Alumni Meeting

ELSIE GIBBS.

The Annual Union College Alumni meeting was held in South Hall dining room the evening of May 23rd. The guests were seated by classes, each class having a penant in their class colors and with the year of their class. It was found that eighteen different classes were represented, the class of '21 having twenty members present.

After the hundred guests had been served to a dainty yet bountiful three course dinner, Professor Damsgard '13, president of the Alumni Association, welcomed the largest class of seniors into Old Union's Alumni family. H. C. Franklin '21 responded that now that the names of the class of '21 are enrolled among the great, they feel it their greatest privilege to serve humanity.

Miss Philmon '20, the historical secretary, gave gleanings from letters from more than one hundred absent members, each reflecting the joy of service wherever he was, happy that he could be representing Union.

Union's History was then given by decades. Professor G. C. George '09 represented the first ten years, 1891-1901. He gave a glimpse of some of the inconveniences and real difficulties that existed in the early days and characterized the spirit of the decade as "overcoming difficulties." Professor C. L. Benson '04 outlined the second decade 1901-1911. At that time the denominational policy of short courses was in vogue, the president of Union College was changed every year or two and it was during this decade that Union suffered her epidnmic of debt. The spirit was one of "Overcoming in spite of difficulties." During this period Union sent many missionaries to foreign fields and a broader foundation was laid for Union. The college board enlarged to include several alumni members and college teachers. It was in 1904 that the Alumni Association was formed. The spirit of the third decade 1911-1921 was characterized by the one word "Advancement" by M. N. Heligso '16. It was during these years that as a result of definite planning, hard work, and consecration Union was cleared of debt, the expansion program was carried out, advanced standards were discerned in every line, and best of all, the spiritual atmosphere of the school kept pace with the growth and progress of Union. Professor C. L. Premer said that if the class of '21 represents the fourth decade then it can be rightly named the "Spirit of special devotion to the cause of humanity." This period should mark a greater growth in every line, when a larger per cent of our young people will be college trained and be prepared to meet the common duties of life as well as to carry the heavy responsibilities.

Miss Gibbs '18 read the secretary's report of the meeting of '20. This year there were 119 who paid their membership fee and became full fledged alumni members. The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year: president, Rochelle Philmon; secretary and treasurer, Chas. Plumb; assistant secretary and treasurer, A. C. Madsen; historical secretary, F. A. Spangler. Plans for next year's meetings were discussed. It was voted to have the meeting before the close of school so that the members returning from the foreign fields to the General Conference would have an opportunity to attend. It was voted to extend a resolution of sympathy to the bereaved relatives of Eva Kern and Mrs. H. E. Scoles.

Class of 1900

Class of 1904 which organized the Alumni Association

Explanatory

A circular letter was sent to all Alumni members asking for a report of Union's Alumni Roll Call. The following is compiled from the letters received, supplemented by information gleaned from conversation, personal letters, the Union College calendar and the Year Book. If we have been mis-informed in any way and have listed you in the wrong class, or have located you in South America when you are living in Missouri, or if we have you married to the wrong individual, or have written "deceased" after your name when you are very much alive, we are very sorry and hope that next time you will give us first hand information.

You will notice there is a large number of names with a blank after them. If you know where any of these people are, you will confer a favor on the Alumni Association by sending this information to the Secretary of the Alumni Association, College View, Nebr. If you will keep the Secretary informed when you change your address you will help much in keeping our files up to date.

We tried to make the class lists as complete as possible and hope you will enjoy hearing from your classmates. We thank the large number for their co-operation in replying to the letter for information.

Peter E. Broderson, Superintendent of the Bureau of Home Missions of the General Conference, writes:

"It is quite a few years now since I left 'Good Old Union,' but many a time I have been present there since at the Friday evening meetings and in the class rooms, in spirit. It was at 'Good Old Union' that I found the way to a better land than this. During some revival meetings which B. G. Wilkinson held I decided to cast my lot with the people of God, and surely I have never regretted the decision I then made.

"We in the field are glad to know that 'Old Union' is still carrying on her good work and that so large a percentage of her students are joining us, in the great work of the Master. Our prayers are with you, that dear 'Old Union' may continue to send forth laborers into the harvest field that the work of the Master may speedily be finished, that we may meet in that glad reunion over there. I wonder if we shall not have a Union College reunion somewhere under the Tree of Life or on the shores of the Sea of Glass?"

W. C. Flaiz, Educational secretary of the North Pacific Union

Conference writes: "Our work out here in the North Pacific is showing a real substantial progress. Our college enrollment has grown from about 160 in 1911, when I first became connected with it, to about 440 this year, and the number in the collegiate grades from practically zero in 1911 to approximately 200 at the present time, and we are really only beginning to work our field. The enrollment in all of our schools of all grades has grown from less than 1600 in 1916 to 3070 this year. Within the last three years Walla Walla College has been practically rebuilt, and we have started five new academies and all of them are full to overflowing."

Herman O. Olson is President of the Broadview Theological Seminary at LaGrange, Ill. He reports: "As our vocation and location are the same as at the time of the last response we do not have much to say about ourselves. We are indeed happy to notice the many changes for the betterment of the college that have been made possible by the benefits of the expansion fund. The Broadview Theological Seminary has likewise been enabled to greatly enlarge and equip. Our goal of enrollment of two hundred students has been reached. During the first quarter of the present year one of our former faculty members and five of our graduates and former students have crossed the Atlantic to labor in Sweden. These now fill nearly all the official positions in the Swedish Conference from that of president down. Three of our graduates go to Finland this summer. One of these will head the school in that Conference. One of our members goes to Roumania to take charge of the educational work, and a large number are going out to home and foreign fields, so you will see that the grand work carried on by the swarms that left Union a decade ago is still going on."

Our publishing work especially is reaching many people, and creating interest that without an evangelist brings in fifteen to twenty people into the truth in many instances. We have about ninety colporteurs working throughout these islands scattering the printed page. Our sales for 1920 were $55,000.00 in gold. It may be possible for us to bring something back with us for the museum at Union College when we return on furlough. If I had known that Old Union was putting up a museum I could have gotten hold of many specimens on my trip through the Mountain Provinces last year. But I will be on the lookout from now on to see what I can secure for the museum."

The name of the place means "Nine Rivers" but I have never been around to find where they all are. I do know, though that there are plenty of streams and lakes around here. It is a very pretty place especially now when the vegetation is starting and many of the fields are yellow and fragrant with the flowers of the mustard plant. The country about the city is rolling and makes a nice place for walks on Sabbath afternoons. In this respect it is considerable ahead of some of the places we have been in China.

"We have ground purchased for a compound, but as yet have no funds for building homes. So we are still in rented quarters. We are hoping strongly that we may have these funds and start the buildings this summer. E. H. Meyers, Field Secretary for the Austral Union, Argentina, South America, writes: "Many who have not been in South America no doubt wonder just what it is to live here. Many have a wrong impression. Things are different here than in the States but not so marked as many may think. There are many marks of ignorance and undue conservativeness. There are many disadvantages and discomforts. There is Catholicism, Atheism, and some uncivilization. However it is a great mistake to regard South America as dominantly unmodern. In fact there are many advantages not found in other parts.

"We live in houses. We eat from dishes and use forks and spoons. We cook on stoves and have matches. We have everything from bread, butter, and potatoes to granola and corn flakes. We wear clothes. There are electric lights, and aeroplanes pass over the house nearly every day. People have hearts and souls. They have feelings. They have likes and dislikes; love and hate; honor and patriotism.

"Well it is too much to expect to go into too many details. We hope that others have been more faithful than we to report and express our regard and appreciation for Union and to fulfill their debts incurred by being privileged to be called Alumni. Perhaps there is no group of folk so unruly and so unresponsive, or so scattered and so unorganized as the Alumni Association.

"This defect on the part of the Alumni cannot be caused by a lack of having a warm place in their hearts for Union. Perhaps it is because they have found out that after all they know so very little and are ashamed to pose off as Alumni members. Maybe they feel so out of date that they hesitate to report. What they send might be 'stale.' Our class, for instance, was one of those sent out way back in the year 1918 A. D. It really is just a little embarrassing to call attention to those days for things were so different. Those were times when some of us still came late to class and to chapel. Some read books during chapel. Some of us even did visiting in the library. And some few went so far as to cause the preceptor to have some painful experiences. Some said that the 'grub was punk.' (Such English as some did use.) And some didn't as much as attend worship regularly. And who would have thought that free and liberal access to South Hall would ever be granted the boys! They always sought that privilege in those days. I wonder if they appreciate it as much now as they thought they would. And how disagreeable it must be for the 'Knights' and those 'Senators' from the 'Cracker box' to live in the same quarters!

"May this power that draws to Old Union ever continue its work and ever increase our love for her. But above all else, may that power which 'sends out' continue to expell. And by it may not only others be impelled to go out but may it keep those who have gone out faithful at their post."

* The Museum

About twelve years ago the doors of the College Museum were closed and material stored in such a condition that the room could not be entered, but during the past year the museum received its share of the expansion and has been moved to the basement and now occupies more than half of the old gymnasium.

In the new room cases have been built around the walls and all of the cases of birds arranged on these. In addition to this two large new cases have been built in the center of the room and there with the old ones fill the room, but there are now a good many vacant places for new material and curios.

As this MESSENGER is to be sent to every Alumnus of Union, both in the home land and the foreign fields, we are taking this opportunity of soliciting your aid in filling our museum.

There are many in the foreign countries who will be returning to the United States for the next General Conference and this will be a good opportunity to bring things to this country. Part of the cases are being filled with collections from the mission fields and these collections give a better idea of conditions that exist in other countries as well as being of interest to any who may see them. There will also be room for any old curios or old relics. If you have any thing that you want to give or loan send it to Union College.

News

Miss Ona and Mr. Denver Roos spent June 17 and 18 with home folks at Dunbar, Nebr.

Miss Esther Beltz left June 16 for her home in Keeniesburg, Colo., where she will spend the summer.

Dan Beltz left June 19 for Bison, Kans., where he will spend the summer in the wheat fields.

Word has been received from Miss Jessie Burns, a former student of Union, that she has taken up stenographic work in a Real Estate office in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Chow stopped off a couple of days in June and visited Miss Olive Boutelle. Mr. Chow was a student at Mt. Vernon when Miss Boutelle was instructor there. He is now on his way to his home in China.

Mrs. A. E. Whiteis stopped off between trains June 22 and visited with her daughter Gladys. Mrs. Whiteis was on her way to Crawford, Nebr., where she attended the campmeeting and visited friends and relatives.

Chas. Lowry left for Wichita, Kans., where he will work on the farm during the summer. Mr. Lowry will have charge of the Normal Department at Enterprise, Kans., the coming year.

Mr. Reuben Johnson has received word that his thirteen year old brother was accidentally killed while he and some of his friends were playing with a pistol. We extend our sincere sympathy to him in his bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson returned June 15 from their trip to Wisconsin and other points North. They are now at home to their friends at the Dams-gard home in West College View.

M. E. Ellis stopped in College View, June 15, while on his way from Keene, Tex. to visit his mother in Minnesota.

Miss Maybelle Lippencott went to Kansas City, Kans. June 22 to attend the Sheriff-Emery wedding.

Vesta Andreasen-Jensen arrived here from California June 20, to visit her parents and sister Eunice. Mr. Jensen will come after his summer school is out.

The erroneous statement in the Class History of the Commencement number stating that the Fate brothers have only completed two years of their medical course, we wish to correct. Both are now full-fledged doctors, having completed the four year course.

Prof. and Mrs. Orrel Graham, nee Leora Hare, spent two weeks visiting in College View the latter part of June.

Winnifred Lopp-Aalborg was in College View June 2-7 from Viborg, S. D.

Grace Deming stopped in College View, on her way from teaching to her home in Colorado.

Miss Cecil Graves is spending her summer in College View and taking some work at the Business College in Lincoln.

Mr. Floyd Honstein spent some time in June visiting his sister, Mrs. Chancy Premer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson were pleasantly surprised on the evening of June 19 on their return home from dinner down town to find their home taken possession of by about forty of their friends who had gathered to give them a shower. A most enjoyable evening was spent in playing games and a short program. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were the recipients of many pretty and useful gifts.

Professor M. L. Andreasen is attending camp-meetings in the New England States. We are so glad that there is a possibility of having him with us again next year.

Mr. Baker of the Pacific Press, Mountain View, Calif. filled the pulpit Sabbath, July 2. He gave a most interesting talk on present day topics.

Alden Thompson is working on the "gym."

Prof. O. S. Beltz left June 7 for Chicago where he will spend the summer taking voice work.

Prof. and Mrs. E. C. Kellogg and son Edward Ernest, stopped off June 14 and visited friends in College View. They left the next morning for South Dakota where they will spend the summer.

Miss Edna Brown left June 16 for her home in Minutire, Nebr., where she will spend the summer.

Professor M. L. Andreasen returned June 14 from a trip to Chicago and other points North where he has been on a business trip, and left June 16 for the East.

Friends may come and friends may go, but summer school goes on from 6:15 A. M. to 10 P. M.

Professor H. A. Morrison attended the camp-meetings at Rulison, Colo. and Crawford, Nebr.

Professor and Mrs. L. C. Damsgard and little Gwendoline are now making their home in California. Professor Damsgard has been granted a year's leave of absence, during which time he will study at the Lick Observatory.

Charles Baker, who has been canvassing in Missouri, is at Union again. He reports that the work in the canvassing field is harder than usual this year.

The students of Union were pleasantly surprised by the Summer Messenger Board recently. They first enjoyed a short program in the chapel, after which they forgot their dignity and joined in the games on the campus. The faithful bell of South Hall announced that more was in store for them. There orange ice and wafers were served.

Mr. and Mrs. William Leech of Southern Junior College, former students of Union, spent several days with friends at the college when en route to California.

Mrs. Christopherson of Enterprise Academy is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Johnson.

Mr. R. B. Thurber, associate editor of the Watchman, spent Sabbath, July 2 in College View.

After a short vacation at her home in Gainesville, Ga., Miss Philmon is doing graduate work at the University of Georgia at Athens.
