Missions Extension Campaign

THE time for the 1944 Missions Extension Offering is at hand. This will be one of the most important offerings of the year, for never in all our history have we been confronted with problems that we are confronted with at the present time, and never have we received so many earnest appeals to help in the extension of our foreign missionary work as at the present time. Earnest pleas have come from China, from India, from Inter-America, South America, Africa, and from Syria and Iraq, as well as many other portions of the world field—calls for new hospitals, new clinics, new schools, new publishing houses; calls for additional equipment, for medical supplies, and emergency relief; calls for more doctors, nurses, teachers, evangelists, and other workers.

In many fields our working staff has been greatly depleted, and yet we must advance into new territory. In other fields our workers have been greatly perplexed due to the fluctuation in exchange values, and yet our orders are very definite: We must advance all along the line. Let us never think of retrenchment.

Our readers will recall that at the 1943 Autumn Council, the General Conference appropriated approximately $7,000,000 to foreign missions. This is the largest appropriation in the history of the denomination. All the projects appearing in this year's Missions Extension campaign are included in this budget. We are therefore appealing to our people to give as they have never given before so that this budget may be met in full. Let it never be said of Seventh-day Adventists, "Too little and too late."

By W. A. Scharffenberg

We have assured the brethren in the China Division that we would this year raise $30,000 for special assistance in this time of emergency. China has suffered much. When the war broke out in the Pacific, our Signs of the Times Publishing House was closed down by the invading forces. This, however, did not stop the work. The publishing house was quickly reopened in temporary quarters in connection with the China Union Training School at Dabao, near Chungking, and the publication of our church literature and the Signs was resumed.

The Lord has wonderfully blessed our work in Free China, but additional funds are needed to take care of the increased circulation, and more rooms are needed to house the workers. Our sanitarium as well as our training school workers are greatly perplexed because of the continual change in the value of the currency, and thus far the change has never been for the better. About the only currency of any value is rice. It seems that rice has become more precious than silver or gold. Our students at the college have been requested to deposit $25,000 (national currency) before admittance this year. This will bring great perplexity on our people, and some relief must be given. Our workers connected with the sanitarium are also greatly perplexed, for the salaries barely cover the cost of the rice. We know our people will not fail China in this hour of crisis.

The Southern Asia Division has presented a long list of requests. These have been carefully considered, and we have finally agreed to grant them $30,000 for their major needs, as listed.

From the Southern African Division have come earnest appeals for help in establishing educational institutions, hospitals, clinics, and meeting other needs.

We have assured the Southern African Division that we would do our level best, and have promised them $30,000 this year from the Missions Extension Fund.

From the South American Division come urgent appeals for help in rebuilding the girls' dormitory at the Chillan School and installing an electric light plant; also funds for an administration building in connection with the Uruguay Academy, and for assistance in enlarging the Belem Clinic in the North Brazil Union Mission, as well as the Sao Paulo Clinic in the South Brazil Union Mission. We have assured the brethren in the South American Division that we would endeavor to raise $30,000 this year to meet these needs.

BIG WEEK CAMPAIGN, SEPTEMBER 2-9

The brethren in the Inter-American Division have launched an earnest appeal for us to assist them to the amount of $25,000 in firmly establishing their medical work in Puerto Rico and Jamaica. These requests have been granted, and we have assured the brethren in the Inter-American Division that we would endeavor to provide for these worthy projects.

From Syria and Iraq come most earnest appeals for assistance in establishing their medical and educational work. We have listed $25,000 in what is called the "Provisional Division"—the mission fields under the direction of the General Conference Committee.

All told, these requests total $170,000. We trust that our people in the Lake Union will rally to this call and give liberally for the extension of our mission work in these fields.

OUR NEW ADDRESS

SEVERAL weeks have passed since we said good-bye to our friends in the Lake Union and headed westward to our new field of labor, the North Pacific Union. We greatly enjoyed the scenic drive over the expanded plains of the Middle West and then through the beautiful mountains of Wyoming, Montana and Oregon.

Since June 15, we have been busy visiting the camp meetings in the Northwest and getting settled in our new home in Portland, Oregon, where the union office is located. As we contact the churches here, we find the people very hospitable and cooperative as they join hands to do their part in finishing God's work in this generation. We find a large sprinkling of old acquaintances from the Middle West in the churches in this territory. This is helping us greatly in making the transition from the old to the new.

Although we are already liking our new field and making many new friends, we find it difficult to wean ourselves from the Lake Union and the many dear friends there. The remembrances of twenty years of sojourn and labor among you, is a refreshing oasis in life's experiences.

Our new address is 2116 S. E. 29th Avenue, Portland 15, Oregon. It would be a pleasure to hear from old friends as time and convenience would permit.

NEWS NOTES

THESE news notes are written on the Portage campground where every effort is being put forth to have the camp in readiness for the Biennial Session of the Wisconsin Conference which begins Thursday, August 10. The camp is practically ready for the coming of the people. The weather has been ideal and prospects are for an unusually large attendance. All the available accommodations—cabins, tents, and rooms—have been reserved. The Illinois Conference has very kindly made twenty extra tents available to us, so we hope to accommodate those who desire to camp on the grounds.

Our second Junior Camp of the season, this one being held at the Twin Lake Reservation, Waupaca, attracted one hundred twenty-eight boys and girls. The weather has been ideal and Brother Perepelitza with his corps of workers have worked hard to make this camp an unusual success. Elder Lucas from the union has given available assistance.

Elder T. E. Unruh spent a few hours at the Junior Camp over the week end and on Sabbath, August 5, he met with the churches in Poy Sippi and Wautoma.

Word received from the McClures indicated they missed the July boat which was to take them to South America and are now waiting for other accommodations. At the present time Elder McClure is attending the Theological Seminary in Washington.

The Ingathering report for the close of July indicated that Wisconsin was within $2,000 of its $40,000 conference goal. By the time these news notes are read, Wisconsin no doubt will be over the top and will be moving steadily on toward its super goal of $50,000. About one thousand five hundred of our church members have already become Minute Men, and we expect that before the end of the campaign seventy-five per cent of our church membership will have reached their Minute Man goal. This splendid accomplishment reflects the faithful efforts of our church officers, lay brethren and sisters, and conference workers.

TRAINING FOR LEADERSHIP

IN a few weeks Bethel Academy will open its doors again to the youth of the Wisconsin Conference. Every preparation is being made at the school for a successful and profitable school year for all who are enrolled early in September. Present applications indicate an excellent enrollment. The academy has been fortunate in holding together its strong staff of teachers for another year.

We feel moved to make an earnest appeal to the young men and women of this large state who may not as yet have made reservations, to contact the school immediately. Denominationally we find ourselves in a period of great worker shortage. Trained workers are urgently needed in every department of God's closing work. Consecrated ministers are in great demand. The colporteur field is wide open for hundreds of new colporteurs. Bible workers are desperately needed. Stenographers and bookkeepers in our offices are constantly being called for. With the avenues of service wide open to ambitious and trained young workers, we have no hesitancy in making this appeal to our Wisconsin youth to look to Bethel for their secondary training.

If an academy representative has not yet called at your home, write immediately to Principal Vern C. Hoffman, Arpin, Wisconsin, for information.

CHANGE IN WORKING FORCE

WE REGRET to announce that recently Brother and Sister V. R. Hillman were called to connect with the Review and Herald Publishing Association. They left their field a little time ago and letters received indicate they greatly enjoy their new work.

Elder Grundset has accepted the editorship of the Norwegian periodicals published by the Pacific Press Publishing Association, Brookfield, Illinois. He will be moving his family to Brookfield in the near future.

We are happy to announce to the field the coming of new workers. Elder and Mrs. Fred Gihlein of Denver, Colorado, have already arrived in Wisconsin. Elder Gihlein will serve as pastor of the German church in Milwaukee and leader of the district associated with that church.

Word has reached the office that before the end of camp meeting, Brother and Sister W. H. Ludwig of Wyoming will arrive on the campground. They will be placed in one of the districts for evangelism and district work. We heartily welcome all of our new workers to the Wisconsin Conference.

EVANGELISM IN NEWBERRY

FOR THE past year we have been located in the eastern end of the Upper Peninsula. Unable to find a hall or home in Sault Ste. Marie, we toured part of our large district receiving a special burden for Newberry, 70 miles to the west. We distributed Voice of Prophecy literature to 700 homes in the city limits, finishing a series of 12 lessons with about half of the people accepting them and started home Bible studies with a total weekly attendance of 80.

To solve the impossible problem of obtaining halls throughout our district, the conference granted my request for $400 to build a portable tabernacle. When it seemed impossible to get building material the Lord intervened in an unusual way. As I stated my needs to a certain mill owner too rushed with war orders to be interested, he suddenly startled me with the question: "Do you happen to be one who with your family, held a few lectures last fall?" I replied, "Yes, sir, and we call ourselves the 'Jackson family.'" Then this man who had never seen nor heard of us before exclaimed in surprise, "Why! I just dreamed about you last night."

I had never before enjoyed such service as he gave me after that. I was shown through the mill. Foremen were ordered to give me what I wished. All went out of their way to serve me, although he confessed he did not wish to furnish the materials. "But I will do it for you," he said. "I am surely glad you had that dream," I told him.

With very little assistance, I assembled sections 4x24 ft. curved to form a quarter circle, and erected a portable tabernacle 34x36 ft. capable of having new sections added for larger places. There was considerable comment on the speed of construction and the practicability of the building.

We opened our tabernacle effort May 28 and have just presented the Sabbath question and held our first Sabbath services with 40 in attendance. We have one active member visiting in Newberry and three families from 18 to 35 miles in the country. Our attendance has been considered exceptional by the community although never exceeding 100 on any evening. We request prayer for a harvest in this difficult place where we have just had the greatest opposition of our experience, that a lighthouse may be established to radiate the light of truth from this center.

DISTRICT THIRTY-THREE

IN SPITE OF the inclement weather on Sabbath, July 29, approximately 150 adults and juniors from the Evart, Marion, Mesick, Bristol and Star City churches met at Cadillac for the pre-camp meeting district union meeting. After an inspirational Sabbath school hour conducted by the superintendent, Mrs. William VanMeter of Cadillac, Brother J. C. Shull, principal of Cedar Lake Academy—guest speaker for the day—gave a stirring sermon in the interest of Christian education. The afternoon meetings featured deeply spiritual sermons of a devotional nature as delivered by Principal Shull. All present felt that the Spirit of God was very, very near! A praise service was conducted by the writer in which all expressed their earnest appreciation for the great blessing that they had received as a result of the visitation of the Spirit under the ministry of Brother Shull. The sacred hours of the Sabbath were brought to a close by a vesper service in which the writer led out. All were grateful for the special music furnished by three of the academy girls; the Misses Betty Brown, Jo Ann Stephens, and Virginia Stroudwick; also the Richards quartette from the Star City church, as well as vocal solos by Rosemary Smith and Mrs. Carl Berg of Cadillac. The help of Elder Cecil Morton, missionary on furlough from Puno, Peru, was both enjoyed and appreciated. The climax of the day's activities was a social gathering at the Lake Mitchell State Park pavilion where marches, games and pictures were featured. All appreciated the leadership of Principal Shull in the evening's activities. We are happy that there are prospects for seven or eight young people to attend Cedar Lake Academy from this district.

District 33 was also privileged to enjoy the ministry of Elder Jay J. Nethery over the week end of July 15. Elder Nethery spoke at the Cadillac and Star City churches. We hope that Elder and Mrs. Nethery will visit our district again in the near future. In closing this report I would like to pay special tribute to Brother and Sister Edward Trumper for the excellent leadership in this area during our sojourn at the Theological Seminary at Washington, D. C. Brother Trumper is to be commended for the splendid work that was done with the Ingathering, and thus district 33 had the honor of being the first to reach its goal!

NEWS NOTES

WHEN this issue of the HERALD reaches the field the Michigan camp meeting will have begun and the quiet forty-acre plot near Grand Ledge, will be a thickly populated tent-city of approximately 3,000 inhabitants. During the past week conference workers have been erecting camp and preparing the various public buildings for occupancy. Elder O. F. Schwedrat, pastor of the Detroit German church, came early and has been doing important carpenter work, having set up shop in the main auditorium. Mrs. Sam Miller and Miss Rachel Brower of Holland have been in charge of the dining room during the workers' meeting, but Brother E. L. Knecht will take over at the beginning of the camp meeting proper, thus releasing Sister Miller for the pastry and salad department.

Everett Calkins is general superintendent of the food department comprising the store, kitchen, and dining hall, taking over the work formerly carried by Elder H. R. Coats.

garet Ann, born August 2, in Battle Creek. We are wondering if this young lady has been notified that she is booked to sail for South Africa as soon as medical authorities give their consent.

Brother Brock Wells has been good enough to lend his wife to the treasury department of the conference for stenographic work during the past two weeks. We guess he didn't get on very well without her because he arrived at the conference office on crutches Monday, and announced that the recent foot injury caused by stepping on glass in Lake Cadillac, was demanding further surgery for the removal of additional foreign bodies from the foot. Dr. Lee McElmurry of Lansing has taken over his case and his recovery should be rapid.

Brother L. E. Abelson visited Adrian and Monroe on the Sabbath, speaking in both churches. Wednesday evening he took the mid-week prayer service at Kalamazoo and his assistant, E. H. Craig, spoke at the East Detroit church on the Sabbath. Brother Howard Burbank of Howell has been spending the past six weeks assisting student colporteurs throughout this field. He completed his itinerary by speaking in the Bay City church last Sabbath. And by the way, when you come to the campground you will find Brother Burbank acting Chief of Police, which position we think we will fill with credit.

Conference president T. G. Bunch was absent from the Monday morning chapel hour on August 7, and we have it on good authority that he is out at the campground, dressed in work clothes and wielding a shovel. On the Sabbath he spoke at Carlton Center in the morning and in the afternoon gave the dedicatory address at Hastings where Elder J. F. Piper, S. J. Hornyak and G. M. Schram joined him for this occasion. Last Wednesday, Elder Bunch visited the colored Junior Camp near Ann Arbor where they have 48 children enrolled and a staff of ten counselors.

Brother A. E. Mobley, took the union service at Alma when the churches of St. Louis, Alma and Ithaca joined for a union meeting. He spoke in the Riverdale church in the afternoon and reports that the church building is being remodeled and when finished will be a very attractive meeting place for the group there. They have recently moved their building into the village and have it on a good foundation with two rooms for the children in the basement. They hope eventually to install a furnace, put in a cement walk and complete their repair program.

Miss Shephard met with the Bellevue Sabbath school where she spoke to the children, the senior division, and took the eleven o'clock church service. Miss Louise Drumm, stenographer in the home missionary department, visited her parents, the Ellis Drumms, of Homer, over the week end, and attended the Burlington church. She reports that they are making definite plans for their church school which is a new venture for the Burlington congregation. We wish them every success.

Elder H. P. Evens occupied the pulpit at the Battle Creek Tabernacle Sabbath morning while the pastor, Elder E. L. Pingenot, met an appointment at the College church.

Elton Dessain spoke at Greenville and Belding on the Sabbath and Mrs. Betty Warner, stenographer in the Sabbath school department, visited her mother in Grand Rapids. The Grand Rapids and Flint churches were thrilled to have with them Elder D. E. Venden, president of the Nebraska Conference, and Elder M. L. Venden, Michigan Conference evangelist. The Venden Brothers held efforts in both of these cities and were very happy to greet again the many new members and friends in these churches. Sunday night a large audience in the Prudden Auditorium, Lansing, heard Elder D. E. Venden present the stirring subject, Why I Am a Seventh-day Adventist. After working together in evangelistic work for so many years, it was inspiring to hear the Vendens sing together again. The Lansing audience was particularly glad to meet "my brother" to whom Elder M. L. Venden has referred so many times.

Educational secretary, D. V. Cowin made another trip to Onaway this week returning to Lansing by way of Detroit where he contacted various individuals regarding teaching positions for the coming year. He called at Calvin Center where they are studying the possibility of a church school and visited the colored Junior Camp for the Detroit area.

COLPORTEUR RALLY

THE anticipated week end of July 28-30 found almost all of Indiana's fifty colporteurs gathered at Indiana Academy. Elder W. A. Higgins opened the rally Friday evening by an inspirational sermon in which he told of the three types of people for whom colporteurs must search. Like the lost coin, many do not know they are lost, but still are precious; like the lost sheep, many know they are lost, but are helpless; many like the lost son, know they are lost, know the way back, but must be sought for.

Sabbath morning, Elder H. M. Blunden, General Conference Publishing Department secretary, spoke at the eight o'clock worship hour. Following an enjoyable Sabbath school, Elder Blunden, directing his message to the colporteurs in particular, told the fascinating story of the first printing press, how after eight years of experimenting and hard work the first book, being a Bible, was printed. Our own General Conference president is a living testimony to the good results of the seeds sown by the colporteurs as Elder McElhany is in the truth today as the result of "Daniel and Revelation" which was sold by a colporteur.

Sabbath afternoon C. H. Smith, Indiana publishing department secretary, conducted a lively program in which colporteurs gave individual experiences. We were glad to have with us for this meeting Elder and Mrs. S. E. Wight, Elder and Mrs. H. K. Halladay, and Brother and Sister C. B. Caldwell from the conference office. After a brief recess Elder Higgins enthusiastically told how one can be a self-winding colporteur.

As the Sabbath sun was slowly sinking in the west, in response to Elder Blunden's call, each colporteur stood and individually reconsecrated his life to better work for God. Elder Higgins closed the day with counsel on "what a canvas should do."

Sunday morning was spent in receiving good instruction from Elder Blunden, counsel from W. A. Petersen, Book and Bible House manager, and words of appreciation were expressed to Mrs. Kathryn Wohlers, the school matron, for the good meals and hospitality. After a tasty dinner the colporteurs enjoyed physical exercise in the form of active games, including baseball.

Special music numbers throughout the week end were rendered by Brother Baker and his colored quartette, Barbara Swen, Mary Ellen Minier, Gertrude Cunningham, Myrtle Ford, Jane Bigelow, Alice Pettiford, Madonna Petry, Jean and Virginia Closser. Forrest Skaggs, associate secretary, also assisted in the rally. MYRTLE FORD

MISSIONS EXTENSION

IF EVER there was a time that the people of God ought to support the increasing needs of our work, it is now. While much has been done in the mission lands, there is an equally large task yet to be accomplished. The needs of our mission work have been great in the past; the needs will be greater in the future.

Thirty-five projects have been selected, under the guidance of God, to benefit from the Missions Extension Offering. Every one of them is a pressing need and has been selected from hundreds of calls and requests as being the most urgent. War emergency relief for China; medical institutions for Inter-America; medical and educational work in old Persia and Bible lands; a girls' dormitory; and so the list goes.

You will receive from your missionary secretary a special issue of "Missions Extension News." Study this carefully. Plan for this special Missions Extension Offering on September 9. We must not be satisfied with present accomplishments. Let us press on and on as an advancing army, winning individuals and whole groups of people for Jesus Christ.

"GO TO SCHOOL"

"Go to School" is the urgent request directed to youth under eighteen by the country's leaders—civilian, military, and educational—who are aware of our nation-wide problems." To spread this message from coast to coast the United States Government has undertaken a nation-wide "Go to School" drive with the aim of enrolling every boy and girl of school age.

If the nation recognizes the importance of schooling just now, surely the church should be doubly anxious to see every Seventh-day Adventist boy and girl in one of our schools this fall. The schools of the church will open their doors to hundreds of boys and girls September 5. For your convenience we are listing the churches that will operate schools in Illinois this fall. Textbook lists and order blanks for school books have been mailed to the church missionary secretaries.

"To parents He sends the warning cry, Gather your children into your own houses; gather them away from those who are disregarding the commandments of God, who are teaching

At different camp meetings the young people were asked to name the worst temptations that they have to meet, and worldly association was one of the first three named. The youth realize that wrong association is dangerous to Christian experience.

TRUE EDUCATION

SISTER White has much to say about true education, which must mean that there is an education that is false. Note these two statements:

"True education means more than taking a course of study. It is broad. It includes the harmonious development of all the physical powers and the mental faculties. It teaches the love and fear of God, and is a preparation for the faithful discharge of life's duties." (C. O. L., p. 64.)

"True education is the preparation

Surely every parent should help plan the pattern of education for their children that will provide proper association. Yes, September 5 will soon be here. Pattern a Christian education. Think of church schools. Think of Broadview Academy, think of Emmanuel Missionary College. Think of eternity. ROLLIN A. NESMITH of the physical, mental, and moral powers for the performance of every duty; it is the training of body, mind, and soul for divine service. This is the education that will endure unto eternal life." (C. O. L., p. 330.)

It is the writer's opinion that the secular schools are doing the best job that they know how to do to educate the young people for life's needs and experiences. It has been the writer's privilege to be associated with many very fine public school teachers. They desire very much to help young people build good morals and a stable character. No group of people have felt the sting of failure so much as the hard-working teachers as they have seen the steady decline in morals, and a disposition to regard the better things of life as old-fashioned and relics of superstition and ignorance. How could it be otherwise? How can a human philosophy stand the stress of these

THE NATURAL SURROUNDINGS OF OUR COLLEGE

ABOUT forty years ago the present site of our college was chosen. Doubtless the committee gave careful study to such statements as, "Let our students be placed where nature can speak to the senses. . . . Let them be where they can look upon His wondrous works, and through nature behold her Creator." (F. E., p. 320.) "Schools should be established where there is as much as possible to be found in nature to delight the senses and give variety to the scenery."—Ibid. "The Lord would have the grounds about the school dedicated to Him as His own schoolroom," (Test., Vol. 6, p. 183.) . . . "so situated as to afford the pupils . . . access to the fields and woods." (Ed., p. 212.) Surely God honored their faith by guiding them to this particular spot. And His blessing has not failed since. The campus with its spacious and beautifully kept lawns, its flowers, and its great variety of stately trees speaks to the student times in which we live? Only a character built upon a foundation of truth will stand the storms of life.

"Those who give themselves to learn the way and will of God are receiving the highest education that it is possible for mortals to secure. They are building their experience not on the sophistries of the world but upon the principles that are eternal." (C. T., p. 36.)

Let us upon whom has shone the light regarding the advantages of a Christian education make the very best use of this privilege. L. N. HOLM of the Creator of the Garden of Eden. The fruitful fields and shady groves are a continual delight to the eye and a stimulus to the meditative mind.

A former superintendent of agriculture is authority for the statement that there are over one-hundred varieties of trees within walking distance of the college campus. The present instructor in biology has found some thirty varieties of fern on the college farm. There are now, by actual count over fifty kinds of birds living within ten minutes walk of the dormitories.

The upland fruit and vegetable fields, the lower farm grain fields, the dairy herd, the maple grove, the flats, the garden of Eden, the singing birds, and the martins circling above the campus are so many voices calling all to the study and contemplation of the works of God. Fortunate is the student who comes with the foundation for nature appreciation already laid; but if he have it not he will find a very contagious spirit of nature study at our E. M. C.

Within a radius of perhaps twenty miles there are unusual resources for the use of our biology classes. As the instructor remarked, "We have everything but a mountain,—dunes, lakes, rivers, bog-lakes, upland, lowland, swamps, a primeval forest or two, and an unusual assortment of trees, birds, and flowers, including seven kinds of wild orchids."

A visiting member of the faculty of a sister college remarked during a recent early morning walk that the site of this college more nearly met the specifications of the pattern than any other she had seen. We quite agree with her; and so will you if you come and make good use of your privileges of learning from God's other book.

Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole union, is our college on the banks of the St. Joseph, the citadel of Christian education. GRACE BUSH

NO "HERALD" AUGUST 22

It has been our policy for years to publish fifty issues of the "Herald" a year. We usually omit an issue the latter part of January and then another the latter part of August. It is our plan to issue no paper next week dated August 22. R.M.H.
