LAKE UNION INGATHERING REPORT

★ ★ ★ Victory in Sight

We are getting close to the end of our 1959 Ingathering.

This week we are glad to report that our Union has reached the basic goal. This basic goal is the total of the basic goals for the various conferences. I want us to keep in mind, however, that we are still $80,000 short of our actual attainments for last year. We know there are some churches that are planning their Ingathering for a little later, but we hope that those who are finishing now will be sure that they have surpassed last year's attainment before they stop their efforts.

Indiana has been the first conference in our Union to report more than they received last year. They just passed that this week. We rejoice with them in this achievement. Wisconsin is close behind. They should be over by our next report in two weeks. Michigan, Illinois and Lake Region are all working on toward victory. It will come, I am sure.

May God bless every one that has worked so hard so far this year. Keep the contacts going for another few days and glean those last few dollars. They are so important. They tell the difference between success or lack of it.

Muskegon Young People Earn Jasper Wayne Awards

The five young people, holding Jasper Wayne Awards, are students of the Muskegon Junior Academy. These young people, ages 13 to 15, set as their objectives in the Ingathering work nothing less than $180 each. One of them, Patsy Kongorski, raised more than $148. From Dec. 6 to Jan. 10, often in blizzard weather and knee deep in snow without complaints about the weather or territory, they kept pressing on until their objectives were reached. The combined total of the five was $700, or 28 Minute Man goals.

In addition to the five mentioned here there are seven others in the church with Jasper Wayne amounts.

The teaching staff of the Muskegon 10-grade school is comprised of Lewis Carson, principal; Miss Lillian Wilke, grades 1 to 3, and Raymond Kongorski, Junior Academy grades 7 to 10. We are indeed thankful to God for Christian schools that not only save our young people from the allurements and temptations about them but also instill in their hearts a love and zeal for the finishing of God's great missionary work in the earth.

The College Church

First Service Held in New EMC Church

by GORDEN ENGEN

Public Relations Secretary, Emmanuel Missionary College

The dreams of many educators and church leaders became a reality Sabbath, Feb. 14, when Emmanuel Missionary College church members met for the first time in the new college church. For nearly 60 years the place of worship was shifted from one location to another, since the college had no church home on its campus.

The students, faculty, and other church members for many months and years had watched the church come into existence—first as an idea in the minds of a few church members and leaders; then in student-sponsored campaigns; bake sales along a busy highway; special offerings each week collected in miniature churches; in fund-raising appeals and special projects; in the ground-breaking ceremonies on April 21, 1957; in cement, framework, and stone of the church as it took form;

through disappointments of postponed openings; and finally, on Feb. 14, in the opening service.

The weather on that Sabbath could not have been termed ideal for such an event. Despite the menacingly low clouds which intermittently emitted rain and mist, visitors from many places joined the college worshippers—a capacity congregation of 2,000.

Above the front entrance the words inscribed in stone over the doors, "An House of Prayer For All People," helped to instill a sense of reverence for this house of God.

Five Sabbath school divisions—nursery, cradle roll, kindergarten, primary, and juniors—met in the lower floor of the church. The college Sabbath school convened in the nave. When all of the divisions assembled in the main sanctuary, the E.M.C. choral union, composed of five choirs, entered.

Music, both by the congregation and the choirs, filled the church as worshippers experienced first-hand the results of their eight years of giving, praying, and working. Under the direction of Mrs. Minnie Iverson Wood, the choral union sang the beautiful Brahms selection "How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling-Place," a fitting introduction to the first service.

As Pastor J. L. Tucker spoke on the love of Jesus, the attention of the audience arose from the speaker to the stained-glass rose window, where in continual view is portrayed the second coming of Christ. The architectural design of the church helps focus the attention of the listeners on the pulpit, minimizing other common distractions which are so often in evidence.

In the cradle roll division, the children helped initiate their new room on the lower floor. Four other rooms are also occupied by children's divisions.

The E.M.C. Choral Union composed of five choirs presented inspiring music.

A highlight of the service, which moved forward with precision and dispatch, came at the conclusion when 22 candidates were baptized.

With the arrival of spring, additional changes in the church surroundings are scheduled to appear which were postponed by the heavy snowfall last autumn. Young trees on the campus, now growing where future buildings are to be constructed, will be added to the church's landscaping. A large parking lot, for which the need was evident at the opening service, is to be made west of the church.

A modest spire will be placed on the west end of the roof in which a Schulerich Coronation Carillon, complete with harp bells, will be installed, a gift of one of the subcontractors on the church who also donated a new seven-foot Baldwin piano.

More than just another church, this long-needed house of worship will serve the young people of the Lake Union as they train for service at Emmanuel Missionary College. Located as it is on the campus of this educational center, now destined to serve an even larger circle of youth and seasoned workers, this new church will play an important part in molding the lives of those commissioned with the task of proclaiming the gospel of Christ to the world.

COMMITMENT DAY

The 1959 Annual Pledge-Signing Campaign and Membership Drive of the American Temperance Society is to be launched on Commitment Day, Feb. 28. On this day every Seventh-day Adventist will be invited to renew his temperance vows.

Pledge signing is nothing new among Seventh-day Adventists. As far back as 1879 Sister White took an active part in launching a pledge-signing campaign at one of our camp meetings. On that occasion 132 signed the pledge.

There are many statements in the Spirit of prophecy emphasizing the importance of our pledge-signing campaign:

"From the light God has given me, every member among us should sign the pledge and be connected with the temperance association."—Temperance, p. 197.

This indicates that Sister White apparently had a vision that a temperance organization would someday be launched by our denomination, for she not only encouraged them to sign the pledge but to be connected with our temperance association.

On Commitment Day every member of the church will be invited not only to sign the pledge but also to renew his membership in the American Temperance Society. Six types of membership are offered our members: the Regular Membership dues are $2 per year; Family Membership, $3 per

The Sting of an Adder

The wise man's observation about the effects of alcohol are just as true today as when he wrote these words, "At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder." Proverbs 23:32.

Recently, in one of our larger cities in Wisconsin, the chief of police spent the hours between 4 and 10 p.m. drinking in a tavern. After leaving the bar, he drove his squad car into the path of an oncoming truck because of his inability to see and think clearly.

In spite of the fact that things were hushed up, the truth was finally revealed. The commission investigating the accident has filed charges against the chief on five counts. This has hurt not only the chief's reputation but also his family's as well. This man no doubt believed the false advertising of the liquor interests, but the words of Solomon proved true again. Liquor is no respecter of persons.

We may say, "But what can I do?" Our responsibility as Christians is threefold:

First, each year we should renew our vow to abstain from all alcoholic year; Contributing, $5; Sustaining, $10; Supporting, $25; and Life Membership, $100.

Upon the payment of the annual dues a membership card is issued, and every member of the society is placed on the mailing list for Listen magazine, which is recognized as the most outstanding temperance periodical published in the world today.

Your membership dues assist in financing not only our local temperance work but also our world-wide temperance program, for 10 per cent of the membership dues is credited to the International Temperance Association for the promotion of our temperance message throughout the world field.

We trust that every reader will respond to the appeals that will be made this year on Commitment Day to sign the pledge and become active members of the American Temperance Society. Now is the time for us as Seventh-day Adventists to make our influence felt by precept and example, by voice, by pen, and by vote in favor of total abstinence and complete elimination of this infamous traffic. W. A. SCHARFFENBERG beverages and join the American Temperance Society.

Second, we should remember that we are held accountable for evils that we might have checked in others by example, by reproof, by warning, and by exercise of parental or pastoral authority.

Third, we should state clearly our position and exert our influence by voice, pen, and vote.

Feb. 28 is Commitment Day in all our churches. Every member ought to sign the pledge, ". . . I solemnly promise by God's help to do all I can to prevent others from falling prey to these habits, and to lead those who are already victims back to a better way of life."

Become an active member in your Temperance Society for 1959 by sending the Listen magazine to the educators and leading citizens of your community. We have wonderful temperance literature today. Let us use it freely. It is our sacred duty to do our part in showing others the better way of life. A. W. BAUER

After nearly seven years of pastoral work in the Illinois Conference, Elder and Mrs. C. Bufano have accepted a call to connect with the Southern California Conference, where he will serve as pastor of the Los Angeles Italian church.

The Bufanos have strengthened the work in this field with their youthful, energetic outlook and deep love for souls.

Sister Bufano has served untiringly in promoting Pathfinder activities in every church where they have labored. Year after year the Chicago Italian Pathfinder Club earned the grand prize at the Pathfinder Fair under her leadership.

We wish them God's blessing as they take up work in their new field, knowing it is their desire to be near their aging parents.

THE PASTOR'S VIEWPOINT*Students Watch It Grow

As a school boy, I remember walking several blocks out of my way to watch a building go up. Day by day the structure grew. It was all fascinating to me.

During the last half of 1958 it has been thrilling to watch the new Broadview Academy grow on "the hill." Each day has brought some new development: doors, windows, a new partition, etc. The students and faculty count it a privilege to watch what the people of Illinois are doing at La Fox.

Let us never forget that we are not merely building five or six buildings on our campus; we are putting them up by the score! These are the buildings that will last for all eternity. We at the academy are dedicated to building character. The buildings of brick and stone are simply tools that help us do the job.

A boy went to one of our week of prayer speakers and said, "I have had enough of religion. I'm sick of having all this church stuff pushed on me." He was told that he didn't need religion, he needed Jesus Christ. He became one of the strong religious leaders on the campus. Another youth had found Jesus at Broadview.

Another boy stood up in a Friday evening vesper service and said, "I intended to make life miserable for everyone here at school this year, but I have found something here that has changed my life." Another victory for Christ at Broadview!

Day after day the building goes on. Those who have made sacrifices for our building program will receive their reward when they see the Lord Jesus place the crowns of victory on the heads of the alumni of our Broadview Academy.

Give generously for the youth of Illinois in 1959. It pays big dividends.

Children Lend Inspiration to Boggstown Ingathering

The junior class has given the Boggstown church outstanding help in the Ingathering campaign. While doing this they assisted in the collection of about 50 toys given by children who wanted to share their old ones with other children less fortunate.

The toys were placed on top of food baskets and the stockings, hung from the fireplace, were filled with money the children had saved before Christmas. They also held a prayer band for one of the children they were helping who had never known the joy of being able to walk because of malnutrition.

After this child had returned home from the clinic and the second food basket was taken to his home, his mother ran to meet us with the news that God had heard the prayers of the children; she showed us her child walking.

The faith and prayer of a child can work wonders.

Eld. Robert L. Boothby and his associates will begin an evangelistic crusade in the Battle Creek Tabernacle on Sunday, March 15, at 7:30 p.m.

The following inspired counsel has been given to churches where evangelistic campaigns are being held: "Let the . . . churches have special seasons of prayer daily for the work that is being done. The blessing of the Lord will come to the church members who thus participate in the work, gathering in small groups daily to pray for its success. . . . The Master has appointed unto every man his work. There are visits to be made, there is sympathy to be imparted; and the piety—the heart and hand—of the whole church is to be employed if the

LITERATURE EVANGELISM WORKSHOP, HINSDALE CHURCH, FEB. 2-7

Among the outstanding Literature Evangelists of the Lake Union we wish to report that a letter just in from Brother George Babler of the Illinois Conference reports more than 60 souls baptized as a result of the contacts he has made and sales of the book "Great Controversy."

Another faithful lady colporteur, Sister Clara Venden of Kalamazoo, Mich., writes, "God has blessed me with the joy of seeing more than 50 of my customers baptized. Sister Henrieta Hirsch of Milwaukee reports that in 13 years she has been rewarded by seeing 20 souls baptized. Brother Clifton Smith of Gobels, Mich., says thus far, "I can count 19 souls baptized." Brother John Weaver of Detroit has had the joy of seeing 18 souls baptized.

Our deepest gratitude and appreciation goes to our brethren of the Lake Region Conference who last year reported 75 souls as the fruit of their united efforts with our good books to top all the other local conferences of the Lake Union

Approximately 150 Literature Evangelists and leaders pictured above set as their goal to deliver one million dollars worth of subscription literature and to reach 500 baptisms during the current year of 1959 at their recent workshop in Hinsdale.

The Divine Blueprint Says:

"And in a large degree through our publishing houses is to be accomplished the work of that other angel who comes down from heaven with great power and who lightens the earth with his glory."—Colporteur Ministry, p. 4.

Boothby (from page six)

work is to be accomplished."—Evangelism, pp. 111, 113.

Around the world, church members of other faiths gather for all-night prayer services in behalf of Billy Graham crusades. Should we do less? Let us petition the Lord for a special measure of His blessing upon this soul-winning endeavor.

Please send the names and addresses of all former Adventists, non-Adventist relatives, Bible school interests, or other individuals whom you know to be interested, to: The Boothby Evangelistic Crusade, Box 900, Lansing. Printed announcements of the Battle Creek evangelistic crusade will be mailed to such persons.
