Our Missionary Paper

From my earliest memory, I recall my parents talking about the signs of the times. I think these are about the first words I can remember. Seventh-day Adventist ministers were frequently in our home talking with father and mother about the signs which were in evidence then to let us know that the coming of the Lord was near. My parents were deeply moved by the stirring messages that the ministers brought to our community. They gave their hearts to God and united whole-heartedly with the Seventh-day Adventist movement. These ministers then went away and visited us only occasionally, but during their absence there was another visitor in our home that came weekly. It was that missionary paper known all over the world as the Signs of the Times.

Its stirring messages helped to keep the courage and faith of my parents ever bright. The paper was not only read by our family, but was passed on to neighbors and friends. Through the personal visits of ministers and the influence of this good paper a little company was raised up and kept alive for many years near Cooks Corners, in St. Lawrence County, New York. Father and mother lived to a good old age and died in the faith. The messages contained in this good paper still have their influence on the lives of some members of our family, and I feel confident that in the kingdom of God we shall meet men and women from my childhood community who were influenced and encouraged to live the faith by the messages which came weekly to their homes through the pages of the Signs of the Times.

How wonderfully the work has grown since then! When I think of the many languages through which the pages of this paper speak today I cannot help feeling that it is one of the best means we have in the denomination of warning the world of the soon-coming Saviour. Its pages are just bristling with fresh evidence of our Lord's return. Seventh-day Adventists who have during these years been influenced by its pages should be exceedingly enthusiastic in placing this missionary paper in the hands of all their neighbors. It seems a bit strange that it should ever be necessary to put on a special campaign for its circulation. If we were thoroughly awake to the times as we should be, I am of the opinion that it would not be necessary. Nevertheless, the General Conference has felt that it would be necessary to put on a real effort during the month of February to encourage our people everywhere to give a portion of their time and money for the promotion of a much wider circulation of this good old Seventh-day Adventist missionary periodical.

I am writing this little appeal to urge everyone professing the name of Jesus in the Lake Union Conference to join with us in making this the very best Signs of the Times campaign we have ever supported. Now is the time to tell everyone far and near that the day of the Lord is at hand.

LITERATURE MINISTRY WITH THE "SIGNS"

One good way to start the new year right is with the Signs. There has never been a time when the Signs meant so much to the public as at present. With the breakdown of society which is seen on every turn; the utter failure of all earnest international efforts to bring about peace, or even come to reasonable agreements about it; with the dissatisfaction seen in the religious world and substitutes arising here and there to meet the conditions; also the greatest strife between capital and labor this country has ever known—I say with all these and other conditions of disaster, crime and trouble, we should do our utmost to warn and enlighten the public as to what it all means.

The Signs of the Times adequately meets such a condition in the best possible way. The world is nervous and anxiously looking for something, and some way out. We are rapidly coming into that time and condition referred to in "Great Controversy," page 464: "In those churches which he can bring under his deceptive power, he will make it appear that God's special blessing is poured out; there will be manifest what is thought to be great religious interest. Multitudes will exult that God is working marvelously for them, when the work is that of another spirit."

The counter revival in the world is now beginning to appear. Many different movements are arising to temporarily satisfy anxious minds on religious movements. The so-called holiness movement was never so popular on all sides as now.

Now is our opportunity to present the truth as to what can be expected in the immediate future, and point the way out. Let the Signs help you in this great work of reaching souls for Christ.

WM. A. BUTLER

OUR PIONEER LITERATURE MINISTER

This coming June will round out a full sixty years of pioneer missionary service for the Signs of the Times. What a wonderful soul-winning service it has rendered in so many parts of the world. I met the first Sabbath-keeper in the Guianas—a sister, who found the message of truth in a copy of the Signs of the Times which was in a bundle of literature thrown on the dock by a ship's officer. The first Sabbath-keeper on the island of Jamaica also testified to the work of the Signs in leading her into the message. Thus it is in many parts of the world. And still the Signs is carrying on a stronger and more able literature ministry than ever before. It is going into many thousands of homes, dispelling unbelief and shedding the glorious light of God's love into many hearts.

Do you have loved ones who are unsaved? Are there neighbors to whom you should give the message of life? Is the salvation of your friends a responsibility which you must face? Then let the Signs of the Times serve as a never failing helper in your labor of love. Invest in a club of Signs, and receive rich dividends of joy in the winning of souls.

SPECIAL "SIGNS" CAMPAIGN PRICES

In cooperating with our churches and people this year in their plans for larger Signs circulation, the Signs office is making further concessions in price during the campaign period. For a number of years during the Signs campaign our churches have had the privilege of ordering Signs in clubs and singles equaling their church membership at the special rate of $1 a copy in the club, the minimum club being 15 copies, and regular price for the singles.

This year we propose to extend this offer on a still more liberal basis. While still reaching toward the goal of one per member, and making every club as large as possible, we are offering to make the basis of allowing the $1 club rate during the campaign this year that of half the membership instead of full or two-thirds; this to apply on a club of 10 copies or more.

And further, the regular rate on clubs of 5 or more to one address has been reduced from $1.25 to $1.15. Besides this, there is a reduction in the single subscription price where five or more are sent in at one time from $1.40 to $1.25. (These are U. S. A. prices). Single subscriptions sent in with the church club can be had at this price and they will also be counted on the church goal.

On this basis, for example, a church of fifty members ordering twenty Signs for a year in a club to the missionary secretary, and five copies a year to separate addresses, would pay $20 for the club, and $1.25 each, or $6.25 for the single subscriptions.

The prices that will apply this year are as follows:

Single Subscriptions	$1.50
Five or more single subscriptions in U. S. A., one year each	1.25
Clubs of five or more to one address per copy	1.15
Ten copies and up, to a church subscribing for a number of Signs equal to or more than half its membership, each copy per year	1.00
To foreign countries and Canada	2.00
Yearly single subscription price
Club of five or more to one address, per copy per year	1.50

The special church rate on clubs ordered as specified will be in force until April 14, 1934. It is hoped that these special concessions will be of such encouragement to our people that they will do a larger work than ever with the Signs this year.

CHURCH MEMBERS AT WORK

The special edition of the army and navy size of "Steps to Christ," bound in a heavy paper cover, especially for the boys in the CCC camps, is now available to our own members at 10 cents a copy. Please rush your order to the Book and Bible House before the supply is gone.

The special offer to our own people is still open for the book "Great Controversy." It is now available for $1.50, with the understanding that it shall be loaned to our neighbors and friends—a good missionary project. We shall all want to get a copy on that basis.

Throughout the field there are evidences that our brethren are laying larger plans for evangelistic work. Already, in one district, three efforts are being held by church members. In another district we have word that cottage meetings have been started and carried on by the brethren. We are receiving word of interests in various places throughout the state. Will not more of our brethren take advantage of these openings? A Bible training class should be conducted in every church. The servant of the Lord has told us that it is to be through the organized efforts of the brethren, united with that of ministers and church officers, that this work is to be finished. We can see omens all around us that this is actually being done. It is sure evidence that we are nearing the end. Many of our churches are organizing for the Home Bible Study League work. If you are interested and would like more information on this work, kindly write the Home Missionary Department, Box 512, Madison, Wis.

BETHEL ACADEMY NOTES

At the Missionary Volunteer meeting last Sabbath afternoon, the sophomore class presented in dialogue form the story entitled, "Straightening Out Mrs. Perkins."

Storm windows have now been placed on all sides of the dormitories and on the Administration building, with the result of a more even temperature in the buildings.

Our preceptress, Mary Champion, spent her vacation days in Fargo, North Dakota. Grace Butler visited her home in Cicero, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Rhodes are proud of their new possession, a Seth Thomas clock, presented to them at Christmas time by the boys of the dormitory.

We are sorry that it was necessary for Josephine and James Davis of Milwaukee to return from vacation a day late on account of the death of their niece. We extend to them our sympathy.

Saturday night, January 6, the students enjoyed several interesting marches in the recreation hall.

We are expecting several new students for the second semester. If you have any questions regarding courses or work, be sure to let us hear from you right away. Class instruction for the second semester begins January 24.

CHICAGO DANISH-NORWEGIAN CHURCH

Another year has rolled away, and the things done are written both in this world, and in heaven. It is of great interest sometimes to take a little survey of past records, and get a view of what has been accomplished. We can clearly see that God has richly blessed our Danish-Norwegian church here in Chicago, in spite of the fact that so many of the members have been without employment in 1933. In the past year we have been able to pay off a debt of $200. And the church has been repaired and cleaned both outside and inside which has cost more than $100. Our Dorcas Society has been busy giving away food and clothing. In tithe and offerings we have exceeded last year, and in the Harvest Ingathering we have reached the church goal. A little singing band has been very active in this important campaign. We have not been able to hold any public meetings for lack of funds, but there are six who have joined the church by baptism and profession of faith. We have a few interested and we hope some of them will soon take their stand for the truth. As a church we rejoice in our hearts with a fervent gratitude to the Lord for the little part He has granted us in the proclamation of the last warning message to the world. We desire to be remembered in your prayers.

The SIGNS A PREM

FROM the day of its establishing, June 4, 1874, down through the sixty years of its history, the Signs of the Times has been known as "the pioneer missionary paper" of this denomination. It has justly merited this title too, for ever since Elder James White, the founding editor, handed out the first page of copy, right on through the editorships of Elders Uriah Smith, J. N. Andrews, J. H. Waggoner, S. N. Haskell, A. T. Jones, C. P. Bollman, M. C. Wilcox, and A. O. Tait, every editor, and every one of the thousands of contributors, have had but one supreme object,—to win men and women everywhere to the gospel of Jesus Christ as held by Seventh-day Adventists. That their efforts have been most fruitful will be seen in the kingdom of God when literally tens of thousands will testify that this great missionary weekly was a leading factor in bringing them this truth. We know this to be true, for in an endless stream come letters from all parts of the world telling of souls won to this message through the Signs.

What is the plan behind the Signs that makes it such an effective soul winner?

As Timely as the Newspaper

When Elder and Mrs. White chose the name, "Signs of the Times," for the new journal, they had in mind that it would always stand as an interpreter of world events in the light of those prophecies that foretell the end of the age. Thus, from the very first issue, the Signs has featured the things going on in the world that fit into the prophetic mold. This is one of the primary reasons why the Signs has always been such an interesting and attractive paper, every week it has something to say about current happenings in the world, pointing out their prophetic import. Everywhere people watch for it eagerly as the postman or the missionary worker brings it on its regular visits.

Many a man has read in his newspaper about the rumblings of war in the Orient and has turned to his wife saying, "Mary, I wonder what the Signs will tell us next week about the Bible meaning of all this commotion among Russia and Japan and China." Or perhaps the wife is reading a digest of the pope's latest encyclical, and remarks, "John, I can hardly wait for the mailman to bring the Signs, for I want to know what this letter of the pope's really means."

This timeliness of the Signs is what enables it to win its way into thousands of homes where a heavy doctrinal discussion alone would not be appreciated. It skillfully leads people into Bible study through attracting them in a weekly discussion of current events and prophecy. That is the reason "The Signs is the Paper for the Times."

As Varied as a Cafeteria

The Signs is a cafeteria of truth. Suppose you went into a cafeteria and they had only one article of food to serve you, and you did not like that one thing! You prefer a cafeteria because you have a choice among the several entrées, among the salads, among the desserts. Because of the variety set before you, you are sure to find something to please your taste. Just so with the Signs. In each week's issue are eight or ten articles on a great variety of topics, besides several editorials. If you send the Signs for a year to your Methodist brother, he is sure to find something in each copy to interest him. If a number were placed in his hands wholly devoted to the Sabbath question, he might spurn it: for perhaps he is prejudiced on that topic. But when he picks up the Signs, he finds an article on health in which he is interested, or one on the present economic crisis which comes close home to him, or one on Spiritism of which he has heard much, or an article on mission triumphs in India. There is something in each issue to catch the eye of almost every type of reader; and once he becomes interested in one article, he reads on into the next, and in a few weeks is reading the paper from cover to cover. Thus, a varied-topic missionary paper attracts and holds men of every mind.

A Balanced Menu

Physicians tell us we should carefully balance our menu to get the proper proportions of fats, proteins, and carbohydrates. Those who make up the Signs are just as scientific in balancing the menu of truth served the 150,000 weekly readers. They plan not to give an overdose of prophecy, or state of the law, or Sabbath in any one issue. For example, the aim is to have one short article on current affairs in each number. An article on health and health reform from one of our physicians, dietitians, or nurses is also planned each week.

GOOD TH

This is going to be a great year for the "Signs" history, for we have such a host of strong articles for our columns. F. NICHOL writes a series on the Sabbath question. C. B. HAYNES writes on "The Great Day of the Lord." This will cover the second coming, the millennium, judgment, the destruction of this world, and the creation of a new. S. A. RUSK has sent us 20 articles which are a very timely report of a series of evangelistic features recently given covering the points of our truth. W. H. BRANSOM, the author of eight articles on that key trine, "The Sanctuary—What It Is, What It Is Not." F. A. SPEARIN, a veteran worker in England, contributes articles on "Man's Nature and Destiny."

On prophecy we have three wonderful series. W. A. SPICER writes on "Lions and Ancient Prophecies." VUILLEUMIER, veteran editor, writes on "The Book of Daniel—Its Message for the 20th Century." M. L. RICE discusses "Jesus in Bible Prophecy" in a group of brief articles.

The Question Corner, one of the most popular features ever run by the "Signs," will be continued weekly by W. G. WIR.

Spiritual food will be found in "Christian Experience as Taught by Paul and Romans," by W. P. McLENNAN, and "The Bread of Life," a study of some of the great texts of the Bible, by L. WILCOX.

"The Answering Voice of Ancient Heaps," three articles on recent archaeological so it goes the world around. All this makes the Signs authoritative and appealing, and makes it indeed "The World's Prophetic Weekly."

Appeals Through Eye Gate

The Signs is a very attractive paper so far as illustration and typography are concerned. Every week some 150 photographs from the largest picture companies in America are sent to the desk of the editor of the Signs. From these he chooses the most timely and interesting for the columns of this missionary paper. This is a picture age. People will look at pictures and read their captions who are not interested in long articles on religion. Therefore, the publishers of the Signs spend several thousands of dollars each year on photographs and art work. Their lay-out men are experts in type arrangement and illustration, so that the Signs has always had a high reputation along this line. The Signs is good to look at, and therefore has a strong reader attraction.

The Cheapest Missionary Paper

The Signs of the Times is the least expensive missionary medium in the denomination. Remember that it is a weekly, and has sixteen large pages. Considered from the number of articles that a year's subscription affords, or the number of pages of material offered, or from any other similar angle, the Signs gives more for the money. Each weekly issue of the Signs has almost as much reading matter as does one of our popular 25-cent "Crisis Books." A year's subscription to the Signs gives as much reading matter as is found in all six volumes,—"The Great Controversy," "Daniel and the Revelation," "Bible Readings," "Our Day in the Light of Prophecy," "The Return of Jesus," and "Bible Footlights." The colporteur would sell these books for more than $20, and the very lowest price to our own people would be more than $10, yet the Signs comes now in church clubs at only $1.15, and as low as $1.00 in larger quantities in U. S. A. "The Signs Gives More."

Use the Signs to reach your relatives, friends, and neighbors in 1934.

Like Sunday-Night Meetings

Remember, the Signs is a weekly paper. When you send it to your friends, it is just like taking them out to a series of Sunday-night sermons. It comes frequently enough so they do not lose interest and forget the connection. A weekly magazine has a tremendous habit-forming power, it soon becomes part of the weekly routine. Another great advantage is that a weekly journal is ideal for the running of articles in serial form. A contributor can cover six different phases of the Sabbath question in six weeks. This allows the reader gradually to be built up in the truth in naturally successive steps, just as he would hear it from one of our evangelists should he attend a tent meeting.

World-Wide Staff of Contributors

For many years the Signs has been carefully building up a great staff of contributors, world-wide in distribution. The Signs has regular correspondents in all the principal countries of the world who keep the readers of the paper in close touch with developments everywhere. Pick up almost any issue, and you will find writers listed from England, or France, or Africa, or Brazil, or India, or China, or Japan, or Argentina, or the Philippines, or Central America, or the Islands of the South Seas. Let a momentous event take place in London, and Elder Arthur S. Maxwell has an article on the way to the Signs in a few hours. When Japan and Russia move close to war in Manchuria, Elders Frederick Lee or E. R. Thiele or Alfonso Anderson have an article on the next boat for the Signs. While a revolution is going on in Brazil, Elder Berger Johnson sits at his typewriter grinding out a special contribution for the Signs. And

INDIANA CONFERENCE

OFFICE ADDRESS, 2186 PARK AVE., INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

PRESIDENT, M. A. HOLLISTER

1934 CONVENTIONS

It is convention time and the office secretaries are not only busy planning conventions in their respective departments, but have already begun on their program for 1934.

The home missionary and Sabbath school departments have four conventions outlined for the month of January beginning with Kokomo, where the first was held last week-end.

Elder Hollister accompanied Elder Joyce to this church and assisted throughout Sabbath and Sunday. There was a good attendance and all church members seemed eager to learn how to do things that are required of all progressive Adventists.

An officers' council and question hour was held with the convention session, in which was taken up detail and routine work of both Sabbath school and missionary departments.

A Bible readers' training class is to be organized soon by Brother Wilbur Sanders. The Dorcas Society was revived and Mrs. Douglas, a trained nurse, will teach the members how to give simple treatments. A school in healthful cooking will be given in conjunction with the work of the Dorcas Society.

We feel that the time was profitably spent and if the instruction is carried out, we know that the members of the Kokomo church will do much more work in 1934 than they did in 1933.

MISSIONARY VOLUNTEER WORK

I am happy to hear the excellent reports that are coming in from our M. V. societies. The year 1934 should be a most fruitful year for our Missionary Volunteers.

There is one thing that is on my heart for 1934—that is our mission project. The General Conference has given the Missionary Volunteers a goal of $15,000. This seems like a tremendous lot of money, but when it is divided up among the conferences it is very small. In fact, the Indiana Conference goal is only $280. That is not very much. I know that we can do it. Let us start the new year in the right way.

Missionary Volunteer leaflets will be sent out to every society, and maps, showing where our offerings go. They will be mailed to every society soon.

INDIANA ACADEMY NOTES

The second semester begins January 15. High school students, however, changing from the high school may begin their work after the close of their semester.

Saturday night, December 16, the academy orchestra, consisting of seventeen pieces, made its first appearance. It was enthusiastically received by a large and appreciative audience. Many out of town visitors were present. The orchestra will give several more concerts before the end of the year.

At the eleven o'clock service on December 23, the academy chorus gave the cantata, "King of Kings," by Protheroe. Those taking part are to be commended for the excellent rendition. Much credit is also due Mrs. Lovell, the director, for her faithful work. In the afternoon, the pageant entitled, "The Lost Carol," was well enacted by the Missionary Volunteers under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Wood. In an impressive manner the value of the Christ spirit in the heart was brought to light. On Saturday night a miscellaneous program was given by the Home and School. This program was also thoroughly enjoyed by teachers, students, and visitors from the village.

During the Christmas vacation all students were home for all or a part of the time with the exception of Robert Massengill who stayed faithfully by the farm and its various duties. The shop had sufficient work to keep a force working all during the holidays.

Recently the blower system in the shop has been put into operation. This greatly facilitates the work of the shop and is expected to more than repay the cost of $50 within a few months. The material was purchased at a very low cost and all labor was done by Brother Wohlers, the shop superintendent, and students.

A large number of letters have been received from prospective students inquiring relative to the second semester's work. A letter has been sent to all church leaders and elders outlining the opportunities for the second semester. If any student has not heard this letter, and wishes further information, we shall be glad to answer all questions. The management of the academy is anxious to do all possible to help worthy young people obtain a Christian education.

The boys have been busy this past week hauling in wood that has been cut along our creek by the Federal Relief workers. This not only furnishes the school with a lot of good wood but has greatly improved the looks of the academy farm.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

In last week's issue of the HERALD announcement was made that we would have our M. V. officers' institute in the early part of February. Owing to the fact that General Conference help is not available at that time we have postponed the institute until February 22-25. Will all our leaders make note of this date and plan to come. W. C. LOVELESS

INDIANA NEWS ITEM

Brother Carrier reports that they plan to have an intensive Present Truth campaign in the vicinity of the church at New Albany. He further states that they are planning to redecorate and paint the church there.

BRIGHTWOOD EVANGELISTIC EFFORT

Mr. Loveless and Mr. Lucas have been carrying on their evangelistic work at Brightwood for a week. The interest is good. It is our hope to have an organized church in Brightwood at the close of these meetings. We ask the prayers of the people that we may be successful in finding the honest in heart.

MICHIGAN CONFERENCE

115 WEST ALLEGAN ST., FOURTH FLOOR BAUCH BLDG.,
LANSING, MICH.

PRESIDENT, S. E. WIGHT

MIDLAND

Midland is a city well known industrially for its prosperity in these times. The twenty-two members of our local church are working together harmoniously, in evident Christian fellowship.

God has graciously given us tokens of His favor in the financial part of the Ingathering campaign, for which we thank Him; and with many valuable contacts made, especially through the faithfulness of our good deacon, Brother Bueschlin, there is some promise of a harvest ingathering of souls before our efforts are ended. The plan for the immediate future calls for meetings to be held successively in Omer, Luce, and Midland. However, we are reminded of the wisdom expressed by the Holy Spirit, even through the mouth of Ahab, as it is written: "Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off." I Kings 20:11.

So we give thanks to God for all blessings received from Him, and as we give ourselves to the finishing of the work, seeking even greater blessings, we ask that you pray also for us.

STANLEY W. HYDE

ADELPHIAN ACADEMY

The last vesper hour of 1933 was occupied by Brother Halladay. He drew a number of valuable lessons from the experience of the rich young man who came to Jesus.

An educational rally was conducted by Mr. Isaac and Mr. Unruh at Adelphian January 6-8. The purpose of Christian education is not only to prepare young people for a place in the work of the organization, but to train them to be missionaries in any vocation of life. The M. V. meeting consisted of a number of short talks on young people's problems.

January 7, Miss Kantzer, Miss Shaw, Mr. West, and Mr. Ambs, all students of E. M. C. presented a program in the academy chapel at 7:30 p. m. The varied program provided an evening's entertainment that will not soon be forgotten. Mr. Ambs, business manager of the college, accompanied the students and the Adelphian seniors were glad to counsel with him regarding their plans for the coming year.

If the friends of Adelphian continue to help as they have done through their varied enterprises, the two-hundred dollar goal will soon be reached. That means a better Adelphian library and new furnishings for the parlors in the dormitories.

The second semester of the school year begins Tuesday, January 16. New classes will be starting. This is your chance to enter a Christian school and become one of the happy and earnest students of Adelphian Academy.

EMMANUEL MISSIONARY COLLEGE NOTES

The third of the faculty lecture series was given by Professor W. W. Prescott on Saturday night. His topic, "Archaeology and the Bible," was illustrated with lantern slides. The importance of such notable discoveries as the Rosetta stone, the Moabite stone, and the Tel-el-Amarna tablets, was emphasized in an interesting chronological order. The unearthing of ancient cities was shown as proving the certainty of the Old Testament.

"Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us." These words were the nucleus of the New Year's message given by Edward Heppenstall, class of '33, at the first chapel period of 1934.

Some good hints on reading habits were given in Professor Tippet's two chapel talks this past week.

Friends at the college were made sad recently to hear of the death of Dr. Clement Benson, of Fayetteville, Arkansas. Dr. Benson was president of Emmanuel Missionary College in 1917-1918, and since that time has filled the chair of professor of history at the University of Arkansas.

Those who were not out in active band work on Sabbath afternoon and were privileged to attend the Missionary Volunteer meeting heard good reports of the work that is being done in each of the bands operating under the auspices of this society.

"This is one of our red-letter days," said President Wood as chapel opened Tuesday morning, January 9. The occasion was a farewell service for Enoch Hermanson, class of '33, and his wife, formerly Arlene Herrmann, class of '32, who were guests at the college on their way to Madeira Island, where they will continue the work which has been established by Elder E. P. Mansell.

At the close of the usual opening exercises, Deans Burman and Lamson in brief addresses expressed great confidence in the future of these young people because earnestness, loyalty, and consecration had been manifested throughout their years in college.

After a musical number given by a stringed ensemble, Clarence Katt, speaking for the student body, paid tribute to the successful student career of both Mr. and Mrs. Hermanson, and wished them success in their difficult undertaking. In behalf of the Association, Mr. Katt presented them with a five dollar gold piece as a token of the good will of their E. M. C. friends.

The prayers of the whole community will follow these, the latest alumni to leave our school for foreign lands.
