

WHAT will 1962 mean to the work of Adventist television?

Will it mean an increase in Faith for Today outlets in the expanding overseas television markets? Latest reports list 920 TV outlets (in operation or planned) in 81 nations outside the United States and Canada. Adventist television is on only seven! Word from Ibadan, Nigeria, West Africa, our

Help to Sow the Seed! Give to Share the Blessing! FAITH FOR TODAY ANNUAL OFFERING FEBRUARY 10, 1962 latest overseas TV outlet, tells of fruitful contacts with high governmental, business, and educational people who were so difficult to reach in the past. These contacts are in addition to the interest among the ordinary citizens of this area where the average television viewing audience is about 20 per set. New contacts, new Bible school enrollments, new baptisms are resulting because of Faith for Today.

Australia, Guam, Bermuda, Nigeria, Philippine Islands, and Puerto Ricoonly six countries outside the United States and Canada entered with seven TV outlets! What about the remaining 913 stations?

What will 1962 mean to the work of Faith for Today in the North Amerby our people. Each station has but a few hours available for religious television. I have been told by program directors that Faith for Today is setting the pace in the field of religious telecast promotion. This is the way it should be, for we are "selling" the most important and valuable product in the world—eternal life. However, what we are currently doing is almost nothing compared with what should be done.

What is YOUR church doing? What are YOU doing to promote Faith for Today in your area? Are logs and enrollment cards available? Are they being used or collecting dust in the tract rack? Has your church entered into the systematic plan of ican Division? God has richly blessed the program of station expansion during the past few years. New heights in the number of station outlets have been reached, and we now have an all-time high of 180 station outlets. Our current target is 200. Will it be reached in 1962? It can be. Your special Faith for Today offering on February 10 will determine to a large extent whether this will be accomplished. Faith for Today can now reach 70 per cent of our population. What about the other 30? The Good Shepherd endured hardship and trials to locate ONE lost sheep. Surely He wants us to sacrifice to reach the 14 million TV homes currently outside the viewing circle of F.F.T.

What will this year mean in increasing the viewing audience in areas where Faith for Today is currently being seen? Is every opportunity being taken to meet this year's General Conference Radio-TV Department's objective of "More to View and Listen Too"?

The world of business and industry knows that advertising is a "must" to keep business alive. Even the bestknown product slips into oblivion when advertising is cut off. This is also true in the field of religious telecasting where there is much competition in the attempts to catch and hold the attention of the viewing audience.

A definite part of staying on a station is the program promotion given covering its territory with the free, audience-building "I Was Frightened by TV" leaflet? Is consideration being given to purchasing spot announcements on your local TV station currently carrying the program, or are arrangements being made to run a small ad in the TV Guide? More promotion means more souls. Let's not be happy with the 1,000 baptisms a year that Faith for Today knows of. Let's double this in '62, getting "More to View and Listen Too."

Commitment Day

Survival-conscious Americans need to get their heads out of the sand and begin looking realistically at some somber internal problems which may threaten their survival sooner than multimegaton bombs.

Such is the theme of the American Temperance Society Commitment Day tract, "Survival," which our people will be sharing with their friends and neighbors February 24. Along with the "Survival" idea, which haunts the thinking of Americans today, recent issues of Smoke Signals (at special $13.50 rate per thousand) will help provide a dual impact in the T-Day campaign.

All churches should secure their supplies from the conference temperance secretary, if they have not already done so.

Action is the temperance motto for 1962. When you sign the pledge and join the society, plan to take an active part in literature distribution. Make February 24 a commitment to action,

Birthday-Thank Offerings for 1962

by F. A. MOTE, General Field Secretary General Conference of S.D.A.

God has been so good to each one of us, much better than we deserve. How we need to remember to give thanks unto our heavenly Father for His lovingkindness to us! Surely we have many things for which to be thankful. We thank God for full and free salvation. Our lives have been preserved. Perhaps we have been in an accident and have come out of the difficult experience with renewed life so that we have been preserved for further service, or it may be that we have had a very serious illness and as a result of proper care and answered prayers in our behalf we have been healed. We have had the care and protection of our guardian angels in times of dangers, both seen and unseen.

Then we have had other experiences which come to God's faithful children around the world. We have prayed for the conversion of some precious souls, and maybe after many months, or perhaps years, of patiently working and praying we have seen such souls converted to God. How thankful we are for these precious souls who are thus brought into this glorious message! Many of our farmers and even those who live in suburban areas have had good crops. Gardens have been blessed abundantly, or our fruit trees and vines have yielded a rich harvest. We need to thank God for being so good to us.

We know of many of our dear brethren who have been saved from disasters, such as hurricanes, typhoons, or other serious storms and floods, or they have been preserved from fire, carthquakes, and other disturbances and unrest in the world. For these and many other blessings which cannot be enumerated we do thank our heavenly Father, and surely we should remember to bring to Him from time to time a liberal thank offering.

"For life, health, food and clothing, no less than for the hope of eternal life, we are indebted to the Giver of all mercies; and it is due to God to recognize His gifts, and to present our offerings of gratitude to our great benefactor. These birthday gifts are recognized of heaven."-Counsels on Sabbath School Work, p. 143.

For years it has been our practice to present unto God an offering for giving us another year of life. The Birthday-Thank Offering has been blessed, and such offerings have helped to advance the cause of God throughout the world field. Not only have many of our brethren in different portions of the earth been very faithful in returning unto God their birthday offerings once a year, but often they have given liberal thank offerings. We all need to do this more than we have.

"Think of the Saviour's matchless love. While we were yet sinners, Christ died to save us from eternal death. In return for the great love wherewith Christ has loved you, you are to bring to Him your thank-offering. You are to make a gratitude offering of yourself. Your time, your talents, your means-all are to flow to the world in a tide of love for the saving of the lost."-Testimonies, Vol. 9, p. 50.

Most of us have not given our thank offerings as freely as we should have in the past. Remember that the funds thus given, when the regular Sabbath School birthday and thank offerings are taken in your Sabbath Schools from time to time, are in addition to our regular Sabbath School contributions. They are a gift of thanksgiving for the goodness of God to each of us as His children. These funds will be used to take the gospel story to those who are still waiting in darkness. May God give us a spirit of thankfulness and liberality.

A Tract Did It

A Hindu convert to Christianity in Gopalganj, East Bengal (now East Pakistan), decided to go to Mr. Carey's College near Calcutta to study; but because he arrived late, there was no room for him and he was not accepted.

Downhearted and dejected, Mr. Poddar started home. While he waited in Calcutta for a train that would take him on his way, a missionary lady handed him a tract about the Sabbath. He jammed the tract into his pocket without even reading it. The next day when he reached home he was tired and discouraged, so he cast himself upon the bed and went to sleep.

Mr. Poddar's children were so awed by their father's downcast return that they slunk away fearfully, yet they hoped their daddy had brought them sweets from the city. After their father was sound asleep, the other children sent their little 4-year-old brother, Shreekant, to search their father's pockets. Shreekant did a thorough job of it,

One by one Shreekant emptied his daddy's pockets. When he was finished, the little Sabbath tract lay prominent in the litter. It was the first thing that Mr. Poddar saw when he awakened.

He read it. The evidence it contained was clear. The Bible enjoined Sabbath keeping. Indeed, Jesus had kept the Sabbath-not Sunday. Mr. Poddar was stirred through and through. Had he not left his former religion to obey the truth? He was deeply agitated. Quickly putting on his coat he rushed to the pastor's home. A special function in honor of the pastor's son was going on at the pastor's home. Without hesitation he burst in to ask, "Why do we not keep the Bible Sabbath?"

The reply he got shocked and surprised him: the "Law is Jewish." Mr. Poddar replied, "Maybe the Law

Mr. Poddar replied, "Maybe the Law is Jewish—Jesus was also a Jew. I gave up my former faith because I wanted to follow Jesus. Jesus kept the Sabbath and I will keep it too." The truth was clear to him and he followed it.

Correspondence with Miss Georgia Burrus, printer of the tract, finally brought Eld. J. L. Shaw to open a mission at Gopalganj, East Bengal.

Today we have a flourishing hospital at Gopalganj, a fine high school 30 miles away, and hundreds of believers following Jesus, keeping His holy Sabbath day in this great delta territory of our division.

Shreekant, now retired, was for years a worker in the Oriental Watchman Publishing House, Today his three sons are workers in the cause in Southern Asia.

As the bread broken by the hands of Jesus was multiplied to feed the multitudes, so the Bread of Life is being given to the multitudes in Shreekant's land through the Voice of Prophecy, the medical work, and evangelistic efforts.

Your special opportunity to share in this great program of spreading the truth in Southern Asia will come on the 13th Sabbath, March 31. What a pleasure it will be, when Jesus comes, to meet Sister Georgia Burrus-Burgess and those who have been influenced by the humble tracts she printed! Today we, the workers in Southern Asia, with your help are pressing on to finish the task.

Many consider Jack Burgener of Hinsdale, Ill., an exceptionally brave man. Mr. Burgener has just become a member of the Volunteer group which serves the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital and which up until his entrance was composed of 178 members —all women!

In becoming member number 179, Mr. Burgener linked himself with a distinguished group whose varied activities have meant much to the growth of the institution. Reporting on the past year's activities, Mrs. J. M. Ward, Volunteer director, pointed out that members are now serving in 31 different areas, from writing letters for patients to assisting in the emergency room. Since being organized in October of 1953, these ladies, most of them non-Adventists, have given a total of 127,433½ hours of dedicated service.

ON THE "LAKE UNION HERALD"

What Every Subscriber Should Know

Mail time is generally a happy occasion, for it means communication with friends and loved ones. There are times, however, when we all would like to defer the postman's visit-end-of-the-month bill time.

With nearly 18,000 names on the Lake Union Herald mailing list, there is obviously a great deal of correspondence needed to keep up the everchanging mailing list for Adventists on the move. We eagerly anticipate receiving cards and letters from subscribers who give us their new addresses when they move. But it is like the "end of the month" when the postman brings us a bundle of changes which have come from postmasters in various cities in the Lake Union. You see, each time a subscriber moves and fails to notify us, the post office takes care of this neglect and notifies us—for a "small" fee. Until recently this fee was five cents per notice. But beginning January 10 it was DOUBLED! Whenever we receive a post-office notice, it means a delay of two to four weeks in YOUR receiving the Herald again, for it is not uncommon for a postal clerk to save up papers for from two to six weeks before notifying us.

At this point we want to thank the hundreds of members in the Lake Union who have sent us letters and post cards giving complete information regarding changes of address. We also want to express our appreciation to those who have informed us when they headed for sunnier climes for several months. We are happy to change your address as long as we know that your membership remains in the Lake Union. But again, it is your responsibility to inform us when you leave that your move is temporary. When you do not tell us this, we have to mail a card asking you about the move.

For some unknown reason this query seems to bring out the acrid dispositions in normally well-meaning folk. They feel that a grave injustice is done when their Herald is stopped following their move. We have received a number of indignant letters which go something like this: "I didn't authorize anyone to take my name from the mailing list, I come to —— every winter and return to the Lake Union in the spring. My membership has been in the —— church for over — years."

Well, bless their hearts, we don't keep any list of members who make an annual pilgrimage to the land of the sun (even though we envy them a bit as we look at our mounds of snow). We depend on them to inform us. If they are interested enough in receiving the Herald, they let us know, and we sincerely appreciate their efforts. If they don't care enough about the Herald to give us their new address with their tenure of stay, we stop the paper long enough to secure this information from them. (With our post-office-notice costs doubled, perhaps we should just drop all names we receive from the post office until we hear from the members. But we haven't come to that yet.)

It all boils down to this: Your current address is determined by your decisions, not ours. If you wish to have your periodicals follow you when you move, take enough interest in them to let the publishers know your whereabouts. So far, every letter from subscribers who are irritated over not receiving their paper stems from this. Some folk write detailed information concerning their changes of address and then fail to give us their names. Others fail to send us their old addresses—just the new ones. We even had one lady ask us to put her married name on her address in the place of her maiden name. That was fine with us, but no place on the card could we discover what her maiden name was.

Eleven-Day Epidemic

An epidemic in the Brookfield-La Grange churches spread rapidly for a number of days as the doctor used the basement, junior room, and kitchen for his clinic while treating the patients.

This was a new germ which has not been known before. He called it "Finquik." In diagnosing each case he found that patients had a happy spirit, were very talkative, had lots of energy, but were very impatient.

It was discovered that the epidemic was extremely prevalent among the younger generation. The doctor was very happy with the rapid progress and healing. Some cases were pronounced cured after one day's treatment; others took many days. In less than two weeks the entire church membership had recovered.

When the doctor was asked if he knew the cause of such an unusual epidemic as "Finquick," he replied, "The young people all of a sudden became restless, happy, talkative, and enthusiastic. They created the same feelings at home until the whole family was plagued with this fever. Finally the whole church was infected, Everyone seemed to be happy and energetic during the epidemic, but their endurance subsided as they were cured, just as if the infection fatigued them."

In laymen's language this new epidemic "Finquik" comes from two English words: "finish quick." This is the first time in the history of the Brookfield-La Grange district that the Ingathering epidemic was shortened to 11 days. No other district to our knowledge in the history of Illinois churches has ever accomplished this so quickly. I am proud to be the pastor of two churches who raised almost $8,000 in 11 days. God blesses the efforts of His people when they are willing to roll up their sleeves and go to work.

I am proud, as the pastor, to be a part of a group of people who take the Lord's work seriously, grasping every task with such wonderful enthusiasm. Our achievement of $7,600 in 11 days has been ours because God blessed the enthusiasm, cooperation, and faithfulness of the church members; because our leaders, Eual Baker, Frank Ullrich, and associates, were positive, energetic thinkers; because our youth used their wonderful energy as a springboard to prove their love for God; and last, but not least, because others who were unable to go out gave their share to assure faithful-

TWO FAMILIES' ENTHUSIASM

Two families, the Johnsons of the La Grange church and the Thompsons of the Beverly Hills church, decided Ingathering could be a family program. Without a suggestion or help from anyone they set to work and raised $720. Commendable! This is how God's work is going to be finished. Let's join family hands and work together in the completion of God's work.

ness to God's unified and triumphant church. Thanks be to God for our successful program of faith!

Eight people received Jasper Wayne awards: Lynnette Allen, Lewis Baugues, Carl Daehn, John Easton, Arlene Foster, Harold Grosboll, E. H. Hays, and Mrs. Fred Neff.

Our task was accomplished quickly because three leaders, Ron Benedict, John Easton, and Harold Grosboll, set their group goal at $1,000 and raised it.

THE CHURCH ENTHUSIASTIC

Ingathering victory was preceded by creating an interest in missionary work. The "Review" Centenary issue was mailed to over 1,000 Bible school and other interests by our youth and past-20-less-60-age group, who typed, sealed, sorted, and mailed the papers.

Left to right: Harry D. Kneller, Connie Pierce, Betty Allen, and William C. Adams. This quartet from the Brookfield church secured and prepared their traditional costumes, and went out to inspire the people. They had real enjoyment and were received with open arms by most of the people.

FOUR BOYS' ENTHUSIASM

Here are four young people—Buddy Judy, Jim Barron, Steve Portner, and Gary Judy who not only collected food for baskets during Thanksgiving, but worked hard to give the La Grange church its victory in 11 days. This they did without being asked.

ONE YOUNG MAN'S ENTHUSIASM

John Easton, a young man from the Brookfield church who planned a couple months before Ingathering to raise $1,000 with his group, bought his own caroling unit and inspired Carl Daehn, Lewis Bauques, Robert Baker, Don and Bill Easton, Francis Johnson, Richard Gelsinger, Jim Walker, and Mike Harris to go out each night possible during the 11-day campaign to raise $1,002. This is real courage!

Others set a $500 goal and made it. And all the young people and church officers came out and set the pace. The pictures accompanying this article show some of the La Grange-Brookfield activities which led to victory. ESTON L. ALLEN, Pastor

Chicagoland Dorcas Federation

Neither snow nor zero weather could cool the spirits of the faithful Dorcas workers of the Chicagoland area, On Thursday, January 18, as the mercury hovered around zero, nearly 100 of these ladies gathered at the Beverly Hills church to exchange ideas and receive inspiration to improve their societies.

To start the day, Eld. Anthony Castelbuono led out in a rousing song service. As this was the first meeting of the new year, Mrs. Herman Kleist welcomed the new leaders and read a prayer in poem form that God would give us the strength to meet whatever the new year may have in store for us, Behind each really successful Dorcas Society you will find an interested pastor. We are very grateful for the help and encouragement the pastors in the Chicagoland area give to our Federation, and for the fact that they will take time from their busy schedules to come and meet with us and give us spiritual guidance.

Eld. S. K. Lehnhoff, pastor of the North Shore church, in his devotional service asked the question, "Why did God create us?" His answer was, "God created us to be the object of His love, and we can best express our love to Him by loving our fellow men."

During the course of the day we enjoyed hearing the Beverly Hills Junior Choir sing, La Donna Herr play the marimba, and Charlene and John Wojcik play a piano duet.

The day was filled with stirring experiences as each of the 18 societies represented answered the roll call. The communities surrounding these churches are becoming more and more aware of Seventh-day Adventists and the work that they are doing.

Mrs. Kleist urged that we all be prepared with the Survival and the Disaster Kits. We know that in the last days unheard-of disasters will occur, and we should be ready to help wherever we can.

The World Welfare depots need good, clean, serviceable clothing, Eld. V. W. Esquilla suggested that we start collecting, cleaning, and repairing garments so that we will be ready when it is Illinois' month to ship to the warehouse this spring.

The closing thought for the day was brought in song by Mrs. June Herr.

The April meeting will be held in Rockford, with Eld. J. C. Christensen, of the New York Welfare Depot, as MRS. JOHN JACOBSON special guest, Federation Secretary

Recently Faith for Today added a new outlet of their television program at Decatur, Ill. This new program is jointly sponsored by our believers at Decatur and Faith for Today. We commend our people who are so dedicated to the Lord's work that they will agree to share in this weekly expense. May there be many precious souls garnered into God's kingdom as a result of the addition of the new outlet at Decatur.

We urge our people to view this program regularly in their area and invite their loved ones and the public in general to tune in and then write letters to the station management expressing appreciation for this program, Let us work and pray to the end that Faith for Today will be on more stations. Letters to the program director from laymen and personal visits from the pastors often will result in a station asking for the program.

Let us this year respond in a most generous way and give an offering on Sabbath, February 10, that will strengthen the hands of Pastor W. A. Fagal, the director, in planning for the greatest soul-winning program through the medium of television that has ever been accomplished.

"The World Around Us"

High in the Himalaya mountains, coveted by hosts of invaders, lies a valley of verdant beauty, a valley where the culture of its people has been set by a blending of its conquerors. Here is a land which is fused by the ancient traditions of Buddhism, Hinduism, and Islam. This is Kashmir.

On Sunday, February 11, at 8 p.m., in the gymnasium of Indiana Academy, Len Stuttman will personally present his film on Kashmir, one of the most beautiful countries in the world and also one of the lesser known. This will be the third program in a series of six which are being presented this year. The two that we have already had the privilege of seeing have been of such excellent quality that we wish to give you the opportunity of seeing the remaining four programs.

This series of programs is being sponsored by the student association, which is trying to raise enough funds to purchase a new organ for the church. If you have not had the privilege of worshiping with us in our beautiful new church here in Cicero, we cordially invite you to do so.

We do hope that you will find the time, for your own benefit, to attend our Lyceum programs this semester. Those remaining to be seen are as follows:

Livonia Church Dedicated

Dedication services for the new Livonia church were held on Sabbath, January 20, with overflow crowds in attendance. Speaker for the morning worship hour was Eld. N. C. Wilson, Michigan Conference president, Eld. J. D. Smith, Lake Union Conference president, gave the dedicatory sermon.

The Livonia church had its beginnings as the Brightmoor church. The original building, a former schoolhouse, was purchased at auction in 1929 for $25. The building was used until 1958, when an offer of $14,000 cash for the church was accepted.

It was decided to locate the new church in the newly formed city of Livonia and to change the church name. John Veenstra, a contractor and member of the church, led out in the construction and donated over 2,000 hours of work in addition to his contributions for the building project. many hours to help complete the building. William Fitzpatrick and Glenn Powers also gave over 1,000 hours of labor each toward the construction project. Others who gave of their time were Daniel Morris, Clifford Rhodes, Homer Hittinger and some neighbors who were not church members but who were interested in seeing a beautiful church built.

God's leading was evident in the many projects, the largest of all being the masonry work, which took about two years, Eld, W. W. White, Eld. Jeremia Florea, Eld. H. G. Rutherford, and other pastors of the district worked for two weeks laying bricks.

The next project was the arches and roof, which were shipped from Oregon by railroad. When they arrived notice was given that the two cars had to be unloaded in 24 hours. One of the members, Don Powers, worked with a traffic manager of a trucking company. This man, a member of the Roman Catholic faith, not only offered a truck large enough to haul the arches but helped load and unload the materials at no cost. Ministers and members helped, and the railroad cars were unloaded in 24 hours.

Edward Schroeder, a roofer from the Farmington church, led out in the shingling of the roof. Virgil Luttman did the finish carpentry work on the mahogany partitions as well as the pulpit and communion table. A numher of theater seats were purchased and these were refinished by the pastor with the help of Alfred and Ellsworth Bakewell and Clifford Rhodes. The drapes were installed by Gary Clayton at cost, and the baptismal tank was donated by William Fitzpatrick. The picture over the baptistry was painted by Elders Keith Morey and Ted Rasmussen.

Foll to Be Lansing Pastor

Eld. Merlin Foll, pastor of the Parkersburg, W. Va., church, accepted the invitation of the Michigan Conference to become the pastor of the Lansing church and assume district leadership. He replaces Eld. J. M. Nerness, who has accepted a call to pastor the Santa Cruz, Calif., S.D.A. church.

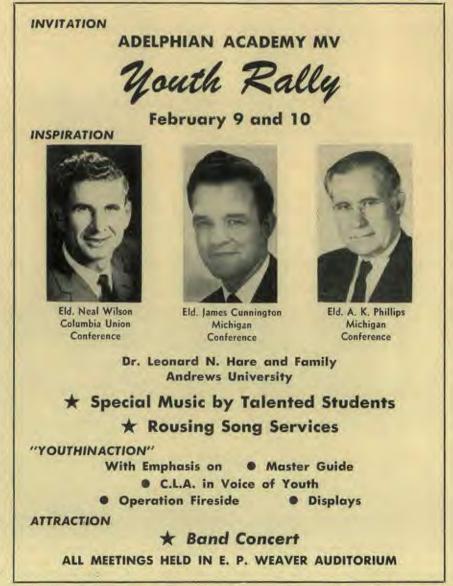

Elder Foll will be arriving in Michigan in the near future, and additional information will be published in a forthcoming issue of the LAKE UNION HERALD.

An Offering of Love

How would you like to go Ingathering in a situation where the language was unfamiliar and you had to memorize phrases to help you make the solicitation? This might provide difficulties for many, but for the members of the Detroit Hamtramck church it is only an additional challenge to be accepted.

The 17 members of this church are of Polish and Slovakian descent, and many of them do not speak English. And yet this church is the most consistent in the Michigan Conference in their Ingathering achievements and rank high in other endeavors of the church as well. And all of this is accomplished without a resident pastor!

During the past four years the Hamtramck church has been the second highest church in the conference in per-capita Ingathering. Their accomplishment each year is exceeded only by the church that Eld. Paul Schoun, an avid Ingatherer, happens to pastor.

The most consistent record in Ingathering during the past few years has been set by this group whose per-capita this year was $44.51.

Occupying a prominent place in the front of the church, the goal chart for the Hamtramck church reminded the members week by week of the progress in the Ingathering campaign. Leading out was the church elder, Michael Duras, and the home missionary leader, Mrs. Mary Zaczosow.

A new stone front was a part of the extensive remodeling of the Detroit Hamtramck church.

This year the church raised $756.64 for a per-capita of $44.51. Previous year's achievements include 1961, $44.22; 1960, $50; and 1959, $37.95. Top Ingatherer was John Bublavi, who raised $200. Leading out in the program was the church elder, Michael Duras, and the missionary leader, Mrs. Mary Zaczosow.

Ingathering is not the only campaign of this hard-working group. They are strong believers in the mission program of the church and give heavy support to the Sabbath School offerings. The 13th Sabbath offerings for the year averaged $7.26 per member. Top offering on December 23 was $204.18,

The past two years have also seen an extensive remodeling program on both the interior and exterior of the church. New imitation stone was applied to the exterior. A partial basement with rest rooms was added, as well as new wood paneling and floor tile. A room at the rear of the church was remodeled to provide a Sabbath School room for the children. The cost of this remodeling, all paid for, was over $8,000.

The motivating force of this energetic church is summed up in the words of the elder, Michael Duras: "Without the offering of Christ there is no life; without church life there is no offering. It seems real, that if we do not appreciate the love of God and the offering of His Son, then we will also not appreciate any other kind of offering. The offering of love has to have very deep roots that spread throughout the heart. Even if we gathered the greatest offering, compared to the offering of Christ we did nothing." MORTEN JUBERG

A card this week from C. B. Burgess of Ithaca, Mich., will help rectify an error appearing three weeks ago in the Herald. He said: "The news note about Mrs. Celia Mc-Alister on the back of the January I6 Herald is very interesting to us, since we are well acquainted with her and have admired her devotion.

"Just to set the record straight, Ingathering began in 1908, 51 and not 63 years ago, 1 was canvassing near Juddville that year and had part in that first campaign."

Eau Claire Investment

The Eau Claire Sabbath School reports its total Investment this year as $433.12. Last spring it was planned that all the Investment would be brought in in pennies, and a goal of 50,000 pennies was set. While the goal wasn't quite reached, the total is one of the highest in the Sabbath School's records.

Many interesting experiences were cited. The Sabbath School superintendent, Mrs. Ben Gunderson, had a flowering crabapple tree, five years old, that had never had a blossom. When it was dedicated to the Lord for Investment, it blossomed so profusely that it seemed as if it couldn't hold another blossom, and a goodly amount was given for this.

Another sister pledged a certain amount for every week she worked, and she brought in 10,000 pennies. One of the farmer brethren pledged so much for every day that he could ride his tractor without a backache, and he had many pain-free days.

Our children's department had an active part also. Their Investment leader, Mrs. Don Boemke, made a clever device using butterfly seals and ribbons. Mary Eggebrecht and her sister, Vicki, collected and sold over three tons of scrap paper. This, plus some dedicated apple trees, brought them over $30.

The accompanying picture shows Mary and the pennies. There were actually 36,449 pennies, but enough more money came in to make the total of $433.12. One brother pledged a dollar for each of the decoration pennies shown in the picture; there were 10. It took the bank machine one-half hour to count and roll the pennies.

We are very thankful for God's blessings this year, and we hope to do even more another year.

Let Us Do Our Part

Once again we are approaching the time when the offering for the Faith for Today television program is to be taken in all our churches. We have full confidence that Wisconsin will do its part in this very important offering. During these times we need to use every available outlet through which to reach the people with the message. Faith for Today has proven itself to be a valuable way of bringing the truth to the minds of the people. R. E. FINNEY, IR., Pres.

Funeral services were held in Stockton on Monday afternoon, Dec. 4, and burial was in Ladies Union Cemetery, Stockton. L. J. Marna

Mr. Hansen came to the United States with his parents in 1873, when only about one year old. He lived with his parents on the farm near the town of Franklin, Kewaunee County, where he remained all his long life of almost 90 years. He was never married. Brother Hansen accepted the truth in Jesus Christ in 1924 and was faithful to his Lord to the very day of his departure. He was laid to rest in the Denmark cemetery, where he awaits the call of his Saviour.

EMMANUEL MISSIONARY COLLEGE

Which Name?

The frequent questions concerning the names Andrews University, School of Graduate Studies, Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, and Emmanuel Missionary College suggest that there is some confusion concerning the legal organization of the institution here in Berrien Springs. The following may serve to clarify some of the questions which are frequently asked.

Prior to November, 1960, Emmanuel Missionary College was incorporated as a separate legal entity under the laws of the state of Michigan. The School of Graduate Studies and the Seventhday Adventist Theological Seminary were also originally incorporated as Potomac University in the District of Columbia. After they were both moved to Michigan to the E.M.C. campus, this District of Columbia incorporation was retained. Thus, for a time, what is now known as Andrews University actually was comprised of two separate legal entities.

The flexible nature of the Emmanuel Missionary College corporate charter made it possible to expand and reorganize to include the School of Graduate Studies and the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary as one corporation, ANDREWS UNIVER-SITY. This was authorized by the appropriate constituencies in November, 1960. Thus the proper legal name of the entire institution is ANDREWS UNIVERSITY, This action, however, did not abolish or dissolve Emmanuel Missionary College, the School of Graduate Studies, or the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary. These now constitute the three main subdivisions of Andrews University, To understand this relationship it is necessary to have some knowledge concerning the nature of a university. A university is commonly defined as a group of semiautonomous schools, colleges, or institutes, each with its own unique function and purpose but bound together by one common corporate structure.

It is, therefore, correct to use the name Emmanuel Missionary College, the School of Graduate Studies, or the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary to precisely designate in which division a student is enrolled. All students seeking a baccalaureate degree are registered in the undergraduate division, Emmanuel Missionary College. A student seeking an advanced degree, therefore, is registered either in the School of Graduate Studies or the Theological Seminary, the two graduate divisions.

Since the legal name of the corporation is Andrews University, it is so listed with official accrediting associations, professional and learned societies, and similar groups. Also, diplomas and degrees are awarded by Andrews University in harmony with its legal name and registration with the state of Michigan.

Parents, alumni, and others who may wish to communicate with some official or office within the university may be guided by the following correspondence directory.

Library Receives Grant

Mrs. Marilyn Fivash, college librarian, has announced that the library has been awarded a grant of $300 by the Association of College and Research Libraries, a division of the American Library Association.

A total of 78 grants to college and university libraries was made for the 1961-62 program. Included among the colleges in Michigan were Adrian College, Olivet College, and Emmanuel Missionary College.

The A.C.R.L. Grants Program was initiated in 1955 with a grant from the U.S. Steel Foundation of $30,000. The program, directed to the general needs of all colleges and universities, is for improving the quality of library service to higher education through fundamental research in librarianship, and otherwise aiding in the best use of the most modern teaching and learning materials.

The Grants Program this year was made possible by the following companies and corporation foundations: McGraw-Hill Publishing C o m p a n y, Microcard Foundation, Micro Photo, Inc., National Biscuit Company, Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, Pitney-Bowes, Inc., Reader's Digest, Time, Inc., and the United States Steel Foundation, Inc.

Address Changes

Again we say thanks to you who notify us personally when you move. But you are in the minority. About two thirds of our changes come from the post offices in the Lake Union. This represents a great expense in view of the 100-per-cent increase in postage-due rates we have to pay.

With just a little more effort on the part of those who move, this large number of post-office notices could be virtually eliminated.

What's Your Worry?

Most people have some secret worry. What is yours?

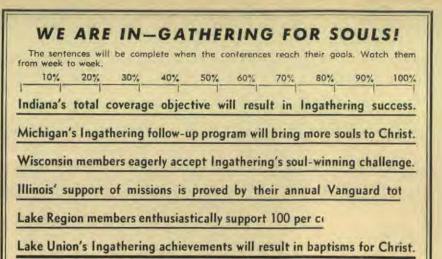

Maybe you have to go to the hospital for an operation; perhaps you have had a car accident and are concerned about a possible lawsuit; perhaps your children have been getting into trouble, or your home is in danger of breaking up; maybe your bank account is running low and creditors are pressing you.

You are concerned, too, about the future of the world—the possibility of nuclear war and all its awful consequences of widespread suffering, lawlessness, destruction, and death.

All these worries are very real today, each involving a personal crisis.

In this "time of troubles" we all need special strength, God-given strength, to enable us to meet the issues that confront us courageously. Without it we may well break under the strain and go to pieces.

It is for such an hour as this that Courage for the Crisis was written. Whatever your personal crisis may be, this book will be a blessing to you. Here you will find strength for today and hope for tomorrow. In these pages you will gather "Courage From God"; "Courage From the Cross"; and "Courage From Great Certainties." Here, too, you will learn how to gain "Strength From Meditation," "Power From Communion," "Joy From Obedience;" "Uplift From Worship," and "Valor From Dedication."

Lake Union Reaches Goal

We wish to pay special tribute this week to the Wisconsin Conference. They have passed their objective of $80,000 and thus join Michigan and Indiana in surpassing their goal. But further, Wisconsin is the first conference to surpass their last year's final total. We are glad to report today also that we are running just about the same as we did a year ago at this same time.

This will be our last report for now. There will be one more final report at the end of March. We would, however, like to encourage everyone to continue toward the four objectives we have been talking about this year. We still need over $25,000 to equal our last year's final report.

We appreciate so much all that each one has done to help make this year go as far as it has, and we are counting on everyone to carry on to final victory. May God bless each one, and may there be baptisms in every church this year as a result of our faithful follow-up work.
