THE "WATCHMAN" MAGAZINE

IF the pages of the Watchman and Message magazines sent forth from the Southern Publishing Association this year were placed end to end, there would be a stream of light 7,000 miles long. That would take you nearly from San Francisco to Berlin, Germany. What a band of light! They went into hundreds of thousands of homes, some were read in foxholes, others in public libraries, in prisons, and in hospitals. In fact, they were read everywhere and in every sort of place. Some were read by the poor, who were thereby comforted. Many others were read in the homes of the very rich and influential. These souls learned of a better country, the capitol of which is the city whose builder and maker is God.

Most of the public libraries in the United States display the Watchman in their reading rooms. And many are the letters we receive from both librarians and appreciative readers. Subscriptions frequently come in from persons who became acquainted with the journal in a library reading room.

Many results of a thrilling nature have come to our notice. One lady wrote a post card containing the following request:

"I am sitting on a streetcar and looking over a lady's shoulder to read your Watchman. I see where to send for a sample copy. Am writing now lest the lady turn the page or leave the car. Please send sample copy."

One of the most insulting letters the writer ever received came from a person of note. The Lord helped in answering it. No apology was forthcoming, but a check ordering a list of Seventh-day Adventist books did come. This was tantamount to an apology, and even better, for the books may change the reader's life for all eternity.

By R. E. Crawford

The General Conference date for the Watchman magazine and the Message magazine promotion in the churches this year is October 21 to 28 inclusive. All our people will wish to procure a subscription for themselves and one for their interested friends. They will also wish to watch the unfolding of the program put forth in behalf of a most neglected group brought to our attention by the servant of God. Concerning these individuals she says: "These should be the first to hear the call." You will hear more about this matter from your local conference headquarters.

We suggest that the offering taken up in all the churches on October 21 be for the Watchman magazine library fund. Make it a large offering.

And let October 28 be devoted to getting a subscription into as many

The Land of Yesterday

Oh, the wonderful days of the long ago!
How we love to wander away
Where life's sunshine falls in mellow glow
On the distant paths that we used to know
In the Land of Yesterday.

Oh, the common things of the bygone years
Wear a halo of gold today;
Ah, friend, take heed! for 'tis swiftly done,
The hopes we cherished, our joys and fears—
In the Land of Yesterday.

Oh, days will come and days will go,
Time swiftly is fleeting away;
And the common round that we daily know
Will soon be a part of the long ago,
In the Land of Yesterday.

We gaze on them fondly, through smiles and tears—
Tomorrow soon is today;
And today will pass at set of sun
O'er the race that now is being run
To the Land of Yesterday.

Will mem'ry then hold a golden glow
O'er the things we do today?
Will smiles awake, or teardrops flow,
When we view the paths we used to know,
In the Land of Yesterday?

homes as possible. The yearly subscription price of either magazine to our people will be 60 cents until December 31.

THAT BETTER WORLD

Millions are fighting, working, and praying for a world with peace and prosperity. Peace may be won on the battlefield, but prosperity is a home problem, for in peace or war it centers around the health of the family.

Colds are as annoying, headaches as depressing, stomach disorders as distressing, pneumonia as dangerous, and medical expense as disastrous to financial security in times of peace as in wartime, so whatever the outcome of the war may be you will need help to protect your family's health.

Life and Health, through a long and successful experience of sixty years, has been giving the right kind of help for home health protection. Through years of war and peace, depression and prosperity, Life and Health has covered the health needs of the hour and will continue to do so in the months to come.

Life and Health circulation is fast outgrowing the paper supply. Subscriptions take precedence over single-copy or bulk sales. Those who enter their names now will have their copies of Life and Health regardless of sharply curtailed circulation, and will receive free a copy of the new 64-page book, "Skin Troubles and Their Treatment," dealing with common skin ailments such as skin blemishes, pimples, warts, birthmarks, eczema, athlete's foot, ringworm, boils, and barber's itch. This valuable book may be secured only as a premium with personal or gift subscriptions to Life and Health for five months for only 45 cents.

This offer is for new subscribers only, and all these subscriptions will be entered to begin with the January issue. Order from your Book and Bible House.

"I am passing through this life but once: any good thing therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow-being, let me do it now; let me not defer it or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."

NEWS NOTES

ELDER Lenheim visited Elder Scott's evangelistic service at the Austin Maccabee Temple, 5711 W. Chicago Avenue, Sunday night, October 1. There was a large attendance, and an offering of $50 was received. The audience listened attentively to the topic of the evening, "Peace for One Thousand Years," which Elder Scott presented in a clear and forceful manner. They also appreciated the 20-minute musical program by Mr. Pedro Espino Krause, an outstanding tenor soloist.

The conference executive committee met in Elder Lenheim's office on Tuesday, October 3, and were pleased to have Elder Nethery present.

Twenty-one more people were baptized by Elder Kibble the first Sunday of this month. Five of this number are from Brother J. Parker Lawrence's district, one from Evanston, and four from Morgan Park. The others came into the truth as a result of the effort this summer, and will join the Shiloh church.

Elder Alexander Pietrasz is spending a little time in Wisconsin, where he is holding a short series of meetings at Withee. A lay worker in that place reported quite an interest among the Polish people, and it was felt that they would appreciate some help from Elder Pietrasz. Brother P. M. Vixie spoke at our Polish church in Chicago last Sabbath.

Elders F. E. Thompson and Theodore E. Lucas were welcome visitors at the conference office last week.

A beautiful wedding took place in the Swedish Seventh-day Adventist Church on September 28, at 7:30, when Miss Svea Vernetta Nord, daughter of Elder and Mrs. G. E.

Nord, became the bride of Dr. George Morrice, Jr. The bride was attended by Mrs. Florence Nord and the Misses Vivian Granlund and Evelyn Anderson. Dr. Lloyd Grundset acted as best man, and the bride's father, Elder G. E. Nord, performed the ceremony. Robert Montgomery sang "Holy Spirit, Breath of Life," and "Because." The mailing address of the bridal couple will be the Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, Michigan.

THE VOICE OF PROPHECY

ON Sabbath, October 14, our churches are asked to give a liberal offering to support the radio work of the Voice of Prophecy. God has blessed this agency until it has grown to cover a good portion of the world with our advent message. This work surely needs your support. It is estimated that it will cost upwards of $700,000 to operate the Voice of Prophecy in 1945.

Listed below is an up-to-date Voice of Prophecy radio log, as we have it. All broadcasts listed are on Sunday.

CHICAGO BROADCAST

A FEW days ago we received word from station WCFL cancelling our Tuesday night "Heralds of Bible Prophecy" program. The matter was thoroughly investigated by our office as to the reasons which prompted this action.

We found, first, that radio stations allied with the national networks are entering into an agreement whereby they will not carry religious programs which are not sponsored by local churches. Inasmuch as we were not announcing our program as being sponsored by a local church or group of local churches, we were affected by this ruling.

Second, there has been a very strong demand made upon radio stations for political broadcasting time.

Third, there have been in operation in the nation certain "syndicated religious programs." These programs are of the coast to coast type, but are not affiliated with any denomination or church. They have made strong requests for money, which in turn led to an investigation of their work by the Better Business Bureau. This agency reports that these programs are taking very large sums, running into the billions of dollars, out of the pockets of the American people for religious work, of which the people themselves know very little. This brought about pressure on the networks to discontinue such programs unless they were locally identified. This has affected our Voice of Prophecy program. You can see by the new Voice of Prophecy log appearing in the HERALD, that the Chicago program is now heard on a different station at a new hour.

The future of our local broadcast is not too dark. We have the assurance that we will be on the air soon after election. The program will be heard on Sunday over station WCFL, 1000 kc., and will doubtless be announced and sponsored by the affiliation of Seventh-day Adventist churches. More information on this will appear later.

The fact that we are temporarily off the air does not in any way affect our Bible Correspondence Course. This phase of our work is growing by leaps and bounds, and will be continued in a strong way. Over 10,000 people have already requested this course. At the present time a large number of students are studying the Sabbath question. We solicit your prayers in their behalf.

CALLED FROM THE PLOW

"WE are nearing the close of earth's history. We have before us a great work—the closing work of giving the last warning message to a sinful world. There are men who will be taken from the plow, from the vineyard, from various other branches of work, and sent forth by the Lord to give this message to the world." — "Gospel Workers," p. 36. "And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. But ye shall be named priests of the Lord: men shall call you the ministers of our God: ye shall eat of the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves." Isaiah 61:5, 6. "Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage." Matthew 22:9.

The foregoing words of inspiration from the Spirit of prophecy and from the Bible are a definite call to those who are now engaged in farming in the rural sections of our great state to leave the plow, the flocks, and the herds and go as God's messengers. Out among the residents of the rural sections of Illinois are thousands of honest souls who are being sadly neglected. Many of our believers, both men and women, who now live on farms, could do an excellent work for God with our good books and periodicals which give the third angel's message for the world's uplift now.

The harvest season of 1944 will soon be over, and many of our farmer brethren will have many hours, days, and weeks which could profitably be used in scattering our message-filled books and papers. The farmers in Illinois have had a good year with good prices for their farm produce, and they are able to buy and pay cash for our good books. They are anxiously waiting for someone to bring them the truth. Will they have to wait in vain in your county? Often the writer has gone out and exchanged books for fruits, chickens, eggs, potatoes, and other valuable farm products, so that the people could have the message. One fall alone, we caught over five hundred chickens which we took in exchange for literature containing the third angel's message. You can do that too. Why not decide to do it this fall and winter?

The conference is planning two institutes this fall to train all who desire to learn how to do the colporteur work. We especially appeal to our farmer members to attend one of these institutes in Illinois and learn how to work for their neighbors. The first institute will be held at the Peoria Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1915 N. Jefferson Street, October 13-17, for the benefit of all our down-state members who wish to attend. The second meeting will be held at the Chicago South Side Church, 6040 Princeton Avenue, October 27-31, for the Chicago area and northern part of the state.

Why not plan now to attend one of these meetings? Just write your publishing department secretary or the Book and Bible House manager, Illinois Conference of S. D. A., Box 29, Brookfield, Illinois, and arrangements will be made to send you all information and help. Act now. Don't delay. Make your reservation at once.

ALTON INSTITUTE

THE last week end of September was devoted to a soul-winning institute in the Alton district. The keynote of all the services was sounded in the Friday night meeting with a consecration for greater service for God. Sabbath afternoon was devoted to a discussion of evangelism as it can be conducted by the Sabbath school, home missionary, and lay workers.

Saturday night's meeting was highlighted by pictures depicting living conditions in Latin America.

On Sunday night a meeting was held in the East St. Louis No. 1 church. This meeting was devoted to the responsibilities of lay workers.

The Sabbath school work in the Alton district is progressing very nicely. Several plans are in the making for lay work. There should be a large harvest of souls from this district.

ANOTHER RADIO STATION ADDED

THE Voice of Prophecy program is now being broadcast over another Michigan station, WKLA, 1450 kc., Ludington. The time is 8:30 each Sunday morning, Central War Time. It is therefore a live program rather than a transcription.

We urge our people in that section of the state to advertise this as widely as possible through the newspapers and the distribution of announcements. This is the very best kind of missionary work.

This gives Michigan thirteen stations over which the Voice of Prophecy program can be heard, besides ten or twelve from near-by states. There are also six local broadcasts by Michigan workers, and others will be added soon. Thus the symbolic angels of Revelation 14 are sending the message for these last days through "the midst of heaven" into every home where there is a radio. We can only exclaim, "What hath God wrought!"

NEWS NOTES

ABOUT 20 church school children from Cedar Lake, under the direction of their teacher, Miss Elvera Eckerman, visited the conference office and places of interest in Michigan's capital city, last Monday.

Last Sabbath morning Miss Edith Shepard joined Elder and Mrs. E. R. Potter at the Alma services and in the afternoon visited the Betz family near there where a home Sabbath school was organized. She later visited Sister John Brown, one of our isolated members in that vicinity. Sunday morning Miss Shepard conducted a counsel meeting with Sabbath school officers at Cedar Lake. She returned to Lansing accompanied by her new stenographer, Miss Doris Antor of Howard City.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Forquer were in Holly, on Sunday, attending the wedding service of Miss Faye Olmstead and Mr. Elwood Foote, with Elder N. R. Dower of Detroit officiating.

Elder D. W. Hunter was guest speaker for the Flint church district meeting of the W.C.T.U. last Wednesday and visited the Flint church school where Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Barger and Miss Verna Goodsite are conducting a very successful church school.

Last Friday evening an institute for beginning colporteurs began at the campground at Grand Ledge. Elder T. G. Bunch, president of the conference, spoke at the Friday evening and Sabbath morning services, the latter being held in the Grand Ledge church. Elder J. M. Jackson of the Review and Herald represented the General Conference, Elder W. A. Higgins the Lake Union and L. E. Abelson, E. H. Craig, and V. A. Pomeroy the Michigan Conference. Mrs. D. W. Hunter and Mrs. Blanche Ridenour are in charge of the culinary department. About 35 are in attendance.

Educational secretary D. V. Cowin was guest speaker at Covert on the Sabbath while Elder R. H. Wentland of the home missionary department spoke at Hillsdale.

Elder T. G. Bunch attended a union committee meeting in Chicago last Monday afternoon and on Tuesday joined in the constituency meeting at the Shiloh church.

Elder C. M. Mellor recently baptized 10 in his district, some uniting at Port Huron and some at Marlette. Elder E. L. Pingenot reports 13 baptisms, of persons joining at the Tabernacle, Hastings, and West LeRoy.

AN IMPORTANT OFFERING

ON Sabbath, October 14, an offering will be taken in all our churches to help finance the Voice of Prophecy radio program. This broadcast is now being heard over 450 stations, 100 of which are in Central and South America. Thus the message is being heralded through "the midst of heaven" to practically all of the Western Hemisphere. A program has been sent to each church giving full information regarding the work and ever increasing fruitage of this work.

The Voice of Prophecy program is now being broadcast over 13 Michigan stations, three new ones having been added during the last few weeks. The program can also be heard over several stations from near-by states. The state now has almost complete coverage. There are 13,000 taking the Correspondence Course. Last year this annual offering amounted to $3,823.74 for the Michigan Conference. This year it should be at least $5,000.

EVANGELISM AT HOLLAND

Just a little over two years ago it was our privilege to locate in Holland and help the fine folks of the district as best we could in our small way. Splendid cooperation was given during the entire time, and we believe progress has been made. The Holland church first raised over $1000 for repairs and redecoration of the entire church. In addition, a nursery with speaker system, a new pulpit made by one of the church's fine cabinetmakers, and an improvement in the ventilating system were other new features.

Public evangelism was limited to Sunday evening services in the church, but a fine interest was shown from the first meeting. Four baptisms were held in which twenty united their hearts to Jesus. There still remains a fine interest in the message in that good city and we believe that there will be others who will take their stand before long.

Three very successful Ingathering campaigns were conducted in which time the amount raised by the Holland church was increased by two and a half times that of the first year.

The Bauer church has shown a substantial increase in membership, and has recently painted the exterior of their modest church. The Douglas church has been raising a fund to pay for the re-siding of their church. They are hopeful of having the work completed this fall.

A great loss, however, has been felt in the Holland church due to the passing of a number of stalwart members, among whom was Brother Bert Smith who for many years has served the church untiringly as church elder. New leadership is developing though, and the members are determined to be even more faithful in their labor of love.

At this writing Mrs. Calkins and I are in Wisconsin in our new field of evangelistic work. We hope that all of our dear friends in Michigan will continue to pray for our work as you did while we were with you. May the Lord bless and keep you.

EVERETT D. CALKINS

EVANGELISM IN THE UPPER PENINSULA

BEGINNING Sunday morning, October 1, the Voice of Prophecy radio programs will be broadcast over two new stations in the Upper Peninsula, WDBC in Escanaba, 1490 kc., and WDMJ in Marquette, 1340 kc. These programs will be heard each Sunday morning at 8:30 E.W.T. Starting with the same date, Station WHDF in Calumet, 1400 kc. will change the time of the broadcast from 10:00 to 8:30 A.M. These will all be live broadcasts direct from Los Angeles rather than transcriptions.

This gives the Upper Peninsula a fine radio coverage of six stations for the Voice of Prophecy besides three local radio broadcasts conducted by our conference workers. Thus the message has been brought within reach of practically every family in that section of Michigan and the results of such universal seed-sowing should in time produce a big harvest, for "as a man soweth, so shall he also reap," in quantity as well as quality.

Three new workers have been added to the Upper Michigan staff making seven in all. There are about 450 members divided into 12 churches and three companies. Four evangelistic efforts have been planned for this fall and winter. We rejoice to see this new day for the work in this needy and fruitful field and solicit the prayers of all our people that through radio, public, literature and others lines of evangelism the cause of present truth may be greatly strengthened and the membership materially increased.

AFTER 100 YEARS

FIFTY-EIGHT vivid illustrations are scattered through this newest of Crisis books to make it alive with the progress of Seventh-day Adventism from 1844 to our present day.

Elder W. A. Spicer, with his wealth of experience has spared no pains to make this booklet one you will want to cherish among your best loved books.

From the thickly populated continents, to the remotest isles of the sea is portrayed the glorious onward march of the everlasting gospel.

On page 52 of this enlightening book, Elder Spicer has an artist-portrayed picture of the departure of our first missionary, Elder J. N. Andrews, his son and daughter. If these valiant souls could know the extent of our present endeavors, their hearts would be thrilled. In the foreword of this Crisis book is found these words, quoted from a Sunday edition of the Washington Post newspaper, in which a journalist describes the work of Seventh-day Adventists: "Washington has two institutions that cover with their enterprises, the entire world to its remotest sections. Everybody knows about the Department of State and its affairs with every nation. Comparatively few people, however, realize that Washington has another institution (the headquarters of the Seventh-day Adventists) that is just as international. In fact, this institution does not confine its activities to the 'beaten paths,' but has representatives in the little specks of islands that dot the seven seas."

Know the progress of your denomination by purchasing and reading "After 100 Years." Order your supply through the Wisconsin Book and Bible House. L. G. WARTZOK

NEW ACADEMY NEWS

ROBERT McCHESNEY and family have arrived at Columbus. Until a few days ago these young people were connected with Emmanuel Missionary College. Their original home was Bethel. Brother McChesney is an experienced herdsman and will have charge of the dairy.

Fall plowing has begun. Ennis Moore has joined the farm staff and it is thrilling to see him turn over the rich soil, on our new farm, with the new tractor and plow.

The main barns will house about 75 head of Mr. Evans' prize heifers this fall and winter. Arrangements have been made for Brother Wohlers and his helpers to care for them. Our own growing herd will be cared for in the Johnson and Smith barns.

Brother J. Riffel, head of the engineering department of Emmanuel Missionary College, recently visited the school farm to discuss with Elder Unruh the remodeling of the Evans' farm house to provide apartments for two families.

All young stock now at the Bethel Academy will soon be transferred to the new farms where they can be better cared for. The Bethel herd is larger than the barns can accommodate.

The architect for the new school has been selected. The contour map of the building site was completed some weeks ago by Brother C. W. Chapman. Work has started on the master plan of the new school.

Do you ask: "How can I support the New Academy Project?" Here is the answer:

1. Do your full share in raising the $150,000 fund now being raised.
2. Do you have a good piece of farm machinery the school can use? Make it a gift to the institution. Hand tools are also needed: A good truck would be a welcome gift.
3. Several good carpenters are needed immediately. Can you give a week of work—it will be appreciated.

Those planning to make contributions of any kind should write to the conference president.

NEWS NOTES

THE Calkins Brothers' "Crusade for Christ" evangelistic campaign opened in the city of Wausau on September 24. The meeting was well attended. This effort is being held in the beautiful Marathon County Youth Auditorium, located in the city park. Elder and Mrs. T. E. Unruh, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Burchfield, and Miss Ranghild Burling from Madison attended the opening service. Miss Burling and Mrs. Burchfield rendered special music. The Calkins Brothers are broadcasting twice a week over station WSAU, 1400 kc., on Mondays and Tuesdays at 4:45-5:00 P.M.

Elder Unruh attended the Union Committee meetings and the constituency meeting of the colored churches recently held in Chicago. A colored conference was organized. Brother W. J. Kisack, pastor of the Sharon Chapel in Milwaukee, was selected as the M. V. secretary and educational superintendent of the new conference.

Elder C. M. Bee opened his Sunday night series of meetings in the Appleton church on September 24. An interest in the message has developed in this city through the faithful efforts of Brother Guy Jordan who is one of our colporteurs. It is expected that a real harvest of souls will result from the effort just opened.

We were glad to see Brother Carl Wessman, our assistant field secretary, in the office last week. With him came Brother Clarence Benedict who has again entered the colporteur ranks.

On Sabbath afternoon of September 30, Brother Leonard Wartzok and Brother R. G. Burchfield visited the Evansville church and presented the New Academy Project. A hearty response was manifested by the members present which was indicated by the pledges they gave for the building of our new school.

A deep interest in the New Academy Project was manifested by the members of the Oakland church when, in response to Elder Unruh's appeal, they contributed $2,200 to this enterprise on September 23. The number present at this meeting were 41 including the children. Mrs. Unruh and Brother and Sister Burchfield accompanied Brother Unruh to Oakland. Elder Unruh also reports that during the last two weeks Janesville, Beloit, and Oxford have made generous contributions to the New Academy Fund.

Elder Meier sends word to the office that La Crosse is determined to do more than its full share toward the building of the new school. Similar word comes from Elder Dunn about the efforts of the believers at Sturgeon Bay and Fish Creek.

It was a happy occasion last Thursday afternoon to welcome to the conference office Elders T. E. Lucas and F. E. Thompson. They were on a tour visiting the army camps to contact our Adventist boys.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ludwig have found a house in Menomonie so the headquarters for district 3 for the time being will be this beautiful little city. Plans are being made for Brother Ludwig to hold an effort in Menomonie this winter. At the same time the way will be prepared for a large city effort in Eau Claire in the near future.

Elder G. F. Ruf spent the week end of September 23 with the Milton Junction church. He remained until Sunday night when he spoke to the Home and School Association. The following week Elder Ruf joined Brother Clark in a visit to a number of the churches in district 8. Mrs. Ruf and the two younger children have gone to Canada to visit with her parents.

Dr. Teeters of Ohio was a recent visitor to the conference office. He also visited our church center in Milwaukee.

Word has just come to the office that Elder and Mrs. H. E. McClure and Betty Jean will sail for South America on October 15. They will be sailing from New Orleans. Friends desiring to send them farewell messages may address them in care of Jung Hotel, New Orleans, Louisiana.

NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN

THE American Bible Society is putting on a nation-wide campaign for daily reading of the scriptures, covering the period from Thanksgiving to Christmas. The General Conference has promised that we Adventists will contact a half million homes in cooperation with the American Bible Society. The church will receive detailed instruction from the local conference home missionary secretary explaining how this should be done.

SEVENTY-FIRST REGISTRATION

With the opening of the 71st College Session well under way, nearly six hundred students are registered in Emmanuel Missionary College for academy and college work. Housing on the campus is taxed to its capacity, and a few students were obliged to seek rooms in the surrounding community. The ratio of young women to young men is about three to two.

Freshman Week held much of novelty and interest for the new students. A routine series of tests in several fields of study were given on Monday. Matriculation was begun for freshmen on Tuesday, the upperclassmen having registered the day before. A social reception was given to the new students on Tuesday evening on White Beaver Point by the Student Association. Cantaloupe and ice cream was served free in the traditional manner. A formal assembly was held in the chapel on Wednesday night with music, speeches, and pictures about

A leaflet urging Bible reading will be given out in the calls made, and the General Conference is printing choice selections from the chapter, "A Knowledge of God," in "Steps to Christ."

It is hoped that our members will contact their friends and neighbors placing these two little leaflets in their hands and urging them to study the Bible regularly. Let us cooperate in this wonderful effort of endeavoring to lift the spiritual and moral life of our communities. HENRY F. BROWN the E. M. C. campus as features.

The annual faculty-student reception and hand-shake was held on Saturday night of registration week. Exchange of greetings was made between representatives of the old students and new students. A special feature of this program this year was that the entire talent of the program was chosen from among students at the college for the first time. Miss Effie Potts of Detroit, Miss Mary Elizabeth Peterson of Battle Creek, Roy Smith and Walter Waltert of Broadview, and Miss Lorena Hymes of Atlantic Union College contributed their services to the delight of the program.

For several days the College Health Service has been making its annual health check-up on students and teachers. This valuable free service with the permanent records of the examination is given to students as a precaution against overlooking the student with either too much classwork or too much industrial labor. It also is a precaution against danger of unsuspected communicable disease.

Enthusiastic response is being given the Building Campaign by the Student Association. At a recent chapel service promotion of the effort of this year was launched with a most encouraging report of funds collected to date. Some students have already exceeded their personal goal, and hope is entertained that the quota for the half-way mark will be reached by the end of the calendar year.

President A. W. Johnson attended conference meetings in Chicago last week and assisted in the inspection of one of the colleges of the North Central Association.

Four E.M.C. students won awards in the Signs of the Times Talent Search project conducted last year. Jeanne Wagner, Kathryn Barnett, and Lucille Alcorn won second prizes, and Mrs. Vyrbelle Thompson a third prize. Their articles will appear in forthcoming issues of the Signs.

Inquiries have been coming in as to the publication of the 1944 Cardinal, which was delayed in meeting the schedule of its promised appearance at commencement time. Word has now come from the College Press that this anniversary issue will be ready for distribution in a few days.

Dr. W. I. Smith, dean of the college, gave an inspiring chapel address on one of the opening days on the topic: "The Seven Criteria of Christian Education."

The wedding of Miss Fern Wagner to Mr. Harold Calkins was solemnized in the College auditorium on September 17, preceding registration. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, Elder B. E. Wagner, formerly field missionary secretary of the Union Conference, who also performed the ceremony. The bridal pair are graduates of the college in the classes of 1944 and 1943 respectively. Mr. Calkins is engaged in evangelistic work in Illinois.
