Records Set in 1961 at the Washington Sanitarium and Hospital

By D. A. Roth

Public Relations Secretary, Columbia Union Conference

THE Washington Sanitarium and Hospital—the largest institution in the Columbia Union Conference—set new records in 1961:

- 17,290 emergency room patients.
- 94.2% occupancy for the year.
- 65,000 outpatients recorded.
- 11,825 patients admitted for an average stay of 7.36 days.

H. S. Nelson

These impressive figures were released this week by Henry S. Nelson, Administrator of the multi-million-dollar hospital located in Takoma Park, Md.

But accomplishments of the past are merely facts for the books, Mr. Nelson says. The important news is what is planned for the future.

The busy administrator, now 11 years in his present post, revealed the following plans:

- Expansion of the emergency and X-ray facilities. Scheduled to get under way this year, the addition will increase efficiency, double capacity, and take care of expanded emergency care.
- Extensive expansion of the laboratory. At the same time some of the services of the institution—laundry, operating room, etc.—will also benefit from an extension now being considered.

• Long-range plans call for a 150-bed addition to the existing hospital building which will replace the present Annex. The new unit will include administrative and business offices.

A new doctors' office building, now being considered, will also help to relieve the congested conditions on the main floor of the hospital building. The new medical unit will be located very close to the present hospital.

The year 1961 was the best in the history of the hospital, Mr. Nelson says. The number of employees rose to 780, full- and part-time, the equivalent of 600 full-time persons. The total wages also reached a new all-time high in 1961.

The hospital director also reported that the institution did a total of $68,114.78 worth of charity work for the year. A total of $46,251.97 was spent on new equipment and an additional $23,823.55 was expended on furnishings.

The patient list of 11,825 was 515 more than in the year 1960 and the emergency room total was 2,000 more than the number for the previous 12-month period.

There are 49 physicians on the active staff with 59 on the associate staff. In addition there are more than 600 physicians on the courtesy list.

Parking facilities were expanded in the past two years until now there are spaces for 350 cars on the grounds. The power plant was entirely remodeled at a cost of more than $100,000 and two new 250-horsepower boilers were installed and converted from coal to oil consumption.

Effective direction is being given to the work of the hospital by the Board of Trustees, directed by the chairman, Elder L. E. Lenheim, President of the Columbia Union Conference. The hospital is well on its way to another banner year in 1962.

Missionary Doctor to Be on "Faith for Today" Telecast

A SEVENTH-DAY Adventist missionary physician, Dr. Stanley Gordon Sturges, who recently received an award from the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce as one of the Ten Outstanding Young Men of the Year, will be interviewed by Pastor and Mrs. W. A. Fagal on one of the forthcoming telecasts.

Stanley G. Sturges

On January 20 at Santa Monica, Calif., Dr. Sturges appeared with nine other outstanding young Americans to receive the "Jaycee" award for 1961. In the exclusive group were leading young scientists, businessmen, and government officials such as Virgil Grisson, space astronaut, Newton N. Minow, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, and Frank Ray Keyser, Jr., of Vermont, youngest governor in the United States.

Dr. Sturges is admirably referred to as "Mr. America" by the Nepalese where he serves as director of the Himalayan Medical Mission. He is the lone practitioner of western medicine among the half-million inhabitants who reside in the eastern district of this land that lies near the border of Red China.

Known in and out of missionary circles as "Dr. Stan," he has been called the counterpart of the late Dr. Tom Dooley because of his pioneer medical work in this colorful mountain country. To begin his venture he had to overcome the tight security regulations which prohibited the setting up of enterprises by foreign interests. Another regulation required the setting up of hospitals on government property, and available government land seemed to be non-existent. God's providence, working through the people of Benapa, a village of 4,000 at an altitude of 4,700 feet, made the purchase of this land possible. Then a large gift by Clifford Scheer, a Springfield, N. J., construction engineer, provided the funds needed to erect the 20-bed hospital.

Dr. Sturges' physical stature of six feet, four inches makes him a giant among the men of this land whose average height is five feet two inches. He also reflects a tall image of the love of God through a medical missionary program which is making a strong and persistent spiritual impact upon the population of Buddhists and Hindus.

Because it is necessary to send the program from one station to another, other stations will receive the program later. Future schedules will be listed when they are defined.

Those within the coverage of the above stations are urged to contact friends and neighbors. Contact with such related interest groups as medical groups and chambers of commerce may prove very fruitful in publicizing this outstanding telecast. Additional information concerning the work of Dr. Sturges is detailed in the center spread and back page of the 1961 Ingathering folder.

When You Change Your Address

You will not want to miss your Columbia Union VISITOR when you move, so please tell us, well in advance, what your new address will be. (It is not enough just to tell the post office for they will not forward your copies unless you pay extra postage.) When you write to your local conference office, be sure to give your old address, too—even better, enclose a clipping of the address label from a recent issue. We shall see that you do not miss a single copy if you notify us at least six weeks in advance of your moving date. Write to your conference headquarters office. For a listing of the offices see page 15 of this issue.

S O S Call for Clothing

We have just received word from our New York Warehouse that the warehouse is empty and is in need of clothing. They could use several tons immediately.

We are wondering if our churches and especially our Dorcas societies would like to prepare several boxes and send them immediately to the warehouse in New York. There may be some who would like to send a truckload of material. To those who would be willing to do so we are asking that all parcels be sent to: Seventh-day Adventist Welfare Service, Inc., 41-46 58th Street, Woodside 77, Long Island, N. Y.

We certainly would appreciate anything that you can do—and please do it NOW.

CUC Alumni Select Washington Chapter Officers for 1962

JOHN H. WARD (1950) Principal of the Beltsville, Md., Junior Academy, has been elected President of the Washington Chapter of the Alumni Association of Columbia Union College.

He takes the place vacated by Walter J. Herrell, (1955) who has served as president for the past two years.

Other officers elected for a one-year term are Charles Ojala (1952), vice-president; and Carol Herrell (1951), secretary-treasurer.

Election of new officers took place at a meeting of the chapter on Tuesday night, February 6, in the recreation room of Halcyon Hall. A meeting of the national association also was held the same evening under the direction of the president, Jewell Peeke (1950).

Plans were announced for the annual homecoming of the alumni association on the first weekend in May.

Corry Buffalo-Nickel Project Swells Children's Investment Total

SEVEN hundred and sixty-four buffalos made their way to the Kindergarten-Cradle Roll Department of the Corry Sabbath School during the year 1961—on the backs of Indian-head nickels!

The Investment project for the children was planned in the form of an outline of a buffalo, made large enough to accommodate approximately $12 in nickels.

During the second quarter the buffalo was completely filled and another was started. During the summer, when attendance was lower, it was feared that the second buffalo would not be completed. But soon the adults began taking an interest in the project, and many would come by on Sabbath morning to contribute buffalo nickels they had received during the week.

By the end of December not only was the second buffalo filled, but a third was completed, making a total of $38.20 for the children's investment.

The project was begun under the direction of Mrs. Don Riffle, who later moved away. It was completed under Mrs. Robert Carr and Mrs. Gordon Creighton.

Appreciation

It is hard to find words to express appreciation for the prayers in my behalf, and for the cards and letters I received during my hospitalization as the result of an automobile accident last October. I am convinced that the intercession of our members was the greatest instrument of healing for my body. By the time this is read in the "Visitor" I will be back to work, and would like to solicit continuing prayers that God may use me mightily in the closing hours of earth's history.

Million-Dollar Offering Scheduled for July

THE world session of the General Conference will convene in San Francisco, Calif., in July. Once again missionaries, leaders, and laymen from all parts of the world will gather together praising God for His unparalleled blessings. One of the great tests of worship and praise is found in our giving.

Once again we shall have the opportunity to participate in a Million-Dollar Offering for Missions! Think of it, one million dollars for world evangelism received in one offering! Each conference has been invited to share in this great mission offering.

Here in New Jersey we shall receive this mission gift in our churches on or before June 23. Because of this one great offering, the Annual Mid-Summer Offering and Missions Extension Offering have been combined with it.

Lake Nelson Students Present Program

A PROGRAM of tremendous spiritual impact was presented by students in grades seven and eight of the Lake Nelson School at the January 20 meeting of the Home and School Association. More than 200 people assembled in the school auditorium to witness the program directed by Mrs. Catherine Ashbaugh, instructor in English and speech for the upper grades.

Entitled "Crowned or Crucified," the program utilized a speech choir, special musical groups, and dramatic readings as the means of bringing each viewer to make a personal response to the claims of Christ on his own life. The title reading by the speech choir asked the question, "Will you crown Christ in your life or crucify Him? Which will it be? There is no other way, you see." An original poem, "The Crown and the Cross," was given. It was written by Teachers of the Lake Nelson School. Left to right: Roger Dudley, Principal; Catherine Ashbaugh, grades five and six; in charge of the program; Maureen Clark, grades one and two; Dorothy Hanselman, grades three and four.

School Association leader, especially for the occasion.

Then followed a fast-moving series of presentations narrated by Emil Toth, a seventh-grade student. Ananias and Sapphira, Samson, and Cana, a woman of Noah's time, told how they had chosen the wrong way. The audience saw the church and the world walk first far apart, and then slowly, subtly, walk together. A soldier, who had never believed in God, learned to talk to Him in a foxhole. A girl, who had drifted from the truth found her way back when she heard her father's favorite hymn. The violin showed what could happen at "The Touch of the Master's Hand." And among many other fine things the choir brought us to the place where "We Met the Master Face to Face."

After the close of the student portion of the program the Lake Nelson Adult Community Choir, under the direction of Dean DeBois, sang two numbers.

The program was a great blessing to all present and will long be remembered as a testimony to the rich dividends of Christian education.

Spanish Church Deacons Given Authorization Cards

At the Spanish Church officers' meeting in Hoboken, N. J., January 27, church elders and deacons received their authorization cards to fulfill their duties in their prescribed office. Owing to the many duties of the pastor, it is not always possible for him to visit the sick in institutions as often as he desires, thus these officers will find it more convenient to secure permission to enter hospitals, homes for the aged, and penal institutions. We value highly the leadership of our local church officers.

Elder G. W. Morgan Accepts Call to Texas

ELDER George Morgan, Superintendent of the Hatboro-Orvilla district, has accepted the invitation of the Texas Conference to become the Pastor of the Grand Prairie Church. Elder Morgan is now making preparations for transfer from his duties in the East Pennsylvania Conference to his new pastorate in Texas.

Although a comparatively young man, Elder Morgan is one of the veteran workers of the field inasmuch as he has been in the East Pennsylvania Conference as long as any other man in the field and has served faithfully and well in several pastorates. His last pastorate before accepting the Hatboro-Orvilla post two years ago was Elizabethtown, Port Royal, and New Bloomfield where Elder Morgan was instrumental in the construction of a new church in Elizabethtown and the beginning of a new church home in New Bloomfield. The field will greatly miss Elder Morgan's congenial personality at camp meeting and other Conference meetings. We wish for him and his wife and his three sons the Lord's richest blessings in their transfer to the great Southland.

The Conference Committee has asked Elder Merton Henry of the Waynesboro-Gettysburg-Chambersburg district to assume the responsibilities of the Hatboro and Orvilla Churches. Elder Henry will move to his new pastorate by March 1 to guide the work of the church in this large metropolitan area in suburban Philadelphia.

• THE annual Conference audit for the East Pennsylvania Conference was held Monday and Tuesday, January 29 and 30. The Conference audit, an annual affair, for the purpose of evaluating the progress of the work and the laying of additional plans for the new year, was held at the Conference headquarters office. Officials from the Columbia Union Conference, including Elder L. E. Lenheim, T. R. Gardner, E. F. Willett, E. A. Robertson, and the Conference Executive Committee and four laymen from the field, participated in this audit.

On Tuesday the Academy audit was held at the new administration building. Members participating in this audit included the Conference Executive Committee and the Academy board members. There is evidence of growth in all lines of activity and the strength of our program is in the united efforts of all in keeping all lines of activity and spiritual growth working for the salvation of souls.

• A new Pathfinder Club was organized for the Easton Church Thursday night, January 25. The Club, under the direction of Ronald Achenbach, has a membership of approximately 15 young people and is the first time that a youth organization of this type has been organized in the Easton Church. A new youth program was also organized in the Port Royal Church for the first time on January 9. This organization will foster activities in the JMV and MV classwork along with regular Missionary Volunteer meetings.

Other new youth groups getting under way soon are the Pathfinder organization for the New Bloomfield Church, January 31, and a Master Guide Club in Royersford, February 2.

• The annual audit meetings for the East Pennsylvania Conference and Blue Mountain Academy were held January 29 and 30. Members of the Conference Executive Committee and the Academy Board participated in the audits. Visitors to the field from the Union Conference included Elder L. E. Lenheim, Elder T. R. Gardner, E. F. Willett, and Elder E. A. Robertson.

Active Work for Jews Planned

FROM time to time we proclaim with fervor the many successes that attend our humble efforts to proclaim the last message, and this seems right. In doing this we too often overlook some of the phases of God's work that have not been enjoying the same successes. One of these is the work for the Jewish people.

We are happy to announce that Elder S. A. Kaplan has consented to pioneer the way in a special endeavor to find and win many of those who are looking and longing for the Messiah of the Old Testament.

A weekly radio program on station WWIN, 1:00 P.M. on Sundays, in Baltimore, specially prepared literature, and other attractive features we believe under God's blessing will lead many converts to God's truth in due time.

We trust that every church will enlist in the move to send in to us the names of Jewish people in your area who should receive these materials. Elder Kaplan for many years has been a leader among us in doing a special work for the salvation of this long-neglected group.

Your prayers, cooperation, and support will help much in making this timely new venture of faith all that God would have it to be as the drama of sin draws closer to its conclusion. Note this promise of God:

"When this gospel shall be presented in its fulness to the Jews,

• The East Pennsylvania Conference Camp Meeting is scheduled for 1962 from June 29 to July 7 and is one of the most important events of the Adventist year.

This notice is given in order that you may have opportunity to arrange vacation time, etc., in order to take advantage of these nine days of spiritual meetings on the Wescosville campground.

Applications for accommodations will not be received in the Treasurer's office until the first of May. Notification will be given, listing accommodations available, in the Visitor during the latter part of April.

• Pastor Leon Ringering and his family escaped unharmed from a fire that recently damaged their home. Pastor Ringering and his wife were awakened by the children who had become alarmed at the smell of smoke at 11:00 o'clock on Friday night, February 9. They were able to leave the house unharmed, but suffered a severe loss in furniture and clothing. Pastor Ringering is the district superintendent of the West Chester and Coatesville Churches, having assumed this responsibility right after camp meeting last year.

• Conference workers enjoyed a full day of activity on the campus of Blue Mountain Academy in celebration of the 1962 Ingathering victory on Sunday, February 11. It was an occasion of real rejoicing as it was the first time in the history of our field that every church had reached more than its assigned goal and had become Silver Vanguard churches. This year's campaign brought in the largest amount of money in the shortest time in the history of Ingathering work in this area. Visitors to the picnic included Elder James Chase of the Radio and Television Department of the General Conference and Elder H. K. Halladay, Home Missionary Secretary of the Columbia Union Conference.

Every Church Over Goal In East Pennsylvania

ON Sunday, February 11, the East Pennsylvania Conference workers met at Blue Mountain Academy to celebrate their 1962 Ingathering victory. The report which was rendered was very outstanding and I am sure that the membership of the Columbia Union Conference will be interested to know that every one of the 61 churches in that conference has reached or passed the Silver Vanguard goal of $25 per member. At the present time they report $119,926.29, which is a gain of $4,071.02 over last year's total.

Elder T. H. Weis, the Home Missionary Secretary, should be commended for the outstanding leadership that he has given to the Ingathering program in that conference. Elder Arthur Kiesz, the Conference President, also reported that while the Ingathering was the best in the history of the Conference, the baptisms for last year were the largest that have been reported for many, many years.

We appreciate the work that Elder Kiesz and Elder Weis are doing in East Pennsylvania and we feel that the members have truly demonstrated their loyalty to the support of the world-wide Adventist work.

Church Officers Meet At Baltimore

SABBATH, January 27, was a "high day" for elders, deacons, clerks and treasurers who came from distant churches throughout the Chesapeake Conference to attend special services held at the Baltimore First Church.

The afternoon service was devoted entirely to a church officers' meeting. All treasurers and clerks met together and received special counsel and guidance from Elder W. M. Nosworthy, Conference Secretary-Treasurer.

In a separate meeting nearly 100 elders and deacons listened to Elder A. B. Butler, Conference President, as he pointed out the importance of their office in the church today and the solemn obligation to lead by precept and example the church members to higher ground. Elder Butler stated that the greatest need of the church is the Holy Spirit of God who is to give great power to the finishing of the work on earth.

Elder A. B. Butler stirs the hearts of elders and deacons as he presents the challenge to do greater things for God in 1962.

Local elders and deacons from churches throughout the Chesapeake Conference listen attentively to Elder A. B. Butler as he gives special counsel for church officers.

All left the meeting spiritually refreshed and with a strong determination to return home and lead their churches into a greater organized program for God.

Chesapeake Workers' Meeting Held

Elder Walter Schubert answers questions at the Chesapeake Conference workers' meeting.

THE Baltimore First Church was the scene of the Chesapeake Conference workers' meeting, held January 23. A very cordial welcome was extended to the workers by Elder A. B. Butler, the Conference President.

Elder Walter Schubert of the General Conference Ministerial Department was the guest speaker during the morning and afternoon sessions. His messages inspired all present as he gave instruction concerning a new approach in soul-winning endeavors. The workers greatly appreciated the information given by Elder Schubert.

The evening meeting was unusual in that the workers with their families spent the period in social relaxation and enjoyment. The occasion was a victory banquet in honor of the districts for achieving such an outstanding accomplishment in the Ingathering campaign. Both Elder A. B. Butler and Elder L. E. Lenheim commended the workers for their leadership in leading the churches to victory.

Israelite Magazine Brings Gospel Message to Jews

We wish to place before our members, through the pages of the union conference papers, a very important missionary project, that of the circulation of our missionary journal, Israelite, for the Jewish people. In our division we have more than five and one-half million Jews who are entitled to hear this message. We can do much to help in this matter by subscribing to this quarterly journal for our Jewish friends and neighbors, and at a very nominal cost.

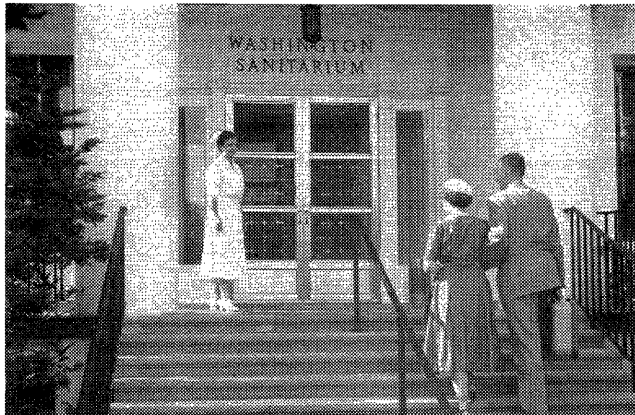

Although costs have risen considerably during the past few years, we are still offering the four issues of the Israelite for one dollar a year. We are hoping and praying for at least 10,000 new names and addresses in this special effort.

If you do not have names and addresses to submit, then please give a donation, and we here at headquarters will be happy to furnish the names and addresses.

This project to reach our Jewish friends is beginning to show results. We have at the present time a subscription list of more than 5,000. We also have an enrollment of about 2,000 in our Bible correspondence course, with lessons especially prepared for the Jewish people. As a result of the influence of this journal, and other activities, there are today between 250 and 300 Jewish families in New York, in Los Angeles, and in Miami that need to be visited.

On Sabbath, March 17, the 10-minute missionary service will be in this special interest, and a four-page color folder will be distributed. This folder will have space on it for several names and addresses. We solicit your prayerful and financial support to place this journal, Israelite, in the homes of the Jewish people.

Penitentiary Responds to
 "Message" Magazine

A FEW weeks ago on the pages of this paper there appeared a little article by the undersigned requesting help to furnish Message magazines to penitentiaries.

Let me quote from a letter just in from one Protestant chaplain: "We received the 35 Message magazines that you were kind enough to send. Since that time I have heard nothing but praise for your magazine, and requests for more. If you can send us perhaps 60 of these magazines per month, both myself and the inmates of this institution will be very appreciative. Your magazine fits in well with the program we have here and what we are trying to accomplish in the way of re-training, re-indoctrination, and rehabilitation. Let me thank you again for your thoughtfulness and your contribution, and may God's richest blessing always be yours. Sincerely, E. C. G., Protestant Chaplain, _____ Penitentiary."

Let me, therefore, through the columns of this paper express to those who contributed so generously a few words of appreciation from those less usual, the fete was held at the Eliot Junior High School. A pre-Christmas activity, the affair was held on December 9.

The program consisted of well-rendered musical numbers and the modeling of clothes by models. Suitable background scenery greatly enhanced and added a realistic touch to many of the scenes.

Among those participating in the musical selections were Lysle Follette, Jeanette Walters, Hugh Craey, James Alherton, and the Overtones. Narrator for the program was Julie Mattingly. Awards and refreshments made the evening enjoyable. Sponsor for the D. C. Chapter of the Oakwood Alumnae Club is Mrs. Myrtle Murphy.

• An unusually inclement night had no effect on the attendance at the "Messiah" at the Dupont Park Church. Members of the church, the community, and lovers of good music everywhere in the city eagerly anticipate this rendition by the well-known Dupont Park Oratorio Society.

Soloists were Joyce Bryant, Ruth Pitts, Edward Jackson, and Henry Blackmon. The Oratorio Society is composed of members of the Dupont Park Choir, the Youth Choir, and others who accept the invitation to sing with the group for this occasion. The director of the Oratorio Society is Mrs. Alma Montgomery Blackmon.

• An evening of oratorio music was presented at the Dupont Park Church on Saturday, January 27. Guest performer was Henry Blackmon, husband of the church choir leader, Mrs. Alma M. Blackmon.

Mr. Blackmon has been well received in several concerts abroad.

Greater Washington Welfare Service

For a number of years the 22 churches in the Washington area have sustained by their means and also their services a welfare unit here in the city of Washington.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors a report was rendered which was most encouraging. At that time Elder E. D. Dick, who is the director of this work, rendered a report of what has been accomplished during 1961. During last year 6,626 people received help. Of these 2,622 were children. Nine hundred seventy-two alcoholics were given some assistance. During the year 27,972 pieces of clothing were distributed. More than 1,870 food baskets were given to those who were in need. When we think that this center is only open two days a week we believe this is an outstanding report. Nearly all that are engaged in the conducting of the work here give their time and their service.

We trust that 1962 will be an even better year than last. The budget for this center for this year calls for $8,975. What better work could our churches do in every city than that which is being done here in Washington?

Takoma Park Organizes For Action in 1962

THE 1,000-member Takoma Park Church has organized for action in all areas of church activity for the year 1962, according to the Pastor, Elder W. J. Keith.

Nineteen different standing committees have been named by the church board to carry on the functions of the church. This is in addition to the more than 75 persons who are functioning as officers and associates in the departments of church activity.

New Book and Bible House in Construction

Pictured here is the only one of its kind, we understand: a new and distinctly separate Book and Bible House under construction for the Potomac Conference. Always, it seems, such houses are in some way connected with some institution or other building. The building is 100 by 80 feet with a show room of 65 by 50 feet. It will provide ample storage and shipping space as well as offices and rooms for personnel. Both the Conference and the Review and Herald are assisting financially in this much-needed project. According to E. S. Knecht, Book and Bible House Manager, it will be open for business by June 1. Located at 8400 Carroll Avenue, Takoma Park, Md., near Takoma Academy, with a large area for parking, it will be easily accessible to all.

The various committees, together with the name of the chairman, are as follows: pastoral, W. J. Keith; finance, W. E. Phillips; membership, Curtis Quackenbush; music, V. B. Engeberg; reception, Mrs. Edna Cardey; floral, Mrs. R. W. Reed; correspondence, Mrs. C. D. Meyer; hostesses, Mrs. V. B. Engeberg; MV social, C. W. Hermann; educational, Truman Hendryx; Review and Herald, R. L. Odum; janitorial, P. Hottel; electronics and electrical, E. E. Pester; grounds, R. L. Abernathy; key, J. A. Stevens; and church property, V. B. Engeberg.

A high light of the church program for the first part of the year is the weekly class in the Prophetic Guidance Course directed by Elder D. A. Delafield. More than 200 persons are attending the Wednesday-night classes and 175 are actually enrolled for the 24-lesson course.

In January Elder A. O. Dart conducted a special series of lectures on the Christian Home. The Faith for Today TV group made a personal appearance at the church on Sabbath, February 10, when the annual TV offering was taken. Two weeks earlier Elder H. M. S. Richards, speaker for the Voice of Prophecy program, spoke at a Sabbath-afternoon MV meeting.

Plans for future activities of the church include a full concert on the church's new pipe organ by Brad Braley of the Voice of Prophecy on Sunday night, March 18. A dedication service is planned at that time for the organ as well as the concert by the visiting artist.

The Lord is blessing in the program of the headquarters church of the denomination.

Prince George's Medical Clinic Serves Community

THE Prince George's Medical Center, 4807 42nd Place, Hyattsville, Md., was founded in the early 1930's by the Review and Herald Memorial Church. The prime objective was to benefit residents of the area who could not afford medical care during the depression years.

Currently eight doctors take turns donating their time to the Center during the week, and a dentist is on duty for emergency extractions. An eye specialist comes in once a month. All of the nursing assistance is voluntary with the exception of one part-time worker and the director.

The local Lions' Club for a number of years has given a substantial amount of eye equipment.

The patient list is limited to those persons referred by other organizations, such as welfare groups, etc.

Obstetrical cases are taken to the Washington Sanitarium and Hospital, but surgical cases are taken to both the Washington Sanitarium and Hospital and Leland Memorial Hospital.

Prince George's Medical Center, Hyattsville, Md.

All pre-natal and post-natal care is given at the Center.

Mrs. Marjorie Robinson, R.N., is the director of the Center. A graduate of the Loma Linda School of Nursing in California in 1942, she took postgraduate work and obtained her B.S. degree in Nursing Education from Walla Walla College, in Washington, in 1944. She started working at the Center in 1948.

The group of doctors sees about 4,100 patients yearly, averaging about 85 a week. Sunday is the busiest time, when office hours are from 9:00 to 12:00. Office hours on Monday and Tuesday are by special appointment only. On Wednesdays and Thursdays patients register between 9:00 and 9:30 and doctors are on duty from 10:00 to noon.

Patients pay a small fee for services, according to their ability to pay. The clinic is also supported by the Hospital Service Agency (part of the U.G.F.) and private contributions. The direct sponsor is the membership of the Hyattsville Church under the direction of the Pastor, Elder Ted Webster.

Brad Braley to Give Concert In Takoma Park Church

BRAD BRALEY, organist for the Voice of Prophecy radio program, will present a full concert at the console of the new pipe organ in the Takoma Park Church on Sunday night, March 18.

Elder W. J. Keith, Pastor, says that the occasion will also mark the dedication of the organ.

Brad Braley is well known for his artistry at the organ. He served as the main organist for the national Youth Congress in Atlantic City, N. J., where he played the largest organ in the world in Convention Hall.

Plan now to attend this special musical event.

Capital Memorial Church Plans New Building

ELDER J. R. Johnson, Pastor of the Capital Memorial Church of Washington, D. C., has announced plans for the construction of a new church for his congregation.

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the church construction program will be held on Sunday, April 1, at 2:15 P.M. The building will be erected on a one-and-one-fourth-acre lot on Chesapeake Street, less than a block from busy and well-known Connecticut Avenue in the northwest section of Washington, D. C.

The architect's drawing for the new church can be seen in the line cut on this page. The new church will replace the old building at the corner of Fifth and F Streets, which has been used for many years.

Scheduled to participate in the ground-breaking rites are General Conference, Union Conference, and local conference officials. Construction is expected to take about 18 months.

Father-Son Banquet Held at Parkersburg Junior Academy

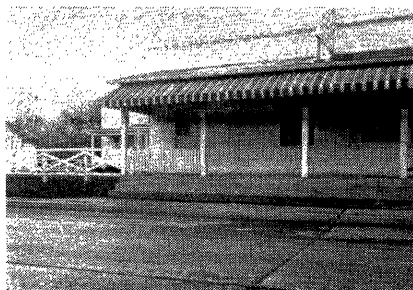

The Parkersburg Junior Academy gymnasium was the scene of the annual father-son banquet in which some 50 father-son combinations were associated. In most cases the fathers had their sons with them, but where there were too many sons in a family or where the father just could not be there, a proxy father was provided. Seated at the speaker's table are: William Jarvis, teacher; Arnold Jones; Louis Wildman, Principal; Larry Buckley, a representative of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., principal speaker; Tommy Foll; Elder M. E. Foll, district pastor; Michael Whited, president of the Students' Association; J. H. McHenry; Jere Patzer; and Elder A. J. Patzer, Conference President.

SVA Faculty and Students Play Santa to Neighboring Children

"I LIKE you!" declared three-year-old Rodney Silvius as he looked into the jolly face of Santa Claus, portrayed by Mr. Copenhagen. Rodney was one of the six children of a neighboring family who were given a Christmas party by the students and faculty of Shenandoah Valley Academy.

It was Thursday night, December 14, the third annual party of its kind.

The other children were Virginia, 12; Anna, 10; Edward, 7; David, 6; and Cindy, 5. Their faces lighted up as they unwrapped the many clothes and gifts toward which the students and faculty had given their money.

A short program was given before the opening of the presents. Mrs. Helmut Liers, our school registrar, demonstrated her ability to give the name and address of any student in the school who could catch a "chocolate kiss" from Elder Haas, our principal. Elder Haas showed how he could remember 30 items named by the audience and written on a blackboard. Mrs. Robert Silvers, band director, and Sara Jane Anders, Assistant Dean of Girls, sang a duet entitled "Blue Christmas." This was followed by Mrs. Richard Harris who, posing as "Grandma," sang to the children.

The Christmas party was one of the many activities which the newly organized Students' Association has planned for the year.

W. R. Beach Speaks on "Communism and Religion"

AN objective of Columbia Union College is to stimulate thought and develop culture among its students.

In pursuit of this objective a series of programs is being presented in assembly, throughout the school year, in which topics of vital interest to the church in its relation to the world are being presented.

Two of these programs, one on the philosophy of religion, and another on the psychology of religion, were given during the first semester. The third lecture in the series, entitled "Communism and Religion," was presented by Elder W. R. Beach, Secretary of the General Conference.

Taking part in the panel discussion were: Pastor R. Shaheen, minister of the Silver Spring Lutheran Church; Dr. Bela Maday, Special Operations Research Assistant at American University; Jewell Peeke of the General Conference Insurance Department; and Dr. Stephen S. Hiten, Chairman of the Speech Department at C.U.C.

Elder Beach, introducing his subject, pointed out that a billion people outside the western world face disease and misery. Communism is a philosophy of faith and hope which purports to offer a way out of human misery.

"It is a religion," said Elder Beach, "which puts the human race in place of God. It claims to answer fundamental problems of life and offers a framework in which man can understand himself and the world."

The process of historical development will lead to the disappearance of the church, according to Communist reasoning. It is only exploited people who need its hope and there will be no need of Christian faith in a classless society.

"Unfortunately," declared Elder Beach, "Communists identify their concept of Christianity and its exploitation with the phony Christianity with which they have often been acquainted."

"Seventh-day Adventists," he emphasized, "do not get involved in politics. They are not anti-anything. Instead they have a dynamic program which stands for something positive in the world."

"Christianity," he concluded, "is a bridge, not a chasm. The church must continue to develop a sense of mission and concern itself with a total witness for the truth."

New Summer Session Plan Announced

DR. Charles B. Hirsch announces a new plan for the Columbia Union College Summer Session to be inaugurated this summer with the arrival of Robert E. Firth, Ph.D., as guest lecturer in the field of Business Administration.

Robert E. Firth

Dr. Firth is Chairman of the Department of Business and Economics at Union College, Lincoln, Nebr. In 1960 he was a Fellow in the Economics in Action program at the University of Wisconsin, and is the author of Power on the Plains, being published by the University of Nebraska Press.

Dr. Lloyd Mauldin, Chairman of the Department of Education, will be a guest professor at Union College during the same period, as part of the exchange program. Dr. Hirsch hopes that this will be only the beginning of such a plan to be followed in succeeding summers.

Student Manuscripts Sought for Anthology

MANUSCRIPTS from all intermediate schools and junior and senior academies in the Columbia Union Conference are sought for the 1962 edition of First the Blade, the academy anthology of creative writing.

Last year's initial venture in this effort to stimulate originality and creativeness among the youth in Seventh-day Adventist schools printed 31 articles and poems in its 20 pages.

Each school is invited to submit at least five student essays, poems, or editorials. This creative emphasis need not conflict with Instructor Pen League participation, for articles printed in the Blade are much shorter: 30 lines of poetry, 300 words of prose, maximum.

Address orders and manuscripts to Shirley Burton, Anthology Editor, Laurelwood Academy, Gaston, Ore.

Bible Lands Tour, 1963, Sponsored by AU

THE third guided tour to Western Europe and the Bible Lands sponsored by the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, Andrews University, will be conducted in the summer of 1963. Departure from New York June 16. Return August 9. The following countries will be visited: England, France, Italy, Greece, Egypt, Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, Jordan, and Israel. Four semester-hours of academic graduate credit will be granted to qualified students. The tour is designed in the first place for Bible teachers and ministers, but is open also to other Seventh-day Adventists as far as space is available.

Send for further information and application blanks to S. H. Horn, Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Mich.

Father-Son Banquet Held at Parkersburg Junior Academy

The Parkersburg Junior Academy gymnasium was the scene of the annual father-son banquet in which some 50 father-son combinations were associated. In most cases the fathers had their sons with them, but where there were too many sons in a family or where the father just could not be there, a proxy father was provided. Seated at the speaker's table are: William Jarvis, teacher; Arnold Jones; Louis Wildman, Principal; Larry Buckley, a representative of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., principal speaker; Tommy Foll; Elder M. E. Foll, district pastor; Michael Whited, president of the Students' Association; J. H. McHenry; Jere Patzer; and Elder A. J. Patzer, Conference President.

Wheeling Church Members Welcome New Pastor

On January 7 in the Wheeling Church basement the Wheeling Church members officially welcomed their pastor, Elder O. L. Parish, Mrs. Parish, and Cheryl at a fellowship luncheon. At this same occasion the Wheeling Church members also celebrated their Ingathering victory. Under the aggressive leadership of Elder Parish and with the support of the members, not only in Wheeling, but also in Weirton and Cameron, this district surpassed any previous year's Ingathering achievement.—Mrs. Gladys Shallenberger, Wheeling Church member.

Parkersburg Dorcas Welfare House

One of the strongest Dorcas Societies in the West Virginia Conference operates in Parkersburg. They meet in their five-room center three times each week. The leader, Mrs. Lucy Hileman, reports that their Dorcas House is a beehive of activity. The center is located on the busy highway, U.S. 50.

SVA Faculty and Students Play Santa to Neighboring Children

"I LIKE you!" declared three-year-old Rodney Silvious as he looked into the jolly face of Santa Claus, portrayed by Mr. Copenhaver. Rodney was one of the six children of a neighboring family who were given a Christmas party by the students and faculty of Shenandoah Valley Academy.

It was Thursday night, December 14, the third annual party of its kind.

The other children were Virginia, 12; Anna, 10; Edward, 7; David, 6; and Cindy, 5. Their faces lighted up as they unwrapped the many clothes and gifts toward which the students and faculty had given their money.

A short program was given before the opening of the presents. Mrs. Helmut Liers, our school registrar, demonstrated her ability to give the name and address of any student in the school who could catch a "chocolate kiss" from Elder Haas, our principal. Elder Haas showed how he could remember 30 items named by the audience and written on a blackboard. Mrs. Robert Silvers, band director, and Sara Jane Anders, Assistant Dean of Girls, sang a duet entitled "Blue Christmas." This was followed by Mrs. Richard Harris who, posing as "Grandma," sang to the children.

The Christmas party was one of the many activities which the newly organized Students' Association has planned for the year.

W. R. Beach Speaks on "Communism and Religion"

AN objective of Columbia Union College is to stimulate thought and develop culture among its students.

In pursuit of this objective a series of programs is being presented in assembly, throughout the school year, in which topics of vital interest to the church in its relation to the world are being presented.

Two of these programs, one on the philosophy of religion, and another on the psychology of religion, were given during the first semester. The third lecture in the series, entitled "Communism and Religion," was presented by Elder W. R. Beach, Secretary of the General Conference.

Taking part in the panel discussion were: Pastor R. Shaheen, minister of the Silver Spring Lutheran Church; Dr. Bela Maday, Special Operations Research Assistant at American University; Jewell Peeke of the General Conference Insurance Department; and Dr. Stephen S. Hiten, Chairman of the Speech Department at C.U.C.

Elder Beach, introducing his subject, pointed out that a billion people outside the western world face disease and misery. Communism is a philosophy of faith and hope which purports to offer a way out of human misery.

"It is a religion," said Elder Beach, "which puts the human race in place of God. It claims to answer fundamental problems of life and offers a framework in which man can understand himself and the world."

The process of historical development will lead to the disappearance of the church, according to Communist reasoning. It is only exploited people who need its hope and there will be no need of Christian faith in a classless society.

"Unfortunately," declared Elder Beach, "Communists identify their concept of Christianity and its exploitation with the phony Christianity with which they have often been acquainted."

"Seventh-day Adventists," he emphasized, "do not get involved in politics. They are not anti-anything. Instead they have a dynamic program which stands for something positive in the world."

"Christianity," he concluded, "is a bridge, not a chasm. The church must continue to develop a sense of mission and concern itself with a total witness for the truth."

New Summer Session Plan Announced

Dr. Charles B. Hirsch announces a new plan for the Columbia Union College Summer Session to be inaugurated this summer with the arrival of Robert E. Firth, Ph.D., as guest lecturer in the field of Business Administration.

Robert E. Firth

Dr. Firth is Chairman of the Department of Business and Economics at Union College, Lincoln, Nebr. In 1960 he was a Fellow in the Economics in Action program at the University of Wisconsin, and is the author of Power on the Plains, being published by the University of Nebraska Press.

Dr. Lloyd Mauldin, Chairman of the Department of Education, will be a guest professor at Union College during the same period, as part of the exchange program. Dr. Hirsch hopes that this will be only the beginning of such a plan to be followed in succeeding summers.

Band and Choir Concert Tours Scheduled

SPRING tours by the concert band and A Cappella Choir of Columbia Union College were announced this week.

March 2-3 are dates set for band concerts in Ohio and Pennsylvania. The itinerary is listed below. The director is Norman L. Krogstad, Associate Professor of Music and the band's leader since 1957.

On April 14 the A Cappella Choir, directed by Glenn Wayne Cole, begins a two-day itinerary of cities in Virginia. The 50-voice group will sing six concerts during the tour.

Prospective college students are especially invited to attend the performances. The Madrigal Singers concluded a seven-concert tour a week ago.

Campus News

• FACULTY members of the Education Department attended the meeting of the American Association of School Administrators held in Atlantic City. Dr. Mauldin, Chairman of the Department, also attended the convention of the American Association of Colleges of Teacher Education.

• Aletha Walker, who holds a master's degree from Catholic University, is assisting the Department as a nursing instructor this semester. Miss Walker will plan and supervise the educational program of the students in public-health nursing.

• The Andrews University-Columbia Union College advisory committee on the graduate nursing program met recently on the campus. Visiting C.U.C. were President Floyd Rittenhouse, Vice-President Fabian Meier, and the Dean of the Graduate School, Dr. Emil Leffler.

• Elder John Klim, speaking in assembly, urged students to set a course rather than follow one, and to let no obstacle get in the way. Elder Klim, a C.U.C. graduate, is Pastor of the Richmond, Va., Church.

• The Sylvaleers, freshmen male quartet, performed for a guest night of the Alexandria Harmonizers, a Virginia male chorus. The contact was made after the quartet was heard over WGTS in a devotional series on the air. Loren Dickinson, speech instructor, accompanied the group as announcer.

Student Manuscripts Sought for Anthology

MANUSCRIPTS from all intermediate schools and junior and senior academies in the Columbia Union Conference are sought for the 1962 edition of First the Blade, the academy anthology of creative writing.

Last year's initial venture in this effort to stimulate originality and creativeness among the youth in Seventh-day Adventist schools printed 31 articles and poems in its 20 pages.

Each school is invited to submit at least five student essays, poems, or editorials. This creative emphasis need not conflict with Instructor Pen League participation, for articles printed in the Blade are much shorter: 30 lines of poetry, 300 words of prose, maximum.

Address orders and manuscripts to Shirley Burton, Anthology Editor, Laurelwood Academy, Gaston, Ore.

Bible Lands Tour, 1963, Sponsored by AU

THE third guided tour to Western Europe and the Bible Lands sponsored by the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, Andrews University, will be conducted in the summer of 1963. Departure from New York June 16. Return August 9. The following countries will be visited: England, France, Italy, Greece, Egypt, Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, Jordan, and Israel. Four semester-hours of academic graduate credit will be granted to qualified students. The tour is designed in the first place for Bible teachers and ministers, but is open also to other Seventh-day Adventists as far as space is available.

Send for further information and application blanks to S. H. Horn, Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Mich.
