Laymen in Action Throughout Union

It was my happy privilege this summer as I visited the various camp meetings throughout the union, to meet and converse with laymen who are giving Bible studies. These unordained and, in many instances, unknown workers are doing a noble work.

While interviewing them, I watched with keen interest for any inception of self-aggrandizement, but, thank God, not a trace could be found as they related their experiences in soul winning. These self-sacrificing men and women have profound love for souls, and it is the constraining power of this love that gives them the courage to go forth to teach the message to their friends and neighbors.

I deeply regret that I was unable to contact all who are giving Bible studies in the various conferences. However, I shall mention a few of the soul-winning activities related by those whom I had opportunity to interview.

WEST VIRGINIA

Dr. Marion Brown of Parkersburg, W. Va., fostered a branch Sabbath school in Evans. It was held in the home of a newly baptized member. As a result of the faithful work of Dr. Brown and her associates, an interest has been aroused and prospects are good for the conversion of a number of souls.

The story connected with Mrs. Davis' "chicken coop" is rather unique. Mrs. Davis had a burden to give the message to her neighbors. Where could they meet? That was the question. So, she converted a chicken coop into a meeting place where a Sabbath school and Sunday-night meetings were held. Lawrence Hudnall, superintendent of the Charleston Sabbath School, and others, united their efforts with those of Mrs. Davis in conducting a Sabbath school each week and Sunday night Bible studies for a considerable length of time. Because of the heavy responsibilities which Mr. Hudnall carried in his home church, he was forced to give up the studies.

Mrs. Clauda Bailey, who is a capable teacher of the Bible, assumed the obligation of conducting the class. She is doing very admirable work. A Sabbath school has been organized and a good number are present each Sabbath. The Sunday-night studies are attended by approximately forty persons. Two are now ready for baptism, and five others are preparing for this sacred rite.

OHIO

In Ohio we have a number who are devoting portions of their time to the work of soul winning.

David K. Jeffreys has been greatly blessed by God in gaining souls for the kingdom, for he has been instrumental in winning thirteen to the truth. He is now giving three studies each week with the aid of film strips. One lady is preparing for baptism. Her husband, who is a minister, is also taking studies. This clergyman is so interested in the message that he has ten of his friends who are willing to have Brother Jeffreys study with them as soon as he can arrange it.

Mrs. Ethel Reams of West Liberty has a class once a week. At this time some of her neighbors gather for Bible studies. She finds the projector very helpful in securing and maintaining interest.

Mrs. Ethel Rawley of Elgin conducts a Bible class in the church each Wednesday night. Among those attending is a young man who is eager to know more of God's word. A study is also held on Sunday night for the benefit of another young man who has given evidence of accepting the truth.

Mrs. E. E. Wolcott is doing a splendid work for God. She has, thus far, won three souls to Christ. It was interesting to find out from Dr. Wolcott how his wife secured the names of her students. They were secured through house-to-

"If all, both rich and poor, would bring THEIR TITHES into the storehouse, there would be a sufficient supply of means to release the cause from financial embarrassment, and to nobly carry forward the missionary work in its various departments. house visitation. This is God's method, and it will bring results as Mrs. Wolcott has demonstrated.

Mrs. W. G. Nicola of Worthington has three who have taken their stand for the truth and are attending Sabbath school. Aside from these, another man and his wife are taking studies. This interest is the result of a layman's effort which was conducted by the members of the Worthington Church.

Mrs. McGinnis, a faithful member of the Worthington Church, gave studies to a lady who enjoyed hearing the message. The result was that this lady attended the camp meeting with her teacher. Just imagine what our camp meetings would be like if each member had an interested person to bring!

Mrs. May Finney, a member of the Newark Church, has been giving studies and takes a great delight in assisting those who enter this type of work. As she related the enjoyment she receives from doing personal work, it was evident that her own soul was watered by the Spirit of God. How much she would be missing if she were to cease her labors for others!

Mrs. Tern, also of the Newark Church, believes in sharing the message with her friends and neighbors. Two classes are being held each week, one having an attendance of four, and the other three. Mrs. Tern has a six-month-old baby, and yet she finds time to work in God's vineyard.

The Newark Church is blessed with ladies who have a burden for souls. How quickly the work would be finished if all would do their part! Mrs. E. J. Marietta of Newark has under the guidance of the Lord been instrumental in leading five persons to unite with the church. She told me that after the camp meeting she planned to start another Bible class. May this one be fruitful in bringing many more to Christ. The joy of soul winning, what can equal it!

News Note

A LAYMAN'S training class was conducted by Elder Ruf, assisted by Elder Calkins, in the Reading Church September 28 to October 2. Thirty were enrolled in the class.

Elder Oswald of the General Conference and Elder J. C. Holland of the Union were present on Sabbath, giving much inspiration and help to the class and others on Sabbath morning.

On Sabbath afternoon the class, with others, contacted over 200 homes with literature, enrollment cards, and announcements for the Sunday-night meeting. Already good results are in evidence as a result of these personal contacts.

Elder Calkins plans to use this organization about twice a month to continue this method of seeking out the honest in heart.

Wedding

On the afternoon of September 4 in the beautifully decorated church in Allentown, Pa., Virginia Becker became the bride of Andrew Roberts of South Lancaster, Mass. An unusually large number of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. The writer officiated.

The reception was held on the lawn of the bride's parents at Westcosville. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts left the same evening for a short wedding trip. The couple will make their home at South Lancaster, Mass., where the groom is a student in Atlantic Union College.

Their many friends wish for them God's choicest blessing.

Wedding

A VERY pretty wedding was solemnized in the Media Seventh-day Adventist Church on Providence Road, Media, Monday evening, September 12, at 7:00 o'clock when Hope Matilda Brown of Media, Pa., and Houston Gershan Skidmore of Kentucky were united in marriage.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home where a large number of relatives and friends gathered. The happy couple then journeyed to Southern Missionary College, Collegedale, Tenn., where they will continue their training for the Lord's work.

We wish for them heaven's richest blessing in all their future plans.

The ceremony was conducted by Elder C. R. Gibbs, pastor of the North Philadelphia and Media Churches.

Reports From Field

THE Virginia Federation of Missionary Volunteer Societies has just reported its last federation meeting which was held in Richmond, Va. There were eighty-four delegates present from the societies in Danville, Petersburg, Richmond, Newport News, and Norfolk.

Brother D. L. Davis, a student of theology from Oakwood College, delivered the morning message. It was a challenge to young people from a young person and a message long to be remembered.

At 3:45 P.M. Mrs. Ruby L. Morgan, president of the federation, presided; and after the usual preliminaries she introduced the topic for discussion, which was the proposed calendar change. We are glad to know that recently this proposal was removed from the agenda of the 1949 United Nations meeting in New York.

burg gave a special musical number. Brother Joseph Cunningham of Danville discussed the relationship of the missionary society and lay preaching. Miss Mattie Boyd of Petersburg gave an interesting account of "Sharing Your Faith." Miss Lona Lea of Danville presented the topic, "How Shall We Choose Our Church Music?"

An oratorical contest on the subject, "Why Aren't There More Adventist Youth Preparing to Give the Message to the World?" was entered into with zeal. Each speaker was allotted two minutes. Judges were Elder R. L. Bradford, Mrs. Elizabeth Porter, Alfred Jones, and Joseph Cunningham. Participants were Miss Ruby Damon of Petersburg, Miss Lona Lea of Danville, and Mrs. Candice Rose of Richmond. Miss Lona Lea was chosen as the winner by the judges.

The federation will meet again sometime this month in Norfolk, Va., at which time the major part of the program will be given to a resume of the work in youth evangelism, share-your-faith clinics, and "operations doorbell." Book reports will be given from the current Missionary Volunteer reading course.

Elder R. L. Bradford and Elder R. T. Hudson, who have been conducting an evangelistic effort in Richmond, Va., give thanks to our heavenly Father for the overwhelming success which they have shared. To date twenty-five new believers have been baptized and are rejoicing in the truth.

The little Richmond Church was filled on Sabbath, and a new enthusiasm has resulted from the new members who have been added to the congregation. Elder Bradford reports that there are fifteen candidates in the baptismal class.

Elder Hudson will continue Sunday-night meetings in Richmond throughout the autumn. This gives Elder Hudson a very heavy program, as he has officially taken on the full duties of his new assignment as pastor of the First Seventh-day Adventist Church in Washington, D. C.

Elder H. D. Warner, Publishing Department Secretary; H. T. Saulter, Book and Bible House Manager; and Elder J. H. Wagner participated in the Union-wide Publishing Department meeting at Takoma Park, D. C., recently. This early fall colporteur meeting is expected to inject seasonal promptings into the work. Since the world gives gifts, why not give the people an opportunity to give the best—as the literature ministry puts it, "our truth-filled literature"? At the close of this conference, the group will move on to Philadelphia for a two-day session.

Claude Barnette, director of the Associated Negro Press, has just mailed us clippings from the following papers which carried pictures and stories of our camp meeting activities: the San Antonio Register, the Louisiana Weekly, the Carolinian, the Savannah Tribune, the Empire Star, the Lighthouse and Informer, the Atlanta Daily World, the Palmetto Leader, the California Eagle, the Black Dispatch, the Pensacola Courier, the Los Angeles Sentinel, and the St. Paul Recorder.

Weddings

On Sunday afternoon, August 28, Byron Lee Millard of Eureka, Kansas, and Barbara Mary Sauder of Mansfield, Ohio, were united in marriage at the Mansfield Seventh-day Adventist Church. Following the ceremony, a reception was given in the church parsonage.

The bride was a member of this year's graduating class at Union College. The groom is majoring in languages and theology. After a brief honeymoon at Lake Erie the couple left for La Sierra College where Mr. Millard will continue his studies.

We wish this consecrated young couple the Lord's richest blessings as they prepare for His service and their journey through life.

S. A. YAKUSH

At a candlelight ceremony in the Mount Vernon Academy chapel Miss Norma Lee Harmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton R. Harmon of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, became the bride of Mr. Jack Leslie Danforth, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Leslie Danforth, also of Mt. Vernon, on Sunday evening, September 18. The writer officiated.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Danforth, following the ceremony.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside at Berrien Springs, Mich., where Mr. Danforth will enter Emmanuel Missionary College as a premedical student. Mrs. Danforth is a graduate of Mount Vernon Academy and attended Washington Missionary College. Mr. Danforth is also a graduate of the Academy and attended Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, Ala.

We wish God's blessings upon this young couple in the establishment of a new home and in their preparation for service to God and humanity.

OLIVER LEE DENSLOW

Miss Dorothy Mauch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mauch of Batavia, Ohio, recently became the bride of Albert Bueg of Cincinnati, Ohio, in a ceremony performed by the writer in the Taft Road Seventh-day Adventist Church of Cincinnati.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

After a short wedding trip to Indiana, Brother and Sister Bueg plan to make their home in Cincinnati.

We pray God's richest blessing upon this new home.

E. K. LEHNHOFF

In a lovely afternoon service on Sunday, August 14, the wedding of Miss Helen Addis of Indianapolis to Ralph Hall of Cleveland was solemnized in the Indianapolis South Side Church. Elder C. M. Mellor, formerly of Indianapolis and present pastor of the First Church of Cleveland, officiated at the ceremony. Many guests were present for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall will reside in Cleveland where he is employed.

C. M. MELLOR

DONALD Gene Orrick of Columbus, Wis., and Carolyn Frances Harding of Worthington, Ohio, were married on August 28, 1949. Because there is no Seventh-day Adventist church in Worthington, the ceremony was solemnized in the Presbyterian church, a small, but beautiful house of worship, which was filled with relatives and friends for the service.

The reception following was held at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. Warren G. Harding and Dr. Frances Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrick will continue their studies in Emmanuel Missionary College. Donald is preparing for the study of medicine. Carolyn hopes to be a dentist.

News Notes

ON the first Sabbath of October Elder H. L. Yates baptized ten candidates in the Mt. Jewett Church which provides the baptistry for the district. The new members were added to the Bradford and Warren Churches.

One of the group had declined to take the Bible correspondence course and also declined to take Bible studies in her home, but she purchased a copy of Bible Readings for the Home from Arthur Page and studied herself into the truth.

The latest report from Elder Stuart Jayne in Erie is that on five different Sabbaths recently individuals have searched out the church. All of them are deeply interested in the truth.

Elder George Valentine recently baptized a lady in Clearfield, the first fruitage of the tent effort conducted there by Brethren James Hold and Gordon Frederick.

Our people in Pittsburgh were glad to have a visit from Elder and Mrs. M. E. Loewen. Elder Loewen served as president of this conference before going to the Philippine Islands. They gave a thrilling report of the progress of the work in that field.

Elder A. V. Olson met with the churches in the northern section on one Sabbath and with the churches in the Pittsburgh area on the following Sabbath. He gave a stirring report of the progress of the work in the world field. His studies on the Spirit of prophecy also greatly helped our people.

We are glad to report that the Greensburg Church building, begun by Elder Hollis Wolcott, is rapidly nearing the point where it can be utilized. The church members are rallying strongly with Brother James Meade. As soon as the church is ready for use, Elder Ralph Hill will join with Brother Meade in conducting an evangelistic campaign.

The new church building in Washington is going up rapidly. The labor is being done without cost, principally by our own brethren. Outside builders volunteered to lay the floor and put on the roof. Brother Glenn Smith has been assigned to the work in Washington and Uniontown while the building is in progress. Brother Archie Brownlee, local elder, has charge of the building program.

The Eldred Church is making rapid progress on its new church school building and the Port Allegany Church members are trying to get their new church building enclosed before severe weather comes. The lumber for the Port Allegany Church building was taken right from the woods by our brethren who are doing all the woodworking in connection with it.

An effort was made by a member of a non-Protestant church to prevent the erection on its present desirable site. However, this worked out to our good. A prominent citizen blocked this effort and volunteered to sponsor a drive in the community to raise funds for our building enterprise.

He personally inserted a newspaper article on our behalf and gave our people the use of his fine summer cabin, heading up the "send-off" of the soliciting campaign. Elder Ray Spencer is joining with the members in the Eldred and Port Allegany Churches in the promotion of these enterprises.

Brother Bruce Gair, a graduate of Washington Missionary College, while teaching school started holding studies in Dunbar. The interest became so great that he has rented the Moose Hall for Sunday-night meetings. This will be a self-supporting lay effort.

Brother Stanley Rose, another of our self-supporting members, has a fine interest in the Somerset area.

Brother Charles Stone of the Eldred Church has a score of people attending his Bible studies in the city of Smethport, and a branch Sabbath school has been organized. There is a "sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees" in the West Pennsylvania Conference.

Progress in West Virginia

WE are now beginning to reap the harvest from our five evangelistic efforts conducted during the summer and fall, under the blessing of God.

Elder R. E. Logan began his effort later than the others, but the indications are that a good number of souls will be won. He is much encouraged with the prospects.

Elder D. B. Myers has already baptized eleven persons as a result of his Wheeling effort, and there are prospects of as many more soon to follow. Elder A. C. Marple has baptized nine in Logan, and about a dozen more are to follow soon. Elder J. R. Johnson has baptized twenty from his Beckley effort, and several more will be baptized a little later. Elder H. E. Metcalf is now preparing over fifty for baptism soon as the fruitage of his effort in Webster Springs. For all this success we praise God.

A large lot in a fine section of Webster Springs has been purchased for a new church building, which will be 28 feet x 50 feet, and made of concrete blocks. These, when plastered and water-proofed, will make a fine church building. The new Catholic church there is of concrete-block construction, and makes a pleasing appearance.

Elder Metcalf believes that by the time you read this they will be putting on the roof, and that the church will be sufficiently finished for the Sabbath services about the first of November. The new members are donating labor as well as money, while Elder Metcalf works on it during the daytime, and preaches in the evenings. Until now Webster County has been a dark county. We thank God for this fine beginning in Webster Springs.

Another new church organization, raised up in Beckley by Elder J. R. Johnson, is also being provided with a new church home 28 feet x 50 feet, and of concrete-block construction. Elder Johnson works on the building during the daytime, and in the evenings continues his evangelistic lectures and visitation. By the time you read this account the roof should be on, and by the first part of November the members hope to be worshipping in their new church home. The congregation is composed of some fifty-five precious souls.

The Lord has blessed Elder Johnson in securing special prices on materials. One outstanding example was his contact with a Jewish gentleman, in buying the steel I beams. When this man learned that the material was for our new church building, he told Elder Johnson to get a truck and haul it away, saying: "I never charge God anything." The steel I beams were worth nearly a hundred dollars.

A fine man who recently began to attend Elder Johnson's meetings, drove to the new church site the other day, and watched the men working, then told Elder Johnson that he has a woodworking mill and 1500 feet of black walnut lumber which he will finish in his mill, and he will personally perform all the work for the inside trim of the church. He is an excellent workman, and will donate all this free of charge.

Brother Hill, a new member, and an expert concrete block layer, is doing an excellent job. Others are donating time who are out of the coal mines on account of the strike, who are not members, but are glad to do something for God.

On October 4 I attended the laying-of-the-cornerstone service at 2:00 P.M. A fine group of people assembled on this occasion. The mayor of the city was invited to be present and to make a speech, which he did. He extended a most hearty welcome. He was a patient in the Battle Creek Sanitarium some years ago, and attended our church there. He said there is no denomination which he esteems more highly than Seventh-day Adventists. He has attended several of Elder Johnson's meetings, and is interested.

Elder Johnson gave a brief history of the raising up of this church organization by himself and associates. The writer then spoke about ten minutes on "Christ, the Cornerstone of Our Faith." Brother George C. Mowry, pastor of the Bluefield and Princeton Churches, who has been associated with the effort, and who is assisting with the new building, offered an earnest prayer. The writer's brother, D. C. Coon, who has been a builder for many years, was secured to supervise the work of construction.

As soon as these churches are completed, we hope to begin the erection of a new church building in Bluefield. Pray for the work and workers. Our workers are doing well.

Vineland Church History, 1874-1949

(Concluded from last week)

LOOKING back over the past, we discover with a measure of satisfaction that the Vineland Church cannot be described as idle or unproductive. Clerks' records reveal a fruitage of gospel missionaries scattered around the globe as follows: E. W. Snyder was granted a letter to Buenos Aires, Argentina, on April 6, 1895; Brother and Sister Meade went to Capetown, South Africa, November 30, 1898; Mary Learned was granted a letter to the Seventh-day Adventist church in Christchurch, New Zealand, on May 12, 1900; Ida Thomason went as a nurse to South Africa sometime during the decade of the 1880's; Dr. George Thomason spent many years in South Africa with his sister in medical work and later affiliated with the White Memorial Hospital in Los Angeles, Calif. Our record states merely that he was baptized April 20, 1889. Brother Herbert A. Walls, Jr., his wife, and three small sons are now in South India where he is serving as Educational Secretary and is in charge of all young people's work in South India.

Our denominational workers in the homeland are as follows: Harris and Althea Geisinger, Fletcher, N. C., Sanitarium and Hospital; William Dennis, West Pennsylvania Conference; Carol Hetzell, Review & Herald Publishing Association, Washington, D. C.; Joseph Jeffreys, Jersey City, N. J.; Clifford Brown, Trenton, N. J.; William Hatch, Florida; and Ethel Walls, dean of girls at Ozark Academy, Gentry, Ark.

Five of our youth are now enrolled in a Christian college preparing to do their share in the finishing of the gospel work: Anthony, Rose, and Daniel Lamanna; Elwin Hewitt, and John Keller.

Following is an interesting list of the local and Conference elders, in the order of their association, who have served the church as pastors: Nathan Orcutt, William Boynton, Eugene Packard, George W. Thomason, Sr., Isaac Weller, Jacob Rambo, George Spies, Richard Farley, William Schmidt, T. M. Beem, Horace Shaw, Sidney Norton, Shirley Haynes, Harvey Gauker, Cline Jeffreys, Walter Gibson, B. K. Mills, F. S. Fowler, K. M. McComas, Vernon Rees, George Woodruff, and S. W. Burrows.

This treatise would be incomplete should we fail to record that Elder C. B. Haynes holds the record of belonging to the only family that has been connected with our Vineland Church for four generations.

There are many from our membership who have had a part in keeping our work going, and our prayer is that we who are living may keep the torch of truth burning and be found at last around the throne of God at that greatest of all celebrations when Jesus shall claim His own.

Weddings

THE marriage of Miss Betty Marie Jones of Bridgeton, N. J., and Mr. Buford Jackson Bailey of New Egypt, N. J., was solemnized in the Trenton Seventh-day Adventist Church, Sunday, September 4, by Elder Stephen Paully.

The bride was given in marriage by the father, Ellsworth Jones. Mrs. Eleanor Titus, the bride's sister, attended her. Lewis Simsek was best man.

The newly wedded couple will reside in New Egypt, N. J. We pray for the Lord's blessing upon them.

On September 26, at the home of Elder Stephen Paully in Trenton, N. J., Mr. George L. Bennett and Miss Ruth M. Cummings were united in marriage. The wedding was simple and very sacred.

The bride was attended by her niece, Mrs. Thelma Benton, of Trenton. The groomsman was Mr. John Benton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett have established their home in Trenton. May the Lord divinely guide them and bless them.

er and Sister Osborne. "A Scene in Mrs. Osborne's Kitchen" was portrayed by Sister Doss. This scene pictured Mrs. Osborne making a cake. Finding she was out of flour, she reached for the telephone and proceeded to order a list of groceries. Immediately the groceries were delivered by several of the young people. Elder and Mrs. Butler were present, and as the groceries were being piled on the table, undoubtedly it reminded them of a similar scene in Mrs. Butler's kitchen a few years ago.

To close our social, which was so ably arranged by Brother Frank Waxter, Elder Butler showed some very excellent and scenic motion pictures, which were enjoyed by all.

As Brother and Sister Osborne, young and consecrated workers as they are, come to labor with us and for the people of this territory, may the blessings of God richly rest upon them and the church, and may we soon reap a rich harvest of souls. To this end may we all work together.

Colporteur Sabbath at Roanoke

A GOOD number of new workers attended the annual soul-winning rally and beginners' classes conducted in the beautiful new Roanoke, Va., Church on the week end of October 1.

Elder L. R. Mansell, pastor, gave his usual hearty cooperation throughout the meetings. Elder Detwiler, Elder H. S. Prenier, and Brother Shull were with us Sabbath morning, and their presence added to our inspiration. A magazine group under the direction of Mrs. Bigelow attended the rally as part of their trip.

The church members entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion and a number of families opened their homes to take care of the visiting recruits. Members of the Dorcas and M. V. societies served Sabbath dinner and supper.

Mrs. Dottie Ihrig, M. V. leader for that evening, turned the hour over to us and in the Sabbath school Mrs. H. P. Cowley, Sabbath school superintendent, made good use of the visitors in conducting a very interesting Sabbath school. Special music was contributed by J. G. Vasko and Mrs. Eugene Palmer.

Elder J. F. Kent, Publishing Secretary of the Columbia Union Conference, gave the soul-winning instruction and spoke at the Sabbath morning service. We were also privileged to have C. R. MacIvor of the periodical department of the Review and Herald Publishing Association with us throughout the session. He had the Friday evening hour and presented the film showing the hundred years of progress of the literature work.

This rally was held in Brother C. A. Yarnell's district. Elder Mansell was especially glad to have us because it was the annual colporteur Sabbath. We were given a hearty invitation to come again.

We hope that the challenge presented there not only will give added impetus to the new workers just starting but will cause others to give serious consideration to this branch of service.

Takoma Academy Home and School Association Meeting

THE Takoma Academy Home and School Association held its first meeting of the new school year Tuesday night, September 13, in honor of the faculty.

New officers elected at a previous gathering were installed: Mrs. Howard T. Morse, president; Mrs. Vincent A. Fenn, vice-president; Mrs. Henry T. Johnson, secretary-treasurer; and Charles A. Rentfro, public relations secretary.

Prof. J. P. Laurence, principal of Takoma Academy, discussed problems of recreation, expressing the opinion that "parents should accompany sons and daughters in their recreation with detached but observing interest."

"Next year's graduating class will be the largest in the school's history," added Professor Laurence, "and we pledge to continue giving a Christian education in all fields of learning. From Takoma Academy eighty-five per cent of our graduates go on to college."

Mrs. Phyllis Liers, registrar, said that 188 students had enrolled in the academic courses, including a young Chinese girl from Hong Kong whose parents sent her here to escape the Communists. Mrs. Liers expects about fifty seniors to graduate next spring. The students started their classes with enthusiasm.

The Takoma Academy Home and School Association officers and parents welcome new faculty members into their group: Miss Rhea Jean Beckwith from Findlay, Ohio, Spanish and home economics; Bruce Bush, chemistry; Clinton Cowles, music; Mrs. Eldine Frederick, typing and shorthand; F. A. Meier, Bible, history, and physical education, who taught five years at Mt. Vernon Academy, Mt. Vernon, Ohio; and Ralph Walter, who will devote full time hereafter to vocational subjects: woodworking, printing, and book-keeping.

Westminster Church News

It is always a pleasure to welcome new workers among us, and it is always sad to have workers leave us; but as the work of God progresses changes will come, both in plans and personnel. Such has recently been the case of the Westminster Church; for when we learned that Elder Quackenbush and his family were going to another field of labor, a social was held in their honor at the country home of the writer and his family.

Just as the sun was setting on Sabbath, August 20, practically the entire membership of the church and many friends gathered for vespers, Elder Quackenbush leading.

A short musical program was next presented, which included solos, duets, and group singing; also some very fine accordion and piano music given by Brother and Sister David Babcock of the Newport News, Va., Church, who were visiting the Jacob Meyer family.

After refreshments Elder Quackenbush and Brother Frank Waxter showed educational motion pictures. Following a very fine and interesting presentation speech by Elder Van Tassel, a gift was presented to Elder and Mrs. Quackenbush.

As these godly workers leave us for their new field of labor, may the Lord richly bless them and may many souls be brought into the fold as a result of their labors. To this end we all wish them God-speed.

On Sabbath evening, September 10, it was again the privilege of our church to welcome a new worker and his family, the Conference having asked Brother and Sister Joseph Osborne, formerly of Massachusetts, to come and labor among us. Again practically the entire membership gathered at the church for vespers, Brother Osborne leading. After the vesper service the ladies provided us with excellent refreshments.

Then came the high point of the evening when in a very unique way gifts were presented to Broth-
