The Great Need of the World and the Church

D. H. KRESS, M. D.

There are men who have bestowed wealth lavishly upon institutions. These gifts have been recorded in history and the names of the donors have been immortalized. While this work is commendable, there are gifts of greater value to this world than money. If money was the great thing needed, Jesus could have brought millions with him, but the great Giver came to the world penniless. He gave himself. He came to minister, to serve, to bless. He brought health and joy and gladness into the lives of those he met. This ministry was of greater value than silver or gold. He was everywhere in demand. His disciples came to him saying: "All men seek after thee." His disciples possessed no houses or lands. They were practically penniless.

Peter, in addressing the impotent man who asked for alms at the gate of the temple said, "Silver and gold have I none but such as I have, give I thee. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk. And he took him by the hand and lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. And he leaping up and walked and entered with them into the temple, walking and leaping and praising God." He gave him such as he had, something infinitely better than money.

The world today is not in need of large gifts so much as of men and women whose aim it is to bless mankind. His friends said of Jesus—"He went about doing good." His enemies said, "He saved others, himself he cannot save." There was never a time when there existed a greater need for this kind of work, for there has never been a time when more sickness and suffering existed. Millions are calling for health, not wealth. The one who can bring relief will be welcomed in this day, just as was Christ in his day. The world needs Christ-like sympathy and help more than silver or gold. The gospel is one all sufficient remedy for man's ills. This work of ministering has not yet been given the place it demands in the proclamation of the everlasting gospel.

Thousands need and would gladly receive instruction concerning the simple methods of treating the sick—methods that are taking the place of the use of poisonous drugs. There is a great need of instruction on dietetic reform. Wrong habits of eating and use of unhealthful food are in no small degree responsible for the intemperance and crime and wretchedness that curse the world."

"In almost every community there are large numbers who do not listen to the preaching of God's word or attend any religious service. If they are reached by the gospel, it must be carried to their homes. Often the relief of their physical needs is the only avenue by which they can be approached. Missionary nurses who can care for the sick and relieve the distress of the poor will find many opportunities to pray with them, to read to them from God's word and to speak to them of the Saviour.

This work must not be delegated to organizations. It is an individual work, in which all Christians should have a part. No one is excused.

"Everywhere there is a tendency to substitute the work of organization for individual effort. Human wisdom tends to consolidation, to centralization, to building up of great churches and institutions. Multitudes leave to the institutions and organizations the work of benevolence; they excuse themselves from contact with the world, and their hearts grow cold. They become self-absorbed and unimpressible. Love for God and man dies out of the soul."

We have none too many institutions for the treatment and education of the sick, but we can not delegate to these institutions the work we are called upon to do individually without suffering great loss. He only lives who gives. Show me a church where the members are on the look out for opportunities to be a blessing to friends, neighbors and enemies, and I will show you a living church. On the other hand the church composed of members who give little thought to the temporal and eternal welfare of those about them, merely has a name to live, but is dead. The time has come when this work must again be revived in the church of Christ.

A Forward Movement

The readers of the MESSENGER will be interested to learn that the Eastern Canadian Union literature sales for January, this year, were larger than any previous year for the corresponding month.

The union sales for January in 1917 were $136.35. For the year 1918 they totaled $407.80. For 1919, $501.05. The year 1920 totaled $923.05, while 1921 reaches the $3,196.80 mark. The sales for January of 1921 represent a gain of more than 246 per cent over the corresponding month of last year, or in other words nearly three and one half times as much. It causes our hearts to rejoice to see how the Lord is working for us.

Those who are holding the line in Ontario are doing splendid work, but of course will make even a better showing as soon as the reinforcements appear. Brother Boyce at St. Catharines has two new men ready for the colporteur work that I shall start into the field next week. Brother Rous at Hamilton is starting out with "Daniel and Revelation." Brother Thumwood is also doing excellent work, having taken $39.50 worth of orders Tuesday, the day I was in Hamilton. Brother Belleau of Kingston is rejoicing over the fact that two of his new converts are engaged in the colporteur work and making good progress. He writes me a very urgent letter stating that he has another who desires to engage in the work. Brethren Belleau and Boyce are actually putting into effect the resolution they acted upon at the workers' convention last December.

Arrangements have also been made with Brother Lamont whereby he can take up the work again. Very shortly we shall see some reports from him.

The Lord is also richly adding his blessing to the efforts of Brethren Duclos and Simpson. Others are writing me inquiring as to territory and suitable books to sell. Yes, brethren and sisters the work is moving on apace in Eastern Canada. Now is the time for YOU to take your place in the ranks of Prince Emmanuel and press the battle to the gates.

Montreal Church Report

The year 1920 has been a year of prosperity and of great blessing to the French Montreal church. At the beginning of 1920 our goal for missions was placed at $2.00 per member per week, but when the year closed we found that the church had given $2302.03 to foreign missions, or a weekly per capita of $2.21. Our tithe was $1795.03, an average of $85.25 per capita. Our Sabbath school offerings were $372.07, a weekly offering of 35 cents per member. Our Harvest Ingathering amounted to $1575.55.

The church members all took an active part in home missionary work; hundreds of books and magazines have been sold or given away.

While we have sustained the loss of four of our members by death, and eight have removed to other fields and united elsewhere, we have received by baptism or otherwise ten new members. Bro. Josaphat Fortier has been chosen as pastor of the church and Bro. H. M. Paquette was ordained elder.

We are very grateful for the blessings of God which have been so richly bestowed upon the church, and with stronger faith, more consecration and courage, we take up the duties and opportunities of 1921, determined that with the help of the Lord we shall be able to do greater things for God during the present year.

In behalf of the church,

The Foreign Magazines

While conducting a Home Missionary Institute at Brantford recently I picked up the local paper and read an article which gave the foreign population of the city. It amounted to 3,645. Its entire population is about 32,000. Thus we have approximately one foreigner to every nine Canadians. This proportion is about the same throughout our country. What are we doing for the salvation of this foreign element in our midst?

Our foreign department has published magazines in several of the languages, and we should consider it our duty to use them to warn these people. The following are a few magazines published quarterly:

Bohemian Signs of the Times

German " " " "

French " " " "

Hungarian " " " "

Italian " " " "

Swedish " " " "

Yiddish (Jewish) The Present Issues

All these magazines sell for 15 cents each. By ordering quantities of five or more copies one may secure them for 9 cents each. I wish to draw the attention of church elders and missionary secretaries to the circulation of these magazines by the church members, some of whom could become responsible for Yiddish, others for Italian and so on, according to the nationalities in your neighborhood.

HUBERT K. MARTIN

Another Church Institute

As we visit the churches in our institute work, we find that our people are anxious to do what they can. The home missionary report for the last quarter of 1920 also proves this. There are 518 members reporting as compared with 266 for the third quarter.

We have just closed a very interesting and profitable institute at Brantford. The members attended every meeting, manifested a lively and sympathetic interest in all lines of activity. Nearly every member there is engaged in house to house work of some kind. One sister placed an order for 100 copies of the Canadian Watch- man monthly, others for smaller numbers. We are just beginning to see a little of what we shall see when every member is trained and every church organized for service. At this writing the band is with the Chatham church. The following week will be spent at Hamilton. Brother Martin will announce through the MESSENGER in advance the places to be visited.

The various lines of literature handled at our Brantford institute, including the work of field days were the Testimonies, Life and Health, Review, Present Truth and the Canadian Watchman. The field day proved a great help to the people in gaining admission to the homes. They enjoyed the experience. There were also a number of the Home Missionary Calendars ordered by the members, for their own homes as well as to give to others.

We are hearing good reports from the churches already visited. We wish them all heaven's richest blessings as they endeavor to continue their systematic work. We believe there are brighter days ahead of us in the Lord's work, and we earnestly urge all the members in churches yet to be visited to watch further announcements in the MESSENGER with the object of so arranging their work so as to be able to attend every session.

GEORGE BUTLER

The Work in Galt

The Lord is helping us to find some honest hearts as the days go by. A few new faces are present each week in Sabbath services.

The meetings in our hall on Sunday nights have not been large, but there are a number of regular attendants every week. One lady and her little daughter have just stepped out to keep the Sabbath. We were glad to see her present last Sabbath.

Several of our church members are doing missionary work during the week. Last week a lady was found who showed a marked interest. We are working for her now.

Sister Alice Martin has been giving Bible studies to two Presbyterian ladies, and they are very much interested. We are sorry to have her leave for Ottawa just at this time, as she had begun to give a third lady studies. We shall miss her but hope that Ottawa will be the better for her coming.

Two general Bible readings are given by the writer each week, and these are attended by many of the church members and strangers, from twelve to twenty being usually present. Our people enjoy being grounded in the faith through the simple home Bible studies.

Our Sabbath school membership is thirty-two at present, and thus far in the year, more than thirty cents a member has been given every Sabbath. There are three classes,—adult, young people, and children—each having a goal to reach. It is interesting to see the goals reached every week by all the classes. Thus far in the quarter we have given $75.00 to missions. Our goal for the quarter is $175. We believe we will make it.

We are now working for the Chinese relief, and the city work fund. Remember the work here, and the little company of believers when you pray.

A New Course

Another reading course has been added to the excellent list of courses our people avail themselves of each year. The books in all these courses have proved very beneficial to the readers.

The latest addition is the Home Missionary Reading Course for 1921. I wish to call the attention of our conference workers, church elders, missionary secretaries, and other interested ones to the books of this course.

There are three books in the course, and I sincerely hope many will take the opportunity of reading them. The books with their prices are as follows:—"Testimonies," Volume 9, 85 cents; "The New Layman for the New Time," $1.25; "Immigrant Forces," 75 cents.

The three books are sent postpaid for $2.50. If you have Volume 9, and only need the other two books, they may be secured together for $1.75.

Salvation at Ottawa

The writer recently visited the home of a soldier in Ottawa with Miss Hillyard and listened to what seemed a truly wonderful recital by his wife. This man has attended the Regent theatre meetings from the beginning. A short time ago he burned his pipes and tobacco, stopped gambling and profanity, began to pray regularly and to read the Bible. She confessed to having been profane also and impatient with her children, but as her husband told her of the gospel that he was receiving she too knelt with him in the home and asked God to forgive her. She finds profanity gone and desires for holiness filling her mind. The children seeing the great change in father and mother are following in the way of the new life, as they did before in the life of sin. Love manifested in word and act has taken the place of evil words and anger in the home. The shop mates of this dear man could not believe that he had burned his pipes, so he took one old pipe which he found and burned it in their presence. Through his influence several have renounced Romanism and are now regular attendants at the theatre meetings.

Our hearts are cheered as we see this evidence of the presence of the Holy Spirit in our meetings. There is something that precedes and goes hand in hand with true Sabbath keeping experience, which we know is regeneration, and which makes Sabbath keeping the sign or seal of God. "Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree; and it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off. Thus saith the Lord, keep ye judgment and do justice; for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed. Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the Sabbath from polluting it and keepeth his hand from doing any evil." Isa. 55:13 and 56:1. Pray for the souls in Ottawa.

F. W. STRAY

What Say the Quebec Colporteurs?

Brother Millner: "I am determined by His power to scatter the seeds of truth in this city. The walls are crumbling by the incessant bombardment and the books are dropping into the homes where God has planned. He is in command of this siege and I am determined to do my share in the attack. Satan is trembling as our war is being fought with prayer."

Brother Neilson: "The Lord is opening the way for us. I was in a home on Thursday afternoon and canvassed a lady who was so scared she could hardly look at the book. The next morning I called on her neighbor and she was there. She said 'You are the man who called on me yesterday.' She informed me that I had sold a book to her sister and that she would read that, but before I finished canvassing the lady of the house I had also received her order, so I sold two books on the one canvass. The Lord is working in Montreal. It was he who had the lady call at her neighbor's home when I was there."

Brother Van Ness: "We have enjoyed the work immensely this week. My goal was $125, but you see God gave me $3 over the goal. I have a delivery next week so my record of sales will not be so large as it otherwise might be."

Brother Rideout: "Surely God is blessing me in the work in Ottawa. One day from ten exhibitions I received six orders and sold two helps. Yesterday from three exhibitions I took three orders."

Ottawa Life and Health Meetings

The first of a series of Life and Health meetings was held in connection with the evangelist effort in the Orange Hall, Ottawa, Tuesday afternoon, February 15. The attendance was much better than expected, and all manifested a sincere sympathetic interest in the first subject which was introduced by Elder Stray. Excellent attention was given as Dr. Pippy gave a lecture on the first principles of healthful living, emphasizing the importance of preventative measures. This was followed by Miss Wolfinger, a trained nurse, giving a demonstration in fomentations. In closing the writer drew attention to the article entitled, "The Life and the Blood" printed in the February Watchman from the pen of Dr. Kress. The response was encouraging. Every copy brought to the meeting was sold.

We have every reason to believe that these medical meetings will prove helpful in gaining the confidence of the people. Several remained after the close of the meeting to ask questions as well as to try to wring the fomentation cloth themselves. From five to seven hundred are attending the Sunday evening meetings regularly in the theatre. We believe that these additional weekly meetings along the lines of healthful living will be blessed of God in claiming several of them for his kingdom. In your prayers remember the Ottawa effort.

GEORGE BUTLER

Kingston

The home missionary convention recently conducted in Kingston was much appreciated by both our members and new Sabbath keepers. As a result of this meeting we now have a Bible reading band and a magazine band. In the near future we will organize two more bands. We are now waiting for Present Truth. Sister Blythe's help in the magazine work was appreciated by the young people.

The nurse's lectures and demonstrations were very instructive and helpful, and I find that our people are now putting the instruction into action. The cooking class that was held at one of our sister's homes was attended by twenty-one sisters who were thankful for the help received in cooking vegetarian meals.

Our interest is still growing. Last Sunday night I spoke on the change of the Sabbath and there were eighty-seven present. There was a man and his wife from Simcoe Island at the meeting and on Monday morning I was asked if I could hold meetings at that place. There are fourteen families on this Island and next Monday night I will begin a series of meetings there. I have also been told that some people on Wolfe Island desire meetings, so we can see that the Lord is preparing souls everywhere for this message. Remember Kingston in your prayers.

GEO. S. BELLEAU

The Bookman's Army

We are still on the advance in Montreal. We have taken possession of one whole section of the city, have never made a retreat and do not intend to until the gospel of Jesus has been spread over the whole city.

Surely the Lord is fulfilling his word in Isaiah 52:10: "The Lord has made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God." Montreal in the past has been hard to work even among the English people, but has now opened up to the truth. As the reports come in from the field I feel to "praise God who giveth us the victory through Christ."

Brother Neilson writes: "I delivered all my books and had many blessed experineces. God gave me orders amounting to $102.50."

Brother Millner writes: "Enclosed find my report of sales—$198.00. God has again blessed me in this city and I praise his holy name. I am convinced that God has called me to this great work. Only a short time ago I was planning on another line of work in this message, but I talked with the great Counsellor and asked him to show me what is my calling. It is needless to say my desire was granted. In seventy and one half hours he gave me $339.50 worth of orders in this city and I know that he has called me to be a bookman."

Brother Van Ness is full of courage. He has just made a good delivery and says: "I am enclosing my goal card. It is high according to my past achievements but I am depending on His grace and providence for ability, health and execution."

Brother Rideout of Ottawa believes in goals. He writes: "Surely the Lord blesses those who set goals. After I left you that night, I resolved to set a goal of $60 for that week and the Lord gave me $76.50. I have set my goal for next week at $100 and I know with God's help I can reach it. I have never been discouraged since I started in the work." This is wonderful when we consider that Brother Rideout has just recently stepped out by faith into the work of God.

We welcome back to our ranks Brother Argyle Taylor who has been selling Bibles for the Bible Society but feels a burden to place our books before the people during the short time that is left to finish the work. Brother Taylor is one of our old canvassers of the early days in Quebec, and his entering the work again greatly encourages us all.

God is calling for all to help in closing this great work, and may the Lord place a burden upon the hearts of many more to join our ranks in the "Bookman Army."

W. B. LINDSAY

Who Will Help Us?

Tuesday, February 8th, was spent in Montreal where the Quebec Conference Committee held a meeting. In addition to the members of the committee, Elders Stray and Saunders were present, and many items of interest in the advancement of the message were given definite consideration.

One of the important matters that received attention was the evangelical work of the conference, and a careful study of the work that must be cared for this year makes it seem that it will take about $3,500 more than our probable income, to carry it on. Are we to discontinue some of the work that has been started, or shall we come up to the help of the Lord and his cause? How are we to meet this requirement of apparently $3,500 additional income?

The interest continues to be strong and is growing in the Ottawa effort, and indications are that we must continue this effort in the capital of the Dominion, with a tent effort during the summer months. Elder Stray, Union Conference President, feels so strongly about this interest that he is trying to plan his summer's work so that he may continue to take a leading part in the work in Ottawa.

At Kingston Elder Belleau continues to hold meetings for the public two or three nights each week, and while the hall is not the best located for our purpose, it is the best that he could get, and he continues to attract a goodly number of people to his meetings. As many of these seem deeply interested and desire to continue to study, it would seem almost imperative to hold another tent meeting in Kingston this summer.

At Waterville, with the erecting of a church school building, the remodeling of the church last summer and fall, and the activity of the members there, there appears to be a lively interest among the people and plans are being laid to hold a short effort in the church there. It is possible that one of the Union Conference workers will connect with the effort at Waterville, during the time of the public meetings.

And not the least is the work that is being blessed of God in Montreal as the faithful colporteurs labor day after day in placing the message filled books in the hands of the people. Many and rich are the experiences that the colporteurs are having, and without doubt souls will be garnered into the kingdom through the work that is being done. During the summer months, it is planned to make arrangements for many of the students from Oshawa Missionary College, to canvass the city and the French students who desire to labor for God during the vacation selling our truth filled books will be helped and encouraged.

Can we curtail any of this work? No we cannot. So this is what we must do: We must be more faithful in tithes and offerings. The Bible is very plain, that one tenth of our income belongs to God, and careful study of this subject will make it clear that this one tenth is to be paid before we take out our household or personal expenses. In addition to the tithe, many of our people can give, from small amounts to large sums, to help carry on this city work. We urge our people to faithfulness in payment of tithe and in giving of their surplus means to carry on this great city work that has been commenced. Who is going to give $100 to this need? Send it to the conference office.

"God is not willing that any should perish."

"I delight to do thy will, O my God."

NOTICE

The constituency of the Quebec conference will be glad to know that Brother and Sister E. A. Jones, who connect with the work of this conference, arrived in Ottawa, Wednesday, February 16. Brother Jones will have charge of the office and also the home missionary work, having been appointed secretary of both these departments at a recent meeting of the conference committee. Sister Jones will assist her husband in the work of the office.

Since Sister Miller had to resign on account of ill health, the office work has been handled under difficulties, but from now on more prompt attention will be given the correspondence and other matters that come to the office.

The Greatest Gift in the World

"God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

"When I survey the wondrous cross,
On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss
And pour contempt on all my pride.

"Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a tribute far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my life, my soul, my all."

What can we do at this season of the year to show our appreciation of this gift? Would it not be well to make a special missionary effort for those living in our neighborhood? You may ask how this can be accomplished. It is only about six weeks until our Anniversary day, (March 27). Why not give one week of this time to missionary work? We can do this by giving one day, or two half days, in each week, consecrating this time to the Lord's service. Let it be your gift. During that time see that every home is visited, given literature and invited to make some gift to you for missionary work in fields beyond. Take upon you the responsibility of seeing that none are missed.

As far as possible in this campaign we should use the Canadian Watchman magazine. Use them as we do the Ingathering papers in the fall. In this way we will help the people get acquainted with it and aid in its circulation. If we can raise an amount equal to $5.20 per member this will take care of the extra ten cents a week mission offerings that we are to raise this year thus putting our mission offerings in good shape in the early part of the year. If you are in need of literature write to the office and we will try to get some to you.

Our mission offerings for January ran $800 short, there being only ninety-one cents per member for this month of five Sabbaths while our quota is three dollars. This may mean real suffering among our faithful missionaries. Anniversary programs have been sent to all the churches, but whether you have church privileges or not, I trust you will do your part as suggested above.

J. L. WILSON

Is That Sixty Cents a Week Troubling YOU?

We are all happy that God's work is advancing so rapidly throughout the earth, that it now calls for an average of sixty cents a week from each believer. With many this is no sacrifice. They can give this and much more, and of course the Lord expects it of them, but with others it is really a serious proposition, and many are wondering how they can manage to secure it. No doubt as they think and pray about the matter the Lord will reveal to them avenues by which the money can be secured.

One way has recently opened up for our good brethren and sisters in Canada to earn this 60 cents: By ordering twenty copies monthly of the Canadian Watchman magazine, and selling five copies each week, this will give you the amount, and a little more. Many can do this who perhaps now fear they do not possess salesmanship ability. The Lord will help those who are really anxious to meet their mission offerings, if they will make the effort. This will bring a threefold blessing. You will be placing the truth in twenty homes each month, contributing your quota for missions, and will bring a great blessing to your own soul. Try it, and then let us know how you are getting on.

OBITUARIES

Brother Nil Guay died at his home in Montreal January 5 of Bright's disease and cancer of the stomach. Brother Guay accepted the truth while the writer was in Quebec City. He had been brought up a Roman Catholic and when he left that church he had to endure many persecutions. For several years he was a great sufferer, but the Lord granted his request and the last moments of his life were without suffering. He fell asleep in Jesus.

The burial service was held in the Seventh-day Adventist church, conducted by the writer, Brother J. Fortier and the Anglican minister, who was a friend of the deceased. He was laid to rest in Mount Royal Cemetery where he awaits the call of the Lifegiver. The words spoken were from 1st Thessalonians.

L. F. PASSEBOIS

Edith Evangeline Young, the youngest daughter of Elder and Mrs. Young, died January 29, 1921, aged 4 years, 9 months, and 3 days. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer from Matt. 9:24, "For the maid is not dead but sleepeth." A large number of friends were present and much sympathy was shown.

March Number of the Canadian Watchman is Now Ready

This number is nicely illustrated with twenty-two cuts and pictures. The articles are well written, and will give food for thought. Among the many interesting subjects we note the following:

"Modern Science and the Deluge" by George McCready Price.

"Course of World Empire Foretold in a Dream" by Prof. H. S. Miller.

"An Infinite Salvation" by Elder A. C. Gilbert.

"Is the Bible Truly the Word of God?" by Alexander Ritchie.

"The Close of Probation and the Messiah's Return" by Pastor Geo. H. Skinner.

"Choice and Preparation of a Home" by Mrs. E. G. White.

A sketch of "The Doukhobors" as found in British Columbia is interesting, also the account of the historic "Quebec Bridge" which cost $24,000,000.

We need your help in the circulation of this number. Order today through your conference tract society.
