Noble Service

We cannot all be preachers and sway with voice and pen,
As strong winds sway the forest, the minds
and hearts of men:
But we can be evangels to souls within our reach;
There is always love's own gospel for loving hearts to preach.

We cannot all be heroes, and thrill a hemisphere
With some great daring venture, some deed that mocks at fear:
But we can fill a lifetime with kindly acts
and true;
There's always noble service for noble souls
to do. —Selected

What of the Camp Meetings?

The time and place of most of our camp meetings are printed in this issue of the HERALD. Three of them come in the early part of the summer. Many are writing about these important gatherings. The conference presidents and other laborers feel deeply burdened over their respective camp meetings. And well they may be. The prosperity of God's cause in every conference, and in this entire Union, will be very materially determined by the kind of camp meetings held this summer. We hope and pray for good meetings and large meetings. Surely, they should be the largest ever held. Hundreds of our people in this Union, who never attended camp meetings before or who have stayed away for several years, should come this year. The Division Conference has promised us splendid assistance. Elders G. B. Thompson and W. W. Eastman will attend the first three camp meetings. We hope to have every department of our cause well arranged for. The work for our own children and youth will be regarded as first of all. Our sanitariums will be represented at every camp meeting. We failed in this last year. A thorough work for the cause of true temperance and genuine health reform will be done. We are especially desirous of making the camp meetings this summer strong in spiritual work and Bible study. The end of all things is upon us. We need to get right with God.

Bring your unconverted relatives and friends to the camp meetings. Bring the Spirit of God with you. Come prepared for a great spiritual awakening.

Let Us Be at It

This year promises to break all records for the canvassing work in the Lake Union. A statement received from Brother Mace, manager of the Review and Herald Branch Office at South Bend, shows an immense increase of book sales the first four months of this year over those of 1914. Brother Blosser's letters as well as the weekly reports in the HERALD tell the same story. It certainly ought to be so. It must be so. Never before were people as willing to buy our books, and never before were they more able financially to secure them. This year will be the banner year for our book work. A large number of students are just now debating whether they shall take it easy this summer or bravely join the great army of colporteurs. We would earnestly urge them to go canvassing—every one of them. We would especially advise many of the lady students to enter this work. The demand for women workers in this cause is steadily on the increase. Many sisters could sell books right out in the country and have excellent success. It would pay a person to canvass all summer just for the experience, even though he did not sell a book. And surely it will pay when any person on good terms with hard work can not only get the experience but sell hundreds of books. No person who decides to take up canvassing makes a mistake.

Respect Required for Aged Workers

Apropos of a poem by Fanny Crosby in a recent issue of the LAKE UNION HERALD the following testimonies of the Holy Spirit in harmony with the subject matter of the article invites the attention of the interested reader:

See Lev. 19:32; 1 Sim. 5:1,19; "The most tender interest should be cherished toward those whose life interest is bound up with the work of God. Notwithstanding their many infirmities, these workers still possess talents that qualify them to stand in their lot and place. God desires them to occupy leading positions in His work. . . . They are not to be pushed aside by less experienced workers. The Lord does not thus lay them aside. He gives them special grace and knowledge. . . . Let every believer respect the aged pioneers who have borne trials and hardships and many privations. . . . These faithful laborers . . . must not be left to struggle on in poverty and suffering, or to feel that they are paupers.

These ministers and workers are not to be ranked with the poor. . . . God's workers are bound to Him, and where they are received it should be remembered that Christ is received in the person of His messengers. He requires this, and is dishonored and displeased when they are treated indifferently or dealt with in a small or selfish manner. God's blessing will not attend close dealing with any of His chosen ones."—Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 7, page 287-293.

From lack of Christian courtesy due their age and standing, they should not be made to feel that they have become antiquated, or have outgrown their usefulness.

The College Debt Movement

The College Debt Movement is on with renewed zeal and earnestness. During the past few months students and teachers have been praying that God would bless the effort started one year ago. We realize that only by "patient continuance in well doing" can we hope for success.

Thursday morning, April 29, a mass meeting of students was held. Many spoke of their experiences last summer in the field, and told how God had blessed in their efforts to earn money for this fund. Expressions as, "I'll give a week's work to help clear away the indebtedness," and "I'll pledge $5, absence of criticism, and a heart full of loyalty for E. M. C." were heard. One student said he told the Lord he would give $50 if he must sell his motorcycle to do it; another said he would go without a new suit he had promised himself. One student who has heavy financial responsibilities has gladly pledged $50 of his summer's proceeds from the canvassing field. Sixty-four students made definite pledges ranging from one week's labor to fifty dollars. Every teacher has pledged at least one week's salary, and from that to five hundred dollars.

The students set their goal for 1915 at $5,000. When later they learned that only a few days before the Lake Union Conference Committee had voted to ask the students and teachers to raise $5,000 of the debt, it seemed a remarkable coincidence.

Elders Christian and McVagh spent Sabbath and Sunday with the Berrien Springs churches. As a result of their work more than three thousand dollars was pledged, making a total of over four thousand dollars. There was one thousand dollar gift pledged; two gave five hundred dollars; six, one hundred dollars; thirteen, fifty dollars; fourteen, twenty-five dollars; and many gave smaller amounts.

We feel that our prayers and those of many earnest workers throughout the field are being answered in the definite, consecrated efforts being put forth to roll away reproach from this and other institutions.

This $5,000 goal is to date from January 1, 1915. It will include (1) all donations from students and teachers, (2) all funds solicited directly by them, (3) fifty per cent of the donations received from the members of the Berrien Springs churches who are not students or teachers, (4) all proceeds from the Two-per-cent Fund coming to the College.

Funds to apply on this goal should be sent directly to the College.

May the time soon come when the reproach will be rolled away from all of our institutions, that they may go forward under the blessing of God to do their appointed work, unhampered by debt.

The Summer School

The Summer School will be held at Emmanuel Missionary College June 23 to August 10. Announcements are being sent out this week. If you do not receive a copy, and are interested, write for one, addressing Prof. O. J. Graf, Berrien Springs, Mich.

It will be observed that the time has been extended beyond the usual six weeks. This provides for the joint Educational and Missionary Volunteer Convention July 19-26. Regarding this feature, and also another which will appeal to our teachers, I quote from the Announcement:

"Union Educational and M. V. Convention

"It is with great pleasure that we announce this convention to be held at Emmanuel Missionary College while the summer school is in session. This will permit all who attend to share in the blessings and inspiration of this large convention without added expense.

"The date of the convention is July 19-26. It will be conducted by the North American Division Conference leaders in these two departments. This convention alone will be worth far more than all the effort put forth in reaching the summer school. A series of these conventions to be held in various union conferences is to follow the Departmental Council which will be held in California, June 4-14. It is fortunate that our date falls within the time of the summer school, thus making it possible for all our teachers to attend.

"Institute Work

"For some time we have felt the need of more institute work in connection with our summer schools. This need has led to some careful planning in this direction.

"Each afternoon one hour will be devoted to this work. Each one will be expected to attend unless excused by the faculty. It will be placed at an hour which will not conflict with the time devoted to regular class work.

"These discussions will be conducted in an informal manner so that all will feel free to participate. Teachers, bring your problems and perplexities, and we will talk them over together, and seek a solution."

All regular teachers of the Seventh-day Adventist schools in the Lake Union Conference, and those under appointment to teach will be exempt from paying tuition. All others will be charged six dollars' tuition for the term. No room rent is charged, but two hour's work a day is required.

We shall put forth every effort to make the 1915 Summer School the largest and best ever held in the Lake Union Conference. The traveling expense of the teachers has been met by the conferences, thus encouraging the teachers to attend.

The general examination of teachers will be conducted at the close of the term.

With the conferences and the College uniting to reduce the expense to the minimum, and with the special features previously mentioned, is it too much to expect every teacher and prospective teacher in the Union to attend?

ANNUAL CAMP MEETING, STEVENS POINT, JUNE 10-20, 1915

Camp Meeting

This year the annual camp meeting and conference of the Seventh-day Adventists of Wisconsin will be held on the fair grounds at Stevens Point. This is a thriving little city of 10,000 inhabitants, located on the main line of the Soo Railroad from Duluth and Superior to Chicago; another line extending south to Portage. The Green Bay and Western is also connected with a branch from Plover.

Order Your Tents Early

Now is the time to order your tents and other camp equipment from Frank Hiner, our conference secretary, at Grand Rapids, Wis. A delay may mean disappointment, as everybody in Wisconsin is going to camp meeting this year and there might be a shortage of tents. The following articles will be furnished by the conference at the accompanying prices, until supply is exhausted: Tents, 12x14, $2.50; 12x16, $3; bed springs, 50 cents; tables, 25 cents; chairs, 15 cents, and straw for bed-ticks, 25 cents. You will also be able to rent lumber for various purposes at one cent per board foot, and what has been damaged by cutting and nailing may be purchased at the regular sales price.

The Camp

The camp will consist of a large pavilion for the main services. There will be separate tents for the German and Scandinavian meetings. The young people and children and even the kindergartners will have their own places. Then there will be a dining tent where you can get a good wholesome meal, served on the cafeteria plan. The book tent will have a good supply of our literature both for the home and missionary use. Besides all these, there will be offices and reception tents, a store and family tents, as needed by the campers.

What to Bring

Each one should bring sufficient clothing to appear in a comfortable, not gorgeous manner, whether the weather should be wet or dry, warm or cold. Bring sufficient bedding to avoid taking cold, for of all times we cannot afford to be sick during camp meeting. For emergency, bring a few dishes and cooking utensils, so that you will not need to borrow from your neighbor, whose trunk was as full as yours. Also bring a liberal supply of patience and of the Spirit of God.

When and How to Come

You should start so as to be there from the beginning and stay to the close. Those arriving on the trains Thursday and Friday, the 10th and 11th, will be met by Elder P. C. Hanson, with whom you are acquainted. Give him your check and ten cents. Then he will have your trunk brought to the grounds and will show you the camp meeting bus, which will take you to the camp for ten cents. If you desire to walk, from the Green Bay depot, go straight east on Main street one mile to the fair grounds. If from the Soo, go north on Division to Main, then turn east to the grounds, the distance being about the same.

Who Should Attend

Fathers and mothers should be there, yes, even grandfather and grandmother. As there is much work to be done, we need all the strong men and women of the conference, and do not forget the children and the young people, as they play an important part at a camp meeting. Also bring that interested neighbor of yours who is about to take his stand for the truth.

P. A. HANSON, Conf. President

Berlin and Poy Sippi

During the latter part of the month of April I was privileged to hold some meetings with the company at Berlin. On Sabbath, April 24, four were baptized, uniting with the Berlin company.

May 1, I was with my home church at Poy Sippi, and there baptized twelve. We rejoice to see the people take their stand on the Lord's side, and let us pray that God will keep them unto the end.

P. C. HANSON

Bashaw Lake

As a church we wish to express our thanks to the conference for sending Elder John Hoffman to labor among us. July 25, 1914, the Bashaw Lake Church was organized with nineteen members; since then two members have been added. A full corps of officers was elected. We pay our tithe to the conference and are actively engaged in missionary work. A church school is maintained with an attendance of eleven pupils. We will send delegates to the camp meeting, at which time we desire to be taken into the family of churches, that we may enjoy your fellowship and care.

M. BELLE GALE, Clerk

Notes

In a recent letter from Elder P. M. Hanson, he tells us that there are at present four in Trempealeau County awaiting baptism. Last week he visited the Anson church and reports new Sabbath keepers at Jim Falls and Bloomer.

The Sturgeon Bay Church plans to increase its mission offerings in various ways. Some will have missionary hens, some gardens, others will pick berries and cherries, some mentioned giving a day's wages each week. In this way all will keep up their twenty-cents-a-week, and whatever more they can do.

From Moon Church, the treasurer writes that the children are planning to do what they can to fill their Sabbath school barrels and send their earnings on to missions. They are taking special interest there in the missionary clock.

Sister W. L. Buckman at Amberg writes of good results in her work with a class of boys in the Presbyterian Sunday school. She also states that prior to the election this spring a league was formed. The president of this league ordered one hundred copies of the Temperance Instructor. These were distributed to the voters, and as a result their little town of about four hundred, with three saloons, went dry by a good majority, and it is the first in Marinette County.

We have received the first shipment of that excellent book, "Shadow of the Bottle." We see no reason why this book should not sell as readily, or even more so, than its companion volume, the "World's Crisis." In quantities less than ten copies they are 25 cents per copy postpaid; 10 copies postpaid, $1.40. This book sells for 25 cents per copy. So those ordering in quantities can make a good profit selling them. We ought to give them a wide circulation. Send in your orders to the Wisconsin Tract Society at Grand Rapids, at once.

During the visit of the Flying Squadron to Madison April 29 to May 1 we made an effort to circulate 2,000 copies of the Temperance Instructor. Elder P. A. Hanson and Frank Hiner were present and had the privilege of meeting Mr. Daniel A. Poling, the manager and one of the principal speakers. Having an advanced copy of the "Shadow of the Bottle," they took great pleasure in showing him this splendid book. He wished to purchase it and seemed very much interested in it. At the meeting Thursday evening Mr. Poling presented the Temperance Instructor to the people recommending it very highly. They are doing excellent work in behalf of national prohibition. We thought this an opportune time to do what we could by way of educating the people along temperance lines with our good literature. We left several workers there and at this writing have not heard as to their success in disposing of the papers.

Appleton

I am at present visiting my home church at Appleton. Last Wednesday evening there was the largest attendance of outsiders that we have had since our church was built. A minister was present who invited me to present the same subject to his Sunday school class.

More than fifty were in attendance. They asked many questions and showed a deep interest in the subject.

Before leaving Illinois I was invited to hold quarterly services with the Davenport, Iowa, church. I shall always remember with pleasure the friends in Iowa and Illinois.

June 24 to July 4

Just a few more weeks till the time for our camp meeting. Official announcement is being made this week.

While we are making preparation for this annual encampment, the nations of earth are locked in the deadly battle grip of prophetic happenings marking the rapid approach of the end of all things.

The times are certainly pregnant with most important events. These events mean much to the world and more to those who have knowledge of present truth. I sincerely trust that no one will remain away from this encampment. We need the strength that our combined mutual help will provide for all, and we need to throw all our influence into the effort for the finishing of the Lord's work.

Our meeting this year will be held on the school grounds at Holly. Arrangements have been made with the school so that the rooms may be used by the campers. These will be very convenient for the older people and some who are not strong.

This will afford a splendid opportunity for our people to come in touch with Adelpian Academy. You will be better informed regarding it after a ten-day encampment on the grounds. Let no ordinary troubles keep you away from this meeting. The committee is making every effort to provide for your comfort and to make the meeting one of profit to all. Decide now to come.

WM. GUTHRIE

Tents and Rooms

It is now time to send in orders for tents and rooms for the camp meeting, and I am sure you will be interested to know the cost of each for the time June 24 to July 4.

A room with bed, mattress, and dresser but without bedding, $4 for the ten days, or fifty cents for one night. Canvass cot in room, $1.50 extra, not more than three could occupy one room with convenience. We have some classrooms that may be occupied by men. We can supply canvass cots and space in these rooms at $1.50 each for the time or twenty cents per night, for men only.

Tents 12x16, with fly, $3; tents 14x22, with fly, $4.50.

The ground is high and dry and but few of the tents really need floors. Those who can get along without floors, we trust will do so. It will be difficult to secure a large supply of lumber and we request that you use it sparingly.

The dining tent will be managed by Adelpian

Academy and if there is any profit it will be applied on the debt of the academy. I wish the larger portion of the people would decide to board at the dining tent. It would not cost a great deal more than to board yourself and you would have more time to attend the meetings. Last year a large portion of the camp took advantage of the dining department and were well pleased.

We advise that plenty of bedding be brought by each person. We have furniture to rent for both tents and rooms but we have no bedding for either, so be sure to come supplied. Bring a few quilts extra as we may have a run of cold nights.

Send in your order for tent or room early as we are expecting our supply to be short and we are desirous of knowing how many extra tents to provide.

Yours for a successful camp meeting,
WM. GUTHRIE

Lansing

Last Sabbath was another good day for the Lansing church. Six followed their Lord in baptism. A goodly number of others are almost ready for this ordinance. We are still writing articles on the prophecies for a local paper, the management of which is being boycotted by business men because of its anti-Catholic sentiments. But honest hearts are investigating the truth, and we are looking for definite results from these articles. The editor, in his last issue, confessed that the seventh day is God's true Sabbath. We are hoping that he will be led to see all the Bible truth for these times and accept it. Soon the work will stop. Shall we not, while it is day, work with all our might, taking advantage of every opportunity to spread this message?

B. L. POST

Report and Appointment

Three Sabbath school conventions with their spiritual services and study of improved methods, are events of the past.

The consecration services at each place, St. Charles, Flint, and Vassar, were seasons of refreshing. The Lord was present and softened hearts by His Holy Spirit.

A sense of need in knowing how to become more efficient in service, was evidenced by a dozen names enrolled at St. Charles to take the Sabbath school workers' training course, and thirteen at Flint. At Vassar, only one, but several had already begun their study earlier in the year.

No providence preventing, our next convention will be at Owosso, May 21-23. Hazleton, Durand, Chapin, and Bancroft will unite. The isolated ones who can attend, are most cordially invited to do so, also to take part in the discussion of topics to be studied.

Standard of Attainment

Thirty-three Standard of Attainment certificates were issued this spring. There are thirty-four new half members so we expect to pass our goal of forty with a good per cent.

One minister, four Bible workers, one conference worker, one church elder, six teachers, fourteen nurses, and four busy mothers are among these new Attainment members.

Several churches have organized Standard of Attainment classes. Since the class was organized in the South Side Church about a year ago ten have received certificates and twenty-one have passed the examination in doctrines. Why this splendid record? Because both elders and several officers of the church are Attainment members and enthusiastic workers for the plan.

Let every reader plan definitely to become a member before 1915 closes. Am I too old? We doubt it, for one of our members, Dr. Lyman Bedford of Chicago, is past 87 years.

Let us raise the goal to fifty by September. Who will help us reach it?

News Notes

When we look at the mission column of the reports we find the splendid gain of $1,652.86 above the same period of last year. This certainly shows that the Sabbath-keepers in West Michigan are arising to do their part in finishing the work.

Every Seventh-day Adventist family should have the Review and Herald and the LAKE UNION HERALD, and every leader needs the Church Officer's Gazette. It is only thirty-five cents a year. If this small sum added to the price of other necessary periodicals is a financial burden, as it may be in some cases, the church should provide it for its officers. If any church has officers who are not interested in it, they should be changed for those who are.

The Present Truth Series of the Review and Herald No. 4 on the Second Coming of Christ is ready and the Tract Society has a supply. It is an excellent number, and should have a wide circulation.

Visiting Young People's Societies

Since my last report to the HERALD I have visited the societies at Decatur, Peoria, and Farmington. Miss Meister, the leader of the society at Decatur, was away when I was there, but Miss Nina Carle, the assistant leader, was keeping up the work of the society, and they all responded well to the call for India.

In Peoria the society had been somewhat broken up, owing to some of the members being absent, but at the time I was there, they were again commencing to work, and at this place the members also responded well to India's call.

When I reached Farmington I found that they had failed to receive the letter stating the time I would arrive, but on short notice they assembled, and we had a very good attendance. One of the young people is desirous of baptism as soon as there is an opportunity.

As I visited these places I was much encouraged, but, as young people, we need to pray earnestly for each other, for Satan is bringing numerous temptations to each of us, and we must have strength from Heaven in order to stand firmly for right and be found ready to meet Jesus.

April 17 and 18 I spent with the East Alton Church, and at this place they organized their youth into a junior society with Sister Ballard as leader. While many are new in the truth, still they showed a deep interest in the young people's work, and pledged $22.50 to the India fund. On Sunday we all went out to gather wild flowers, and enjoyed a very pleasant time together. Let us pray the Lord to richly bless this new junior society and make it a blessing to the church.

MRS. A. J. CLARK

Pana

April 4 we began holding services in the church, and continued these meetings on Sunday nights until we had presented eight special subjects. As a result an interest seems to have been created regarding the Sabbath.

One minister preached against the Sabbath, and another minister stated from his pulpit, "There is no shadow of doubt in my mind but that the Adventists have the Sabbath."

My sermons are being published in the Pana Daily. We are thankful that the truth triumphs, also for the faithfulness of the Pana Church. Our tithe for April 1915 was $42.19. Our membership is twenty.
C. J. SMITH

News Notes

We have just received a sample copy of the "Shadow of the Bottle." It is identical in size and price with the "World's Crisis." This book contains the choicest cartoons and most forceful arguments against the liquor traffic.

We have recently received advanced circulars for the June Watchman, and it certainly proves to be a truth-filled issue. We trust our people will order very freely of this number.

News Notes

D. A. Bailey and Miss Anna L. Osberg were married April 29 at the Wabash Valley Sanitarium, Elders E. A. Bristol and W. A. Young officiating. We extend to them our best wishes.

A Sabbath school convention will be held at Ligonier, Sabbath, May 18. Neighboring churches and isolated members are invited.

Brother G. W. Rader spent April 27 at North Vernon. He reports that another company will be ready for baptism at Jasonville in a short time.

The marriage of M. S. Grimm to Miss Nellie Rothbaust took place at the home of the bride's parents at Franklin, May 2. Brother Grimm expects to continue in the canvassing work.

Brother Franklin reports that six of the Beechwood Academy students will enter the field with our books this summer. Some of the young ladies will sell "World's Crisis," and "Shadow of the Bottle."

Elder L. H. Christian spent a few days with the Marion church, beginning Sabbath, the 8th.

A report just received from the South Bend office shows that our canvassers delivered over $1,800 worth of books during the month of April. We are glad to see this evidence of the Lord's blessing attending these workers in the field.

Beechwood Academy Notes

The seniors, accompanied by Professor von Pohle, spent a pleasant day at Shelbyville Tuesday and had a class picture taken.

Beechwood enjoyed its annual spring picnic last Wednesday.

Future students will be glad to know that the agriculture class has spent some time lately setting out strawberry and raspberry plants.

The boys, with Mr. Colburn and Mr. Patchett, have been doing much to beautify our back campus by sodding it and laying out paths.

A canvassers' institute has been in session here for the past few days, with Brethren Blosser and Franklin in charge. It fills our hearts with renewed courage to see this line of work making such rapid progress. We may have a part in scattering the pages of truth if we will—and we will. A number from Beechwood Academy will be out in the field during the summer vacation, and several will be working for scholarships.

The Herald of the King

"How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet"
Of him who hastes to bring the precious tidings sweet
To Israel, to Zion, they, the flock who wait,
But who not yet have heard the cry, though now
'tis late.

"The Master's feet are drawing near; e'en now He comes;

We hear at hand His footsteps; lighting up the gloom

Of this long night, we see the morning's rays.
Arise! prepare! His chariot hastens on apace."

The "publisher of peace" goes forth with eager feet.
The Master's charge to search the lane, the hedge,
and street,

Sounds in his ears, and ever spurs him, leads him on O'er hill and vale. He stops not 'neath the summer's sun

When sluggards shirk. The winter's blast, the ice and snow

Deter him not at all. His heart within's aglow
With fervor from on high. His message is the King's,
And he must tell it well who such glad news does bring.

A prophet once o'er old Judean hills did cry,
"Make straight His paths"; his message clear the crowds turned by

To hear, and some to heed. His ringing words for them

A solemn import bore to souls of sin-sick men.
Today the publisher of tidings glad does speed
With message more of import far than his, to lead
Men to prepare. "The Lamb of God" the message then did ring,

But now, "Christ comes, the mighty, glorious King of kings."

AN INDIANA COLPORTEUR

The Best Yet

is the trade edition of "Bible Readings for the Home Circle," designed for our own people as a help for Bible study. You will remember what a large, heavy book the new "Bible Readings" is, but this is printed on India Paper, without the illustrations and although it contains 576 pages yet it is only three-fourths of an inch thick and weighs less than one pound. It is a handy size, 8x5½ and carries nicely with your Bible. Bound in the popular flexible red leather at $2, and maroon cloth $1.50. Order of your Tract Society.

Medical Missionary Special

A special issue of the LAKE UNION HERALD, bearing date of June 2, will be gotten out this summer. This will be a sanitarium number and will contain articles and write-ups from our sanitarium workers, together with an abundance of beautiful views and pictures. The purpose of this number is to instruct and interest all our people in the splendid work done by our three sanitariums. We do not fully appreciate what these excellent institutions, with their faithful, Christian doctors and helpers, are doing, nor have we supported them as we should. Ten thousand copies of this special number will be printed and circulated free all over the Union.

L. H. CHRISTIAN

College

[Too late for last issue]

Elder J. J. Irwin, president of the North Michigan Conference, and Elder P. A. Hanson, president of the Wisconsin Conference, paid a short visit to the College last week. Elder Hanson spoke to the students at the chapel hour on how the needs of the work were being supplied by the students from our schools, and of what an inspiration it is to those at the head of the work to see such a large company of young people in training.

At the chapel hour Monday, Professor Graf gave an account of his recent visit at the Fox River and Bethel academies. He brought back an encouraging report from both these schools, mentioning a number of E. M. C. students whom he met on the trip.

Prof. A. W. James of Chicago spent the week-end at the College, visiting his daughter, Arabella.

The class of '15 has installed a new electric program clock in the chapel. This does away with the necessity of having a bell rung for each period, as it rings automatically the five-minute warning and the closing signal for each forty-five minute period. It is surely a useful gift to the College.

Elders L. H. Christian and C. F. McVagh divided their time Sabbath and Sunday between the church in the village of Berrien Springs and the College.

Some ornamental shrubbery is being planted about the campus, also some cherry trees, several thousand current bushes, and several thousand strawberry plants.

Martin J. Halvorsen is home from Hazel, Kentucky, where he is connected with the academy.

C. A. Shull spent Sabbath attending the Missionary Volunteer Convention at Covert, Mich.

Mr. Clarence Keppler, the first student graduated from the violin course, gave a recital the evening of May 1, which was enjoyed by everyone.

Alumni Notice

The E. M. C. Alumni Association will convene at the College May 23, at 9 A. M. for the purpose of adopting a constitution, of taking in new members, of planning work for the coming year, and of attending to other business that may properly come before the association. The members of the association include all the graduates of the fourteenth and sixteenth grade courses. As far as possible, all members should plan to attend. The association would be glad to receive letters from those who cannot be present. All who are planning to attend should notify the secretary at once.

Four Tracts Worth Attention

The Protestant Series, on a live issue; interesting, startling, convincing. Four numbers: Number 1, The Land of Promise, a Campaign to make America Catholic; Number 2, The Proposed Censorship of the Press; Number 3, The Attitude of Roman Catholics towards Freedom of Speech; and Number 4, The Roman Mass. Send 25 cents to your Tract Society and ask them to send you an assortment. Hand them to your neighbors and friends, and thus help to create sentiment in favor of true Protestantism.
