Some High-lights in the "Signs" Story

The story of the Signs of the Times and its ministry for souls during another year can never be fully told until eternity's records are opened. The editors know of the hours and days with articles and pictures and reports sent in for publication, and all the editorials, news and comments. The linotype operators will not forget the many days they have sat at their machines putting this copy into type. In the press room two large presses have been kept running almost full time to get ready the large edition neccessary to supply papers for the mailing list of clubs and singles. This has averaged more than 70,000 copies a week throughout the year.

It is an interesting fact that these presses have transformed more than 160 tons of beautiful fresh sheets of paper into messengers of truth and light in the form of the Signs of the Times. It took nine large freight car loads of paper for the Signs during the year—a car every six weeks.

More interesting, however, is the work our people and churches are doing in distributing those transformed sheets of paper to those who need their messages of mercy and truth. On Sabbath morning you see the church missionary secretary in the church quietly passing among her associate members, giving to this member five Signs, to another, ten; to another, two, etc. During the week these members go to non-Adventist families with them. the missionary periods from time to time they bring their interesting re-ports. A portion of the club of papers is probably used by the mailing band. These are sent out in the good old fashioned way, accompanied by letters written by various ones. The Correspondence Band, the Home Bible Study League, or whatever group is in charge of the mailing finds that the Signs arouses interest. The letters they get in response thrill their members and others privileged to hear them read.

Only eternity's records, we say, will ever fully tell the story.

Before me is a torn cover page from the November 20 Signs. A nicely written letter from a lady in

Elder M. N. Campbell says:

HE "SIGNS OF THE TIMES" has been the means of bringing thousands of people into the truth. A sister sent it regularly to the wife of a minister. She and her husband read it carefully, with the result that they both accepted the truth. and most of his congregation did likewise. The sowing of the seed by this method has been most effective in leading inquiring souls to the truth. The message is set forth in the pages of the "SIGNS" in a very appealing way, and our people would do well to use it freely as a missionary agent.

M. N. CAMPBELL, General Conference Vice-President for the North American Divisions

Westfield, Mass., accompanies it, and she writes that she has found a part of a copy of this paper on the street. She is so impressed with what she could read she is anxious to have a complete copy of the Signs and expects to subscribe.

In a North Dakota home a few months ago the parents were called upon to lay away in death a beloved fifteen year old daughter. Just after that, the father now writes, while they were in deep sorrow, the Signs of the Times began coming to their home. "It has been a lot of help to Mrs. S. and myself," he says, "and we look forward to its coming each week." He is anxious to thank whoever it is who sent them the paper.

The Signs of the Times was sent this past year to friends in Chicago by a lady in Iowa. It has changed their whole attitude toward Seventhday Adventists, she writes. On visiting them recently, she found them enthusiatic about the Signs. Even their meals now, they told her, are free from pork, hamberger, and other things they had learned to discard.

The manager of a large power company in a midwest city was sarcastic and bitter toward our church work two years ago when a local worker called on him for a Harvest Ingathering offering. After a short visit the minister offered to send him some literature, including the Signs, which went for a year. This year when he called on this business man again he found him very friendly. He had enjoyed the Signs so much that he had greatly missed it when it stopped coming. Said he had been passing it on to others; that he had also purchased a number of our "Crisis Series" books.

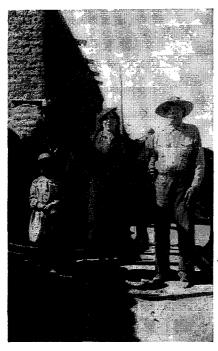

In Salt Lake City a leading business man, high in the circles of the Mormon church, had subscribed for the Signs and was receiving it at the time of the visit of one of our brethren during Harvest Ingathering. He gladly gave $5.00 because of his appreciation of the Signs.

From East to West, and North to South, such experiences are flooding in. They are unexpected, and so many very unique. A Boston attorney, for example, writes that a woman called at his door and asked if the people in the home would care to read the magazine the Signs of the Times. "Since then she has mailed it to me regularly for about five months," he says. Then he adds: "I keep the latest issue on my office table, and it finds many readers. I would like to compliment you on your scholarly, well-written articles, and particularly editorials. In the men's class at church, in debate, and elsewhere, I have had occasion to quote them frequently."

A retired Army captain in Alaska, there because he saw trouble brewing in the States, told Elder H. L. Wood, superintendent of the Alaska Mission, that he reads the Signs with great interest, and sends it around to five neighbors in his vicinity. He likes its explanations of what is taking place in the world.

And from Elder C. E. Moon,

Don Ignacio Ortega and daughter.

superintendent of the Gulf Mission in Mexico, comes the accompanying picture of Don Ignacio Ortega and his daughter, whom he says are regular readers of the Signs, deeply interested in the truth, but not as yet baptized. Ortega, now a rich cattleman, was the owner of the stage line between Batipela and Chihuaha in 1910 when the notorious Pancho Villa held up his stage and took it from him.

Many, many other interesting things are coming to light now when our churches are renewing and strengthening their work with the Signs of the Times.

The Signs News Sheet to be passed out to every family contains more of them. Everything is in readiness for a great Signs of the Times campaign during the weeks of February set apart for it. Conference officials, ministers, church leaders, and all, are anxious to see thousands of more non-Adventist families added to the lists of Signs readers during 1938.

Some of the clouds looming upon last year's world horizon which called for more Signs of the Times have since then brought storms in various parts of the world. While the outlook for 1938 doesn't suggest more peace and easier times, it offers mighty opportunities for service, and the very conditions call more definitly for the message of the Signs of the Times.

We are most earnestly working and praying at the Signs office that the Lord may enlarge our visions and so direct the energies here and in the field that His plans may be met in every church in carrying out a program with the Signs that will mean that many more thousands of people will receive its message during 1938.

J. R. Ferren

The "Signs" Stands Without a Peer

According to the reports presented by the Statistical Secretary of the General Conference at the Autumn Council of 1937, there are in North America 161,271 Seventh-day Adventists, and throughout the world 438,139. These believers are not scattered over North America and over the world by chance, because the Lord has planned that "this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness to all nations" before the end comes.

We are definitely told that "the Lord has His eye upon everyone of His people; He has His plans con-cerning each," and "the Lord now calls upon Seventh-day Adventists in every locality to consecrate themselves to Him and to do their best, according to their circumstances, to assist in His work."—"Testimonies," Vol. VI, p. 122; IX, p. 132.

What is the work in which God requires the assistance of every Seventh-day Adventist? "The publications sent forth from our printing houses are to prepare a people to meet God," and "if there is one work more important than another, it is that of getting our publications before the public, thus leading them to search the Scriptures."-"Colporteur Evangelist" p. 80.

Literature is one of the most wonderful agencies of God for extending the message of a soon-coming Saviour into all the world. Marvelous are the results of transforming power of the gospel message in printed form. Thousands of people now rejoicing as members of God's remnant people owe their acquaintance with the great fundamental truths of the Bible to their reading of our periodicals such as the Signs of the Times.

The blessed ministry and influence of this pioneer missionary periodical will never be known in this life, but in the kingdom to come, there will be a host of people who, because of their receipt and reading of this paper, their impressions received and decision to obey its teachings, will have words of gratitude to render and praise to express because someone placed the Signs in their hands at their home.

Throughout its many years of service, the Signs has kept true to soul-winning objectives. We believe that as an exponent of the great fundamentals of the last message of warning and salvation, it is without a peer. It should enjoy a circulation far in advance of its present list. We are hopeful that the year 1938 will mark a decided advance in the present mailing list.

In our plans for a "Greater Win One" movement throughout North America, we would suggest that the Signs be made a strong co-operative agency in making the year before us the best we have ever experienced in spreading the glad tidings of the kingdom of our Lord.

God's Plan of Evangelism

The approximately six million people that live within the borders of the East Pennsylvania Conference represent more languages and nationalities than were present in Jerusalem on the Day of Pentecost. However, the task of preaching the gospel to them is not any greater, if as great, because the Lord has chosen different methods for His people to follow today.

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Peter preached the gospel with conviction and power. Every one of the nineteen different nationalities heard his sermon in his native tongue. Three thousand were converted in one day, and God was glorified.

Instead of giving special gifts of the Spirit to a few ordained ministers to enable them to preach the gospel so every one may hear in his own vernacular, the Lord has given a measure of His Spirit to every one who accepts Christ, and it is His plan that every individual member of the church shall have a personal part in preaching the gospel. This is made possible through the literature ministry.

"The distribution of our literature is one means by which the message is to be proclaimed. Let every believer scatter broadcast, tracts and leafilets and books, containing the message for this time."—C. S. p. 145.

"Papers and books are the Lord's means of keeping the message for this time continually before the people."
—C. S. p. 145. These quotations emphasize two facts: (1) That papers, books and tracts are God's means of keeping the message for this time continually before the people; (2) That every believer is expected to have a part in circulating them.

The paper that occupies a distinct place among our periodicals as an evangelizing agency is the Signs of the Times. We read in Volume 9, page 598, that the Signs has a "specific work in disseminating light in this day of God's preparation." It has been doing that special work these many years. But a larger service remains yet to be done through the Signs.

It is the most appropriate paper we have for the professional classes—judges, lawyers, doctors, teachers and preachers. Every issue has six or eight different sermons on as many different subjects, making a total of about 400 sermons a year in every home where the Signs is a weekly visitor. It contains subject matter that will appeal to every type of mind, and it is written in such a way that the good will of the reader is gained even though he is convicted of sin.

During the month of February every S. D. A. will be given an opportunity to renew and enlarge his Signs club and to send subscriptions to individuals whom he is endeavoring to bring to Christ.

Let us double our Signs clubs that we may win more souls in East Pennsylvania.

J. C. Holland

A Valuable Help

Every true follower of the Master is desirous of winning souls to this blessed truth. In one of the New England states an Italian sister delivered the Signs or Present Truth each week on her egg route. Soon a lady became interested in the truth presented and Bible studies followed, resulting in husband, wife and son accepting the truth.

Out in Arizona a family moved into a house where the former people had left a few copies of the Signs. A young man read these papers and studied a book in the home library called "Bible Readings for the Home Circle". He became convinced of the truth and is now a firm believer in the message.

A singing band solicitor in Texas met an elderly lady who desired to subscribe for the Signs. She had been a reader for many years and was keeping the Sabbath but had not connected with any church.

From Florida comes word that someone had sent the Signs to a C. C. C. camp. A gentleman there read the paper and carried copies home to his wife. A few months passed and now both of them are members of a Florida church.

Wherever this valuable periodical is circulated, believers are raised up and hearts that had been heavy and filled with perplexity now rejoice. What should be our earnestness in scattering the Signs? February is the month set aside for this work. You need the paper, and thousands out of the ark of safety are longing for the light contained in the Signs.

"Signs of the Times" Campaign

The time has come for an enthusiastic campaign to increase the subscription list of the Signs of the Times. This paper needs no recommendation to those read it. It is a great pioneer messenger which numbers its thousands who have been influenced for Christ.

I am making a sincere request that district leaders, pastors, evangelists, local church elders, colporteurs, and lay members in the Ohio Conference make this the strongest campaign ever made in Ohio, that our subscription lists and clubs to the Signs will be increased.

A special campaign will be conducted for the Signs, in the Ohio Conference, February 5 to 19, at which time Elder A. S. Maxwell, representing the Pacific Press Publishing Association, will visit some of our large churches in Ohio.

Many who read these lines will appreciate what we are trying to do to bring the truth to the people in this conference. Surely the day is here when we should do more to advance the Cause than we have in the past. I am certain that the district leaders and local elders in the churches will do all they can to promote this branch of the Lord's work, and place this paper in the hands of the people. We solicit your hearty cooperation. This is one way in which we can do our part in helping to meet the mighty forces of evil.

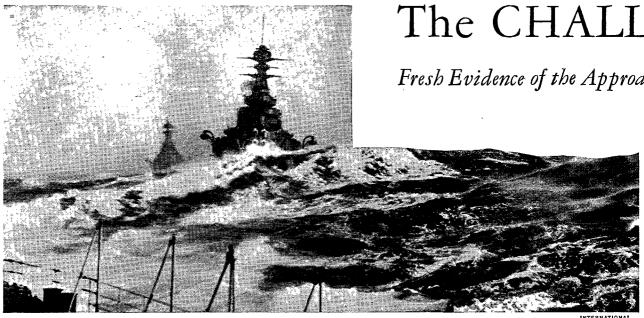

In the past the Signs has stirred many to live a better life, and we believe, if circulated, it will stir thousands more in the same way.

S WE enter the shadowed portals of 1938 we all know in our hearts that we have begun to live in a great new time, in a period of history more tense, more perilous than ever, and pregnant with terrific possibilities.

The stupendous happenings of the past few months have not only changed the face of the earth, the map of the world, and the destiny of untold millions: they have altered the balance of power, turned the course of political thinking into new and unexpected channels, uprooted a thousand ancient landmarks, and set mankind adrift again upon a wild, uncharted sea.

"There has been a huge transformation of all former proportions and values in world affairs," writes that veteran author and editor, J. L. Garvin. "A new epoch has opened. We must be guided by a new sense of relativity; and let us see well to it that we are so guided in time."

There was a time when men were paramountly concerned with the fate of Austria and Czechoslovakia and the Free City of Danzig. Hungary made headlines, as did the Tyrol and the Balkans. But all these dangerous issues -even the Spanish civil war and the problems of Palestine-have shrunk into insignificance before the tremendous new issues breaking open before our eyes in the Far East.

And what we see today, fearful and ominous as it is, is but the gigantic prelude of a development unparalleled in the annals of man-the establishment by one nation of political and economic ascendancy over the whole vast resources of the most populous country on earth, the uniting of the yellow races in one huge hegemony controlling more than one fifth of the population of the globe.

YELLOW PERIL LOOMS

"The Emperor is marching from the Island of the Rising Sun," writes General Sir Ian Hamilton. "His fighters drink up the great rivers of China. The smoke of their bombs makes dark the air. His road is clearly marked-Hankow, Hong Kong, Singapore, Bhamo, Burma, Assam, Bengal. That is the prospect if nothing is done. Nothing less than Europe can definitely hold up the army."

The so-called bogey of the yellow peril, so long laughed to scorn by many, is actually taking form and substance before us!

"World peace," according to Admiral Nobumasa Suyetsugu, Japan's home minister, "awaits the liberation of the passing of democracy, colored races from the shackles of white supremacy." "I am determined," he says, "to eliminate all obstacles, whatever they may be, in attaining this sacred mission. The white races should not carry on trade in the Far East based solely on their own self-interest. A three-power entente of Japan, China, and Manchukuo can alone establish peace in East Asia. Whether or not this means the immediate exclusion of the white races constitutes one of the most serious questions facing the world."

The "kings of the East" have clearly prepared their program. And they are not only marshaling their forces to accomplish it; they are already sending them into battle, with sweeping victories that have amazed the world.

Thus the very developments that Seventh-day Adventists, for many years, have said would take place before the end are now-on a scale far beyond our feeble imaginingscoming to pass in grim and terrible reality.

And if, besides looking at the Far East, we consider the rise of the new autocracies of the Right and Left in Europe, the alliance of the Fascist powers, the the decay of freedom, the collapse of the League of Nations, the feverish preparations for war, and withal the increase of crime and divorce and the fading faith of Christendom, we are constrained to say, in the words of the prophet Jeremiah: "Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it. The Lord hath done that which He had devised; He hath fulfilled His word that He had commanded in the days of old." Lamentations 2:16, 17.

NEARING THE END

Unquestionably we are living today upon the very eve of those final, rapid movements that are to bring us to the closing scenes of earthly history. We stand upon the crumbling crags of Time in sight of the eternal deep.

And these tremendous facts, these mighty issues, challenge us one and all a: never before.

They challenge us to examine our innermost hearts and search out those hidden weaknesses that may cause us to sink in the swelling of Jordan.

They challenge us to a complete rededication of our lives to God that we may be cleansed from all sin and strengthened to walk boldly through the valley of the gathering shadows.

They challenge us to rekindle the fading embers of our zeal for the Lord's service, and with hearts aflame with enthusiasm go forth to warn mankind of its impending doom.

They challenge us to make use of every avenue the Lord has placed in our hands wherewith to accomplish this holy purpose. Books, tracts, papers,—message-filled literature of every kind,—should be scattered like the leaves of autumn before freedom's flickering torch goes out forever.

And above all, at this particular moment, they challenge us to consider the unique and powerful possibilities of witness made available to every member in the form of our great prophetic weekly. Surely today the Signs of the Times—the revitalized, scintillating Signs—with its strong, progressive program for 1938, should be circulated on a scale never yet contemplated by us as a people. The world is waiting for it. The world needs it. The world must have it.

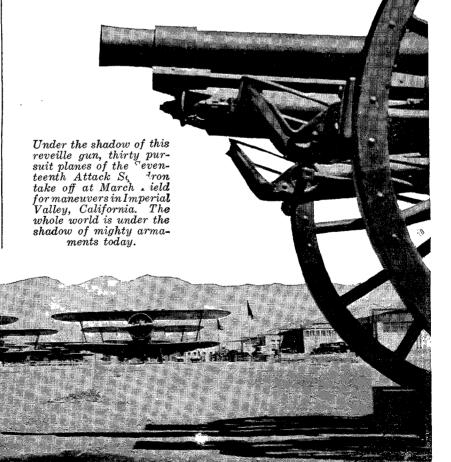

This great new time demands that we shall do something greater than we have ever done in the Signs campaign, something commensurate with the magnitude of the issues at stake, something truly splendid in the eyes of God.

He is expecting us this day to do our best. We must not disappoint Him.

Lay Preachers' Institute

Recognizing the ability of many of our local elders, missionary secretaries and other brethren in the New Jersey Conference who are qualified to go out and give the message in a convincing way, the Conference Committee recommended a Laypreachers' Institute to be held in the Camden Church, Sabbath and Sunday, January 8 and 9, which, we believe, proved to be a real help and inspiration to the fifty or more laymen who attended the convention.

Brother Paul C. Cardey was in charge and conducted the Institute in a very successful manner.

We considered ourselves highly favored in having Elder Steen Rasmussen of the General Conference with us. Elder Rasmussen gave valuable help on the various topics that were discussed. His broad experience and travels in the mission field enabled him to give constructive counsel so much needed

Elder E. A. Manry of the Columbia Union also gave some very practical help.

A number of our ministers from North and South Jersey were present. These brethren led out in some of the topics on the agenda, and also took part in the round-table discussions.

Many of the laymen expressed themselves as receiving valuable help, and returned to their homes with an inspiration and with a greater vision to give the message to others by holding efforts, giving Bible studies, and doing house-to-house work with our literature.

We have confidence in the ability of our consecrated laymen, and believe God will make these faithful brethren fruitful in winning souls.

News Notes

At this writing there is every prospect that the Frederick church will purchase an almost new church building, seating two hundred, from a Protestant congregation. Our Frederick members have really had a discouraging experience in shifting about from hall to hall, so the prospect is bringing great courage to their hearts.

In starting out Brother Charles Nyce, Brother Stonebrook reports excellent success with quite a few cash orders for the new book, "Facing the Crisis." There is a spirit of inquiry on the part of people everywhere today and, as H. L. Mencken once said, "Seventh-day Adventists have the literature that gives the Bible answer to their question."

Brother Walter Riston is starting an effort in a hall in Thurmont, on the last Sunday night in January. Brother and Sister David Fleagle of the Pennersville church have been conducting Bible studies in this section.

Ohituaries

HEWEY: Kathreen Lemmer, was born in 1892, and died at the Washington Sanitarium on January 2, 1938. At an early age our late sister joined the Christian Church. In 1908 she joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church and, after completing high school work, attended South Lancaster Academy. Naturally gifted with song, she contributed to the services and other public functions as opportunity offered.

After some adversities, during

After some adversities, during which she somewhat lost her hold on eternal things, early in 1937 she again gave her heart to the Lord. Sickness attacked her, and, after some remarkable experiences, she was able to bear eloquent testimony, in both action and words, to a changed life through forgiveness of sins.

Because of these experiences she

Because of these experiences she was able to fall asleep with full assurance of faith, and with a lively hope and confidence of rising again at the first resurrection.

Her mother, a brother and two sisters, one of whom nursed her, mourn her passing.

Sister Stoll accepted the truth in 1895 and remained a loyal supporter and believer until the time of her death.

She leaves to mourn, two brothers, one sister, and many friends.

Your Foreign Neighbors

As you plan your Signs of the Times program this year, and your distribution personally or by mail, won't you give consideration to those families who perhaps can better understand the message in another language? That family of Olson's up the street, for example. The mother might not get much from the Signs of the Times, but how much she would appreciate the Swedish Sion's Vaktare. Around the corner is that German family. You may not have much contact with those people, chiefly because they speak and think and read in a language different from yours. But Zeichen der Zeit to them might be as welcome as is the Signs to you. Won't you bear this in mind? Then you may have some fine conscientious Danish-Norwegian friends. Why not provide them with the Evangeliets Sendebud, which in its general message corresponds with the Signs of the Times?

Branching out a bit farther, there is a great field opening for service among the Italian people. The little monthly paper, La Vedetta, is for them. It will unfold to them the truths of this message.

Shall we not this year enlarge our service and reach these families with the papers in their own languages corresponding to the Signs in the unfolding and explanation of Bible truths? It is all so very simple. You can make up your orders for these papers at the same time you order the Signs, and your church missionary secretary will pass them in. The names and languages and prices of these papers are easy to understand.

The Danish-Norwegian Evangeliet's Sendebud; the German, Zeichen der Zeit; and the Swedish, Sion's Vaktare, are each eight page weekly papers, and the same in price. The regular yearly subscription price of each of these papers is $1.75 in the United States, $2.00 to foreign countries. The missionary subscription rates offered during the Signs campaign are: To separate addresses in the U. S. A., each $1.35; to foreign countries, $1.70. In clubs of five or more to one name and address, the rate is $1.10 each in the U. S. A., and $1.40 each to foreign countries.

The campaign subscription price of the eight page monthly Italian $La\ Vedetta$ is 85 cents each to single names and addresses in the U. S. A., and $1.00 each to foreign countries. The club price on five or more to one name and address is 75 cents each in the U. S. A., and 85 cents each in foreign countries. (The regular single subscription rate on La Vedetta is $1.00 a year in the United States, and $1.20 when mailed to foreign countries.)

Won't you remember your foreign friends and neighbors and others within reach with these foreign papers?

J. R. Ferren

DID YOU KNOW that you can have two wonderful journals, the "Signs of the Times" and "Health," for a whole year for only $2? ($3 outside the United States.)

DID YOU KNOW that these can be sent to one address or to two separate addresses just as you may choose?

DID YOU KNOW that the "Signs of the Times" is our foremost missionary periodical?

DID YOU KNOW that "Health" is a most beautiful, four-color-cover magazine, brimful of the Adventist message on diet, hydrotherapy, and other phases of healthful living?

DID YOU KNOW that at this time of the year when tens of thousands of "Signs" subscriptions are being taken it is a splendid time to combine your order with "Health" and get the two at a saving of $1? (The list price is regularly $3.)

DID YOU KNOW that if you will send two $1 bills (or your check for $2) to your Book and Bible House today, together with the address or addresses you want the magazines to go to, very soon these two great journals will be bringing their message into your home or into the homes of your friends?

Our Foreign Missionary Periodicals

At the last Fall Council an action was taken providing that subscription be taken for our Foreign Missionary Periodicals, the German Signs of the Times, the Swedish Signs Watchman, Danish-Norwegian Gospel Messenger and Italian Watchman, simultaneously with the English Sign of the Times during the coming Signs Campaign.

Of the many and unfinished tasks which confront this denomination, none are of more vital importance than the giving of this message to the millions of foreigners in this country. That these foreigners are here is evidenced by the fact that in the largest cities of our land the foreign population exceeds number of native born; and that they still read their own language is proven by the fact that there are 353 foreign papers published in this country with a combined circulation of 5,124,784; figuring about five readers to each would give a foreign reading population upwards of 25,-000,000. And the foreign population in this country is increasing rather than decreasing in spite of the restricted immigration. There were more foreigners who were born in lands across the sea living in the United States when the 1920 census was taken, this number, together with their children, makes a foreign population of between 30 and 40 millions of people.

A few days ago one of our foreign colporteurs visited our office relating many experiences in connection with his colporteur work in some of the foreign settlements in our country. He said these people had come to this country more than fifty years ago, but they had never heard of Seventh-day Adventists, nor had they ever had an opportunity to read our literature. Just think of a situation like this in this enlightened country! Little wonder that the servant of the Lord admonishes us to "Wake up, wake up, my brethren and sisters, and enter the fields in America that have never been worked. In the cities of America there are people of almost every language. These need the light that God has given to His church." "Testimonies," Vol. 8, page 36.

It might be of interest to our believers in the Columbia Union to know that the above experience took place within the confines of that large field. This is but one There are many more instance. which could be written. All through the Columbia Union are people of all nationalities, people who are anxious to read the message in their own tongues. Thus, the Columbia Union is, in a unique sense, a foreign mission field, and we can be foreign missionaries right at home. We are told in the Spirit of prophecy that "God's hand was in their coming to this country." Who then will heed this challenge? Further, on page 35 of "Testimonies," Vol. 8, we read: "May God forgive our terrible neglect in not doing the work that, as yet, we have scarcely touched with the tips of our fingers."

During this campaign, when the
