Long Has It Held High the Banner of Truth

Year in, year out, these eighty years and more, the Review has held high the standard of the Advent message. It was a rallying signal to the pioneer workers and early believers. Its voice was first heard in 1850, calling true hearts to the advent movement of the prophecy. Never wavering, never ceasing, these columns have sounded the keynote of the advent message and echoed the Good Shepherd's call to His scattered sheep; and week after week, all these years, the Review pages have told what God hath wrought in old fields and new. Other missionary papers have been established to teach the message to the general public. In areas where thousands of believers have sprung up who do not read the English, many papers in many languages are printed to shepherd the flock. But the Review stands now, as in 1850, the one paper surveying this cause in all the world. Only in these pages can we watch the steady onward sweep of this world movement of the prophecy; and only by watching this can we "keep pace with the message,"—to use the constant phrase of the old pioneers.

When James White, our first editor, took up his pen to prepare the matter for our first paper, he wrote:

"I tremble at the word of the Lord and the importance of this time."

That was in 1849, and the first paper was called Present Truth (next year merged into the Advent Review and Sabbath Herald). Well might his hand tremble at the word of the Lord as he began the first periodical ever to sound on earth the full message, "Fear God and give glory to Him; for the hour of His judgment is come." The brethren had felt they could not as yet begin a periodical. The believers were few, and poor, and scattered. In a council in Massachusetts the pioneers had definitely decided to wait. Then came the message by the Spirit of prophecy that launched our periodical publishing work. Sister White, (then but a young woman of twenty-one) stood forth saying:

"I have a message for you. You must begin to print a little paper. . . It will be a success from the first. From this small beginning it was shown to me to be like streams of light that went clear round the world."

That message started the wheels of the printing press turning for this cause in old Middleton, Connecticut; and from that first turning has arisen the responsive sound of whirring presses running at many distributing points in all the continents and in the islands of the sea. The streams of light now are indeed flashing "round the world." Thank God for the great truth and the great faith that came to the pioneers in the day of small things.

And now every believer needs the Review as much as did those early believers to whom its weekly visits brought hope and instruction and revival. Here sounds the keynote of the ever-brightening message. Here are set forth the plans developed in General Conference councils. In these columns our general officers tell the order of battle by which we keep shoulder to shoulder in service in all lands. How can any English-reading Seventh-day Adventist get on without this paper? I do not see. When, in traveling, I am cut off from it, I feel I must hurry on to some point where I can catch up the back numbers and see what has been said and done in the work of God in the weeks I have been without the Review. I have to have it. I believe he needs it most who thinks he can get on without it. And in many lands over the sea the united voice of the church militant is eagerly listened for in these pages. The other day I received a letter from a city evangelist in Australia, telling how he watches for the articles in the "good old Review," as he calls it. He adds:

"We all look for them in our home. My two boys in the university gather much help from them as they go to meet the godless influences of a modern seat of learning."

So the "good old Review" has been a golden chain running through these eighty years and more, linking the Advent people and their work together in one united world movement. We need this paper in all our homes. It is a means of grace that cannot safely be neglected in a time when we are seeking to stand ready for every call to service and ready in Christ Jesus for that searching moment of the judgment hour that must soon come to each one of

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

Every strong organization of men realizes the importance of a journal or printed organ of some sort through which the heart beat of the organization may be carried out to every member. Thus the various Chambers of Commerce have a journal. Automobile Associations have their journals. The different lodges all have a journal. The numerous religious bodies all have a journal, and these publications are every where recognized as vital to the health and strength of the movements they represent.

This is equally, if not more true, of Seventh-day Adventists to whom God has committed the last appeal to be made by the everlasting gospel of Jesus Christ to lost mankind. It is tremendously important that every member be in touch with the warmth and strength of this movement in all the world. The Review and Herald has been the channel through which this blood stream, as it were, has flowed out to the farthest member during all the history of this people. With our boundaries constantly enlarging and our activities in every land multiplying with the days, it is more urgent than ever that every member receive this strength and help. Our leading brethren every where recognize the imperative need of a wider circulation of the Review. We have no other single agency so able to unite our hearts and hands in the service of the Great God. The General Conference Committee has passed an action expressing the urgency of this matter. It follows:

"WHEREAS, The hurried march of world events with multiplying omens of the coming crisis, and the great need of the church in its closing task, unite to press home to our hearts the conviction that now as never before true leaders of the flock of God must work as for their very lives to bind the church together and to 'make ready a people prepared to meet the Lord,'

"Resolved, That we appeal to the readers of the work in all lands and especially in North America and other English-speaking countries, to unite heartily in the special campaign beginning May 19 for a wider circulation of the Review. We urge every conference leader and every worker as well as church officers to join hands in a determined effort 'to see it done' in this campaign, and let the motto be 'Every Seventh-day Adventist a reader of the Review.'"

The Review and Herald Board desires to cooperate in this important undertaking to the fullest extent. In view of this it was voted to lower the price of the Review to $2 for a year's subscription for a period of one month—May 19 to June 19. This is done in spite of rising publishing costs. During this time not only will new subscriptions be accepted at this rate, but old subscribers may renew or extend their subscriptions as many years as they desire at the reduced rate. If your subscription does not expire between May 19 and June 19, you may extend it at this low rate during this period, and your extension will apply from the time that your present subscription expires. For example: If your present subscription to the Review expires in October of this year you may have it extended as many years as you wish for the lowered rate of $2 per year, providing you order this extension during the period of the campaign—May 19 to June 19.

During this time the Big Four (Review, Life and Health, Liberty, and Present Truth) may be had at the low rate of $2.75. The Family Group (Review, Youth's Instructor, Life and Health, Gazette, Sabbath School Worker, Liberty, and Present Truth) may be had for $5.50.

If every believer in this message will stand in his place and do his part we are sure of success as these words by the messenger of the Lord indicate, "Our people should make greater efforts to extend the circulation of the Review. If our brethren and sisters would only manifest a greater earnestness and put forth more persevering efforts to accomplish this, it would be done. Every family should have this paper."

W. P. ELLIOTT

"Talking about Christ may or may not convince people. Being like Christ carries conviction with it."

ATTENTION

Readers of the LAKE UNION HERALD should give more than ordinary attention to the articles printed therein relative to the special Review and Herald subscription effort which is now being conducted throughout the world. Special subscription rates are being offered to you in an effort by the publishers to place the Review in every home where the English language is read.

It is not necessary to emphasize the value of the Review to those who are acquainted with its pages. We have come to an hour in the work of God, and in the history of the world, when we cannot afford to be without this church paper. Jesus is coming again, and His coming is even nearer than many have believed.

The Review and Herald will keep you posted in regard to the progress Seventh-day Adventists are making in the proclamation of this message in all the world. The progress the gospel of the kingdom is making in the world today is one of the most significant signs of the near-coming of Jesus that I know of anywhere. Let us keep acquainted with the wonderful advance moves now being made by our missionaries everywhere, that we may not be found among those who say in their hearts, "My Lord delayeth His coming."

W. H. HOLDEN

WHY I READ THE REVIEW

1. Its greatest purpose is to keep us bound together in the unity of this blessed faith. Strong articles from trusted, faithful men are found in each issue. These articles are from men who have had years of experience in the things of God's Word—men seasoned through years of service in the knowledge of the Holy Scriptures and contact with our world work.

2. The Review is my church paper for the family, and if properly used meets the need of the entire family. Do you not especially appreciate that section on the home? There is always something good and practical.

3. There are interesting reports of the providential leadings of God in the various fields of the world. Here we read of the rapid progress of the message where it has been advancing for a number of years, then again of new fields entered, and we see the wonder-working hand of God revealed on all sides. There is hardly one of us who has been in the truth even a few short years but is acquainted with some of our workers in different mission lands. A knowledge of our mission fields helps to bind the foreign work to our own church and the home altar.

4. The various departments are represented in the Review and Herald which helps to keep our organized work blending harmoniously throughout the entire world field. The aims of the young people in this country are identical with those of the Far East or any other section. It is likewise true in our educational work, as well as in other departments.

5. The Review and Herald keeps us right up-to-date with the latest events, showing the rapid fulfilling of the signs pointed out in the Scriptures, thus showing us the end of all things pertaining to this present age is at hand.

You who are readers of our good church paper encourage those who do not have access to it to subscribe. Not more than one-third of the homes in the Lake Union are receiving the Review. This shows that many of our people are not benefited by its timely messages from week to week.

We are happy to announce that from now until the 19th of June we can secure the Review for only $2 per year. This may come in as a new subscription, or continue your present subscription from its date of expiration. If you are a present subscriber do all you can to encourage your Sabbath-keeping neighbor who may not be receiving the Review to have it in his home.

Here is a striking statement from Mrs. White, which we are sure everyone will testify to as being a strong truth. "To those who fail to read the Review and keep track of the progress of the work, the loud cry of the message may come, and they not know it."

May God bless our people greatly, and cause us to feel more and more His leading spirit, and unite us more fully in the closing of the third angel's message.

WM. A. BUTLER

"Perhaps no influence, aside from personal contact with parents and other members of the church, has so profoundly molded the thinking of Seventh-day Adventists as has the Advent Review and Sabbath Herald. And this is true of our children and youth as well as of the older members of the church,"—Alfred W. Peterson.

INDIANA CONFERENCE

OFFICE ADDRESS, 2156 PARK AVE., INDIANAPOLIS, IND.
PRESIDENT, S. E. WIGHT

INDIANAPOLIS

Just a year ago the writer moved from Lansing, Michigan, to labor in Indianapolis. During this year of service seventy-one have been added to the churches by baptism and profession of faith. We are thankful for this increase and trust that the second year will be even more fruitful.

We have had a successful year in both our church schools, with an enrolment of 79 pupils. We are completing the school year with all school expenses paid.

A good spirit prevails in both churches, and we are looking forward to a strong evangelistic campaign during the summer months. F. L. ABBOTT

NEW CASTLE RALLY

The week-end of May 11-12 was spent at the New Castle church where a Home Missionary and Sabbath school Rally was held. The weather was excellent, which helped in the attendance.

Meetings began on Friday night when home missionary items were presented and discussed, and Sabbath morning instead of the regular preaching service a symposium on "Meeting the Divine Purpose of the Sabbath school" was presented by Elder Frank Weeks, Mrs. Weeks, and the writer. The afternoon was given to finishing up Sabbath school and home missionary problems, and the organization of one or two missionary groups.

A Bible Readers' Training class was organized, with Mrs. A. C. Gaylord as instructor. About ten church members, who are anxious to receive this instruction, joined the class, which will meet on Wednesday night.

Brother Borg, the missionary leader, is planning to begin systematic literature distribution through the Home Bible Study League, and so with these organizations functioning we see no reason why the missionary activities of the New Castle church will not increase in the next few months.

GLEZEN EFFORT

For thirty years the light of the Sabbath and Advent truth had been held up in Glezen and surrounding country by two or three isolated, faithful believers. Then upon the request of one of these, the conference sent two men, F. C. Carrier and the writer, with a tent to hold six week's meetings in that locality. Now hundreds know much about the truth, and several have taken their stand to live it.

From the beginning the whole community expressed its appreciation of the services because it was "all from the Bible." A Sabbath school was organized while the tent was up, later moving into the Presbyterian church. The average attendance is about twenty-five.

Brother Carrier left the first of the year, leaving the writer to bind off the work and instruct those who had accepted the message. There are ten or twelve to be baptized soon. Under the guidance of Sister Deming the ladies have organized an active Dorcas society and have already purchased hymn books for the church.

The few Adventists who were in this community and those who have accepted the message are anxious for a church of their own. Already plans are being made to build, and over one hundred dollars has been raised for the project. The Lord is blessing in this place. Those who have not made a definite decision speak well of the work being done. As some will have it, "Thar's been more Bible readin' in the last six months than all the thirty years before put together."

M. W. DEMING

TO THE LAY PREACHERS

No doubt those who attended the lay preachers' institute held in Indianapolis, April 20-21, have been wondering just what has happened to the minutes of the meeting that were promised to them before leaving. We will have these minutes ready to send out in a few days.

Because of the nature of this meeting we felt it very necessary to give the minutes in detail so that none of the instruction would be lost. This has taken time, and with much current work to look after, our office force has been quite pressed with work, but we know you will understand this and appreciate the minutes more when you receive them.

We will include with the minutes a report blank that was presented to the institute, asking that each active lay evangelist fill this out and return to the office by the end of May.

Since the meeting I have gotten in touch with Brother Mayse in California and Mr. James Muier of Philadelphia, through whom we can get the S. V. E. projector and films at a very reasonable rate. As soon as material is received from Philadelphia giving information as to kinds and prices, this also will be sent to each lay preacher.

Somehow I see great possibilities in the use of these projectors and films by our lay preachers as they present the message in public effort or cottage meeting. Those desiring information regarding them at any time feel free to write the Home Missionary Department, and we will do our best to help you in securing the projectors and films at rock-bottom prices.

CAMPMEETING

We are hopeful that all of our Juniors will plan to be at campmeeting. Some excellent things are being planned for them. Brother and Sister Lucas and Brother and Sister Sanders will have charge of the Juniors this year. We are planning some interesting handicraft work. We will make leather pocket-books, pads for hot dishes, hooked rugs, and many other useful articles.

Bethany Park offers one of the most attractive places that we have ever had for our Junior work. We sincerely hope that you will all come. Don't forget to bring your Junior Song Books.

We are looking forward to seeing you around the campfire listening with the rest to the wonderful stories that are told at campmeeting campfires.

W. C. LOVELESS

CAMP JUVOLINDA

Already the applications are coming in, and we hope that all of the Juniors will get their applications in as early as possible. This camp offers more opportunities than ever before.

We hope that the fathers and mothers will cooperate with us in making it possible for all of the Juniors to attend.

The camp will be near Delphi, Indiana, July 12-22. The price will be $9 each this year. There will be no reduction made for two in a family.

W. C. LOVELESS

EXPERIENCES

We are enjoying the magazine work, and have had some very interesting experiences which prove that the Lord is blessing this branch of the work.

A few days ago, a man handed me a five dollar bill after I canvassed him for Life and Health. Not having the change for it I told him that I would go down the street and get it. I had to go to several places before getting the proper change. When I returned, my customer was in another room. Another man called to him and said, "Here is your honest man."

The other man came in and said, "I told you that there were two honest men in the country yet."

At another place I was canvassing the manager of a drug store for the Watchman. He asked me, "Who publishes this?" I said, "The Seventh-day Adventists." Then he said, "O, that's different." He took it immediately. Before I left he said, "You people have many beliefs that are all right. In fact, I believe you are mostly right."

Here is a statement from the Spirit of prophecy that we do well to keep in mind. "Many can engage in the work of selling our periodicals. Thus they can earn means for the work in foreign fields while sowing seeds of truth in the byways and hedges of the home field. Such labor will be blessed of God, and will not be done in vain." "Counsels on Health," p. 435.

INDIANA NEWS NOTES

Our Academy at Cicero was humming with activities through the past week-end, it being commencement week. Elder S. E. Wight went up Sabbath morning to deliver the baccalaureate sermon, and some of our office group and many from the church attended the commencement Saturday night when President L. H. Wood gave the commencement address. A large representation from Indianapolis was present for the orchestra concert Sunday afternoon and the closing program Sunday night, after which many of the boys and girls that were attending the Academy returned home with their parents.

Monday, May 14, was a busy day for the men in the office. At 7:30 o'clock they left for Greencastle where they visited Brother Sigler's farm and cut 215 hickory stakes for the tent companies this coming summer. It was a very profitable and enjoyable outing in spite of the showers that fell at intervals.

Elder S. E. Wight left Tuesday morning for Lafayette where he expected to meet Elder W. H. Holden and Brother L. W. Foote from the Union office, and together they plan to counsel with the sanitarium board.

Quite recently a request was made among several of our churches for pictures of some of the major activities that were taking place such as Home Hygiene classes, literature bands, and Bible Readers' Training Classes. To date several of these pictures have been received, and it is gratifying to see the fine group of men and women that are actually preparing themselves for these various lines of missionary work. It bespeaks a healthy missionary growth, and we trust those who have not as yet sent in pictures of such classes will do so within the next week or two so we can have them ready for our exhibit at campmeeting.

It is reporting time again and the Home Missionary reports are coming in quite rapidly. Fifty-two were in on time this month, just four less than the March report. May we appeal to each and every missionary secretary in the conference to do his best to get his reports ready so that they will be on hand by the 10th of the month. We are working toward 100 per cent reporting churches as well as 100 per cent reporting membership.

Elder Joyce, our missionary secretary, and Brother R. M. Harrison, secretary-treasurer of the conference, left Wednesday noon, May 16, for an extended tour through the churches in the southern part of the conference, including some churches that they have never as yet visited. They began at Elnora on Wednesday night, visiting some isolated members between Elnora and Vincennes, and held a meeting at Vincennes on Thursday night. Then Friday, after Brother Harrison audited the treasurer's books, they proceeded to Glezen where a baptism and church organization took place Sabbath morning. Sabbath afternoon they motored to New Harmony for Sabbath school and church service, and Brother Harrison audited the books after sundown. Sunday, they visited Evansville where the ordinance of baptism was celebrated, and the church books were audited before leaving for Tell City on Monday. The last stop was at New Albany where another baptism was conducted, which was the climax to Brother F. C. Carrier's evangelistic work held in the New Albany church during the winter months. In all these churches the brethren and sisters seemed of good courage and were determined to press on to a speedy finishing of the work in this generation.

Practically every mail brings orders for rooms for our campmeeting. If you have not already written for reservation, you should send your order to the office at once.

JUNIOR CAMP

Interest is constantly growing in various parts of the field in behalf of Junior camp. Every Junior still want to be there. Better and larger plans are being laid so that each one attending can obtain more than ordinary benefit. It will be worth much more but will cost only $10, or two from one family for $18.

All Juniors desiring to come should send in application blanks to the M. V. Department, Box 512, Madison, Wisconsin. If you do not have a blank, please write the conference office for one. Applications should be in by June 15.

The date of the camp is July 1-10.

M. V. NEWS NOTES

A number of investiture services are being conducted during this month. Last Sabbath a service was held at Sand Prairie, where five were invested with Friend pins, and three were invested with Companion pins. Brother Walter Nelson and his wife have done excellent work there with the young people.

A large group were invested on Monday, May 14, at Madison. Pins were awarded as follows: 17 Friend, 3 Companion, 1 Comrade. Mrs. Crays and Miss Gertrude Hopper prepared the classes.

On Tuesday, May 15, a class of eleven Friends and seven Companions were invested at Green Bay. Miss Dortha Case and Miss Husted led the classes there in their work.

This work for the Juniors is well repaid in the improved habits seen in the lives of our boys and girls.

CEDAR LAKE ACADEMY

The week-end of May 5 Elder Butler, home missionary secretary for the Union, was our guest. He conducted our vesper service and addressed our church on Sabbath morning.

Saturday night Mr. Burchfield conducted the annual chorus program before a full house.

Sunday our school family journeyed to a nearby lake, where we held our annual school picnic. A delicious dinner and supper, ball games, races, tug-of-war, and various other forms of amusements were enjoyed by teachers as well as students. Such occasions help make school life pleasant at C. L. A.

Our Seminar boys closed their Sunday night efforts, which have been held for the past several months, on April 29. We can never estimate the value of such meetings, only God knows. He has told us to sow the seed and He will reap the harvest. We hope to enlarge our work next year. We solicit your prayers that the seed sown will bear much fruit.

Tuesday evening teachers and students assembled in the dining room to pay tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Burchfield, who are scheduled to leave us. Mr. Nelson presented them with a small token of remembrance. We, teachers and students alike, regret very much the loss of such a devoted teacher, and friend, but we deem it a privilege to have formed such close relationship with him.

Friday morning Elders Sheldon and Murphy paid us a visit in the interest of the M. V. work. Elder Murphy addressed us during our chapel hour. At our vesper service, which was the last one of the year, Elder Sheldon delivered an inspiring message, and we were aware of the presence of the Holy Spirit. If you could have heard the testimonies of the young people asking for God's guidance for the coming summer, I am sure it would have given you encouragement as it did me.

Saturday night, May 12, Frances Lowry entertained us with a piano recital. DAN SPICER

The YOUTH'S CONGRESS MAKE THE DECISION NOW !

OUR YOUTH'S CONGRESS

The spirit of youth in the Lake Union Conference is now beginning definitely to stir itself into action concerning our Youth's Congress. With only two weeks to go, all are beginning to see the possibilities for good wrapped up in the four wonderful days to be spent with our youth at Emmanuel Missionary College, June 4-7.

What a gathering that will be! I have tried to visualize it. I have tried to imagine such a group of our senior young people united in one vast army.

But as I think of it now, I can see youth coming. Coming by every means of transportation. Coming in small groups and large, from far and near, with banners streaming. Distance but lends enchantment to such a program as this is to be.

Just to visit the foremost of our senior colleges, to meet its faculty, to greet its student body, to enjoy the excellent music from its musical organizations, would be a treat to any Seventh-day Adventist young man or woman, but now to have all this, and the Youth's Congress besides, all at the same time, is really one grand privilege.

To meet your fellow youth of the third angel's message; to join hands with them in one great circle of friendship and common faith, stirs the very imagination, and brings to each and every one of us this day a determination to be there. And why not? God can make a way. Come!

Make reservations now for your room and board by writing to your conference Missionary Volunteer secretary.

NOT A DULL MOMENT

Such was the interest, and enthusiasm developed by the varied program of the Youth's Congress held at the Southern Junior College in May, 1933, that there was not a dull moment, nor a wasted moment during the four days. We believe the same will be true of your meeting June 4-7. The personnel of workers is much the same, the program will follow the same general lines, and we believe that the youth of the Lake Union will put even more vim and vigor and spirit into the enjoyment and benefit of this meeting. Beginning Monday morning, June 4, the program will run until Thursday evening.

Here is the program which with possible slight variation will run through the meeting. The first meeting is at 9:30 A. M. Monday, June 4.

EMMANUEL MISSIONARY COLLEGE

Plans for Next Year

This year, as for the last three years, we have received a large number of applications from students who wish to work all or part of their way through college. It is a splendid and commendable thing for any young man or woman to work his or her way through college.

Unfortunately, the opportunities for work at any of our schools are limited. It is a disagreeable task for us to have to write to a student that we cannot accept him for work, thus in many cases closing the way for his attending college.

Up to the present time, we have accepted between one hundred fifteen and one hundred twenty students, largely on the work basis, but there is still opportunity for a number of students, who can pay partly in cash, to obtain work at the college next year. I wish to urge those who plan on working to write us immediately, so that we can consider their names at once.

Below is an outline of the various plan by which students may work part of their way through school. This outline also indicates the amount of expenses for a school year. Plan I, as you will notice, requires no labor—in other words it is an all cash plan; Plan II requires seven hours of labor per week, and so on. For each $50 which a student has less than $350, it will be necessary for him to work seven hours per week.

Plan I requires during the school year $350 and no labor.

Plan II requires $300 and about 7 hours of labor per week.

Plan III requires $250 and about 14 hours of labor per week.

Plan IV requires $200 and about 21 hours of labor per week.

Plan V requires $150 and about 28 hours of labor per week.

Plan VI requires $100 and about 35 hours of labor per week, for a limited number.

Special

Notes: Students on Plans I, II, and III can carry full school work, as can also most of those on Plan IV, but those on Plans V and VI will carry less than a full program of studies.

These estimates are averages. Some students whose labor is very efficient and who do not have laboratory classes will not need to work as many hours as indicated here, whereas some others may have to work somewhat more.

The cash required on each plan will be applied on regular school expenses and no part of it may be withdrawn for clothes, books, trips, or other personal expenses.

We hope to be able to give work to a large number of students next year, since we expect to add some industries to those which we already have.

I wish to take this occasion to make an appeal to those of our people, who are interested in the education of the youth, to come to their assistance. Any young man or woman who would make a prospective worker should be assisted. All efforts should be made to get such a young person into the college. Means invested in the education of a prospective worker will bring great returns, if not in this life, in the hereafter. I know of many young men and young women who are struggling to prepare for the work but who are all but giving up in despair, since it is almost impossible for them to secure the means necessary to defray their expenses. Let us do all we can for our youth, for no sacrifice must be considered too great to save our youth.

COLLEGE NEWS NOTES

Elder A. J. Campbell, missionary in the Solomon Islands, spent several days at Emmanuel Missionary College this past week while on his first visit to the States. Teachers and students greatly enjoyed hearing of the progress of the work in the South Seas.

Friends at the college were made sad recently when word was received of the death of Lyndon L. Skinner, class of '25, in Denver, Colorado, on May 8.

It is with regret that we record here the death of one of our number, Eugene Fisher, who was enrolled in the Scientific Course. He died at his home in Baroda, Michigan, following a short period of Miss Freegard, State Supervisor of Home Economics, visited the college Wednesday. She expressed her appreciation of the work being done.

Don't you want one while you can get it? Almost every Sabbath school teacher's library is a very small one. We do well to read more broadly than is our custom when we have the right opportunity. "The Christ, The Church, and the Child," is a valuable book for any teacher. It has been used in the Sabbath School Workers' Training Course this year, and many letters of appreciation have been received. The book gives a new presentation of an old subject.

Carey Bonner is an English author. Mr. Bonner was for thirty years the general secretary of the National Sunday School Union in England, and for several years was also joint secretary of the World's Sunday School Association. He has written extensively along Sunday school lines. His experience in working for the youth and children, and his conception of the relationship of the older members to this work make him a practical writer. His experience is well worth our study.

The price of this book is 85 cents, in cloth. Order through your Book and Bible House. The supply for this country is almost exhausted. Order at once, or you may be disappointed.

SOUTHWESTERN UNION CONFERENCE RADIO PROGRAM

We are passing word to our sister Union Conference members regarding our radio program over station WBAP, Fort Worth, Texas. This is a 50,000 watt station and is heard sometimes practically all over the United States. We thought our brethren would like to know about it and perhaps tune in. The first program is Tuesday night, May 15, at 9:45 Central Standard Time, and will follow at this same night for ten successive weeks. We will be pleased to have you write in to the station or to us, in care of the station, if you hear the program. A large number of letters and cards coming in will make a good impression on the station, and we also would like to know how many are hearing our programs. We are asking all our people who write in to kindly put S. D. A. at the bottom of their letters or cards. We are planning to send all names that are not known to be Adventist to our Home Bible Study Leagues at various places, and we do not want to send Adventist names through this branch of the organization.
