"It Is Later Than We Think"

By JOHN E. WEAVER

THE title to this article was used by a prominent historian and editorial writer a few months ago when addressing a large gathering of teachers and educators in their national convention. Among other good things, he said: "Unquestionably we are living in the most critical period of American history. The question is not whether one people or one nation will dominate in the world, but rather whether civilization itself will be able to survive this crisis hour. . . . We shall not muddle through. Our problems are too acute or too complex to be solved in a slow, ponderous manner. It is later than we think."

Other prominent national leaders and writers emphasize the same thought that we are living in a crisis hour. As students of God's word we know that "in the last days perilous times shall come." We know that we are living in the last days and whatever we do for others and for ourselves must be done today — tomorrow may be too late.

In view of conditions in the world and of the needs in our own hearts and lives, it has been decided to give special emphasis at this time to the circulation of the book "Education" during the rest of the year 1942. Perhaps there is no one book from the hands of inspiration that meets more effectively and fully the needs of our homes and churches at this time than the book "Education." The book is dedicated "to parents, teachers, and students, all pupils in earth's preparatory school. May it aid them in securing life's greatest benefits, development and joy in service here, and thus a fitness for that wider service, the 'higher course' open to every human being in the school of the hereafter."

In order to make an attractive appeal, the publishers have agreed to make a special price of $1.25 in cloth binding and 85 cents in paper binding on the book "Education" between now and December 31, 1942. The regular price of the book in the cloth is $1.75. We believe there are hundreds and even thousands of our people over the field who will desire to take advantage of this wonderful offer. Prices of paper and books are going up so we should not miss this opportunity which may not come this way again soon. In some Union Conferences a plan has been devised with the collaboration of the local and union conferences with the publishers, to make this book available during the summer months at a very special price of $1 in the cloth. All orders should be sent to your local Book and Bible House.

Good Speakers at Camp Meeting

A FEW days ago, we received a list of the visiting ministers who will contribute to the success of our camp meeting. We are very happy to find among the names that of Elder W. H. Branson. He is one of the best preachers in the denomination. I am sure our people will wish to hear the messages that Elder Branson will bring to us at camp meeting.

The Secretary of the General Conference, Elder E. D. Dick, will be present at our camp meeting and will give his usual good messages. Elder Dick has spent years in the mission field and has traveled extensively since connecting with the General Conference as Secretary. He will bring to us some timely messages.

Every field is happy to have one of its own members, who has made outstanding success, return to the homeland. Elder C. S. Longacre, who has for more than twenty years served the cause of Religious Liberty in America, will deliver his usual fine messages.

The young people will be pleased to know that Dr. J. E. Weaver, of the General Conference Educational Department, will be with us at our annual gathering. Dr. Weaver will also give valuable instruction to our parents. Then, of course, there will be our excellent Union corps of workers. Elder Robbins has only recently left us. Our people will welcome him back to the field. His associates in the Union will be in attendance at our camp meeting and will give their timely messages. You cannot afford to miss this feast of good things at our camp meeting. Plan to come and remain throughout the ten-day session, and hear some good preaching.

What Have You Done?

ENCOURAGING reports are coming in from the churches that have started the Ingathering. "How is it going?" we ask. The answer is always, "Better than ever before."

One brother, who has always depended on the singing band method for reaching his goal, thought he would try the house-to-house solicitation this year. He reports that in about two hours one Sunday morning he received over $8. Yes, it is going very well for those who have started, but delay may be disastrous. We do not know what a day will bring forth. Startling things happen over night. Now is the opportune time to work. What have you done?

God expects each one to do his part and do it quickly. Are you going to have your goal when you come to camp meeting? It can be done, and all who launch out with that purpose in mind will find victory assured. Come to camp meeting and tell us that you and your church are "over the top." God is richly blessing His people. Let us work and pray as never before.

News Notes

ELDER L. HALSWICK, of the Bureau of Home Missions of the General Conference, visited the Italian churches in Philadelphia on Sabbath, June 13, staying over Sunday to visit with our foreign workers. His visit was greatly appreciated by our Italian believers in this city.

On Monday, June 8, the Conference workers in the Philadelphia area met at the home of W. H. Jones to bid farewell to Brother and Sister C. J. Sumner, who were leaving for their new field of labor in West Pennsylvania. As a token of their love and esteem, the workers presented Brother and Sister Sumner with a beautiful lamp for their new home. Brother Sumner has turned his Book and Bible House work over to his successor, Brother C. H. Boyts from Florida, and is now located in the Pittsburgh office.

Baptisms were conducted in the Philadelphia churches on Sabbath, June 13. Elder Mitchell baptized eight in the West Philadelphia Church, Elder Guenther baptized eight for the Media Church, and Elder Maloney five in the Italian church. We are glad for these additions to our churches in this district.

The North Philadelphia Church recently installed two large electric fans which contribute much to the comfort of the worshipers on Sabbath. The West Philadelphia Church had previously installed fans of the same type. We believe this is a good investment and makes our Sabbath worship in the summer time much more enjoyable.

The Conference Committee met at the Conference office recently and appointed the personnel of our camp meeting. Elder J. A. Dominiski, who has been asked to act as camp superintendent, will be ably assisted by a fine corps of workers.

Remember our camp meeting date—July 9 to 19. Notices and reservation blanks have already been mailed to every family in the Conference, and we will do our best to fill every order as requested. However, it is not always possible to do that, and we hope that everyone will be satisfied with the accommodations provided. Where cabins are not available, we can furnish good tents. All our tents are floored and are practically new and waterproof. Let nothing keep you from these important meetings. If you have not made reservations, do so at once by writing to the Conference office.

Church clerks are requested to send in the list of delegates from their churches at once.

Philadelphia Academy

THE Philadelphia Academy closed its school year with graduation exercises held at the North Philadelphia Church on Sunday evening, June 7. Elder Frank H. Yost of the Washington Theological Seminary gave the Commencement address.

Baccalaureate services were held at the West Church on Sabbath, when Elder John Mitchell preached the sermon. On the preceding Friday evening the senior class presented a vesper service in music and poetry at the Temple Church.

A large percentage of the seniors who were graduated are planning to attend our colleges next year, that they may further educate themselves for the Lord's work in the capacities of ministers, doctors, nurses, and other workers.

It is hoped that the high ambitions of these young people may be met, and that Philadelphia Academy may continue in helping our youth to prepare for His work.

Literature Work

DEAR fellow believers in West Pennsylvania:

It is a real pleasure to be associated with you. I enjoy my work here in this great conference. I am glad to report some of the good things that are happening in the literature ministry, and I know that you will rejoice with me over the great success that is attending our efforts.

We now have over 30 colporteurs and our reports are getting larger each week. The band of faithful, tried and true regulars has recently been augmented by 15 students. I am sure you would like to know just who these students are and where they are working. We have three fine young men from Washington Missionary College. They are: Christopher Heil, who is working in Connellsville; Lee Wilson, in Pittsburgh; and Louis Cornelius, who is working in Altoona. Stanley Emerson, from Eldred, is working in Altoona. Ray Rose and Tom Mulkey, from Mt. Vernon Academy, are working in Potter County.

Sister Pangborn has a fine corps of workers. Among these are Mary Penrod, valedictorian at Mt. Vernon Academy and scholarship winner of last year. Mary expects to enroll at Washington Missionary College this fall. She is helping to instruct others in the field this year. Lois Miller, Frances Jordan, and Elizabeth Gimler, also from Mt. Vernon, are doing well. With us are three fine girls from Washington Missionary College, Amelia Jack, Joyce Hopper, and Eldora Anderson, who also won scholarships. Florence and Marie Dudley come to us from Princeton, West Virginia. They expect to earn scholarships to Mt. Vernon.

Sister Harris has some outstanding students from Oakwood Junior College and Atlantic Union College. They are as follows: Cordell Evans, Virginia Greene, James Robinson, and Sam Darby. These students are doing fine work toward earning their scholarships.

I know that you join with me in welcoming this fine army of Adventist youth to our field. Let us pray for their success.

To date we have delivered over $12,000 in books and magazines and lead all conferences in maga-

This looks as though it is going to be our best year for the circulation of our literature. Employment is at a new peak. Our varied industries are not equaled anywhere. During the past month Elder E. L. Hanson baptized six souls.

Elder H. E. Kotz has charge of the district formerly presided over by Elder W. R. Riston, having the following churches: Annapolis, Laurel, and Spencerville, Maryland. Elder Kotz gives his address as Route 3, Rockville, Maryland.

Ingathering Notes

THE Rock Hall and Grasonville Churches are responding vigorously to the urgent call for a short and intense Ingathering campaign this year. The first four weeks of effort reveal the fact that a large percentage of the membership is having an active and enjoyable part in the campaign. Twenty-five Minute-Man pins have already been awarded and quite a number more will be given out before the campaign closes within the next few weeks.

Our aim is to visit every home in Kent and Queen Anne counties, not only with the Ingathering report, but with announcements of the Voice of Prophecy radio programs and Voice of Prophecy message-filled papers. A large list of names of interested people has already been secured and other issues of Voice of Prophecy papers are to be mailed to these people immediately following the Ingathering program.

In spite of thinning tire treads and diminishing gasoline supplies our energetic and self-sacrificing brethren and sisters are moving forward in faith with the glorious message. We feel strongly that the hour is late and we must coordinate our soul-saving program with our great "air force," the Voice of Prophecy radio program.

Farewell Gathering

A FAREWELL social gathering was held Saturday evening, May 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Toms, Blue Ridge Summit, Pennsylvania, in honor of Miss Dorothy Boyer, the church school teacher of the Smithsburg Church. Friends and members of the Smithsburg and Pondsville Churches expressed in kind words and many lovely gifts their appreciation of the splendid work done by Miss Boyer throughout this past school year. May God bless Miss Boyer as she continues to labor in the Master's vineyard.

The beginnings were comparatively small, but the steady attendance at the meetings was encouraging. The Spirit of God attended the preaching, the visiting, and the giving of Bible studies; and on May 16, under God's blessing, a fine little church was organized.

The writer has been asked to follow up Elder Boothby's work in Bluefield, and the Elkins work is being carried on very efficiently by Elder A. E. Holst. Elder Holst is continuing with the meetings, and there is every prospect of a number

Greater Needs of Missions

WE rejoice that the message is now being proclaimed in 412 countries and that last year 81 new missionaries were sent to mission lands. The needs are greater this year than they have ever been before as we are re-occupying Ethiopia, doing more work in the hinterlands of many divisions, and are opening new territories. Many countries torn by war, with our people persecuted and workers interned, are unable this year to do Ingathering or to donate funds. Divisions that formerly were self-supporting in their work, are now dependent upon the Ingathering funds of this year to maintain their missionaries.

In September the Voice of Prophecy radio program will be extended to Latin America. These plans of carrying the message to the entire Western Hemisphere call for a large outlay of funds. Your Minute-Man goals this year will greatly help in defraying these extra expenses.

By raising two Minute-Man goals your church will have a large part in the saving of souls, will open up new mission sections, will aid our brothers and sisters in war-torn lands around the earth unable to ingather this year.

The title bestowed upon young Christian missionaries by Koreans, who had been watching their tireless zeal, was "The Jesus Doctrine Doing People." May this name characterize the members, youth and juniors of the churches of the Potomac Conference in their enthusiastic Doing for Missions and in their Minute-Man service.

News Notes

Brother T. J. Jenkins reports that ten have taken their stand for the Sabbath as a result of the effort now in progress in Newport News. A church dedication is being planned for the near future, and it is hoped to have a baptism on that date.

Wedding Bells

A HAPPY wedding service was held at the home of Elder and Mrs. William A. Butler in Takoma Park, Maryland, May 31, 1942. The groom was Mr. William C. Hatch of New Jersey and the bride, Miss Glenna Christine Manuel of Luray, Virginia. Miss Manuel was a nurse at the Washington Sanitarium and Mr. Hatch, a theological student at Washington Missionary College.

Besides relatives of the bride and groom, a number of friends were also present at the wedding, and it was a happy occasion for all.

Mr. Hatch will continue his school work in preparation for the ministry. They are making their residence in Takoma Park, Maryland. We wish this newly wedded couple God's richest blessing as they take up their life's duties in the strength of unity.

The wedding service was performed by the writer.

Growth of Hamlet Church

TO DATE 12 persons have united with the Hamlet Church as a result of the effort held by the writer in Batavia. The baptism was held on June 6 in the Cincinnati Berea Church. All these members have proved faithful, for they have attended the Hamlet Church the last three or four months.

The Hamlet Church is the result of an effort held by Evangelist Boothby in the summer of 1940, in connection with his Cincinnati campaign. The church when organized had a membership of 63 and at present has 91 members.

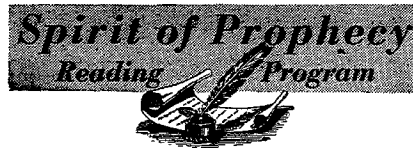

The writer, who spent his first year of internship with the Hamlet Church, will now be connected with the Hamilton and Wilmington Churches.

our literature. In response to these appeals, the brethren and sisters came forward and purchased many books. . . . Most of the purchasers paid for the books they took. A few arranged to pay afterwards.

In the stirring times to which we have come, surely this prediction will be fulfilled this year in a still larger way than ever before on our New Jersey camp ground.

Let us urge each one, young and old alike, to come prepared to buy books and tracts, both for ourselves and for our neighbors and friends. Come to camp meeting this year and enjoy the spiritual feast. Come and spend your money for things that will save souls for the Kingdom of Christ. M. A. PADEN

Farewell

As we look back over the seven years of our sojourn in New Jersey, it is with a great deal of pleasure that we think of our many friends. It is not easy to leave you, but your inspiration will ever go with us.

Looking forward to our new field at Cleveland, Ohio, we are assured that we shall find the same kind, good people that we have found here, for "blest be the tie that binds." The one Saviour makes us one people wherever we are; and soon, if we are all faithful, we shall be in the land where there are no partings. Good-bye, and may God bless each one of you.

Oh, if we could only realize what we could do if ALL our members would rally to this great challenge. Already 35,000 are enrolled—but that should be but the beginning! Let us do this work while it can still be done. Won't you start gathering enrollments — THIS WEEK? TIME IS SHORT!

Just one letter from the many this week: "I was in Indiana and was in touch with a Seventh-day Adventist church there. I was just ready to step out and keep the Sabbath when the government moved us to California. I am a Mennonite and the church controls our religious activities and they will not allow me to work on Sunday and I must work six days a week—so the only way I can see to do is to take my stand on the Sabbath and see what will happen later. I would like to go to a Seventh-day Adventist church and wonder if there is one near here. I have had some surprising experiences this last year by finding out what some other individuals have been thinking and studying about Sabbath observance. Our last Sunday school quarterly shows very plainly that we are not keeping the right Sabbath."

of more souls' being added to this newly organized church. We praise God for the manifestation of His power in this field, and pray that the Elkins Church will shed its light on fields both near and far.

While working in Elkins, I was in charge of the Clarksburg district. On Sabbath, May 9, the Clarksburg Church was made happy as it witnessed six souls being buried with their Lord in baptism. This was accomplished through the Spirit's using the local elder of the church, Brother Samuel Minesinger, and the writer. Brother Minesinger has been a wonderful help to the Clarksburg Church, as faithfully and unselfishly he has administered to their needs. Under his leadership also the appearance of the church building has been greatly improved. The sight witnessed on this day has greatly encouraged the believers of Clarksburg, and we trust that a greater work shall be done in this city as a result.

TODAY I feel like I must write and unload what is on my heart. This week's mail has brought us the largest number of records of conversion thus far. Oh, I wish you could see just one week's mail! EVERY DAY brings miraculous experiences of redeemed lives.

I appeal to you of North America to rally to gathering enrollments in the Free Radio Bible Correspondence Course of 26 lessons. This course covers the entire message for this day and brings people all the way into the Truth.

You should endeavor to enroll every one of your relatives, not in the fold. You should try to get every interested friend enrolled.

This is the grandest type of missionary work, for every enrollee is a wonderful prospect. Our people should go out by the thousands to enlist every person in their community in this course. But we must act quickly! "TIME IS SHORT!"

How to START? We have printed radio logs which describe the free Correspondence Course. On it is a place to enroll. Every letter written by Adventists these days should carry one of these announcements appealing to all to enroll. Order these by the hundreds from your Conference Radio Secretary, or write for them direct to the Voice of Prophecy, Box 55, Los Angeles, California. These can also be used in door-to-door distribution.

Our churches should organize to solicit every home in the community for enrollment. For this we have prepared an attractive 18-page prospectus which fully describes the course and contains sample lessons. We provide a letter of instructions and canvass with each prospectus; the latter has room to enroll over 200 people. Write your Conference Radio Secretary for a free supply of these for your church, immediately.

We have prepared sample advertisements and pictures to put in your local newspapers. In these ads are coupons for enrollments in the Correspondence Course. These announcements should be
