W. H. Jones Cafeteria Dedicated at S.V.A.

THE William H. Jones Cafeteria and Dining Room of Shenandoah Academy was formally dedicated in a special service, Sunday, June 21, during the first week end of the annual camp meeting of the Potomac Conference.

At the same service Mr. Jones, who is retiring, was honored for his 43 years of service to the denomination as a Secretary-Treasurer.

Speeches of appreciation for Brother Jones were given by Elder H. J. Capman, President of the Potomac Conference; Edgar Bradley, acting Secretary-Treasurer of the Potomac Conference; Elder L. E. Lenheim, President of the Columbia Union Conference; and Elder W. C. Moffett, Financial Counselor of the Columbia Union Conference.

The dedication rites came on the first Sunday of the annual camp meeting. Under a bright sun the brief ceremony was witnessed by a large group of persons attending the camp-meeting program.

The principal dedication speaker was Elder H. L. Rudy, Vice-President of the General Conference. Others participating in the service were Elder E. A. Robertson, Secretary of Education of the Columbia Union Conference; Elder E. J. Barnes, Superintendent of Education of the Potomac Conference; and Elder George H. Akers, outgoing Principal of Shenandoah Valley Academy.

The new brick cafeteria building, valued at $100,000, is actually a wing of the proposed new administration building. It was constructed first in order to relieve a crowded situation resulting in an increased attendance at the Academy.

Construction was started on the dining room and cafeteria in August, 1958, and was ready for use in late December. It will seat 425 persons and can serve at the rate of 600 persons per hour. It is air-conditioned in the summer and heated in the winter with the same unit.

It was only two months ago that the new girls' dormitory was dedicated on the campus of Shenandoah Valley Academy. These two buildings represent initial steps in a long-range expansion program for the school, the boarding academy for the Potomac Conference.

Master of ceremonies for the 30-minute ceremony was Elder Akers, under whose leadership the cafeteria building was constructed.

Used Bibles Needed by "Faith for Today"

USED Bibles in good condition are desperately needed by Faith for Today.

Many requests come to our office for Bibles from individuals who wish to take our correspondence courses. These are generally shut-ins, inmates of penal institutions, or those on pensions or with very limited incomes.

In the past we have received many Bibles from VISITOR readers which have been put to this good use. Our supplies at present are almost exhausted and we urge you to look for that extra Bible that you are now not using. Please make sure that the binding is intact and no pages are

What Do You Do?

When Your Child Eats Between Meals

PARENT 1: "I try to prevent this by having good, nourishing food prepared in an appetizing way at each meal. We eat heartily and enjoy our food. I never coax or urge a child of mine to clean his plate, neither do I permit one to take too big a helping. We sometimes enjoy playing games at the table like "Feed the Birdie" or "Guess What." We eat what we want and no one ever thinks of eating anything until the next meal."

PARENT 2: "Irregularity causes children to think they are hungry between meals. I find that when the meals are regular the children adjust to them all right, but when they are close together today and hours apart tomorrow, the children do get hungry and are tempted to eat at any time. We see that our meals are properly spaced."

PARENT 3: "When I find my children slipping food between meals or sampling this and trying that, I let them finish what they have and then skip the next meal. Once or twice is all it takes. A child hates to sacrifice a whole dinner for a few nibbles."

When Your Teen-ager Has Younger Brothers and Sisters

PARENT 1: "We noticed no change in our oldest son in his relationship to his younger brother and sisters when he reached the teen age. From the time they were born we let him know that they "needed" him. We believe that the older child should take some responsibility in caring for the younger. We are our brother's keeper and should be so trained. A child who is responsible for his brother or sister is not so likely to be jealous of him but is happy to see him succeed.

PARENT 2: "An older child should not be allowed to be so bossy that the younger child is made miserable. I discovered with my oldest child that it paid for me to outline very carefully just what she was expected to do and also how. If the younger child gave her trouble, she was to report to me and not to try to correct him herself.

PARENT 3: "When a teen-ager knows that he has an influence over his brothers and sisters, he is more than likely to deport himself properly. Not that a smaller child should tag him around and tell on him, but the fact that others are following in his steps helps one to go straight."

Home and School

Elder Detamore's Sermon

"Twentieth-Century Parents," that thought-provoking challenge given by Elder Detamore at the last General Conference, appears in the May-August number of the Adventist Home and School. If you are a subscriber to this journal, you already have your copy. If you are not a subscriber, you can place your order at once with the Southern Publishing Association, Nashville, Tenn. It is only $1.25 a year. So many requests came in for a copy of this sermon after Elder Detamore gave this soul-stirring appeal that it has been printed in full in the Adventist Home and School magazine. Be sure to get your copy.

Tiny Thinkers

Bobbie, aged three, closed his prayer thus: "And, dear Jesus, make Kathy sick again so I can sleep in the top bed. Amen." Instantly Kathy appealed to her mother, "Mother, Jesus won't answer that prayer, will He?"

Mother had not thought it wise to trust a three-year-old on the top bunk. But when Kathy got sick, mother had brought her down to the lower bunk where she could be cared for better. Sleeping on the top bed was pure delight for Bobbie, and he could think of no other way for Jesus to answer his prayers except for Kathy to get sick again.

New Jersey

"New Jersey Day" Observed at W.M.C.

NEW Jersey Day was observed at Washington Missionary College on May 18. Elder M. K. Eckenroth with the support of the Secretary-Treasurer and the departmental secretaries, presented "This Is New Jersey" during the chapel period and climaxed it by having New Jersey students give candy kisses to every-one present.

"It can be done in New Jersey" was the theme sustained in every report. Baptisms and net membership gains give assurance that we soon shall reach a membership of 3,000.

For 12 consecutive years New Jersey has led the world in Ingathering. The educational work is advancing by leaps and bounds. A few in temperance effort are "star conferences." New Jersey is the one and only "double-star conference." New Jersey has the distinction of being the only conference that has reached and passed the dollar-per-week-per-member missions goal in 1958. Before you read this another world record will be established in New Jersey when more than 1,000 MV honor tokens will be awarded in one investiture service at Garden State Academy.

The future is bright with the promises of God and prospects of progress and soul winning. College students planning careers in the ministry, medicine, nursing, teaching, dentistry, and business are more aware than ever that New Jersey has indeed much to offer.

The banquet that terminated New Jersey Day sparkled with many good things long to be remembered. Truly this is New Jersey's day.

West Pennsylvania

Plans for Camp Meeting Include Special Features

LISTED below are some of the special features of the West Pennsylvania Conference Camp Meeting this year:

1. Program on evangelism, Sabbath afternoon, August 8. Dime banks presented and offering taken.

2. Special evening evangelistic meetings, some of which are as follows:

Wonder World of Tomorrow

The Song of Moses and the Lamb
Nevertheless
Nature of Christ
Law and Grace
Sabbath
Trip Through the Holy Land

3. Early-morning services on "The Victorious Life."

4. Series of daily Bible studies by Elder F. A. Mote, Field Secretary of the General Conference and former President of the Far Eastern Division.

5. Series of Bible studies by Elder Leslie Hardinge of Washington Missionary College.

6. Health classes.

7. Children and young people's meetings.

8. Faith for Today speaker, Elder W. A. Fagal.

There will be many other interesting, vital and important, meetings. Send in your application as soon as it appears in the VISITOR.

R. C. Thomas Called to Korea

ELDER R. C. Thomas, Publishing Secretary of the West Pennsylvania Conference, has accepted a call to the Korean Union where he will serve as Union Publishing Secretary. Elder Thomas, his wife, and four children will leave the United States for Korea sometime in August. They finished their work in the West Pennsylvania Conference on July 1.

Elder Thomas has worked untiringly for the past two years to build up the book work of this field. The sales have advanced to $75,000 for 1958 and in 1959 we shall see that figure exceeded. We are thankful for what has been done and look forward to continued success as someone else takes the burden.

As Elder Thomas and his family leave us for foreign service, we extend to them our prayers and wishes that God's blessings will be upon them.

We shall announce soon the appointment of Elder Thomas's successor.

F. W. WERNICK

Baptism Held in Plainfield Church

BAPTISM. Twenty-two candidates were baptized in the Plainfield Church in New Jersey on May 23. Two were accepted on profession of faith. Seated in the front row (left to right) are Elders Floyd Strunk, J. J. Millet, Ned Maletin, and C. G. Rasmussen who participated in the services. The unflinching interest of our people in soul winning was evident when some 500 attended the preparatory meeting in the Lake Nelson School auditorium.—J. A. Toop, Public Relations Secretary.

S.V.A. Principal Accepts Call To La Sierra College

GEORGE H. AKERS, Principal of Shenandoah Valley Academy for the past four years, has accepted a call to be Dean of Students at La Sierra College, Arlington, Calif.

He left July 1 for his new post. La Sierra is a Seventh-day Adventist co-educational college for youth of the Pacific southwest.

A native of Rock Hall, Md., Professor Akers, 33, is an alumnus of Shenandoah Valley Academy, class of 1943. Earlier he attended Adventist elementary schools on the eastern shore of Maryland. After graduating from the New Market school, he went on to Washington Missionary College, Takoma Park, Md., and was graduated from there in 1947.

He began work for the denomination in 1947 when he became dean of boys at Ozark Academy, Adventist school at Gentry, Ark. From there he went to Shenyne River Academy, Harvey, N. D., where he also served as a Dean of Boys.

In 1951 he came east again, accepting a call to become Principal of Philadelphia Academy, Adventist co-educational secondary school. In 1954 he went to Washington, D. C., to work on an advanced degree and while there taught English and speech at Takoma Academy, Takoma Park, Md.

In 1955 he came to Shenandoah Valley Academy to replace Prof. W. T. Weaver who had served as Principal for two years.

While here Mr. Akers was successful in tripling the enrollment of the school and doubling the faculty. New buildings were erected during his term of service, including a new girls' dormitory and a new cafeteria building. A master campus plan has been developed which will enable the school to have a well-developed outline for future expansion.

In his new responsibility in California Professor Akers will direct all student activities of La Sierra College. He will also continue working on his doctorate in education.

The Akers have two children, Douglas, nine, and Danny, five.

R. E. Dickinson Returns to M.V.A. as Bible Teacher

ELDER R. E. Dickinson, Pastor of the Portsmouth district, has been elected head of the Bible Department to fill the vacancy left by Elder Charles Dart, newly elected Principal of Blue Mountain Academy.

R. E. Dickinson

Elder Dickinson served Mount Vernon Academy as Dean of Boys and Instructor in Bible and English from 1949 to 1953. He was graduated from Washington Missionary College as a theology major in the class of 1948. In the fall of 1949 he was called to the Academy as Dean of Boys, giving rich, spiritual leadership and helpful counsel to the students of the Academy for a period of four years. In June, 1953, the Dickinsons with their two daughters, Andrea and Priscilla, were called to district pastoral and evangelistic work for the Ohio Conference. Elder Dickinson was ordained to the ministry in 1956.

Former students will remember Elder Dickinson for his kind and sympathetic understanding of youth's problems. He is a man of well-balanced judgment and spiritual insight. His soul-winning efforts and pastoral work will return him to the classroom with a valuable background in counseling and guidance.

The Academy family extends a most hearty welcome to the Dickinsons, and will look forward with eager anticipation to their arrival in June.

It is with sad hearts that we bid farewell to Elder and Mrs. Dart and "Chucky" as they leave to take up their new work in the East Pennsylvania Conference. Elder Dart has moulded the spiritual lives of the students here for five years as Bible teacher, counselor, and personal friend. May God bless them in their new responsibility.

Elder Peterson Visits Youngstown Church

ELDER F. L. Peterson, Associate Secretary of the General Conference, visited the Temple Emmanuel Seventh-day Adventist Church of Youngstown, Ohio, April 24-26, for the occasion of the victory celebration for the 1959 Ingathering and Pine Forge Dormitory Drive.

On Friday at 7:30 P.M., he delivered his first sermon. His subject was "God's Ability" and the text was 2 Timothy 1:12: "... for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." To this he added: "God is able to keep, and in these evil days we need Him to keep us. God commanded that we must be holy as He is holy, and Jesus said, 'be ye perfect even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.' Look to Jesus and be perfect. Keep your eyes upon Jesus, watching what you do, and He can and will make something out of you. Let us not just think, but let us really and truly know that God is able."

On Sabbath morning, April 25, at the close of Sabbath school, Elder Outgoing principal of Shenandoah Valley Academy, George H. Akers (right), receiving words of commendation from H. J. Capman (center) of Staunton, Va., President of the Potomac Conference. At the left is L. E. Lenheim of Takoma Park, Md., President of the Columbia Union Conference. Mr. Akers has turned over the principalship of the secondary school to Harold E. Haas of Topeka, Kan. The occasion was the dedication ceremony for the new W. H. Jones Cafeteria at the Academy.

Peterson distributed gift awards to the Minutemen and Jasper Waynes. Immediately after the Ingathering victory song, he spoke from the text, 2 Corinthians 5:17: "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away. . . ." To this he added in admonition: "Men and women are as wicked today as they were in the days of Noah and Lot. If old things are truly put away, we must cease to follow the Devil and begin to follow Christ. God judges us by our spiritual attitude, not what we are, but what we may become. We shall have only one desire when we are in Christ, and that desire is to keep the commandments of God. As Christians, we have no right to question the lives of others, and we should so live that no one could ever find any justifiable accusation against us. We do not refuse strong drink, smokes, or other worldly inducements because we are in the church, but we refuse them because we are in Christ Jesus, and if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature."

Story of $60,000 Gift to B.M.A. To Be Told at Camp Meeting

The joy of sacrifice, the thrill of being used of God in the fulfillment of His purposes will be revealed by Alvin and Grace Wetzel for the first time on the last Sabbath of the East Pennsylvania Conference Camp Meeting.

God used the Wetzels to demonstrate that He "can do exceeding abundantly above all that we can ask or think." Their unselfish devotion brought to Blue Mountain Academy its largest single contribution—$60,000.

A further account of this remarkable experience will appear in a later issue of the VISITOR.

Biology Study Reveals Divine Handiwork

"THE story of life science constitutes one of the most interesting fields of learning."

So spoke Lester Harris, chairman of the W.M.C. Department of Biology, when queried about the study of natural science.

An alumnus of W.M.C., class of 1949, Prof. Harris, in these 10 years, has helped shape a program now represented by 45 majors, a biology field station, complete laboratory facilities, and a competent staff. Dr. J. M. Keller, an associate professor, and John Davidson, instructor, complete the biology faculty.

A bachelor of arts degree with a 36-hour major is currently offered in biology. Topics thoroughly pursued include field natural history, human anatomy and physiology, zoology, genetics, botany, and others.

Highlighting numerous activities in the vast field of natural science are the frequent field trips which carry some classes as far as Florida. The immediate Washington area is replete with plant, animal, and reptile life, biology students have discovered. Both the Headwaters, Va., field station, where a full summer schedule is now in progress, and nearby areas provide natural object lessons in the academic discipline of biology.

To know biology, the story of life science, is to know life itself, believe W.M.C. biologists; hence, the aim of the department: to afford to him who seeks a professional or liberal arts preparation a knowledge of the life science wherein lies the handiwork of God.
