorable evening the apostle Paul spent in Troas. Pastor Sanchez and his companions left for Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, right after the meeting. But we who remain have before us a clearer vision of a task to be done. We want to win still more victories for the Cross of Christ, bringing the good news of salvation to the Spanish people in Nebraska.

ERWIN D. GARCIA, Pastor

New Industry Comes to Platte Valley Academy

A new privately owned broomshop will open on the campus of Platte Valley Academy within the next two months. This new industry owned and managed by Melvin Clem, from Lincoln, Nebraska, will provide PVA students, both girls and boys, with excellent work opportunities. Their labor can be converted into cash to meet their school expenses. Student wages, after the apprentice training period, will be $1.25 per hour. Some of the work will be on a piece-work basis, making it possible for an efficient worker to earn more.

We wish to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Clem to PVA. We wish them the Lord's richest blessing as they begin this important work for our youth.

Vacation Bible School

July 11-22 was Vacation Bible School-time for the Neosho church. Thirty-eight boys and girls joined together in studying the truth of the gospel as it is presented in the Vacation Bible School.

Inasmuch as we are a new church with our actual operation beginning last November, we had begun to plan for our Vacation Bible School even before we had a church.

We were fortunate to secure the assistance of our church membership in helping to carry on the school, and some non-Adventists also gave good help. The weather was excessively hot and dry, thereby creating an unusual problem but in the end all things worked out for us.

Our children did some very fine work in crafts. The visitors who attended our closing exercises all expressed surprise at the handiwork of the children, and this helped to repay for some of the anxious moments that we had spent in planning for and carrying out our school this summer. We have already begun to plan for our 1967 Vacation Bible School.

Daily Lesson Study

The Lord declared that it was His purpose that His people were to be the head and not the tail in this world. "And the Lord shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the Lord thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them."—Deut. 28:13.

In the New Testament He referred to them as a royal priesthood. "But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light."—I Peter 2:9.

God's plan for His people is that they will uphold His Name and His Word in an hour when it is to a large degree rejected or neglected by His professed followers. There is much being written today about the unreliability of God and His Word.

The Lord does not have to vindicate Himself. He created man as a free moral agent. This gives man both the right to choose good or evil. Mature individuals possess the ability to study to know what is right.

The Bible is frequently referred to as the road map to the kingdom of God. A road map needs intense study at times to determine which of two ways a traveler should take.

To enable His people to have some good general direction in the study of the road map to Heaven God gave us the Sabbath school lesson with the instruction to study this lesson daily. "Parents, set apart a little time each day for the study of the Sabbath school lesson with your children."—CSW, p. 41. "Every day some portion of time should be appropriated to the study of the lessons, . . . but to go to the very foundation, and become familiar with what is brought out in the lesson." CSW, p. 53.

To many this has proven to be a continual source of blessing. So firmly has the Word of God become in their lives that no assault made by Satan will dislodge their hope and confidence.

Some have chosen to neglect this counsel. This can have dire results. Satan watches every opportunity to catch away the seed of truth. How can he better have success than when we neglect to nurture the seed of truth by the daily lesson study plan. God would help His people to be the stalwarts in the Scriptures that He desires them to be.

In this day when such determined effort is being made by the enemy of truth to lead men to deny the very existence of God and to ridicule His Word, God will have a people who will stand forthrightly for Him and His Word. These people will surely be a royal priesthood, a holy nation. Their strength will be in their knowledge of the Word of God.

The daily study of the Sabbath school lesson will greatly add to the believer's knowledgeability of the Holy Scriptures. None of us can afford to neglect this Divine plan to establish our confidence in the Word of God which will enable us to be "His witnesses" in such a time as this.

Vacation Bible School

Vacation Bible School—what is it? The creation of a lovely craft, the thrill of a continued mission story, the excitement of group games, the taste of cool fruit juice, the reliving of great moments in the lives of God's heroes—all these and much more make up Vacation Bible School. And the 51 eager pupils at the Sunnydale Vacation Bible School didn't miss a thing!

Under the able direction of Mrs. Joann Rozell the school did its work smoothly during the two weeks. Although somewhat handicapped by its distance from any large community, the staff was pleased to see that about one-third of the pupils were from non-Adventist homes. Only eternity will reveal the value of the impressions made on the young minds of those who attended.

Progress At Columbia

Sunday evening, August 14, the Columbia church met for a buffet supper and business meeting. The main item of business was a careful study of the church budget for the 1966-67 fiscal year. Progress and growth in all areas of church activity was evident. This has brought about additional requirements in the church budget.

Pastor John W. McGraw pointed out that one area experiencing growth is the church school, which will have about 40 pupils this year. This has necessitated the addition of a second full-time teacher. The church also voted to accept the suggested goal of participation in the development of Sunnydale Academy.

After the study of the budget, consideration was given to methods whereby each family in the church may be made aware of its personal stewardship responsibility and privileges. Elder Cherry, Stewardship secretary of the conference, was asked to explain the program of guidance now offered to the churches. It was then voted to begin a program of Stewardship Emphasis immediately with the Columbia church. We may look forward to many evidences of God's special blessings on the families of the church as each makes a sacrificial covenant to be a faithful and loving steward.
