Medical Cadet Corps Graduations

By CHRIS P. SORENSEN

DURING the past two months we have had a goodly number of Cadet Corps graduations around the circle of the Columbia Union.

The first of these graduations on which we have not reported was held early in April at Toledo, Ohio. This was the second group of men to go through the course there under an intensive program. The work was completed under Captain Crawford in about six months' time.

Early in May we were in Ohio again, and included in our appointments was a graduation of the young men's and women's corps at the Mount Vernon Academy. This is the second year that such training has been offered at Mount Vernon under the joint leadership of Elder Farley and Professor Edwards. A very fine program had been prepared which we believe was enjoyed by all.

Shenandoah Valley Academy also has offered Medical Cadet training for the past two years and we are only sorry that the graduation planned for May 16 was canceled at the last moment.

A most impressive graduation was held at the College during the chapel period of May 17 when their three corps performed on the campus and received their certificates. This is the fifth year that Medical Cadet training has been offered at the College under the leadership of Commanders Brown and McNeil, and the first year of Women's Medical Corps work under Commander Vandermark. During the past school year a Junior Medical Corps was organized under the leadership of Commander Stewart in the Training School with 37 members. We were much pleased with this first endeavor with the juniors.

Additional inspiration and color was added to our College graduation in that the newly organized and uniformed band provided the music under the very able leadership of Professor George Wargo.

About a year ago a Medical Cadet Corps was organized in the Allentown-Bethlehem district of East Pennsylvania. A small, but faithful group was able to finish the training in spite of gasoline rationing and we are happy that we could meet with them on a recent Wednesday evening just after they completed their course. We are sure that these men will be repaid for their faithful services.

During the past week-end we attended a cadet graduation at Plainfield Academy, a Women's Corps graduation at Philadelphia, and another at Hatboro, Pennsylvania. This is really the third group at Plainfield, New Jersey, though it is the first group confined strictly to the Academy. Commander Besenyei has been with the Corps since the very first as have most of the other officers.

The Women's Corps at Philadelphia under Mrs. Helen Karsch was organized over a year ago and the ladies gave a very fine demonstration of the training received.

At Hatboro the Women's Corps under the leadership of Mrs. McKendrick, commander, have likewise carried on for about a year. This group also rendered a very fine program and demonstration with attention to every little detail.

At many of these graduations there were representatives from the Red Cross and Civilian Defense. Here at the College many in all three groups "stepped up" and were inducted into the Civilian Defense organization; and so our people are rendering service.

"Will Try Again"

By J. R. FERREN

Secretary, General Conference Bureau of Publicity

THE headline, "Dorcas Society Holds Meeting," introduces a report in the Chester, Pennsylvania Times. A luncheon and business meeting of the Dorcas Society of the Chester Seventh-day Adventist Church was held at the Y.W.C.A., with Mrs. Anna Mills, of Norristown, president of the East Pennsylvania Dorcas Federation, speaker. "Mrs. Mills praised the work of the society in helping the needy, sick, and aged."

There are just eleven lines in the story. The church press secretary sending the clipping expresses disappointment because it is "only about a third" of what she had written. "I will try again soon," she adds.

While it is splendid to always "try again,"—the spirit of determination that wins in writing for the press—let us consider how really worthwhile is this brief report of the Dorcas Society.

It isn't news to you that our organizations are helping the needy, the sick, and the aged. But, isn't it quite probable that even the name "Seventh-day Adventists" may mean nothing at all to many of the more than 25,000 persons who get the Chester Times? The commendation given these people for their labor of love by the speaker at their Dorcas meeting will surely make a favorable impression. It may influence some to look into other activities of the Adventists, and perhaps their teachings.

This is the vision we must constantly have of the importance of our work with the press. It is not necessarily the length of the story that counts, but the information it gives. No one can estimate the influence of this. The Lord's Spirit may use something which seems very common to us to arouse curiosity and an interest to learn more. Our churches are finding their newspapers usually friendly and very willing to cooperate. Every church should plan for press representation. And whatever our success, individually or collectively, we should always have the attitude of the sister whose experience gave inspiration for this word of encouragement, "I will try again."

Noncombatancy Army Assignments

By CARLYLE B. HAYNES

A NEW general order has been issued from General Staff Headquarters with reference to army assignments for 1-A-O men. This strengthens former general orders assigning 1-A-O men to the medical department alone. It goes beyond former orders in making positive that assignment will not be made to other arms of service.

The new General Order is in Circular No. 121, dated May 17, 1943, and is as follows:

"II. Conscientious objectors.—Paragraph 1, section V, Circular No. 29, War Department, 1943, is rescinded and the following substituted therefor:

"1. Trainees whose status as conscientious objectors has been established and who are received for processing and assignment will be assigned to medical replacement training centers if qualified for general military service, or to medical units or detachments as directed by the Commanding Generals, Army Air Forces, Army Ground Forces, or service commands. Conscientious objectors will not be assigned to other arms or services.

"(A.G. 383 2 (5-4-43).)

"By order of the Secretary of War:

"G. C. MARSHALL,

"Chief of Staff."

Our Missions Speak for the Ingathering

THE work of Seventh-day Adventists is appreciated.

In response to requests from the Ethiopian government we are sending doctors and nurses to staff hospitals in that country. Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Weber (both physicians) were recently flown into Ethiopia, and are busy there. They were previously in Alaska.

Elder H. E. Kotz and wife have just returned from this country to their mission headquarters in Tanganyika, East Africa.

Three experienced men who spent many years in China are now waiting for passage to return there. They have large chests of medicines in readiness to take and use in helping the sick and the wounded.

In New Guinea, the Solomon Islands, and other places in the South Seas, our Christian native men are known to the soldiers as "fuzzy wuzzy angels." This is because of their deeds of bravery and labors of love in giving assistance to the Allied forces. This influence has gone abroad, and because of it the business men and others in Australia have doubled and tripled their Ingathering gifts this year.

On the Amazon River in Brazil, South America, in regions where a large American corporation is now establishing rubber plantations and building up the necessary plants and equipment for producing rubber, Brother and Sister L. B. Halliwell, nurses, have for years operated three medical missionary boats. They know the country and the people and how to minister to their physical needs. The officials of the rubber company are working closely with these missionaries, getting from them valuable aid and counsel.

Plainfield Academy

OUR many friends of the Plainfield Academy will be interested to know that we have closed another successful school year. In spite of the troublesome times in which we live, and the draft, which has taken a number of our best students, we still had a good enrollment and have graduated a class of 22 earnest young men and women. A high percentage plan to enter college either immediately or in the fall. Some are starting the pre-medical and ministerial courses at Washington Missionary College summer school, which opened June 14, the day after our commencement.

On June 10 the class night program was given in the Y.W.C.A. Friday evening, June 11, the consecration service was conducted by Brother Philip Broeckel at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church. On Sabbath, June 12, Elder F. H. Robbins presented the baccalaureate sermon in the same beautiful large meeting room of this church. Sunday evening Dr.

B. G. Wilkinson presented the commencement address.

The graduates are listed as follows: class president, John Young; vice-president, Lillian Coon; valedictorian, Philip Broeckel; Salutatorian, Patricia McDonnell; secretary, Irene Kerpits; treasurer, Newton Kinzer; religious secretary, Emma Kinzer. The rest of the class are as follows: Jean Black, Esther Simkins, Elvin Feltman, Ray Kimmick, Joseph Kulski, Ada Mae Graham, Eva Covey, Shirley Coon, Emma Coon, Ellen Miles, John Meyer, Ruth Zimmerman, Charles Boorse, Jack King, Dorothy Pierce. The class has chosen for its—

Elder Conger and the school board are planning liberally for a stronger and better school next year. In addition to the new science table which was installed last summer, we shall have much-needed science equipment, which will add greatly to the interest and strength of our science department. A typewriting department is to be added this next year, much to the joy of many of the students who are very anxious to take up this line of study.

There are four new offices being built in our large front portico. These offices will add greatly to the comfort and efficiency and ease of the business office, placement bureau, and the principal's work with the students. We shall now be able to use our beautiful library for its original purpose. We feel certain that the students will greatly enjoy this library with its circassian walnut walls and shelves. This room with soft lighting will make an ideal place in which to study. Dr. Selah Silvers will have one of the new offices for his dental clinic two or three days each week. This dental clinic will be a great blessing to the school and church members in Plainfield, and no doubt will certainly be an added asset to the school.

Plainfield, with its natural beauty and cultural surroundings, is an ideal place in which to learn lessons from the Word of God and nature. Here one can feel the sweet Spirit of God striving with the heart; here indeed may be found the true spirit of worship. And should we not be able to lead the children to love and follow the Creator of all these good and perfect gifts?

There are many excellent openings for ambitious youth to learn practical lessons while earning their entire way through the school. Truly we need earnest, dependable, consecrated young men and women who can fill positions of trust and responsibility. We need those "who cannot be bought or sold; those who will be as true to principle as the needle is to the pole." "What an army of workers our youth rightly trained might furnish and how soon might the message of a crucified, risen, and soon-coming Saviour be given to the world." Surely it would thrill every member of the New Jersey Conference and Columbia Union if such an army might be started right here in beautiful Plainfield.

Ingathering Miracles

For a people looked upon by the world as peculiar, with a message the masses consider strange, to go forth among various nationalities and denominations soliciting funds to propagate their work, with the success that they experience in such enterprise, is of itself a modern miracle. Here is a man, a member of a large modern church. He is approached by an Ingathering worker. He tells that solicitor that the pledge of $100 he made to his own church a year ago is yet unpaid. He knows he is speaking to one who believes differently than he, and all the while he is reaching for his pocketbook, and draws out $1 or $5 or $10 or more and gives it to the peculiar person with a strange message. Can you explain that? Can anybody explain it?

Here are fifteen people going out on Sunday morning in house-to-house work. They labor five hours, and count $225 received from unbelievers in their faith. Another group of five in house-to-house work on Sunday secure $143. Two brethren work a few hours on Sunday among Jewish families and count about $28. One solicitor in another place gets over $40 with over 20 one-dollar offerings in a residential district. Can you explain that?

Again, a city of hundreds of thousands never grants any organization the privilege of street soliciting. But two members of a peculiar sect with a strange message call upon its mayor and get $5. The mayor has stopped in the council of officers to listen, and after making his donation, personally canvasses the other five in his party and gets at least $1 from each and hands it over to those two peculiar people. He also hears the request to open his city for street work three Saturday nights, and recommends calling on the chief of police, and takes time out from council to go to another room to call the chief and notify him of the two callers on the way to see him.

The police station is reached, the chief located, and he gives $2 personally. He listens to the request for street privileges for three Saturday evenings. The cans are presented, the badges shown, and he is assured that Christian solicitors who donate their time will courteously ask the public for an offering in behalf of the work described in the Ingathering annual. The request is granted. Solicitors are advantageously placed here and there from sunset till 10:30 P.M., and three nights net $1,100. Can you explain all this? Who can?

Ingathering Exploits

Two soldier boys were walking along the street when they were approached by a young lady who asked them for an offering for missions and world-wide uplift work. One of the young men gave a dime as he said afterward he thought she was probably a "Jehovah's Witness." After walking on, the two boys began to wonder just who this young lady represented. They turned back, found her, and asked. "Seventh-day Adventists," she jubilantly replied. Without further questioning they handed her a dollar, and walked away. But why? Oh, these two boys had mothers back home who were members of the little country Seventh-day Adventist church at Walker, West Virginia. While at home neither one had manifested an interest in the church. But the experiences of army life had evidently caused them to think seriously, and now they appreciated the worth of their mothers' religion.

As never before we are realizing that Ingathering is more than receiving money. It is perhaps the greatest concentrated missionary endeavor of the whole church.

Since our campaign started on April 17 we have not had a single weekly report less than $1,000. To date the amounts are as follows: $3,148.38, $1,450.11, $1,371.45, $1,094.75, and $1,136.49, making a total of $8,201.18 in just five weeks' time. Twelve churches, or 67 per cent of the field, are over the top. And the others are either in the "home stretch" or soon will be. Fifty per cent of the districts have achieved a great victory already. The Wheeling district is a Minute-Man district, owing to the untiring efforts of the loyal church members.

Our many isolated members also are contributing toward the good success of the campaign. Just recently Sister Vogt of Davy, West Virginia sent in a check for $15, which amount she received during one day's soliciting in her home town. Sister Ora Chapman sent in $18 which she solicited in Middlebourne, West Virginia during sunshine and rain. And others are doing splendid work, too.

By the time these words are read, we expect that West Virginia will have reached its entire conference goal.

Another Spiritual Graduation at Mt. Vernon Academy

THE close of the school year at Mount Vernon Academy was marked as usual by a "spiritual graduation." Twenty-two young people witnessed to their faith in, and acceptance of, the third angel's message by being baptized.

On Sabbath morning, May 15, at the close of the church service, the Bible teacher of the Academy and pastor of the Mount Vernon Church conducted the service as the culmination of the instruction of the year.

In the fall, at the close of the week of prayer, conducted by Elder Marvin Loewen, the baptismal class was organized. Each Sabbath thenceforth, except during vacations, the class met for instruction in the fundamentals of Christian living and the standards of the church. The members of the class were further established during the spring week of prayer conducted by Elder Merle Mills.

It was a real pleasure and satisfaction, therefore, at the close of the school year to baptize such a fine group of young people. We wish them a happy and successful Christian experience.

The secular schools of the world make a feeble attempt at religious training and introduction to the church by having the senior class, after it has been trained for four years in the atheistic principles of the pagan, evolutionary philosophy, go to some church to hear a baccalaureate sermon that has been shorn of its vitality (so as to make it acceptable to everyone).

Where, but in our own schools, are students brought into contact with our own church, and kept in constant touch with the fundamental teaching of that church? They grow up in it. It becomes a part of their regular thinking. It becomes part of them; they become part of it, almost unconsciously.

It is true that our schools have their imperfections, for they are conducted by erring human beings, but parents will not find better schools in this world than those conducted by our own Christian teachers.

This year, Mount Vernon Academy completed 50 years of service as a training school for Adventist boys and girls. Through these years it has served that purpose well and faithfully. Sister White, in directing that this school be established, said that it would give character to the work. Today a thousand graduates testify to its success. These graduates, and other hundreds who at one time attended but did not graduate, are scattered to the ends of the earth, many in denominational service.

Today, parents of the Mt. Vernon Academy territory cannot do better than to send their youth to this outstanding school, which in the fall will begin its second half-century of service to our youth.

Unon Service at Elgin, Ohio

ON Sabbath, May 22, the members of the Lima district met at the Elgin Church for a union farewell service for Elder E. E. Russell and family, who are soon to remove to their new location at Elyria, Ohio, and also for Harold Oldham, who left for the Great Lakes Naval Training Station on May 24.

A goodly number from each of the seven churches of the district were present to receive the blessing of the services. After Sabbath school, Elder Russell gave an inspiring sermon in which he reviewed his three years at Lima and commended the elders and laity in the several churches for their loyalty and cooperation.

The speaker at the 2 o'clock session was Brother Boechter, local elder of the Elgin Church. He gave a very inspiring and stirring message on world conditions and the outlook as to the fulfilling of prophecy. This was followed by a thrilling testimony service, in which practically every individual present pledged himself in recommitment to the service of the Lord and the finishing of His work. The special song for the afternoon was given by Thelma and Harold Oldham.

A purse containing more than $20 was presented to Elder Russell as a small remembrance for his untiring, efficient efforts in our behalf, and although we shall miss him and his family, our prayers accompany them to their new field of labor.

Our prayers and best wishes also accompany Harold, as he answers the call of duty, and our sympathies reach out to the parents and all the boys and girls who have broken home ties and have answered the call to the colors. May God bless them and keep them true.

Are You Planning Now?

SURELY no one in our conference will be willing to forego the spiritual blessing to be received at our camp meeting. While transportation is more difficult than last year, yet it is possible to go by train and bus to the camp ground. We are anticipating a very fine meeting. Some of our best General Conference speakers will be present and, above all, the Lord will be with us. We need this spiritual blessing at this time. We are very anxious that everyone attend. Why not plan now?

Pleasure In Reaching Goals

It has been with much interest that we have watched our churches here in East Pennsylvania reach their Ingathering goals from week to week. It has been a good campaign thus far. Our conference began after many other conferences were already well along in their Ingathering work, but our people have done especially well in the six weeks allotted to the campaign. The majority of our churches have reached their goals, and some are now working on their Missions Extension offering to raise it above the sum given last year.

We are anxious to see every church over its goal by camp meeting, so that we can have a grand rally telling of the interesting experiences connected with this major campaign of the year.

Camp Meeting Information

PERSONS wishing employment in the dining room during camp meeting should make application now to the Conference office. There will be openings for young men and women in the dining room and also in the kitchen, as well as a few openings for older folk.

Mail sent to the Conference office should show our postal district number, which is 41. Address your mail, 1701 Conlyn Street, Philadelphia (41), Pennsylvania.

Order blanks for cottages and rooms for our coming camp meeting, July 15 to 25, are now in the mail. Upon receipt of this order form, you should immediately fill it out and send it back to the office. However, no orders will be accepted before Friday, June 25. All orders must be sent through the mail. A deposit of $2 should accompany each order. We have endeavored to obtain through the church clerks the correct address of every church member. Watch for further announcements concerning camp meeting in these columns from week to week.

assist with the work in that district. Brother Oliver Jacques will be joining Elder Veach in the Harrisburg district, perhaps settling at York, where Elder Veach will hold a public effort next autumn. I am sure our people in East Pennsylvania will give a hearty welcome to these young men and their wives who come among us to labor.

Elder M. A. Maloney was recently called to Northern California to labor for the Italian believers in that conference. We are very sorry to lose Elder Maloney from our conference, since during the eleven years of service here he has endeared himself to all with whom he came in contact.

Elder C. T. Everson, one of our veteran evangelists, who retired some years ago but who has been conducting revival work among the Potomac Conference churches, recently connected with the Temple Church in Philadelphia, awaiting the arrival of the new pastor. Elder Everson's messages have been greatly appreciated by our people.

We are sorry to know that Miss Lilla Morati's mother, who lives in the Bronx, New York, has been beset with a serious illness. Miss Morati is spending a few weeks with her mother. She will return on week-ends to the Italian churches in Philadelphia to assist them with their Sabbath services. We trust her mother will soon be improved in health.

POTOMAC

non-Adventist man brings his family every Sunday night and then two carloads in addition.

"Practically all those who attend know that we keep Saturday for the Sabbath, though the Sabbath question has not yet been presented. Some of these are already coming to church on the Sabbath. The offerings have greatly increased and our meetings are more than self-supporting.

"From the evidence already manifested of the work of God's spirit upon the hearts and lives of many, we feel that a goodly number will accept the truth."

Parents, Attention

You are invited to visit the Christian Home Counsel Corner while at camp meeting. Experienced leaders and workers will be there to aid you in your problems concerning child training.

We would also invite you to make use of the books, pamphlets, and magazines at the Parents' Reading Table.

OBITUARIES

SEARLES: Edward S., was born in Lancaster, Ohio, 1873, and died in Marion, Ohio, April 10, 1943. Brother Searles accepted the truth 44 years ago and was very active until the time of his death. For many years Brother Searles was the local Elder of the Marion Church; also in the Ohio Conference employ for some time. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer. Brother Searles was laid to rest in the beautiful Marion Cemetery to await the call of Jesus.

H. G. GAUKER

LUTZ: Matilda, was born in Exchange, Montour County, Pennsylvania, May 19, 1874 and fell asleep in Jesus April 22, 1943. Her father was an itinerant Methodist preacher, and with him and the mother she moved from place to place, until at a very tender age she was married at Scranton, Pennsylvania to Sylvester Field, who preceded his wife in death, March 30, 1931. To this union were born two children, a son, Morgan Field, also deceased, and a daughter, Katie Stanley, who with four brothers, Frank, Andrew, Clinton, and Charles Field, are left to mourn our sister's passing. A staunch pioneer of the advent faith in the regions of Lake Ariel, where we laid her to rest, our sister waits for the voice of the Life-giver. The services were conducted quietly at the home of the daughter.

WILLIAM C. JENSEN

HAWK: Mabel Irene, was born at Danielsville, Pennsylvania, October 17, 1885 and died May 4, 1943. In 1904 she moved to Gouldsburg, where she was married to Harry A. Sebring July 7, 1915. Three daughters, Lillian, Barbara, and Jane, were born to this union, who later accepted, with their mother, the advent faith under the labors of Elder and Mrs. Veach. Sister Sebring lived for ten years in Cortland, New York where she was a pioneer member of the Adventist church. She was a true and faithful wife, a devoted mother, and a real friend to all who knew her. She leaves her daughters and husband to mourn her passing.

WILLIAM C. JENSEN

HOLBERT: Mrs. Mary, was born in Gilmer County, West Virginia and passed away in Ritchie County, May 7, at the age of 89. Her husband had preceded her in death six years ago. She was a believer in the "blessed hope" having accepted this faith more than half a century ago. Funeral services for this isolated member were conducted in the Parkersburg Church where years previously she had attended services. The writer was assisted in the service by Brother V. S. Whisler, local elder of the church.

W. B. HILL

HAGMANN: Mrs. Amelia Sarah, was born October 4, 1862 and fell asleep in Jesus April 24, 1943. Surviving are two sons, Vernon D. and Mark H. Hagmann; two grandchildren, Lyle E. and Mark J. Hagmann; one great-grandchild, Glynn; and one sister, Mrs. Louise Hastings. Sister Hagmann was a faithful member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church for over 50 years. The writer conducted the funeral services and she was laid to rest in the assurance of our soon-coming Saviour.

Missionary Volunteer Activities

In checking up on our Missionary Volunteer activities we are happy to pass on to our churches something of what has been done since the beginning of the year.

You will be interested to know that to date we have invested 175 individuals in the various Progressive Classes. In other words, for the first six months, we have invested 35 more than have ever been invested in West Pennsylvania in any one previous year. We are very grateful to all our societies that have made this possible. We feel it is proper to list the societies with the number who have been invested. These you will note are listed according to the date of the investiture service:

|------------------------------|----|
| North Side, January .....    | 7  |
| Coudersport, March .....     | 3  |
| Pittsburgh Berea, April .... | 5  |
| Pittsburgh No. 2, April .... | 43 |
| Eldred, April .....          | 34 |
| Bradford, May .....          | 20 |
| Warren, May .....            | 14 |
| Pittsburgh Jr. Academy ....  | 25 |

Brother Floyd Strunk of the Bradford district has the largest number with a total of 44 in his district. Pittsburgh Number 2 is a close second with 43.

The last two week-ends have realized two large rallies for our young people. Over the week-end of June 5, a Missionary Volunteer rally was planned for the Bradford and Coudersport districts. Both Brother Anderson and Brother Strunk were with us throughout the rally and gave strong support to our program.

We closed the week-end rally Sunday evening with a camp fire service at which time 24 individuals from Mt. Jewett were invested with a beautiful candle-light service.

This past week-end, we were privileged to have both Elder Peterson and Elder Sorensen with us in the Pittsburgh area. From all the reports that have come to us, we feel this was one of the finest rallies that has been held recently for the Missionary Volunteers in Pittsburgh.

Sabbath afternoon, 25 individuals from the Pittsburgh Junior Academy were invested. Dorothy Luss and Roscoe Bartlett from this group were invested as Master Comrades.

We greatly appreciate the inspiration which Elders Peterson and Sorensen brought to us over the week-end.

Winchester Radio Broadcast

BROTHER MANUEL'S Bible School, which is conducted as a special feature of his radio program, is continuing to yield an excellent fruitage in souls won to the truth, as the following good word just received indicates.

"During the past week I received a letter from three more of my Bible students who live near Berryville, stating that they were keeping the Sabbath. . . . Yesterday we had five of our Bible students with us for our church service. Of the five, four were there for the first time.

"We have a really live interest and almost every mail brings some new word of encouragement. The disappointing feature about it is the fact that the interested ones are scattered and the gasoline shortage makes it hard for them to attend the church services. At our service in Berryville on Friday night we had one sister present who walked more than two miles to attend the meeting. They had used up their gasoline allotment and could not get more. She is studying the Sabbath truth now and is deeply interested.

One of our Bible school students is the wife of an Army major. She sends us a small check to help with the radio expenses every month.

Last month she wrote that her husband was studying the lessons with her and was interested."

To Our Members Who Will Attend Camp Meeting

THE College cafeteria has been granted rations sufficient to care for our camp meeting needs in addition to their regular service. However, they will appreciate those attending only on Sabbaths providing their own food, thus relieving them of the heavy burden over the week-ends.

To our members who will have a tent or a room and who will make purchases at the College store—be sure to bring your ration stamps.

Progress of Work in Germantown

WE have received the following report from Charles Wilson, now in charge of a small company of believers in Germantown, Maryland.

"The Lord is richly blessing the work in Germantown. Last April we began public meetings in the church on Sunday nights only. The majority of the attendants come a distance of at least six miles, some twelve miles. At the beginning the attendance was about 30, which has grown to 60. This increase was brought about by the interest manifested by those who attended the meetings. They brought their friends and neighbors with them. They were largely non-Adventists that interested their neighbors and friends to come along with them. One
