THEY KEPT ON

"They on the heights are not the souls
Who never erred nor went astray;
Who trod unswerving toward their goals
Along a smooth, rose-bordered way.
Nay, those who stand where first comes dawn,
Are those who stumbled, but went on.

"When on the silvered clouds you see
A name engraven, as the one
Who has transcended you and me
In that which he has sought and won,
Know this: O'er stony ways he's gone;
But when he stumbled, he went on."

MIDSUMMER OFFERING

Sabbath, July 18, is the date set apart for receiving the Midsummer Offering to foreign missions. We take this means of calling the attention of our members everywhere to the special needs existing at this time.

We all know that the entire world is suffering from the effects of the general depression in business, that our own people are more or less affected by this as shown in the falling off in our foreign mission offerings. This in turn has its direct effect upon the work out in the foreign mission fields. Already our mission leaders are considering the necessity of returning a number of missionaries to the homeland. This, too, in the face of the fact that there were never greater opportunities for preaching the message than today. Instead of sending the workers home, many more ought to be going out in response to the great opportunities of the present hour.

What kind of an appeal does this make to our brethren and sisters here in the homeland? Is it not indeed a call to more sacrificial giving in order that the work be not hindered?

In order to partially meet the crisis that we are facing, it will be necessary to raise not less than $100,000 in this Midsummer Offering. This can be easily done, even in these times of financial depression, if every member will sacrifice to the utmost, and if those of large means will give liberally of their abundance. We appeal to all to do their utmost, and to those who are able, to give large gifts.

Let us all pray earnestly that it may not be necessary to sound a note of retreat.

J. L. McELHANY

DO YOU KNOW?

That this message has grown to tremendous proportions since that prophetic hour struck in 1844?

That doors heretofore closed to the message are, in these closing moments of earth's history, being opened by the providence of God, and the message is moving forward as never before?

That more than 400 languages and dialects now constitute the vocabulary of the message?

That the message will not close in some isolated, far-away corner of the earth, but will be finished in all the world at the same time, and in this generation?

That the only way we can keep in touch with the rapid progress of the message is through the weekly visits of the good old Review?

That the Review is an agency in the providence of God in these solemn times to keep God's people abreast of the message and fulfilling prophecy?

That Sister White has said, "To those who fail to read the Review and keep track of the progress of the work, the loud cry of the message may come and they not know it"?

That as the newspaper is indispensable in our every-day life in keeping us in touch with the world news, so is the Review in keeping us in touch with our missionaries in the regions beyond?

That the Review is indispensable for our spiritual growth, because it touches every phase of life—the home, true education, health, true science, true standards of morals, training of youth, evangelism, etc., pointing out the way to true success and happiness in this life and ever guiding along the narrow pathway leading to eternal life?

Dear reader, are you receiving the inspiration imparted by the weekly visits of this, our church organ, established by God for His people? Is it not true that there never was a time when the Review meant more to this movement, or to you personally, than right now? Let us invite this worthy counselor and informant to make regular visits to our homes, which every member of the family will joyfully anticipate and eagerly welcome.

WEST MICHIGAN CONFERENCE

OFFICE ADDRESS, 120 MADISON AVE., S. E. GRAND RAPIDS MICH
PRESIDENT, S. E. WIGHT

LET US BE YOUR BANKER

Almost every day we hear about some bank being closed. With some of us the closing of a bank is more than hearsay, it is an actual experience. It is a sad experience for young people to work hard all summer and place their earnings in a bank and when it is school time in the fall find out that their money is out of their reach because the bank has failed.

The Scriptures admonish us to be "wise as serpents." Young people, be wise in the handling of your finance. Just because a bank might fail with your money on deposit is no excuse for spending all you receive during the summer. Why not send that money on to Cedar Lake Academy where it will be held to pay next year's school expenses? If enough is on deposit next fall to pay expenses for one semester a small discount will be given. Should the expenses for the entire year be paid in advance a larger discount will be allowed, so in reality you will be getting interest on your deposit. Let us be your banker this summer.

WISCONSIN CONFERENCE

OFFICE ADDRESS, P. O. BOX 513, MADISON, WISCONSIN
PRESIDENT, E. H. OSWALD

THE COLPORTEUR SPIRIT ON THE WISCONSIN CAMP GROUND

Truly the colporteur spirit in Wisconsin is refreshing. They believe this method is one of the most successful in soul winning. As evidence of this fact three families asked for baptism the first Sabbath of the camp meeting.

Our colporteur meeting was a part of the daily program. Every day at two o'clock in the afternoon a large number gathered in the big tent. Elders Spicer and Mace and Brother Snider brought messages of inspiration and courage to the hearts of these gospel messengers. Many others expressed their appreciation of the spiritual help thus gained.

Brother Macguire was wearing a broad smile. Why not? He had just delivered $239 worth of our good books—another evidence of God's especial regard for His work.

Brother Jackson, our congenial missionary secretary, is assisted this summer by Brother Ben Savage and Miss Hummel. With such a splendid line up of colporteurs in the field, the spirit of Wisconsin was reflected in some good records.

EXPERIENCE IN PRAYER

Dr. A. T. Pierson says that he asked Mr. George Muller, of Bristol, a short time before he died if he had asked anything of God that had not been granted, and he told him he had prayed sixty-two years, three months, and five days (with his mathematical precision) for two men to be converted, and neither of them was converted, and there were no signs of that happening.

Dr. Pierson asked, "Do you expect God to convert them?"

"Certainly," was his reply. "Do you suppose that God would put upon His child for sixty-two years the burden of two souls if He had no purpose of their salvation? I shall meet them in heaven certainly."

Shortly afterward he died. Dr. Pierson preached in his pulpit at Bristol, and referred to this occasion. As he was going out, a lady said, "One of those men was my uncle, and he was converted and died a few weeks ago."—Selected.

"Kindness creates an atmosphere in which the most sensitive and diffident natures develop and reveal themselves."

EMMANEUL MISSIONARY COLLEGE NOTES

Students in the science department would be thrilled, were they here on the campus, to hear the song of the hammers and saws, as work on the science building progresses.

At the close of the first day, fifty-two students were enrolled in the ten weeks' summer session. Last summer at this time forty-two were enrolled. We hope to have a large number with us during the normal session.

Professor and Mrs. Sorenson returned Monday from their vacation trip to Washington. They were heard to remark that it takes such a trip as this to help one realize the beauties of E. M. C.'s lovely campus.

Some of the matriculants who have attended Emmanuel Missionary College previously are Elder H. B. Taylor of East Michigan; Mrs. Lulu Butler, English instructor of Indiana Academy; Miss Anita Herrmann, preceptress of Fox River Academy; Miss Marian Krater, music instructor of Fox River Academy; Miss Evelyn Wegner, music instructor of Union Springs Academy; Mr. and Mrs. Sigel Northcott of Miami, Florida; and Mr. Walter Clark of Southern Junior College. Mr. Clark will act as dean in Elder Burman's absence.

Professor Tippet and Miss Lamson are attending the Wisconsin camp meeting.

Miss Lotta Bell, of Broadview College, is assisting in the department of education at the college during the summer session.

President Wood, Elder Wakeham, Elder and Mrs. Burman, and Miss Stanley attended the Indiana camp meeting.

Miss Mast is visiting friends and relatives at La Rose, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Green returned recently from a vacation trip to Atlantic Union College and Washington.

President Wood will leave Thursday to give the commencement address at Oshawa Missionary College.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walker, former students of Emmanuel Missionary College, were pleased to see them on the campus Tuesday.

Mr. Harold B. Hannum, instructor in organ at the college, has recently been admitted as an associate to the American Guild of Organists. Admission to this organization is by examination. The guild is an association organized to promote the interests and standards of the profession of organists.

WABASH VALLEY SANITARIUM NOTES

The X-ray and physiotherapy departments have been newly decorated, also a number of patients' rooms. We are glad to report that the patronage is increasing. At present there are twenty-eight patients in the sanitarium.

Elder and Mrs. Holden were recent visitors. They were on their way to the Indiana camp meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Griffie are leaving the sanitarium. They plan to go East for post graduate work. Mrs. Griffie has been the superintendent of nurses here for several years, and Mr. Griffie has had charge of the men's hydrotherapy department. They have been faithful in their work and the sanitarium wishes them success.

John Shull of Emmanuel Missionary College, who has been helping in the men's treatment room during his vacation, has returned to the college.

Miss McChesney, Mrs. Derksen, and Miss Reed, nurses from Berrien Springs, are helping out here during the rush.

Among our patients we mention: Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Osborne of Emmanuel Missionary College, here for rest and treatments; Elder S. T. Shadel, of the Union Conference; Miss Ione Dorner, of the Union office; Mrs. J. R. Peterson, of Chicago; Barbara Phipps, of Berrien Springs, Mich.

Lake Union Educational Department

Thirteen students were graduated from the Hinsdale Academy this year instead of five as reported in this column a few weeks ago.

A unique fish pool and bird-bath have been added to help beautify the Fox River Academy campus.

The Indiana Academy campus prides itself in having a rock garden to greet the eyes of students and friends as they enter their spacious campus.

The science building at E. M. C. is a reality now. The basement walls will be finished this week. Many thanks to the donors.

The Chicago South Side church is taking an active part in equipping the academy homes at Fox River. Plans are being laid to increase the industries, also.

Our educational institutions are becoming real beauty spots. The study of nature lends interest to a Christian education.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.
