

A Message to Workers

BETTER qualified ministry is  $\Lambda$ desirable. Reading, everstudy, and meditation in the daily course of one's task are each and all essential if the worker for God is to accomplish his Master's purpose as an efficient and productive winner of souls. Apart from his daily program in the minister's study, and of much added assistance, the provision now being made in the Theological Seminary at Takoma Park, is beyond question of decided value.

It has been my privilege lately to assist in two ministerial institutes at which the methods employed in the field of evangelism by Elder J. L. Shuler have been demonstrated. In those institutes I have found an attitude of immediate response on the part of the workers and a marked recognition of the value of these practical, simple, spiritual, and fruit-ful methods advocated by Brother Shuler. Those present at these gatherings sincerely expressed a determination to return to their fields with enthusiasm for the instructions imparted, and a determination to employ these methods which have proved so successful in actual field experience.

The limited time available to the usual ministerial institute, which can never occupy more than four or five days, greatly curtails the teacher's opportunity to do the most thorough work and limits the student's time for discussion. At the Theological Seminary one of the several courses is that in Evangelism conducted by Elder Shuler. This course occupies a daily study period for several weeks, and thus covers so much more than is possible in a meeting of only four or five days.

In addition to such instruction in this particular field of study, during the Seminary term, other experienced teachers are available for classes in history, language, and Biblical research.

W. G. TURNER

The next term of nine weeks commences on June 17, and I am happy to express my conviction that this post-graduate training has proven to be of great value

Evangelizing the Cities

ELDER L. H. KING, President of the West Pennsylvania Conference writes: "We shall have, the Lord willing, three tent efforts in the field this summer—one in Erie, one in Pittsburgh, and one in Washington, Pennsylvania. We have four baptisms scheduled for the month of May: Elder Swanson, in Altoona; Elder Krick, in Pittsburgh; Pastor Fearing, in Erie; and Pastor Fowler, in Sharon. Elder Roth will have a baptism early in June."

From all parts of the Columbia Union we are receiving similar reports. 1940 was our banner year in the number of souls won to the truth in a twelve-month period. More than 2100 were accepted into church membership in the various conferences of the Union by baptism or profession of faith during the past year. We must speedily evangelize the populous cities in this vast territory. The talent of every church member is needed now for a mighty advance in soul-winning evangelistic efforts, both large and small.

H. J. DETWILER Pres. Columbia Union Conference to each and all privileged to attend. It has been refreshing to read scores of workers' testimonies wherein they have stated their views on the value of these Seminary courses.

I am, therefore, taking the opportunity of addressing our workers through the columns of the union papers to remind them of these opportunities, now provided at the Seminary, in the hope that as the way may open, and in collaboration with their conference or institutional leadership, many may soon find it possible to spend at least a term at this institution. Such an opportunity will better fortify our workers to meet in the most efficient and fruitful manner the responsibilities of the hour.

Sunday Bill in Congress

Two Sunday-closing Barber Bills are now pending in Congress. A hearing already has been held on one of them, and there is very grave danger of its being railroaded through Congress shortly. We are anxious to have our people send in potitions of protest, and letters of protest to their Senators and Representatives in Congress. The numbers of the Bills are: S. 983 and H. R. 3852.

Each local church elder will receive a letter with petitions from the Religious Liberty Department, with information on the back of the petition as well as in the letter. We hope that each local church elder and our people will act at once and get in touch with their Senators and Representatives, and send in as many signatures as possible protesting against this proposed legislation. C. S. LONGACRE

General Secretary, Religious Liberty Association.

Camp Meeting

It is with deep gratitude to God in our hearts that we still enjoy peace and liberty in our country, and can hold another camp meeting. The date set for the East Pennsylvania Camp Meeting this year is July 10 to 20. Indications are that we shall have a large attendance, and this is as it should be.

The children of Israel spent about one month out of each year attending three feasts at Jerusalem. They sang hymns of praise to God as they traveled over those Judean hills with their children, going to their annual holy convocations; and they carried their tithes and offerings with them to the temple. Angels accompanied them, and angels protected their flocks and property left at home.

If the children of Israel took time to attend three annual feasts, it does seem we should take time, when we are so near Christ's second coming, to attend at least one camp meeting of ten days, during the year.

When July 10 arrives, we shall be looking for you on the East Pennsylvania camp ground. Be sure to bring the young people and children. We are expecting ministerial help from the General Conference and also from the Union Conference. Come, praying that God will give us an outpouring of the Holy Spirit in such large measure as we never have had before in the history of our camp meeting. In this unusual time while we enjoy religious freedom, let us determine to put forth every effort to attend camp meeting.

News Notes

ELDERS F. H. Robbins, C. W. Guenther, and J. G. Mitchell will be delegates from the Columbia Union Conference to the coming General Conference, to be held in San Francisco May 26 to June 7. A number of workers from our conference will attend these important meetings. We trust that our churches will remember these meetings at the throne of grace. Subscribe for the Review and

Herald, and receive the special daily bulletin of happenings at this conference. The bulletins will be very interesting and worth preserving for future reference.

On Saturday night, May 3, the North Philadelphia Church presented an organ recital. David Babcock, the church organist, gave the recital on the recently installed electric organ, assisted by Mr. Tinsman, baritone. A liberal offering was contributed by the congregation for the Organ Fund, and during the program the organ was dedicated for divine service

The A Cappella Choir of the Philadelphia Academy, under the capable leadership of Miss Kunau, has recently rendered several very interesting programs in the Philadelphia Churches. Plans are being formulated to make the music department of the Academy a very strong feature during the coming year.

Elder Robbins, our Conference President, recently attended Union committee meetings and College board meetings in Washington, D. C.

Missions Extension Fund

WE ARE encouraged by good reports coming in from the churches showing splendid advance in Missions Extension funds over last year.

Though the date of the general offering is over, yet the opportunity to make up this offering is still with us, and we hope church officers will continue the Missions Extension program until church goals are reached.

Surely every member will want to bring to the treasury at least the individual goal of $2, and many have pledges of 5, 10, 25. and $50. Some already have paid and others will bring in the funds by camp meeting time.

In these days of sudden changes in the world, let us hurry this urgently needed help to missions while opportunity is ours to send the help needed to hasten on the proclamation of the gospel and a soon coming Saviour to the remaining dark places of earth.

Let all members act their part in a liberal response to the Missions Extension call of 1941.

Dayton Rally

WE WERE privileged to have Elder W. P. Elliott, Manager of the Review and Herald, visit the Davton Church at a recent weekend rally for our colporteur work. inspiring messages were His greatly appreciated by all. Brother S. L. Clark and Sister Lloyd Holbert, of the Union, were also present and gave excellent help. A splendid group of prospects came out for the instruction, and we are hopeful of seeing a number of new workers getting started as a result.

Elder Webster Speaks at Camden

ON SABBATH, April 19, the Camden Church was pleased to welcome as speaker, Elder C. C. Webster, who has been a veteran laborer in Kentucky, Alabama, Canada, and many places in Ohio. Elder Webster is almost 90 years of age, and chose for his subject, "Angels and Their Mission." He spoke very ably. He holds the truths of the Bible very sacred, and his long years of experience make him a wonderful counselor.

Those who are acquainted with him will be pleased to know that in spite of his advanced age, he is still quick and alert, and always is foremost in soliciting his Harvest Ingathering. He still performs many acts of service for others, when and wherever he can.

He and his faithful, devoted wife reside on Grant street, in New London, Ohio, and would enjoy hearing from any of their many friends.

WHILE working in a small town near my home, I came to a Catholic section. I met the priest, and he gladly subscribed to Life and Health. I recommended the diet suggestions for meatless days. His subscription was a great help in this section. One lady, after seeing his name on my membership list, said, "How much did you say it is? Yes, I'll take it for three years. Do I pay you now? How soon can I get it?" Others would say, "Oh. did Father — take it?" Out of the twenty homes I visited, fourteen

Colporteur Ministry

WE ARE told in the Spirit of prophecy, "If there is one work more important than another, it is that of getting our publications before the public, thus leading them to search the Scriptures."

Just recently I had the pleasure of going into the southwestern part of the state in the interest of the magazine work. Sister Parsons, our faithful magazine worker, accompanied me and in seven days we were able, with the Lord's help, to sell 1400 magazines. The Lord blessed our humble efforts.

The work was enjoyable and we met many interested people. Surely the Potomac Conference is a wonderful and faithful field of labor for the Master.

The people appreciate our good periodicals. One lady remarked, "I think the Life and Health magazine is wonderful; you get so much for so little."

Others seemed interested in our message magazine, namely the Watchman. One person said, "I believe the seventh day is the Sabbath," and readily bought the magazine. She then remarked, "I would like to know more about the Sabbath." We gave her Bible texts proving the seventh day is the Sabbath.

Now is the opportune time to sell our truth-filled literature. Hearts are being impressed now subscribed, making a total of $20.-25 in this section that day. Why not take more subscriptions? The servant of the Lord tells us to tell them that in these books there is advice which they cannot possibly obtain from their physician during the short visit he makes. ("C. S." pp. 152, 153).

Mrs. H. C. LILLEY

(There is increasing demand for the reliable information contained in Life and Health. This is a great publication to break down prejudice and prepare the way for other truths. Why not send for the free information that tells how to take subscriptions? Address Field Secretary, Box 831, Mt. Vernon, Ohio.)

as never before. "Let us work while it is day, for night cometh when no man can work."

News Notes

TIDEWATER: Elder MacNeil and Mr. Kelly visited the Tidewater section recently. Brother Johnson and Brother Pryor, members of the colored committee, were also there, at which time the colored work in that section was given study.

CLOSING: Shenandoah Valley Academy will complete its class work and hold the closing exercises over the week-end of May 9-11. The campus is beautiful at this time of the year, and many friends and visitors will be present for the closing of the school.

LATEST REPORT: At the beginning of March our conference was a 100 percent conference in regard to its Youth Instructor subscriptions, taking approximately 1250 each week. Our youth's magazine will do much to anchor our young people to this message and to help them in the solution of their problems.

GROWING: The Bible School of the Air at Fredericksburg now has an enrollment of 50. These individuals study the lessons, write out the answers, and send them in to Brother Crofoot for grading. Many others indicate their interest by listening.

INVESTIGATE: Become acquainted with the Companion Series, a group of small booklets  $3^{3}_{4} \ge 5^{1}_{2}$ , averaging sixty pages each. Interesting, profitable, inspirational. Only 10 cents each. Titles are as follows:

Blessed Be Drudgery Steps to Christ Learn of Me Quiet Thoughts for Meditation Bricks for Sale Testimony of the Flowers Victory in Christ The Wonderful Father A Cup of Cold Water Down Lilac Lanes Homespun The Sufferings of Christ Straightening out Mrs. Perkins Under the Juniper Tree What is a Gentleman The Supremacy of Love

NO RADIO: A member of the Fredericksburg Church had no radio, so visited a neighbor and requested the privilege of listening in on Brother Crofoot's broadcast. The neighbor had not listened before, but became interested and is now enrolled in the Bible school.

WEEK-END: Last week-end at Konnarock was a never-to-beforgotten occasion. A baptism of six, an investiture, an M. V. Convention conducted by Elder Edwards climaxed with the showing of the film, "On With the Message," and a church picnic on Sunday to which were invited a number of neighboring churches, comprised a week-end of interesting features and social fellowship.

BAPTIZED: On April 19 a baptism was held in Hyattsville by Elder Nichol. This church has a most active group of members and

Delightful Vacation

WILL your vacation be delightful and profitable this summer? It can be if you attend the Leaders' Vacation School at Shenandoah Valley Acad-emy July 20 to 23. Enjoy the pleasant association with others who are progressive. Look into God's beautiful book of nature. Play games for the fun of play—not merely to win. Listen to thrilling stories that are character-building. Sing new songs with us. Learn from master teachers. Catch a vision of the possibilities that lie around you. Send application blank now.

S. S. & M. V. Department Potomac Conference a number of them have been engaged in lay evangelism. The fruits of their efforts are included in this group.

ENJOYED: The eighth grade students from the Washington area had a most delightful trip to Shenandoah Valley Academy April 22. The trip through the caverns was enjoyed nearly as much as the tasty dinner prepared by the academy.

ENTERING: Following the close of Shenandoah Valley Academy and Washington Missionary College, about 30 students will be entering the Potomac Conference to earn scholarships for the school year of 1941-42. We welcome these students and will cooperate with these youthful workers in every way possible, that they may have a successful summer's work.

REWARDED: The church school boys and girls are talking about health habits these days. Every one who has all his defects corrected and has fourteen health habits well established is given a beautiful health habit award. Seventy-five awards were given to the Sligo Church school the first day of May.

FIRST ISSUES: Last Sabbath the first 1000 issues of Present Truth were distributed in Fredericksburg. The members of the church there are enjoying th's missionary project.

ADVENTIST SOCIAL CEN-TER: The twelve M. V. societies of the Washington area have organized a new recreational, character-building project known as the Adventist Social Center. This pioneer project has on its program swimming, physical culture, gymnasium games, and six crafts. Two hundred and twentythree junior boys and girls and young people have enrolled as members of this Social Center.

CORRECTION: A recent issue of the VISITOR read that Harrisonburg had 17 to join their Bible School. This should have read 175. These are giving definite study to the lessons they receive and are writing out the answers which are graded by Brother Koch and his wife. The interest there is good.

IMPROVING: Friends will be glad to know that Sister Steiker is improving at the Sanitarium following a recent operation. She will be returning to Richmond again soon. VISITED: Elder Smith, of Roanoke, spent a Sabbath recently with the new Sabbath school group at Pulaski. They have been meeting in a home, but are now taking steps to find a larger place for their services.

A Vital Book for Your Library

It is a timely hour for a revival of study of that priceless volume, "Christ our Righteousness," by A. G. Daniells. It gathers together, gives the setting, and presses home the sobering Spirit of prophecy declarations and admonitions on this great theme, which Sister White declares is the "third White declares is the "third angel's message in verity." Its acceptance and operation are inseparable from the loud cry of the message, and imperative for the finishing of our work. This is a vital volume needed in every Adventist home. Prices follow:

Wedding

SATURDAY evening, March 29, 1941, Adrian B. Pratt and Erla M. Pierce were joined in wedlock at the home of the writer in Belmar, New Jersey, just as the clock struck the hour of seven. The brother of the bride, Roy A. Pierce, attended the groom as best man, while Mrs. Marie Pierce, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. The bride was given away by her father, Abram Pierce. The bride's mother was present and also the family of the writer. The couple left immediately for a short stay with friends in Maryland, after which they will make their home in Saddle River, N. J. Their many friends wish for them every blessing of heaven as they walk life's pathway together.

"So You're the Secretary"

UNDER this title a few articles have appeared from time to time in the Sabbath School Worker, and doubtless many officers have read these interesting and practical selections from our new book, bearing the above title, which is now ready for circulation. It was written by Mrs. Florence Howell who has had many years of experience in denominational work. Our Sabbath school secretaries will find this book a real help to them.

We trust that each secretary will send for a copy which will be mailed for $1 postpaid. As our assistant secretaries also function from time to time, they too will want to avail themselves of the help this book offers.

Music of the Advent Message

ON SATURDAY evening, May 10, at 8 o'clock P. M., a program of unusual interest to every Seventhday Adventist was presented in the Pittsburgh Number One Church.

The sacred music that has formed a part of the Advent Message was featured. Among other hymns, those which were sung and loved by Sister White were presented by the group of singers from the Number One Church. Practically all the hymns used were those that have been written by Adventists, as an expression of their heart longings and experience.

It was an evening of real inspiration and uplift to every Advent believer.

The Wrong Classification

WE ALL understand that in such a complicated organization as the Se-lective Service System mistakes are bound to occur. Mistakes can be made by Selective Service Boards. They often are. They can be made also by Seventh-day Adventist men when they make out their question-paires or their special forms for apnaires or their special forms for conscientious objectors. In either case, or in both, the result may be a wrong classification. And a wrong classification may be a very serious matter for the registrant involved.

Some of our men have been classified in 4-E. That is a wrong classification for any Seventh-day Advent-ist man who desires to follow the instructions of this denomination and is in harmony with its historical position and principles. The 4-E men are those who are absolute conscienare those who are absolute conscientious objectors claiming exemption even from noncombatant service in the army.

Our men of draft age should clearly nderstand that there are two understand classes of conscientious objectors recognized and provided for under the Selective Service Act. These are: first, those who claim exemption from combatant service only but who are willing to go into noncombatant army units where they will not be required to bear arms; and second, those who claim exemption from both combatant and noncombatant duties and are unwilling to serve in any unit of the Army.

Denominational principles of non-combatancy place Seventh-day Ad-ventists in the first class, claiming exemption only from combatant service, willing to serve their country in the army as noncombatants. These are not assigned to 4-E, or if so are wrongly so classified and should im-mediately appeal that wrong classification.

If, however, the individual con-science of the Seventh-day Adventist man prompts him to go beyond the denominational position and adopt the position of those unwilling to salute the flag and wear the uniform, and take the position of pacifists, and war resisters, then such an individual clearly belongs in Class 4-E. He ought not ever to be placed in this class unless his individual conscience directs him to take such a position.

Seventh-day Adventists rightly classified would be available only for noncombatant service in the Army. They will not be required to bear arms in any unit where they are placed. They will not be required to perform duties save those which they can conscientiously perform in the saving of human life and welfare rather than the destruction thereof.

Class 4-E men, however, are subject to assignment to a civilian public service camp known as a camp for conscientious objectors. They will have to perform a year's service in such camp without any remuneration whatsoever. They will have to provide their own living in these camps, and will receive no pay for their services.

There are Selective Service Boards the members of which are so suffi-ciently swayed by community prejudice or so lacking in information about their own regulations that they about their own regulations that they place any man who claims conscien-tious objection to war in Class 4-E regardless of whether he has any other claims for deferment such as that of dependents. We have had some cases of Seventh-day Adventist men married and with children who should have been placed in Class 3-A and thus deferred on the ground of dependency, who, because they have filled out the special form for conscientious objectors, have im-mediately been placed in Class 4-E, which would require them to leave home for a year without any remunneration from the government and labor in a conscientious objector's camp.

We discover that some men placed in Class 4-E feel that they have been given a very satisfactory classification, not realizing what this fact means. They are startled beyond words when they discover that this is going to require them to leave home for a year to work in a con-scientious objector's camp without pay. We have been able to help some of these men to a reclassifica-tion, and are quite willing to help others who desire such help.

We do feel, however, that our men should make themselves acquainted with the basic facts of this matter of classification and see to it when they are not classified properly that they appeal for reclassification within the five days' time limit which is granted for such appeals.

A 4-E classification is a wrong classification for a Seventh-day Ad-ventist unless, of course, the individ-ual conscience of the registrant is such that it impels him to go far be-yond any position the denomination has ever taken.

TOO GOOD TO KEEP

The good things you have enjoyed in LIFE AND HEALTH will be appreciated just as much by others who, perhaps, have greater need for them. For instance, there may be among your acquaintances some who use liquor or tobacco as a matter of habit, without realizing what the consequences may be. Many readers, after gaining from LIFE AND HEALTH an understanding of the harmfulness of these habits and how to overcome them, have made radical changes in their way of living.

Because such subjects as the relation of liquor and tobacco to health are dealt with in a calm, scientific way that breaks down prejudice and brings satisfying results, LIFE AND HEALTH is often the entering wedge for the presentation of even more helpful counsel for right living. Remember that with LIFE AND HEALTH this special half-price offer is not a year-round proposition for our people, but only for a brief time in the spring.

To avoid any mistake in ordering, remember the name LIFE AND HEALTH.
