

VOL. 11

COOLTEWAH, TENNESSEE, MAY 14, 1919

No. 14

SPECIAL NOTICE

Summer School begins Thursday, June 5. Next week more definite announcement will be given concerning courses and expenses. Will our church school teachers and others interested in taking work during the summer please watch for this. Correspondents please take note also and cut your articles proportionately.

Need of Training

"The students in our educational institutions preparing for other lines of work should realize that there is no greater nor more extensive missionary field than the Sabbath School. This department reaches into every home and into the farthest corners of the great harvest field. Why should not all the students in our schools receive training for the Sabbath School work? If they are to be ministers they should be experts in all lines of Sabbath School work. If they become teachers in day schools, they will be expected to be model Sabbath School teachers. If they take up medical or any line of office work, they will be members of some Sabbath School and will be called upon to help in the teaching. If they settle down to private life, they will want a part in the Lord's work, and will find openings in some local Sabbath School for exerting a good influence by acting as teachers of classes.

In fact, every worker, every Seventh-day Adventist, should be connected with the Sabbath School in some way; and one who has attended our schools will be expected to take a leading part, and to be an exemplary teacher.

ANNA OLSON.

More Free Copies of Present Truth No. 38

The party who first gave $1000 for the free circulation of 200,000 copies of Present Truth was so well pleased with the promptness and the thoroughness of the work done, and keenly feeling the need of a much larger circulation of this Sabbath number, has just sent $2000 more for the additional free circulation of 400,000 copies of this same issue.

All orders recently sent in for free copies of No. 38, which could not be filled from the first 200,000 lot, will now be filled from this second donation, and still there will be about 300,000 copies left for additional orders. All orders should be sent in, as before, accompanied by the following pledge:

The Pledge

"I hereby pledge to personally place free of charge..... copies of Present Truth No. 38 in as many carefully selected homes;" and that these copies will not be handed out in a promiscuous, indifferent way.

Name.....
St. No.....
P. O.
State....."

Not less than 100 papers can be sent to one address, but several persons may combine their orders and have the papers sent to one address. In such cases a person who wants fewer than 100 copies may secure any number desired. The limit to one person is 1,000 copies. No one person may secure more at one time.

What a wonderful work is resulting from those three copies first sent, by mail, to this man who has now given $4,000 for the free circulation of 800,000 copies of Present Truth—200,000 copies made up of different numbers for our tent companies, and 600,000 copies of No. 38, enough papers to reach 4,000,000 people, and the cost was only 4½c for the three copies and the postage. It pays to circulate Present Truth. It possesses the power of the message it bears.

Elder J. A. Strickland spent a few days in the office this week.

Miss Ilene Yeargin, from Florida, has joined the office force, and she finds plenty to do.

The Columbia white church has recently purchased 1,300 "Our Lord's Return" and "World Peace." They are doing things.

Bro. W. P. Dougherty spent a few days at the office the past week getting his correspondence up. He reports that several new colporteurs will enter the field soon.

A letter from Columbia tells us that three of their girls are planning to sell magazines and small books this summer and thus earn their tuition to attend Ooltewah School next year.

J. L. Meister, of Illinois, who canvassed in South Carolina last year, will soon be in the field again.

H. A. Shepard and Donovan Johnson, from Berrien Springs, and W. L. Latham, from Washington, will soon enter the canvassing work in this field.

C. F. Betts and J. A. Page are planning to go to Wake County.

J. P. Allran, our leading colporteur in North Carolina for the past ten years, who has sold over $12,000 worth of literature, has again entered the field.

Brother Fred Meister for two weeks past has set a new goal of over $500 a week. Who will follow with a $500 goal?

Bro. W. M. Fee has had to give up the work at present and go to Washington to undergo a severe operation. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

The Results of the Colporteur Work

"And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven having great power, and the earth was lightened with his glory."

The angel has already descended, the bright beams of his glory are now piercing the darkness and superstition of error, and the unlawful captives held in every part of the earth are breaking away from the chains that bind them and are coming into the light.

But what department of our work is especially symbolized by this angel? The "Spirit of Prophecy" answers in these words: "And in a large degree through our publishing houses is to be accomplished the work of that other angel who comes down from heaven with great power and who lightens the earth with his glory."

My dear brethren, if you want to really sense the truthfulness of these words, then go out into the colporteur work and come in contact with the hungry hearts of some of God's "Seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal." They are seeking for light, and God is sending it to them through the millions of pages that are now being scattered like the leaves of autumn, and they in turn are walking in the light as it falls on their pathway from the truth-filled literature that lightens the earth with its glory.

Since coming to this place we have found five persons who were keeping the Sabbath as the direct result of studying "Bible Footlights" which were sold here by a colporteur some years ago.

Two of these are colored men who have kept the Sabbath for nearly two years; the other three, Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard, with their daughter, Mrs. White, are a white family living within five miles of Manning. Three months ago they knew nothing of Seventh-day Adventists. They were convinced that they ought to keep the Sabbath, but having been influenced by their minister, they were wavering, undecided what to do, when the Lord sent Mr. Noble to them, just as surely as he sent Philip to the Eunuch. Needless to say, Mr. Noble secured their order, but the conversation ended with an invitation for them to spend the next Sabbath with us. When Sabbath morning arrived, they came, and we spent a profitable day together, had Sabbath School in the morning and in the afternoon Mrs. Noble gave a good Bible study on the "Importance of Walking in the Light." When we took them home that evening it was with a promise that the setting of the sun the next Friday would find them ready to keep God's holy day. We have Sabbath School and Bible study with them every Sabbath. How eagerly they look forward to our coming. Ah, it would do your heart good to see how happy they are in their new-found treasure.

We can meet with them but once a week, so we appoint them lessons from "Bible Readings" and when Sabbath comes they know the subjects most as well as we do. We expect before leaving this place to have them fully established in the Truth. One colporteur sowed the seed, another watered it, but "God gave the increase."

We see in these persons mentioned above the glorious fulfillment of the promise that God's word would not return unto them void—but that it would prosper in the thing whereunto He sent it.

"In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand, for thou knowest not which shall prosper, this or that, or whether they both alike shall be good." FRED MEISTER.

Brother Bayley and Miss Brooke spent the week-end with the Valle Crucis church. While there definite plans were laid for the church purchasing a small twelve-acre farm for a teacher. The church responded beautifully, and plans are being laid for a progressive school at Valle Crucis next year. By the use of this farm the teacher can raise all his fruit and vegetables.

Miss Brooke left the office last Friday afternoon for a short trip to Chattanooga in the interest of laying plans for a church school there for the coming year. Judge Simmons and Miss Brooke also attended the board meeting that was held in Graysville Sunday, May 11.

Bro. F. L. Adams, who is to be connected with our ministerial work at Kingsport this summer, was an office visitor last week.

Bro. W. T. Tucker heads the colporteur list this week with $106 worth of orders. He is now working in the territory surrounding Cleveland, Tenn.

Bro. Washburn is spending a few days in Chattanooga in the interest of the colporteur work there.

Bro. H. H. Miller of Graysville took $100 worth of orders and delivered $7.05 worth of helps over at Eton, Georgia, in 36 hours; while Elder W. R. Hanson reports $111 worth of books delivered this past week.

Miss Dorothy Thraikill, of Knoxville, is spending a few days with friends and relatives in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Brethren Adams and Keiser are planning to conduct a series of meetings in Kingsport, Tenn., and find themselves in need of a set of prophetic charts. If anyone has a set that they will not be using this spring, these brethren would appreciate the use of them very much. If you are interested, write Brother F. L. Adams, Kingsport, Tenn.

Brother Spire, our Conference President, is attending the Spring Council in Washington, D. C.

Elder E. T. Wilson called by the office on his way to the Southern part of the State where he expects to soon engage in a tent effort.

Word received from Bro. O. G. Carnes, located in Valdosta, says that some have signified their intention to accept the Truth. He expects a church organization there in the near future.

Bro. K. R. Haughey and Bro. H. W. Potter spent the Sabbath with the company at Marietta. The believers at Marietta are actively engaged in missionary work and are distributing hundreds of Present Truth.

Bro. O. B. Crary, of Atlanta, has returned to his home after a pleasant visit with his parents in Michigan.

Bro. W. R. Tolman, of Alabama, is just entering our canvassing field. He will canvass in North Georgia.

Sister R. M. Ross, of the Atlanta Church, who has been disposing of several hundred of our magazines each month, has not been able to go out with the papers for several weeks on account of sickness. Let us pray that Sister Ross will soon be restored to health.

Bro. W. F. McMahan, our Medical Secretary, reports quite an interest being manifested by our people in this line of work.

The Savannah Missionary Society has just sent in another order for several thousand of our small books. This is the work that counts.

The Atlanta Missionary Society is using 1,000 Present Truth a week in one section of the city. It would be a splendid thing if many of our churches would use the Present Truth in giving the Message.

Bro. John Vickers, of Dublin, Ga., one of our faithful colporteurs, sends in a nice remittance to be applied on his account.

Bro. B. F. Brown, one of our oldest canvassers, reports a successful delivery and sends in a good-sized check to apply on his account.

Brother and Sister Haughey, who have been located at 818 Cherry St., Macon, Ga., are now located at 219 Duncan Ave. Please note this change of address.

"It is when we forget ourselves that we do things that are remembered."

New Year Book Now Out

The 1919 S. D. A. Year Book has just come from the press of the Review and Herald Publishing Association, Washington, D. C. The book is brimful of statistical information concerning the growth and development of our work, and also contains the present addresses of all denominational offices and the workers in all parts of the world. The information contained in the Year Book is well worth much more than the 50c it costs.

Orders for same should be placed through the conference tract society. Send cash with order.

L. D. RANDALL.

A Problem to Solve

A young man distinguished for his attainments in mathematics, was fond of challenging his fellow-students to a trial of skill in solving problems. One day a class-mate came into his study and handing him a folded paper, said, "Here is a problem I wish you would solve for me," and at once left the room. The paper was quickly unfolded, and the following words were read: "What shall it profit a man, if he gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" This solemn question led to the young man's conversion. Truly, this is the most important subject to which the human mind ever gave study.—Selected.

Life is a building. It rises slowly, day by day, through the years. Every new lesson we learn lays a block on the edifice which is rising silently within us. Every experience, every touch of another life on ours, every influence that impresses us, every conversation we have, every act of our commonest days adds to the invisible building.—J. R. Miller.

The Florida Field Secretary, Virgil Smith, writing while spending some days with his colporteurs in a certain section, says:

"I questioned how the orders were being taken, but after helping take orders for two days I changed my mind. It is most remarkable how our books sell. Surely the Loud Cry is now being experienced. The workers here have been sent for to give exhibitions; in other instances people have run out to them, or called to them, for the privilege of giving their orders. One woman, a doctor's wife, ran out and threw her arms around Sister——'s neck, and wept for joy that she had met her again, and that Sister—— had come to canvass her sister. You see it's no wonder they take orders here. I rejoice for what is being done."

What Is Education?

From "The Madison Survey"

Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, once spent two days with Madison and its rural teachers. The following paragraphs are from one of his lectures:

"You cannot teach agriculture in the school room; you cannot set a boy on a bench and teach him agriculture when the teacher himself cannot farm. You cannot teach a girl home economics in the school room with a little alcohol jet and a pan or two. You are never going to teach any of these things until the school and the community fuse into one. That is why I want the teacher to have a home on the farm.

"We have the idea that we cannot have a school unless each child has a place to sit down all the time. Does a boy have to sit strapped to a desk in order to get an education? Boys are educated when they are doing things intelligently.

"You cannot educate people unless you make them work, and you cannot educate them much unless they work in the soil. All our knowledge starts with nature. There is no other source of knowledge than nature, together with some kind of revelation. A city boy lives on a pavement, drinks soda water in summer, and wraps up in winter. What chance has he to learn anything about the heavens, or the earth, or the forces of nature? If it rains, he stays in the house; if the weather is cold, he drinks oyster soup; and when it is hot he goes to the swimming pool. But, if he has a garden and works in it, rain means that the land is wet; dry weather means that his crop will die; cold weather means that his plants may be killed. This boy learns to watch the sky to see if it is going to rain, and to study the seasons with respect to his closest needs. All knowledge comes from the farm."

Notes

Mr. Hugh Moomaugh, one of our former students, spent a few days at the College. He told us at Y. P. M. V. meeting of some of his experiences in the colporteur work in Louisiana.

Bro. B. C. Marshall, Secretary-Treasurer of the Alabama Conference, spent Wednesday at the School. While here he met with the students who are planning to enter the colporteur work in the Alabama Conference this summer.

Mr. W. E. Bailey, who is connected with the Talge Mahogany Co. of Knoxville, spent a few days here this week.

Bro. A. B. Russell spent a few days with us in the interest of the work.

We were glad to welcome Miss Ruth Bowen back after a short visit to her home. She was accompanied by her brother, Mr. Corliss Bowen.

Miss Ethel Field returned home last week from Lenoir City, where she taught the church school this past winter.

Students report that their project gardens are breaking the speed record in growing since the nice rain we had a few days ago. They are all very enthusiastic over the prospect.

Mr. Clark Wilson was here this week visiting his sister, Mrs. J. A. Tucker.

Mrs. A. F. Colver and Miss Dollie Thraikill visited friends here over the Sabbath. This is the first visit from Mrs. Colver since we were in the midst of the influenza epidemic, when she so faithfully helped to care for those who were ill.

Miss Ruth Johnston is visiting her brother, Professor Johnston. She has been engaged in church school work in Asheville this year.

Mr. Randall, of Birmingham, visited his daughter, Lucille, at the College one day last week.

The Bible Handbook

The "Bible Handbook" is the name of a condensed book of Bible Readings just published by S. N. Haskell. It contains Bible studies and groups of texts on over 200 phases of the Message for this time. In many of the Bible readings, additional to the Bible texts, there are references to the different books of Sister White where additional light can be found.

One leading minister writes: "I believe the 'Bible Handbook' will prove a great blessing to all engaged in the work of soul-saving." Another minister writes: "Those who desire to give Bible studies can get much help out of this little book." A president of a conference writes: "One feature that especially appeals to me as helpful to us who are workers, is the references to Sister White's writings."

It Brings Results

There are opportunities within the reach of all for bringing the Third Angel's Message to the attention of relatives, friends and interested persons through the medium of missionary correspondence. You may not be able to write frequently, but you can keep the "Signs of the Times" going regularly, and as you write, incidentally mention events of other points, and call attention to a current article in the paper. Many of our people have followed this plan for years, and in this way hundreds, yes hundreds have been won to the Truth.

A letter from a lady in Kansas was received at the "Signs" office in February, telling how one of our sisters had sent her the "Signs" for six months. Then she added: "I subscribed for it myself, and paid for the paper to go to several others, one of whom is my sister. She has become a Sabbath-keeper. I also have become one since reading this grand little messenger, the 'Signs of the Times.' Two women won, you see, through a little correspondence effort, a splendid method of service that is open to all of us. These women will, in turn, reach out for others. At least one of them has already started to do so, you noticed by sending in 'several other subscriptions' for relatives and friends. Thus the ever-widening and soul-winning work of the 'Signs' goes on and on.
