OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE LAKE UNION CONFERENCE OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

Volume LI

Berrien Springs, Michigan, September 1, 1959

Number 35

This beautiful Anderson, Ind., church was dedicated on July 11 to the worship of God. Surely in these days the Lord is just as well pleased with representative houses of worship as He was in the days of King Solomon.

Anderson Church Dedicated

On July 11, some 500 friends gathered to rejoice over a long-awaited dream that had come true for the members of the Anderson Seventh-day Adventist church. It was the day when they witnessed the dedication of their beautiful new church home.

Eld. J. D. Smith, Lake Union president, gave the dedicatory address at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

New Junior High School for Japan Union Mission to Be Located on the Campus of Japan Missionary College

Our educational work in Japan began early in the twentieth century in the city of Tokyo after the arrival of Professor Grainger, who formerly taught at Pacific Union College in California. Our educational work was small in the beginning, as the message was slow to find a ready response in the hearts of Japan's millions of people.

Thirty-three years ago this year it was felt that our school should be re-located outside of the city of Tokyo, and after some very liberal cash and pledged donations at the time of a mission session in Tokyo by the early believers, it was realized it was time to move outside of the city and locate in the country in harmony with the counsels that have come to us as a people from the servant of the Lord, Ellen G. White.

Today, located in a most beautiful countryside, some 45 miles from Tokyo, is our Japan Missionary College. After the close of World War II, the school continued to grow, until at present there are over 400 students on the campus which is located among the pine trees on a little hill overlooking the Japanese farms and rice fields below.

The junior and senior high school students all study there along with the college students. The Japanese government has been very reluctant to permit the church to build and operate private schools throughout the nation. However, the school has become congested. It is also impractical for the junior high school students and college students to be mingling together in the same dormitory and cafeteria and also to be using at different times the same class rooms.

For some time the Japan Union Mission executive committee has been giving earnest study to the matter of the junior high school needs. After much study and planning it was voted to build quarters for the junior high school needs located at a distance on the college land in nice surroundings. We know that as you look upon these young people who stand here in front of the college entrance and read these words of appeal that your heart will respond with a liberal offering when the third quarter Thirteenth Sabbath Offering is received on September 26.

The largest graduating exercise in the history of the school took place this year, when 109 students received their diplomas from their president, Eld. T. Yamagata. Of this number 38 were from the junior high, 43 senior high, and 28 from the college. Twenty-one were called into the organized work. Since 1949 through 1958, 137 have graduated from the college, and 119 are working at present throughout the island empire of the Japan Union Mission, which includes the island of Okinawa.

The challenge is great in this field where 91 million people live in an area comparable to the state of California. Let us give liberally so that a strong educational program in Japan may result in a goodly number finding their way into the work of God in this part of the Lord's vineyard. Thank you so much for your loving support.

The Divine Blueprint Says:

"In this closing work of the gospel there is a vast field to be occupied; and, more than ever before, the work is to enlist helpers from the common people. Both the youth and those older in years will be called from the field, from the vineyard, and from the workshop, and sent forth by the Master to give His message."—Colporteur Ministry, p. 21.

Pictured here are graduates of the various branches of Japan Missionary College. This represents the largest graduating group in the history of the school. The graduates from the various levels were as follows:

Junior High School	38
Senior High School	43
College	28

Twenty-one were called into the organized work.

The Parents' Prayer

"O, Master, make me a better parent.

"Teach me to understand my children, to listen patiently to what they have to say, and to answer all questions kindly. Keep me from interrupting them, talking back to them and contradicting them. Make me as courteous to them as I would have them be to me. Give me the courage to ask them forgiveness, when I know that I have done them a wrong.

"May I not vainly hurt the feelings of my children. Forbid that I should laugh at their mistakes or resort to shame and ridicule as punishment. Let me not tempt my child to lie and to steal. So guide me hour by hour that I may demonstrate by all I say and do that honesty produces happiness.

"Reduce, I pray, the meanness in me. May I cease to nag; and when I am out of sorts, help me to hold my tongue.

"Blind me to the little errors of my children and help me to see the good things they do. Give me a ready word for honest praise.

"Help me to grow up with my children, to treat them as would those of their own age; but let me not exact of them the judgment and conventions of adults. Allow me not to rob them of opportunities to wait upon themselves, to think, to choose, and to make decisions.

"Forbid that I should ever punish them for my selfish satisfaction. May I grant them all their wishes that are reasonable, and have the courage always to withhold a privilege which I know will do them harm.

"Make me so fair and just, so considerate and companionable to my children, that they will have a genuine esteem for me. Fit me to be loved and imitated.

"With all Thy gifts, O great Master, give me a calm, poise and self-control."

Home and School

Every Seventh-day Adventist church should be filled when this informative program by Dr. Harold Shryock is presented by your Home and School Association. Believe it or not, some parents are ignorantly doing the very things that are most likely to cause mental illness in their children. What are they? Be sure to get this program.

Father can do much to make his home happy.

Try This

Father would gain much by giving some of his time each day to his child.

Not This

Is the paper more important than your child?

It is the duty of God's children to be cheerful.

New Workers Join Publishing Department

Brother and Sister Hunter Crigler have joined the Lake Region Conference as assistants to Eld. John Frank Lee and will be responsible for the work in the Indiana territory. Brother and Sister Crigler come to us from the large Allegheny Conference where he was one of their star literature evangelists.

We welcome these good people to their new responsibilities and know that he will have many wonderful experiences working in this section of the field.

Great Controversy Wins

One day as I was canvassing in Braddock, Pa., I stopped by the home of a Jehovah's Witness family. I talked to the mother and her six children. They were very interested in The Bible Story and purchased the first five volumes. The father was at work.

When I had finished my business at this home, I moved on next door. While I was canvassing there, the father of the Jehovah's Witness family I had visited came home from work. He came to his neighbor's house where I was canvassing and asked me to return to his home when I had finished there.

In a few minutes I returned to the Jehovah's Witness home. I soon found out that the father (I shall call him Mr. Jones) wanted to discuss the second coming of Christ and the Millennium rather than the books I had just sold his wife. I gave him the opportunity to expound on the subjects; however, his knowledge was very limited concerning them.

After he had stated everything he knew about the second coming of Christ and the Millennium, I calmly opened and explained the Bible facts pertaining to the same to him. He was very surprised. After some comments, I presented the Great Controversy. I had prayer and left this home with a $77 order. I went on about my day's work. He evidently began reading the Great Controversy as soon as I left.

Before I got in from work the same afternoon, Mr. Jones had called the Review and Herald Publishing Association in Washington, D.C., to inquire about the Adventist faith and about the book, Great Controversy.

After my wife and I had finished dinner that evening, about 7:30 p.m., Mr. Jones came over to our house. He was not in an argumentative mood this time. He was anxious to learn about this new faith. He asked many questions, for which I endeavored to give Bible answers. My wife and I took him home at 2:30 a.m. My wife was introduced to Mrs. Jones and they talked until 4 a.m. You can imagine how wide awake we were at work the next day.

Each day thereafter, Mr. Jones either called or came to our home, until Sabbath. On Sabbath we stopped by and took him to Sabbath school with us. When the invitation to join the church was made, Mr. Jones went forward. At this time he gave a personal testimony of how happy he was to find the truth and join with this body of believers. He said that it was what he had been looking for all of his life. He desired to become a literature evangelist, but not being a baptized Seventh-day Adventist, he could not; however, he did go out with me a few times as I canvassed. He is now attending the baptismal class, awaiting baptism.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

All union conference secretaries will be present to take an active part in the work of the convention.

Local conference secretaries will be there to share their inspiration and experiences.

For conference workers it will be like going to school again. The source material and current information will prove invaluable to your work. Everyone will be saying, "I heard it at the American Temperance Society Convention in '59."

All active ATS members are eligible. This is your convention. Come and help lay greater plans for the temperance work in your community.

Of What Does True Education Consist?

To some, true education consists of taking a certain course of study. However, in its true sense it is broader than this. True education includes the harmonious development of all the physical powers and the mental faculties. It also teaches the love and fear of God and is a preparation for the faithful discharge of life's duties.

When a person receives a proper education he receives one which includes not only mental enlargement and mental discipline but also training which will supply sound morals and correct deportment. This training is obtained in our own schools only.

The lesson our children should learn first is to know and understand God's will. Every day of life should be dedicated to the effort of gaining this knowledge. To learn science through human interpretation alone is to obtain a false education, but to learn of God and Christ is to learn the science of heaven. The confusion in education has come because the wisdom and knowledge of God have not been exalted.

It is certainly true and important that our children receive such education that will fit and prepare them to be of use in the world. However, any effort that exalts intellectual culture above moral training is misdirected. Instructing, cultivating, polishing, and refining our youth in our schools is the main burden of our Christian teachers. Our teachers in our schools realize that the highest class of education is that which will give such knowledge and discipline as will lead to the best development of character, and will fit the soul of the boy and girl for that life which measures with the life of Christ.

Upon us as fathers and mothers, guardians of great trust, our children, devolves the responsibility of giving a Christian education to the children entrusted to us. In no case are we to allow any line of business to so absorb mind, and time, and talents that our children are allowed to drift until they are separated far from God.

Summer Progress at Broadview

Girls' Dormitory

If present plans are completed, the walls in the girls' dormitory will be painted by the time school starts and the floor tile will be installed. The young people will really be able to enjoy their dormitory home.

Library

A group of faithful carpenters have been building book shelves in the library and another faithful group of workmen have done the painting so that this room will be in fine shape for the opening of school.

Sidewalks

Oh, yes, will there be sidewalks at Broadview this year? If all goes well, the parking areas will be blacktopped, and there will be sidewalks installed between the campus buildings including the dining hall. Students and faculty and visitors will no longer have to walk in the dust or mud to get from place to place.

Dining Hall

The ceiling in the dining hall is being plastered and insulated so the students will be able to eat in comfort all winter.

Thanks to all faithful men and women who have contributed time to "Operation Broadview."

A Little Girl's Plea

(What will your answer be?)

"Daddy, please send me to church school—

It's starting next Monday, you know; Then I can learn 'bout the Bible. Daddy, please, may I go?"

"Do not ask me again, child; I've told you the answer before— I can't spare the money this year; Your daddy is just too poor.

"Besides, you are taught the Bible By Father and Mother, you know. So it really doesn't matter To which of the schools you go."

So she kissed him and said, "Good night, Daddy," And went to her little bed; She knelt by its side to tell Jesus All that her daddy had said.

Each night she had prayed about church school, That her daddy would let her go there, Believing that ere Monday morning Her Jesus would answer her prayer.

Her daddy tried reading his Bible, Then finally went to his bed, But the child's earnest petition Kept running through his head.

And lo, he dreamed 'twas the Sabbath And he sat in his usual place; The people were gathering for worship, A serious look on each face.

After a moment of quiet While the minister knelt in prayer, The door to the children's room opened And an angel bright stood there.

"Christ and His angels are in here," Said the angel with solemn face; "He has come to judge His people And decide upon each case.

"The books are being opened; I shall call each one by name" Said the angel. Then he closed the door And silence reigned again.

"Daddy, what does the angel mean? Did you know he would come to-day? If he should come and call my name I wouldn't know what to say."

He tried to answer his darling, But his voice was dry, and choked Her heart grew even more afraid, As into his pale face she looked.

"Where are the lambs?" asked the angel, "The flock that was given to thee— I am calling the name of Mary, Entrusted to Martha and Lee."

"O Daddy, please go with me," She plead as she clung to his hand But the angel tenderly whispered, "Each one alone must stand."

He watched her follow the angel With anxious, troubled heart. "What have I done to prepare her?" he cried, "Oh, that I had done my part!"

How could he face the Saviour? The thought was too great, it seemed.

It wakened him from his sleeping, To find it was all a dream.

"Thank God!" he fervently whispered, "I still can do my part. My daughter shall go to church school, Where they teach head, hand and heart."

He watched his child peacefully sleeping, Unconscious that ere midnight came Her Jesus had answered her pleading By sending her daddy a dream.

Will You Help?

The other day a fine young lady, an "A" student, came with her widowed mother to Broadview Academy to apply for admission. The mother has no income sufficient for sending the girl to school.

Will some of our people who are able help? There are many like this who could be trained for a place in the Lord's work.

Contact either C. W. Jorgensen at the Academy, Box 7, La Fox, Ill., or to the conference treasurer.

Broadview Academy Alumni Banquet SUNDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1959

Plan to spend the day with old friends. Come early to enjoy games, a tour of our beautiful new Broadview Academy, colored movies of the new academy being built, and, of course, the banquet in the afternoon.

Watch for further details and directions on how to locate B.V.A., La Fox, Ill.

Those of you who have visited our new Broadview Academy will be glad to know we have been putting some of the finishing touches on the campus lawn, sidewalks, decorating in the buildings, etc.

The Lord has surely blessed our efforts at the academy and we want you ALUMNI to come and see the progress that has been made in order to continue the good services which we enjoyed in years gone by.

Pathfinder Day, Sept. 12

September 12 will be an outstanding day in most of the churches in Illinois. On this day the Pathfinder clubs will be in charge of the church services.

Wherever you go you will find the same program—Pathfinders in action. So stay home and attend your home church. Find out just what is being done by and for your junior boys and girls.

Church leaders, if you have no club this is your opportunity to start one. The church is waiting for action on your part. Your boys and girls are looking to you for leadership. Why not take advantage of this day set apart throughout the world field for this purpose?

No organization started by this denomination has taken root and grown so rapidly as the Pathfinder organization. Outdoor living, handicrafts, group association, leadership, spiritual guidance—all of these are a part of the training being given these juniors.

If your juniors do not have the privilege of belonging to a Pathfinder club they are indeed missing a great deal that is worth-while.

Make September 12 a high day for the juniors in your church.

The names of the newly welcomed members are: Mr. and Mrs. Americo Lopez, Miss Dominga Divera, Victor Martinez, Mr. and Mrs. Heriberto Lopez, and Jesus Manuel Diaz.

What Is the Conference 2 Per Cent Fund?

Some have asked, "What is the conference 2 per cent fund?" This is to the conference what the poor fund is to the local church. Sometimes there are expenses for which no regular provision is made. We have helped a number of people who could not have been aided in other ways.

Probably when the title envelopes are reprinted, this name should be changed to, "Conference Poor Fund." It could be more easily understood, perhaps, if given such a name.

Large Offering Needed to Insure Academy Building Progress

Not long ago the president of our country made this statement, "The spiritual powers of the nation, its underlying religious faith, its self-reliance, its capacity for intelligent sacrifice, are the most important stones in any defense structure."

The above statement is certainly a fitting picture of the pioneers of this movement. We have a great deal to be thankful for as we see the progress in the field of education around the world. Our schools were established by men and women of deep faith and religious experience. No sacrifice was too great for them. And as we view the results of their work we recognize that theirs was an intelligent sacrifice. This has been the past experience of Seventh-day Adventists in the Wisconsin Conference.

When the College View, Neb., church was dedicated in 1894, A. R. Henry, financial agent of the General Conference, reported that the Wisconsin Conference gave $500 toward the building of this church. This was the only conference east of the Mississippi to give help for this building.

Wisconsin has a building project of its own that needs to be completed. The administration building is going up. Funds are needed if the building is to continue. Wisconsin Academy has an enviable record. This school was established with a forward look. Its greatest glory is today and in the future.

The challenge of this dangerous hour has alerted the Wisconsin Conference. The spirit of the pioneers is alive today as we step forward into an uncertain but triumphant future.

"We have nothing to fear for the future except as we shall forget the way the Lord has led us and His teaching in our past history."—Life Sketches, p. 198.

"All who are seeking to work in harmony with God's plan of education will have His sustaining grace, His continual presence, His keeping power."—Ministry of Healing, p. 405.

On Sabbath, August 22, the offering throughout the state of Wisconsin will be for our Academy. $10,000 is needed in this state wide offering if the building is to continue. What will you do on that day? Will you have the spirit of the pioneers?

FALL SERIES OF TEX BEGINS IN ITHACA

On September 12, which has been designed as visitors' day by the General Conference, the first Teachers' Exchange of the fall series will be held at Cedar Lake Academy from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. No movies will be shown in order to allow more time for technical Sabbath school presentations. Bring what you have or can think of in this line and let others have the benefit of your experience. Mrs. Grau and Elder Grau will be present.

Brother Neal L. Harris will conduct the senior-youth group and present the lesson for the following Sabbath. Therefore, bring your lesson quarterlies, please.

All teachers and workers in ALL divisions should be present without fail. All who are absent will abhor themselves in sackcloth and ashes when they hear what they have missed! Therefore, come! M. F. GRAU

Pictorial Review of the Michigan Camp Meeting

One of the highlights of the closing services on Sabbath, August 15, at the Michigan Camp Meeting, was the evangelism and mission pageant.

Leading the procession into the huge auditorium were former and present missionaries in native costume. They were followed by a large group of Jasper Wayne award winners—those who had raised $130, or more, in last year's Ingathering.

Following these individuals came representatives from the various churches of the conference. Some of the Jasper Wayne award winners are seen in the foreground as Eld. Howard Burbank thanks the congregation for their help in the Ingathering program.

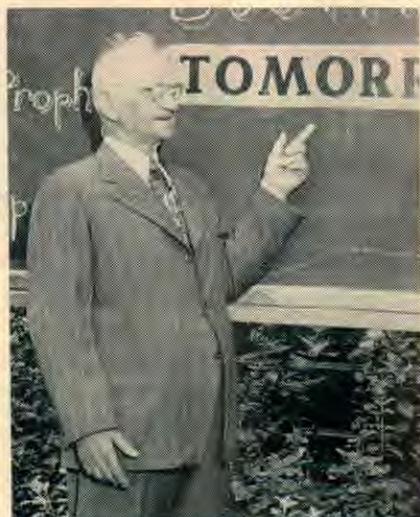

FOUR MICHIGAN PASTORS ORDAINED

Ordination services for four Michigan pastors were held Friday night, August 14, as a part of the evening program, when Eld. Arthur S. Maxwell, editor of "Signs of the Times," was the speaker.

The prayer of ordination was given by Eld. Andrew C. Fearing, associate secretary of the Ministerial Association of the General Conference. The charge was administered by Eld. Jere D. Smith, president of the Lake Union Conference, and Eld. George E. Hutches, president of the Michigan Conference, gave the official welcome.

The oldest Adventist present at the Michigan Camp Meeting was L. W. Krieger, 95, of Bellevue, who faithfully attended the services. Although he is approaching the century mark, Brother Krieger is alert and keen and active in the work of his church.

Beautiful in its simplicity and symmetry is the newly dedicated Buchanan church.

Beauty of the Buchanan church interior can be readily seen in this study of contrast.

A CHURCH WITH THAT EXTRA SOMETHING

New Buchanan Church Dedicated

For the worship of God in praise and prayer; for the preaching of the everlasting gospel; for the celebration of holy communion—we dedicate this house.

With these words of dedication the attractive Buchanan church was dedicated to the service of God on Sabbath, August 1, with Eld. George E. Hutches giving the dedication service.

"We are met here today to dedicate this beautiful house of worship, but in an actual sense the dedication has been done by the prayers, sacrifice, and the consecrated work of those who have labored on this building," asserted Elder Hutches.

The history of the church was read by John D. Freeman. The act of dedication was given by former pastor L. C. Caviness, and district leader Robert L. Boothby offered the dedicatory prayer. Also taking part in this service was Eld. Earl Snow, former pastor.

The history of the Buchanan church goes back 52 years to Oct. 5, 1907, when Eld. H. G. Haughey met with the group to lay plans for the organization of a church. A week later this took place with 19 charter members.

During the years 1934-39 the church became inactive but was reorganized on Dec. 2, 1939, with 18 members. Growth since that day has been steady.

Plans for a new church structure were first studied in 1954 under the pastorship of Elder Snow and construction was begun under Elder Caviness, and finished under the present pastor, Eld. Merrill Fleming. Evangelistic meetings held by Elders Bruce Johnston and Sakae Kubo, with the aid of Emmanuel Missionary College students, has added to the growth of the church, which today has a membership of 102.

Attractive is a weak word to describe the appearance and appointments of the Buchanan church. Perhaps the overall estimate can be best summed up in the words of Elder Hutches who told the capacity congregation of 210, "This church has that extra something."

Located on a three-and-one-half acre plot of ground in a rural setting one mile east of Buchanan, this sanctuary is a reminder of the worship of God. A special note is the easily read sign strategically placed so that travelers on the busy Niles-Buchanan road can see it.

The best place to start on a church inspection is in the basement. Here the thinking of any church is reflected in the care and preparation for their most priceless asset, the children. In Buchanan the four well-lighted, beautiful classrooms with plastered walls and tiled floors, invite the young of the church to study.

In the main sanctuary the blonde oak pews and ultra furniture contrast with the dark stained exposed arches. The little extras that add much to the attitude of worship are apparent. The padding in the pews, the foam rubber base in the hymnal rack are some of these extras. Cross ventilation in the church is easily achieved by the horizontally louvered windows which give air and also shade the rays of the sun.

Travelers by the Buchanan Church need have no doubts as to the identity of this house of worship.

The climax of the activities of the day came following a musical program in the afternoon when several young people were baptized.

News Notes

★ A board meeting was held the evening of July 19 at the Medical Center on Outer Drive in Detroit. Doctors Ballard, Willard, Foster and Van Arsdale are very busy in that area in the medical work.

★ Extensive improvements and a new section are being added on the offices of Dr. L. R. McElmurry of Lansing.

★ Eld. S. Graham Joyce baptized seven new members and accepted one on profession of faith at the Detroit Van Dyke church Sabbath, August 1. He also baptized 15 and accepted one on profession of faith on May 23, making a total of 24 accepted into the church this year.

Cook-Torkelson Wedding

Before an altar, decorated with candles and baskets of gladioli, a beautiful wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon, August 16, at 3 o'clock in the Cedar Lake Academy Chapel, when Martha Jean Cook became the bride of Robert Eugene Torkelson.

The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Torkelson of Berrien Springs and Mr. and Mrs. E. Edwin Cook of Cedar Lake.

Pastor O. L. Johnston of Kalamazoo performed the ceremony.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Dwight Collins, sister of the bride and the best man was Philip Lucas.

The prayers and best wishes of a host of friends go with this young couple as they establish their home in Berrien Springs.

FLORENCE E. SHELTON

Thompson-Oviatt Wedding

On Sunday afternoon, June 21, Ruth Thompson of Owosso, Mich., and William Oviatt of Birmingham, Mich., exchanged marriage vows in a beautiful candlelight ceremony in the Owosso Seventh-day Adventist church. Frank E. Vessels, uncle of the bride and pastor of the Akron, Ohio, church, officiated. The young couple were received by a large number of friends and relatives in an attractive reception immediately following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. William Oviatt will make their home in Avon Park, Fla., where both will be employed at the Walker Memorial Hospital. Both are recent graduates of Emmanuel Missionary College.

Detroit Area Pathfinders Hold Wilderness Campout

One of the high points of the summer activities of Pathfinder clubs in the Detroit area was the wilderness campout held on the Ferndale school property in Clawson, Mich.

Clubs participating were the Southfield Club, William Edsel, director; Pontiac Chiefs, Richard Edens, director; The Holly Berries, Mervin LaPlant, director; and the Ferndale Busy Beavers, Jerry Canther, director. The campout was held from Friday afternoon until Sunday afternoon and over 125 Pathfinders from the four clubs attended.

Camp was set up with commercialism to a minimum. The wilderness was our objective.

After the assembly, flag ceremonies were held and sundown worship was held by the campfire after a song fest. Bugle calls preceded all assemblies and flag ceremonies. Allen Deninson, Ferndale, was the bugler. Speaker for the Sabbath morning worship service was Joshua Swinyar from the Van Dyke church. William Edsel, Southfield, was the song director.

Afternoon activities included a nature hike and a scavenger hunt and the collections were displayed and judged, with Pontiac winning first place and Ferndale second. Saturday evening a talent program with entries from all clubs was held with Richard Edens, Pontiac, as director.

Highlight of the Sunday's program was the field activities which consisted of the various field and tract events so popular with young people. The finale of the day was a grand review with the parade of the Pathfinders passing an assembly point. The campers departed from the campsite with many memories of a pleasant week end.

Wilderness Campers Endure and Enjoy Rugged Living

The first Senior MV Wilderness Camp ever conducted in Michigan was operated this year by the Michigan MV department in connection with its regular Senior Camp the last week in July.

The Wilderness Camp, directed by Pastor Milo Sawvel, was at Camp Kirtland, across the beautiful Shellenbarger Lake from Camp Au Sable. Eleven campers, four men and seven women, lived close to nature as they met the requirements for their MV honors in Pioneering and Wilderness Living. This was the first group in Michigan ever to complete these two difficult honors in one week of camping. Pastor Sawvel proudly presented them with their honor tokens at the close of the campfire service, Aug. 1, 1959.

Crowded into one busy week of work and play, study and fun, are countless cherished memories. Activities included a 20-mile pack trip, a 45-mile over night trip on the Manistee River, and work on various construction projects, such as camp furniture, a bridge across a small bayou, and an observation tower, made by lashing jack pine poles together.

A five-mile hike under the stars, after campfire at night, gave opportunity to observe a fine display of northern lights. Another five-mile hike early the next morning promoted a healthy appetite for breakfast. Those who wished picked blueberries to supplement camp food.

Sleeping a night on the ground in beds of native materials under a lean-to shelter of branches and ferns, helped campers to appreciate the luxury of a pup tent.

Wet clothing, rain-soaked bedding, minor injuries, a hand filled with porcupine quills (over 60 by actual count), blisters, wasp stings, sunburn, falling into the lake and swimming to shore towing an overturned canoe were all taken as a matter of course.

As camp drew to a close, campers talked enthusiastically about next year's wilderness camp. If you enjoy rugged living, lots of fun, and adventure, why not plan now to join them next year?

Adelphian Teacher Becomes Principal of Guam Academy

Recently leaving the Adelphian Academy faculty to become missionaries on the island of Guam were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greve and family.

The Greves are graduates of Adelphian in 1949 and 1951 respectively. Married Aug. 8, 1954, the couple now have two children, Debra, 4, and Valerie, 2.

Graduating from Emmanuel Missionary College in 1954, Mr. Greve taught church school in South Bend, Ind., and Holly, Mich. For the past three years he has been head of the science department of Adelphian.

Shortly before the school term ended in May the Greves received and accepted a call to go to the Far Eastern Mission academy with an enrollment of about 100 students. It is located near Agana, the capitol of Guam. Mr. Greve will be the principal and teach the science classes.

Always intensely interested in mission stories since childhood, Mr. Greve was inspired to spend time in mission service by the experiences of two relatives. An Aunt, Miss Dora Greve, now located in Southern Rhodesia, has spent a number of years in Africa and his only sister, Mrs. Leslie Charles Schofield (Donna Greve) is at present working with her husband on a medical mission launch in South America.

Mr. Greve's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Greve of Washington, D.C., and Rose City, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Bather of Jackson, Mich., are the parents of Mrs. Greve, the former Nancy Bather. MRS. EVELYN LUTZ

Noerrlinger-Streidl Wedding

The wedding ceremony for Miss Marion Noerrlinger and Harold Streidl took place 4:30 p.m. Sunday, May 31, in the Emmanuel Missionary College church. Theirs was the first wedding to be performed in the new church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noerrlinger of Sheldon, Wis., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Streidl of Berrien Springs, Mich. Both the bride and groom were members of the senior class that was graduated from the college on the morning of their wedding day.

A wedding reception was held in Lamson Hall following the wedding. Later that evening the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to northern Michigan and Wisconsin. They have spent the summer in the Emmanuel Missionary College community but will be leaving in the near future to take up their new responsibilities as teachers on the faculty of Cedar Lake Acad.

Jones-Beal Wedding

Miss Carol Jones and Orville Beal were united in marriage Sunday, August 2, at 2 p.m. in the Lansing S.D.A. church. Attendants of the bride included Connie and Phyllis Jones, sisters of the bride and students at Emmanuel Missionary College; and Leona Burnett, a cousin from Bayshore, Mich.

Attendants of the groom were Ronnie Burnett, a cousin from Charlevoix; and Fred Berger of Carney and James Metzger of Gobles, both students at E.M.C. The bride and the groom were also students of E.M.C.

Following a brief honeymoon, they will leave for Loma Linda, Calif., where Orville will continue his studies in physical therapy and Carol will work in the college grocery store.

We wish them God's blessing in the establishment of a fine Christian home and in their plans for the future.

Dr. Millard Milton Brayshaw of Loma Linda, Calif., was born Feb. 20, 1863, in Illinois and passed away Aug. 6, 1959, in Mentone, Calif. He is survived by three daughters: Mrs. H. D. Wheeler of Inglewood, Calif., and Mrs. Ruth Myers and Miss Grace Brayshaw of Loma Linda, Calif.; three sons, Norman M. Brayshaw of Paige, Ariz., Dr. Floyd M. Brayshaw, Hinsdale, Ill., and Dr. William Brayshaw, Whittier, Calif., a brother, Frank Brayshaw of Du Quoin, Ill.; a sister, Mrs. Minnie Cardey of Modesto, Calif.; 12 grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

About three years ago Dr. Brayshaw received a special citation from the American Medical Association for his 50 years' continuous service in the medical profession. Eld. G. T. Dickinson Joseph Kozeny, 82, of Cedar Springs, Mich., died May 31, 1959. He was leader of a branch Sabbath school and active in church work for a number of years. Surviving is his wife, Mina.

Letta Sterling-Lewis, 94, of Holly, Mich., passed away May 11 at Hurley Hospital in Flint where she had been taken May 9 after suffering a stroke. Funeral services were held May 13 in Adelpian Academy's Weaver auditorium by Eld. R. W. Pratt, Eld. Donald Mackintosh and E. E. Kopp and at the Berrien Springs church by Elders Lamar Allred and R. U. Garrett. Burial was in Rose Hill Cemetery.

Born Altha Orletta Sterling on Feb. 11, 1865, in Springwater, N.Y., she later moved with her family to Otsego, Mich., in Allegan county. On May 19, 1886, she married Thomas Ogden Lewis. Eld. Tucker Greets worshippers at the front door of the church.

a project which has brought new members to churches in practically every conference in North America. Elder Tucker reports that an average of one letter a day comes to him from listeners stating that they have begun to keep the Sabbath.

In honor of the departing pastor and his wife, the E.M.C. church presented a farewell in the form of the famous television program "This Is Your Life."

Gifts were presented to the Tuckers from the children's division of the Sabbath school by Judy Rittenhouse, daughter of President Rittenhouse; from the college women by Miss Arlene Friestad, dean of women; from the college men by a student, Robert Wilkins; from the college staff and faculty by V. E. Garber, business manager; and from the church members in general by Paul Kuhlman, a local businessman.

The Tuckers have been active in both college and community affairs. One of the most lasting tributes to Elder Tucker is the new college church. As chairman of the building committee, he sparked interest, enthusiasm, and support for its construction from the beginning.

Although the Tuckers will not be in the Lake Union in person, they will still make their regular weekly visit via their radio program, The Quiet Hour.

The college family and community wish God's blessings for Elder and Mrs. Tucker.
