LAKE UNION LEADS DIVISION

Rate of Membership Growth Makes Rapid Increase

THERE is nothing that brings greater courage to the hearts of our believers than the knowledge that the church is growing.

Our members are faithful supporters with their prayers and their money, and they have a right to expect that those who are paid by the tithe will be faithful in the work committed to them.

The Lake Union Conference has been greatly blessed of the Lord during the past three years. At the time of the last quadrennial session our membership was less than 37,000. At that time the workers set a goal to increase the membership to 40,000 by the time of the next session, which will be in March, 1963. Thus far our timetable is right on schedule. At present our membership stands at just over 39,000, and if we can continue our growth at the rate we have during the past three years we will reach our goal without difficulty.

In making some comparisons with the rest of the North American Division, our union auditor came up with the following revealing and interesting figures:

In 1959 the North American Division as a whole had an average of 53 baptisms per 1,000 members as compared to 44 in the Lake Union Conference. In 1960 the figure had changed to 54 for the division as against 51 for the union. The following year, 1961, we were able to pass the division average and make it 64 baptisms per 1,000 members in the union as against 62 in the North American Division.

During the same three-year period the North American Division made a 17 per cent gain in baptisms per 1,000 members while at the same time the Lake Union made a 45 per cent gain.

In net membership increase per 1,000 members during the above-mentioned three-year period the North American Division as a whole showed a 60 per cent gain while at the same time the Lake Union Conference showed a 650 per cent gain.

The rate of gain in baptisms as well as in over-all membership in the Lake

Union is greater than in any other union in North America.

All of this has been made possible through the wonderful blessing of the Lord and the faithful, hard work of the ministers and laity of this field. We thank God for it and continue to strive to reach higher goals.

Lake Union Music Festival

Wisconsin Academy opened its doors to the 1962 Lake Union Academies' Music Festival, April 13 and 14, and played host to nearly 200 students and faculty from seven sister academies in the union.

The W.A. campus and buildings received a spring cleaning in preparation for the big event, and then the snow whitened the ground as guests began to arrive. Dormitory rooms doubled their occupants, and classrooms took on a barracks-like atmosphere as beds were placed in rows. Faculty and community homes welcomed guests, also.

To cope with the almost double-sized family at meal times, the cafeteria workers under the direction of Mrs.

Pitchen had prepared well—even to the providing of sack lunches for many of the returning students.

The week-end organization and planning of the festival by Miss Louise Larmon, Ellis Olson, and Frank Kravig, music faculty of Wisconsin Academy, moved into its schedule shortly after the 7:30 chapel service Friday morning. Throughout the day the massed choir and band as well as special vocal and instrumental groups rehearsed under the direction of choral and band leaders from the academies. Cooperation rather than competition was the rule of the festival.

Lake Union academy choirs and bands have been working separately on selected numbers during the school year in preparation for the festival. Only a small per cent of the participants in each school are privileged to attend this annual music high light. Good musicianship and representative character are the qualifications that determine the final decision of the respective music committees in their selection.

Dr. F. A. Meier, vice-president of Andrews University, delivers the Sabbath sermon.

Deep rich tones of the pipe organ recently constructed by Frank Kravig, W.A.'s organ and piano instructor, lent atmosphere to the opening Friday evening service.

Frank Kravig at the console of Wisconsin Academy's pipe organ.

Eld. T. E. Unruh briefly reminisced about the beginnings of W.A. when he was president of the Wisconsin Conference. He reminded the audience that our academies are like the schools of the prophets of ancient Israel. And, in like manner, our schools should provide an experience in music that will elevate and enrich the spiritual living of the students.

"My Shepherd Will Supply My Need" and Beethoven's "Hallelujah," sung by the festival chorus, enriched the morning worship hour at which Dr. F. A. Meier of Andrews University spoke on "Summit Meetings." Tracing three important, life-changing meetings that Moses had with God, Dr. Meier likened these to "summit meetings" and stated that every man has a similar meeting with his Maker.

At 3 p.m. the 137-member festival band began an afternoon of sacred music with a group of three selections that ended nearly two hours later with the 150-voice festival chorus singing "Onward, Ye People." Trios, solos, and ensembles, both vocal and instrumental, added variety to the six choral numbers and three band selections.

As an added treat the music faculty of the academies provided a half-hour sundown vesper program with song and instrument, providing a fitting closing to a day rich in expressions of praise and devotion.

At 8:15 p.m. a program of secular music began with the festival chorus singing "No Man Is an Island" followed by "Sing Me a Song," "Whirlwind," and "Let Not Your Song End." Conductors were Mrs. Roland Hansen, Miss Louise Larmon, Don Runyan, and Erich Bekowies.

Band uniforms of differing color and cut added variety to the last portion of the program as band members from eight academies took their places on the crowded extended platform. Under the direction of F. Graham Heppel, a Spanish march, "Punta Larga," broke into life with its characteristic tempo. Arlee Torkelsen, William Young, Mrs. Marilyn Jorgensen, Miss Adell Haughey, and Mrs. Carol Brummett conducted numbers which followed. The strains of the National Anthem with Ellis Olson directing the band were swelled by hundreds of voices as the 1962 Music Festival came to its close.

Cameras, movie and still, tried to record moments of joy, work, and pleasure. Recorders placed on tape sounds of praise, hope, aspiration, and happiness. But only in the hearts and minds of participants and listeners can there be a record of inspiration and ambition, a motivating power to make life more than living—because we were there.

Mrs. LaVonne Engelkemier

Before starting the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital course of Practical Nursing, I had certain misgivings. Would I be able to care for my home, my husband, and two preschool boys and still find time to attend classes, care for the patients, and study as I should?

To be sure, there were sacrifices made, both on my own part and sometimes on the part of my family, but most worthwhile things come by sacrifice. By carefully budgeting my time, I was able to spend the required time studying and still have time for my family and an occasional class party or Saturday night lyceum program.

This interesting course serves a real need. In the period of one year, which went by very quickly, I obtained a nursing education that enables me as a licensed practical nurse not only to supplement the family income, but, more important, to better fill a place in the Lord's work by helping to care for suffering humanity.

MRS. LAVONNE ENGELKEMIER

Do you want to feel needed? Are you interested in attending a Christian school? Would you enjoy being taught by Christian teachers interested in your future? Then by all means come to Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital and take the course of Practical Nursing.

I would not take anything this world has to offer for my year of training. It has given me a new interest in life. The patients open their hearts and tell us how much they appreciate the interest we take in each one of them individually.

The hospital is now training me to work in surgery, and paying me while I learn. So you see there is no limit to how far one can advance if he so desires. Words cannot express how happy I am that I have taken this training. I know that as long as I am able to work there will be a need for my services in this field, doing a work that God would have me to do.

Family Baptized Following Colporteur's Contact

In June of 1961 I received a letter from a man interested in our books who had seen our ad in the Christian Herald Magazine.

I called at this address one afternoon and found Paul Smith getting ready to leave for work.

This did not give me much time to canvass him and his wife, but I showed them the Bible Stories, Triumph of God's Love, and Your Bible and You. They seemed greatly interested in the unit but felt they should not buy at present because of other obligations. Since Mr. Smith had recently decided to live a Christian life, he did not feel he should make any more debts.

I offered a silent prayer as I told Mr. Smith and his wife that of all the things they ever bought or would buy they could conscientiously get down on their knees and say, "Lord, we have made a little investment in spiritual food for our family; now please help us to pay for it."

I could see their hearts had been touched, and they readily agreed that they needed a service like this to help their family, which consists of six boys and one girl ranging in age from less than a year old to 15 years old. By this time Mr. Smith's driver was in the car impatiently blowing the horn, so with the quick decision to purchase the books he was on his way leaving his wife to take care of the details.

I had a short visit with her, enrolling her in the Faith Bible Course.

Mr. Smith held two jobs and could only be seen between 1 and 2 p.m. Every time I made plans to visit them something came up. One day last September I decided this was the day to visit the Smith family. So I made plans to get to their home early, as he lived about 20 miles from me. It had rained all night and was still raining as I set out. As I drove through a flooded area on the highway my car stalled. When I finally arrived at the Smiths' he was coming out the door to meet his ride—waiting on the street for him.

He seemed happy to see me, and invited me in as he had some questions to ask. He wanted to know where I lived and what church I belonged to.

Lawrence Eattoni demonstrating a book to the Paul Smith family.

He said he would like to visit our church.

I made arrangements to have Bible studies with them and invited them to visit church.

It wasn't long and the whole family were attending Sabbath School and church. Elder Knox held a few studies with them also, and on the 10th of February Mr. and Mrs. Smith were baptized into the remnant church.

This family is very faithful and full of zeal. Not too long ago they passed out over 700 centennials of Review and Herald and many other pieces of our literature in the Crest Hill area where they live.

I'm sure there are many other people like the Smiths who are waiting to hear our message. Truly the harvest is great but the laborers are few. So let us work while it is yet day, for the night cometh when no man can work.

The "Message" Is Getting Through

Once again we want to say Thank You for your marvelous response to Message Magazine for prison work. A chaplain writes again:

"More than will ever be told is the high regard we hold for firms and associations like yours, with consideration for men in prison and for those less fortunate, and are willing to donate of what they have to the moral nurturing, intelligence, and rehabilitation of those who are now incarcerated. It is my deepest wish that you will be favorable to continuing this contribution."

subscriptions to the address of Eld. Dallas Youngs, who represents the Seventh-day Adventist Church to better than 2,700 colored prisoners in his section of Texas. What a pitifully small contribution 100 subscriptions is!—and yet it is 98 subscriptions better than he has been receiving.

We thank you, brethren and sisters, for your continued response to our Prison Fund. We are still unable to meet all the demands, but, thanks to you, we are doing better.

These Traverse City people were baptized at the Walter-Henderson meetings in Cadillac.

Key Word—Evangelism

Evangelism has been the key word for Traverse City, Elk Rapids, and Kalkaska during the 14 months Eld. and Mrs. D. B. Myers have lived in this section. The first step was to complete a $2,000 improvement project in the Traverse City church basement started by Eld. Homer Trecartin. Bible studies were given nearly every evening, and July 29 of last summer the first baptism of 15 was conducted at Camp Au Sable.

During the Walter-Henderson meetings at Cadillac, even though this was 15 miles from Traverse City, 20 more were baptized and one received on profession of faith. This included one family of seven and another of three. The latter family had purchased fixtures to install a bathroom in their home. They wanted to attend the meetings at Cadillac, so decided to sell these fixtures so as to have the money to make the trips. They went through another winter without the bathroom, but they are rejoicing in the truth.

January 1 a church company of 18 members was organized at Kalkaska. Hitherto this county had been labeled as a dark county in Michigan.

Beginning February 24 the members of the Traverse City church began improvements in their church auditorium. The pews were repaired, sanded, and refinished, so likewise the floor. The walls were repainted.

March 24 marked the opening of a series of evangelistic meetings in the church. Every night until April 15 the church was well filled, including the balcony. Four nights there were overflow crowds. The last night there was a baptism of 18 with one accepted on profession of faith. There are seven more good prospects who should be baptized very soon. Shortly Traverse City will have the largest membership in District 2, it is hoped.

Immediately after camp meeting plans are made for three weeks of meetings in a tent at Kalkaska.

Elk Rapids church will be looking forward to a series of meetings probably in October.

It is estimated that about 60,000,000 Americans smoke cigarettes on a day-to-day basis. Of these, 36,000,000 are men.—"Smoke Signals."

Five Pastors to Be Ordained

The Lake Union Conference at its last committee session approved the names of five Michigan pastors for ordination at the camp meeting this summer. The five are Howard Boling, Alma; William Edsell, Reed City; Robert Habenicht, Rhodes; David Parkhurst, Iron Mountain; and Arnold Scherencel, Decatur.

Boling is a native Californian. He was born in Hollywood and attended Loma Linda Academy, Pacific Union College, and graduated from Walla Walla College. He also spent a year at the Theological Seminary. He worked in the Carolina Conference before coming to Michigan in 1961.

From Michigan comes Edsell, the son of Ronald Edsell, Camp Au Sable caretaker. He is a graduate of E.M.C. He is also a standard fixture at Camp Au Sable, where he has worked in some capacity for the past 12 summers. For the past few years he has been waterfront director.

Habenicht is a 1955 graduate of E.M.C. and has taught in Michigan. He pastored the Howard City church before moving to his present assignment in the Gladwin area.

Parkhurst also is a former teacher. He began his teaching career in 1956 and became a pastor three years later. His present responsibilities include the three churches of Iron Mountain, Iron River, and Crystal Falls in the U.P.

Well known for his musical ability is Arnold Scherencel. Along with his pastoral work, he has been attending Andrews University. He taught in the Florida Conference before joining R. L. Boothby as a singing evangelist. He has been a pastor for the past three years.

Howard City Center Opens

Ribbon-cutting ceremonies were held on Thursday, April 12, to mark the official opening of the Howard City Welfare Center.

George Stressman, village president, cut the ribbon which opened the 47th welfare center in the state. Others taking part in the program included Eld. Vernon Flory, Lake Union Home Missionary secretary; Eld. W. M. Buckman, Michigan Conference Home Missionary secretary; Eld. Herbert Lohr, district leader; Robert Habenicht, former pastor; and Eld. Donald Mackintosh, the present pastor. Special music was furnished by the Howard City High School band.

The new center is located on the main street of Howard City adjacent to the post office, and is a nice addition to the village. For the church members it represents the fulfillment of much planning and work.

With a membership of only 38, the acquisition of a building for a center seemed to be a major obstacle. However, a building was made available at the reasonable cost of $6,500. A different way of paying for the structure was devised by the church members. Since Howard City has no bakery, the Dorcas Society began to sponsor weekly bake sales which brought in $15 to $20 a week. In the past two years the building debt has been whittled down to $2,000.

The attractive new center, which is under the direction of Mrs. Leonard Tawney, has three rooms on the first floor—a place for the bake sales, an office, and a work and storage room. A full basement also provides additional storage space.

Saginaw Area TEX Meets May 19

Sabbath School workers in the Saginaw area are asked to attend the Council and Teachers Exchange slated at the Tri-City Junior Academy, Sarle Road, Freeland, Sabbath afternoon, May 19, at three o'clock.

Prominent points for presentation include Investment ideas—coin savers, posters, stickers, and the like; Birthday-Thank Offering methods; FREE Sentries of Scripture and Bible Emphasis posters, along with other promotional concepts.

The senior and youth group will be stimulated with a movie, "Teaching the Word," and other thoughts.

The children's divisions' workers will be spurred on to do more efficient work by Mrs. John Kriley of E.M.C., one of our ranking Sabbath School workers, and Mrs. M. F. Grau.

It will be the pleasant duty of superintendents and secretaries to inspire others to attend and to come themselves.

One should never regard Sabbath School work with a "sink-or-swim" attitude. Rather, think to "swim" to success. Avoid "sinking" by thinking! Do come!

Pathfinder Trail Friends

The Raymond Pathfinder Club now has 12 members who have completed the Trail Friend requirements. Under the leadership of Ray Kraus these Pathfinders worked diligently to be ready for the investiture service held on Sabbath, April 7, at the morning worship service.

To be a Trail Friend one must first be a JMV Friend. Other requirements include: build a fire with one match; tie five speed knots; know ten hiking rules; pitch and strike a tent and make a camp bed; bring two visitors to Sabbath School or Pathfinder club meeting; identify the North Star, Big Dipper, and Orion; know the spiritual significance of Orion as told in Early Writings. These activities are designed to enlarge the vision of our Pathfinders and acquaint them with better outdoor living.

dents and five parents and friends of youth were invested by Eld. H. W. Jewkes.

An appeal was made by the school band in the music of "The Captain Calls for You," under the direction of Mrs. L. F. Hardin.

This army of youth has been arming themselves with truth and knowledge and vital texts of Scripture for the battles as they sail over life's sea. Satan would like to sink our youth in the sea of idleness and worldly amusements, but this course can be blocked by interest in nature and the study of MV classes. Such interests were demonstrated by candidates of the program.

Yes, we have a Captain who saves to the uttermost if we follow His orders and training. Won't you arm yourself with all He has to offer so that your voyage might be sure?

Something New!

There are many members of our churches in Wisconsin who come to camp meeting each year and are too embarrassed to ask for credit. The above credit card is designed to help you identify yourself with us, not only for credit on purchases but also for check cashing purposes. We hope that you will clip this coupon and carry it with you at camp meeting. We feel that we can be of much better service to you when you present this identification.

We are living in a world of credit and credit cards today, so we are sure that our people have discovered the advantages of these conveniences. The above card will also help the clerk take your name and address and save you repeating it each time.

If you have a piece of cardboard that is a little more rigid than the paper this is printed on, you might like to paste the credit card on the cardboard to help preserve it.

This is the first time we have used this plan and we hope that it will be a blessing all around in our forthcoming camp season. We hope you will come into the Bible House every chance you get during camp meeting. You can be sure you will be most welcome.

Walter-Henderson Revival

Over 1,000 people packed the West Central church nightly for the Walter-Henderson revival series from April 7 to 14.

The A.Y.F. (Adventist Youth Fellowship) group were pleased to see the wonderful response from the Chicagoland Adventists as messages of the advent hope were presented through travel films, music in variety, blacklight artistry, testimonies from youth every night, and the preaching of the Word by Elden Walter.

God has richly rewarded us with a renewal of consecration, new decisions for Christ, and a few baptisms in the consummation of one entire week of blessings. It is our wish that all will plan to attend the meetings to be held by this same group in the Springfield district in September.

Vesper services bring a close to a happy Sabbath day. Stories, games, singing, plus popcorn and toasted marshmallows, take up the evening.

Sunday morning brings another nature hike, and all too soon it's time to pack up and return home. Each one has had such a good time, the camp-out in June cannot arrive soon enough.

Illini Outdoor Club

Do the bird songs and blue skies full of fleecy clouds fill you with a longing to be outdoors, especially in the woods? If so, hurry! Pack up your camping gear—be it a tent or trailer—and join a group of 30 to 60 like-minded folk at Kickapoo State Park on Friday, May 11, near Danville, Ill.

After camp is set up and supper over, everyone joins in a hymn-sing around the huge campfire to usher in the Sabbath. Soon all retire to the lullaby of tree frogs and crickets.

The Sabbath morning hours are taken up by Sabbath School and church services. It is so soul satisfying to have these services in the great outdoors. One feels much closer to God.

At noon, hearty appetites are satisfied at a big potluck dinner. Next comes a hike over hill and dale to learn about the trees, flowers, shrubs, and other things of nature.

It's Camping Time Again

Outdoor living, swimming, boating, hiking, water skiing, sailing—these are but a few of the forms of recreation enjoyed by campers at Little Grassy Lake.

A full schedule of activities, including a strong spiritual program, will be followed this year in all the camps conducted at Little Grassy Lake in spite of the fact that the camps have been reduced to one week to make room for the General Conference schedule.

Three one-week camps will be offered this year: a Teen—ages 13 to 17, June 17 to 24; a Junior—ages 9 and 10, June 24 to July 1; a Junior—ages 11 and 12, July 1 to 8.

These age brackets mean that the camp in general will be conducted to meet the needs of that particular age. You may send your children together if they so desire even if they do not fit into the ages stated. A camper may attend one or more camps.

What's new at camp? More canoes, new boats, a new electrical wiring system, and other surprises.

The cost of camp will be $17.50 per camper. We are grateful to the Illinois Conference for their willingness to subsidize the train transportation so the cost is still $5.50 for the round trip from Chicago.

Family camp, July 8 to 15, is almost full. If you plan to come, send for a reservation immediately.

We are expecting this to be one of our best camping seasons in the history of the Illinois Conference.

Lot Purchased for New Downers Grove Church

The Downers Grove church has found a piece of property that fulfills the requirements of their growing congregation, with the future also in mind.

The more than four acres is located on Elmore Avenue, west of Downers Grove, and will have space for a 300-to-350-member church, large parking lot, and in the future a church school with parking lot. Having access to city water, gas, and sewer at no additional cost, the property was offered by the Downers Grove American Legion Post No. 80 at the total cost of $15,200.

The building committee first viewed the property at 10 a.m., Sunday, April 8, 1962, and on Monday, April 16, Edwin Wrenn, secretary of the American Legion and a member of the Chicago Title and Trust Company, drew up the papers for final approval.

With the approval of both the Downers Grove members and the Illinois Conference Committee, the papers were signed Tuesday, April 17, by L. W. Wrenn, commander, and Edwin D. Wrenn, secretary, of the Downers Grove American Legion, and Pastor Harold L. Greer.

With a prayer of thankfulness for God's guidance, plans were made April 25 for raising the balance of the cost, and final arrangements should be completed by May 14, 1962.

Octogenarian Honored

A long-time resident of the Lake Union, Mrs. Berdella L. Iles was honored March 25 on the occasion of her 80th birthday with Open House held at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Harry D. and Waaneita Knelser, of La Grange, Ill.

The celebration began with the arrival of Mrs. Iles' son Leslie and family, of Battle Creek, Mich. The day before was birthday Sabbath for all Brookfield Sabbath School members who had birthdays during the first quarter. Since Mrs. Iles was the oldest of the 22 birthday guests, she was presented an azalea plant purchased for the occasion. Open House for the happy octogenarian was held from 4 to 9 p.m. Sunday.

Surprise elements highlighting the special occasion were phone calls from the two absent daughters and their families: Mrs. Genevieve McCormick, assistant dean of women at Walla Walla College, and Mrs. Wm. E. (Theda) Kuester, of the British Columbia Conference office, Mission City, British Columbia, Canada.

Telegrams of congratulations, including one from son Charles and wife of Battle Creek, Mich., plants, and other tokens of esteem were received by the guest of honor. Mrs. Iles is passing her cash gifts on to Sabbath School Investment, the Voice of Prophecy, and Faith for Today.

An added feature of the celebration for Mrs. Iles was a surprise greeting shower, in which 159 greetings were sent to her from all over the United States and Canada.

Broadview Tops Investment List

The Broadview church, which holds services in the West Suburban church school located at 25th and Cermak Road, was second only to the Hinsdale church in the Investment project.

Although the congregation is small, each of the 66 members did his part in helping out with the Investment plan. The goal for the year 1960 was set at $1,000 and was reached with some effort. It was agreed that for the past year of 1961 the goal would be set at $1,200, which was high for such a small group. But with the Lord's help and the cooperation of the superintendents, teachers, and the children's departments, a sum total of $1,410.05 was turned in. This figure exceeded the goal by $210.05 and rounded out to a per-capita of $21.36 per person.

Fred Rill, Investment secretary who did much to promote Investment, attributes the success of the program to an all-year-round plan from January 1 until December 31. By doing this, members have an opportunity to set aside a certain amount each month during the year.

Everyone can have a part in Investment, from the smallest child to the oldest member. The following are some of the methods which were used at Broadview:

1. Saving labels from health foods.
2. Collecting newspapers, bottles, and scrap metal.
3. Doing extra paint jobs.
4. Making and selling rugs and pillows.
5. Saving dimes and pennies.
6. Saving change at the end of the day.
7. Giving part of one's salary and/or raise.
8. Giving tips collected at work.
9. Donating money made on Sabbath.
10. Selling homemade bread and baked goods.

These are just a few of the many ways one can find to raise Investment for the Lord, for "where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." Matthew 6:21.

THEISS, George F., was born Jan. 15, 1888, in Nadash, Austria, and died March 16, 1962. He came to Cleveland, Ohio, in 1906, and was graduated from Clinton Theological seminary, and received a doctorate from Central University in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1925. He was married to Regina Baate, Aug. 10, 1910.

Elder Theiss was ordained to the Seventh-day Adventist ministry and served as pastor in Cleveland, Ohio, 1919 to 1926; missionary in Czechoslovakia, 1926 to 1931; school principal in Iran, 1931 to 1933; pastor in Berlin, Germany, 1933 and 1934; pastor in Bismarck, N.D., 1934 to 1939; pastor in Milwaukee, Wis., 1939 to 1944; and pastor in Philadelphia, 1944 to 1952. He continued working after retirement and was dearly loved by all.

The survivors are his wife, Regina; one son, Dr. Earnest C. Theiss; daughter-in-law, Doris Theiss; and two grandsons, David and Jerry Theiss.

TRENCHARD, Charles, was born Nov. 10, 1911, in St. Johns, Newfoundland, the son of Kenneth and Nellie Trenchard. He suffered a fatal automobile accident on March 4, 1962. He became a Seventh-day Adventist at the age of 18 years when he was baptized by Eld. Harold Williams. In 1939 he was united in marriage to Violet Noseworthy. The Trenchards came to Monticello, Ind., in the fall of 1954, where he was employed as a skilled printer.

Surviving his death are his wife Violet, of Monticello, Ind.; one son, Warren, 17, at Indiana Academy; his mother, Mrs. Nellie Trenchard, and two brothers, Gordon and Robert, all of St. Johns, Newfoundland; three sisters: Mrs. Perry Marble, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mrs. Erole Patton, New Brunswick, Canada; and Mrs. Len Edwards, Oshawa, Ontario, Canada. Asleep in Jesus, he awaits the glad morning of the resurrection.

Robert T. Hirst

WHITTIER, Evelyn J., was born in Pinconning, Mich., March 1, 1887, and passed to her rest on March 12, 1962, after an illness of a year's duration. Mourning her passing are her husband, Frank, Flint, Mich.; one daughter, Erma DeMars, of Flint; one son, Norman DeMars, Mt. Morris, Mich.; a sister, Mrs. Theda Deming of West Palm Beach, Fla.; two brothers, Floyd Peters, Pinconning, and Hubert Peters, West Palm Beach; four grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews, and a host of friends.

Sister Whittier was a faithful member of the Flint First Seventh-day Adventist church at the time of her death. The funeral service was conducted by the writer in the Flint First Seventh-day Adventist church. Sister Whittier was buried in Grace Lawn Cemetery, Flint, Mich., where she awaits the call of the Life-giver on the resurrection morning.

Registrars Attend Conference

Registrars Dyre Dyresen and Esther Benton represented Andrews University at the 48th annual meeting of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers in Kansas City, April 23 to 27.

More than 800 representatives from 600 colleges and universities of the nation were in attendance. The registrars of respective Seventh-day Adventist colleges met one evening during the convention to discuss problems of special concern to S.D.A. colleges.

Guest speakers featured on the program in Kansas City were Dr. Roger Finck, director of University Relations of the Peace Corps; Mayor H. Roe Barth of Kansas City; Dr. B. Hopkins Moses, president of the Wyoming Seminary; and Dr. Louis T. Benezet, president of the Colorado College.

Receiving special attention in general sessions of the meetings were adjustment problems of foreign students, financial assistance programs for students, and the professional growth of admissions officers and registrars. Numerous workshops and exhibits of interest to registrars, as well as visits to the campuses of nearby colleges, were featured.

C. E. Walter, registrar at Pacific Union College and a native of Michigan, visited the Andrews University campus on April 18 to collect data needed for his doctoral dissertation on the history of higher education among Seventh-day Adventists. Mr. Walter had also visited Columbia Union College to obtain similar data.

Speech Department Addition

Brian Jacques, currently completing requirements for the doctorate at the University of Michigan, will join the speech department at the beginning of the second semester of the 1962-63 academic year. He will help fill the need for more speech courses created by the recent action of the Curriculum Committee requiring speech as a general degree requirement.

Mr. Jacques served as principal of the S.D.A. academy in East Pakistan from 1954 to 1959, and is a graduate of Columbia Union College and the S.D.A. Theological Seminary. During the past year Mr. Jacques has presented papers to the public address interest group at the National Convention of Speech Association of America and at the Central States Speech Convention in Chicago.

Mr. Jacques married the former Florence Phillips of Yale, Va. The Jacques have two sons, Daryl and Brian John.

New English Staff Member

William S. Peterson, currently a graduate student at the University of Wisconsin, will join the English Department staff in September after completing requirements for the Master of Arts degree in English.

Mr. Peterson received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Walla Walla College in 1961, and was active in extracurricular activities. Editor of the 1960-61 Collegian, which was judged an all-American college newspaper by the Associated Collegiate Press, Mr. Peterson also taught a freshman composition class during his senior year at W.W.C. He was listed in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges in 1960.

Mrs. Peterson, the former Ilene Lester, is also a graduate of Walla Walla College holding a Bachelor of Arts degree with major in English.

New Member of Chemistry Department

Bruce Powers, currently a graduate student in the Department of Chemistry at Michigan State University, will join the Department of Chemistry as an instructor for the 1962-63 academic year. Mr. Powers is an analytical chemist and will be filling the vacancy created by the leave of absence for graduate study of Ivan Holmes. Mr. Holmes will pursue studies leading to the doctorate at Oregon State University.

Mr. Powers is a graduate of Union College and will complete requirements for the master's degree during the 1962 summer session. Mrs. Powers is a candidate for the baccalaureate degree with major in home economics at M.S.U. and will receive her degree in June. The Powers are scheduled to arrive on campus late in August.

E.M.C. Industries to Be Taxed

Local tax authorities have informed college officials that effective with the 1962 tax period, several college auxiliary departments will be subject to real estate taxation. Business Manager V. E. Garber states that the auxiliary departments are the College Bindery, College Press, College Store, and College Wood Products. Although the Articles of Incorporation and the general institutional objectives clearly stipulate that work education and the operation of various auxiliary enterprises is a part of the educational program, tax officials in Michigan are, apparently, endeavoring to test the exemption heretofore given private church-operated schools and colleges. The legality of the action is in question, but it will be necessary to pay the taxes under protest and to seek judicial clarification of the issue.

In speaking of the matter, Vice-president F. A. Meier has said, "Here we have an example of a state taxing a nonprofit private voluntary church-operated college for executing the mandate of its charter and basic objectives. Clearly, the auxiliary departments and enterprises are necessary to fulfill the mission and purpose of the college and are, therefore, directly related to its educational program. The anomaly of this act is that the institution is educating approximately 2,000 students, elementary through graduate school, at no expense to the state and is being taxed for its contribution and effort. The irony of this is that those who are educating themselves at no expense to the state will be paying a little more since the institution's main source of revenue is from tuition charges."

The course of action to be taken is being studied by the trustees.

Detroit Burns Avenue News

Oliver Wasson, home missionary leader of the Burns Avenue church, reports a spirited and enthusiastic campaign in the Message Magazine drive following a very unique presentation by members of the Home Missionary Society in a skit emphasizing the importance of the Message Magazine in soul winning.

Eld. Jacob Justiss of the Allegheny Conference Education Department was the challenging guest speaker for the Burns Avenue youth during their recent Week of Prayer. The meetings featured a double approach in that prayer-meeting participation was held each morning at 6 a.m. and at the regular evening meeting. The week closed with the whole church responding to the call for reconsecration.

Evangelism is on the move at Burns Avenue. The church ushered in the second quarter of 1962 with a baptismal service that saw 13 precious souls born into the church. Among those joining were several whole families and several husbands uniting in the church with their wives and children who have been persevering in prayer over the years.

Chicago Shiloh Church News

Eld. Eric Stafford Dillett, outgoing pastor of the Chicago Shiloh church, delivered his farewell sermon to the congregation the last Sabbath in March with an inspired testimony to the goodness of God and His blessings on his ministry to the church. Elder Dillett has been assigned to the Sharon Chapel (Milwaukee, Wis.)-First Church (Evanston, Ill.) district.

During his eight years as pastor of the Shiloh church 700 souls were added to the church in baptism, and marked improvement was given to the staff and facilities of the Shiloh Academy in added grades and additional equipment and furnishings. He expressed a sincere appreciation to the membership and friends who have provided cooperation more than abundant during his pastorate, and desires an interest in the prayers of all on his services as a faithful witness for the Lord.

We Shall See Him

A summer storm, with generous quantities of thunder and lightning, was causing the large camp-meeting canvas pavilion to flap furiously in the wind. Approximately three thousand men, women, and children were gathered to enjoy the blessings of Christian fellowship and spiritual refreshing.

All during the day the blue of the sky had been visible only in occasional patches, for gray, misty clouds had practically covered it. Now night had come, and the clouds seemed even more dark and ominous.

One of the conference pastors, a young man, had led out in a stirring song service. How the folk enjoyed singing together! Especially did they appreciate the old, familiar hymns. A man glanced over the audience, then turned back to whisper to his wife. Then both husband and wife looked back and smiled as they recognized the faces of friends whom they had not seen since camp-meeting time a year before. The smile was returned. What joy it brought to worship together again!

A ladies' trio had just rendered a lovely musical number. The conference president arose and introduced the speaker of the evening. The visiting minister stood up behind the pulpit.

"It is indeed a privilege and a pleasure to be with you here tonight. My message is . . ." Then a sudden gust of wind blew the minister's notes all over the platform. A crash of thunder and a brilliant flash of lightning nearby startled everyone. All the lights went out, and darkness reigned everywhere—intense darkness.

Consider the plight of a man who just a few days ago could enjoy normal physical eyesight. It may be that he had just taken this blessing for granted. While at his work, an explosion caused acid to be thrown into his face and eyes. Now he was suddenly blind. Darkness was everywhere—and pain. Oh, the despair that settles in a man's heart at a time of crisis such as this! "What shall I do? What shall I do?" he would ask himself over and over.

To bring new hope and courage for the future, the Christian Record Benevolent Association of Lincoln, Nebr., provides an abundance of free materials for those who are blind, or whose vision may be impaired. In 1961 more than eleven million pages of Braille literature were sent from this office to blind people in United States, Canada, and around the world to more than 60 other countries. Large print is made available to those with poor eyesight. Special books are made for blind parents of normal-sighted children. Long-playing records with inspirational reading and lovely music are prepared for the many who may know nothing about how to read Braille.

All this literature is sent out to spread the knowledge of the soon return of our Saviour. When He does come back, "the eyes of the blind shall be opened," and we shall see Him face to face.

Activity Pictures for Teachers of Tiny Tots

For a long time teachers and leaders of cradle roll and kindergarten divisions have been wishing for activity pictures to use in their Sabbath School work. Today this wish has become a reality, for the Pacific Press has put out a beautiful set of 24 Activity Pictures for Teachers of Tiny Tots at the request of the Sabbath School Department.

These pictures are in three colors and depict boys and girls performing kind deeds, as well as engaging in many activities so often talked about in Sabbath School.

These pictures have many uses in Sabbath Schools for illustrating songs, poems, and stories. They may be used just as effectively also in Branch Sabbath Schools and Vacation Bible Schools. They are 11 inches by 14 inches in size.

The entire set costs only $1.95. They are sold only in sets. Sales tax should be added where necessary, and a 25-cent mailing charge when mailed outside the United States. Order through your Book and Bible House.
