Lake Union Colporteurs Meet at Camp Silver Lake in

Sales Seminar and Summer Rally

"Anyone for horseshoes?" This call emanates from the older segment who are less inclined toward the more hazardous pursuits, water skiing, football, softball. And for those who just wanted to sit, there is a game played with marbles on a little board. This is not a description of a rich summer resort. This is a Sales Development

Seminar and Summer Rally. But it sounds like a vacation! And it could be because it is intended to be a rest for a very hard-working group—the colporteurs. The meetings are just long enough each day to rest bones not accustomed to such vigorous activities. No traffic lights, no rush, no cooking, (See COLPORTEURS MEET, p. 2)

Eld. D. A. McAdams, left, was present throughout the Sales Development Seminar and Summer Rally to give daily instruction. Dr. Richard Hammill, president of Andrews University, addressed the group during the eleven o'clock hour on Sabbath.

Camping Fun at Franklin Lake

A camp out for nature-loving families and individuals was conducted by the Wisconsin Conference Missionary Volunteer Department at Franklin Lake in the Nicolet National Forest near Eagle River, Wis., August 18 to 23.

An atmosphere of fellowship and friendship prevailed and most of the time the weather was ideal for many activities. These included putting up tents (that in some cases took a while to figure just how (See CAMPING FUN, p. 11) no pressure this week. Nothing but rest, refreshment, recreation, and restoration of energies. And there is also a good measure of inspiration.

Under the supervision of the Lake Union Conference, over three hundred literature evangelists and their loved ones gathered at the Portage, Wis., campground for an intensive seven days, August 25 to September 1, of training in their work. By the end of a week of friendship, games, rest, meetings, it was unanimous: It is good to be a colporteur! And since we're on the subject, maybe you should be one too!

Ways to speedily finish God's work in this great Lake Union Conference was the overall objective of the seminar. C. E. Palmer, general manager of the Review and Herald Publishing Association, provided the keynote and he with his associates stayed throughout the week to counsel. D. A. McAdams of the General Conference Publishing Department, led out in seminar instruction each day, a course for experienced and credentialed literature evangelists. Friday evening each field in the union took part in an inspiring two hours of experience-telling, directed by Dick Proctor, president of the Andrews University Colporteur Club.

But the whole of this wonderful experience can no more be put on paper than the Lake Union's five lakes can be put in your front lawn. Out of it all, though, emerges a courage, a renewal of the flame of dedication that originally roused each of these valiant, modern apostles of faith, to step out in response to God's sacred call to canvassing.

Points of cheer were many. The students this year show over $50,000 gain in deliveries over 1962. Most young salesmen have returned to school with scholarships, aided by the guaranteed scholarship plan. Over 100,000 single copies of truth-filled magazines have been delivered by the Lake Region magazine evangelists—a new world record. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Crigler and four Oakwood College students told their story in a Sabbath afternoon program.

A sales development committee with three literature evangelists from each conference prepared a very valuable report to the Lake Union that will do much to increase sales volume in the future. James Micheff of Illinois was chairman.

Visitors to the camp included Jesse Gibson, General Conference Temperance Department, who showed a narcotics film; R. J. Christian, Southern Hikes along the Wisconsin Dells followed narrow water-washed crevices extending back from the Wisconsin River. To get to this point, everyone had to pass through Fat Man's Misery. But everyone made it.

Publishing Association, who gave valuable advice; Vernon Flory, Lake Union, who presented a devotional talk; Gordon Engen, Lake Union, who took many of the young people for plane rides; many others also contributed to the value and pleasure of the week. Dr. Una Underwood cared for the physical welfare of the camp.

Portage proved to be an ideal spot for a wonderful week—the lake, the quiet, the pleasant weather. God had His hand over the camp during the week. The week following, His hand was also felt as colporteur sales for the union doubled. Big Week, ending with September 5, brought a total of $35,000 worth of deliveries in the one week alone. At the end of August, the union showed a $50,000 gain over the previous year. Indications show that ours will be the first North American union with five local conferences to surpass a million dollars in deliveries. This is happening in 1963, Eld. J. W. Proctor of the Lake Union extends a big thank you to the publishing department leaders, their associates, Bible House managers, and to the large army of literature evangelists for making the seminar and following week so outstanding and successful.

Next year you may be packing to go to Portage for the seminar-rally week. In just three months you could have your colporteur license. We will welcome you if you come. You will find it truly a remarkable vacation.

An Appeal to All Church Members

Are You Present for Sabbath School?

Sabbath School leaders around the world are putting forth earnest efforts to gather into the Sabbath School all our church members. This is a most worthy undertaking, and one that should have the full support and active cooperation of every church leader and conference worker in the Advent cause. It should also appeal to every faithful church member. In almost every church there are some church members who are absentees at Sabbath School. Each missing member is a good reason to support the endeavors of our Sabbath School leaders in their present efforts.

From the standpoint of Scriptural and spiritual training the Sabbath School is our greatest educational institution. It is also our oldest. Virtually, from the very inception of this movement, the Sabbath School has played a very important part in the activities of the church. Through the years our people have benefited by the weekly blessings of Sabbath School attendance. The united study of the Holy Scriptures is of untold benefit to all believers. Furthermore, it is obvious that when one is growing in grace—sanctification—he will love to attend the religious meetings, God's appointments with His people. Naturally this will include the Sabbath School.

In different parts of the world field we have seen our evangelists take an active part in the Sabbath School program. Often they have gathered around them a large group of new believers and have taught them the Sabbath School lesson. These new believers thus learn from their leaders the value of the Sabbath School. Every new believer should not only be instructed in the Scriptural teachings regarding Sabbath observance, the second coming of Christ, et cetera, but he should also be taught the blessing and importance of Sabbath School attendance.

We appeal to every worker, church leader, and loyal member to give his full support by precept and example for the strengthening of our Sabbath Schools. "The Sabbath school work is important, and all who are interested in the truth should endeavor to make it prosperous."—Counsels on Sabbath School Work, p. 9.

Let us personally resolve that just as far as possible we will not be absentees, but that we will be present and on time each week in our own home Sabbath School. May we all join together in building up our Sabbath School attendance is my earnest prayer.

"If just one other mother can have her little girl as the result of someone's having seen this film, it will be worth all the torture it took to tell the story."

"Becky"

So stated Mrs. Ed Crawford about the poignant documentary safety film being produced by the editors of Listen which has been titled "Becky" after Becky Crawford, her 13-year-old daughter who happened to be bicycling in the path of a drinking driver and was killed. She died three years ago this Christmas.

The editors of Listen have produced this film for use on national television just prior to the Christmas holiday. A newsmen of national repute will do the narration. "Becky" runs about 15 minutes and was filmed in full color in Brookville, Fla., the actual setting of the tragedy.

The ambulance driver and the nurse, both of whom tried to help Becky when she was hurt, play their own parts in the film. Although "Becky" will not officially premiere until December on television, our people in several churches will be able to see what is known as a "sneak preview" before that time.

"I can still see those legs dangling from the tree in front of the house where she used to be perched eating green oranges," says Becky's mother, Mrs. Virginia Crawford.

Nurse Abbott, left, actually involved in the tragedy, plays herself in the film. "My invalid mother received a Christmas card from Becky on the day she was killed," she says. "She was such a sweet little girl."

John Turner, below, actual driver of the ambulance, who took Becky to the hospital, re-enacts his role in the tragedy with an assistant.

Temperance Leaders to Visit Lake Union Churches

When you drive out Old Dade City Road you soon come to the Brooksville Cemetery where Becky is buried. It is pretty as far as cemeteries go—well shaded with conifers, palms, and Spanish moss.

"The potential for soul winning through the temperance work is unlimited. The success of the Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking in Battle Creek is one example of the challenge we face as a people to help our fellow men."

So stated Michael A. Jones of the General Conference Temperance Department, in a special interview for the LAKE UNION HERALD. Jones, one of the secretaries in the Temperance Department, also is assistant editor of Listen magazine. He will be meeting church appointments during an itinerary in the union beginning September 28.

"If the members of the Lake Union send 20,000 Listens to non-Adventists during this year's World Temperance Day program, this union will have taken a gigantic step forward toward soul winning with this publication," he stated.

"I believe that our members will respond," said Jones, "because they know that time is running out. Signs all around us foretell that we are living at the climax of history. We need to prepare now not for mere progress to our work, but for conclusions to it."

"If this denomination is going to fulfill the gospel commission, every one of us must step up the pace and do it now," he stated. "Thinking of the thousands who already have quit smoking, over 300 in Battle Creek alone, we know that many souls will soon find the truth we know because they were helped to overcome a killing habit through their contact with the Seventh-day Adventist temperance message. There can be no higher calling than helping our fellow man in ways such as this," he said.

Jones will begin his itinerary on September 28, in the Michigan Conference in the Grand Rapids Central Church. See the Michigan section for the first week's schedule. Additional appointments will be listed next week.

J. P. WINSTON, Secretary
Lake Union Temperance Dept.

Can We Afford It?

Did you know that from Sept. 14 to Oct. 12, 1963, you can secure the weekly visit of our beloved church paper, the Review and Herald, at the specially reduced price of $4.75?

"I cannot afford it," someone says. But can we afford to be without it? Much depends upon our sense of values. Perhaps we could better afford to do without some other reading matter in the home than for the members of our families to be deprived of the priceless blessings that come through the Review. It brings us into touch with God's family around the earth. It breathes the very spirit of our message. Wonderful devotional and doctrinal messages from our leaders around the earth, inspiring youth articles, messages for the home, thrilling reports of miracles of grace in many lands, news of "the family" all over the earth, and stories of advance in many fields, cannot but inspire the reader, strengthen his faith, and renew his own devotion. And all this for less than ten cents a week!

SPOTLIGHT

ON BOOKS

Have you seen a copy of A Century of Miracles by Richard H. Utt? It is simply fascinating! When you do have an opportunity to examine one, or if you should just place an order for one without seeing it, be prepared to spend some time with it for you will not want to lay it aside quickly.

A Century of Miracles is a beautiful 190-page picture book of Seventh-day Adventism, with 197 interesting large-size photographs, forty of which are in living color. Here you will see your church in action around the world. You will sail on the mighty Amazon River with Leo Halliwell, witness a baptism at the Jordan River, and visit with the Adventist Solomon Islanders who saved John F. Kennedy's life. As you read the inspiring story of the advancement of God's work in the earth you will meet many people including Adventist pioneers, missionaries, and others who have strengthened and brought honor to this movement through their untiring, faithful service and steadfastness to principle. You will visit many places in all parts of the world and in the islands of the sea.

This has been a century of miracles for the Advent people. They have emerged from obscurity into a world movement carrying on their work in 900 languages and dialects, with a baptized membership totaling 1,400,000 attending 14,000 churches around the globe. Here, in the words of the author, is the purpose in preparing this outstanding addition to our wealth of good literature: "As the reader of this book views the miracles God has accomplished through human instruments, may he gain a new understanding of the love and power of the Saviour, and be led to exclaim, 'What hath God Wrought!'"

A Century of Miracles is a book for you, your friends, and all friends of Adventists, an ideal gift for those who support the projects and campaigns of the church, excellent for libraries and waiting rooms. This book has no age limit. Children and adults alike will spend hours with this pictorial story of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Price $4.95, plus postage and sales tax where necessary.

Special Price, $4.45 Until October 15.

Available through all Lake Union Book and Bible Houses.

If we desire above all else to mold the members of our families with the spirit of the message, and fill their hearts with love for the truth and the work of God, the Review faithfully read each week will do it.

Why not send it to that dear one who has been so much on your heart, or to that friend who once was with us but is now away from the church? It will do a silent but effective work and bring them into touch again. Christmas is coming. No better Christmas gift could be made than a year's subscription to the Review for someone you love.

Order through your Church Missionary Secretary. After October 12 the price will be higher again.

Let us plan now to make the spiritual benefits of our invaluable church paper available to every Adventist home. We cannot afford to do otherwise.

Each One Bring One

"Each one bring one!" What a powerful directive for growth. Think of it—growth by bringing one to Christ. This is the greatest object in the world, for bringing a soul to Christ displays confidence in Christ. Bring a person to Sabbath School for the Sabbath School is a channel through which Christ seeks to meet people. It is an agency through which Jesus talks with people personally and sits with them in worship. When we bring persons to Sabbath School we escort them to their Saviour who is waiting to free them from sin and to give them a happy life.

Not only does encouragement and inspiration surround the visitor, but also the faithful member who brings that one to Sabbath School. What a cheering enthusiasm fills the life of the member who takes opportunity as a serious commission from God and becomes a true disciple. More of our youth would develop interest in the business of the church if we adults took our calling seriously and fullheartedly.

"Our Sabbath Schools are nothing less than Bible societies, and in the sacred work of teaching the truths of God's word, they can accomplish far more than they have hitherto accomplished. The Sabbath School, when rightly managed, possesses marvelous power, and is adapted to doing a great work, but it is not now what it may and should be. The influence growing out of Sabbath School work should improve and enlarge the church; but in no case should it ever be allowed to divert from the interests of the church. There is a most precious missionary field in the Sabbath School, and if there are now omens of good, they are only indications and beginnings of what may be done."—Testimonies on Sabbath School Work, p. 29.

This shows the importance of planning well ahead for a Visitor's Day that will hold the attention of Sabbath Schools all over the world on October 12. Remember "Each one bring one!"

Summertime Around The World

"Summertime Around the World" was the theme of a social at the Rockford Seventh-day Adventist Church Youth Center, Saturday evening, August 31.

Two of the members of the church, Charles Swanson and Dale Johnson, Chana, Ill., have just returned from a trip around the world, visiting 35 countries. They left their home June 11 and returned August 22. The trip was organized by Dr. R. K. Nelson, a professor at Union College where they are students. There were 36 students who took this trip. Dale and Chuck gave a detailed report of their trip with pictures and keepsakes purchased in each country.

The ladies of the church furnished salads from these 35 foreign countries for refreshments.

The objectives of our camporees are to help our boys and girls to understand better the meaning and methods of genuine camping in the woods; better to prepare them to care for themselves when out in nature's natural habitat without the convenience of modern camping; and of most value, to help our Pathfinders obtain a clearer conception of the God of the outdoors when they can see Him without some of the man-made additions hiding His face. We solicit the cooperation of the adult leadership in our churches to assist these Pathfinder youth to secure this enriched training now at their most receptive and fruitful age for learning. We'll be looking for you at the Camporee.

Lease of Campground Cabins

The Lake Region Conference is embarking upon a new venture which will enable the laymen of the conference to secure, for the sum of $500, a ten-year lease on new one-room block cabins with private bath to be built on the Conference Campground at Calvin Center, Mich. Here is how the plan will work.

Laymen who desire to secure such a lease will contact the conference secretary-treasurer, who will, in turn, send them two copies of a lease agreement to be signed by them and returned to him accompanied by a check or money order for $500. The conference officers will then sign the agreement and return one copy to the lessee for his records. The other copy will remain at the conference office.

The conference will then have a cabin built for the layman or laymen in question, who will thereafter have free access to it at all times for a period of ten years from the time construction is completed. When this ten-year period ends, the layman will have a first option to renew the lease for another ten-year period, or to rent it at camp meeting time at the prevailing rental rates.

All who are interested in this program should now contact the conference secretary-treasurer at 8517 So. State Street, Chicago 19, Ill.

Colporteur Leads Reach New High

Michigan colporteurs are rejoicing over the record number of lead cards coming in weekly now from advertising in the field.

Last week over 600 lead cards came in and were passed on to the colporteurs to follow up. Not too long ago, before this part of the program was given special attention, the lead cards were numbering only about 50 a week.

This type of advertising is paying off tremendously as the work in Michigan already for the year has exceeded $300,000. The total for the year is sure to break all past records in the Michigan Conference for one year.

This has also given impetus to the Bible House sales and we expect to surpass the half-million-dollar figure for the year. The colporteur sales register on Bible House sales at the cost price to the colporteur of half the retail. The more our books are sold the more the demand grows.

Eld. J. D. Spiva shows lead cards to Eld. G. H. Taggart in the Book and Bible House. The cards represent just one week's harvest of interests. Each week now over 500 cards come in and the number is growing steadily.

Elder Spiva still needs good consecrated lay people to enter the vineyard of the colporteur work. We know of no finer way to support yourself while visiting homes and telling the story of Jesus' second coming.

Eld. J. P. Winston and Eld. A. K. Phillips of the Lake Union and Michigan Conference temperance departments will accompany Mr. Jones.

Mission Doctor Visits Home Church

Dr. G. Robert Rigsby, medical director of the Empress Zauditu Memorial Hospital in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, was the Sabbath morning speaker at the Noblesville and Cicero churches

Dr. Rigsby shakes hands with Eld. C. E. Perry, left, pastor of the Cicero Church, following the service.

September 7. Dr. Rigsby brought the cheering news of over a thousand new converts in Ethiopia last year, and another thousand expected this year. He further stated that as a result of a special Sabbath School appropriation last year, it is planned to build a new modern hospital plant in Addis Ababa which will have 140 beds.

Dr. Rigsby was home for just a few days using his vacation time and a special arrangement with the Ethiopian Airlines to make this recruiting trip for more personnel at the mission. The Empress Zauditu Hospital is one of four mission hospitals operated by Seventh-day Adventists in Ethiopia besides many dispensaries located throughout the country.

Dr. Rigsby is a graduate of Indiana Academy, Emmanuel Missionary College, and Loma Linda University. He has been in Ethiopia since graduate study in Washington, D. C. four years ago. He and his family are expected home on furlough next year. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Genoa Rigsby, live in Arcadia, Ind., and are members of the Cicero Church.

"Brethren and sisters, we want you to see the importance of this temperance question, and we want our workers to interest themselves in it, and to know that it is just as much connected with the third angel's message as the right arm is with the body. We ought to make advancement in this work." —"Temperance," p. 238.

One Month's Building Progress

Progress continues daily on the new South Bend Church. Now completely under roof, the stone work goes on. Not pictured is a large wing housing all Sabbath School rooms above ground level, plus a youth chapel, lobby, reception area, office, and large council room. The sanctuary will seat 780. Cost is estimated at $230,000.

Camping Fun (Cont. from page 1) to put one up!), pumping up a low tire, keeping on the smokeless side of a cooking fire, washing dishes, and other good times such as canoeing, swimming, water skiing, picture taking, outdoor cooking, hiking, tours for bird watching and bear watching, campfire, and star gazing.

Evening campfire time featured inspirations, the telling of interesting experiences of groups and individuals during each day's activities, instrumental and vocal special music, stories, talks, and moving pictures of camp activity of and for young people. A portable generator brought by Wilber Brown of Madison supplied the electricity for the movies. Many of the songs, talks, and stories given at the campfires were inspirational, and each day Morning Watch was observed and the Sabbath School Lesson studied.

Eld. H. W. Jewkes and Mrs. Wilber Brown supervised the camp out.

Fair Booth Furthers Oshkosh Work

The Oshkosh Church embarked upon a new type of home missionary endeavor this year in the form of an attractive booth at the Winnebago County Fair, August 27 to 30, at the fairgrounds in Oshkosh.

The two tables utilized in the booth were made by Merle Marsh, whose enthusiasm and tenacity of purpose were responsible for the booth becoming a reality. He reports that in addition to free literature given away, a total of 33 Voice of Prophecy Bible Correspondence Course applications were received, including 30 applications for the Junior Course, two for the adult course, and one for the alcoholic course.

Two experiences were singled out as having made a real impression. One of these concerned three elderly sisters who came in and browsed around the booth. Eventually, one of them picked up the booklet How to Quit Smoking by Dr. McFarland. She confided that one of the other sisters was a smoker. Merle Marsh then offered the second sister a copy of the magazine Life and Health. The woman at first declined the publication, stating she "couldn't afford that much" but ultimately accepted it when it was explained there was no charge.

The second experience concerns a member of a local church whose congregation rents our sanctuary for their Sunday meetings. This gentleman expressed a feeling that it would "be well" to brush up on what Seventh-day Adventists believe, and accepted several pamphlets as well as the loan of the book God Speaks to Modern Man.

Others donating their time and talents to the manning of the booth included Mrs. Merle Marsh, Mrs. Lillian Giese, Miss Joyce Loret, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dittmer, Mrs. Theodore Dittmer, Mrs. Eric Johnson and a visitor from Wyoming, Stanley Waters, Jr., and Mrs. Esther Christianson.

Hospital Receives National Award

Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital, has once again received national recognition for its public relations program according to Eld. D. T. Hawley, public relations director. The institution was awarded a citation in the 1963 Dr. Malcolm T. MacEachern (former president of the American Hospital Association) competition sponsored annually by Hospital Management, a leading publication for hospital executives.

Hinsdale was one of ten hospitals in the country commended for its execution of an outstanding public relations project during the year. The Hinsdale entry dealt with the institution's May 12 dedication and National Hospital Day celebration.

First place in the competition was won by Mount Zion hospital, San Francisco. Cited for honorable mention in addition to Hinsdale were eight other medical institutions: Druid City hospital, Tuscaloosa, Ala.; East Orange General hospital, East Orange, N. J.; Fairview hospital, Minneapolis; Jewish Chronic Disease hospital, Brooklyn; Memorial hospital, Sarasota, Fla.; Perth Amboy General hospital, Perth Amboy, N. J.; The Miami Valley hospital, Dayton, Ohio; and St. Luke's hospital, Bethlehem, Penn.

In last year's MacEachern competition, Hinsdale was one of ten hospitals in the nation to receive an award for its monthly house organ, Echo, which is a comprehensive review of the activities of the institution and its staff.

M. J. Blair, administrator, accepted the award on behalf of the hospital at the Hospital Management Awards Breakfast August 26 in New York City at the time of the American Hospital Association national convention. Word has been received that Ethicon Inc. of New Jersey will incorporate the Hinsdale material in a hospital public relations kit Tell Your Story which it makes available each year for national distribution.

OBITUARIES

FANCHER, Anna Melissa, was born to Demitreaus and Chloe Owen Mendle on Sept. 18, 1877, in Lima, Ind., and passed quietly to her rest at 85 on Aug. 15, 1963, at Charlotte, Mich., being full of days and with a rich experience in the Lord.

When 24, Sister Fancher first learned to love the doctrines of God. Sometime thereafter she took her stand to abide steadfastly in the faith until her passing. Mrs. Fancher's husband, Morris D. Fancher, predeceased her by 17 years. Those of the immediate family who remain to mourn the passing of another mother in Israel are: Lulu E. Brittain, Mulliken, Mich.; Audrey M. Culbert, Mulliken, Mich.; Howard of Sixlakes, Mich.; Earl of Charlotte, Mich.; Charles of Mulliken, Mich.; Oscar of Grand Ledge, Mich.; Clayton of Milliken, Mich.; 19 grandchildren, and 14 great-grandchildren.

Our sister was lovingly laid to rest in the Oakwood Cemetery at Grand Ledge on August 19 to await the trumpet call of the great Life-giver on that glorious resurrection morning.

D. J. Donesky

GRIFFITH, Herman, 77, a member of the Charlotte Seventh-day Adventist Church for more than fifty years, passed to his rest on April 16, 1963, following a stroke from which he never regained consciousness. Brother Griffith had served his church well through the years, and it is with a deep feeling of loss that the church accepts his passing.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Pearl Griffith, his children, and a host of friends.

Funeral services were conducted by Eld. R. E. Lemon.

HEINZ, Chris J., was born on March 31, 1894, in Appleton, Wis., and passed to his rest on August 11, 1963, after a long and painful illness. On June 29, 1957, he was united in marriage to Vivien Misner. He became a member of the Seventh-day Adventist church in 1949 and was a member of the Clintonville Church at the close of his life. A little five-year-old son by a former marriage preceded him in death.

Left to cherish the memory are his wife, Vivien; 3 sons: Merlyn of South Dakota, Leonard of Rose Lawn, Wis., William of Clintonville, Wis.; 3 daughters: Mrs. Harvey Conn of Lincoln, Neb., Mrs. George (Janice) Graff of Fond du Lac, Mrs. Norman (Eunice) Irish of Rose Lawn; 7 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren; and a sister living in Nevada. A great many neighbors and friends will also miss his kindly, helpful association. Funeral services were held in Clintonville and he was laid to rest in Seymour, Wis. A. G. Parfitt

JONES, Mrs. Lydia Lavetha, died Aug. 1, 1963, in Bluffton, Ind. She had been a life-long member of the Rockford, Ind., church. Her life was a constant testimony to the sincerity of her faith.

She was born April 20, 1884. She leaves to mourn her passing 5 sons, a daughter, a sister, 2 brothers, 20 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren and 3 great-great-grandchildren. Funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Eld. H. L. Wernick of Fort Wayne, Ind. A. Orville Dunn

SERLES, Verna Jean, was born March 25, 1943, to Walter and Erma Long-Serles at Walla Walla, Wash. Verna Jean attended the Hinsdale grade school through grades 1 to 8. She then attended Broadview Academy. When Mrs. Serles moved to Portland, Tenn., Verna attended Highland Academy. The Serles returned to Hinsdale after two years and Verna graduated from Broadview Academy.

For the last two years Verna Jean has been a student at Andrews University. On August 29, Verna Jean and her mother visited the college where she arranged for her junior year. On the return to Hinsdale Thursday afternoon an accident occurred where Verna Jean received a fatal injury and did not regain consciousness. She passed away at 4 a.m. Friday.

A memorial service was conducted Sunday in the Hinsdale S.D.A. Church where her many friends from Broadview Academy, Andrews University, and the Sanitarium filled the church to pay their last respects. Her body was taken to Salem, Iowa, where she was laid to rest in the family burial lots. There she quietly awaits the sure and certain call of the voice of the Life-giver at the resurrection.

Verna Jean was a member of the Downers Grove Church where she took a very active part. She had provided the special musical numbers the previous Sabbath. Her presence will be missed, but our anticipation of our Lord's return has become greater from so great a loss. C. L. Turner

Death of Professor Paul Evers Saddens University Community

Professor Paul E. Evers, assistant professor of Foreign Languages, died of an apparent heart attack early Sunday morning at the Pawating Hospital in Niles, Mich. Evers was currently on leave-of-absence while working on his doctoral degree in modern foreign languages at Michigan State University. He had completed the summer session and was spending a few weeks at home before returning to Lansing for the fall term.

Prof. Paul E. Evers

Mr. Evers was born at Petoskey, Mich., on March 19, 1916. After his graduation from Emmanuel Missionary College in 1938, he was married to Gene Audrey Tippet on August 24, 1939, in Berrien Springs. A son, Stuart, was born to this couple on January 16, 1947.

Professor Evers entered denominational work in 1938 and has held numerous positions of responsibility. He has been principal or teacher at Lansing Junior Academy, Fletcher Academy, Battle Creek Academy, and Platte Valley Academy. From 1943-1948 he was director of the Haitian Seminary at Port-au-Prince, Haiti. Evers returned to his alma mater in 1953 as assistant dean of men. He held this position until his appointment to the language department in 1956 as teacher in Spanish and French.

"The entire Andrews University community," states Dr. Richard Hammill, president, "has suffered a tragic loss in the untimely death of Paul Evers, assistant professor of modern languages. Professor Evers was highly respected by the staff, students, and patrons of this institution. His keen mind, dedicated spirit, and genial personality united to make his life an influence for great good among us. With his loved ones we join in mourning, but at the same time with renewed dedication take up our tasks and his as we seek to carry forward the work he loved."

Funeral services were held at the Pioneer Memorial Church on Tuesday, September 17, and burial was at the Rose Hill Cemetery in Berrien Springs. Eld. Charles Wittschiede, professor of pastoral care, officiated.

Schmidt Joins Staff as Director of Food Services

John Schmidt has recently joined the staff of Andrews University as director of food services. He comes from Southern Missionary College in Tennessee where he held a similar position.

John Schmidt

A native of Pennsylvania, Schmidt attended schools in Maryland and Virginia. Prior to World War II he owned and operated the Royal Bakery in Takoma Park, Md. He served as a cook and mess sergeant at Camp

Crowder, Mo., during World War II. After discharge from service he operated the Columbia Union College bakery. The next twelve years were spent at the Walker Memorial Sanitarium and Hospital at Avon Park, Fla., in charge of the kitchen.

He is married to a former classmate, Mary Catherine Viehmann. They have four children: Gloria Jean, English teacher at Highland Academy, Portland, Tenn.; Carol Ann, a pre-nursing student who will be attending Andrews University this year; Donald Clifford, who will attend Andrews Academy as a freshman; and Evelyn Diane, the youngest member of the family, who will be in the third grade.

Faculty Retreat Held At Camp Madron

On September 9 the faculty of Andrews University spent the day at Camp Madron, a Boy Scout Camp, studying problems connected with the opening of the 1963-1964 school year. In the morning Dr. Daniel Augsburg, Dr. Mercedes Dyer, and Eld. Charles Wittschiede directed a discussion around the theme "Youth's Problems as Seen by Youth Counselors."

Dr. Richard Hammill, president, presided at a general faculty meeting in the afternoon, at which time the working policy of Andrews University was discussed.

Dr. Specht on Loan To Oakwood College

Dr. Edward Specht, head of the Mathematics Department, will be spending the 1963-64 school year on the campus of Oakwood College at Huntsville, Ala. The accreditation of Oakwood College is in jeopardy because of the lack of sufficient teachers holding higher graduate degrees. Dr. Specht will be teaching in the field of his specialty.
