INDIANA

310 E. 23rd St. Indianapolis, Ind.
PRESIDENT, F. O. SANDERS

THOSE WHO WISH TO MAKE WILLS OR LEGACIES, PLEASE CORRESPOND WITH THE INDIANA CONFERENCE, 310 EAST 23RD STREET, INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA.

Meeting at Salem

EACH fall it is the pleasure of the Salem church, located near Sullivan, to have an all-day meeting, to which the churches throughout that section are invited.

Sabbath, September 27, was the day chosen for the meeting this year. It proved to be a most beautiful day, and how it thrilled our hearts to see well-loaded cars coming from every direction. The different churches represented were Terre Haute, Jasonville, Vincennes, El Nora, Bloomfield, and also Boggstown and Indianapolis.

Before time for Sabbath school the church was well filled. The kindergarten, primary, and junior boys and girls had their classes out on the grassy lawn, where nature draws one nearer the Creator.

Our conference president, Elder F. O. Sanders, and Elder T. F. Hubbard, the leader of this district, were present throughout the day. Elder Sanders spoke at the eleven o'clock hour, bringing an earnest message regarding the seriousness of the time in which we are now living and appealing to all present to be prepared to say with joy, "Lo, this is our God; we have waited for Him, and he will save us."

At the noon hour a bounteous dinner was spread beneath the shade of the big trees, and then followed a period of Christian fellowship.

In the afternoon service, Elder Hubbard's sermon followed the thought of the morning, which pointed out our need of an individual experience that we might be able to stand the tests which are rapidly coming to God's chosen ones. Such services help us to grasp a little more fully the fact that Jesus' coming must be very near—"even at the door."

After the services no one seemed in a hurry to leave, but all over the big churchyard little groups were expressing their gratitude for the privilege of spending such a day together. Truly it seemed a little taste of that heavenly fellowship of which we long to share.

Colporteur Experience

ONE of Indiana's faithful colporteurs recently wrote: "As I was canvassing a lady last week she recognized the pictures in the book and said she had one like it, which turned out to be "Bible Readings." She told me that after she bought the book, her neighbors told her it was an Adventist book. She said if it was, then the Bible was an Adventist book, too, because it teaches just like the Bible. After a while she told me she had been keeping the Sabbath in her home for some time. As we talked, I mentioned some of our points of doctrine and she fully believes it all and has promised to come to Sabbath school and church. She ordered "Patriarchs and Prophets" and gave me three dollars and is going to order the "Great Controversy" for a later date. I surely thank the Lord for so many blessings and good experiences."

Scores of souls are waiting to receive this message. Many more should join the ranks of these consecrated men and women to carry this message to Indiana. On Sabbath, November 1, the churches of Indiana will give consideration to the regular Colporteur Day. Will you respond to the call of the hour for this work?

F. O. SANDERS

Progress at Gary

ELDER J. H. Laurence, pastor of the Capitol Avenue Church in Indianapolis, reports the completion of a very successful effort among the colored people of Gary, Indiana. A baptism on October 11, together with previous baptisms, makes a total of 67 that have been baptized as the result of this effort. The membership of the Gary Mizpah Church has more than doubled as the result of this evangelistic effort.

In order to accommodate the increased membership, a considerable amount of repair work has been done on the Gary Mizpah Church. The exterior has been painted; the auditorium room has been redecorated; the rostrum has been arranged in a space outside of the main auditorium so as to accommodate a larger seating capacity. The rear of the building has been changed to accommodate a church school under the direction of Miss Blake.

Assisting in the evangelistic services in Gary this summer were Brother F. N. Crowe, Brother C. D.

Portage M. V. Rally

The youth of district 9 gathered at the Railroad Women's Club in Portage, on Sabbath, October 11, for their first Missionary Volunteer rally since camp meeting. Young people were present from Baraboo, Hundred Mile Grove, Oxford, Columbus, Reedsburg, Pardeeville, and Portage.

With the writer as chairman, the meeting opened with a song service in which all joined heartily. Then followed a welcome to the newcomers, including our guest speaker, Brother P. M. Lewis, field secretary, and a surprise visitor in the person of Elder T. E. Unruh.

Mrs. Dwight Jennings, of the Pardeeville society played two beautiful hymns on the Phonoharp.

Brother Lewis presented some challenging truths in regard to our thinking. "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he," says the Word; hence the importance of thinking right thoughts. If we are to keep clear of the pollution in the world today, our minds must dwell on those things that are pure, edifying, and constructive.

Brother Lewis also gave some interesting reports in regard to the work that some of our young ladies are doing in taking magazine subscriptions. This appears to be a field that offers new possibilities to young people who are anxious to work for the Lord while earning the means to secure a Christian education.

After a brief intermission, Brother A. C. Allen, of Portage, presented some interesting notes on Nature Study, and Miss Amaryllis Price of Seattle, Washington, sang.

Elder Unruh consented to bring us a brief message. He emphasized the importance of accepting the challenge to adventure that the colporteur work offers. We were happy to have him with us and appreciated his contribution to the success of our meeting.

Brother Lewis delighted the Juniors with a story to which they listened attentively, after which the writer conducted a quiz on Bible Characters in which the ladies far outshone the men.

Everyone enjoyed the recreational hour of the evening.

The next meeting is to be held in Baraboo sometime in November. The date will be announced later.

Our Teachers' Institute

THE BRIGHT and prettily decorated schoolroom of the South Madison Church was made lively with the presence of Wisconsin's church school teachers who gathered there for the 1942 institute, October 12-15.

The theme of the meeting, "Idealizing the Real," was popular from the start and its interpretation broadened in Elder Unruh's keynote speech in which he spiritualized the meaningful three words that formed the nucleus of the program.

The personnel was made up of men and women experienced in their fields. They contributed to the institute well-prepared discussions which are bound to cement an even stronger group of educators for Wisconsin.

The institute was spicy and moved fast. One of the outstanding features was a two and a half hour WCST broadcast at which time the teachers told of their past, present and future plans. It can be done in Wisconsin with such a strong, optimistic, determined band of rightly trained teachers.

Professor Lovell shared the chairmanship of the discussions; Miss Cassell presented topics on Arithmetic, Art, Music and Handwriting; Miss Maas gave interesting studies in Geography and on how to establish an environment of culture and refinement in the schoolroom. We also appreciated the contributions of Dr. M. E. Olsen and Professor Cady.

Bethel Academy representatives visited the institute and gave a program which included a talk by Professor Parker entitled "Bethel Academy Today and Tomorrow."

Tuesday night was a gala occasion. All dressed in their best and were the guests of the Wisconsin Conference office. A candle light banquet was enjoyed after which were speeches and moving pictures. The teachers presented their superintendent with three beautiful books in keratol binding. The books were, "Messages to Young People," "Fundamentals of Christian Education," and "Education."

The institute was deeply marked with a spiritual atmosphere. Elders Lovell, Dollinger, and Unruh had the morning devotionals and the response was gratifying.

Our expressions of deep sympathy were sent to Miss Broderson who was absent from the institute because of the sudden death of her father.

Dedicatory at Shawano

OCTOBER 18 was a day of rejoicing for the Shawano church members and friends as the hour had arrived for the dedicatory services.

The church was well filled and many were still coming when Franklin Montour opened the Sabbath school at the appointed hour. An interesting Sabbath school program was conducted in which local members and conference workers took part. The weekly missionary meeting was directed by the writer.

Brother P. M. Lewis, Wisconsin field missionary secretary, spoke at the eleven o'clock hour urging a closer walk and association with the Master.

Elder Lyberg, a former pastor at Shawano, opened the afternoon meeting with the scripture reading of the prayer on the temple dedication.

Brother Hillman, the present district leader, rendered a beautiful and inspiring vocal solo.

Elder Kott read the interesting history with the beginning in 1923 when a tent effort produced five precious souls. These with five others formed the first company, Dr. O. V. Calkins serving as elder. Following Elder Summerville's tent effort in 1937 an intense desire urged the little company to procure a church home. In spite of the severe shock at the sudden death and loss of their leader, Dr. Calkins, the Lord blessed and the plans went forward.

The Dorcas society under the leadership of Sister Mae Darrow raised nearly $1,000. of the needed money.

An old church was purchased and moved onto the foundation laid by Elder Summerville. Today, decorated, painted and equipped the Shawano church stands as a beacon light of God's power.

Elder Unruh, Wisconsin Conference president, presented a stirring dedicatory sermon pointing out the necessity of every member being dedicated to the Lord as temples of the Holy Spirit.

The dedicatory prayer by the writer was followed by the closing song and benediction.

It was truly a day of joy as this, another monument of grace, was dedicated free of debt.

May our prayers be united that many more souls may be won at Shawano and throughout Wisconsin.

CLARENCE C. KOTT

"Those who refuse to be hewed by the prophets, and fail to purify their souls in obeying the whole truth, and who are willing to believe that their condition is far better than it really is, will come up to the time of the falling of the plagues, and then see that they needed to be hewed and squared for the building. But there will be no time then to do it, and no Mediator to plead their cause before the Father."—Early Writings, p. 71.

 THE ILLINOIS CONFERENCE ASSOCIATION OF
 SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS.

Conquest of Souls

AT A RECENT workers' meeting which was preceded by a conference committee meeting, careful study was given to the matter of evangelism throughout the State of Illinois, and it was voted by the committee to ask every conference worker to engage in some evangelistic work upon the completion of the Harvest Ingathering campaign. We feel that a splendid opportunity is afforded for evangelistic work between now and the end of the year, and we are arranging for our workers to hold evangelistic efforts wherever possible, whether they be in halls or in our churches. Some of our men are planning for intensive work along this line, and we are hopeful that a large number of souls can be won to the truth before the close of this year.

We are living in perilous days. Momentous decisions will be made within the next year or two. Plans should now be laid to carry forward a great work. Nations are on the defensive today, but as a church, we do not need to take the defensive. Our program requires no defense. The foundations are secure. Now is the opportune time for both workers and lay members to push forward the work of God. It is no time to see how little we can accomplish, because by so doing we bring the church into ill repute and make it an impotent, non-aggressive army when it should be a dynamic, aggressive force, going forth in holy conquest in a campaign of expansion. A general offensive should be launched by our churches and lay members. A death-dealing blow should be given to all excuses, lukewarmness, indifference, doubt, and unbelief. The time is ripe for a harvest. The majority of people are still in bondage, just as much so as the children of Israel were in Egypt. Multitudes are groaning and crying for deliverance, and we have in our possession the key which will unlock the door and release men from their bondage. No power on earth can defeat us, because the Lord has promised to be on our side. Our only danger lies within ourselves. The Lord is calling upon us to put on the whole armor of God in order that we might accomplish a mighty work for Him at this time.

Won't You Join Us!

THE goal is: Read a Book, Lend or Give a Book, Sell a Book, Buy a Book.

Why should we not take advantage of the publicity throughout the nation during "National Book Week"—November 1-8 and acquaint ourselves and others with our own literature? Doubtless no other medium is so universally successful in doing good as our books and papers.

You are invited to participate with all Illinois young people in accomplishing the above goals. We are to lend ourselves and our influence wherever we can to make these goals active and real. Why not make it a personal and a society aim to distribute the good books which lie unread and unused either in our homes or in our churches?

Then, of course, you'll not forget the boys in army camps. Send books to them.

All young people, both in Missionary Volunteer Societies and out, should make themselves responsible for a set of our Reading Course books being placed in every church and church school library. Plan to place a set in the public library in your community.

I would urge that during this week, November 1-8, each of you provide for your personal use and help the book which has been prepared especially for our young people, "Messages to Young People."

Come along, young people of Illinois, let's go together for a big, helpful, active, aggressive Book Week, holding before ourselves constantly the national goals.

News Notes

ON Sunday night, October 19, Elder W. P. Ortner held his first of a series of five lectures in the City Hall at Chillicothe, a town of 2,300 near the city of Peoria. Preparatory to this opening lecture six numbers of Present Truth had been distributed to the homes in the town over a period of successive weeks, and also a large number of handbills advertising the meetings were placed in the homes. A large number of people who are not members of our church were present to hear Elder Ortner and were deeply interested in his explanation of Daniel 2, under the title "The Inside Story of the European Crisis."

Last week on a trip through a section of the conference Elder Lenheim visited Brother Winders' district and counseled with him regarding his evangelistic work for the winter season. Elder Winders plans to commence a series of evangelistic meetings in our Twin City church at Urbana in the near future.

Elder Lenheim also visited Brother Marsa's district and spoke to the members of the Decatur church on Wednesday evening. Following the service a business meeting was held and plans outlined for painting the church building. Work on this project is starting immediately.

The Illinois Conference is hastening on toward its super goal of $41,000. for Ingathering this year. Fine reports came in from Shiloh, Broadview, La Grange, and Hinsdale this week, and many smaller reports came in from other churches, bringing our total up to $40,000. for the middle of October. We expect to see both Hinsdale and La Grange over their goals in a few days. We lack only $1,000. of reaching our super goal, and we expect to reach it in October.

Another Branch Sabbath School Makes Good

SOME MONTHS ago the Linden church began praying about the work in Fenton a few miles away. They not only prayed but they began to work. They organized a Branch Sabbath school and worked the town systematically with literature and soon the interest seemed to warrant a series of meetings. Elder Dower came from Flint, and with the cooperation of the teachers and students of the Adelpian Academy and the members of the Holly church, a good series of meetings was held. Ten fine people were baptized, and with the members already living there, the group was organized into a full-fledged Sabbath

Illinois Youth

Help yourself to start the month of November right by attending the Youth's Rally, Investiture, and Social on the first day of the month.

This is the last call for you to be present in the conference auditorium on the campus of Broadview Academy at 2:30 p. m. Sabbath, November 1.

Here is a timely hint: Let's show our new Lake Union Missionary Volunteer secretary that we can fill the auditorium for him. Come early, join in the singing, hear the good sermon, take part in the Investiture, and stay for the evening social.

You'll be sorry if you miss this event.

school. Now they are operating on their own. Soon they will be organized into a separate company and then they will work to win more souls and then be organized into a separate church.

Do we believe in evolution in Michigan? Yea, verily,—evolution of this variety—the evolution of a church in the next town from a praying group of Adventists in your town. That is Christian evolution. We also believe in the survival of the fittest, because the church that does not follow this program will in the passage of the years fade out as so many have already done, and some are doing. It is “work or die” in the spiritual world as well as in the material.

May we have many more branches growing into real trees in Michigan.

HENRY F. BROWN

Week of Sacrifice

NOVEMBER 15-22 is the date for the annual Week of Sacrifice when all our people have the opportunity to express their thankfulness to the Giver of all good gifts for His many blessings, material and spiritual, by a sacrificial thank offering.

The seriousness of the times in which we live, together with the wave of temporal prosperity should assure the largest Week of Sacrifice offering on Sabbath, November 22, in the history of our work. The Michigan Conference should, as our largest conference organization in the denomination, give an offering proportionate to the numbers and prosperity of our people.

The divine rule is to “give according as the Lord hath prospered you,” with the promise that “the Lord loveth a cheerful giver,” and “he that soweth bountifully shall also reap bountifully.” Jesus said, “Give and it shall be given you, good measure, shaken down, pressed together, and running over, shall men measure out to you.” It is “the liberal soul” that “shall be made fat.” In this matter also we shall “be rewarded according to our works.”

Many will sacrifice the entire week’s income and others will donate from one to four or five day’s wages. Naturally some are able to do much more than others. The amount of the gift is an individual matter to be settled by each person in accordance with his ability and in the light of his love for God and the need of His world-wide mission program. T. G. ### Our Literature Wins Another Soul

MRS. JUNE TAYLOR, of Detroit, secured the address of the head nurse at the Tubercular Hospital at Gaylord, and sent one of the little response cards offering free literature, Bible studies, or the Self-Help Bible Course. This head nurse showed no interest, but handed the card to a patient, a young woman of twenty-one years of age, saying that she might be interested in it. This young lady, Miss Hazel Wesley, signed the card and sent it in, and soon the twenty-three lessons began to come. The young woman was deeply interested and as she lay in her cot she studied the lessons. The young woman in the bed next to her offered to help her understand her lessons. It so developed that in the providence of God this was an Adventist girl, and here this young woman, with a set of Adventist lessons in her hands found a teacher!

The lessons were finished, and three weeks ago, Miss Wesley was baptized and is now planning on furthering her education so she can win others. Miss Wesley is an Ottawa Indian girl, and is deeply desirous of seeing more of these original ‘Americans embracing’ the truth.

Moral: Send out more literature and response cards. Somehow they fall into the hands of the right people.

Missions and the Home Church

IN SWITZERLAND there was once a church which was divided on the matter of foreign missions; half the congregation felt that there should be a strong foreign missionary spirit and program, and half felt that the money should be spent at home, caring for the home needs. So, unable to reconcile themselves to a single program, they amicably agreed that the foreign mission portion of the church would be responsible for the up-keep of one half the church building and the non-foreign-mission group would keep the other half in repairs. Only a few months demonstrated the reflex influence of a strong foreign missionary effort. The non-foreign-missionary side of the church soon began to show the signs of deterioration, the paint was peeling, and the roof began to leak, while the foreign missionary side was well cared for.

The moral is that when one centers his attentions selfishly on his own community and group, soon that loses its appeal and he begins to center his attention solely on himself.

Hillsdale is a church that boasts strongly for foreign missions and the reflex is seen in their church building. They have remodeled the basement into a delightful children's department by siding it and dividing it into rooms by the means of a judicious use of ply-board. Then they have reached out into their neighborhood and have a branch Sabbath school in Hanover. Now they plan on working Jonesville, East Adams and the other towns in their territory in a systematic way to find the honest in heart in these villages and towns.

How true is the statement "To show a liberal, self-denying spirit for the success of foreign missions is a sure way to advance home missionary work, for the prosperity of the home work depends largely, under God, upon the reflex influence of the evangelical work done in countries afar off"—"Gospel Workers," p. 465.

HENRY F. BROWN

Week-End Services

ON Sabbath, October 18, a number of our Michigan churches had the privilege of hearing General Conference men and other leaders attending the officer's meeting, preceding the Autumn Council to be held in Battle Creek, October 21-28.

In the Battle Creek Tabernacle, Elder R. A. Anderson spoke Friday night, Elder L. H. Christian Sabbath morning, and Elder L. E. Froom at the Sabbath afternoon vesper service. The men visiting other churches are as follows: Detroit Grand River, Elder H. T. Elliott; Detroit German, Elder G. W. Schubert; Detroit Hartford Avenue, Elder G. E. Peters; Flint Number 1, Elder G. W. Turner; St. Charles, Prof. Frederick Griggs; Lansing, Elder A. S. Maxwell; Charlotte, Elder M. D. Howard; Urbandale, Elder V. T. Armstrong; Bedford, Elder A. R. Ogden; West Leroy, Elder F. C. Gilbert; Burlington and Coldwater, Elder G. E. Nord; Hillsdale, Elder S. A. Wellman; Hastings, Elder M. N. Campbell; Bellevue, J. M. Jackson; Jackson, J. D. Snider; Cedar Lake Academy, Elder M. E. Kern; Adelpian Academy, Elder M. L. Andreasen.

Other churches were doubtless visited by others who did not report. Elder F. W. Schnepfer spoke in the Pontiac church. He reported that the church members there pledged more than $1,000. toward their new church building program.

Elder T. G. Bunch spoke in the Flint Number 2 church as Elder W. D. Forde went to Battle Creek to help the Berean church with their rally in which they expected the payment on their church debt. The members of this small church deserve congratulations for the fine work and noble sacrifices making possible the liquidation of their $1200. mortgage. The Flint Number 2 congregation rejoices in the purchase of the property where they have been meeting for years. Now they can repair and redecorate the building used for church and church school purposes and begin to plan for the erection of a church building in the future.

vest, including those tomatoes used in college canning, reached 216 tons. Someone mathematically minded has estimated that this meant more than a million tomatoes were picked and packed by the two score workers in the fields and sheds.

Most of the crop went to selected Chicago markets, some were sold to highway sales jobbers, and some were distributed to the Benton Harbor fruit and vegetable market, the largest of its kind in the world. The yield was remarkably free from blemish, and the eating qualities unexcelled. The expert field care, including a rotating overhead watering system, no doubt accounted for the fine crop. Periodical spraying for pests also contributed to the beautiful condition of the fruit.

During the summer a system of endless belts carrying the tomatoes from the sorters to the packers after running them through a polisher, was constructed, and this fast and efficient handling made possible the final results. Mr. Houck has gained more than local prominence for his success with tomatoes, and he has addressed state farmer groups as well as broadcast his observations on the Chicago radio.

If we keep the Lord ever before us, allowing our hearts to go out in thanksgiving and praise to Him, we shall have a continual freshness in our religious life. Our prayers will take the form of a conversation with God, as we would talk with a friend. He will speak His mysteries to us personally. Often there will come to us a sweet, joyful sense of the presence of Jesus. — "Christ's Object Lessons," p. 129.

College Gardens Finish Harvest

To Mr. Glenn Houck and his assistants goes much credit for the fine results achieved this past summer as revealed in the report of the tomato harvest from Emmanuel Missionary College gardens. Mr. Houck is superintendent of the whole project, from selection of the varieties to be planted in spring to the marketing of the crop in near-by markets.

This has been the banner year in sales, the grand total reaching $11,801.85. This income represents a total har-
