Do Protestants Actually Reject Tradition?

MANY boastful statements have appeared from the pen of Roman Catholic writers during the changing centuries regarding the place and prestige of the Catholic Church. These writers have not been modest in setting forth the part the Roman Catholic Church has played in channeling the religious thought that has been flowing to the world for the last two thousand years. They quote freely the leadership the Roman Catholic Church has taken in the world.

Tradition has an important place in the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church, while Protestants claim that their faith is based on the Bible and the Bible only. In an article appearing in "Our Sunday Visitor," the Popular National Catholic Action Weekly, printed in Huntington, Indiana June 11, 1950, the charge is that Protestants "do accept tradition." To prove this the writer says:

"There is no place in the New Testament where it is distinctly stated that Christ changed the day of worship from Saturday to Sunday. Yet all protestants, except the Seventh-day Adventists, observe the Sunday. The Catholic Church, going back to the days of the Apostles, made that change because it was necessary to emphasize the fact that the Old Testament had come to an end; and the further fact that our Divine Saviour chose Sunday for His Resurrection, and for the sending of the Holy Ghost into the Church as its life principle. Protestants follow Tradition in observing the Sunday."

The Catholic Church singles out the Seventh-day Adventists as the only church that does not follow their leadership in keeping Sunday as the Sabbath. This Catholic writer emphatically states that in no place in the New Testament did Christ "change the day of worship from Saturday to Sunday." We knew that all the time, but we are glad to hear the Catholics admit it.

This Catholic writer gives Tradition as the authority for Sunday observance. "Protestants follow Tradition in observing the Sunday." Since Sunday observance is not enjoined in the Scriptures, it stands to reason that authority for its observance must come from some other source.

In the same article the writer says: "The founders of the Anglican and Lutheran and Calvinistic churches accepted the decrees of the first six or seven Councils of the early Church. That means that they accepted those which took place from the fourth until the seventh century.

"Those decrees were accepted, therefore, not from the Bible, but from Tradition.

"The ritual of the Anglican Church was built up from that of the Catholic Church, which means that it bases its ritual on the long Tradition followed by the universal Church for centuries."

While we are not ready to accept as truth everything that Catholic writers propound, yet we believe their statements when they say that the change of the Sabbath from Saturday to Sunday was made by the Catholic Church. There is no other explanation for the change. Certainly Sunday observance is not based upon Scripture, but Tradition.

In the same, "Our Sunday Visitor" we quote from an editorial:

"The Catholic Church is radically opposed to secularism. It is equally radically committed to the observance of the Ten Commandments. It does not want nominal members, but every Sunday church attendants—not as a matter of form, but for the observance of God's own law 'Remember thou keep holy the Sabbath Day.'" The Catholic Church wants "Sunday church attendants" and at the same time those who observe "God's own law." This is impossible. She may get "Sunday church attendants," but they will not be those that keep "God's own law."

Those who are "committed to the observance of the Ten Commandments" as found in the Holy Scriptures will keep the seventh day Sabbath. This is the only day ever set aside by God as a Sabbath day. "But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God." Ex. 20:10.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Michigan Conference---10th Session Grand Ledge, Michigan August 15, 1951

"The church is God's appointed agency for the salvation of man." It is our obligation as servants in His church to make His name and His truth a praise and an honor in the world. That was the burden of our pioneers who organized this field into a conference in 1861, just ninety years ago. One supreme purpose has abided with this people through all these years—that of preparing men and women for the kingdom of heaven. We have a precious heritage. Let us thank God for the faithfulness and the vision of our predecessors. Let us also thank Him for the loyalty that abides in the hearts of our people today toward the great objectives of the Advent Message. Let us stand in our lot when God writeth up His people and bear testimony with the apostle Paul, "I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision."

The world vision of the early Advent Movement was unique. We must never lose sight of it. "We are debtors to all men," says the apostle Paul, and I would like to say for us, we are debtors first to Michigan and then to all the world. We are to tell the story of the love of Jesus for all mankind, His provision for our salvation, and of His soon coming to save His people. It is our aim that every activity in the Conference be directed toward the winning of souls to Christ. We must welcome every contributing influence that leads to that end.

Two years have passed since our last business session. It is now our privilege to review the special events of that period. Many public efforts have been held. Radio broadcasts have continued from various points in the state and have covered wide areas. The Bible Correspondence School has more than doubled its enrollments. Literature has been widely distributed. Children and young people have been won to Christ through the influence of our schools and junior camping programs. The faithful efforts of our conference workers, the fine spirit and co-operation of local church officers and members have been richly blessed of the Lord. Advancement of His work is evident all along the line. We are amazed and our hearts are filled with gratitude to our Lord and Saviour who has sent these blessings to us and made it possible for us to benefit by these advancements. The growth in membership, the increase in tithes and offerings, the acquiring of buildings and property must be credited to the united efforts of all in the service of our God.

Baptisms Number 1404

One thousand four hundred four were baptized and taken in on profession of faith in these years of 1949 and 1950. During the previous two-year period we had 1449—45 more—which included the Shuler effort of 175 baptisms and the Williamson effort which followed with 100 baptisms. Losses of membership for various reasons have made the net increase in membership seem small. In the Lake Union Report for the year 1950 it is pointed out that there was a net increase for the Union of 393. Michigan was responsible for 313 of that 393, which gives us encouragement by way of comparison, but we wish it had been many times that number. We must pray for more power to win souls. Evangelism, page 442, says, "There are many souls yearning unutterably for light, for assurance and strength beyond what they have been able to grasp. They need to be sought out and labored for patiently, perseveringly. Beseech the Lord in fervent prayer for help. Present Jesus because you know Him as your personal Saviour. Let His melting love. His rich grace, flow forth from human lips. You need not present doctrinal points unless questioned. But take the Word, and with tender, yearning love for souls, show them the precious righteousness of Christ, to whom you and they must come to be saved." And may there be united prayers as plans are being made for strong evangelistic programs in all of our districts and churches. The precious promise of Jesus, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world," is our encouragement.

The departments of our conference contribute direction and inspiration to varied denominational activities. The great challenge that comes to us as a church in every phase of our work is for soul-winning evangelism. Elder M. F. Grau will report for our 151 Sabbath schools. Although our conference membership, with 12,522 at the end of 1950, stands forth among the conferences in the North American Division, our Sabbath School Department membership stands first. The Home Missionary Department, directed by Elder S. M. McCormick, sponsors Dorcas work and lay workers' activities, along with labor relations, the Bible School, and other interests of our church people. O. A. Botmer will report for the Publishing work and the large army of colporteur evangelists covering the field with our books and magazines. L. G. Wartok, manager of the Book and Bible House, will report the details of that department. Elder H. R. Nelson will report for the elementary school program in the Michigan Conference. Junior camping for this year has just been completed with some fine records and Elder Fred Beavon will tell us about the work of the Missionary Volunteer Department and Camp Au Sable. Dr. R. W. Spalding will give us some important information on the progress of our medical missionary work in Michigan. We are indeed fortunate to have a fine representation of men established in the medical and dental professions. We are happy to welcome new recruits. These men in self-supporting missionary work are doing untold good for our cause. The Press Bureau and the Commission on Rural Living are new departments among us. Elder E. R. Potter will report for these.

Academies Make Outstanding Records

Both of our Conference operated academies, Adelpian and Cedar Lake, have made outstanding records. Elders V. E. Garber and R. O. Stone will tell us about these fine schools in more detail.

E. F. Willett will give a complete report for the Treasury Department. I would like to cite these figures from his records.

Our tithe for these two years is as follows:
1949$1,066,543.58
19501,151,784.13

Total for the two years$2,218,327.71
This compares with:

1947$ 941,957.64
19481,040,769.01

And a total for the 2 years..$1,982,726.65

This means a gain for 1949 and 1950 over 1947 and 1948 of $235,601.06.

The Ingathering increase has been as follows:

1947$ 84,121.17
1948107,405.00
1949135,474.16
1950141,823.07
1951169,349.76

We have been richly blessed financially. This has made possible heavy appropriations for projects at both of our Conference operated academies, Adelpian and Cedar Lake, as well as Battle Creek Academy, our College, Camp Au Sable, Grand Ledge Campground, and numerous church and church-school building programs.

New church buildings, new school buildings, additions to our academies and improvements at our youth camp contribute to the saving of souls and to the holding of our members. A good church home is a contributing influence to a strong spiritual congregation. Counsel has been given to the church on the need for suitable houses of worship for our congregations. "When an interest is aroused in any town or city that interest should be followed up. The place should be thoroughly worked until a humble house of worship stands as a sign, a memorial, of God's Sabbath, a light amid the moral darkness. These memorials are to stand in many places as witnesses to the truth." GW 433. "I saw workmen building humble houses of worship. Those newly come to the faith were helping with willing hands and those who had means were assisting with their means. . . . A school room was prepared for the children and a teacher was sent there to take charge. The numbers in the school were not large, but it was a happy beginning." GW 435.

ployed to take these places and to add to our working force in the field and in our schools here. Twenty-one young men have been ordained to the ministry during the past four years and five more will be added to this list during this session.

The Michigan Conference carries a large staff of employees. We are thankful for the outstanding faithful service they are giving to the cause. Our workers travel thousands of miles in their work and we are grateful to God that no serious accidents have befallen any of them. With regret we report the death of Sister R. U. Garrett who passed away recently after a lingering illness.

God has richly blessed the Michigan Conference during the ninety years of its organized activities. No doubt many times His servants have come short of what might have been accomplished, but God has been gracious to His people and has caused His work to prosper. We of this day have been made custodians of what has been attained by the faithful efforts of our predecessors. Let us be faithful to our trust and carry on from here as God may give us wisdom for our great task of evangelizing Michigan. "We have nothing to fear for the future except as we shall forget the way the Lord has led us." TM 31.

God of our fathers, known of old—
Lord of our far-flung battle-line—
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine—
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

The tumult and the shouting dies—
The captains and the kings depart—
Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

Busy in the Good of Others

CLARA VENDEN

Colporteur

Evangelist

Allegan,

Michigan

"As THEY WORK FOR OTHERS—the Testimonies they bear will not be dark and gloomy, but full of joy and courage." C. E., 39.

Sister Clara Venden of Allegan, Michigan, has had a number of disappointing experiences during her lifetime, but I have failed to ever see her when she was not full of joy and courage. I believe the reason is because she is usually busy working for the good of others.

In her several years of service as a Bible Instructor and Colporteur Evangelist, the Lord has blessed her with over forty souls to her credit.

When you accepted Jesus as your personal Saviour I can imagine your experience has been somewhat the same as mine. You wondered why it was that you did not accept Him before.

Dear Christian friend if you take up the literature ministry, you will say to yourself again and again, "why did I not get into this work before?"

Many in the world today have a dark and gloomy outlook on life. They need to know what you know about Jesus and His soon coming.

There is a wonderful promise found in C. E. 34. "As the Father loves the Son, so the Son loves those that are His, those who work as He worked to save perishing souls."

Let us get in touch with you. The address is Publishing Dept., Box 900, Lansing, Michigan. O. A. BOTIMER

Adelphian Academy News

• THE opening enrollment of Adelphian Academy is 245. Of this number only 24 are resident students. Both dormitories are full, and the facilities of the school are taxed to capacity.

Eighteen were signed up for the Bible correspondence course and several requested Bible studies. The young people are following up the interest.

• The winners of the Booster Club are the juniors. They will leave Saturday night on a trip to Niagara Falls, which is the reward for their achievement in obtaining the largest number of students to enroll at Adelphian this fall. Good work, Juniors!

• The first two week ends in October will find the students camping at Au Sable—the girls going on the 5th and the boys on the 12th. V. E. GARBER

Book News

• It has been some time since we have had the opportunity to chat with you through the columns of the LAKE UNION HERALD. In fact, the last time we had any note in here about new books was before camp meeting. What wonderful meetings we had this year. We are sure that they still linger in our memory and still affect our lives. At the Book and Bible House we had one of the busiest and best years that we ever have had, due to your most kind and earnest patronage. For your information and interest our camp-meeting sales were $20,128.79. We thank the Lord that that amount of our good literature went not only into your homes, but we know much of it was purchased for missionary work, the results of which we shall see in the kingdom of heaven. We wish to thank each one of you who visited the Book and Bible House, as well as those who did not have the opportunity to attend, but sent your orders by mail. However, the mail orders are not included in the above figure.

• Speaking of new books, we wish to call your attention to an advertisement appearing on page 21 of the September 27 issue of the Review and Herald. There you will note an announcement of the new Morning Watch book for 1952, which we understand is now ready. The title of this new book is IN THE MORNING. A very fitting title, isn't it? The author is Elder W. B. Ochs, President of the North American Division, whom many of you know personally, and others will remember his excellent counsel given especially at the camp meetings. This book should be in your home to be read at your family altar. If you haven't established the family altar in your home resolve to do so beginning with 1952, or right now for that matter. It will give you much strength, courage and spiritual uplift for the day.

• Especially for those who do not have the September 27 issue of the Review and Herald allow me to quote a paragraph from the advertisement:

"The seed thought for each day bears upon some practical aspect of a life with God and spiritual harmony with heaven. An occasional anecdote, a telling bit of verse, a quotation from the Spirit of prophecy, an incident from history or literature, and the gospel precepts they illustrate take on new life and meaning for the march of days. Every eventide will be bright if you meet God here each day IN THE MORNING. Order a copy of this new book of three-minute messages for your personal use and give other copies to your friends."

You may use the order blank found at the bottom of the advertisement. Those who are not now receiving the Review and Herald may send your order either direct to us or through your Missionary Secretary of your church. If you choose the cloth binding the price will only be $1.25 or in the deluxe binding $2. It is well to avoid the rush, get your orders in early. MICHIGAN BOOK AND BIBLE HOUSE cause of broken cables between the studio and the radio towers, there were no scheduled broadcasts from WDSM on Sunday morning. When a defeated announcer "gloomed" the news the writer replied, "We will be on the air at ten o'clock." He said, "You are certainly optimistic." The writer answered, "You just wait and see." We went into the studio, petitioned the Lord for help, and in five minutes WDSM was on the air. The very minute that the broadcast ended, the cables fouled and the station was disconnected again.

Along with Adventist mail response, there was wide-spread response throughout the entire district, and from Minnesota, from non-Adventists. Two listeners wrote from over one hundred miles away.

On Sunday night, September 30, after the third broadcast, "Truth for Today" will hold its first public lecture of the season in the church. The subject will be, "God's Future for the United States and Russia." Your prayers are solicited for these joint soul-winning ventures. All our people who have relatives living in or around Superior are urged to send their names and addresses to us.

Evangelism in Racine

GOD's cause in District 20 is steadily moving forward. During the month of September four more members were added to the growing constituency of the Racine church. These precious souls publicly made manifest by baptism their desire to surrender all to Jesus and to follow Him. Three more will be baptized in another month.

In October the third angel's message will also be given wings to soar over the ether waves. Every Sunday morning for fifteen minutes God's last warning message will be preached over radio station WRAC in Racine. The broadcast will also advertise the Sunday night evangelistic meetings to be held in the city's civic auditorium and offer the 20th Century Correspondence Course.

The Racine church is still re-decorating and improving its structure, and in the past few weeks this sanctuary has been filled for Sabbath services. We ask an interest in your prayers that God's light will soon penetrate every dark corner of this third largest city in Wisconsin.

Overflow at Wisconsin Academy

It is a pleasure to inform you that Wisconsin Academy is filled and running over with students. Our present enrollment is 183. This is the largest in the school's history. It is quite evident that God is impressing more and more young people to receive a Christian education. We have been told over and over in the Spirit of Prophecy that the young people are going to finish the work, and it is comforting to see His spirit at work marshaling young people from all parts of our state.

The boys' section of the girls' dormitory is full, the boys' annex is full, the guest rooms are full of girls, and two teachers' apartments are filled with girls. It is apparent more than ever that we are in need of a new boys' dormitory. You may be interested to know that if the boys' dormitory were ready now for occupancy so that we could transfer the boys from the girls' dormitory and also remove the administrative offices and classrooms from the girls' dormitory leaving it 100 per cent for girls we would still have 17 or 18 rooms with three girls in a room. If the boys were moved into their new dormitory, that dormitory would be filled and it would be necessary to put three students in many rooms. We are thankful that God has sent these young people to us and we rejoice in our crowded conditions but it might be the sign that we should rise up at once and build this school for the salvation of these wonderful young people.

It is necessary for us to add several new faculty members. The Wisconsin Academy Board has authorized the management to secure help in the Bible and History Departments and also help in our Music Department. Elder W. B. Votaw who has spent the last 24 years in India is to join our Bible Department.

Our Book Bindery has finished a record season. The crops on the farm appear to be progressing well toward an abundant harvest.

It is our sincere prayer that God will continue to bless Wisconsin Academy for the sake of the youth and that He will also prosper the people of Wisconsin so that the new boys' dormitory can be built on schedule without debt.

Please do not hesitate to come in and visit the school whenever you are in the vicinity of Columbus.

GOD'S TENTH

"HAVE your land and improvements been tithed? If you already have paid tithe on the money with which the land was purchased, then it is proper to consider the land as tithed. If the money with which the farmer purchased the land and bought the improvements has not been tithed, then the farmer still owes to the Lord one tenth of their value. If he wishes to retain the Lord's portion of the farm, the entire farm should be carefully appraised, and a tithe of the total value should be paid into the treasury of the Lord."—God and I Are Partners, pp. 63-64.

ACROSS THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

- WHEN these lines are being read, two new evangelistic meetings will be under way in the city of Chicago. Elder C. B. Miller, assisted by Brethren Link and Spencer, launched a series of meetings in the Ravenswood Masonic Temple on the North Side. There are many interested people in North Chicago, including those who attended the Shubert Theatre meetings last winter, and a large number who are enrolled in the Bible Correspondence School. There is already a fine group preparing for baptism before the close of the year.
- On Chicago's west side, within a short distance of the West Central church, Elder C. Ray Kinney has opened a series of evangelistic meetings in the Austin Masonic Temple, assisted by Miss Willietta Weller and Professor and Mrs. Adrian Lauritzen and the West Central choir. There has been a fine interest developing on Chicago's West Side, and the prospects are that this series of meetings will be well attended. Elder Kinney reports that two baptisms are planned before the close of the year.
- We are happy that Elder Whitsett is returning to Chicago for three lectures this month. He will lecture in the Ravenswood Masonic Temple, 4605 N. Paulina, on Sunday nights, October 7, 14 and 21.
- It was with a tinge of sadness that the West Central church bade farewell to Miss Jody Ketterman last week. Miss Ketterman has been a very successful Bible Instructor in Chicago for the past ten years, having served most of that time with the West Central church. She recently responded to an invitation to connect with the East Pennsylvania Conference, where she will continue her service as a Bible Instructor.

LADIES OF CHICAGO AREA FEDERATION

PLEASE notice the change in the date of the meeting—instead of Thursday, October 11, the Federation will be held on Wednesday, October 17, at the North Shore church, Sunnyside and Hermitage Avenues. A very fine program is being arranged. There will be election of officers at this meeting. PLAN TO BE IN ATTENDANCE. A hot drink and cake will be furnished by the ladies of the North Shore Society. We will be looking for Y-O-U!

MRS. H. KLEIST

• Miss Willietta Weller, of the Kansas Conference, has accepted an invitation to connect with the Illinois Conference as Bible Instructor, and will be associated with Elder Kinney in the West Central church. We are happy to welcome Miss Weller to our staff of workers.

• Many changes have taken place in the Illinois staff of workers the past few months. Workers leave us and new workers come to fill the vacancies. It was with reluctance that we said goodbye to Elder Schaeffler and his family, as they headed west to connect with the Southern California Conference. Elder Schaeffler has been the pastor of the German church in Chicago.

• We have been happy to welcome recently, two new young women to our Conference office staff. Miss Connie Harvey, of Hinsdale, is working in the Missionary Volunteer and Educational departments. Miss Johanna Zwemer, a graduate in secretarial training at Emmanuel Missionary College last spring, is working in the Home Missionary and Sabbath School Departments.

• The FAITH FOR OUR DAY radio program is on the air after a summer's interlude. The new time is 2:00 P.M., Sunday afternoons, over Station WENR. J. L. McCONAUGHEY.

Introducing the New Treasurer

SEVERAL weeks ago an announcement was made that Brother J. B. Frank, who has served this Conference as treasurer for the past four years, had accepted an invitation to fill the same position in the Indiana Conference.

Recently the Conference Executive Committee elected Elton Dessain as the Treasurer for Illinois. He has arrived and taken over his duties in the Conference office.

Brother Dessain is an experienced Treasurer, a good businessman, a safe counsellor and a very friendly, Christian gentleman. We are happy to welcome him to the official staff of the Illinois Conference.

All correspondence intended for the Treasurer's office should now be addressed to Mr. Elton Dessain. J. L. McCONAUGHEY

INDIANA BUDDIES' EXCHANGE

THE Buddies' Exchange is growing steadily, and men in service greatly appreciate receiving these exchange letters. Many interesting experiences come to the office, and we want to share one with you this week from Pfc. Jim Bradburn of Indianapolis. Jim has been at Ft. Sam Houston, Texas for some months now. He writes the following, in a recent letter: "I am no longer an instructor in Hospital Procedures Training Area. Everything was going smoothly enough until one Friday afternoon they called me and told me there was going to be an important meeting Sabbath morning and they wanted me to be there. Then there was another Adventist fellow who gave in and went, and they told me he was going to be there. Another S.D.A. who was just starting in wouldn't take the course of Instructors on Saturday, so they put him in supply and are planning to ship him out. Anyway, I told them I couldn't come and they told me they couldn't have me, and would replace me with someone else.

"I went up to the Orderly Room and applied for Finance School and met all the prerequisites. They started working on my papers, then told me that I would have to agree to re-enlist for three years. So I told them to tear up the papers, for I wasn't about to do that! Then I put in for a transfer and this last Friday I received my orders.

"I am to report tomorrow to the Department of Extension Courses. I don't know exactly what my duties will be but the fellows say it's a very good job. So I thank the Lord for that, for I was subject to being sent overseas when I asked for a transfer. But I prayed that the Lord's will be done and I knew if I went overseas it would be according to His plan."

We are greatly encouraged by our servicemen's letters, and others in service are too. Do you know of someone in service? Send us his address for the Buddies' Exchange.

Gary District News

• AUGUST 11 was a high day for the Gary church, which this year celebrates its twenty-fifth anniversary. It was fitting that Elder J. A. Dominski, who organized the church, and Elder Ferris, who worked in the district prior to the organization of the Gary church, should be the speakers for the day. Elder Dominski, now retired, spoke at the morning service. He urged the church members to press forward and press together. Sister Sadie Ray, charter member, gave the history of the church, and Elder Dominski related his experience in holding meetings when he first came to Gary. In the afternoon Elder Ferris, also now retired, urged the members to enter into a deeper Christian experience. It was a day to be long remembered.

• Sabbath, August 18, was another high day when a special dedication service was held for fifteen babies. Following this service Elder Daniel H. Maxson, who with his wife and three children recently returned to this country after five years of mission service in South America, spoke to us of God's leading in that needy field. His wife and two boys joined him in singing a song in Spanish. In the afternoon, members of the Gary district gathered together for a baptism in which six precious souls followed their Saviour in this sacred rite. Three of these united with the Gary Church, two with the Hammond church, and one united with the Michigan City church.

★ LISTEN

Listen, the voice of the American Temperance Society, has called forth the enthusiastic response of educators, doctors, judges, clergymen, youth leaders, and temperance workers.

"I am delighted," writes Dr. Paul B. Waterhouse, of Hawaii, "with the Listen magazine. Our young people read it eagerly, and they pronounce it 'tops.'"

Listen magazine should have a much wider circulation. It meets a crying need of these times. A portion of the Temperance Day offering will be used for increasing the circulation of Listen.

★ POSTERS

The first series of ten silk screened, attractive, colorful, educational posters promoting the cause of total abstinence have been completed. Your contribution will assist in placing these posters in schools, churches, auditoriums, and other strategic places, and also enable us to prepare additional and more colorful posters.

★ INSTITUTE

Our second major project, the launching of the Institute of Scientific Studies—the Prevention of Alcoholism, has been a grand success.

"Frankly," writes one student, "it is the best institute or school of alcohol studies which I have attended, and it has been my privilege to attend and to participate in many, including a Fellowship at the Yale School of Alcohol Studies."

Another writes: "Was so impressed and delighted with the atmosphere of school and on the campus—the fine spirit of Christianity that prevailed everywhere—the kindness and sweetness of everyone, the congeniality among races, the fine sense of cooperation and consideration, which was a joy to all, and last but not least absence of smoking. In short, it was a most delightful experience."

From 33 States and 5 different countries 110 students attended the second session conducted July 9-20, 1951. Loma Linda is becoming the rallying center of a total abstinence movement.

A series of ten leaflets on true life experiences in alcoholism is in process of preparation. They should be circulated like the leaves of autumn. Your offering will help make this possible.

The first set of reflectorized Jingle Boards, now ready, carry this message:

"A man who drives when he is drunk should haul his coffin in his trunk."

Seventy-one sets were erected along American highways this first year. Every church should erect from five to ten sets. Your offering will help make this possible.

★ ROAD SIGNS

Our third major project is the launching of a nationwide antialcohol advertising campaign. This program calls for the erection of striking and colorful signs and billboards on county, State, and national highways. Your offering will assist in making this much-needed project become a reality in your community.

★ RADIO TRANSCRIPTIONS!

A portion of the 1950 Temperance Day offering was used to prepare a series of six radio transcriptions for general publicity purposes. The first record has been completed. • A new large oil furnace, replacing the two old smaller ones, has just been installed in the Gary church; the church auditorium floor has been covered with asphalt tile, and the room largely re-decorated. This work has all been done by members and friends of the church, and has been the means of saving a great expense. Plans are under way to complete re-decorating the building, put in a ceiling and landscape the back of the church lot.

• The Gary church has united with the Valparaiso church in starting a church school at the latter place. Nine students are enrolled and equipment is gradually being added. Miss Phyllis Kern of Elkhart, Indiana is the teacher. It is hoped that next year there will be a school in both places.

• The Hammond church is gradually completing the church-school structure that is being built in connection with the church building. At present an oil furnace is being installed that will heat both the new unit and replace the old coal furnace that provided heat for the church. According to present plans, there will be evangelistic meetings held in Hammond at the K. of P. Hall in downtown Hammond beginning October 20. They are to continue for ten weeks, and will be held on Sunday, Wednesday and Friday nights, beginning at 7:30. The pastor and members solicit your prayers for a successful soul-winning campaign, and if you live in that vicinity, you are welcome and urged to attend the meetings.

• The faith and works of the Michigan City believers is indeed inspiring. Under faithful and capable local leadership they are zealous of good works. Although they have no church home of their own, they are building up their funds week by week in order that they might have one in the future. I'm sure that there are many who join in wishing them success.

Shiloh's Laymen in Earnest

SABBATH morning August 8, in our Shiloh church in Chicago, the church's delegate, J. D. Johnson, made a partial report of activities of the congress at Grand Ledge. At the morning worship hour, Elder Rice our Union President, brought a message to encourage our people in soulwinning. Plans for the afternoon were all arranged for a Literature Tag Day. The Missionary Volunteer meeting hour graciously gave way to a great missionary outing of young and old. About seventeen people volunteered automobiles, and carried approximately 130 members to appointed street corners in the city.

In the space of about 20 minutes, 3200 pieces of literature had been distributed. These members returned to the church and joined in a joyous song service led by the pastor and registered only one complaint: "We didn't have enough literature."

Elder T. M. Rowe, the pastor, remarked: "This is the happiest day since I've been connected with Shiloh." Plans have been formulated for regular systematic house-to-house distribution of 2,000 copies of Present Truth weekly. Elder Rowe adds, "Shiloh is taking seriously the spirit of the North American Laymen's Congress.

GO— the New Laymen's Journal

Go, the new journal for Adventist laymen, which was introduced with the July, 1951, issue, has already made a niche for itself in Seventh-day Adventist journalism. From coast to coast progressive laymen in substantially increasing numbers now consider Go indispensable as their soul-winning companion and helper.

Go contains thirty-six pages each month filled with pictures, stories, and interviews by and about soul winners.

There is one section devoted to church missionary service material—a necessity for church missionary leaders and secretaries.

Books, study helps, and reading suggestions, as well as the latest in audio and visual aids, are reviewed regularly.

GO is a "must" for men's and women's service groups. It offers program helps, project suggestions, and brings reports about what other men and women are doing.

Go is not only informative and helpful but is intensely interesting. It is ably edited by Dr. Adlai Albert Esteb, who is a specialist in home missionary and laymen's activities. Its handy pocket size makes it easy to carry in a man's coat pocket or a lady's purse. Its easy-to-read print and modern format make reading it a delight. It is written for busy people and will be appreciated by those who are doing things for Christ.

Church officers, missionary leaders, secretaries, lay ministers, Dorcas leaders, and lay soul winners in every category are finding Go—with its articles, departments, and practical ideas—most valuable in planning wisely their soul-winning activities. Ministers and ministerial students will find Go of sufficient interest to desire being numbered with its growing circle of readers.

The low subscription price of only $1.00 a year (twelve issues) brings Go within reach of all. Order through your church missionary secretary or from your Book and Bible House. Place your subscription now so you may start immediately receiving the help and enjoyment only Go can give.

OCTOBER 13-20

OCTOBER 13-20 may prove to be a week of far-reaching consequences with results that will be realized throughout eternity.

Your personal response during this week may be a definite contributing factor in making it fruitful in souls won for the kingdom of Christ.

This is the special week which has been officially designated by the denomination as the time when The Message and These Times magazines are to be featured in all our churches. As we consider how we should relate ourselves to this soul-winning endeavor, let us ponder the following:

"We are living in the most solemn period of this world's history. The destiny of earth's teeming multitudes is about to be decided. Our own future well-being, and also the salvation of other souls, depend upon the course which we now pursue."—The Great Controversy, p. 601.

As we keep this thought-provoking statement in mind, may the solemnity of this awful hour and the Holy Spirit impress us as to the course we should now pursue. May we take the course that will enable us to be more fully used in bringing salvation to others.

The regular reading of these excellent monthly evangelical journals will bring much spiritual help to Adventists as well as to those not of our faith.

Let us be prepared during the week of October 13-20 to bring this additional help and blessing into our own homes and to share these gospel-bearing journals with many others.

God bless you as you consider your response to this appeal. May this special week prove to be a time of far-reaching consequences and produce results that you will delight to meet in the kingdom because of your personal response.

Complete information is appearing in our full-page advertisement in your union paper. Watch for it and the liberal offer it presents.

Ask your church missionary secretary for details and a subscription envelope. New subscriptions as well as renewals are invited. Read and share The Message and These Times journals. You will receive a blessing and impart a blessing.

Larger MESSAGE Appeals

THREE issues of the improved larger Message Magazine, offering thirty-six pages monthly instead of twenty-eight, are now in the field. This larger journal, with its additional appealing features, is enjoying a very enthusiastic reception.

The new yearly subscription rate of $2.75 and the new yearly missionary rate of $1.75 to church members are being received very well throughout the field. This is also true of the new single-copy price of twenty-five cents.

The reason for this is that the Message Magazine is without a peer in its field. From a literary standpoint its price is insignificant as compared with its value. The vital truths it so graphically presents are priceless.

It seems, however, such a highly desirable and effective soul-winning facility should be utilized even more than it is.

Here are two suggestions as to how this may be done to your definite advantage:

First, you, your church, or your Missionary Volunteer Society may own a $187.50 Web-Cor Tape Recorder without one penny's cost to you. All you need do is get one hundred one-year subscriptions to the Message Magazine within a sixty-day period. These are to be obtained at the regular yearly rate of only $2.75. As the subscriptions are received, send them and the full amount of money to your Book and Bible House. Regular blanks have been prepared for this project. This is one of the finest soul-winning endeavors in which you could engage. Write to your Book and Bible House for details. Get your supplies and get started immediately so we may send your tape recorder soon. This offer is strictly confined to the MESSAGE MAGAZINE.

Secondly, more colporteur evangelists are needed to take subscriptions or sell single copies of the Message Magazine. This is a most pleasant and rewarding soul-winning activity. Contact your publishing department secretary for particulars and territory.

Win souls with the improved larger Message Magazine. Now is the time! Indecision and delay may be costly. Decide now. Act now!

I. H. IHRIC

Where Will You Be November 10?

"PEACE FOR TROUBLED HEARTS!" This is certainly an appropriate title for literature that will be passed out to the public for these days. We have never lived in such a troubled world as we find in this age. People are looking for a way out, and we believe that Seventh-day Adventists have the only answer for this longing. It is up to you and me to help answer this great heart-felt appeal that comes from every human heart who does not know Jesus as his Saviour.

Sabbath, November 10, is another Home Visitation Day for all our people to engage in visiting their neighbors and friends and leave a copy of the leaflet prepared for this occasion.

At the National Lay Congress, August 29 to September 2, it was recommended by delegates that by Sunday night, November 11, there should be at least 2,000 new lay efforts begun by the laymen here in North America. This meeting has prepared the way for the greatest program of lay evangelism ever to be launched by this denomination, and the incentive should reach out to every person in our churches. Let us make Sabbath, November 10, the beginning of the greatest lay movement we have ever seen since the days of Pentecost.

Think of the advantage we have in tying the Home Visitation Day of November 10 with the new lay efforts to be started on Sunday, November 11. On Sabbath, November 10, we could look for new homes where Bible studies can be given and then begin the next day. In this way we could easily have thousands of new lay efforts beginning on the same day. Branch Sunday schools, Story Hours, and many other types of soul-winning endeavors might be started, too.

We could start many new efforts if we begin planning definitely in every church now. Let every pastor, district leader, church officer, and church missionary leader be wide awake and planning for every member to participate in this program, so that on November 10 and 11 we will see the entire denomination launching the mightiest program of lay evangelism ever undertaken by this people. The time has come for it. The times demand it. The church needs it. God calls for it. The world is waiting for it. May God give us the joy and pleasure of helping to swell the Loud Cry.

Won't every member now decide to participate in the Home Visitation program Sabbath, November 10? H. K. HALLADAY

Lawyer Appeals to FAITH FOR TODAY

WHAT particular feature attracts listeners to the FAITH FOR TODAY telecast? It is interesting to note differing attitudes in letters received at the office. Some mention how much they enjoy the quartet, requesting favorite selections. A large number look forward to seeing both Pastor and Mrs. Fagal as they stand together appealing for more careful Bible study. Many people of every age and station in life appreciate the life stories that are enacted, emphasizing the fact that they are deeply impressed with these experiences of others.

A lawyer, after searching for years for Truth, was so moved by the message from FAITH FOR TODAY that he wrote for the Bible course while the program was still on the air. Here is a portion of his letter:

"I, for years, have been in search of a means to secure assistance in learning God's word without any particular church affiliations or feeling that I had to subscribe to the beliefs of any particular church to feel at home in the House of God. My attempts have all ended in confusion . . . I happened to have on the TV this morning (your program is still on), and it occurred to me that your

INTERN WEAVES FIGURES INTO TIMELY LETTER

NORTH BEND, ORE.—The first news contribution to the local press by Clare Bishop, new intern in the Coos Bay district, was a letter to the editor. It was based on a UP story from Rome stressing the importance of diplomatic relations with the Vatican because of its function as a clearinghouse of information from all over the world.

It is reproduced here as the finest example we've seen lately of making cold statistics acceptable to the editor by finding a news peg to hang them to.

To the Editor:

I was very interested in the United Press release on page 7, col. 2, of Wednesday's paper, stating the Vatican is one of the chief sources for world information. This news is very timely indeed, with many Protestant denominations opposing the re-appointment of the president's representative to the Vatican. I noted that the Vatican has representatives in 66 countries of the world, and the Vatican radio speaks out in 16 languages to the peoples of the world. These facts were all enlightening, especially when compared with other world organizations.

Washington D.C., 4,517 air miles closer to the president than the Vatican, the headquarters of a world organization having representatives in more countries than our state department. It has representatives in 228 of the world's 282 countries, carrying on their work in 706 languages. This, you will agree, is a slight increase over the 66 countries mentioned in the United Press release. The article I refer to also mentioned the 16 language broadcast of the Vatican radio. The organization of which I speak also has radio contact with the world over 700 of the world's most prominent stations, reaching millions of the world's peoples, 841,118 of whom today are responding by mail to this broadcast, which in turn is replying in 25 different languages. This too, you will agree, is slightly more than the 16 languages mentioned in the United Press release.

SDA Organization Better Equipped

The organization of which I speak also operates 50 publishing houses, 45 of them outside of the United States. They are printing in 195 languages and publishing 315 periodicals. This denomination also operated a little "Marshal Plan" all its own, contributing $44,745,570 last year to the needs of suffering humanity. In addition many thousands of dollars were solicited from friends to carry on its great work.

On the basis of these facts how is it possible that the Vatican could be any larger source of information than the president has as a mere neighbor in Washington, D.C.? However, this organization, the Seventh-day Adventist church, believes in the fundamentals of Americanism, and the great principle of separation of church and state on which our nation was established and thereby enabled to become the greatest nation in the world, opposes whole heartedly the appointment of a presidential representative or ambassador to any church in the world, including her own, history having proven beyond all doubt that the only safe course for freedom is complete separation of church and state.

Sincerely yours,
CLARE E. BISHOP

The young minister writes that "the Press Bureau's 'Facts for Your File' arrived providentially" the same day the UP story appeared and was used to supply the data for this letter.

When he took it to the editor, he found him "a very fine fellow and happy indeed to get my write-up. His only regret was 'I don't get enough stuff from you folks over there.' When he found I was new in the district he invited me to write up a story on my arrival; and wanted me to promise him more news about the work Seventh-day Adventists are doing." —News Beat (General Conference, SDA)

Non-Adventist Minister Approves S. D. A. TV

REV. C.A.H. of the United Temperance Movement of Minnesota was much impressed with the FAITH FOR TODAY telecast on Christ's second coming. His letter, which follows, explains how he came to view our program.

"I very seldom have a Sunday free but am out speaking all the time, but yesterday I happened to be off and sat down to look at the TV and picked up your program. I am a graduate of Chicago Conservatory of music and was a vocal teacher and soloist for a good number of years, so I feel that I can somewhat judge a program of songs. I have also been a pastor in three leading pulpits of our denomination in our country, one of them being in Jamestown, N. Y. and two here in Minneapolis.

"I have been a student of prophecy and love the subject of the Second Coming of Christ. I think your approach to that subject and the songs you sang were just wonderful. I am sure that your choice of songs and presentation of the subject won the ear of thousands that otherwise would not give much thought to it as they have never heard it preached from their pulpits. You are right in saying that the subject and facts of Christ's return are being forgotten. Thank you for your outstanding program.

"I would appreciate getting your magazine, THESE TIMES and other similar publications you have. Blessings upon your great efforts.

Fraternally yours.

C. A. H."

Country Living—Why?

CARLYLE B. HAYNES

DEEP interest has been created on the part of most of our people in the United States in the messages sent years ago through the Spirit of prophecy about getting out of the cities.

At the same time those who are rather skeptical of the importance of this country-living message have raised the question as to whether the only reason for urging our people to get out of the cities is to escape the dangers of the last days.

The answer is that the Testimonies do not place the urgency for getting out of the cities merely upon the matter of escaping danger. The reasons for moving into the country are not primarily reasons of personal safety.

The Testimonies give 13 reasons for a move into rural areas. They are:

1. That the church may be scattered widely. Vol. 6, p. 178.
2. That our children may escape the corruptions and temptations of the cities. FCE, p. 326.
3. That our families may have less contact with evil. Vol. 7, p. 89.
4. That we may get away from the coming strife and confusion. G. C. Bulletin, April 6, 1905.
5. That more of the privileges designed for us by God may be obtained. FCE, pp. 326-7.
6. That first consideration may be given the spiritual prosperity of the family and home. Vol. 5, p. 232.
7. That our children may obtain the best training for usefulness. Vol. 5, p. 232.
8. That the allurements of evil in the cities may be replaced by the country's quiet, peace and purity. M. H., p. 190.
9. That we may be brought into greater harmony with God's original plan. Vol. 7, p. 187.
10. That additional preparation may be obtained for the kingdom of God. Vol. 6, p. 195.
11. That the labor union problem may be eased. Series B, p. 34.
12. That the impending hardships of buying and selling may be modified. Country Living, pp. 9, 10.
13. That some of the terrible dangers of the last days—atomic bombs, destruction of whole cities—may be escaped as in the case of Lot. Genesis 19.

All of this is the background for Sister White's forceful admonitions and statements, "Get out of the large cities as fast as possible." Vol. 6, p. 195.

"Get out of the cities into rural districts." Country Living, p. 10.

"My warning is: keep out of the cities." G. C. Bulletin, April 6, 1903.

"Ere long there will be such strife and confusion in the cities that those who wish to leave them will not be able." Id.

Besides his own three children, he and Mrs. Hallock were foster parents to about 85 boys and girls.

For the past thirty-five years Professor Hallock was principal of the Hylandale Academy, which he and a few other teachers founded as a private institution in 1916. Between 800 and 900 young people from many states have attended the school. It had been Professor Hallock's custom through more than 50 years of continuous service to teach classes in the forenoon and then hurry back after dinner in work clothing to direct a group of boys for several hours in physical labor.

Elder Wayne White from Chicago, a nephew, conducted the funeral service, assisted by Elder Carl Edwards from the Northern Union and the writer. Interment was at the Rockland cemetery.

EMMANUEL MISSIONARY COLLEGE

Ingathering Goal $1,000 Higher Than Last Year

TEN thousand dollars is the goal of Emmanuel Missionary College for this year's Ingathering campaign. This is $1,000 more than last year's goal and $800 more than the $9,200 actually raised.

The field day and opening day of the campaign will be Tuesday, October 9. At 7:15 A.M., an anticipated group of 100 carloads of students and faculty members will leave the campus to blanket Southwestern Michigan and the South Bend, Ind. area in this fund-raising drive. A complete coverage of the territory is expected to put the college "over the top".

Director of the campaign is Z. H. Corberly, instructor in graphic arts and home missionary leader of the college church. Elder T. L. Oswald, General Conference Home Missionary department secretary, Elder H. K. Halladay, Lake Union Home Missionary Secretary, and Elder S. M. McCormick of the Michigan Conference will work with students and faculty members during the campaign.

Elder Oswald was the guest speaker at the regular Sabbath services at the college. He also is scheduled to assist at the two rally meetings scheduled for Monday, October 8. These will be held during the morning chapel hour and in joint evening worship.

"One who has fully grasped the thought that every circumstance that comes into his life is permitted by the hand of divine love, will begin to enjoy some of the sweets of heaven while still on this earth."

SM Now a Weekly Also Larger in Size

The Student Movement, official college paper, is now appearing on the campus twice as often as it has in the past. At a recent special meeting of the Student Association it was voted to change from a bi-weekly to a weekly. The paper will be distributed to students each Wednesday, Mario Ruf, circulation manager, declared.

The paper is also being increased in size and will contain more pictures of student activity. Ed Kopp, editor, is having his staff augmented by the addition of a number of student assistants. Among the new positions created by the enlarging of the paper is an advertising manager. Edward Sheldon, assisted by James Brown, is bringing in advertisements to help pay for the increased cost of the Student Movement's larger size.

The yearly campaign to raise subscriptions started September 28 with a special program during chapel. Eugene Owen, campaign leader, and his assistants have set as their goal this year 3600 subs. They hope to reach this amount by October 22, the closing day of the campaign.

The Physical Education Building is Headquarters for the Fall Registration of Students at Emmanuel Missionary College.—Students awaiting their turn.
