

HOME MISSIONARY EXTRA.

BATTLE CREEK, MICH., NOVEMBER, 1892.

GOOD BOOKS AT LOW PRICES.

THE International Tract Society having decided to close out its stock of trade books on hand, we now offer to our readers the appended list of choice and useful books at prices far below their regular retail values. While the world is flooded with literature, much of which, if not positively harmful, is but of doubtful benefit, we are pleased to be able to call attention to these books as suitable to be placed in the family circle. They will be found interesting, instructive, and helpful in the Christian life.

As our present stock of some of the books advertized is quite limited, we will request that orders be made for first, second, and third choice, and we shall endeavor to meet your wishes as thus indicated to the best of our ability.

In the first column is given the publisher's retail price, in the second our price, and in the third, the amount it will be necessary to add to the figures of the second column to cover postage on books sent by mail.

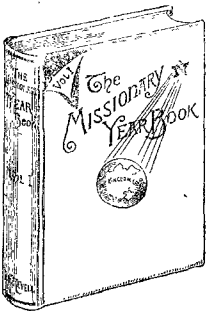

Address all orders to

INTERNATIONAL TRACT SOCIETY,

303 West Main St., Battle Creek, Mich.

	Pub. Price.	Our Price.	Postage.
Bliss, Rev. Edwin Munsell, editor.
The Encyclopedia of Missions. A thesaurus of facts, historical, statistical, geographical, ethnological, and biographical, with maps, bibliography, and statistical tables. The most recent and complete work on missions. It should be in the library of every pastor and within the reach of every student. Two volumes, over 1700 pages, with elaborate maps, etc.....	$12.00	8.40	.98
Booth, General William.
In Darkest England, and the Way Out. This book has been so thoroughly reviewed in all the leading journals of the land, that it is hardly necessary to give a description of it. 284 pages, with an appendix, paper cover.....	.50	.30	.08
Coyle, Rev. Robert F.
Foundation Stones. A series of lectures to the young. 192 pages, 16mo.....	1.00	.50	.08
Curtis, William Eleroy.
The Land of the Nihilist; The People, Palaces, and Politics of Russia. A narrative of travel in the Czar's dominions, by a representative of a leading Chicago daily newspaper. Illustrated. 324 pages, paper cover.....	.50	.30	.06
Drummond, Prof. Henry, F. R. S. E.
The Perfected Life. (The Greatest Need of the World.) Bound in chaste style, vellum paper.....	.20	.11	.02
How to Learn How. (I. Dealing with Doubt. II. Preparation for Learning.) Uniform with "Perfected Life.".....	.20	.11	.02
Two admirable addresses. We recommend it to fathers and mothers whose sons and daughters are troubled with doubts, and to ministers who have to meet doubt in their parishes. It will not remove doubt, but it will help to remove dread of doubt. Earnest-

	Pub. Price.	Our Price.	Postage.
minded doubt is not dangerous ; it is God's highway to conviction. The way to get answers is to ask questions. Opinions never become convictions until they are doubted. Unshaken faith is not comparable to the faith that has been shaken.—Christian Union.
Addresses. With a brief sketch of the author by Rev. W. J. Dawson ; also an excellent portrait. Cloth. 12mo.	.75	.45	.07
CONTENTS.—I. Love : The Supreme Gift, the Greatest Thing in the World. II. The Perfected Life : the Greatest Need of the World. III. Dealing with Doubt. IV. Preparation for Learning. V. The Study of the Bible. VI. An Address to Boys.
A simple announcement of the publication of these addresses in a permanent form is sufficient to insure a wide circulation.
The success of Professor Drummond is the result of a very happy combination of qualities. He has, in the first place, the gift of style. He is absolutely lucid, crisp, and often brilliant. He knows how to say what he wants to say. He never uses too many words for his meaning, and rarely uses the wrong word.—From Biographical Sketch.
Farrar, F. N., D. D., F. R. S.
Early Days of Christianity. 665 pages, bound in cloth.	1.00	.50	.12
Fiske, D. S.
Faith Working by Love, as exemplified in the Life of Fidelia Fiske. A beautiful and inspiring picture of woman's work as seen in the life of a most devoted woman.	1.50	1.05	.11
Gilmour, Rev. James A., M. A.
Among the Mongols. Numerous engravings from photographs and native sketches. A graphic, sympathetic account of the tribes who inhabit the great Mongolian tableland, by the only European who has for any length of time lived among them. 12mo., gilt edges.	1.00	.60	.10
The newness and value of the book consists solely in its Defoe quality, that when you have read it, you know, and will never forget, all Mr. Gilmour knows and tells of how Mongols live.—Spectator.
Gracey, Rev. J. T.
The Missionary Year-Book, 1889-1890, containing historical and statistical accounts of the principal Protestant Missionary societies in America, Great Britain, and the Continent of Europe. 12mo., cloth.	1.25	.75	.12
Open Doors, 64 pages.	.15	.09	.01
Those who are interested in missionary topics, as all ought to be, will find that this little pamphlet affords a great deal of valuable information as to Christian opportunity in Africa, Japan, Burmah, Mexico, South America, Korea, and the islands of the sea. Dr. Gracey is himself a former missionary, and is an authority upon the subjects upon which he writes. We strongly commend it to all. It shows with a clearness that is almost startling, the present opportunities for Christian work.
China. 6th edition, revised, 64 pages.	.15	.09	.01
Rev. D. W. C. Huntington, D. D., says: "I began to mark passages, but soon found that I should have to mark the whole book. It is all cream. The information is worth ten times its cost."
In its general account of Chinese life and history, it condenses the substance of hundreds of pages, into a few graphic and eloquent paragraphs.—Gospel in all Lands, New York.
Guinness, Mrs. H. Grattan.
The New World of Central Africa, with a history of the first Christian mission on the Congo. 12mo., 530 pages, with maps, portraits, and numerous illustrations . . .	2.00	1.20	.18
A conscientious, earnest piece of work, and gives a very clear account of what has been done by the Protestant missions to evangelize the barbarous races of Central Africa . . . He who wants to know what missionary effort means in these days, may well learn from this volume. . . . The reader who goes carefully through will have a good birds-eye

	Pub. Price.	Our Price.	Postage.
Secker, Rev. Wm.
The Nonsuch Professor in His Meridian Splendor , with an introduction by T. L. Cuyler, D. D. 16mo., 367 pages.	1.00	.50	.09
It is a mine of sparkling gems.— Presbyterian Observer
A sheaf of golden grain ripened by grace, and sweet with the flavor of rare simplicity and holy wisdom.— N. Y. Observer .
This is a wonderful book. At whatever page you open it your eye lights upon pithy aphorisms that combine the sententiousness of Benjamin Franklin with the sweet, holy savor of Samuel Rutherford. It contains hundreds of bright seed thoughts.— Rev. T. L. Cuyler, D. D.
Strong, Rev. Josiah.
Our Country, Its Possible Future and Present Crisis. Emerson has said, "We live in a new and an exceptional age. America is another name for opportunity; our whole history appears like a last effort of the divine Providence in behalf of the human race." This book was prepared by the author for the American Home Missionary Society. Its main purpose is to place before the Christian people of our land the need of home missionary work. It has had a remarkable sale of more than 125,000. 228 pages, cloth.50	.30	.06
Thoburn, Rev. J. M., D. D.
My Missionary Apprenticeship. A most instructive and interesting account of missionary experience in India.	1.50	1.00	.11
World's Missionary Conference Reports , being the report of Centenary Conference on the Protestant Missions of the World, London, 1888. Edited by Rev. James Johnston, F. S. S., Secretary of the Conference. Two large 8vo. volumes, over 1,200 pages. Per set.	2.00	1.20	.27
The most perfect encyclopedia of missions in the world. We would not be without it if it cost even $100 instead of $2.— Missionary Review .
The man who does not wish this book is willing to live in ignorance of the salvation that our King is working in the midst of the earth.— Herald of Mission News .
The value of such a book can hardly be over-estimated. Far from being a dry reference book, it is a vivid recital of living facts.— Gospel in all Lands .
The R. T. S. Library. The following books are published by the Religious Tract Society of London. They are uniform in size, contain 192 pages each, 18mo., neatly bound in assorted colors in cloth. They should receive a very wide circulation.20	.11	.08
CANADIAN LIFE AND SCENERY. By the Marquis of Lorne, K. T.
PILGRIM STREET. By Hesba Stretton.
THE LIFE OF OBERLIN. By Mrs. Josephine Butler.
ADVENTURES IN NEW GUINEA. By Jas. Chalmers.
OLIVE'S STORY. By Mrs. O. F. Walton.
ADVENTURES IN MONGOLIA. By James Gilmour, M. A., of Peking.
THE LIFE OF LATIMER. By R. Demaus.
THE CROOKED SIXPENCE. By George E. Sargent.
MADAGASCAR OF TO-DAY. By Rev. G. A. Shaw.
NATURAL HISTORY NOTES AND ANECDOTES
THE ORPHANS OF GLEN ELDER. By author of "Christie Redfern's Troubles," etc.
COWPER'S LETTERS. With a memoir.
VIGNETTES OF THE GREAT REVIVAL OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. By E. Paxton Hood.
THE ROMANCE OF MODERN MISSIONS.
THE MANUSCRIPT MAN; OR, THE BIBLE IN IRELAND. By Miss Walshe.
LIVINGSTONE ANECDOTES. By Dr. Macaulay, author of "Luther Anecdotes," etc.
PETER, THE APPRENTICE. A Tale of the Reformation. By Emma Leslie.
"Black Beauty" is the name of a book of about 250 pages, published by the American Humane Education Society, and which has had a circulation of over 100,000 copies in England, and nearly 200,000 in America. It portrays in the form of a narrative the need of kindness in the treatment of that noble animal, the horse. Every child should read it, and it should be placed in the hands of all horse owners.
	.25	.12	.05

	Pub. Price.	Our Price.	Postage.
4. Robert Morrison, the Pioneer of Chinese Missions. By Wm. J. Townsend.
5. Bishop Patterson, the Martyr of Melanesia. By Jesse Page.
6. Samuel Crowther, the Slave Boy who became Bishop of the Niger. By Jesse Page.
7. Thomas J. Comber, Missionary Pioneer of the Congo. By Rev. J. D. Myers.
8. James Calvert; or, From Dawn to Dark in Fiji.
9. Henry Martyn. By Jesse Page.
10. Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer.
11. David Livingstone; His Labors and his Legacy.
If there are any better brief biographical sketches for general use as educators of the young, and as a means of general stimulation to the missionary spirit, we have not met them anywhere. Within the compass of 160 pages there is comprised a mass of information that is often diluted through three times the space. These stories of missionary life combine the facts of heroism with the fancies of romance. They are very near to the ideals realized. We believe that few will read one chapter without wanting to read the whole, or read one of the series without wanting to possess the entire series, and then give them away to others. We would like to give the series to every young man and woman in every Protestant congregation where English is spoken.—Arthur T. Pierson, in Missionary Review of the World.
Mission Stories of Many Lands. A book for young people. Three hundred and fifty illustrations. A very interesting and instructive book, covering almost the entire world.	2.00	1.34	.22
Mitchell, Dr. J. Murray, M. A.
Foreign Missions of Protestant Churches; Their State and their Prospects. 16mo., cloth50	.27	.04
It is simply astonishing that so clear and comprehensive a resume of the methods and conditions of missionary enterprise should be compressed into such small compass.—Literary World.
Moffat, Rev. James C.
Story of a Dedicated Life. This work is a biography of Dr. Joseph Owen, and giving, as it does, a history of his life, contains much valuable information concerning mission work in India, and gives one of the best descriptions extant of the celebrated Sepoy mutiny. 272 pages, cloth	1.00	.60	.08
Pierson, Rev. A. T.
The Crisis of Missions. 375 pp. cloth	1.25	.75	.09
We do not hesitate to say that this book is the most purposeful, earnest, and intelligent review of the mission work and field which has ever been given to the church.—Christian Statesman.
Revell's Imperial Globe Atlas, of Modern and Ancient Geography, containing 33 imperial quarto maps, with an index of 20,000 names. Large quarto, size of page, 12 x 14, full cloth	1.00	.67	.16
An attractive volume, at a marvelously low price. The cheapest fine atlas of the world ever produced.
In convenient folio form at the amazingly low price of one dollar. We recommend all students to procure a copy to place on their tables for constant reference. We have found it invaluable. It has a copious index by which easily and rapidly to find any city or town or district.—Dr. A. T. Pierson, in the Missionary Review.
Rice, Edward P.
Benjamin Rice; or Fifty Years in the Master's Service. Written by his son, with portrait and illustrations. 192 pages, bound in cloth	1.00	.60	.08
Roberts, Alex., D. D.
Companion to the Revised Version of the New Testament. Explaining the reasons for the changes made in the Authorized Version. 212 pages, bound in cloth55	.06
Ross, Rev. John.
Old Wang; the first Chinese Evangelist in Manchuria. The book contains a sketch of his life and work, with a chapter upon Native Agency in Chinese Missions. An interesting and instructive work. 128 pages, bound in cloth60	.38	.07 view of recent events in Africa, with all the results of modern travel. . . . The work contains solid information, of use to all who are interested in the future of this wonderful country. The many illustrations throw light upon savage customs and costumes.—Graphic

Guinness, Geraldine.

In the Far East. Letters from China; edited by her sister, with introduction by Rev. J.

Hudson Taylor. Very fully illustrated. Quarto, cloth. . . . 1.50 .90 .15

This book was scarcely written — it was lived; for the breath of life is in it from cover to cover. . . . We have never read so wonderful an account of successful missionary effort.—Presbyterian.

We easily understand how this edition is the fifteenth thousand. This is a very remarkable book.—The Golden Rule.

Houghton, Louise Seymour.

David Livingstone, One Who Followed Christ. A valuable book, composed of material gathered from Livingstone's own journal and from Dr. Blaikie's work, which is now out of print. 332 pages, bound in cloth. . . . 1.25 .75 .09

Hurlbut, Rev. J. L.

Biblical Geography, a text-book on Bible History, especially prepared for the use of students and teachers of the Bible, containing maps, plans, review charts, colored diagrams, and illustrated with accurate views of the principal cities and localities known to Bible history. 158 large quarto pages, substantially bound. . . . 2.00 1.25 .20

Lathern, Rev. John.

The Macedonian Cry. A voice from the lands of Brahma and Buddah, Africa and the Isles of the sea, and a plea for missions. 280 pages bound in cloth.75 .50 .08

Leitch, Mary and Margaret W.

Seven Years in Ceylon. Stories of Mission Life. Richly illustrated and very entertaining. . . . 1.00 .60 .12

Lowe, John.

Medical Missions: Their Place and Power. By the Secretary of the Edinburgh Medical Mission Society. 308 pages, 12mo., cloth. . . . 1.50 1.05 .10

This book contains an exhaustive account of the benefits that may, and in point of fact do, accrue from the use of the medical art as a Christian agency. Mr. Lowe is eminently qualified to instruct us in this matter, having himself been so long engaged in the same field.—From Introduction by Sir William Muir.

McFarlane, Rev. S.

Among the Cannibals of New Guinea. This book is a history of the London Missionary Society among the Cannibals in New Guinea, well illustrated with a series of original drawings by an artist who has visited the island. 192 pages, cloth.75 .45 .06

Missionary Biographies.

Fully illustrated, 12mo., 160 pages, cloth extra, each.75 .38 .07

We commended this series in our last issue, and a further examination leads us to renew our commendation, and to urge the placing of this series of missionary books in all our Sabbath-school libraries.—Missionary Herald.

These are not pans of milk, but little pitchers of cream, condensed from bulkier volumes.—Dr. A. T. Pierson.

1. Griffith, John. Founder of the Hankow Mission, Central China. By Wm. Robson.
2. Robert Moffat, the Missionary Hero of Kuruman. By David J. Deane.
3. James Chalmers, Missionary and explorer of Raratonga and New Guinea. By Wm. Robson.

“Thompson's Vest-Pocket Speller” is a unique and exceedingly useful little book, 2½ x 5½ inches in size, 5-16 of an inch thick, bound in fine Russian leather. It contains 22,800 words, alphabetically arranged, and indexed, with concise definitions. A silicate slate and 20 pages of abbreviations, proper names, rules, and forms, add to its usefulness. Stenographers, ministers, canvassers, etc., will find it almost indispensable. It is just the right size to carry in the vest pocket, and is almost invaluable as a book of reference. Best binding, indexed; cheaper binding without index. .50, .25, .25 .15 .01

“The Children's Treasury” is the title of a beautiful book of 128 pages, 5½ x 7½ inches, printed on fine tinted paper, and nicely illustrated. It contains more than ninety stories, in prose and poetry, which are interesting and instructive, not only to the children, but to the youth, and even grown-up children. .75 .50

Interesting Reading. Report of the International Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions, held at Cleveland, Ohio, from February 26 to March 1, 1891. Contains stenographic reports of addresses and discussions at this important Convention. It is indispensable to every Volunteer, as it contains matter of historic value concerning the Student Volunteer Movement. 200 pages, 8vo. .35 .28 .07