NOTICE TO DELEGATES

As plans for the Lake Union Conference session in Battle Creek have developed, we find it necessary to ask the delegates to arrive in Battle Creek sufficiently early to hold our first meeting in the Battle Creek Tabernacle at 2 р. м., Eastern Standard Time, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, instead of in the evening. The call for our Association meetings to convene in the evening remains unchanged, but in order to organize our plans in a way to complete our conference business in time for the ministerial institute to begin work the following Monday morning, it is absolutely necessary for us to begin not later than two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, at which time the delegates will be seated and standing committees chosen. A written notice has been sent each delegate, as well as to all conference workers, to this effect. Let us be right on time and ready for heavy work at 2 р. м., fast time, Wednesday, January 13.

It will be well if the delegates and conference workers can arrive even a full day early and take part in the pre-councils that will be in session from Monday evening, January 11, until Wednesday afternoon. The bookmen and tract society men, the home missionary secretaries, and the educational and young people's secretaries, will be holding pre-conventions Tuesday and Wednesday.

Let us work faithfully, and pray earnestly for the blessings of God to attend this quadrennial Union Conference session from January 13 to 23, the last six days being given over wholly to a miniterial institute. W. H. HOLDEN

MICHIGAN CONFERENCE

THE MICHIGAN CONFERENCE

A letter written to the churches of Michigan some weeks ago placed before our people in Michigan a plan recommended by the Fall Council to unite all of the state of Michigan into one conference, with the conference headquarters to be located at Lansing. This recommendation was perfected by the Lake Union Conference committee in joint session with the two local committees of Michigan on December 1, after having received favorable replies from all our churches in Michigan. The General Conference was represented by Elder O. Montgomery. We appreciate very much a report of this meeting written by Elder Montgomery in the Review and Herald of December 24, page 20, and if you read his report you will get all that I would like to say in this article.

The delegates from all Michigan to the Lake Union Conference session will be seated together for the first time at the incoming Lake Union Conference session at Battle Creek, Michigan.

In handling funds, paying in tithes and offerings, and rendering reports to the conference, there need be no confusion, because our people everywhere will continue to pass their funds to their local church treasurer and their reports to their local officers as formerly. The isolated and conference church members will carry on their correspondence with the conference office at Grand Rapids through the conference officers.

We wish to express appreciation for the long and faithful service given the East Michigan Conference by its office force of workers. Especially do we have in mind the work of Brother Harrison, Brother Burgess, and Sister Griggs. We understand that they are being considered in plans for future work. Due to recent recommendations, we were unable to employ Brother Harrison and Brother Burgess to head departments in the Michigan Conference, the Fall Council having recommended that six years' service as head of any one department should be the maximum for any one local conference. Arrangements were made, however, for Brother Harrison to continue for a time as secretary of the Association, and Brother Burgess is being employed as assistant in the tract society at Grand Rapids until he can again be placed as head of this department in some new field, because Brother Burgess has given efficient service as tract society secretary in the Holly office and understands the work well. Brother Harrison is a competent accountant, and there is no question but that he will be permanently placed before long.

Others heading departments the specified number of years in East and West Mich gan are being placed in the field as ministers and Bible workers, and we wish to express appreciation for the year of faithful service of Brother Halladay, Brother Murphy, Brother Clark, and Sister Morey. Brother Clyde Smith, who has given acceptable service as field secretary in the East Michigan Conference, is remaining in the field as assistant secretary for the Michigan Conference.

We feel that Michigan is very fortunate in having a man like Elder V. E. Peugh, with his broad experience both as executive and departmental secretary, to now head the Home Missionary and Sabbath School departments of Michigan.

Let us pray earnestly for God's blessing to rest on the Michigan Conference, and do all we can by faithful cooperation to make this union a success.

W. H. Holden

THE MICHIGAN CONFERENCE

With the beginning of the year 1932 the Michigan Conference came into existence again after its discontinuance for thirty years. A few words of explanation in general with regard to the beginning of the work in the Michigan Conference at this date will be of interest to our people.

It has been highly gratifying to learn of the unanimity of feeling with regard to this move, yet many in East and West Michigan have felt that it was not wise just at this time to move the headquarters to Lansing and leave these two excellent buildings in Holly and Grand Rapids without occupants. Τo those who are acquainted with conference work it is evident that the best work can be accomplished where all the secretaries live in one place and work in one office. Inasmuch as Lansing is the natural headquarters for Michigan, and inasmuch as the headquarters eventually will be there, it was felt that as few moves as possible should be made pending the general move to Lansing; therefore it has been arranged for the Home Missionary work and the Sabbath school work, and possibly the Educational, to be carried on at Holly, Michigan. The Book and Bible House secretary, the conference secretary-treasurer, and the president will work in Grand Rapids. Brother J. M. Jackson, who moved last week from Madison, Wisconsin, and who will take the work of Brother S. L. Clark as Field Missionary secretary, has located in Lansing. Inasmuch as he was moving into the conference, it seemed best for him to begin his work there. As soon as one of the offices is disposed of, the department or departments working in that office can move to Lansing.

We know this is not the ideal way of working, but we believe our brethren and sisters throughout Michigan will bear with the conference officers if they lack a little here and there of coming up to the previous administrations. We all look forward to the day when headquarters will be established in Lansing and all the mail for the conference will be going to that place. For the present, those corresponding with various departments should be sure not to send a note in a letter to a department other than the one to whom they are writing. For example, if you are corresponding with the Home Missionary secretary at Holly, Michigan, you should not put in orders for books and tracts because these will be handled in Grand Rapids. All possible effort will be put forth to speed the centering of the Michigan Conference work in Lansing, and while we are doing it we request your assistance and patience.

Wishing you the compliments of the new year and the blessing of the Lord, we look forward to a prosperous year in soul-saving in Michigan.

NEW ORGANIZATION AT LOWELL

Answering a request from the members of the Lowell company for a church organization in that city, Mrs. Halladay and the writer had the pleasure of meeting with them on Sabbath afternoon, December 26. Steps were taken to elect a full corps of officers for the new organization for the coming year.

The charter membership is seventeen. Three of these members were taken in on their former baptism, one will be transferred from the Grand Rapids church, and thirteen are being transferred from the Conference church.

This new church is the fruitage of the efforts of a few faithful sisters who have labored during the few past years to bring the truth to others. We are made to rejoice with them that God has blessed their efforts. Sometime this spring a series of meetings have been promised them. We believe this will add to a larger interest. Already a few are awaiting baptism when this ordinance may be properly administered.

These folks are already planning and looking forward to their first quarterly service. For many years the members of this small company have been faithful in their gifts to missions. For a number of years they have raised their Harvest Ingathering and Big Week goals besides doing their share in Sabbath school gifts.

The new interest and responsibility created by a new organization we believe will help them to be faithful and true to God in the future. Our prayers go up for their success. H. K. HALLADAY

JACKSON

Because of the many inquiries which have come relative to literature ministry among the inmates of the Michigan State Prison at Jackson, I make the following explanation: I am informed by prison authorities that all books, papers, tracts and magazines addressed to prisoners must be mailed direct from the publishers. All literature mailed by individuals and literature bands direct to prisoners is confiscated according to prison regulations. The only means of reaching these individuals with our literature is through the regular subscription, or by placing such literature in the prison library.

It is with pleasure that I report in this connection the progress of the Lord's work in this city. The Week of Prayer was a precious season. Our older members state that we had the largest attendance throughout the week that the church has had in many years. Real victories have been gained, and some souls reclaimed for God.

Throughout the year the members have been active in missionary work both through literature ministry and in giving Bible readings. No general puble effort has been held, but through personal work and Bible readings a number have been baptized and united with the church. During the last quarter two have been won to the message and baptized through the personal efforts of lay members. A number of families are now receiving Bible readings from week to week. Beginning with the new year the church is entering upon an intensive, systematic distribution of Present Truth from house to house. We believe this will assist in searching out the honest in heart, and also open new homes for Bible readings. We solicit the prayers of the LAKE UNION HERALD readers, and shall be pleased to receive the names and addresses of interested persons with whom we may not have come in contact. Address us at 703 Second St., Jackson, Mich.

NOTICE

Union meetings will be held in the following churches January 9: Bangor, Otsego, Dowagiac, Belding, Charlotte, Hastings, Coldwater, Grand Haven, and Howard City. We trust that this notice will reach all our people in time for them to attend. S. E. WIGHT

ADELPHIAN ACADEMY

We were indeed fortunate in having Elder S. T. Shadel with us during our Week of Prayer season at Adelphian, for he gave us a full week of enthusiastic service for which we were very grateful. The readings were presented each evening leaving the double chapel periods for Bible studies and devoticnal meetings.

There was a splendid interest in the topics each day and definite victories were gained.

Each day the students and teachers met in prayer bands and at the request of the leaders, pledges were prepared and signed. We promised that with the Lord's help we will abstain from conduct unbecoming Christians, such as attendance at motion picture shows, dancing, card playing, reading of objectionable literature, intemperance, and improper associations.

On Saturday evening, December 19, a piano recital was given in the chapel with a full house in attendance. It was evident from this program that Miss Warren is doing good work for our students along musical lines.

At the chapel hour Tuesday, December 22, the Student Association launched a campaign to increase the enrollment of the school. Our students appreciate their privileges here to the extent that they are anxious to share them with other young people. They have set a goal of one hundred students for the second semester, and those who know the spirit of these young people have no doubt as to the outcome of the campaign. They have reached several definite goals already this year. Their spirit seems to be that of the Roman soldier who said "I'll find a way or make one."

The Christmas vacation of only four school days seemed all too brief. However, we met the usual happy faces and cheery smiles as we assembled for business again Wednesday, December 30. The next two weeks will be busy ones as they will close the work of the first semester.

The second semester will open Tueday, January 19. Young people who expect to enter at that time should write us or come to see us at once. In addition to the regular program several new subjects will be started. Those who are capable and willing to work can attend Adelphian for a very moderate amount of money. Most of our dormitory students are earning a substantial part of their expenses.

THE WEEK OF PRAYER AT ITHACA

The Week of Prayer was a good season for all of the members of the Ithaca church. Plans were made before the week arrived to provide for the children and youth as well as the older members. The meetings were held at the homes of the members. There was always a spirit of freedom in testifying of the love and blessings of God, but the last Sabbath seemed to be the best day of the feast. The response to the appeal from Elder Spicer was one hundred per cent. The doors of the church were thrown open and four were added to our growing company, two on profession of faith and two subject to baptism which took place in the afternoon. A liberal offering was given for missions. The nominating committee submitted its report of church officers for the ensuing year and all were unanimously elected.

NEWS NOTE

Sister I. W. Bowen of Thompsonville, Mich., who was burned from the flames of a gas stove August 1 is slowly gaining strength. Her mind which was so long in darkness has come back to complete light. She is able to do some reading now and with help can walk a little. The burns are nearly healed and she hopes soon to be as well as ever. Sister Bowen is past eighty years old and we think she must have a wonderful hold on life and on God to go through so much at that age. INIS MOREY

ILLINOIS CONFERENCE

OFFICE ADDRESS, 1488 PURE OIL BUILDING, 35 EAST WACKER DRIVE, CHICAGO, ILL.

PRESIDENT. R. E. HARTER

FIELD REPORT

In March, 1931, I took charge of a district including seven churches in central Illinois, with Peoria as headquarters. The chief plan and purpose was an aggressive evangelism. I have conducted two protracted efforts and followed up many interests created by our faithful laymen, who have nobly assisted me in each effort. It is evident that, with few exceptions, our older members have been giving freely of their means to the support of our world work.

When I came here there was a membership of 284 in this district. It is now 366, or a gain of eightytwo. The tithe for 1930 for the entire district was $8,211; the present figures show $8,959, or a gain of $748. There was given to missions in 1930, $5,257; to-date $6,525 has been given, or a gain of $1,268. There was a debt on one of the churches amounting to $1,300, which has been entirely paid off during the time mentioned.

This, in the time of so-called depression and in a district where unemployment has been very much felt, even in the church (There are about a score of families the church is providing for through the winter), proves that there is no real crisis with the Lord. I firmly believe this is our best time for soul winning, and let us not slacken our efforts for the speedy finishing of the gospel. F. A. WRIGHT

REMEMBER BETHEL ACADEMY

We are told, "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old, he will not depart from it." The training spoken of by the wise man involves the fear of the Lord as the beginning of wisdom and to depart from evil as understanding. We are admonished to search most diligently for the wisdom which comes from above.

The Lord has placed within our midst a system of education whereby we may avail ourselves of a training that will abide with us throughout eternity. Bethel Academy has been established for the very purpose of educating the boys and girls to become efficient instructors of the things that pertain to the kingdom of heaven.

We are very glad indeed for the present enrollment of 103. Thus far the Lord has blessed abundantly and the spirit prevailing at Bethel encourages both students and parents. We are nearing the close of the first semester. Surely, there must be some who are planning to join the students at Bethel for the second semester. You need Bethel and Bethel needs you. The Lord will bless those who can possibly arrange their affairs to spend the last half of the school year at Bethel. Study your financial affairs and get in touch with Professor Straight to make satisfactory arrangements for the last half of the present school year. I am sure you will find it worthwhile to be at the academy and the money you invest will never be lost. You will not regret the investment.

I hope that a number will see their way clear to attend the denominational school in the Wisconsin Conference. E. H. OSWALD

A REAL NEED

To the members of the Wisconsin Conference I wish to address these words in behalf of the Review and Herald. Realizing the solemnity of the times to which we have come and the help that the Review has been to our people in keeping them posted on the progress of the message and present day developments in world conditions, I wish to emphasize the need of the Review in every home.

We have a special offer which I hope you will consider. Until January 31, 1932, the publishers will give a fourteen months' subscription to the Review or the Big Four for the price of a twelve-month subscription. This offer of fourteen months for the price of a twelve months' subscription is open for renewals as well as for new subscriptions.

I trust you will all give careful consideration to the offer that is made and avail yourselves of the opportunity by sending your subscription or renewat to the Book and Bible House of the Wisconsin Conference. E. H. OSWALD

BAPTISM AT LAFAYETTE

Brother F. O. Sanders and the writer have been conducting a series of meetings in Lafavette. These meetings have been well attended. The interest has grown from the beginning. December 26 we conducted our first baptismal service, and it was the privilege of the members of the Lafavette church to see nineteen baptized. The readers of the HERALD will be interested to know that we are planning another baptism in the near future as some of the new converts were not completely instructed. We sincerely solicit the prayers of our people that a large harvest of souls may be reaped in this place. We were thankful for the assistance of Elder M.A. Hollister and Elder O. K. Butler. We were also favored with a visit from Elder W. B. White. Elder and Mrs. White were present at our baptism.

LET US DO OUR PART

"The great and wonderful work of the last gospel message is to be carried on now as it has never been before. The world is to receive the light of truth through an evangelizing ministry of the Word in our books and periodicals."

There are hundreds of people greatly troubled over the present conditions in the world and are wondering what the outcome will be. We who know the truth for this time must carry it to these people in some form.

There is plenty of territory in which to work.

Let us do our part and help finish the work God has placed in our hands. Write the field secretary now for an outfit and go to work. T. M. BUTLER

EDUCATION AN IMPORTANT FACTOR IN SAVING THE YOUTH

The Christian Teacher's Needs

"Every Christian teacher should have an intelligent understanding of what Christ is to him individually. . . From Christ proceeds all the knowledge essential to enable teachers to be workers together with God,—knowledge which opens to them the widest fields of usefulness. . . . Let it be your highest ambition to practice Christianity in your lives."— "Counsels to Teachers."

The teacher's need of prayer is constant and insistent. On a recent visit something went wrong in a schoolroom and the teacher said at the close of the day, "It was my fault. I usually arise early enough to have unhurried communion with the Lord, and He takes care of certain things in the schoolroom for me. This morning I failed to do so." "Every teacher should daily receive instruction from Christ, and should labor constantly under His guidance. It is impossible for him rightly to understand or perform his work unless he is much with God in prayer. Only by divine aid, combined with earnest, selfdenving effort, can he hope to do his work wisely and well. . . . He should learn how to come to the Lord and plead with Him until he receives the assurance that his petitions are heard."-"Counsels to Teachers."

One of the basic needs is health. It is not obtained by haphazard methods but by planning and building for it day by day. Correction of physical defects, plenty of sleep, proper diet, and exercise are determining factors. The Lord wants us to "enjoy our work" and to "have sunshine at every step."— "Counsels to Teachers."

Recreation must not be overlooked. It may come by engaging in outdoor sports, light household tasks, or following up some hobby. "Counsels to Teachers," page 235, gives a good thought on this subject: "Wherever you are, weave into your life all the usefulness possible, and you will find your minds more capable of expansion, more vigorous in grasping the lessons you endeavor to learn. By performing with faithfulness every practical duty that falls to you, you are becoming better qualified to educate those who need to learn how to do these things." "The power of a happy disposition" has solved many perplexing problems in home, school, and church relationships. "A placid temper, a trustful spirit" are ideals toward which our profession is making progress by God's grace. "By the exercise of living faith you can separate from everything that is not in accordance with the mind of God, and thus bring heaven into your life here below."— "Counsels to Teachers."

"The more of true knowledge a teacher has, the oetter will be his work. The schoolroom is no place for surface work. No teacher who is satisfied with superficial knowledge will attain a high degree of efficiency." Our teachers are well trained or are in the process of getting a good training. As a class they are constantly striving after greater knowledge, knowledge of things in general, knowledge of methods of teaching, and knowledge of spiritual things. For this reason our system of education, giving each pupil in a small group much personal contact with the teacher, is superior to other systems which contain or are made up of large groups of children who have only slight contact with their teachers.

A wise teacher is like a mother ministering day by day to the physical, mental, and spiritual needs of each pupil and guiding him in the pursuit of knowledge, in the development of skill, and in the formation of character. "He should seek so to educate, train, and discipline the youth that each may reach the high standard of excellence to which God calls him."—"Counsels to Teachers."

CAN A MAN MAKE A LIVING IN THE COLPORTEUR WORK?

This strange question is sometimes asked by those who should know that "all of God's commands are enablings." Why not ask, "Can a man make a living and keep the Sabbath?" or "Can one retain his tithe and still live?" If God calls a man to the colporteur work, he is just as certain of a living as he is of the call.

Now is the time to respond. "God calls the canvassers back to their work." There are thousands who are perplexed and in darkness at this present moment. The colporteur knows the way and can point with assurance to Christ. He knows prayer is the key that unlocks heaven's storehouse. Let us use this key more and teach others how to use it. The Lord has need of workers who will push the work forward to a triumphant close. The dates of our winter institutes appear in this paper. Write your Field Secretary. He will be glad to plan with you. R. R. BROOKS

Some Chicago children had an unexpectedly merry Christmas this year. The training school pupils brought dolls, cars, tractors, and various other toys to a hastily improvised toy hospital installed at the school. These things filled some stockings which otherwise would have been empty.

Elder Ochs led the student body in a very helpful Week of Prayer which closed November 19. The result of the heart searching is seen in the large baptismal class which was formed.

Elder M. L. Andreason, president of Union College, spent a few hours with Broadview College students and teachers recently.

The Commission of forty-three men appointed by the Autumn Council visited the college to study Broadview's future status. Broadview is to be an accredited junior college with a subsidy direct from the General Conference.

Miss Virginia Sauerberg has registered for school work. Miss Sauerberg has been attending school at the Proviso County high school.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Elder August Anderson, Tuesday evening, December 1, 1931, when Miss Bernice Claffin and Mr. Cæsar Bufano were joined in marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Bufano are assisting in a clinic in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Prof. J. W. Osborn, of Emmanuel Missionary College, entertained the faculty, students, and friends of Broadview College with a piano recital. A historic program from the old masters was featured.

President Thos. W. Steen spent a few days at Plainview Academy in South Dakota, recently.

Reuben Engstrom, a former student of Broadview College, is teaching English, and assisting in the Bible and history departments at our school in Jarnboas, Sweden.

A. V. Olsen, president of the Southern European Division, told of recent visits in Spain, Russia, Italy, Jugoslavia, and Roumania in the chapel period, on a recent visit.

Elder J. H. Roth, of the Western Canadian Conference, visited Broadview College, December 12 and 13. The Canadian students were especially glad to see Elder Roth since he is the educational secretary for the Western Canadian Union.
