A JOB WELL DONE

Since coming to this field, I have been observing with a great deal of interest the progress that has been made during the past few weeks in our present Ingathering Campaign. The latest figures, placed on my desk, give the Lake Union total of almost $600,000. This is very good, indeed! We find that Illinois has the highest per capita of $22.34, and Michigan the highest total amount of $256,037.83.

The other conferences in the Union have done well also, and deserve a word of commendation. We all recognize that in reaching this goal everyone has worked early and late. Our pastors and district leaders, as well as conference administrators deserve a great deal of credit, but we certainly should not forget the faithful lay brethren and sisters in our churches who have worked unceasingly and untiringly in order to give us 113 per cent of our goal in this field.

We should not forget our good Union Home Missionary secretary, Elder Vernon Flory, who has had general supervision over the entire field. He has put his heart and soul into this work also.

The mission fields and the work in the homeland will be greatly benefited as a result of this splendid record that we have made this year. May the Lord bless every one who has had a part, and only eternity will reveal the final splendid results.

WHERE ARE THE REAPERS?

We understand that the individual messages delivered to each church apply to the church in all ages from the time of Christ to His second advent. Therefore, we look for a parallel experience to that of the first church in the last church. History reveals a very similar condition. In 1844 the first believers were on fire for God. There was a spirit of unity and they went everywhere preaching the gospel. As in the days of the first church after Pentecost those who belonged to the Advent movement and all that they had and were was consecrated unto the Lord, and the work prospered. But, through the years there has developed a feeling on the part of many of God's people that it is the minister's responsibility to finish the work. In general the church has fallen from that first love and works. We have lost the vision and God calls us to repent and return to our first love and works, lest we perish. Said Solomon, "Where there is no vision the people perish." Prov. 29:18. God says, "To him that overcometh I will give to eat of the tree of life." Rev.

2:7. To overcome in this case was to return to their first love and works. Very fitting right here are these words, "If you feel no burden of soul for those who are ready to perish . . . there will be no more room for you in the kingdom of God."—Testimonies, Vol. 9, pp. 103, 104. This is strong and plain language and should pierce the shields of indifference and lethargy of each one who expects to be saved when Jesus comes.

What then are we waiting for? We have institutes and training classes. We put a lot of time and money into such preparatory classes. This is good. But preaching is detrimental when it does not inspire people to go forth and witness for their Saviour. We seem ever to be learning and not coming into a knowledge of the truth that God expects us each one to get busy and go out. It does not take a university degree or even a sixth standard education to witness for the Lord. Some think so. But let me give this simple story.

One day in Scotland a youthful lay preacher made a number of calls in a well-to-do neighborhood. At a certain home he told a wealthy lady who answered his rap at the door why he loved God so much. This woman looked at him scornfully and said, "Who gave you the right to act like a minister? Why are you going from door to door visiting like a parish priest? Why, you do not even have a college education." Then she looked at him thoughtfully and said, "What college have you gone to? Did you ever go to school?" Quick as a flash he replied, "Mary's College." She looked at him and questioned, "Mary's College,—where is that?" He replied simply, "At Jesus' feet." We also remember that the people took notice of the early disciples that they had been with Jesus and marvelled at the things they did. We can have the same qualifications.

Dr. E. Stanley Jones was asked by a group of ministers in New York City, "How is this great city to be evangelized?" Dr. Jones answered, "New York City is a preacher's graveyard. The only hope of evangelizing this great city is to organize teams of visitation and visit the people in their homes—house to house evangelism." Almost the same question is asked by Sister White, "How can the great work of God—the third angel's message be accomplished?" She answered, "It must be largely accomplished by persevering, individual effort; by visiting the people at their homes." "Wherever a church is established, all the members should engage actively in missionary work. They should visit every family in the neighborhood and know their spiritual condition. If every church member had sought to enlighten others, thousands upon thousands would today stand with God's commandment-keeping people."—Testimonies, Vol. 6, p. 296. This is the way Jesus did it. It is the way the early church did it. It is the way we are to do it. The harvest is ripe. Many are just on the verge of the kingdom waiting to be gathered in. God is ready. WHERE ARE THE REAPERS?

LAKE UNION CONFERENCE INGATHERING REPORT

Report for Week Ending May 18, 1957

Membership	Conference	Goal	Reported to Date
6,204	Illinois	$124,080	$143,799.96
4,901	Indiana	90,000	101,200.17
4,137	Lake Region	45,000	37,088.00

4,917	Wisconsin	60,000	63,609.80
34,378	Union	$519,080	$601,735.76

It is a real pleasure to present to you this final report of our 1957 Ingathering campaign. We have the largest total ever reported and it is good to know that a good job has been well done. Special congratulations are due to the Illinois Conference. It is a Minute Man conference. Wisconsin also joins the victory conferences. Many thanks to you. To date we have reported 198 Minute Man churches. It is gratifying to note how many of our largest churches are in this group. Sometimes our smaller churches too have to work very hard because of lack of territory so they deserve honorable mention for their faithful work.

There is one other group of workers that many times are the unsung heroes of many a campaign. I am speaking of the wives of our pastors. Only our Heavenly Father knows the hours of faithful work that these dear ladies have given to help make the Ingathering a success in the churches where their husbands carry responsibility. We thank them for their faithful work.

May the Lord bless every church member, church officer and conference worker who have given of their efforts and time to make this year's work so successful. Our heartfelt gratitude to one and all. To the few who have not attained I know you will keep on so when the final treasurer's tabulation appears after the close of June you will be among the victorious number.

Gift of Station Wagon to the Voice of Prophecy

A 1957 nine-passenger Chevrolet station wagon, fully equipped with power brakes, power steering, and air-conditioning for cross-country hot-weather travel, was recently presented to The Voice of Prophecy by Ace Drill Bushing Company, Inc., of Los Angeles, a firm made up mainly of Seventh-day Adventist Christian businessmen and women. By this generous gift, Ace Drill Bushing has made certain that this coming summer's personal-appearance tours of the radio group will be more pleasant than any in the past.

This progressive company, which through the years has successfully integrated its religious faith with its business transactions, has not suffered financial loss from doing so; for, in addition to its headquarters in Los Angeles, distribution depots have been established in every major industrial area of the United States. Listed among its customer accounts are 21 of the 22 major aircraft corporations of the nation.

Alan Fisher, president and general manager of Ace Drill Bushing, a vigorous advocate of progress yet retiring in nature, is keenly interested in developing and establishing company branches in close proximity to our colleges in order to furnish employment to help students meet their school and living expenses. For the past seven years a branch has been successfully operating near La Sierra College, and the latest venture is already under way near our college in Sao Paulo, Brazil. In this way work has been made available to energetic students working toward their chosen field of service.

The firm has also underwritten "The Voice of Youth," an inspirational radio program originating at La Sierra College and affording training for young men and women in the field of radio.

The radio group and the entire Voice of Prophecy staff are deeply grateful to the Ace Drill Bushing Company for this generous gift that will mean so much to the broadcast in its coast-to-coast soul-winning work for Christ through radio!

Commencement at CME

LOS ANGELES—Total of nearly 250 students of the College of Medical Evangelists are listed to receive degrees or certificates in forthcoming graduation ceremonies slated for the week end of June 7-9. Announcement came from Dean of the Faculties Dr. Keld J. Raynolds.

The forty-fifth commencement exercises will consist of three separate convocations. Leading off the week end exercises will be the Consecration Service to be held Friday, June 7, at 7:30 p.m., in the White Memorial Seventh-day Adventist Church in Los Angeles. Speaker will be Pastor William A. Fagal, program director and speaker for "Faith for Today," national television program.

On Saturday at 3:00 p.m., Dr. Winton Beaven of Washington, D. C., dean of the Adventist University's School of Graduate Studies, will present the Baccalaureate address in the Pasadena Civic Auditorium.

Beginning at 6:00 p.m., Sunday, in the Redlands Bowl the commencement ceremonies will take place with Dr. George Harding III, clinical professor of psychiatry at Ohio State University in Columbus, speaking to the graduates.

Of the total group of students slated to participate in the graduation, 228 will receive degrees and 21 will get certificates. This year's class will see students from one of CME's newer schools in the graduating lineup for the first time. The School of Dentistry, which accepted its initial class in 1953, will be granting degrees to its first graduates, a total of 39 in number.

Degrees and certificates being given in other CME schools are as follows: Medicine, 98 degrees; Nursing, 51 degrees; Medical Technology, 11 degrees and 6 certificates; X-ray Technology, 8 certificates; Dietetics, 4 certificates of internship completion; and Graduate Studies, 14 degrees.

A further breakdown of the School of Graduate Studies candidates shows four who will receive the master of science degree, having majored in basic medical science. Three others will receive the master of science degree, having completed graduate requirements in nursing. Seven are candidates for the master of medical science degree, having finished work in clinical sciences.

Graduates at this forty-fifth commencement will bring the total number of College of Medical Evangelists alumni to nearly 5,600, hundreds of whom are serving or have served in Seventh-day Adventist Church mission posts throughout the world.

Thanks for Your Bibles

A few weeks ago we appealed to you for Bibles, hoping to receive a good supply to care for our immediate needs. To our surprise, the response has been overwhelming. Bibles of every type and description have come to our office—enough to provide the scriptures for all who need them.

We are especially glad for the picture Bibles. The juniors appreciate the illustrations very much. A few beautiful white wedding Bibles were sent in. Also, some Spanish viewers are going to be very happy to receive the Bible in their own language, thanks to the generosity of a few Spanish viewers.

Several of these Bibles have fascinating histories. One of the most interesting is a cherished Bible that once belonged to a pioneer Adventist. The daughter, who sent in the Bible wrote, "I am sending you my mother's last Bible. She was baptized by Elder Joseph Bates in 1864, and faithfully served this truth for seventy years." We pray that the spirit of the pioneers will live again in new TV converts.

May the Lord's blessing rest upon all who have shared their Bibles so generously with inquiring TV viewers.

FAITH FOR TODAY

Join Hinsdale San Staff

The addition of two Adventist doctors on the staff of the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital has been an inspiration to the workers and the management. Another doctor is planning on coming to Hinsdale in August, and it is hoped that still others will decide to join our staff of workers to make Hinsdale a real center of influence and medical training.

Charles Landis Anderson, M.D., has been appointed chief of the Department of Psychiatry. This department occupies the west wing of the fourth floor, and Dr. Anderson has an office in this unit. A department of psychiatry in all general hospitals is the modern trend, and the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital has complete facilities with trained personnel.

Dr. Anderson was born in Toyko, Japan, and completed his pre-college schooling in the Far East. He received his B.A. degree from Pacific Union College, Angwin, California, in 1936, and his doctor of medicine degree in 1940 from the College of Medical Evangelists in Loma Linda. After completing a residency in psychiatry in Harding Sanitarium in Ohio, he taught at the Ohio State University from 1943 to 1952. For the next three years he went to Alaska to take over the duties of chief of the section of Mental Health for the territorial department of health where he remained until 1955. He came to Hinsdale from Loma Linda where he was Associate Professor of Psychiatry for nearly two years. He was certified in psychiatry by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology in 1946.

The Andersons have a son, Bruce, now attending Pacific Union College; a daughter, Kirsten, attending Broadview Academy; and two younger boys, Eric, and Craig at home.

Dr. Charles L. Dale

More recently Charles L. Dale, M.D., of Spartanburg, South Carolina, was named Chief of the Department of Pathology and Bacteriology. Dr. Dale will replace Dr. M. G. Westmoreland who resigned April 1, 1957.

ARGUING WITH HAROLD

I have changed my opinion about arguing with children. Somehow in my studying of child behavior I had gotten the idea that one should never inhibit a child or try to force him to do something against his will. The mature adult, I at first thought, should reason with the child and help him to understand the whys and wherefores and when he saw the proper way to do things he would naturally do them. Well, I have discovered that a child cannot reason as an adult, that he can think only as a child and must be dealt with as a child.

My son Harold, aged two, had received a horn as a birthday present from his uncle. It was not a sweet melodious instrument, but a loud raspy one. A blast from that thing was enough to put any set of nerves on edge. Harold seated himself at my feet and started blasting away on his tinny horn. I stood it for quite a while and then said gently, "Harold, darling, mother is trying to read this letter and that horn is making so much sound I cannot think. Please don't play it so loudly."

He grinned at me, drew a deep breath and blared away. His defiance shocked me almost as much as the blasts from the horn. I tried to reason with him, "Don't you want me to read this letter from your grandmother? How would she feel if she knew that you were making so much noise I could not read her letter?" All my arguing and explaining only seemed to put more mischief in his face and more energy in his blowing.

I suggested that he play with his teddy bear, his wagon, his blocks, or that he get his color book to entertain himself with. No, he wanted to play his horn. With a worried expression I explained to him that every blast from his horn hurt mother's head terribly. This seemed to give him a new impetus. Chuckling gleefully he climbed onto the couch beside me and placed the horn to my ear as if greatly anticipating another chance to blow. But I ran out of the room explaining that if he insisted on making all that horrible noise he would have to stay there in that room all by himself. Mother would not stay in there with him at all.

Later I talked the matter over with our minister and he recommended a different kind of psychological approach—the kind a child can understand. The next time I sat down to read the mail, Harold ran for his horn, stationed himself as close to me as he could and started to blow. Kindly but firmly I said, "Harold, take your horn to your own room if you wish to play it. Don't blow it in here." With a grin on his face and mischief in his eye, he gave that thing a terrific blast. Without saying a word I calmly put the letter down, picked up an old leather belt and coolly proceeded to administer a little treatment to his legs. The horn itself was banished for a few days. Since then I have been much happier—and so has Harold!

I have learned that much talk confuses a small child, but a little action at the right time is easily understood.

SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY GRADUATES FIRST CLASS

The degree of D.D.S. will be conferred for the first time by the College of Medical Evangelists during the 45th Commencement Exercises June 7-9 when the four-year graduates from the new School of Dentistry will be a part of the largest class ever to receive diplomas. Approximately 220 students will participate, representing the schools of medicine, dentistry, nursing and graduate studies; and the departmental schools of medical technology, physical therapy and x-ray technology.

CME gratefully acknowledges the contribution of funds and equipment during the past year by individuals, institutions, and corporations who have felt impressed to further many various phases of the educational program on the Loma Linda and Los Angeles campuses. New buildings, new facilities, and new research programs have been made possible through the generosity of these donors. Almost every gift has been previously designated by the donor for a particular project in which he is particularly interested. The College has thus been able to expand its building, teaching, and research programs so that its graduates may be fully trained for service in the homeland and around the world.

However, it is very rare for substantial gifts to be directed into the annual operating budget. These dollars are said by educators to double their value when placed in the operating budget. This is why, on June 8, the College of Medical Evangelists must place its trust in you, as a member of the church which founded the school and helped support it through the years, to supply with your offering part of the 10% needed to balance the 1957-58 budget.

With your offering we solicit your prayers, for as CME's President Anderson has noted: "Our material needs for ensuing days are extensive, but our spiritual needs are the most urgent; for it is the spirit of the College which should make it unique . . . in the service rendered to fellow men in need and in preparing our young people to follow our Lord in careers of healing."

More About Our Work-Bee

I know our good people will be anxious to get a report on our first campground "work-bee" held on Sunday, May 12. The weather did not look very promising and we understand a number felt it would not be worth while to come, but in spite of this the first car rolled in about 7:30 a.m. and others followed until it began to look like it was the opening of camp meeting.

When the noon hour arrived 71 men assembled in the dining room and enjoyed the meal prepared and served by the office secretaries and some of the good wives.

The Lord was good to us and held the rain off until just about quitting time. As the rain began to come down and the cars began to leave, the roof of the pavilion had taken on a new look, the cradle roll building was almost finished and seven new cabins were well on the way to completion. The venture was most successful and everyone marveled at what was accomplished. The accompanying pictures reveal the success of the venture. There will be another "work-bee" on Sunday, May 19, followed by another on Sunday, June 2. A goodly number have already promised to be present for each of these dates, and church elders in a number of

Youth Stand for Truth

Sabbath evening and Sunday evening brought to our hearts a tremendous challenge as the truth about alcoholic beverages, tobacco, and narcotics was proclaimed by enthusiastic youth from the stage of the Broadview Academy Auditorium. At this second National Oratorical Contest of the American Temperance Society, orators came from all over the United States and Canada to represent and proclaim the determined stand they had taken to promote the fight for better living. These youth were the winners representing the Union Conferences in the North American Division on the academy and the college levels. Sabbath evening we listened with rapt attention to the academy contestants. Sunday evening the college winners demonstrated their convictions.

The above group of men, including conference workers and laymen, made the May 12 "work-bee" a real success. Office secretaries and ministers' wives prepared the noon day meal.

Everything was in readiness and well organized. Each man soon had an assignment and the sound of hammers and saws was in the air. Some found their places on the roof of the pavilion, another group concentrated their efforts on the ness and sin throughout the world today, we are thrilled to see these enthusiastic youth stand for truth. God has His agents. The youth are accepting the challenge. The evidence these contestants presented was factual and authentic. With force and power they revealed the situation existing today all around us as alcoholic beverage consumption is increasing. They pictured in shocking terms the reality of horror, degradation, and awful suffering in nation, community, and home that is brought on by the liquor traffic. They revealed the selfish interest of the manufacturer and distributor of these death dealing liquors, tobaccos, and narcotics as they engage in advertised commercial sacrifice of the souls of human beings. We were given a vivid revelation of the suffering of children, mothers and relatives.

These youth orators brought not only the documented statistics and evidence of commercialized liquor traffic but also the effects of its deadly consumption by our own neighbors and friends, and they did more than that. They pointed out the remedy. They gave the steps that should be taken by every brother's keeper to eliminate the death-dealing traffic. To these young people we wish to express our appreciation for their stand for truth. It is wonderful to know that God has His representatives today who are not afraid to stand for the right but are willing to forcefully proclaim their findings in terms of fact and then drive home their convictions as the remedy and the procedure to that end. These God-fearing and devoted youth held the audience spell bound with the earnestness of their dynamic proclamation. The judges, who were officials and prominent business representatives of civic life in Cook County, were enthusiastic in their favorable evaluation of the contest and the revelation of facts and proclamations so favorably projected by these nineteen contestants. They were proud of these youth who stand as American citizens with a loyal conviction to fight for the cause of total abstinence and the public welfare of better living. They revealed their praise for the church which so ably demonstrated its interest in the good of fellowmen, community, and nation. What a privilege for Seventh-day Adventist youth to let their light shine under the might of heavenly guidance and in the power of the Holy Spirit for the good of our neighbors and the land we love as the land of liberty.

Illinois Conference appreciated the privilege of having been host to this National Oratorical Contest and the young people and temperance representatives from the Unions and the General Conference.

Summer Time Is Camp Time

Hundreds of young people will be making their way to one of the summer camps in Illinois this year.

Have you thought what the camp program means to the youth of our denomination? Many of us who are a bit older missed the inspiration that can be received around the campfire or at a camp council meeting and therefore have never had a clear picture of the value of these youth camps.

Each year thousands of boys and girls make their decisions to follow Jesus at one of our camps held throughout the world. A great many others renew their consecration and receive a spiritual lift that is needed to help them through the summer months.

In our Illinois camps our plan is to carry a well balanced program of spiritual, physical and educational activity, geared for each age level. There will be interesting new hobbies and crafts, instruction in swimming and water safety, horseback riding, experience in outdoor living, all these are features in our program.

Our camp pastor is there for personal counsel and spiritual guidance for each camper.

I cannot urge you too strongly to make sure that your boys and girls are enrolled for this 1957 camping season.

Fill out the application blank below and mail promptly to the MV Department, Box 7, Brookfield, Illinois. More application blanks are available upon request.

Replacement Cost Insurance

In a recent article concerning the Peoria church fire I mentioned replacement cost insurance. Some have asked concerning this. Replacement cost insurance is comparatively new in the insurance business, and I quote the explanation of it from the General Conference Insurance Service as follows:

"Without this endorsement your loss will be settled on what is known as an Actual Cash Value basis which is replacement cost less depreciation. However it is now possible to waive the depreciation by carrying insurance up to the replacement cost and by attaching this endorsement. In this way your loss will be settled on the basis of replacement cost without deduction for any depreciation. The money received upon adjustment must, however, be used to rebuild. Otherwise payment will be made on the depreciate value only."

We appreciate the interest of our church people in making sure they have adequate insurance coverage. ELTON DESSAIN

Mississippi-Valley Youth Rally

Again it was the privilege of the Missionary Volunteer youth of the Iowa Conference and Western Illinois to meet in annual convention at Moline, Illinois. This yearly occasion brings a refreshing experience to the youth as well as to others who attend this meeting. This year we were privileged to have Elder T. E. Lucas, of the MV Department of the General Conference, as our featured guest speaker. He brought a real challenge from the world field. It is wonderful to know how God's message is going forward in the world and to have a part in this message and its proclamation during these closing days of earth's history.

Other leaders who attended this rally included Elders Boyd Olson, Miller Brockett, George Stone and Frank Phillips. These youth leaders brought a real challenge in soul-winning possibilities and activities. We are greatly indebted to Elders Boyd Olson and George Stone for the contributions they made to the program. The outstanding event of Sabbath afternoon was the Voice of Youth evangelism program under the direction of Boyd Olson. The mission pageant helped to bring a visualization of the work that is being carried on throughout the world field. These features offered a real challenge to our young people to accept the call of the Master under the banner of the Third Angel's Message. What a privilege it is to know that we can have the opportunity to share our faith, through Voice of Youth evangelism, and other ways in which we may be called to serve.

The evening entertainment included a special feature brought by Elder Frank Phillips. As he showed the film, "The Living Desert," we were all made to realize the beauty that is found in the desert. Truly God's hand in nature is aptly demonstrated in every part of this world to show that the great Creator made the world to be inhabited and enjoyed. Those in attendance felt well repaid and refreshed as a result of sharing in this great inter-state youth rally.

CAMP MEETING SERMONS

"The Third Angel's message is to be given with power. The power of the proclamation of the first and second messages is to be intensified in the third. In the Revelation John says of the heavenly messenger who unites with the third angel: 'I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. And he cried with a strong voice.' Revelation 18:1, 2. We are in danger of giving the third angel's message in so indefinite a manner that it does not impress people.

"Our warfare is aggressive. Tremendous issues are before us, yea, and right upon us. Let our prayers ascend to God that the four angels may still hold the four winds, that they may not blow to injure or destroy until the last warning has been given to the world. Then let us work in harmony with our prayers. Let nothing lessen the force of the truth for this time. The present truth is to be our burden.

"Our message is a life-and-death message, and we must let it appear as it is, the great power of God. We are to present it in all its telling force. Then the Lord will make it effectual. It is our privilege to expect large things, even the demonstration of the Spirit of God. This is the power that will convict and convert souls.

"The perils of the last days are upon us, and in our work we are to warn the people of the danger they are in. Let not the solemn scenes which prophecy has revealed be left untouched. If our people were half awake, if they realized the nearness of the events portrayed in the Revelation, a reformation would be wrought in our churches, and many more believe the message. . . . We have no time to lose; God calls upon us to watch for souls as they that must give an account."—Testimonies, Vol. 6, pp. 60-62

Camp Meeting—An Aid in the Final Conflict

Our annual camp meeting will be conducted on the campus of Broadview Academy, Broadview, Illinois, from June 13 to 22.

No Seventh-day Adventist can afford to miss this annual spiritual feast. The inspiration and spiritual uplift of the early morning devotional meetings, the exchange of experiences, the opportunity to testify for God, and the enlarged vision thus obtained are invaluable to the believer who needs strength for the trials of the last days.

Sabbath school services will begin promptly at 9:30 a. m. with an inspiring song service at 9:15 a. m.

A strong well-directed program is being planned for all the children beginning with the Cradle Roll, through the Kindergarten, Primary, Junior and Youth's divisions. Experienced leaders and teachers will be in charge. A feast of good things is in store for your children and youth.

Won't you, dear reader, plan definitely to attend camp meeting and take advantage of this opportunity to prepare yourself for the final conflict? We need a season of fellowship, prayer, and Bible study with fellow believers, and this is the divine purpose of the camp meeting. We shall be looking forward to greeting you June 13.

Something Special for Camp Meeting

A special Teachers' Training Course will be conducted during the annual Indiana camp meeting. We are happy to announce the coming of Elder H. W. Lowe, of the General Conference Sabbath School Department.

A short course of lessons for teachers in the senior division will be offered to all who would like to attend. The classes will deal with the vital principles of teaching. Elder H. W. Lowe, the author of Handbook for Sabbath School Teachers will present many wonderful pointers on methods.

Everyone will want to attend the "Lowe's Hour" at camp meeting. There will be hints on the best methods of Bible study; how to prepare your Sabbath school lesson!

Don't miss it! Teachers, all who would like to be teachers, and everyone interested in better Bible study come to camp meeting. Be sure to attend the "Lowe's Hour." We believe God will bless in this practical instruction to be given at the Indiana camp meeting. Come and be with us!

More Literature Evangelists Needed

Jesus said, "The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into His harvest." Luke 10:2. He also said, "The labourer is worthy of his hire." Luke 10:7. Again Jesus said, "Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you." Matt. 20:4.

We have been told that those who engage in the literature ministry will be rewarded by seeing souls converted. God is greatly blessing our Indiana literature evangelists. Souls are being won for God's everlasting kingdom, and the workers are receiving a good wage while doing this important work.

However, there are whole counties and districts where we have no literature evangelists. These territories need to receive the light of truth through our wonderful literature. Perhaps you have long had a desire to have a part in scattering the printed page. Now is a good time to begin this interesting and thrilling phase of soul-winning endeavor. God will pay you what is right, and you will be helping to finish the work of taking the gospel to all the world.

For information on how to become a literature evangelist write, R. A. VAN ARSDELL, 1405 Broad Ripple Avenue, Indianapolis 20, Indiana.

Capitol Avenue Celebrates Ingathering Victory

On Sunday afternoon, May 12, a very fine banquet was given in the lower auditorium of the Capitol Avenue church at Indianapolis where Elder J. P. Winston is the pastor. This banquet was given to celebrate the raising of a $4700.00 Ingathering goal in a very short time.

The conference office was well represented, and a fine spirit of cooperation and fellowship existed. Elder Kibble, president of the Lake Region Conference gave the keynote address expressing appreciation for the work done, and for the attitude of cooperation generally shown by the Capitol Avenue membership. The conference treasurer, Elder F. N. Crowe, also gave a few timely and well chosen remarks.

The decorations were lovely, and the atmosphere was one of genuine Christian enjoyment as the excellent food was served by white-coated waiters.

Words of thanks to the members were expressed by the pastor, Elder Winston, the church missionary leader, Mr. Lester Williams, and the local elder Mr. James Moseley. Recognition was given to those raising the highest amounts in the campaign. The church school has done an outstanding job and was well represented.

This affair will remain in our memory as one of the most enjoyable events we have ever attended.

Summertime Is Camping Time!

The appearance of spring with its vibrant odor and color causes one to pause and think of its beauty and what to follow. Spring is the forerunner of summer. To fully appreciate summer we must plan for it. To help the pre-teenagers and youth learn to appreciate God's nature and other creations of His, we are arranging a Pre-Teen-age Camp for boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 12. Their camping dates are July 14-28.

Our camp for teenagers, which includes those 13 to 18 years, will be held July 28 to August 11. Registration is now open for both groups. Send your registration fee of $1.00 to the MV Department, Lake Region Conference, 619 Woodland Park, Chicago 16, Illinois. Parents, register your children early this year for best accommodations.

Welcome New Pathfinders

It was the privilege of your conference youth secretary to visit the Saginaw church recently. It was a distinct pleasure to fellowship with this thriving church. Highlighting the day's program was the presentation of 14 bright-eyed Pathfinders by the club director, Reger Smith. The MV Secretary spoke briefly to them and

Michigan Liberty Notes

The Michigan Liberty campaign is nearing its close. Sixty-five churches have reached their Liberty magazine subscription goal of one subscription per member. District No. 1 under Elder A. R. Lickey's leadership has reached the district goal. Pastors of two or more churches reporting the goal raised in every church are: Robert Kachenmeister, Earl Heslop, J. C. Klose, Duane Miller, Kenneth Strand, H. N. Williams, Charles Macintosh, Roy Lemon, and Gordon Frederick.

Elder Henry Musgrave tells us that Ludington is a "Second Mile Church", having raised a double goal. Their missionary leader, Brother L. W. Price, expressed the sentiments of the church thus: "We all believe in supporting the Liberty campaign and each member has felt that two subscriptions per member is cheap enough for a year of freedom to worship. So with God's help we have reached a double goal. Praying that hearts will be impressed who receive these papers, and from the results the Lord's work may prosper for another year, and also we who know this message might work in our Lord's vinyard while it is yet day. May God bless you and your associates this coming year. The Ludington church stands ready to help make your program a success."

Brother Frank McCrea, of Grand Haven, met a member of the newly elected Charter Commission recently. "Are you receiving the Liberty magazine?" he asked. "Am I!" she replied. "Why, do you know our committee has had four or five meetings at the armory to read and discuss articles appearing in that magazine!" This lady, a very influential citizen, and one of 233 persons to receive Liberty magazine in Ottawa County this past year, thanks to the Grand Haven members, seemed surprised to learn that Brother McCrea was sending her this paper. The members of this committee were elected to review and revise the Grand Haven City Charter. Brother McCrea felt greatly repaid for having subscribed to Liberty for this woman.

SUNDAY BLUE LAWS are on the agenda for review and study in the councils of Lansing, Flint, and many other Michigan cities. Members of City Councils in every city of Michigan should receive Liberty magazine. Local laws are made by the men and women who comprise these councils.

Plans are being made for an official of the "Protestant and Other Americans United for Separation of Church and State" to speak at our coming camp meeting in August. Dr. Frank Yost of the General Conference Department of Religious Liberty is Recording Secretary for this organization.

Do you wonder why such vigorous effort is exerted for religious liberty in Michigan? Your question would be answered should you awake some morning to learn that your city council had passed a Sunday Blue Law or the "Green River Ordinance." The enforcement of such laws would cause our work to suffer greatly. It would cause every Seventh-day Adventist in that vicinity to suffer. Let us work to stay the tide of religious persecution and intolerance by circulating Liberty magazine which will inform and enlighten the minds of the reading public.

A. K. PHILLIPS, Secretary
Department of Religious Liberty

Camp Desmond Doss

The transition from civilian to army life is a time of rapid changes and poses many problems for the young man being drafted. This is especially true for the Seventh-day Adventist soldier who meets problems he has never had to face before. Preparedness is the only answer to these problems.

Camp Desmond Doss, which will be held at Grand Ledge again this summer, provides a two-week period of intense preparation for army life. The prospective soldier receives a thorough indoctrination into military ways and is well ahead of the average draftee.

The spiritual side of preparation is just as important as the physical know-how. The admonition of the Apostle Peter is doubly true today: "And be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear." (1 Peter 3:15). To give an answer for your faith is a necessity in army routine. Thus it is extremely important that the draftee have some knowledge of what and where and how to say it. This preparation will form an important part of the instruction at Camp Doss June 11-25.

Any draft-age young man who is not prepared physically and spiritually for army service, owes it to himself and his church to attend the camp.

BERNARD J. FURST
Camp Chaplain

A Dream Come True

A cherished desire of several years was realized Sabbath April 13, 1957 when the Garden City Branch Sabbath School was organized into a church to be known as Garden City S.D.A. Church. Twenty six names were enrolled as charter members, several of these to become members by baptism in the next few days. For the first few meetings, when we met as a Branch, we met in the homes of some of our members. Then the Boy Scout Cabin was secured.

In the spring of 1956 our pastor, Elder Jeremia Florea, decided to hold evangelistic services and as another church group was using the cabin on Sunday evening, we received permission to rent the I.O.O.F. Hall. When these meetings were over we continued to use the hall and are still renting it for our Sabbath services.

Elder G. E. Hutches, brought an inspiring message to us from First Corinthians 12, after which he proceeded with the organization. Assisting were pastors Boothby, Cox, Wilmot, and Florea.

A nominating committee was appointed and officers elected. Special music was rendered by Elder and Mrs. Florea and Norma Whitson. They were accompanied by Ruth Burke.

There are several people receiving Bible studies in Garden City and we hope and pray they may soon make their decision to unite with us.

An offering was taken which was dedicated toward the church home of our own we hope to have in the not too distant future.

MRS. RUTH MATTHEWS

From Alpena

Sept. 22, 1956, the writer, assisted by Mrs. Kegley and Brother and Sister Roy Lemon, began a series of meetings in the Bingham grade school in Alpena. After three weeks the services were transferred from the school to the local church and continued four nights a week for another month. Dr. R. W. Spalding met twice with the group and brought subjects of interest to the public.

As a result of this series of meetings and a follow-up of Bible studies, three adults and one youth were united with the church by baptism. Studies are being continued with interested ones with prospects for another baptism in the near future.

Wedding

Miss Claudette Letson of Mt. Pleasant, Michigan became the bride of Gordon Case of Jasper, Michigan at a ceremony conducted by Elder R. R. Widmer in the Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian church on Sunday, April 7th.

The bride is a graduate of Adelpian Academy and the groom graduated from Cedar Lake Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Case will make their home at Jasper, Michigan.

May the Lord richly bless these young people as they establish a Christian home.

Week of Prayer at Battle Creek Academy

You would have been thrilled, too, if you could have heard the young people of Battle Creek sing from their hearts:

"Let the beauty of Jesus be seen in me,
All His wonderful passion and purity;
O Thou Spirit divine,
All my nature refine
Till the beauty of Jesus be seen in me."

This was the theme song and the theme of the Spring Week of Prayer. The students were very responsive and attentive as the week progressed.

The focal point in the week came on Friday morning when the call for complete consecration was made. In the claiming of God's promises the students responded and rededicated their lives to Him.

During the week the Spirit worked upon hearts as confessions to teachers, parents and friends were made. Articles taken were returned to their owners, while other things in the possession of some were destroyed to remove the temptation to use them. This was a week of genuine revival and victory for the youth of Battle Creek Academy.

Fortunate indeed are our youth who have the opportunity to attend Battle Creek Academy and to be under the influence of such consecrated teachers and where the school is contributing so much to the spiritual and mental growth of the youth.

Wedding

Miss Nancy Kay Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Lee Johnston, of Jackson, became the bride of Harold Vetel Racine, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Racine, of Pontiac, in a beautiful and impressive ceremony in the Jackson Seventh-day Adventist church, Sunday afternoon, April 28, at 2:30 o'clock. Elder A. K. Phillips, of Lansing officiated and Elder William Brown, of Hillsdale, was the soloist. Carolyn Kowalski presided at the organ.

The reception followed at the Jackson Junior Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Racine left immediately for a southern wedding trip. Upon return they will make their home in Pontiac.

We pray God's constant benediction and blessing to crown this union and that the occupants of this newly established home will eventually possess that permanent and eternal abode which is being prepared for them by God and His angelic hosts.

Investment Service at Cadillac

The evening of April 24 became a very interesting and profitable time for seventeen boys and girls of the Cadillac and Marion church schools. Their teachers, Mrs. L. Lownsbery and Miss Elizabeth Van Arsdale respectively, had helped the young people prepare a program that was inspirational and helpful to the parents and friends that met in the Cadillac church.

Elder Fred Beavon, Missionary Volunteer Secretary of the Michigan Conference, invested the students in different classes according to their attainments. There were two Busy Bees, four Sunbeams, four Builders, two Helping Hands, two Friends, one Companion and three Explorers.

Lyndon Greely, who will graduate in a few days from the eighth grade, was invested as a Guide. I'm sure the young people appreciate the wonderful help their teachers gave in this extra-curricular work. Little do our faithful teachers realize the eternal influence they have on the boys and girls that they teach.

OUR HOME BEYOND

O weary heart, there is a home
Beyond the reach of toil and care,
A home where changes never come;
Who would not fain be resting there?

If in thy path some thorns are found,
O think who bore them on His brow.
If grief thy sorrowing heart hath found,
It reached a holier than thou.

Toil on, nor deem, though sore it be,
One sigh unheard, one prayer forgot,
The day of rest will dawn for thee,
Wait, meekly wait, and murmur not.

—W. H. BELLAMY

EVANGELISM AT E.M.C.

For many years E.M.C. has been recognized throughout the world field as a soul-winning training center. Eternity alone will reveal the results of the consecrated workers and laymen that have gone out from the college to herald the Third Angels' Message to the ends of the earth. To give additional strength to this program, the school administration in co-operation with the Religion department is placing a greater emphasis on personal and public evangelistic training in a practical field setting.

In harmony with this emphasis a series of evangelistic meetings was recently conducted in Niles, Michigan under the direction of Elder Bruce Johnston, Instructor in religion. Through this field school, the students of the Methods of Religious Education class observed and participated in preparing, organizing, and conducting an evangelistic series. Each student was assigned a specific duty supervised by Professor Sakae Kubo, general manager of the campaign.

Clarence Bracebridge, senior ministerial student, served as treasurer. Care of the speaking platform was given to Ivan Blazen, another senior ministerial student. Other responsibilities were as follows: home visitation, Neil Mullins; filing and Bible Work, Patricia Calkins, senior Bible Instructor; advertising, Frank Oliver; song leader, Lorie Purdey, assisted by Neil Mullins; ushering, Jan Paulsen; literature distribution, Ed Grentz; and publicity, Bob Wilson.

Continuing every night from Sunday, April 21 to May 5, sixteen meetings were held. The main objective of the series was to help backsliders renew their allegiance to the truth, yet many who had never before visited an Adventist church also attended. Elder Nerness, pastor of the Niles church, encouraged the co-operation of his congregation. Names were submitted by the church members and an intensive program of home visitation was engaged in by members of the class, many other interested students of the college, and the members of the Niles church. Invitations were sent out and paid advertisements were placed in the newspaper. Several items of free publicity appeared in the paper and were also broadcast on the radio.

We could not explain the thrill of our first meeting when we saw the fruits of our visitation and advertising. Seventy-five in attendance were non-Adventists. A large percentage of visitors was maintained during subsequent lectures, averaging forty to fifty per night.

During the meetings both students and church members helped with music, ushering, and the various details of the campaign. Smoothly the meetings continued to the closing night. Elder Johnston, the speaker, made the appeals for those who believed the message to unite with the church. We were encouraged to find that our efforts, combined with much prayer and preparation, helped some sixteen souls to make their decisions to join the remnant church. Many others signified their desire to study further into the message of present truth. A Bible class was set up to review every point of faith. Bible studies by students and church members are being continued. Elder Nerness will continue public meetings on Sunday nights.

Mention should be made along with our deep thanks to Elder G. E. Hutches for his encouragement of our evangelistic program and for the generous financial support of the Michigan conference. The counsel and enthusiastic cooperation of Elder L. C. Caviness, district superintendent, was also greatly appreciated.

The future looks bright for evangelism here at E.M.C. With eager expectation the students are preparing for future campaigns in other areas. Several churches have invited the future classes in Evangelism to conduct meetings in their areas. Realizing the need for evangelism, the school administration is planning in the near future to offer a summer field school in evangelism with full college credit. The summer of 1958 has been tentatively set for the first of these field schools. Bible instructors, ministers, students, and all who feel the call to present our special truths will be welcome to enroll.
