Medical Cadet Training Camp

LAST year there was held for the first time in our union a Medical Cadet Corps training camp near Reading, Pennsylvania. Two-thirds of the men in attendance represented corps already organized and hence had had a little of the course of training before coming to camp. The remainder of the men were such young men from isolated homes and smaller churches where the training would not be available and hence came to camp to get the actual course of training.

Several months ago the Columbia Union Conference Committee authorized us to make application for this same camp site for the month of August for another Medical Cadet Corps training camp. Last January the General Conference Committee, in their desire to give strength to our Medical Cadet Corps work, employed Dr. E. N. Dick to act as director of training, especially for the officers of our organized corps. With this thought in mind the General Conference Commission on National Service and Medical Cadet Training has laid plans for three officers' training camps—one in the north Pacific for the western area, one for the central area, and the third for the eastern region.

Hence, there really will be two separate camps carried on simultaneously from August 17 to 31 near Reading, Pennsylvania, the one for officers and the other for cadets.

The officers' training camp will specialize more in methods than it will in the course itself, while the cadet training will cover as much of the course of training as is possible in a two weeks' camp.

A committee was appointed by the General Conference Commission to plan for each of these camps and the committee for the eastern area met at the Columbia Union Conference office on April 22 with representatives from the Atlantic, Columbia, and Southern Unions. We have a total of 55 organized Medical Cadet Corps within these three eastern unions and we believe that we shall have to limit the attendance at the officers' camp to an average of two per organized corps, thus leaving room for the cadet camp at the same time.

The cost of attending this camp to the individual will be $20 plus transportation. The attendance shall be limited to the following classes:

1. Staff officers of regularly organized Medical Cadet Corps.
2. Medical Cadets with leadership ability who have had at least 75 per cent of the course of training.
3. Men with military training and experience.
4. Doctors, by virtue of their professional training.

We are giving publicity to the officers' camp at this early date so that those interested may give it consideration and lay their plans accordingly. We hope to have circulars in the field before so very long and we welcome correspondence from those interested.

Our Medical School

C. R. ANDERSON

NEARLY four score years ago the fathers of our faith received their first counsels on health. Common diseases were to be treated and practical instruction given in a health center which was yet to be established. For this purpose the pioneers purchased and renovated an old Battle Creek farmhouse—a truly inconspicuous ancestor to the vast medical program to which we as a people are committed.

Perhaps their greatest venture of faith was the establishment of a medical school. Sanitariums and hospitals needed physicians highly qualified not only in scientific studies but also devoted to the principles of the Ministry of Healing. To meet this need the American Medical Missionary College at Battle Creek was inaugurated.

Loma Linda, the next great venture, was established amid floods of difficulty. When scores of other medical schools were closing their doors, its brave founders dared to follow the divine instruction.

Loma Linda has neither forgotten its humble origin nor the ideals for which it was established. Medical evangelism was the keystone of its creation and the only reason for its existence.

Several months ago the Board of Trustees of the Medical College gave consideration to the production of a book illustrating the various phases of our medical work from an educational standpoint. They authorized the Student-Faculty Association, headed by the Dean of the Los Angeles Division, Doctor W. E. Macpherson, to proceed with this publication. As a result, a beautiful book has been produced which many think a work of art, containing one hundred and ninety-two pages of fine large pictures showing our early pioneers and the beginning of our medical work, followed by a review of the medical course from the day a student enters Loma Linda until he is graduated.

This book is entitled "The March of C. M. E." The photography is excellent, and the descriptive reading matter sets forth the principles on which we as a people take our stand. Missionary ideals are well expressed, several pages being devoted to those who have laid down their lives in service for God.

The price is $3. Those interested may order through their local Book and Bible House or direct from "The March of C. M. E.," White Memorial Hospital, Los Angeles, California.

News Notes

BROTHER H. E. VOORHEES visited the Princeton and Bluefield Churches over the week-end of May 10. On Saturday evening he conducted an Investiture service in the Princeton Church at which time there were one Sunbeam, two Friends, two Companions, and two Master Companions invested. On Sunday evening he showed pictures of India to a very appreciative audience in the Bluefield Church.

On Monday, May 12, Brother Voorhees visited several isolated members at Worth, Keystone, and Davy, West Virginia. These little towns are all in the southern part of the state.

Elder N. S. Ashton, of Charleston, recently left for San Francisco where he will be a delegate to the General Conference.

Brother Stephen Pauly, pastor of the Huntington Church, is planning to conduct a public effort near Huntington.

Plans are underway for the erection of a tabernacle in Bluefield. Elder R. L. Boothby will conduct an effort at this place beginning September 1.

Brother and Sister I. C. Van Horn, of the Chesapeake Conference, were recent visitors at the office on their way to the General Conference. We were glad to welcome these former workers back to our conference.

Mr. J. S. Knox, president of the Knox Business Book company, has written an interesting letter to one of our field leaders. In his letter he writes as follows:

"I sold books for five summers as a student. It is my honest conviction that my book-selling experience has not only doubled but quadrupled my influence and success in life. If a young man will train carefully and sell books for three or four summers, it will be worth infinitely more to him than if someone gave him ten thousand dollars.

"Selling books develops leadership, self-confidence, ability to influence, personal power, and executive ability. These qualities help to make success inevitable and failure impossible. I congratulate any young man who has the wisdom and foresight to profit by such a remarkable experience!"

There are many young men and women who should spend the summer working with our message-filled literature. If you have not already responded to the call, will you not say, "Here am I Lord, send me?"

THANK YOU: A number of churches trebled their Missions Extension offering over last year. Seventeen new mission projects will be established through the sacrificial gifts and intensive activities of the officers and members of these churches.

BAPTISM: Elder Quackenbush has just baptized four in Norfolk. Three of these are for the Norfolk Church and one is for our Portsmouth Church.

YOUTH'S ACTIVITIES: Realizing that only a brief moment of time remains before Christ returns, the young people of our conference have actively engaged in missionary work during the last year. It is interesting to know that for each young person, one Bible Reading has been given, four missionary visits have been made, eight hours of Christian Help Work have been rendered, and fifty pieces of literature have been given out.

Cadet Corps Graduation Exercises

THE first Medical Cadet Corps graduation exercises in Ohio were held in Springfield for the Springfield-Dayton Corps on April 10. The program was unusually interesting and showed that a great deal of effort had been put into the cadet corps work and that great things have been accomplished. The meeting was held in the church and was an inspiration to everyone who attended. The following program was rendered:

Processional March; Presentation of Flag; Song, "As A Volunteer," Entire Corps; Invocation, Pastor Osborn; History of Corps No. II, Cadet Captain Robert L. Farish; First Aid Demonstration, By Cadets; "Love Sends a Little Gift," Presented by Cadet Corps; Trio, "Our Endeavor," Cadets Swisshelm, Ruth, Grogg; Introduction of Speaker, Cadet Lt. Col. O. S. Hershberger; Address, Cadet Col. C. P. Sorensen; Presentation of Diplomas; Benediction.

We were especially fortunate to have with us Cadet Colonel C. P. Sorensen, who gave the graduation address and presented the diplomas.

The first aid demonstrations were performed very efficiently and indicated that the medical cadets had really learned some valuable lessons.

The subject, "Love Sends a Little Gift," was the presentation of an especially well-equipped first-aid kit to the church school.

A special feature of the work of this corps was the fact that each cadet made for himself a first-aid kit. No two were alike, and all were very good, with some having special features. One cadet even had three nickels fastened in his kit to facilitate making telephone calls if necessary. One of the kits was made of wood and had inlaid work. Some were made of metal, and it surely was surprising to see the ingenuity manifested by the different cadets. These kits contained more supplies and necessary equipment than any kit that could be purchased.

The work of the corps showed strong leadership, and much credit is due the leadership of Commanding Officer Medical Cadet Major N. Coffelt and the other members of his staff. Much credit also is due the medical cadets for their cooperation.

The following cadets received certificates of graduation:

Circle, Jack C.	Hawthorne, James W.
Click, J. Oliver	James, Perry W.
Coffelt, Noah A.	Kistler, Samuel J.
Cooper, Joseph	Leffel, Russel G.
Farish, Robert L.	Loftus, Phillip A.

Ford, Edison Leo	Ruth, Erwin W.
Franks, Holland	Schaefer, Warren E.

Goodman, Fred	Snapp, J. Clifford
Grady, Max Leroy	Swadener, James F.
Grogg, Charles E.	Swisshelm, Harry L.
Grogg, LeRoy A.	Warman, Bernard

We know that these men had good training and will be of greater value to their country should they be called into service and also will be useful in their community should a local emergency arise.

Ohio Colporteur Flash

A LADY gave me an order for "Beacon Lights," and when I went to get her first deposit, she asked who published the book, saying if it was a Seventh-day Adventist book, she did not want it. She was ready for an argument. I sat there, looking at her, and praying that the Lord would show me what to tell her. Finally she asked me, "Who are you anyway?" I replied, "It doesn't matter who I am. I am here to help you find out more about God in His Holy Word." She said, "I know you don't belong to that Seventh-day Adventist Church, because all they do is go around condemning folk because they don't go to church on Saturday." I told her, "I am not looking for denominations. They won't save you nor me. This work which I represent will help us decide the question right. God made the decision long, long ago, and all true Christians will obey His voice." Then she asked, "To what church do you belong?" I answered, "I am a Seventh-day Adventist." She said, "Why didn't you tell me? You are not like the others I met." After a long chat, she gave me a deposit, and then said, "I am a Catholic." Pray that this work will win her to Christ.

Wedding

A QUIET, but pretty wedding was solemnized in the home of the pastor in Akron, Ohio, Thursday evening, May 1, at 8:00 o'clock, when Miss Mary Price became the bride of Mr. Kenneth Russell. Elder Leon Robbins officiated at the ceremony. The many friends of this happy couple wish them every blessing of heaven as they go forth unitedly in the service of God.

"Received Spiritual Uplift"

THE following interesting letter testifies to the power and influence of the printed page:

"I picked up your Present Truth copy, Vol. 12, No. 37, in a bus the other day and read it with deep interest. I received a spiritual uplift, and I'd like to give out some. Place my name on your mailing list for a year's subscription, please. I'm a church member of a large Presbyterian Church and the Bible class for men. I want much more good spiritual food. Your little paper has the true message, I feel."

Another writes:

"I found an old copy of the Present Truth and I was wondering if you still publish it. If so, will you please send me a copy of it, and how much is it for a year?"

And still another:

"I had never heard of the Present Truth until someone gave me a subscription to it, but it clarified my somewhat nebulous beliefs and cleared up so many perplexing questions for me. I wish to continue my subscription and pass on its help to my best beloved friends and relatives."

Remember to place inquiring friends, neighbors, or strangers on the Present Truth mailing list for a year at the small investment of only 35 cents each, or three yearly subscriptions to any address in the United States for $1.

Help scatter the printed page and many will in turn testify they "received spiritual uplift."

Bible Studies Through a Mirror

LAST Sabbath evening, May 3, after Elder Cheatham and I had finished the day's program with four of the churches on the Eastern Shore, we called at the hospital to see the local elder of the Millsboro Church, Brother Emery Norwood.

Brother Norwood, six weeks before, had fallen under a moving truck and had been quite seriously injured. Brother Norwood is a very active man in the leadership of his church as local elder, and also in his personal missionary experience.

In the hospital he was placed in a room by himself, so there was no one close by for whom he could labor. One day as he lay on his bed, he looked up into his looking glass and discovered he could see the man who lay on a bed in a room across the hallway from his room. He informed this brother that he could see him in the looking glass, and they began to converse and get acquainted.

They had not talked very long until Brother Norwood asked him concerning his religious experience. Arrangements were made so this brother across the hall in the other room could get hold of a Bible. Brother Norwood then began to give him a series of Bible studies from memory as he lay upon his bed recovering from the accident.

Another way in which Brother Norwood helped this man and other individuals in near-by rooms was by the use of his small radio receiving set. He could get Elder Boothby's sermons out of Wilmington, Delaware very readily, so each day he would turn on his radio to Elder Boothby's discourse and invite his fellow patients to listen in.

As a result of this earnest work on the part of Brother Norwood, we found the young man in the room across the way deeply interested in the truth, and I would not be surprised to see this young man take his stand definitely in the near future.

As we talked with Brother Norwood and observed the very unusual way he gave these Bible studies and carried on his work in the hospital, we were impressed by the fact that where the heart of the individual is filled with the love of Jesus, a way will always be found by which we may be a blessing to others.

We trust that Brother Norwood may soon be restored to his usual vigor and health, and be returned to his family and to the church in Millsboro.

We invite the members throughout the Chesapeake Conference to pray for Brother Norwood and his family and for the prosperity of the Millsboro Church.

THE Plainfield Academy with its new building and enlarged faculty is in a position to place twenty of our good Seventh-day Adventist girls in beautiful homes in the vicinity of the academy where, during summer months for full time service, they can earn from eight to twelve dollars a week and save money for school purposes. The homes are very exceptional and are constantly supervised by the faculty of the Academy, and this is an exceptional opportunity for some of our good girls to earn an education. With reasonable care they can earn their way through the Academy and if frugal, save money for college.

We need these girls now, and just as soon as school is out. We want girls of good character who otherwise could not go to our regular academy. Contact us today if you are one of these.

Write Mrs. C. C. Ellis, Principal, Plainfield Academy, 622 W. 8th Street, Plainfield, New Jersey.

● The General Conference Religious Liberty Department has informed us of a drastic barber shop Sunday closing bill that has been introduced into both Houses of Congress. Information has gone out to Conference workers and church elders, and we are urged to sign petitions and write letters of protest, trusting that this bill may be stayed. It will take some alertness and good work at this time that the enemy may not gain a serious advantage just now. Let all read and heed well and act on the information and warning sent.

● We are very pleased to have Elder Julius G. White, author, traveler, lecturer, and president of the Associated Lecturers Incorporated, of Madison College, Tennessee, come into our New Jersey field. He is scheduled to have a series of his outstanding health lectures and classes in the Trenton Church beginning Friday night, May 16, and extending to May 29; and in the Newark English Church beginning Friday night, May 30 to June 12. His opening meeting on the Friday evenings in each case is a very special meeting illustrated with some of the finest pictures ever seen along the lines of God in nature and the marvels of the snow. All our people, not only members of these two churches, but those living within a radius of fifty miles, will want to attend. There is no charge for these health lectures or classes.

● We welcomed into our field in recent weeks Elder H. J. Detwiler, Elder J. C. Holland, Professor J. P. Neff, Elder C. P. Sorensen, Elder R. G. Strickland—the new assistant manager of the Review and Herald Periodical Department,—and other appreciated workers who have conducted services in various churches throughout the Conference.

● The General Conference session, with its pre-convention meetings, is scheduled from May 22 to June 7. Delegates and associates will be traveling to and from and attending the session, and will be absent from the field for the next few weeks. However, the New Jersey Conference will remain open with a number of the workers remaining here; and a number of other workers will remain at their posts throughout the field. Necessary correspondence should be maintained with the Conference office. Letters either will be answered at once or, if the nature of the contents requires it, they will be forwarded, and in due time responses will be received. Our local church elders and other local leaders will be alert to every good opportunity and will carry the work on strongly during these weeks. You may expect your ministers to return filled with the blessings of facts of the worldwide progress of our work in all parts of the field. Pray for the General Conference and all phases of the world work.

● Most encouraging word has come recently from the Atlantic City and Jersey City evangelistic efforts. A number of very precious souls have been baptized and others are in the baptismal classes. The labor of months past is now bearing a harvest, and we all rejoice together in the seed sowing and the reaping. Other summer efforts are being planned for, and we hope by the end of the year to announce new white and colored churches established in Atlantic City, and goodly additions to other churches.

Last Act in the Drama

FOR many years Seventh-day Adventists have been telling the world that just before the Second Coming of Christ, a national Sunday law will be passed, and persecution will come to the people of God. This prediction is based on the prophecy of the Bible, found in Revelation 13: 11-18.

In "Testimonies," Volume VII, page 141, we read:

"This earth has almost reached the place where God will permit the destroyer to work his will upon it. The substitution of the laws of men for the law of God, the exaltation, by merely human authority, of Sunday in place of the Bible Sabbath, is the last act in the drama. When this substitution becomes universal, God will reveal Himself. He will arise in His majesty to shake terribly the earth. He will come out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the world for their iniquity, and the earth shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain."

Following is what Elder C. S. Longacre says in a recent letter indicating the dangers ahead of us:

"We are facing a very critical situation in Congress. Two identical bills were introduced, one in the Senate and the other in the House, which aim to close all barber shops in the District on Sunday. A hearing was held before a sub-committee of the District of Columbia, on April 29. The chairman, Congressman Schulte, of Indiana, is the author of the proposed legislation, and he made a public statement at the hearing that no exemption would be granted to those who observe another day than Sunday as holy time.

"I am a Catholic," he said, "and the Catholic Church says we must observe Sunday as the Sabbath, and the majority of the Protestants observe Sunday, and all the rest must abide by the decision of the majority."

"My bill, when it becomes a law," said he, "will line you folks up who don't want to observe Sunday." He is trying to railroad his bill through Congress in great haste, and what is done will have to be done quickly if we are going to send in petitions of protest against it. I am enclosing a sample petition, giving excerpts from the bills that show the real intent of the proposed legislation, which is so drastic that it proposes to confiscate the businesses of all who refuse to close their barber shops on the day the majority of barbers decide shall be observed."

The Religious Liberty Department in Washington has sent out petitions to conference workers and church elders against these proposed Sunday bills. Now is the time for our people to write letters and send petitions against these bills, to their Senators, and Representatives in Washington.

If you do not know the names of your Senators and Representatives, ask your postmaster, or your newspaper editor. They will give you this information. Above all things, act quickly. If you do, this matter may be held in check for the present, and give a little more time to proclaim the gospel message under favorable conditions instead of under persecution.

Juniors!!

HERE is some welcome news for you. Junior camp this year will be held on the same grounds as last year. "Uncle Ray," the naturalist, who was with us two years ago at Hickory Run, will be with us this year to direct in nature study and trails. His nature stories at the camp-fire hour will just captivate you, and then other stories of inspiration and thrilling interest will be given each evening. There will be new craft classes and things you will enjoy doing.

Swimming in Lake Hopewell has not been forgotten by the Juniors of 1940. Lake Hopewell affords great sport in swimming. Our number of Red Cross life savers will be multiplied this year. We have a class of leaders taking this special training right now, who are getting prepared to teach you how to swim more efficiently. Swimmers' buttons will be awarded those who pass the standards in various classes.

From all reports, it appears that our conference will be the only conference in the Union conducting a summer camp for Juniors. We are inviting other conferences to join us, and this is just a word of caution to you to send in your application and fee at once, so that your reservation will be made sure. We do want to favor our own Juniors first, but if you wait too long, your opportunity will be gone. Remember, there will be "TEN GOLDEN DAYS FOR TEN SILVER DOLLARS." A treat you will long remember and one you can't afford to miss. The date—August 3-13.

If you want to earn your camp money, send for camp pencils at 2 cents each. Send cash—they sell for 5 cents or 10 cents. This is a good profit. "Come, let's go to Junior Camp" is the slogan every Junior should be heard saying.

Uniform material is at your disposal—covert-cloth at 25 cents a yard, poplin at 50 cents a yard. Banks registering nickels, and dimes, holding $10, may be secured at 25 cents each. The supply is limited, so order at once.

AT LONG LAST TO LAST LONG

Because—

1. It meets the urgent entreaties from all parts of the field for a new hymnal to fit distinctive Adventist needs.

2. It contains the best of the fine old hymns, the early advent hymns, and many of the new hymns which were not heretofore available in our books.

3. It is more practically useful for regular church services, Sabbath school, young people's meetings, school chapels, and home.

4. It upholds the high ideals in music approved by the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

5. It will cultivate a taste for the best in sacred music.

6. It definitely contributes to the hour of worship and deepens the spirit of devotion and reverence in the worshippers.

7. It is a thing of beauty—the most beautiful church hymnal published in America.
