ISSUED WEEKLY BY THE

KANSAS SEVENTH-DAY ADVENT-
IST CONFERENCE ASSOCIATION,
821 W. 5th St., TOPEKA, KANSAS.

Entered as second class matter May 19, 1904 at the post office at Topeka, Kansas under the Act of Congress of March 3 1879.

The Wichita Camp-Meeting.

The time is past, those days of convocation
Where brethren dear as remnant of the Lord
Had gathered for instruction in salvation
To worship Jesus Christ with one accord.
At Wichita, the chosen place of meeting,
Where nature bloomed with fragrance mild and sweet,
We spent ten days of precious time, so fleeting,
And saw the truth's triumphant power and speed.

A host of happy people came together,
All traveling one road for Zion bound;
God favored us throughout with pleasant weather,
While there encamped upon that forest ground.
We dwelled together happy and contented
In tents beneath the blue ethereal sky;
We clasped the hand of God to us extended,
While He inclined His ear to hear our cry.

At early dawn we praised the Lord with singing;
An hour was spent to seek His face in prayer
And while our morn-oblation we were bringing
Rejoicing in our Father's tender care,
He favored us abundantly with manna,

With fresh celestial blessings from above,
Our hearts were made to sing and shout hosannah,
Praise God the fountain of eternal love.

My soul rejoiced with others—sinners trembled—
A decade and a half was long to wait
To meet once more in conference assembled
My brethren in the fertile Sunflower State.
My eyes were moved to tears in observation
To see the message make such rapid strides;
Soon must our work come to its consummation,
Eternal day will end our dreary nights.

O Israel, thou chosen of the Master!
Put on thine armor while the trumpet sounds;
The warning message must henceforth go faster,
Until it reaches to earth's utmost bounds,
Then hasten and proclaim the blessed story,
The Gospel of the Kingdom loud and clear;
Soon Jesus comes in His majestic glory
To gather home His ransomed far and near.

Proclaim the truth as from a lofty tower:
Your eyes fixed steadfast on our heavenly realms
It is the bulwark of Jehovah's power,
And Prince Immanuel standeth at the helm,
Shout victory, the foe will be defeated,
March on in triumph to the promised land;
Be jubilant, for soon we shall be greeted
Upon the Sea of Glass by Christ's own hand.

Manhattan Camp-Meeting.

To our people in the north half of Kansas, we wish to speak about the camp-meeting to be held at Manhattan, Oct. 7-12. We believe that we will have nice weather for this meeting. We have applied for rates over the railroads, and think we will be able to arrange for one and one-third fare for the round trip, if fifty come over the roads. We will be able to announce for certain by next week about this. If any rates are secured, it will be on the certificate plan. You pay the full fare coming and take a receipt which will be signed on the camp ground, and you will get ticket back home for one-third—that is one cent per mile.

Elder B. W. Brown will look after the business matters of the camp. Tents will be there to rent at usual rates. Good help will be in attendance. We will announce later who will be with us from abroad. Elder L. F. Trubey and the writer are expected to attend, also our state agent. A supply of books will be on the ground. Plans for the missionary campaign for November will be considered. Address all questions to Elder B. W. Brown, Clay Center, Kansas.

C. McREYNOLDS, Pres.

To Church Librarians.

Dear Brethren and Sisters: By the action of the Conference held at Wichita we are again brought together in our work. Not now to transact the business for the missionary department, but to work for an increased interest in Tract and Missionary work. For several years this branch of the work in our state has been greatly neglected. A good many librarians have been elected who know but little of the duties of the office. The old-time work of distributing literature and missionary letter writing has been abandoned, and the interest in real home missionary work is waning when it should be at a very interesting stage.

Now since I have been asked to devote my time developing a renewed interest, in all this I am very anxious to secure the hearty co-operation of the Librarians first, and with them all of our people. I shall be very glad to hear from each of you in regard to your experience in the work, the plans you are following, the needs of your societies, and when and how we can best assist you in your work.

We feel anxious to make this fall and winter, a rousing effort with our periodicals, tracts and books. The Signs of the Times is to have four special numbers during Nov. which will embrace enough Present Truth to bring the readers into the truth. Then some fine new tracts are soon to be issued, and most excellent work may be done with the Family Bible Teacher. Can we not have a perfectly united effort of all our people, and so bring this precious truth to the people during the long evenings of the fall and winter.

The special Signs will be furnished in sets of four numbers at ten cents per set when ordered in not less than twenty-five sets to one address. Surely each church can use this many, and a great many can use a good many more. Please begin at once to work this up, and send orders to Pacific Press Pub. Co., 18 W. 5 st., Kansas City, Mo.

Believing we shall have your earnest co-operation we are Faithfully yours,

C. F. PARMELE,
Missionary Secretary.

In Memorium.

To the "Worker" family in memory of our late and beloved brother, Frank Jencks.

His trials are o'er, his work is done,
And peaceful is his rest;
The battle's fought, the crown is won,
And he is ever blest.

The last dark scenes of earth will cast
No shadow o'er his brow,
And as the plagues fall thick and fast
Sweet rest God will allow.

By him no time is realized,
'Twill as one moment be
'Til Jesus comes, and bids him rise,
To immortality.

He sleeps in Christ, O blessed sleep!
Weep not, O loved ones left,
Be true to God, and with him reap
The victory over death.

His trials are o'er, his work is done,
And peaceful is his rest;
The battle's fought, the crown is won,
And he is ever blest.

F. C. CLARK.

To Every Man His Work.

If we could all realize that the Lord is not dependent upon us to carry on

His work, but rather that we need the lesson that experience through labor for others will give, that our hearts may be made tender, and we become as little children in our willingness to follow Him, what a great work the Lord could do for humanity.

The cry of a great army of neglected, destitute, colored people, has come up before God, and He calls on us as a people to answer this appeal. Let us not look upon the giants in the way and conclude that God does not call "me." He has given "to every man his work," and each one will be rewarded according as his work shall be.

It is true that we are not all called to enter the field, but the Lord has presented the Self-Denial Box plan as a means by which we can all aid in the support of this work. Have you tried to interest your friends and neighbors in the Self-Denial Box work? As you call attention to the Box, many will inquire after the truth, and this will open up a line of home missionary work that will infuse new life and strength into every church. We earnestly request our dear friends who are using Boxes to send for a supply to distribute among those not of our faith. Let us take God at His word, believing He is able to do more than we can ask or think.

Our burdens seem to lighten, and our courage and confidence take firmer hold on God, as we see the interest our youth and even children take in the Self-Denial Box plan. Such youthful zeal ought to encourage every one of us, and inspire our hearts with a determined zeal that leads to victory and success every true Christian warrior.

A Condition.

How solemn is the thought that the way in which we labor in this world, and in which we improve the moments at our disposal, will determine our lot in the eternal world! It does not suffice to say that we are satisfied if only we can have a place in heaven, however small it may be. God demands the best efforts of which we are capable. Each one must put all his energies into his service. "Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

Furthermore the desire to gain heaven should not be the only motive of our actions. That which led to the condemnation of the man who received the one talent, was his selfishness! He would not make efforts to do good to others. Like all selfish people, he was blind to his own interests and brought loss to himself. He comprehended not that in laboring for another, it turned for good to himself. He could not look forward to the end of his labors, when his Lord would come.

We ought to learn a lesson from his selfishness, as well as from the faithfulness of the other servants. We should labor disinterestedly and with love for God and for our fellow men. If we have the love of God in our hearts we shall have a great desire to see our fellow men saved, and our labors will tend in that direction without slackening our efforts. Our duty here below is to work constantly. At the end of our labors, the reward will be given, not as pay for our services, but as a gift in which we shall be prepared to rejoice.—Selected.

May 6, 1904.

I hereby certify that I have examined the books, papers and accounts of the Kansas Conference and Kansas Tract Society from Oct. 1st, 1903 to April 30th, 1904, inclusive, and find everything in good shape.

L. E. KOON,
Auditor Central Union Conference.

Hepler.

We thought perhaps you might be interested to know the results of the effort put forth by the Christian minister. After listening to him two evenings, one of his best members decided to keep the Sabbath. His efforts to destroy the truth confirmed those who had just taken their stand for God's Holy Day, and brought others to the point of deciding. So after all, the enemy can do nothing against the truth but for the truth.

Fifteen have decided to keep the Sabbath,—six from the Christian church, three from the Methodist church, one from the Baptist church and five from the world. Several others are deeply interested. We know not when the work will close, at least not as long as we have a good interest.

Yours in hope,
J. W. LAIR,
W. F. SURBER.

Sanitarium Notes.

Dr. B. E. Fullmer of the Kansas Sanitarium and Dr. J. E. Cooper, who was physician in the Sanitarium during a part of the time of Dr. Droll's sickness last spring, performed a very successful operation in surgery last Sunday morning in Wichita. The patient is Mrs. Rue Aton of Independence, Kansas. She is doing nicely under the care of the doctor and nurses. Brother Aton, who is a first class workman, is assisting on the building.

A lady in Wichita, who was much afflicted with Rheumatism and was carried into the Sanitarium a little over a week ago and was suffering intense pain, has so far recovered that she went to the tent meeting Monday night a distance of about eight blocks. She will continue treatment a while yet, coming from home each day. She is much interested in the truths of the message as a result of her short stay with us. She read much and was lead in Bible study by the helpers.

B. Roberts, the latter as colporteur. Elder J. Wallenkampf will work among the Swedes in that part of the state also.
