It Happened Again July 5-7

EACH year for five years the colporteurs have been invited for an entire week end as honored guests of the Ithaca, Alma, and St. Louis churches. This is the big event of the colporteur year and something to which we all look forward from one visit to another. If you have ever attended, you do not wonder why! Even the General Conference men try to plan their travels so they can be at Ithaca when the colporteurs meet there.

Last year Elder Weeks was with us at our rally and picnic. This year Elder E. E. Franklin was here for the entire time. He spoke to the group Friday evening and at 11:00 o'clock Sabbath morning. Aside from Elder Franklin, President Klooster of E. M. C., Dr. H. O. McCumber of E. M. C., Elder Unruh, president of the Wisconsin Conference, Elder Wagner, field missionary secretary of the Union, Brother Evens, the Michigan Book and Bible House secretary, Professor Shephard, principal of Cedar Lake Academy, and Professor Culver, principal of Adelphean Academy met with us. Though the colporteurs themselves make a group of between 60 and 70—many others are entertained.

Brother George Gruesbeck and Brother H. O. Butler have charge. The homes are full to overflowing. You would wonder where they put so many—still each colporteur feels he had the best place of all to stay! There is a question as to what phase of the meeting the colporteurs anticipate with the most joy. They enter so wholeheartedly into everything including the eating. At the Sabbath evening meal we had quite a surprise. On each table was a huge, white cake and written across the top in pink letters were these words: "Colporteurs of 1940." For two weeks Brother Gruesbeck had worked steadily getting motor boats and surroundings in readiness for the Big Day on Sunday at Crystal Lake. The pier was full all day with those who were waiting to fill the motor boats for another ride. The church ladies not only loaded the table with more delicious food but they also served us with all the ice cream we could possibly eat!

We were invited to come back again next year. When Brother H. O. Butler asked us to return he made us happy by saying that our being there was a big inspiration to the church, and it put new life and vitality into each group.

If you had been there Sabbath afternoon when the colporteurs gave their experiences, you too would have been amazed at what God is doing for and with men and women who are surrendered to Him. A. G. SUTTON

The Approaching Camp Meeting

CAMP meetings in former years were important, but not so important as the one nearly here.

Think what has taken place in the world since last we met in Grand Ledge.

Fold after fold the curtain is falling upon the civilization of this world.

The lights are going out everywhere.

Nation after nation disappears, snuffed out like a candle.

Hundreds of thousands of men are trapped in great masses and mowed down in bloody slaughter without mercy.

The dread specter of starvation is facing every nation in Europe.

Trembling and fear strike into the very souls of men everywhere.

Darkness is settling down on the minds of men and hiding the dread meaning of events.

Today, from one end of the world to the other, nations are in commotion, roaring like the troubled sea, casting up mire and dirt.

Volcanic forces are surging and seething beneath our feet.

Age-old tyrannies are overthrown—only to make way for greater and worse tyrannies.

Multitudes are approaching the bloodsoaked valley of Jehoshaphat and the slaughterhouse of Armageddon.

All that we have said to men for three quarters of a century is coming to pass before our eyes.

The end-time is here.

Is not this the time of all times for prayer, for seeking God, for getting ready for His coming?

Twelve days of communion and fellowship.

Twelve days of seeking God.

Twelve days of study of His word.

Twelve days of heart-warming, uplifting association.

Twelve days of comfort, and peace, and security in the midst of the terrible turmoil of earth.

Twelve days of coming apart with God.

The world leader of this people will be with us, Elder J. L. McElhany, President of the General Conference.

The newly appointed vice president for North America, Elder W. G. Turner, will be with us.

Elders A. W. Spalding, W. H. Bergherm, Frederick Lee, Clifford Reeves of England, Jay J. Nethery, E. W. Dunbar, C. S. Joyce, B. E. Wagner, J. D. Snider, and a number of others.

No matter what it involves make your arrangements now.

Miss anything else, but don't miss this great camp meeting at Grand Ledge.

The date is August 20 to September 1.

Time is hurrying to its close.

The closing movements are certainly rapid ones.

It may be the last camp meeting we can ever hold.

Meanwhile pray. Pray as never before that God's gracious Spirit will bring to us at this great occasion that preparation of heart and life which will enable us to stand through these fateful days. CARLYLE B. HAYNES

Not Sponsored by S. D. A.'s

A NUMBER of inquiries have come in concerning a gathering at Milford, Indiana, a camp of a number of musical leaders, asking if the gathering is sponsored by this organization.

We simply want to say that these friends gathering in this musical camp are doing it on their own initiative. Of course many of them are Seventh-day Adventists, but a number of their instructors and counselors are non-Seventh-day Adventists. The enterprise is not in any way connected with our conference organization.

CEDAR LAKE ACADEMY

MIDSUMMER finds a very busy group at Cedar Lake. Besides the heavy farm program, a number of improvements are being made in the school plant. The new milkhouse is nearing completion and the equipment for it has been ordered. The milk for our cafeteria will be pasteurized, bottled, and capped in this new building. We are most enthusiastic over the enlargement and redecoration of the library. A new desk, and large new tables are being built for it. This will be a large, cheery room, a real study center, which students will enjoy and appreciate.

We are happy that Miss Cady is back with us after a short vacation of three weeks which she spent at her home in Wisconsin.

Four of our teachers, Miss Olson, Mr. Woods, and Mr. and Mrs. Hoar, are assisting in evangelistic efforts in the conference this summer.

Mrs. Woods is visiting at her home in Oxford, Wisconsin.

Miss Kickliter is vacationing at her home in Florida and enjoying the beach, she writes.

Mr. Ramsey has stayed by faithfully to direct the farm work, and to care for the boys in the dormitory.

Mr. George Liscombe, our new instructor in Bible and printing, is completing his work at Emmanuel Missionary College this summer. He plans to be at the academy the latter part of August.

Mr. Shephard is attending the summer session of the University of Michigan during the week, visiting the churches on Sabbaths, and returning to the academy on Sundays to answer correspondence and direct the improvement program.

We are anticipating a full school of dormitory, bus, and village students, since our people realize that this coming year must be one of special training for our young people that they may become rooted and grounded in the faith in order to stand whatever tests may soon come to them individually.

MAKE WILLS AND LEGACIES IN FAVOR OF THE ILLINOIS CONFERENCE ASSOCIATION OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS.

What the Time Demands

"OURS is an overwhelming task—a world mission movement in the midst of a collapsing world. If the project were not of God's designing, it would appear preposterous for a handful of people with meager resources to attempt it. The perplexities of maintaining the structure of a world movement through a series of overwhelming national crises are such as to turn men gray. One source of supply after another, of men and means, has been cut off by the ravages of war. That means that the burdens once borne by war-torn lands must now be taken over by lands that are still war free. Increasing restrictions on every hand complicate matters. Ours, indeed, would be a preposterous task if God were not behind it, and had not given assurance that the work will be carried through to certain victory. We must all respond heroically to the challenge of these times, remembering that conditions will grow worse and that what we do not voluntarily give to God will soon be taken from us, or be swept away by the besom of destruction. This somber fact should burn itself into our consciences. We should and must sacrifice more for the supreme task of spiritual warfare in preparing men and women for the better land."

So speaks one of our General Conference workers, and we in the good State of Illinois should rise as one man to this great challenge, and push the Ingathering to new and undreamed of heights. Like a trained army let everyone receive his assignment and go out with no other intention than to do the part of a minute man, or to distinguish himself to an even greater degree in the service of our mighty Captain.

Advance and victories are being reported by all who have gone out in the campaign thus far. The Hungarian church is nearing its goal. Elgin, Princeton, and White Hall are flying the Victory Pennant already. Joliet plans to have $400. before long. Springfield, Petersburg, and Kewanee are marching forward rapidly. Humboldt Park, Chicago Swedish, and Sterling are half way to their goals. Danville has over $250.

The enthusiasm of these churches should spur us all on to an early victory. The Lord says, "Go ye." Brethren, let's go. J. C. CHRISTENSON

Illinois Tent Efforts

FOUR successful tent efforts are being conducted in the Illinois Conference, and recently it was my privilege to visit each of them.

Elder W. P. Ortner pitched his tent in a public park in Canton. It is a location where people are accustomed to congregate. A concrete sidewalk runs past his tent and several of the benches in the park are near the tent. Some who have not had the courage to come inside, sit in the park and hear the sermons. Elder Ortner has a good public address system with a record playing attachment which greatly helps in the services. The attendances on week nights are not large, but are good on Sundays. Last Sunday night 160 attended Elder Ortner's meeting; fifty have signed their names to cards requesting literature, and five are already keeping the Sabbath.

In the adjoining district Elder T. J. Kroeger is conducting a tent effort at Carthage, a small town where the Lutheran College is located. The tent is on the main street just a short distance from the college. The attendance has been fairly good throughout the series, and as a result of the effort, several are deeply interested in the truth. An interesting feature of this effort is the children's meeting which is conducted before each evening service. Young people and children come to these meetings in large numbers to hear Bible stories and receive Biblical instruction from Sister Kroeger.

In the city of East St. Louis, Elder A. L. Beazley has a tent pitched in a conspicuous location on State Street. An average of 200 people have been attending on Sunday evenings, but a smaller number on week nights. Already 91 people have requested literature by signing cards at the meetings. Of this group more than 60 are found to be definitely interested. Elder Beazley is holding Sabbath meetings at the tent, and last Sabbath 18 people not of our faith were present as a result of the tent effort.

While in East St. Louis I joined Elder Beazley in looking over two different buildings to which the effort might be transferred at its conclusion.

Elder W. O. Berry opened his effort in West Frankfort several weeks before the other tent efforts commenced. From the very first he has had an excellent attendance, with the tent filled and many people standing on Sunday evenings.

The churches in West Frankfort brought another evangelist to the city and pitched a tent for him near Elder Berry's location in the hope of drawing the people to this other evangelist. He was, however, not able to secure an audience, so he took the tent down and left. The ministers in the city then succeeded in an endeavor to force Brother Berry from the lot on which his tent was located, and it was necessary for him to move his tent to another location. However, his large congregation followed him, and the evening I was present with him the tent was again filled and many people were standing outside. Elder Berry has also had a large attendance at his week-night meetings. There are fifty people who are definitely interested in the truth, and 25 who are already keeping the Sabbath. We believe that this effort will greatly strengthen the West Frankfort church.

It has been two years since the Illinois Conference has conducted tent efforts due to the fact that the last time tents were used there were few people who attended, and the results in baptisms were not encouraging. This year, however, we believe that God is richly blessing the efforts which are being held and that they will result in a large number of people accepting the truth. The serious conditions in the world at the present time are having a sobering effect upon people generally and many are anxious to learn what light the Bible can shed on the times in which we live. We believe that this has helped greatly in bringing people to our tent meetings, and as they hear the truth unfolded, many are giving their hearts to God.

Camp Meeting at Battle Ground, August 15 to 25

It's ONLY a few days now until we will gather at Battle Ground for our annual conference and camp meeting. We have some most excellent help arranged during this meeting. Elders W. G. Turner, Vice President of the General Conference for North America, Jay J. Nethery, president of the Lake Union, C. A. Reeves from London, England, A. W. Spalding, C. S. Joyce and B. E. Wagner will be with us from Thursday, August 15, to Wednesday, August 21. Elder C. S. Longacre will speak on Thursday evening, August 22, and Friday morning, August 23. Elder E. W. Dunbar will be at the camp meeting from Monday, August 19, to Friday, August 23. We have other help coming but do not have the schedule as yet.

House trailers can be accommodated on the grounds. A small charge will be made for electricity and a dollar for the privilege of parking.

We trust that our people will be at this meeting, for it is an important season in these strenuous times.

News Notes

WE ARE pleased to call the attention of our people near Anderson to the fact that Dr. J. Paul Chapin has located in Anderson. His office is in the Citizen's Bank Building. Probably the most of our people are acquainted with him from his work on the campground two years ago.

Sabbath, July 20, the Elizabeth people were made happy with a large congregation of people who assembled at their new church for the dedication. Brother Peter Barker gave a most interesting recital of how they managed to get help, money, and material for the building of the church. It is located on a main highway and in such a position that it can be seen from every side as one passes in an automobile—a splendid location.

Within the last few weeks they have had two additions to their church membership, and they expect to fill their new opera seats with new Seventh-day Adventists. Their enthusiasm and their cooperation will certainly bring results.

The Message Goes Forward in Logansport

I AM sure that our people will be glad to know of the marvelous way God has blessed our efforts thus far at Logansport. From the opening night our attendance has been far better than anticipated. Logansport has been noted for its prejudice toward the message, being a strong Catholic city.

Nevertheless, God has wonderfully gone before us and prepared the way by His precious Holy Spirit. Our attendance during the week nights has never fallen below 200, and it averages between 225 and 300. On Sunday nights our crowds have increased every week, with our smallest Sunday-night crowd estimated to be more than 550. Last Sunday night about 700 people crowded into the tent and around the outside to hear the message, "Where and What Is Hell?" All available space has been utilized inside the tent. We even remove the portable bookstand outside of the tent to provide more seating space. In addition to this we have provided seating space for over 100 on benches surrounding the tent on the outside. Our calling list now exceeds 600 and people are requesting a special Bible class which we are planning to begin this next week.

On Sunday night, July 28, Elder Eckenroth will speak on the subject, "The End of a Perfect Week," and on August 4, "Mr. 'X' Is Guilty!"

Those associated in the effort are: Elder and Mrs. Eckenroth, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Langworthy, Miss Frances Vaughan, and Brother Elbert Tyson.

INDIANA ACADEMY

THREE girls and fifteen boys are kept busy performing the tasks which must be done here at Indiana Academy this summer. The girls work in the kitchen and laundry while the boys work on the farm, in the print shop, and in the repair department.

The farm employs the largest number. More hay has been harvested now than was harvested all last summer. Ninety-three acres of corn have required a lot of cultivating. The garden has not been neglected. Our gladiola bed, which is over a half acre in size, has started to bloom and the flowers are being sold to the florists in Indianapolis.

We are glad for the business which has come to our print shop. This is a growing department.

Many repairs have been made, especially in the cottages since the close of school. Now we are going to paint the exterior of three cottages. The new bathrooms in the girls' dormitory are being plastered and we hope to have them completed when school begins.

Already parents and young people are planning definitely for next school year. Applications are being received. Elder Murphy is visiting in the homes throughout the conference and may have been in your home before you read this. Surely the young people of Indiana should be in a Christian school this next year. We shall be glad to correspond with any who are not now in touch with us. We invite the youth of Indiana to come to the academy this September. W. A. NELSON

Report from Elkhart, LaGrange, and Angola

WE rejoice in passing our largest Harvest Ingathering goal of $500. by $25. in only a few weeks' effort. This was accomplished only because the people had a mind to work, and more took part than in any previous year in Elkhart.

Two baptisms have been held recently. Ten converts were buried with their Lord in baptism. One of these was the result of work done by a faithful lay Bible worker. The church in Elkhart has about doubled its membership in the last two and a half years.

An interesting seminar is being conducted on Sabbath afternoons by Brother Harter and Brother Paul Jackson of Emmanuel Missionary College. A number are preparing for active lay evangelism. The Elkhart church, located on Goshen Avenue, is receiving some needed repairs, including a new coat of paint.

The churches at LaGrange and Angola hope to reach their Ingathering goal in less than two weeks. In these churches, as well as in Elkhart, there has been a systematic distribution of the Present Truth Series. The interested ones are now receiving ten numbers of Good News, covering the principal points of our faith. We can see on the part of many of these people a very evident interest to read our literature. So, from these, we believe there will soon be a large group calling for Bible studies, besides the many who are now receiving instruction.

No better way can be found to get people interested than this method of personal work in systematic distribution of our good literature. "And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the Lord: and thou shalt be called, Sought out." Isa. 62:12. Yes, God has said He will send for many hunters who will search out His precious ones. Let us arise to quickly finish the work so we may go home.

Writing From Washington

HERE at the Nation's capital we can feel the pulse of the United States, and see the visible evidence that the government of this country is big business.

In our Seminary school we feel the heartbeat of our world-wide work, and see abundant evidence that the hand of the living God is in this advent movement. Those of us who have taken several courses in one of the universities of the world can the more appreciate the privileges and opportunities of our Theological Seminary.

Every class recitation and every chapel exercise is another revelation to our dull senses of God's eternal power and Godhead. Never in all my life have I received such a profound impression of God's infinite love for the human race.

Seventh-day Adventist workers from all over the world attend the Seminary. Imagine, if you can, the delight of us all to share with each other the results of our religious thought and service. To me, the very existence of such a fine institution is another evidence that God is with this people.

LOST—Boys and Girls

I READ an article the other day in which was listed some inquiries copied from the newspapers of France.

These tragic inquiries had to do with the boys and girls of France who had become separated from their loved ones as a result of the war. The wording was heart-rending and pitiful. Parents had lost their boys and girls; boys and girls had lost mothers and fathers.

We who live in this land are thankful for the physical safety of our children.

But what about their spiritual safety? Provide opportunities for your children that will assure character development.

We suggest Camp Wijumivo, August 18 to 28, and the church school, September 3. THEODORE LUCAS

Ingathering Victory

It is always encouraging to start a project, but it is even more encouraging to see a project finished on record time. We are happy to announce that within a ten-day period our first church, Spooner, has gone over the top. We congratulate you, Spooner, for this success, and Brother Hillman for his part in making this possible. Immediately on the heels of the report from Spooner comes a report from Oakland. "I am glad the Lord has blessed the Oakland church and all the people who gave money to make it possible for us to have reached our goal of $155." The most encouraging part of the Oakland victory is the fact that they have not yet finished, but Brother Armstrong says, "We will be going out some more."

Other cheering reports are such as the one that comes from Elder Grundset in district 3. He says, "Harvest Ingathering well started at Clear Lake—80 per cent of goal raised at Menomonie." Still another report comes from the Milwaukee English Church, which has the largest individual church goal in the conference. This indeed is encouraging—"50 per cent of the goal raised in two weeks." Brother Sowler of district 7 reports that the Ingathering work in his district is going forward rapidly, and Brother Moore, who has returned from an itinerary in his district 8, tells us that the spirit and the enthusiasm has never been so encouraging in his district in past years. Not only are our people interested and enthusiastic, but those who are contributing are giving larger donations.

This splendid report comes from district 5 with Brother Lyberg as the superintendent. When he and Brother Jordan, the elder, and Brother Naylor, the treasurer of the Waupaca church, went out, the first two business men they contacted contributed minute-man goals; the third, $10; and the fourth a minute-man goal; and the next $4. and $5. each. This year $56. was gathered in whereas heretofore $36. was received. This is an indication of the increase in offerings which we are receiving and for which we are happy and thankful.

We believe that the Lord is blessing in a very definite way in response to the many earnest prayers that our believers of the Wisconsin Conference are sending to the throne of grace. We trust that you will continue to pray and work, and that another week will show the Wisconsin Conference half way over its goal at the half-way mark in the time set.

Baptisms in District Three

So FAR, three baptisms have been held in this district in three churches; namely, Clear Lake, Eau Claire, and Chippewa Falls.

It was the privilege of the writer to baptize eight in the waters of beautiful Moon Lake on Sabbath, June 1. These have joined the Clear Lake church. On June 8, one baptism of four was conducted at Eau Claire and in the afternoon eleven dear candidates were baptized in the waters of Chippewa River at Chippewa Falls. Most of these candidates are young people of late adolescent age. The candidates range in age up to seventy-two years.

It is worthy to note that of the twenty-three baptized, the young people of school age are students of church school in each of the places named. This gives evidence of the value of our church schools in relation to our young people.

We wish each of these new additions to the churches in district 3 the blessing and guidance of the Lord. May each be faithful to his vows. We look forward to a number of other candidates for baptism before the summer is over.

WISCONSIN CONFERENCE

of the academy over the week end. If present plans work out we should have several students from this place with us the coming school year.

Painting and papering has recently been completed in the cottage occupied by Elder Michalenko and in the south apartment over Mr. Coles, which will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Tucker.

Elder and Mrs. Unruh and Mr. and Mrs. Lucas stopped at the academy for a short visit on their way to Frederic for the Sabbath. Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding, of Adelphian Academy, and Mr. and Mrs. Van de Warker also stopped at Bethel Academy en route to Yellow Stone National Park for a vacation.

The Bethel Academy young people of the community have been working with the other Bethel church young people in Harvest Ingathering singing bands.

Brother Erling Calkins, John Miklos and Miss Bodine, who are conducting an effort at Wisconsin Rapids, visited the academy in the interest of music talent for the effort. We are glad to note the promotion of this phase of our work in the vicinity of our school.

The plans are to have some of the new lighting fixtures made possible by the student lighting campaign last winter installed by the opening of school.

Music students will be interested to know that the chorus and choir are scheduled to have new music by the time school opens.

only happy because of the cash which came in but more so because of the large amount of literature which has gone into all parts of the conference. We believe many persons will be in the kingdom of God as a result of this literature placed in homes of relatives and friends.

We were happy to see the smiling face of Elder C. T. Everson of Chicago as he came into the office one afternoon last week. We are hoping that plans may be perfected whereby he can hold an effort in Wisconsin. We believe the time is right for a large ingathering of precious souls, for the heavenly kingdom. The stirring days into which we have come are causing men and women everywhere to give serious attention to the real meaning of the times and their relationship to them.

News Notes

WORD comes this morning from Wisconsin Rapids concerning the opening service in the tent. The opening meeting was Sunday, July 14, and we learn that the tent was packed. They also had a splendid offering. The congregation apparently enjoyed the service and was impressed by the presentation of the subject, "Seven Bible Words That Doom Hitler," presented by Brother Erling Calkins. Brother Calkins has associated with him in this effort Brother John Miklos, as choral director, and Miss Alice Bodine as Bible worker. We ask an interest in your prayers that the Lord may greatly bless the efforts of these young people as they present Bible truths from night to night to the good people living in Wisconsin Rapids.

We are receiving some interesting reports of the Harvest Ingathering work which now is in full swing all over the conference. A card from Brother Perrine written on July 15 says they have over $70. raised in Kenosha and Raymond, and $17. in Racine. He expects to be with the Racine group four days this week and all three churches are determined.

We also have a note from Brother Keiser telling us that he spent some time with the Oakland church last week in the Ingathering work and they are planning to have their goal completed by next Sabbath. When he wrote he was in Janesville and was expecting to go with the singing band that evening. It truly is wonderful the spirit of service which seems to be spreading all over the conference to get the Harvest Ingathering work fully completed by the middle of August. The singing band from the Madison South Church is in full swing and encouraging reports come as to the amounts received. They plan to spend three evenings each week until their goal is reached. Undoubtedly there are many other encouraging reports from different parts of the field but they have not sent word to us concerning their work.

A week ago we mentioned that the sales in the bookstand were $275. more than two years ago but we omitted giving the total amount of sales this year. We received $1,462.67 through the book sales at camp meeting which was $278. more than two years ago. We think this is splendid and are not

We are glad to report that a large number of orders have come in for the July 2, colored Signs of the Times which deals with the prophecy of Daniel 2. This is a very special number and should have a wide circulation.
