

HOME MISSIONARY EXTRA.

BATTLE CREEK, MICH., DECEMBER, 1892.

“WHAT SHALL I GIVE UNTO THE LORD.”

“Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which he has given thee.” Deut. 16: 17.

Hark! “Every man shall give,” ’t is God’s command;
No one has naught; for in each living hand
Is grasped some “good and perfect gift” of God,
To be re-spent for him, the living Lord.

“As he is able”—this the limit sole;
We may not give to him some scanty dole;
To him who gives us all we ought to give—
Our gold, time, talents, and the life we live.
Such is the mandate, his the holy word:
“According to the blessings of the Lord:”
As he hath blessed, as he hath given to me,
Such shall my offering to my Saviour be.

THE contributions to the work of Foreign Missions for the quarter are as follows:—

First-day offerings,.....	$ 4,272 16
Sabbath-school contributions,.....	5,500 00
Miscellaneous, “.....	1,651 02
Total,	$11,423 18

LAST quarter we reported the largest first-day offerings ever received, $5304.09. This quarter we drop back to $4272.16. All will be sorry that it is so, and we are sure the figures will be brought up again.

It will be seen that the Sabbath-schools are maintaining a much higher figure than last year, when the average contribution from this source was between three and four thousand. This shows that the missionary spirit is increasing in the schools, and that practice makes giving more and more easy.

THE reason why our first-day offerings are not larger is because so many neglect to practice regularity, and thus forget to give, or find their gift so small that it seems of little importance to give it. It would not make much difference if only one or two omitted the duty and privilege; but where 10,000 fail, it makes a vast difference. The only remedy is for each one to act regularly and promptly, whether the offering is large or small.

PUT not your trust in money, but put your money in trust.—Holmes.

PUBLICATIONS IN FOREIGN LANGUAGES.

THE calls come in more and more frequently now for publications in different foreign languages. Individuals of the various nationalities are embracing the truth and are anxious to have something with which they can work among their countrymen. These are calls that must be answered, but increased means are needed to meet them. Ought we not to thank the Lord for the way he opens the field before us and recognize our responsibility as stewards more and more? "It is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful."

GIVE IT NOW.

"THE wants of the cause are laid before us; the empty treasuries appeal to us most pathetically for help. One dollar now is of more value to the work than ten dollars will be at some future period."—"No. 33." Anyone can see that more can be done with the same amount now than when oppression and greater unrest is making the way more difficult. We are to work while the day lasts, for "the night cometh when no man can work." The Lord is holding the winds that the work may be done. How could it be made plainer to us that he expects us to do it now?
