HOW TO REACH THE WAITING MULTITUDES

REQUESTS come in frequently from the mission fields asking for help in making it possible to produce literature at a price which the nationals of the country can secure within their meager income. The response to these calls from time to time has been apparent in the generous giving of means by our church members. The results obtained are very encouraging to our hearts. Hundreds and thousands of people have been brought to the advent faith through the reading of our truth-filled literature.

Down in old cannibalistic Fiji, the conversion of entire villages to the Lord has been one of the great things in the annals of the third angel's message. There is a wonderfully interesting background to this experience, and it has its setting in literature ministry. About twenty years ago, Elder J. E. Fulton, who pioneered the way in the Fijian group, recognized that the best way to reach the people would be to publish literature in their own tongue. So he obtained a small hand printing press and began immediately to produce literature for the Fijians. A paper was started, and abridged editions of several books were published. This literature was scattered broadcast, and like leaven it worked as an unseen power, the result being realized in the great fruitage of today.

Thus the early sowing of the seeds in literature, with the watering of the Holy Spirit during the intervening years, is producing its fruit under the providence of God. It is only in this way that we can account for the thoroughness and genuineness of the work, and for the stirring appeals that have come to us for help. In a speech made to the missionaries on behalf of his people, a chief said:

"It may be asked why we accept the faith now, and not before. This is God's time. His Word has come to us, and we have been awakened. We have not connected with this message through coercion, or through any bad feelings toward our former church. Light from on high has shone upon us. And in coming into this faith, we come for all there is in it. We come for cleansing. We cast away the old life. We cast away our tobacco, our grog, and our unclean food; and we intend to stand steadfast to the truth of God."

Surely the means invested in that little hand printing press in old Fiji served its purpose well. We feel that we are sacrificing when we answer these ever-increasing calls for help from across the seas, and we are; but have you considered the sacrifices made by those in heathen lands to secure our literature?

An example of how the people in Northern Rhodesia, South Africa, appreciate our truth-filled literature is found in a brief message from one of our workers there: "It was indeed interesting to see how eager the people in this district were to secure our books. Many drained their meager store of cash in order to buy just

Missions Extension in 1941

W. G. TURNER
Vice-President, N. American Division

MISSIONS extension is still an actuality and a need. While in some lands the way appears restricted because of the prevailing war conditions, in others doors are opening wider than ever and earnest calls for help increase. No less than 18 new projects are included as our mission extension objectives in this 1941 campaign.

Money is at present flowing freely through the North American Division as billions of dollars are being circulated in war preparations. The minds of men, disturbed by the ominous times, are unusually susceptible to the reception of truth. In this prevailing atmosphere our workers and people may take up this Missions Extension Campaign for 1941 with confidence and assurance.

The North American Division goal is $70,000, which amount is well within the reach of our membership. One is by the sale of specially prepared literature, the profits derived therefrom being donated to the campaign fund by the individual selling it. The other method is by a direct offering, which will be taken on Sabbath, April 19. Employment of this method leads many to donate a day's wage or increase toward the goal. This plan has been followed for many years very successfully. If an average of $2 per member could be planned for and set aside, the goal would be assured. Many of our members will give much more than this, we know. If all do something, and none give less than $2, either by selling literature or by a direct gift, we shall be able to record a splendid overflow for the fields now pressed by pleas for help in medical, publishing, and educational ac-one book. Some who had no money at all, would look with longing eyes and go away disappointed, but later return with borrowed money to fulfill their hearts' desire."

In referring to the Missions Extension Big Week literature plan, Elder J. L. McElhany made the following statements:

"When we consider the benefits that have already come to the work in foreign fields as a direct result of the Big Week efforts in behalf of the Missions Publishing Fund, we are convinced that we should greatly increase our endeavors. Thousands have already had the message brought to them through the printed page in their own language. Many thousands more are still waiting to hear the truth. The more we do for the Missions Publishing Fund in the Big Week effort, the sooner these waiting multitudes will hear the message. We sincerely hope that the response to this call will be in keeping with the importance of the occasion. With the open doors everywhere, and the limited facilities in mission fields for preparing literature, now is certainly the time to answer the calls and hasten on the means. The Big Week provides a splendid opportunity for all our members to acquaint their neighbors with the message through our literature, and at the same time to help furnish the funds needed to provide mission printing plants."

The opportunities for service in the mission fields makes a strong appeal to us today. Through literature we can reach the millions who are still in darkness. We believe you will respond with your means to help provide the funds to reach the waiting multitudes with our truth-filled literature. An appropriation of $2,500 from the Missions Extension offering this year will assist in producing Spirit of prophecy volumes in foreign languages.

We would especially direct the attention of all to the sale of the specially prepared books, believing that in selling this timely literature three advantages will be noted: those who buy the literature will be enlightened by reading it; those who sell will be encouraged by their success; and the profits secured will extend the work without financial outlay on the members' part.

With confidence in the willingness and ability of all to have some part in this splendid campaign, we heartily invite the continued cooperation of our workers and members in the North American Division, that the 1941 Missions Extension Offering will create a new record in sales, in service, and in souls.

Prepare Now for Overflow

The world is speeding toward Armageddon and soon the opportunity of heralding the Message will be forever gone. You must do what Europe is unable to do. Mission contributions from our churches in European countries are entirely cut off, seriously threatening our far-flung missions. Let's step into the breach. By giving more for Missions Extension we can hold it!

While we still enjoy liberty, let us sell literature, and give and send offerings to mission lands where the needs are so great.

An overflow Missions Extension offering will provide equipment for the doctor to enter Tibet. The doors of opportunity are still open in many lands and the calls are exceedingly urgent.

Anything you give above the $2 individual goal will be applied to the three special projects and will equip our workers so they will be ready to enter Lhasa. Only as you exceed your goal can this remarkable call to the capital city of the forbidden land be answered.

In the Missions Extension News Sheet given out at church read the remarkable experience of the Tibetan convert and the Lhasa prince. You will be thrilled by our present medical work in Lhasa, the method used to cure the eye infection of the sister of the prince, and the photograph passport, and the radio call for a Seventh-day Adventist doctor.

What will you do about this unusual challenge? The equipment for new workers in Lhasa depends upon an overflow from you. Only as you exceed the $2 minimum goal can this remarkable call from the capital city be answered. There are four ways to respond.

1. Free-will offering of sacrifice.

2. Day's salary or earnings, one day during Big Week, April 12-19.

3. Sale of the two wonderful Missions Extension books, "Challenge of the Tempest," and "Blackout of Civilization, and Beyond."

4. Saving a dime a day in the "Dime Bank."

Prepare now for your overflow offering April 19. It is imperative before civilization's blackout and probation's close that missions be greatly expanded.

Plan for a mighty missions advance in 1941 by giving your overflow offering.

J. ERNEST EDWARDS

classes have been organized and the children are being taught "the way of the Lord."

ROUND-TABLE: Recently a Home Missionary round-table for the fourteen churches of greater Washington was held at the Theological Seminary building. The contributions of Elder Reed from China, Elder Holland, and Mrs. Mace were appreciated, and inspired the 62 pastors and missionary leaders and other officers to make this a greater soul-winning year.

CLOSING: The series of evangelistic meetings conducted in Lynchburg by Elder Woods will close on March 30. The attendance has been good and offerings liberal. The interested from these Sunday evening services will be enrolled in Bible classes, and thence into baptismal classes. The prospects are very encouraging and definite interests and requests for study have come from influential individuals. Classes will be conducted in the church and also in the homes of individuals.

KILMARNOCK: Miss Tuttle, our church school teacher at Kilmarnock, writes: "We are organizing a school band this week with seven or eight pieces." We are happy to learn that these boys and girls are learning music.

ORGANIZED: The members of the Buena Vista Church are now organized for literature distribution and Present Truth is being placed in 100 selected homes each week. The interest thus created will be followed up.

PROFITABLE: Are you taking the Sabbath School Teacher Training Courses? Brother J. W. Saunders says: "These lessons are very helpful to me in preparing my Sabbath school lessons."

OPENED: On Sunday night, March 23, Elder Koch started a series of meetings in the tabernacle at Harrisonburg, and every seat was filled. Practically every one present raised his hand as having listened to the Sunday broadcasts. Tune in on WSVB from 1:00 to 1:30 P. M. each Sunday.

APPALACHIA: Although it was impossible to have a regular Sabbath school convention at Appalachia, several faithful members came out Thursday night for an evening of convention work. We appreciate the excellent spirit manifested by the faithful Appalachia group.

Missions Extension

IN THESE days of stress and fear when men and women are looking on with anxious forebodings, not knowing what a day will bring forth, many are stretching out their hands for light, for knowledge, and for the meaning of these things that are now taking place. Is this not a time when every loyal Seventh-day Adventist should find his place for service in giving the last message to all the world? We are confident the message to which we belong is able to measure up to every emergency and that God has raised up the last church for this very hour. The question that should greatly concern us is, are we measuring up to the great task that God requires us to perform individually?

Our hearts are cheered as we review the records of the past year. They reflect the loyalty and faith of our people in the movement with the prospering hand of God. In view of the improvement in business, and the prosperity we now have, the possibilities are greater for larger records in 1941. The Missions Extension offering for the Ohio Conference last year showed a gain of almost 50 percent over the preceding year. District ministers and local church officers planned for the Missions Extension offering, and we were not disappointed in the results. We are pleased to see our ministers and churches already laying definite plans which will undoubtedly result in a large offering, which will be taken Sabbath, April 19. To compare with the other conferences in the Union, the Ohio Conference should have an offering this year totaling $4,000.

Two valuable books have been provided for Big Week: "Challenge of the Tempest" by Elder Arthur S. Maxwell, and "The Blackout of Civilization, and Beyond," by Elder C. B. Haynes. These good books should be sold in large quantities by our workers and church members. Unless the full price of 25 cents is paid for the books, the Missions Extension Fund will not profit so much by the sale of our literature. Thousands of these books should be placed in the homes during the Missions Extension campaign.

The average individual goal is the same as in past years—$2 per member and one day's salary for institutional and conference workers. We solicit the cooperation of all workers and church members to participate in making the Missions Extension offering the largest this year it has ever been in the history of the Ohio Conference, in order that we may be able to do our part in responding to the many worthy appeals, for in this day when "darkness covers the earth and gross darkness the people," we should become more mission-minded. If our churches in Europe in the grip of a devastating war can exceed records of past years, what should we do in America under such favorable conditions with freedom, liberty and prosperity such as we have and our field strongly manned, backed by a loyal constituency that is willing to follow the right kind of leadership?

Ohio Colporteur Flashes

MAY this experience be a help to some one who is discouraged in the Lord's work as it has been a help to me. Truly Satan is on our track. I did not have very good success this week and found my territory a little hard. Thursday at one o'clock some one seemed to whisper, "You cannot do anything." So, I went home. I found my Colporteur News Letter in the mail and read what it said concerning finding the territory difficult, and it admonished us, "Be faithful." I said, "This is for me. I must be faithful." I knelt and asked God for new strength. In a short time I was back on the same street but with the same difficulties as I had before, but I went on, feeling there must be a work for me to do on this street. At the next house the lady said, "I am awful busy." I told her I would be brief and stepped in. As I gave my pre-canvass, she asked, "Who are you, a reader or what? There is some power in your presence." I replied, "I am only a humble worker for Jesus."

I started with my canvass, but before I was through, she requested that I stand up and turn sideways. I did so, not knowing what it was all about. She looked at me and then exclaimed, "This is the face! This is the face I saw at three o'clock this morning. God must have sent you to me.

What do you have?" I told her that God had a message for her in the book I was showing her. She said she had a book almost like it. She got it and showed it to me. It was "Great Controversy." She said "G. C." was so deep but the book I had was easy to understand. I told her that both books were published by the same people and that I was sure God wanted her to have the book. "I must have it, she responded, and gave me an order for "Bible Readings" to be delivered in three weeks, and wished me God's blessing in my work. I received another order for "B. R." and a $5 Bible within the next hour. How true are God's promises. "The canvassers will be accompanied and instructed by holy angels, who will go before them to the dwellings of the people, preparing the way for them."

Wedding

A HOME wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Freligh of 113 E. Lamartine Street, Mt. Vernon, Ohio, the evening after the Sabbath, February 22, when Miss Eleanor June Tooley of Mt. Vernon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Tooley of Chicago, was united in marriage to Norman P. Freligh. The ceremony was performed by Elder G. L. West in the presence of relatives and friends. After a trip to Erie, Pennsylvania the couple returned to Mt. Vernon where they now reside on the Martinsburg Road.

Springfield Evangelistic Meetings

DURING the past week, while auditing the records of our churches in the Springfield-Dayton district, I had the opportunity of attending some of the public meetings being held in the Springfield Church by Brother Calvin Osborn. The meetings began on February 2, and since that date have been held three nights a week, Sunday, Tuesday, and Friday evenings. A growing interest has been shown by the public from the beginning. On Sunday evening, March 23, the subject, "Who Is the Beast?" was presented to an eager audience of 350 who crowded every available seat of the church auditorium and made necessary the placing of extra chairs in the aisle and around the platform.

Members of the Missionary Volunteer Society have offered their services to help in visiting the 200 families who have requested Bible studies and free literature. Already the first baptismal class has been organized, and this sacred rite will be administered as soon as the candidates have been thoroughly instructed in all points of our faith.

The evening offerings have been sufficient to cover all expenses to date. The Springfield Church is of good courage and every member is giving his wholehearted cooperation in making these meetings a grand success.

Attention Springfield-Dayton District

A last-minute change has been made concerning Elder W. H. Branson's appointments with the Springfield and Dayton Churches.

He will speak at the Springfield Number One Church on Thursday evening, April 3, at 7:30 P.M., and at the Dayton Number One Church on Friday evening, April 4, at 7:30 P.M. All members in this district are earnestly invited to attend at least one of these meetings.

Sunday Blue Law Live Issue in Delaware

FOR the past several months there has been much agitation in the State of Delaware concerning the repeal of the old Sunday blue law. When it came before the legislature this repeal was voted down and Delaware experienced a taste of these old, outmoded Sunday laws. Arrests made totaled well over a thousand, and the State was in turmoil. However, last Friday a new Liberal Sunday law was passed that does away with these antiquated laws of the past.

Elder Schmidt, who has been present practically throughout the 1941 session of the legislature, last Friday sent in this report. "We could see the Lord's hand work in a wonderful way, and we could also see the Devil's horns."

We have been laboring earnestly during this time to educate the people. Many of our faithful members have circulated petitions and have given people the privilege of reading them and have received their signatures by the thousand. We have been greatly privileged to have Elders Longacre and Votaw from the General Conference Religious Liberty Department to assist us during this critical time. Elder Longacre has presented a series of masterly addresses over the radio from Wilmington. These addresses have been mailed each week to every state official, Senator, Representative, Judge, and justice of the peace in the State of Delaware.

The opposition to the repeal of these Sunday laws was very great and determined, but truly the Lord has worked in a marvelous way, for these Puritanical Sunday laws were in reality in existence and enforced only a little over one week. We shall publish more regarding this most live, present-day issue in later numbers of the VISITOR.

Progress in Wilmington, Delaware

THE evangelistic campaign being conducted in the Athletic Auditorium, W. 11th Street, Wilmington, Delaware, is being well attended from night to night, and present indications are that a goodly number will accept this message during the course of the meetings. Elder Robert L. Boothby and his workers report more than 600 families being visited in this city, and many of these are planning to unite with the church in baptism during the next few weeks. The first baptismal service is being set for Sabbath afternoon, April 5, at the auditorium.

We are broadcasting a daily radio program on station WDEL, Wilmington, (which will now be heard on 1150 kilocycles instead of 1120), Monday through Saturday at 1:30 P.M., and Sunday at 2:00 P.M. This broadcast is being heard in five states and the District of Columbia, as found from the radio mail received. Letters have come from ten cities and towns in Maryland, from 15 in Pennsylvania, eight cities in New Jersey, 25 in Delaware; also from Virginia and Washington, D. C. These listeners express a deep interest in the services given on the air. One writes from Lancaster, Pennsylvania: "I heard your prophetic message over WDEL and enjoyed it very much. Wish you could come to Lancaster to give these messages. Folk need to know the truth today." Another, writing from Maryland, states: "I listen to your messages every day and find them interesting and helpful. I have read several pamphlets published by the Adventist church and these have interested me very much. I would like for you to speak some day about belonging to the church and accepting Christ, as this is on my mind continually." Again from Baltimore, a listener writes: "I have been listening to your radio program for about two weeks. I am very much interested but would like to know with what church you are affiliated. I have never heard it announced over the air. It is a pity you can't speak an hour as you do quote scripture in full, not just enough to suit the people." All over the city of Wilmington we find hundreds who are listening to the program every day, and it is advertising our meetings and presenting the truth to thousands outside the city.

The campaign workers are faithfully visiting the interested people and report many victories for Christ as they work and pray with these prospects. The workers associated with Elder Boothby are Peter Dran, Giles Roberts, Mrs. Giles Roberts, Mary Bierly, E. L. Hanson, and Leslie R. Mansell; besides several faithful church members who are giving time each week in visiting the interested persons.

At Such a Time as This

THERE never was a time when our mission work in lands across the sea was in such great need as it is today. At such a time as this, you and I can really work and give as never before.

April 12-19 is MISSIONS EXTENSION BIG WEEK. This is the time set aside when our members everywhere are asked to sell the Big Week books, "The Black-out of Civilization, and Beyond," and "The Challenge of the Tempest," to their neighbors and friends. By selling these very timely books, we shall be raising money for foreign missions and sowing seed to win souls right here in the homeland.

These books sell for 50 cents a set, or 25 cents each. If you have not ordered your books, do so without further delay. Your Book and Bible House has an ample supply for you. The individual goal for the Missions Extension offering to be taken on April 19 is two dollars per member. Some will give as much as five and ten dollars. Each one should plan definitely to give an offering on this day. This is your opportunity to help send the message of truth while the doors and the ocean lanes are still open.

If you are isolated, and not able to attend church, you may send your offering direct to your conference treasurer. At such a time as this may be your great opportunity to help, when help is needed most.

News Notes

ELDER T. M. FRENCH, our conference president, spent the week of March 15-22 at Washington Missionary College where he had charge of the students' spring Week of Prayer.

We were very glad to have Elder H. J. Detwiler, President of the Union, for the closing meetings of the Colporteur Institute. Elder Detwiler spoke at the young people's meeting on Friday evening and again at the 11 o'clock hour on Sabbath morning. There was a good attendance at both of these meetings and many expressed their appreciation for the timely messages presented. On Sabbath afternoon a large number of the Parkersburg members assembled to enjoy the treat given by the colporteurs in their symposium. Many interesting experiences were related by those taking part. At the close of the Sabbath the colporteurs were invited to the home of Miss Dortha Mae Meek for a social evening which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Brother H. E. Voorhees visited the Morgantown Church on Sabbath, March 15. Since his visit, several orders have been received from the members for the Lending Library sets.

It is interesting to note that West Virginia holds 16th place among the conferences in the United States in subscription book sales for the first two months of 1941. There are 46 conferences in the report that is issued by the Review and Herald. We are expecting West Virginia to climb still higher in the list as the months go by.

Junior Camp!

THIS is something for Juniors to smile about! The fourth annual Junior Camp in East Pennsylvania will be held August 3 to 13 at French Creek Recreational Park, the same location as last year. This camp is a government recreational park. The swimming facilities in Lake Hopewell with our own private bathing beach, diving boards, shallow marked-off section for non-swimmers, seventy-five acres of land with its beautiful trees, nature trails, and lake, make it an ideal spot for a Junior Camp.

We have plans laid for a full Camp. One hundred and forty Juniors will be the limit. We are inviting New Jersey and West Pennsylvania Juniors to join us again, which will mean that applications must be made early if a reservation is to be had. The fee is $10—$1 to accompany registration, and $9 upon entering Camp. Juniors from 10 to 16 are welcome. A full staff of directors is being planned. New handicrafts, and other features that will appeal to Juniors, are scheduled. Without a doubt, this will be the best Camp we have ever had.

Juniors! Let's Save! Let's Earn!
Let's Make Our Way!

At your disposal are M. V. pencils to sell to neighbors and friends. Write us at once for these beautiful Junior Camp pencils that are in M. V. colors of purple and gold. A Junior Camp message on them will help you to sell many. The cost to you is 2 cents each, and they will sell for a nickel or a dime, which will make you a good profit. Send cash with order, a check or money order—no stamps, please. Postage will be paid. One hundred and twenty pencils sold at 10 cents each will pay your way to Camp for ten days. Why not do it now? Send for your pencils, sell them at once, and return the profits to apply on your Junior Camp account. Let's all get busy making a way, and when August 3 comes, we'll be meeting at French Creek Recreational Park near Birdsboro, Pennsylvania.

Faber-Frederick Wedding

A BEAUTIFUL wedding took place in the Fowler, Ohio Church where fellow members and friends gathered to witness the union of Gordon Frederick, of La Grange, Ohio, and Sara June Faber, of Fowler, Ohio.

Miss Faber was attended by her sister, Miss Olive Faber, as maid of honor, and was given away by her father. A little sister, Thelma, was flower girl.

Mrs. A. L. Pangborn sang "O Promise Me" and "Because" as a prelude to the Lohengrin Wedding March to the altar.

Both of these young people are sincere Christians, members of Seventh-day Adventist churches, and enjoy an honorable place in the community where they reside. Mrs. Frederick has been teaching school in LaGrange during the past school year. They will make their home in that vicinity.

A large circle of friends and fellow members wish for them great happiness and the fullness of God's blessings.

OBITUARIES

LAURELL: Mrs. Jennie, was born in Sweden on November 22, 1876, and died at the Orange Memorial Hospital in Orange, New Jersey on January 30, 1941. In 1904 she was united in marriage with John Laurel.

During the summer of 1917 Brother Lester Laurel accepted the Sabbath and they became members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Newark. They remained faithful, Brother Laurel having preceded his wife in death several years ago.

Four children are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother: Leonard, of Newark, N. J.; Theodore, of Madison, Tenn.; Mrs. Florence Elder, of Morristown, N. J.; and Clifford, of New York City.

The funeral was conducted by the writer, assisted by Brother Milton St. John. Interment was in Hanover, N. J. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. But we look forward to the resurrection morning.

O. D. CARDEY
