Voice of Prophecy Offering Sabbath, October 12

By D. A. Roth

Radio-TV Secretary, Columbia Union Conference

H. M. S. Richards, Jr.

ON Sabbath, October 12, the annual Voice of Prophecy offering will be taken in all of our churches in the Columbia Union Conference. This is not a routine offering. It provides one-fifth of the annual Voice of Prophecy budget. This year's offering could be the last received in our churches—no one knows!

We do know that this message will be finished in a great wave of triumph and that the last movements will be rapid ones. That is why I urge every one of you who reads this article to help make this year's offering the finest and best ever made. The 1964 radio and Bible school budget is being built on an anticipated church offering in excess of $300,000 for North America. Our total in this union conference should be more than $40,000.

Plan NOW to bring a large offering to your church this coming Sabbath, October 12. Help the world-wide work of the Voice of Prophecy. Help to make the Columbia Union Conference total this year the largest ever!

A New Teaching Guide

By Gaston W. Wallace

Book Editorial Department, Southern Publishing Association

It's new—no, not the idea, but the follow-up service. This idea of teaching is an old one. Ever since creation, man has been learning, and that is as it should be. There is a reward in learning, but he that is doubly benefited is he that teaches; and he that teaches in the Sabbath School is more than doubly benefited, for he not only is helping others to grasp the hand that brings eternal life, but he is being drawn closer to it himself.

He is employed in "one of the (most) important branches of the work." This work "should not be left to chance, or to haphazard management." If conducted as it should be, "the efforts made in the pulpit to present the truth in a manner to win souls may be deepened." "The teachers should be of that class who have a living connection with God, who have an appetite for study themselves, who will give time and moral earnestness to their work, and who will not be satisfied unless they see something accomplished" (Testimonies on Sabbath School Work, p. 12).

"The true teacher is not satisfied with second-rate work. He is not satisfied with directing his students to a standard lower than the highest which it is possible for them to attain" (Education, p. 29).

With this in mind, a great need that has existed for quite some time has been met by a follow-up service in the form of the new book, Teach: A Guide to Effective Sabbath School Teaching, by Elder Stanley S. Will, Sabbath School Secretary of the Southern Union Conference, who has had years of experience and has a special burden for the work of Sabbath School teachers.

This book, just off the press at the Southern Publishing Association, was prepared at the request of the General Conference Sabbath School Advisory Committee and will be of great help to all teachers in the senior and youth Sabbath School classes as you better prepare yourselves for this rewarding service.

It is ready now—at your Book and Bible House.

Valuable Information— Save for Future Reference

SEVERAL of our members have lost their appeal for unemployment compensation simply because they have failed to make the proper application. This can happen even though the United States Supreme Court has made a decision in favor of an individual who refuses to accept employment on the seventh-day Sabbath. Therefore, it is extremely important, when a person loses his job, to follow the correct procedures in applying for unemployment compensation.

Here are six points that should be kept in mind when filing. It would be well to clip this out and save for future reference.

1. Complete application blank for unemployment compensation must be properly filled out.

2. Immediate attention should be called to the fact that the individual will not work from sundown Friday to sundown Saturday.

3. All other employment experience must be listed.

4. At the first hearing before the board insert all pertinent material necessary to make a full and complete record.

5. Time element of appeal to the Appeal Board and also the Court must be observed, or notice must be given of appeal within prescribed time limit.

6. Employ an attorney and follow his counsel in preparing the record. Some cases may be of sufficient importance to schedule for the higher courts. It is recommended that, in case of doubt, the individual should contact the Religious Liberty Secretary of the local conference for additional help.

New Film Planned by Temperance Department

NATIONALLY known TV news commentator, Ron Cochran, has been named narrator for the "Becky" film, soon to be shown in the Columbia Union Conference.

Anchor man of ABC-TV's "Ron Cochran With the News," Mr. Cochran also serves on major events telecasts such as election-night returns. From 1945 to 1954 he was a CBS correspondent in Washington. He was transferred to CBS News in New York in 1954, and built a huge following with his "New York Report" and "The Late News."

"Cochran not only narrates this film, but also appears personally in it," said Mike A. Jones, Temperance Department coordinator of "Becky." He said "Becky" will be released for national television by December 15.

Family Reunion Marks Wedding Anniversary

THE five children of Charles and Josephine Paden conducted a most unusual celebration of their parents' golden wedding anniversary on the weekend of August 23-25.

It began with a program of religious music provided by the Paden family at the MV service in the Hagerstown Church, Friday night. Participating were the children: Elder Cecil Paden of Vincennes, Ind.; Marion Paden, in charge of the Admissions Department of the Florida Sanitarium at Orlando; Leon Paden, Vice-President of the Owens Glass Company, with headquarters in Medellin, Colombia, South America; Mrs. Ludivin Strickler, a nurse at the Ellijay, Ga., hospital; and Mrs. Lois Hesterman of Phoenix, Ariz.

This was the first time that the entire group had gotten together in 17 years.

On Saturday night a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hartle in Williamsport. Pastor and Mrs. Joseph Melashenko, with their five boys, joined with the Padens in a musical program, featuring the songs of their earlier years at home.

A Sunday-afternoon reunion brought together the Paden family from far and near at the Cavetown picnic grounds. The climax came on Sunday night at Mt. Aetna Academy, with a "This Is Your Life" program, with Marion Paden as narrator, beginning with school days in old Mount Vernon College, where the couple met, and carrying through mission years in Spanish Honduras and service as Treasurer of the New Jersey, Chesapeake, West Pennsylvania, and West Virginia Conferences.

The 10-by-20-foot canvas pictures world history as found in the Bible. The events begin with the Garden of Eden and end with the Holy City as written in Revelation. The colorful multi-scene story is being used as a back-drop for Ohio's newly organized Bornstein-Cummings evangelistic group.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Miller left their comfortable home in Akron to spend 10 days in a tent. Since "Old Glory" was not forgotten when packing the household utensils, they flew their flag on the Fourth of July just the same. The Millers were attending the annual camp meeting, June 27 to July 7, in Mount Vernon. The population of the 10-day "tent town" crowded the 1,000 mark. The Millers' neighbors said: "The flag gave this commemorative centennial session just what it needed—that patriotic touch!"

Mrs. Edith Shultz, 80

MRS. Edith Shultz, who is 80 years old, just could not stay away from Mount Vernon. Although she has lived in a dozen or more cities in the United States and overseas, she still considers Mount Vernon her "home."

For three days and two nights she traveled 3,000 miles in a bus across the United States to attend the one hundredth anniversary of the Ohio Conference and camp meeting, from June 27 to July 7.

Despite eight decades of life, Mrs. Shultz's clear memory recalled the first Ohio Conference camp meeting she attended at Mount Vernon 75

Everyone brought his own food along, sometimes even cows for fresh milk. Today we have fine pavilions, spacious auditoriums, convenient dining rooms, and other modern accommodations of the 20th-century meeting. But people today still like to live in tents," she beamed.

The last word is what these listeners were intent on getting. Located in a special 24-place sound room of the 3,000-capacity auditorium on the Mount Vernon Academy campus, these tape recorder enthusiasts are "permanentizing" the services—six a day—as they were conducted during the Centennial Celebration of the Ohio Conference.

Alan, who was attending the annual Ohio Conference Camp Meeting on the Mount Vernon Academy campus, fell and cut his face as he returned from the campfire one night.

Personnel Changes Announced

To meet the needs of our growing work, and also to fill vacancies created when several Allegheny Conference workers were called to other positions and to other fields of labor, the Allegheny Conference Committee recently voted the transfer of a considerable number of its ministerial force, as announced by Elder W. L. Cheatham, Conference President.

After 17 years of service in the Allegheny Conference in various capacities, including that of Conference Educational Superintendent, Public Relations Department Secretary, and MV Department Secretary, Elder A. V. Pinkney was called to the presidency of Oakwood College in Huntsville, Ala., effective as of July 1, 1963. Earlier Elder Jacob Justiss had been asked to assume leadership of the MV Department. Brooks, formerly Principal of Pine Forge Institute, was voted to become the Educational Superintendent of the Conference, effective August 1, 1963.

Other changes which were voted included the transfer of the following pastors, effective August 1, 1963: Elder Milton Thomas from Richmond, Va., to be pastor of the Bethel Church in Cleveland, Ohio, and the Akron Church; Elder U. S. Willis from Dayton, Ohio, to Richmond, Va.; Elder D. L. Davis from the Englewood, Montclair, and Jersey City, N. J., Churches to Dayton and Springfield, Ohio; Pastor Paul Bridgeford, to labor as a ministerial intern in the Dayton-Springfield district; Elder Charles Cheatham, from Columbus, Ga., to be the Pastor of the Englewood, Montclair, and Jersey City, N. J., district; Elder Leon Cox from the North Philadelphia, Pa., Church to the Cincinnati, Hamilton, and Germantown, Ohio, district, to fill the vacancy made by the call of Elder George Rainey to the Atlantic Union Conference as evangelist.

Philadelphia and West Philadelphia, Pa., Churches. Elder J. C. C., First Church to the Newark and Washington, N. J., district; Elder John Wagner, Jr., was called from the Newark and Washington, N. J., district to the First Church, Washington, D. C.

Effective November 1, 1963, Elder C. D. Brooks, Pastor of the Cleveland, Ohio, Glenville Church, has been called to connect with the Columbia Union Conference as Union Conference Revivalist and Associate Secretary of Church Development Service.

Pine Forge Institute Opens With 140 Students

PINE Forge Institute's 17th academic year is under way with an initial enrollment of 140 students—75 girls and 65 boys, a new principal, four new faculty members, a new school bus, and a new $351,000 brick girls' dormitory, including the new sewage disposal plant.

Registration began on Tuesday, September 3, at 9:00 o'clock in the morning, and by the next day Prof. Harold Anthony, Registrar, reported that 140 students had been enrolled and others were expected to bring the total to about 175 in the next few days. This will be the largest enrollment in the school's history. Student assistants to the registrar have been Betty Darby, who will be attending Columbia Union College this fall, Wilma Mitchell, senior, and Virginia Lester and Geneva Simons, both juniors.

Of the 140 students already enrolled for this school year, 14 are from foreign countries. There are 10 students from Bermuda, alone, who came by plane. Other places represented are Kenya, East Africa; Kingston, Jamaica; and the Bahamas.

The new Principal is Prof. Robert Palmer from Cleveland, Ohio. He is a graduate of Oakwood College, Huntsville, Ala.; obtained his M.A. degree from Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Mich.; earned a Master of Religious Education degree from Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio; and has studied toward a doctor's degree in education at Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio.

In addition to the regular staff of dedicated teachers at the boarding academy, four new teachers are joining the staff this year. They are: Winston Silvera, a graduate of Atlantic Union College, South Lancaster, Mass., who heads the Science Department, replacing Prof. Clarence Nemhard, who resigned to do doctorate study at Howard University, Washington, D. C.; Robert Booker, a graduate of Lincoln College, Lincoln, Nebr., who heads the History Department; Hazel Graham, a graduate of Emmanuel Missionary College, Berrien Springs, Mich., who replaced Mrs. Margaret Williams as head of the Commercial Department; Benito Hodge, a graduate of Oakwood College, Huntsville, Ala., who is the new Dean of Boys and also directs classes in physical education.

The new bus, acquired during the past school year, has a seating capacity of 41, and includes reclining seats. This will prove very useful for choir tours and other school trips. Incidentally, new choir robes have been acquired to enhance the appearance of the school's "ambassadors in song" under the direction of Harold Anthony.

Large class enrollment has forced the faculty to conduct double sessions in geometry, English III, and chemistry.

The beautiful new girls' dormitory, Kimbrough Hall, has 54 dormitory rooms, two guest rooms, a commodious chapel and recreation room, and a Dean's apartment. The Dean of Girls, Mrs. Ruth McGrew, observes that the 68 girls already residing in this dormitory are enthusiastic about the tasteful appointments of their new "home."

The school board chairman, Elder W. L. Cheatham, and the board are determined to do their utmost to provide the facilities that will assist Adventist youth in their quest for a thorough, Christian education.

World Temperance Day, October 26

OCTOBER 26 is World Temperance Day. It is not too early to call the attention of our churches to this very important day and to summon all of the forces within our churches to rally behind this important work of the Adventist temperance program. What a horrible mockery intemperance has made of the high ethical and spiritual values. The liquor industry is a cruel, debauching traffic. One of the supreme tragedies would be the sacrifice of any of our adults or youth to the degrading influences of this terrible traffic.

The tobacco industry is becoming bolder and bolder in its desperate moves to recapture and hold its victims in spite of all of the information regarding its terrible effect upon the human body. The pervaders of these products to the youth and adults of our modern times ignore completely the instruction of the Word of God concerning the preservation of the body as a temple of the Holy Ghost.

Let us rally together, as God's people should, to uphold every effort made by the church to protect our people, especially our youth, from the degrading and debauching influences of the terrible liquor and tobacco traffic. Surely, none of our members dare think of an investment less than the goal that has been set before us of at least one subscription to our wonderful magazine, Listen. There should be a wide distribution of this magazine to community leaders, medical personnel, friends and relatives, and especially to our own youth, that they might all become acquainted with the message of health as proclaimed by Adventists.

October 26 is an important day for the temperance work in New Jersey. Every member of the church should plan now to invest to the fullest capacity in the fight against the liquor traffic and to defeat, once and for all, the terrible inroads made upon our society by those who ignore the counsel of God and who put the cup to their neighbors' lips or who destroy them by offering them cigarettes.

Will you not give earnest consideration to this great campaign and make October 26 the most successful day in the history of the Conference in the fight against intemperance? God is counting on you to uphold His truth, and this is one way that we can do it effectively and forcefully. Our goal is at least one subscription to Listen magazine per member, and whenever possible our members should be responsible for more than one subscription so that we might widely circulate this magazine among community readers.

Committee Vacancy Filled

ON Friday, September 20, the Executive Committee of the New Jersey Conference gave consideration to the filling of the vacancy created by the untimely death of David Ramsey after a brief illness.

The committee gave prayerful consideration to the selection of one who should fill this important post of responsibility, especially at this time when the New Jersey Conference is moving forward so strongly in evangelistic and educational lines.

In view of the fact that Mr. Ramsey represented the churches in the northern area of the Conference, it was felt by the Committee that his successor should be chosen from that general area of the field. After prayerfully considering the names of a number of fine men, the Committee unanimously chose Fred Gottsleben of the Newark Church to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Ramsey.

Mr. Gottsleben is a man of wide experience in the business world. He is the general manager of the large Somerset Bus Company, which enables him to bring to the Executive Committee a rich background of business skill and management.

At the same time he has faithfully served as treasurer of the large Newark Church for many years. His deep interest in Conference and local church programs, evangelistic ministry, and the upbuilding of the various missionary and educational programs of the church has been demonstrated on many occasions in the past.

May God's richest blessing rest upon the Executive Committee and its new member as important decisions are made in regard to the progress of the work of God in New Jersey and the continuing contribution that this field will make to the ever-expanding world program of the advent message until at last Jesus shall come. May that day hasten; and when our Lord appears may each of us be found faithful and ready to meet Him in peace.

Spot News

• ANOTHER one-day ministers' meeting with their families and the teachers of the West Virginia Conference was held just before the opening of school recently in Parkersburg, under the direction of Elder A. J. Patzer, Conference President. Guests for the day were Elder E. L. Minchin of the General Conference who conducted a deeply spiritual devotional and consecration service; Elder T. R. Gardner, Secretary-Treasurer of the Columbia Union Conference; and E. F. Willett, Auditor, Columbia Union Conference. The main topic of the day was "Harvest Evangelism." Plans were laid for "reaping" meetings throughout the entire Conference. The work in the West Virginia Conference is ever onward. Let us unitedly GO and GROW!

• Special announcement to all members: the West Virginia Conference Committee at its recent meeting set the 1964 camp-meeting dates—June 5-13.

• There is a "new look" coming across the West Virginia Conference because many, almost entirely all, the churches have gone into a repainting, redecorating, and clean-up program. Many favorable comments have been made by people living near Adventist churches where these improvements have been made.

• Twenty-three young people have left the Parkersburg district to attend academy or college. The Parkersburg district has a 10-grade Junior Academy—a commendable achievement for the loyal members in this district.

• The renovating and repainting

Meetings Scheduled For Clearfield

EVANGELISTIC meetings in our Clearfield Church begin Sunday evening, October 13. The opening subject is "Behold the Man." "More Than Singing" is the feature film for that evening. Special films will be shown each weekend. A lucky seat will be announced nightly. Awards will be given for attendance. Illustrated songs and colorama portrayals will be presented by Mrs. Van Pelt as she assists her husband, Pastor Harry Van Pelt. Carol Johnson of Lewistown will be the organist of the team.

The church members have been busily preparing for these meetings. The freshly painted exterior of the church has been matched inside by special cleaning and as a final touch, new drapes for the sanctuary.

Worker Moves to Indiana

AFTER almost 13 years as workers in the Columbia Union Conference the time has come for us to move to another area. It was after prayerful and careful consideration that Mrs. Renton, with our two girls, and I accepted the invitation to join the Indiana Conference in the Lake Union Conference.

We have deeply appreciated the fellowship of the many friends we have made during the years, and look forward to the day when the work will be finished and there will be no need to move to different fields. Our prayer is that God will bless each and every one.

We shall remember the work in the Columbia Union Conference in our prayers, and we eagerly solicit your prayers in our behalf.

Our new address is: 400 East Beardsley Avenue, Elkhart, Ind.

Faculty Approves Trimester System

COLUMBIA Union College faculty members voted overwhelmingly in favor of recommending to the College Board of Trustees the adoption of the trimester system in September, 1964, at a recent faculty meeting. Dr. Charles B. Hirsch, President, will present the faculty recommendation to the Board at the next regular meeting, October 22, 1963.

Dr. Hirsch states that instead of two 16-week semesters, plus an eight-week summer session—the pattern used by most colleges and universities—the year would be divided into three 15-week terms. Special courses would be offered during the last eight weeks of the spring trimester for the benefit of teachers and others who might wish to take additional study during the summer.

A student carrying the normal course load could complete his degree requirements in two and two-thirds years instead of the usual four.

The trimester plan has definite, proved advantages for parents, students, and financial backers.

Parents can save up to $5,000, because the student becomes self-supporting 16 months earlier than his four-year-college counterpart.

Students who must hold jobs to finance their educations can spread their course over four years by taking any one of the trimesters off. Their spring term ends in April, giving them a head start on other summer job seekers. Or they can take the winter term off to work in such areas as literature evangelism.

Those who do finish in two and two-thirds years can begin their

Those who finance the institution save money because the College would be utilizing its buildings and equipment for a much larger portion of the year—at little added cost.

The shift from the nine-month to the 12-month school year is under way in at least 33 colleges and universities. An increasing number of our secondary schools are using summer sessions to help students cut down the time they spend in school.

Part of the recommendations to the Board will include the following proposed trimester schedule prepared by the Trimester Study Committee, under the chairmanship of Dr. Edith O. Stone, Professor of English.

Harvest Evangelism Plans In New Jersey

AFTER a hard summer of physical labor at the new Garden State Academy site, the ministers of the New Jersey Conference welcome the opportunity to engage in Conference-wide evangelistic campaigns. New areas are opening, and the message has penetrated the last remaining "dark county" in New Jersey with the organization of a branch Sabbath School in Flemington, Hunterdon County. Not only is the work progressing in the English language, but the message also is being preached in six other languages which truly makes our evangelistic program in New Jersey a unique one.

Following are the names of the ministers and the cities where evangelistic campaigns are planned for the next three months:

R. L. Walden

A. Appel—Paterson
William Barringham—Plainfield
Kenneth Berry—Perth Amboy
J. J. Blanco—Woodbury
G. Blandford—Morristown
S. R. LaRosa—Cherry Hill

O. Mejia—Newark Spanish
A. M. Moyer—Hightstown
L. F. Myers—Millville
Luis Plata—Hoboken
D. Rice—Cape May Court House
J. I. Rivera—Vineland Spanish

G. Slack—Salem
J. A. Terzo—Jersey City

Evangelistic Meetings in Progress in 12 Cities

ANOTHER big year of intensive public evangelism is under way in the church communities of the Allegheny Conference. As this report is being written, 12 Allegheny Conference evangelists and their associates are engaged in "binding off" the harvest of souls resulting from tent evangelistic campaigns. God is blessing the earnest efforts of ministers and lay evangelists. The 12 tent meetings are being conducted by the following evangelists in the locations listed below:

1. Elder Leon Cox, Cincinnati, Ohio.
2. Elder D. L. Davis, Dayton, Ohio.
3. Elder Aaron Brogden, Columbus, Ohio.
4. Elder L. R. Preston, Charleston, W. Va.
5. Elder C. D. Brooks, Cleveland, Ohio.

6. Pastor Isaac Lester, Erie, Pa.
7. Elder Alfred Jones, Trenton, N. J.
8. Elder Nelson Bliss, Pittsburgh, Pa.
9. Pastor J. E. Collins, Dover, Del.
10. Elder W. M. Fordham, Baltimore, Md.
11. Elder W. M. Starks, near Silver Spring, Md.
12. Elder James Thomas, Norfolk, Va.

Elder Milton Thomas is seeking a location for fall meetings in Cleveland, and Pastor Robert Willis is trying to find a lot in Baltimore.

Elder W. L. Cheatham points out that the Allegheny Conference is cooperating with the Columbia Union Conference plan of Harvest Evangelism introduced by Elder Neal Wilson, Columbia Union Conference President. Under this progressive move, every district and every church is encouraged to conduct evangelistic meetings before Ingath-ering time with the aim that each minister can have a good baptismal report for the year 1963. Promotional posters for Harvest Evangelism, and other information for evangelistic guidance, has been supplied by the Columbia Union Conference and has been forwarded from the Allegheny Conference to each minister for use in the churches.

So far three baptisms have been reported as a result of the tent efforts. In Trenton, N. J., Elder Alfred Jones reports 27 baptized in his first baptism; in Norfolk, Va., Elder James Thomas has baptized 26; and in Dover, Del., Pastor J. E. Collins has baptized 15. Other baptisms will follow shortly.

Certainly all must pray that the Holy Spirit will water the seeds of truth being sown by literature, Bible studies, and the preached Word that many more souls will be converted to God and added to the remnant church.
