The Overflow Offering Will Do This

The Southern European Division is very happy that certain projects will be achieved because we shall profit from the 13th Sabbath Overflow Offering this quarter. We know that these projects will help much in the winning of souls for the heavenly kingdom. Let me remind you briefly of the plans we have in mind:

1. The opening of a new mission station in the southern part of Angola, Portuguese West Africa.

We have more than 15,000 members in Angola. From 1958 to 1962 we have, by the help of God, been able to baptize 1,300 to 17,000 persons per year. It is the most promising field in our division. Unfortunately, the message has not yet been preached in the vast territories of the southern part of Angola, and we long to see one or more mission stations established there before the doors are closed.

2. A new church and evangelistic center in Paris.

Paris, the capital of France, has about five million inhabitants. The light of the gospel was first made to shine in this city of light at the beginning of the century, but we wish to see it blaze with much greater force.

The two present churches are getting far too small. It is absolutely necessary to think of a third church, which we plan to build in the northern part of the city, where the message has not made an impact at all, and which will serve, at the same time, as an evangelistic center. Building sites are very expensive in Paris, and the Franco-Belgian Union will not be able to purchase one without substantial aid.

3. Enlargement of the Phoenix Adventist School, Mauritius, Indian Ocean.

I had the opportunity to see our school on Mauritius just after the terrible cyclone had laid waste a great part of the island. Many families lost all their belongings. We were surprised to learn that, in spite of their losses, the parents did not take away their children from our school, even though they have to pay a school fee here, while the government schools offer free tutition.

Our institution enjoys a good reputation. It is appreciated by the Moslems, who gladly send their children. The education they receive here is the most effective means by which we can reach the Moslems with the gospel of grace.

The place is now inadequate. It is necessary to modernize what we have and to enlarge in order to be able to receive more students.

These are, dear brothers and sisters, the needs of our field expressed in a few words. We know you will respond generously, and we thank you in advance for the sacrifices you will make which will permit us to realize our projects. The precious souls won for Christ as well as our deep gratitude will be your reward.

L. Belloy, Acting Secretary Sabbath School Department Southern European Division

INTRODUCING

Indiana's New Evangelistic Team

It is an unusual privilege to present to the Indiana Conference the fulfillment of our hopes and prayers for an aggressive and consecrated evangelistic team. An announcement of committee actions providing for an expanding conference program of evangelism has already appeared in the Herald. We now present to our constituency the personnel of the team.

Eld. and Mrs. Clifton Walter re-

Over $120,000.00 given to missions

Think of it! Labels and box tops that might have been burned and destroyed were saved and turned in for Sabbath School Investment and as a result the Loma Linda Food Company has paid over $120,000.00 to assist the ever expanding mission program. Remember, there will be more money for missions if you save Loma Linda labels.

Is Your Sabbath School Getting Its Share? Specially designed boxes in which to accumulate labels are available from your Conference Sabbath School Department.

True Hunters

Our supreme objective in the Ingathering Crusade is finding interested and needy souls and to follow through with the interests that are found.

While we were Ingathering in Frederic a few weeks ago, we contacted a lumber yard owner and his wife. When we left our gift card offering the book The Impending Conflict, she proudly showed us the first "Faith" Bible course lessons that had just arrived.

A few nights ago, Elder Pedersen, pastor of the Madison Church, was soliciting in a nearby small town when he found a former Adventist. He reported a good interest and a $10 offering.

While working in Waukesha on Saturday night, I found two former Adventists. Our business reply card, offering the Bible course and the book The Impending Conflict, gives us a good approach to talk to anyone that shows an interest. The Waukesha Church already has a list of needy to whom they plan to give definite help.

May the Lord make us true hunters for Him as we go Ingathering.

A. W. BAUER

A $100,000 WEEK

We trust that all are watching the Ingathering progress this year. We are over $34,000 ahead of last year at this time. This week our report totaled over $100,000 for the week! We past the halfway mark for the union. Everyone is working hard.

Now that winter weather is upon us it will take more and more courage and determination to keep up the momentum. Ingathering is like a bicycle. When it is not moving forward at a good speed it wobbles.

Brethern and sisters, we have good speed. Lets keep it that way. God is blessing in wonderful ways. Thank you each and all who have made this wonderful report possible,

VERNON FLORY, Lake Union Home Missionary Secretary

MV's Present New Flag

"Our church needs a new flag" were the challenging words of the Madison MV society leader, Marjorie Clizbe-Tyree. That was all it took to begin the project. At the next MV meeting the leader told the society members about the need and an offering was taken for this purpose. It took several weeks until the necessary funds were available. Then the flag and stand were purchased.

On Sabbath, December 1, during the church service the MV leader presented the new flag. Pastor S. F. Pedersen, on behalf of the church, graciously accepted the gift. The old flag that has served its purpose for many years is now a memory.

The new flag will have an honored place on the church platform.

Cooking Class Held at Green Bay

Mrs. Victor Buettner, a nutritionist from Clintonville, Wis., with a master's degree from Loma Linda University, lectured and explained the preparation of healthful and nutritious cooking at the Green Bay Church School auditorium and kitchen. Meetings were held every Sunday and Wednesday evening to and including November 25. Thirty-five to 45 ladies and a few men interested in culinary arts enjoyed the cooking and tasting activities. Sessions started at 7:30 each night.

With the free samples each individual received recipes of the food prepared. These recipes ranged from vegetable cookery to salad and protein dishes, how to make and bake bread, and how to vary the bread and food in the lunch box. Interspersed with all this information were the suggestions and counsel from the rich treasure of the Spirit of Prophecy as to healthful eating and living.

The meetings were sponsored and arranged by the Green Bay Dorcas and Welfare Center personnel.

Teachers of Tomorrow

Teachers are needed. Teachers are in demand. Teachers train youth for service.

Wisconsin Academy organized the Teachers of Tomorrow club Monday morning at the chapel program. Guest speakers for this occasion were James Rogers and Sandra Schricker, both teaching at the Madison Church School. Following the challenge presented by these teachers, 16 young people indicated their interest in preparing for the nicest work—teaching.

Club president is Marilyn Johnson and secretary for the T.O.T. is Nancy Krohn. Sponsoring this group is Marley Soper, academy librarian and German teacher.

May we urge all educators to encourage our youth to train for teaching.

Janiske-Roy Wedding

In a beautiful and impressive wedding ceremony at the Bay City, Mich., First Methodist Church, Donna Janiske and Robert Roy joined their hearts and lives in the establishment of a Christian home, October 27 at 6:30 p.m. was the time chosen by Donna and Robert to speak their wedding vows before many relatives and friends.

Honeymoon plans, and plans to move to Hinsdale, Ill., where their residence will be established, were considerably complicated by the hospitalization of the groom just a few hours following the wedding ceremony and reception.

Our good wishes and prayers will accompany Donna and Robert as they take up residence at 802 Franklin Street, Hinsdale, Ill. Both of these young people are employed by the Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital.

Battle Creek Tabernacle Church Expands

The welfare center of the Battle Creek Tabernacle is being moved to a new location as a part of a major remodeling project of the church.

The center was formerly located in a house adjacent to the Tabernacle on Van Buren Street. This house will probably be torn down to provide additional parking and the center has been moved to the basement of the former bank building just south of the Tabernacle.

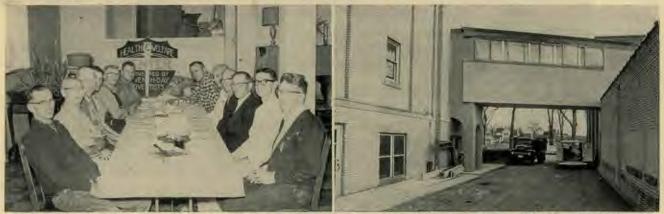

The bank building was repurchased by the church this year to provide additional space for the auxiliary services of the church. The book store has been moved from its former location in the center of the building and now occupies the corner office with double the amount of space available before.

Complete remodeling has transformed the second floor. A second-floor corridor connects the former bank building and the Tabernacle. Partitions have been removed to provide a large Sabbath School room as well as a choir room. Offices will be maintained on the second floor for the pastor and assistant pastor.

The welfare center plans to have an official reopening on January 10 but the moving has cut down the busy program of this center. Referrals from the Battle Creek public schools, from the Calhoun County health department and from the city welfare offices keep the Dorcas Society busy.

This building which formerly housed a bank has been repurchased by the Battle Creek Tabernacle in their expansion program.

Left: The prospect of a good meal is an incentive to work. These men were some of the 40 who reported for work on a recent Sunday morning to help with the moving and remodeling of the Battle Creek Tabernacle Welfare Center, Dinner was served by the Dorcas ladies, Right: This overhead walkway connects the former bank building and the adjacent Tabernacle.

Medical Self-Help Training Program

For a number of years now, the Seventh-day Adventist Church has been cooperating and participating with the American Red Cross and the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization in educating and preparing our members and neighbors for survival in event of any natural or world-caused emergency.

A surprising number of our churches and members have been conducting the Standard and Advanced First Aid Courses recommended by the Red Cross, Still others have engaged in the home-protection program through Civil Defense. This has been beneficial, and we are convinced that we have only scratched the surface in exploring the great possibilities open to our members in the humanitarian field of Red Cross and Civil Defense, in training and educating our members in preparing for survival.

The recent Cuban crisis, which is by no means resolved, has brought the picture of a national emergency right into focus. People everywhere are calling the Red Cross and the office of Civil Defense for instructions and directions on what to do.

We, as Seventh-day Adventists, have been instructed by the Word of God and the Spirit of Prophecy as to what is coming on the earth before the return of our Lord. Hurricanes, tornadoes, typhoons, earthquakes, and other calamities beyond the control of man will become more and more frequent as we near the end. Now is the time when our leaders and members should consider seriously alerting and training our members in the basic Red Cross First Aid training program. Better still, open the doors of our churches and invite in your community neighbors for a more thorough and concentrated course of instruction available now through Civil Defense, This is entitled "The Medical Self-Help Training Program."

Any of our select members with a knowledge of teaching techniques, or better still, those of the medical or nursing professions or laymen with a certificate in the Red Cross First Aid training course, are qualified to conduct this course in their churches under the supervision and cooperation of your local city or county Civil Defense department. The conference Home Misssionary Department does not have this Medical Self-Help Training kit, and they are not available through this office. Our churches who plan to carry forward a First Aid training program should contact the local Red Cross office for a qualified instructor to conduct the course in that area.

Those of our churches who plan to conduct the Medical Self-Help Training course—after the Ingathering Crusade is over—should make complete arrangements with local city or county Civil Defense office for further instructions and details in implementing the program.

And now, what about fallout shelters? Well, it is a good idea and an idealistic goal to have each American home equipped with a fallout shelter. Realistically speaking, the cost of this is beyond the reach of the vast segment of our population, especially Seventh-day Adventists. Should we give up, then, and say "What's the use?" because we cannot afford to build a fallout shelter? By no means. We strongly recommend that every Adventist home select the safest place in that home, in the basement preferably or on the first floor if no basement is available. Have it stockpiled with a two weeks' supply of food and water, medical first aid supplies, blankets, clothing, a Bible, and a transistor radio. This is what we call an emergency improvised fallout shelter. By implementing these suggestions in each of our homes and churches throughout Michigan, Seventh-day Adventists can and will be prepared to meet any emergency that may strike our territory.

Remember, fellow believers, Civil Defense and planning for survival is good common sense and a practical application of the gospel of Jesus as Noah was told to prepare and build an ark for the saving of his household prior to the flood. At the command of God and by faith Noah obeyed and he and his family were saved from destruction.

Therefore, we appeal to each of you to revive and activate a Red Cross program and better still a Medical Self-Help Training Program in your church through Civil Defense. We must put our houses in order and be prepared as a church under God to meet the crisis when it comes. Remember, the life you save may be your own!

Detroit Area Youths' Congress

A Detroit area Youths' Congress on the week end of November 9 and 10 brought together visitors from throughout eastern Michigan in one of the largest crowds ever to meet in the Metropolitan Church,

Part.cipants in the Sabbath morning youth congress included (left to right): William Edsell, assistant MV secretary, Michigan Conference; Lawrence C. Caviness, MV secretary, Michigan Conference; Fred Beavon, MV secretary, Lake Union Conference; Theodore Lucas, MV secretary, General Conference; O. D. Wright, Metropolitan pastor, and Roger Pratt, Adelphian Academy principal.

Two youthful admirers get a close look at the Congressional Medal of Honor displayed by Desmond Doss. The young men are: (left) Larry Hughes and Terry Copsey.

The meetings began Friday night and closed Saturday night. Featured speaker for the opening session was Eld. Fred Beavon, Lake Union MV secretary. Music for this service was furnished by the Detroit area massed choir and by the Ferndale Flying Four Quartet.

Eld, T. E. Lucas, General Conference MV secretary, spoke at the Sabbath morning worship services, Visitors rated the music for the Congress as outstanding. The choir from Adelphian Academy, directed by Dwight Rhodes, provided music for the worship service as well as several special numbers during the Sabbath afternoon program. Smaller musical groups from Adelphian also participated.

Other choirs also provided inspiration for the audience. Taking part in the program were choirs from the Oakwood, Van Dyke, Metropolitan, and Southfield Junior Academy.

Several speakers also took part in the Sabbath afternoon session. Arthur Haynor of Ludington, Michigan's "Layman of the Year," was interviewed by Eld. Fred Beavon. Desmond Doss of Rising Fawn, Ga., the only conscientious objector to receive the Congressional Medal of Honor, told his war experiences in an interview with Michigan's MV secretary, Eld. Lawrence C. Caviness, "It Is Written" Director Harold N, Reiner also spoke briefly.

Climax to the afternoon program came when Charles Hall, Southfield Junior Academy, led the massed choirs

Also visiting that day were the mother of Miss Rudge and the Misses Ruth Rahn and Mary Yamazaki.

NGATHERING

Introducing the Hills

Members of the Indiana constituency—meet Eld. and Mrs. Glenn H. Hill and their daughter, Lucinda Sue. The Hills come to us from Portsmouth, Ohio, and are now comfortably settled in the Bloomington district. Already they are busy at work—elections, Ingathering, and pastoral visiting. Words of courage from the Hill family reach the office, and expressions of gratitude from the members in the district are frequently heard.

We welcome to our wonderful field these consecrated and devoted workers. Through the years of their service in the Ohio Conference they have demonstrated their deep and abiding interest in the progress of God's cause. For God's service they received their training at Emmanuel Missionary College. To the progress of God's work they have dedicated their lives. Elder Hill has been privileged to make a trip to the Holy Land, and this has wonderfully enriched his ministry. Both Elder and Mrs. Hill have done graduate work since graduation from E.M.C.

We assure these new workers of our united prayers for their success in Indiana. T. E. UNRUH

Mastering Bookkeeping

"The common branches must be thoroughly mastered, and a knowledge of bookkeeping should be considered as important as a knowledge of grammar."—Counsels to Parents and Teachers, p. 218.

In an attempt to comply with the counsel as given in the above quotation, the business office at Indiana Academy has a two-fold purpose, First, of course, is the keeping of the financial records of the school. The other purpose is giving the students who work in the office valuable experience in office work that they may use throughout life. Quite frequently experience in the academy business office leads in the future years to work in local and union conference offices.

This year seven students are working in the business office. Those who work in the morning are Linda Williams, Debbie Goodman, Beverly Wernick—sophomores; and Linda Howard—junior. In the afternoon there are three seniors who work in the office. They are Dianne Nelson, Joyce Steele, and James Jensma.

All of us are happy for the opportunity we have to serve the needs of the students and patrons of Indiana Academy,

South Bend Evangelistic Series

The week of November 10 to 17 saw an intensive campaign of evangelistic revival meetings in the South Bend Junior Academy auditorium.

Ground work for the meetings was laid by the pastor of the South Bend Church, Eld. J. A. Kroncke, and the church elders. Advertising was by way of the newspaper, handbills, tickets, car bumper strips, table prayer cards, the LAKE UNION HERALD, and the church newsletter. Eld. Richard D. Fearing of Hinsdale, Ill., was invited to serve as speaker for the series entitled "Great Messages for this Hour." He also spoke in two consecutive South Bend Sabbath morning worship services during the series.

Greeters, ushers, parking assistants, platform arrangements, outside sign, and a pianist were provided by the South Bend Church. Mrs. Sally Nutt of Elkhart served as orgainst. Roy Warren and Dick Dale of Andrews University conducted the nightly musical.

A physician of the South Bend Church presented a 10-minute health instructional message each evening, and a "How-to-Stop-Smoking" class was also conducted nightly by Dr. Martin Lushbaugh in connection with the series.

A total of 111 non-Adventists attended the meetings along with the South Bend church members and representatives from Elkhart, Laporte, and Plymouth.

As a result of the week's services, the visitation program, and a call to decision on the final evening 12 persons took a stand to unite with God's remnant people. The South Bend Church considers this a week of great spiritual importance in its year of activity and evangelism.

The accompanying picture depicts the congregation attending the final session with Eld. R. D. Fearing preaching.

The musical half of the team is represented by Monty and Donna Jones. They have three children. Since 1958 the Jones family has been engaged in pastoral work and singing evangelism in the Oregon Conference. Brother Jones has an excellent tenor voice, and Mrs, Jones is an accomplished pianist and organist. We welcome these families to Indiana.

Both families will be living in trailer homes and thus can be readily moved from place to place. The team has been scheduled for seven efforts in 1963. Each effort will carry through five weeks. They are scheduled to begin their first effort in the city of Evansville December 29 with a week of special meetings for the church. Public services begin January 5 and will run every night in the week.

From Evansville they will move to New Albany. Other cities tentatively selected for efforts in 1963 are; Bloomfield, Anderson, Marion, Fort Wayne, and Gary. These are tentative selections. Some changes may be indicated as we move into the new year. Definite dates and places will be announced as the program develops.

And what can all of us do to achieve success? We suggest: 1. The entire constituency in daily prayer for those who will be proclaiming the vital message for this critical hour. 2. Every church member dedicated to personal effort to bring neighbors and friends to the services, 3. Generous giving to the Conference Evangelistic Fund. It will demand heavy financial expenditures to make this program a success. It is our hope that God will impress us all to dedicate a portion of our monthly income to evangelism. Contributions should be marked for this special fund and handed to the church treasurer. We invite large and special gifts. These can be sent to the conference. Proper credit will be given to the churches.

As we face 1963, we do so with new hope and courage. We expect God to do the unusual for us in the coming months. Let us ask God for 1,000 souls. T. E. UNRUH

ANDREWS UNIVERSITY

Data Processing Center Authorized

Beginning with the 1963 summer term the administration of Andrews University plans to begin experimenting with electronic data processing equipment in connection with admissions, registration, statistical studies, and reports, grades, transcripts, etc., in the Registrar's Office. The Business Office will use the same equipment, in addition to bookkeeping machines, to streamline the various operations in connection with the financial management of the institution.

The keeping of records is required by law; and the number of reports required each year by denominational, governmental, and educational agencies are increasing. Not only is the number of reports increasing, but the reports are becoming increasingly detailed and intricate. It seems as though it is taken for granted that institutions of higher learning have the necessary electronic data processing equipment. Internally, it is important that the administration have access to accurate educational information at any time.

Higher education is costly, and especially on a campus where several industries are operated and where more student help is used than anywhere else, it is essential to have a system whereby management may have its fingers on the financial pulse at any

High and Low Aspiring High School Seniors to Selected Attitudinal and Ecological Variables" sampled 2,031 high school seniors from 34 public high schools within the United States. Specifically, it was a statistical study using the chi-square test of independence to determine if educational aspirations of high school students were affected in any way by certain sociological and psychological factors.

Dr. Cassell began his teaching career as a supervisory teacher at Columbia Union College. In 1955 he was appointed academy principal at Andrews University and held that position until 1959 when he accepted his present posi-
