S.D.A. Work Progresses In Chaos-Stricken Africa

Frequently within recent weeks a number of our people have asked me what the situation is in Africa so far as our own work and workers are concerned. I have not been able to give very much of an answer because of a lack of knowledge.

However, a recent letter from the secretary of the General Conference, Elder W. R. Beach, who has for some weeks been visiting in Africa, brings some very fine news of our work there. The letter is too long to publish in detail, but I am giving here some of the facts contained in this letter which I felt would be of great interest to all of our members everywhere.

"The cables out of Africa have carried ugly truths these weeks that have translated into uglier headlines. The Congo events were at their height of fury around Stanleyville when we spent a few days at Elizabethville some 400 miles to the South. A delirium of atrocities swept across a radius of some 500 miles, leaving piles of African bodies rotting in the fetid Congo atmosphere. At the same time, more than 100 Europeans met a savage death.

"Elizabethville witnessed the march of refugees by the hundreds—both European and African. A Dutch priest, Father Theophane, told how six employees of a Belgian agricultural company had been tortured and killed. The men's flesh was stripped off their bones. Some of it, said the priest, was devoured by the rebels and the rest was sold on native markets. A little girl (European), Heather Arton, was spending her holiday in the Congo with British parents. She witnessed the slaying of her parents, and only by miracle was saved.

"A typical miracle for our work is the story of Bigobo. The entire area near our mission station was ravaged and destroyed. Many mission stations operated by other churches were razed to the ground. Homes were burned and pillaged. But Bigobo remained unscathed. The mission director reports how rebel soldiers came to Bi-gobo intent on destruction. But among the conscripted troops were former students at Bigobo. They restrained their comrades saying that God's hand is over Bigobo. So the rebels passed by.

"At the last report, one of our overseas workers (we shall have to hold his name for the present) was behind the rebel lines endeavoring to insure order where chaos had befallen our mission work. The brethren are sure God will keep this good missionary under divine protection.

"Meanwhile, the work makes astonishing progress in the Congo. The South Katanga Field (around Elizabethville) has held this year 43 evangelistic campaigns. More than 300 converts have been baptized while 181 backsliders were reclaimed. One layman came to camp meeting with the report of 35 souls won personally to the church. He had nine of his converts with him. In fact, today African laymen are working in units with extraordinary success, both as regards Ingathering and soul winning.

"Despite untold hardships, the sale of books and periodicals has tripled in the first nine months of 1964. Ingathering this year is now at Fr. 850,000. It is hoped that Ingathering results will top Fr. 2,000,000 in the Congo, which is far beyond last year's results! In 1963, 130 branch Sabbath Schools were operated. In 1964, 1,300 are reported. Seven church buildings (permanent structures) are under way, several with the roofs already on.

"A few days ago, Emma Binder, a missionary nurse at Mwami, Zambia, who served the cause for many years, left me with this word: 'Elder Beach, keep the torch burning. We want to carry it.' I told Miss Binder that we would.

"Well, I thought you brethren would be glad to have this first-hand report from what really is the 'front line.' Africa has fallen upon fitful days. But God's work advances apparently undisturbed. This year, Trans-Africa has had more than 27,000 baptisms. The goal was 22,000. Unquestionably, Trans-Africa's baptized membership will reach 250,000 by the 1966 General Conference quadrennial session. The goal is to have one-half million Sabbath School members by that time."

A. R. Mazat Heads Pacific Press Periodical Department

Arthur R. Mazat, formerly of the Southwestern Union Conference, is the new chief in the Pacific Press Periodical Department. He succeeds Elder Dave Olsen, who accepted a call to the Southern California Conference.

A graduate of Union College, class of '40, Elder Mazat brings to his new responsibilities a background of fifteen years' missionary work in China (where he was captured and held hostage by the communists in 1943-1944), plus nearly three years in the Middle East, two years in the Texico Conference, and seven in the Southwestern Union. In the last two fields he served as Home Missionary, Sabbath School, and Radio-TV Secretary.

Arthur R. Mazat

Elder Mazat and his wife Ruth have a son and a daughter. Bruce, born in Burma, is a junior medical student at Loma Linda University, Los Angeles. The daughter, Beth (Mazat) Haunch, was born in China. She is now taking the nursing course at the White Memorial Hospital.

In his new post at the Pacific Press, Elder Mazat will direct sales and promotion of Signs of the Times, now in its ninety-first year of soul-winning success; Listen, the colorful temperance journal; Primary Treasure; Our Little Friend; Sabbath School Quarterly, and other periodicals.

As the years pass, and the end draws nearer, God's truth in printed form must be more widely distributed than ever before. We are confident that this will be the case with Signs of the Times and our other publications, under Elder Mazat's energetic, dedicated leadership. RICHARD H. UTT

Adventists in Six States Assist Flood Victims

Seventh-day Adventist Disaster-Welfare units in six western states are co-operating with local civil defense and Red Cross agencies to relieve the hardships of Christmas week flood victims. An Adventist welfare unit in Crescent City, Calif., has been feeding between 1,000 and 1,500 persons evacuated from Klamath and Gasquet to the Crescent City fairgrounds. In Sandy, Ore., Adventists distributed clothing, bedding, and furniture to 130 families. The church's welfare center in Albany, Ore., served as Red Cross headquarters where 30 people were temporarily housed. A local congregation in Roseburg, Ore., contributed $1,000 in one offering to help in relief work for flood victims. The Red Cross anticipates a two-million-dollar relief operation as their part in aiding stricken families in Oregon alone. Oregon's Governor Mark Hatfield estimated damage in the state at 350 million dollars. Portions of northern California were even harder hit. Adventist welfare officials pledged long-term aid to rehabilitate the many victims who lost everything in the floods.

A Question and an Answer An Open Letter

In various articles and other promotional materials from the Sabbath School Department, it is often stated that our Sabbath School giving today in comparison with previous years has declined considerably in its relation to our tithe. We frequently receive letters inquiring, "Could it not be that our many building projects and other local needs have made such demands on us that mission funds must of necessity receive less, but that our overall giving has not actually declined? Do you not think this explains the apparent loss?"

This is an important question and perhaps is one that is in the minds of many. It is true, of course, that recent years have seen a great increase in church building programs. And we would not depreciate the need for new churches and schools, but when we compare the estimated income of our members in 1940 with 1964, we find that our average income has not only doubled, it has more than tripled. And although we have built a large number of churches and schools, we must remember that we were also doing considerable building 25 years ago. May it not be that, almost without our realization, a rather large proportion of our income today is going for nicer homes and our own personal wants?

These are the most prosperous days we have ever seen—none of us need go hungry and scarcely anyone has a real need beyond his ability to meet. God has richly blessed the Advent people. We have prospered with the great wave of prosperity we see all around us. Has it influenced our vision? Has it modified our mission-mindedness? Do we need nicer homes, better clothing, newer cars, more of this world's material enjoyment? Have we taken advantage of this prosperity largely for our own selfish gratification? Have these prosperous years stifled the spirit of sacrifice? Increased prosperity is a great blessing, but it also brings added responsibility.

Let us not be too quick to respond to our selfish wants, but may we ever bear in mind that as God's children, God's work must come first. "As faithful stewards we are to use our money for the honor and glory of God. Some think that only a portion of their means is the Lord's. When they have set apart a portion for religious and charitable purposes, they regard the remainder as their own, to be used as they see fit. But in this they mistake. All we possess is the Lord's and we are accountable to Him for the use we make of it."—Christ's Object Lessons, p. 351.

"Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful." 1 Cor. 4:2. Prosperity has indeed brought us abundant blessings, but has it not also brought us greater responsibilities? "Unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required." Luke 12:48. We plan carefully for our tithe; should we not plan just as carefully, increasing just as faithfully, our mission offerings?

Let us not disregard our obligation to give as God hath prospered us.

TV Evangelism— An Unlimited Potential

Someone has tersely but wittily suggested that American civilization is dominated by television and radio. He went on to suggest that children today have no concept of time except that it is five minutes to Captain Kangaroo, or half-past Bonanza. The impact of television has not only revolutionized the thinking of children but adults also. We form our opinions from panel discussions on international affairs. We stock our pantry shelves with products seen on commercials, and insidiously, though unwittingly, much of what appears in terms of films, entertainment, and public service programming subliminally makes its way into the cornered areas of our thinking, and influences more than we wish to admit. These are the times; this is television. It is communication at its most effective.

Never have the leaders of our church felt so keenly the essential role of television in reaching the masses as they do today. The Autumn Council a few weeks ago voted unanimously to appeal to church members in North America to contribute an unprecedented offering of $400,000 to Faith for Today in its 15th anniversary year on Feb. 13, 1965. This is more than twice the amount that has ever been given by our people to a Faith for Today annual offering.

We are in a battle for men's minds. No media have so dominated and persuaded the thinking of the world community as have television and radio. It was a divine dream that set the wheels in motion for the first Faith for Today telecast on a single station in New York City. Today we rejoice at being on 225 stations throughout North America as well as in other parts of the world.

That Faith for Today enjoys wonderful acceptance and coverage is indicated by the increasing response in Bible School enrollments and baptisms. Yet there are many blacked-out areas throughout the United States and Canada where Faith for Today cannot be seen. These areas represent millions of people.

There is urgent need to add 50 vital stations to the Faith for Today coverage in 1965. Ten of these must be in concentrated population areas with millions of potential viewers. If added, the 50 stations would cover many dark areas that are not currently reached by the television ministry. We must not only hold what we have, but we must greatly increase our coverage.

Film production is at an unprecedented high. Television is one of the most expensive industries in the world today. Yet we need to face this reality and provide films 52 weeks out of the year for these extra 50 stations. On some of these stations we need to buy time—another costly factor.

The Faith for Today family of 80 workers believe in this ministry and that this is the hour to go forward. They believe it with all their hearts. It is for this reason that they have set apart Sabbath, February 13, as a special day of fasting and prayer. Cannot all of us throughout North America join them in this and give not only generously but sacrificially? If every church member would cooperate in doing this God would abundantly bless. Dreams would become realities. New openings would result and the work of God would progress to a marvelous climax.

February 13 is the day. North America evangelistic expansion through Faith for Today is the project. This is our golden opportunity. With God's help let us each make the most of it.

New Mathematics for Teachers and Parents

Much has been said in recent years about the new emphasis in mathematics. Moreover, much has been done about it, especially in the colleges and centers of research. Publishers have tried to meet the demands for new textbooks, presenting in understandable and applicable form the processes that seem a bit mysterious to former students.

Teachers have differed in opinion. Some have reasoned that the new methods and contents should begin with the early years of the elementary school, and continue as the child advances into other grades. Others have said that science and industry cannot wait. Neither may the schools wait; world progress demands an immediate adjustment at all levels.

Wherever one stands in the discussion, teachers face the problem of an early adjustment. They must be informed. Skill in the use and explanation

Motel Missionary Book Plan

Have you thought of trying this plan? Maybe you have never heard of it. It is very simple. Order your choice of dollar Missionary books. We have several titles still available at one dollar. Order the free slips to insert in them. Order the free envelopes to insert with the slips. Sign the slips with your name and address. Stamp the envelope and staple both in the front of the book. Place them in your nearest motel.

For the thrill of adventure do this: put up a map and put a pin for each answer. Write to the repliers and offer other dollar books. You may ask $2.00 for the books to help cover loss and expenses. Or you may ask only $1.00 and pay for all losses. We will be glad to explain the plan further to anyone. But we can assure you it is a thrilling way to share your faith. Read the following from one just started on this plan:

"My 39 books were placed in the motel December 9. The first answer was mailed December 12. Three more were mailed December 18, 19, and 22. Two contained addresses so I am composing a follow-up letter. I am keeping careful account to try to stay within my original investment. This is a wonderful plan and ought to be tried by others. We get a thrill out of receiving the letters and then putting our pins in the maps. My sister is the one that got us started. She is supplying five motels now. We chose a fine, clean motel at the edge of town which we must pass each morning. Only one letter contained no money, but it had a tiny unit of money from Hong Kong. So many fail to send their address. My boys and girls help prepare the books and pray for the project."

Do you have the feeling you should be doing something for the Lord? Do you keep wondering just what to do? Anyone can do this that has a motel in their area. Why not write us? Every motel should have our books. I, myself, have had as many as five motels at once on this plan. It is a great way to share our wonderful literature.

IN DAYS OF YORE

Green Bay Church School — Then And Now

The Green Bay Seventh-day Adventist Church was organized on May 26, 1876. But it was not until the early summer of 1915 that there was a feeling strong enough to call for action for the cause of Christian education.

At that time the church was located just off the corner of Walnut and Ashland Aves., just one block from the present location. Elder Ferris was the pastor, Andrew Peterson, Henry Wagner, and Robert Pringle were the three men who worked hard with the pastor to get a new school program in the church. By the time school was to start in September the new school room which had been added on to the corner of the church building, was ready for the 22 students who enrolled. Flora McChesney (now Cole) was the first teacher.

Three of the first students of that school are still in the Green Bay Church and are active members. They are Mrs. Margaret Wagner Clevenger, Mrs. Leah Hannon Simonar, and Mrs. Esther Hurley Ourada. All but three of the students are accounted for now.

In 1938 the school became a two room school with the ninth and tenth grades in the basement. Misses Eliza Parfit and Marie Snow were the teachers.

In 1940 the old church was sold and the school had to be conducted in the John Griesman home on Ridge Rd. and Hillside Ave. with Mrs. Arthur Davis, Sr., as the teacher.

The next year, 1942-43, the new school, which had been built next to the church on Ashland Ave. was used for the first time.

By 1955 the need for a better place was felt and the present school was planned. In 1958 it was opened and dedicated at 1422 Shawano Ave. It was a two room school with a large auditorium and a kitchen and was to be adequate for some time to come. Now the large auditorium has been changed into a classroom in the south half and a dining room in the north half, and the enrollment of 58 is making us realize that our present plant is not adequate.

In 1962 the hot lunch program was started and has been a wonderful success.

Our present dreams are for some more storage space, a room that could be used for science or other activities, and, maybe, even another classroom. These are hopes, but we also have great need for an addition that could be used as an auditorium for our entire church membership and a gymnasium where we could have Pathfinder meetings, physical education classes, Saturday evening play periods for the youth, and adult play periods during the week. This is our present desire.

The present Green Bay Intermediate School opened in 1958.

The staff at the present includes: Miss Bonnie Fike, one to three; Jess Nephew, four to six; and Frank Dimond, seven to ten. Mr. Nephew carries most of the seventh and eighth grade subjects, and Dr. Dimond has the Bible and Living classes. Mrs. Virginia Nephew is our cook. Mrs. June Cayo teaches piano on Monday and Tuesday mornings, and Mrs. Helen Ericksen teaches piano on Tuesday evening after school. On Wednesday evening from 5:30 to 9:30 we have the services of Calvin Siegrist, who teaches at the Bay Port Public School in the daytime, to teach instruments and band to our students and those who care to join.

We are proud of the Green Bay Intermediate School, for we feel it is one of the finest in the Union. We wish to thank all those who have helped to make it what it is and what it is yet to be.

Large Auditorium Secured For April 4 Meeting

We are happy to report that the contract has just been signed for the great climax meeting of our "2,000,000 Pennies For Camp Wahdoon," to be held in the Lincoln Field House, at Wisconsin Rapids. This building will hold, perhaps, 2000 people and we expect this to be a great day indeed, for our conference.

Wisconsin Rapids has been chosen because it is in the center of our state and it does have these wonderful facilities.

T. E. Lucas, our world MV leader, will be at the meeting, as will all of the conference officials and the Wisconsin Academy band. In addition, we definitely plan to have the services of an influential public official. But we cannot disclose exact details on that as yet.

This, as you know, is the day when all the churches bring their proceeds from the 2,000,000 Penny campaign, which begins February 6 and ends April 4. We will put all these pennies together into one great pile. Surely this will be a thrilling and inspiring occasion.

While you have read much about our "2,000,000 Pennies for Camp Wahdoon" you will be hearing even more, when it is introduced in your church on February 6. Already we are hearing reports from around the conference of plans for the saving, raising and soliciting of these funds. There is a tang of success in the air. No one will fail. Remember the goal is 1,500 pennies for each Sabbath School age youngster, from Cradle Roll through early teen. It is each churches' responsibility to see that every youngster in the church reaches his or her goal.

Let's make this campaign a success and let's all meet together at this great gathering of April 4, Wisconsin Rapids, at the Lincoln Field House, 2:00 p.m.

Prescott Fletcher is awarding Mrs. Jean Sather a Jasper Wayne ribbon. She raised $144.

The "How" of Progress

The Elmhurst-Villa Park Church has been growing steadily since it was organized with 32 charter members in October, 1962. With its present membership at 83, it shows a significant gain of 51.

What are the factors which have contributed to this outstanding progress? First—the members are friendly and active in every phase of the church program. Next, we find a top-notch Sabbath School directed by Eugene Elstrom; members participate in their weekly Sunshine Band; and they contribute liberally to missions which totaled $6,072 in 1964, a net gain of over $1,500 from the previous year. They have an active Dorcas Society pioneered by Mrs. Louis Weissmann. During the year, 47 dozen cancer dressings were made and supplies of various nature were made for the ill, the aged and the infants in DuPage County. Before Christmas, 14 neck rest pillows were delivered to the DuPage Public Health Department in Wheaton for the County Community Nursing Service. Dorcas contributions for the year were $392 in addition to the hours of Christian help work in the distribution of literature and care for 11 needy families.

The missionary department is another active agent which contributed to this progress. Their leader, Dr. Joseph Zweig, and Pastor C. L. Turner, through the weekly service and other avenues of encouragement, brought the members to the close of a wonderful Ingathering program. A total of $1,963 was raised, which is $300 above the goal. A newly baptized member of only two months, Mrs. Jean Sather, raised $144; she is pictured looking at the Jasper Wayne Ribbon as she stands by the side of Prescott Fletcher, the new missionary leader for 1965. Others at the top were Dr. Patience Noecker and Mr. C. Wilbur, who both raised over $100.

Presently Elder M. Donovan Oswald is adding spiritual emphasis to the growth in Christ through the Wednesday night service which has attracted 25 of the constituent members.

Each factor mentioned and others, such as church reverence, friendliness and unity of service in helping one another, are the reasons God is blessing this church in the preparation for hastening the coming of Jesus.

tion. His size can be measured by the suit case in the picture.

The entire Micheff family raised over $500. toward the Moline Ingathering goal.

It is never too early to train our youth to work for Christ. Church school and Sabbath School is a good place to start.

Champaign Church Tops Its Goal

By invitation the Seventh-day Adventist church members in Champaign sang carols during the Christmas tree lighting ceremony at the Country Fair Shopping center in November. This may have contributed to their successful Ingathering campaign in raising over $2,163 by December 19, which is $238 over their goal.

The Champaign Church with its present associate leader, Pastor R.

Allen Jamison, is proud of its building overlooking a huge shopping center.

Champaign is the home of the University of Illinois, a "Big 10" school, which was founded in 1868 under the "Land Grant College Act" signed by President Lincoln in 1862. From a beginning of one building, it has become one of the leading educational institutions in the world. It has 152 major buildings and a current enrollment of 25,000 students. The library, fifth among all libraries in the U.S.A., has a collection of over 4 million items. The new circular Assembly Hall which seats 18,000, Chanute Air Force Base, Lake of the Woods Resort, and many other places can be enjoyed in the Champaign area.

The story, however, is not complete until you have become acquainted with a beautiful edifice where students come to learn of Christ. The Champaign Church had its beginning in June, 1905, when evangelistic meetings were held in Urbana by Elders P. G. Stanley and M. G. Huffman, under the direction of the Southern Illinois Conference. By October, 1905, a company of 24 members was organized. In March, 1906, a church was organized in preparation for the erection of a building in 1921 on Main and Harvey Sts. in Urbana. Later, however, plans were discussed and property was chosen in Champaign for a new church.

In November, 1962, work began on the new church building at 308 South Mattis Ave. The first service was held May 18, 1963. This brick structure, complete with parking lot, cost $67,000 and seats approximately 175 people. They cordially invite you to enjoy a Sabbath's worship with them at your earliest convenience.

$75,000 Goal Accomplished

Members of the Peoria Church met for a Fellowship picnic Sunday afternoon, October 18, to celebrate the completion of the $75,000 school and gymnasium building goal. At this time a site committee was chosen to search for a favorable location so that erection will not be delayed.

Four weeks earlier, on September 21, over 160 members met in a Fellowship dinner at the Exposition Garden Auditorium, which served as the main educational event for the three-week canvass. At this luncheon Elder William King, their pastor stated: "Every family needs the experience of joining in partnership with God. When we make room for God in our family budgets we find a blessing that can be received no other way. As we attempt great things for God, we can expect great things from God. We can not out-give God—He always returns full measure, pressed down and running over."

Those selected to contribute leadership to the program were Dr. David Bailey, general chairman, and Dudley Tomblinson as Initial Gifts Chairman.

Evangelism Helps

The Detamore evangelistic series closed at the North Shore Church with 17 young people and 24 adults baptized. The average nightly attendance was about 250. The lowest attendance one night was 160. On week ends from 450 to 550 people enjoyed the Bible lectures, music, pictures and artistry by the team.

Pastor Clarence Gruesbeck states that several interests came as the result of newspaper advertising, but the greater number of interests came by personal invitation.

The three meetings conducted in Decatur, Hinsdale and North Shore enriched the churches with 170 new members. E. L. ALLEN, Director

INDIANA

Indiana Must Support Faith for Today

The first religious program to go on a coast to coast television network was Faith for Today. The oldest religious network program on television today is Faith for Today. Are you proud of it? I am. It is our own Seventh-day Adventist program.

Why do we have six stations carrying Faith for Today right now, five of which are carrying it free? God's hand has been in this. These six stations include such powerful stations as WFBM, Indianapolis, Fort Wayne and South Bend. We have good time on all of these, as well as on the others at Munice, Marion and Terre Haute. Let us drop these stations a card from time to time just to tell them we appreciate their station and this program. Indiana can be thankful for good coverage, but we need to pray for those areas of our state that could be served from Louisville and Chicago. These are dark spots. God could intervene in these vital centers. We must pray for this.

Where we gave a dollar in the Faith for Today offering last year, we must give two dollars this year. Where we gave fifty cents last year, could we not give a dollar this year? Some who gave five dollars will give ten this year.

FOR TIME'S LAST HOUR—A MIGHTY CHRISTIAN WITNESS ON TELEVISION

Faith for Today

PASTOR
AND MRS.
W. A. FAGAL

TEN MILLION VIEWERS weekly watch Faith for Today. As it highlights salvation's glorious plan, hope is brought to hearts seeking assurance and help. Presently 225 stations carry the program. With 92 percent of the people in the United States having access to television, Christian witness through this means of communication becomes increasingly significant in these vital days—time's last hour.

IN ITS 15th ANNIVERSARY YEAR, FAITH FOR TODAY REACHES MILLIONS WITH News of Salvation

Fifty new television areas in 1965! Faith for Today is to be commended for undertaking such a challenging goal. No easy task, this, especially when one considers the secular trend of the nation and the competitive and financial hurdles facing such a move.

However, Faith for Today started in faith and will continue to move forward and around insurmountable barriers in faith. From one station in 1950, this program has spread to 225 stations in 1964. Fifty new stations would add approximately 50 million new viewers. Surely God does not intend us to abandon this field to the moral-corroding forces of materialism and secularism. Besides holding the ground gained we should strike out for new conquests for Christ. We must not fail in covering all of North America, and we are counting on our many friends to help us reach this challenging goal.

Theodore Carcich
Vice President, North America

Pastor R. E. Knox and I called on a Catholic lady who had attended our Hinsdale, Illinois, evangelistic series. "How did you learn about the Seventh-day Adventist faith?" I asked. Immediately she replied, "Through the Faith for Today Bible course. The whole truth is absolutely clear to me, and I am convinced that this is the right church."

Hardly a day goes by in our evangelistic visiting but we find ourselves calling on evangelistic interests who have already learned the truth through Faith for Today. It would cheer the hearts of those on your staff if they could be with us for just one day of visiting and hear the living stories of the wonderful impact made by your telecast and Bible school.

It is a pleasure to extend congratulations to "Faith for Today" on the occasion of its 15th anniversary.

"Faith for Today," in depicting wholesome aspects of family life and in emphasizing those basic values of love, discipline, faith and work which give true meaning to life, performs a commendable public service.

URGENTLY NEEDED: 50 NEW STATION OUTLETS IN NORTH AMERICA

To reach millions of potential viewers in North America, Faith for Today coverage on 50 additional television stations is urgently needed. At least ten of the fifty stations should be major outlets, located in each of the ten unions that comprise the North American Division.

Your liberality when the offering is taken February 13, 1965, will make it possible to obtain these vital outlets.

Evangelism through television offers unprecedented opportunities. Weekly through the medium of television Pastor Fagal enters hundreds of thousands of homes to share gospel tidings with millions.

In some areas doors have already closed, and it is no longer possible to present gospel truth via television. In view of this let us unite in giving the greatest offering ever to television evangelism. God will bless our gift many times over.

A HISTORIC MILESTONE at Faith for Today was reached when Mrs. Jule Fly, the 100,000th graduate of the TV program's Bible course, received her diploma from Elder Ralph Numbers, pastor of the St. Petersburg Seventh-day Adventist Church. Faith for Today also awarded her with a beautiful Bible to commemorate the event.

Mrs. Fly is convinced doctrines taught in the Faith for Today Bible Course are a sound guide for Christians today. Her husband and son (pictured at left) are also sharing her interest. Comments Pastor Numbers: "Faith for Today furnishes many of my best Bible study interests."

ELDER NORMAN FROST had only the most limited ideas regarding Seventh-day Adventists when he first watched Faith for Today. Its simple heart appeal reached home and he became convinced that the most important thing in the world was to follow Christ. The Bible course led him to baptism and enrollment at Atlantic Union College, where he prepared for active witness.

Today he is an ordained minister in New Brunswick, Canada, rejoicing in the opportunity to help others come to a saving knowledge of the kingdom of God. Only heaven can reveal a full harvest of seed sown by Faith for Today.

IN THE FAITH FOR TODAY entryway are five who became Seventh-day Adventists through the telecast and Bible course. Today they share the gospel as Faith for Today workers. Left to right: Margaret Anzelone, Florence Biggs, Adelaide Bentley, Concetta Arra, and Robert Biggs.

Rejoicing in the hope of the second coming of Christ, they express their gratefulness to the Faith for Today ministry for leading them to make a decision to accept the Advent Message. They are equally happy at the opportunity of now having an active part in sharing their faith with others. So the program's impact continues.

IN ADDITION TO NORTH AMERICA

Faith for Today is seen in Australia, Bermuda, Brazil, Guam, Korea, Nigeria, the Philippines, Puerto Rico, and Trinidad.

How much the Lord has blessed in opening up these countries to the gospel through television! But there are other large areas of earth as yet unreached by the Seventh-day Adventist message through this medium. Faith for Today has taken an active interest in promoting the television ministry in overseas areas. Your liberality will make it possible to continue this strong support.

SABBATH, FEBRUARY 13, IS FAITH FOR TODAY OFFERING DAY

FIFTEEN OF THE TOP FIFTY television stations in the United States will no longer give or sell religious TV time. This means that there are 17,000,000 families or more than 59,000,000 people in the United States who cannot be reached with the Seventh-day Adventist message through the television ministry.

This has brought a real crisis in the Faith for Today ministry and it highlights the great need for evangelizing in those parts of the country where religious TV time can be obtained. Deeply concerned about expanding Faith for Today's ministry, the eighty telecast and Bible school workers have pledged an average of more than one week's salary for each employee.

URGENTLY NEEDED: A $400,000 offering to extend Faith for Today's ministry.

WITH AWARENESS OF THE IMMINENCE OF CHRIST'S COMING, the General Conference at Fall Council voted unanimously to urgently appeal to church members to give an unprecedented offering of $400,000 to Faith for Today. This is double the amount that has ever been contributed by church members to an annual Faith for Today offering. Great new doors of opportunity reaching heavily populated "dark" areas of the country can be opened through your sacrificial giving.

BECAUSE OF THE CRISIS and the urgent need for more station outlets, the Fall Council also designated a special day of prayer for Sabbath, February 13—the day of the TV offering. Because Faith for Today workers believe in the television ministry, they have decided to observe February 13 as a day of both fasting and prayer. Will you join them in this, in addition to giving sacrificially as they are doing?

YOUR HELP IN CONTRIBUTING SACRIFICIALLY TO A $400,000 FAITH FOR TODAY OFFERING WILL MAKE IT POSSIBLE TO:

Add 50 vital stations to Faith for Today coverage, including 10 in concentrated population areas with millions of potential viewers. The 50 stations will cover many "dark" areas.

Launch a coast-to-coast visitation project. One union has already distributed more than 1,000,000 Bible course enrollment leaflets in a giant literature program.

Update Faith for Today's soul-winning Bible course to make it even more effective in leading souls to Christ.

Cooperate in major evangelistic advances, assisting pastors and evangelists in conducting Faith for Today evangelism.

WHAT YOUR GIFT TO THE SPECIAL FAITH FOR TODAY OFFERING, SABBATH, FEBRUARY 13, WILL DO:

$1,000 will pay for 100,000 Bible lessons.

$500 will add 12,000 viewers to the FAITH FOR TODAY audience.

$100 will send the FAITH FOR TODAY Bible course to 4,000 people.

$10 will provide 3,000 Bible course enrollment cards.

$5 will send the FAITH FOR TODAY Bible course to 150 students.

In order to do what we feel must be done, the church leaders are asking for $400,000 this year in North America. This is double what we have done before. They want to add 50 new television stations in 1965. This is not an impossibility.

February 13 is the day for the offering and also a day set aside by General Conference action for special prayer. God's hand must intervene if some of these great centers are to open up for our program.

Our television program has already spread to ten other countries. Ten thousand have been baptized who were influenced by the telecast and the Bible course.

Our program is now seen on 225 stations. How about the future? Shall we go backward or forward? You can help to give the answer on February 13.

Indiana News Notes Frankfort District

1964 has been a most successful year for the Brownsburg and Frankfort churches of the Indiana Conference.

During the past year, each of the churches has enjoyed a steady growth in membership which amounted to more than a 25 per cent increase for the district.

The church school program has been strengthened and substantially increased during 1964. The enrollment climbed more than 65 per cent during the school year and the prospects for the coming year are for an even greater enrollment.

The Frankfort Church during the past year successfully launched a fund raising campaign for a new church building program. In the spring the church members purchased and paid for a choice location consisting of seven and a half acres on which they plan to build a combination school-auditorium and a new sanctuary.

The members of the Brownsburg Church have been steadily working toward the completion of the church renovation program which they began three years ago. This year a great amount of the work was completed, and soon the church will be dedicated.

Even though 1964 has been a good year for the Brownsburg and Frankfort churches, yet through the power of the Holy Spirit we confidently expect to lengthen the cords and strengthen the stakes in the year of 1965.

Pumfords Join Evangelistic Team

Elder and Mrs. L. J. Pumford and family have accepted an invitation to join the Indiana evangelistic team. Elder Pumford will serve as the campaign manager. Their first appointment with the team will be in Mount Vernon, a city in the Evansville district.

Elder Pumford was graduated in 1950 from Emmanuel Missionary College. They have spent all of their years of service in the Indiana Conference. After graduation, they moved to Knox where Elder Pumford taught church school for two years. He was then invited to join the ministerial force and began his work in the Bloomington district. Since then, they have served

May God continue to add His blessing to the dedicated service of the Pumphord family as they take up their new duties.

Detroit Ecorse Church

The "Church Renovation Rally" put on by the pastor and members of the Detroit Ecorse Church was brought to a climax on December 26, the last Sabbath of 1964, as the church members held the services in a new atmosphere of beauty. Their labors had brought about the repainting of the church, new stained glass windows, new pulpit furniture, and new blond church pews. This is the first stage of beautification that has been projected for the church.

The Home Missionary Department of the church is much alive these days. The members have initiated a program of serving health dishes and sharing the recipes with members and friends of the church one Wednesday night each month after prayer meeting. A "Victory Ingathering Party" was sponsored by the Home Missionary Officers as they successfully completed their goal in only a couple of weeks of labors. A word of thanks and appreciation is in order for our Home Missionary leader, Mrs. L.

Childress, and the secretary, Mrs. Shepard.

The children's Sabbath School divisions presented the Senior division with a colorful program. The boys and girls were dressed in red and white choir robes. Mrs. D. Goodman, Sabbath School superintendent, further utilized the occasion to commend Mrs. Ethel Hill, one of our most faithful Division teachers, who has taught the children for the past 18 years. Mrs. G. Jones made the presentation of a beautiful church hymnal to Mrs. Hill.

Attention: Church Temperance Secretaries

Two major church temperance secretaries' councils are scheduled for the Chicago and Detroit areas. The first council will be held at the City Temple Church, 8816 Grand River Ave., Detroit, on Sunday, February 7, from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The second council will take place at the Shiloh Parish Hall, 7008 S. Michigan, Chicago, from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. All church temperance secretaries of these areas are asked to make plans to be present. Temperance secretaries of the Indianapolis area will be notified regarding a council for them.

There are some new approaches to the temperance movement which you will be happy to hear about. Not only church temperance secretaries and their friends are invited to these important meetings, but anyone who is interested in the work of temperance in our churches is cordially invited. Especially invited are doctors, nurses and teachers.

Elder J. P. Winston, Lake Union Temperance Secretary, will be present for these two councils.

1965 MV Department Projected Calendar of Events

This new year of 1965 provides additional opportunities for our youth leaders to train and prepare the youth of our conference for participation in the many features of Missionary Volunteering. Our world MV department objective and challenge is "MV Target 30,000"; this means we are proposing that our youth be instrumental in leading 30,000 souls to Christ. The goal for each local church is set at three souls, and there is a formulated program available to assist our youth in this endeavor.

We have selected for our Lake Region Conference motto for this year the slogan: "MV's Still Ablaze for God, and More Alive in '65." To this end we are asking that the local leadership in all auxiliaries incorporate the youth of their respective churches in their plans, and give them a part in their responsibilities that they might secure the training that will prepare them for church leadership.

For the benefit of all in coordinating plans for local church activities for the year, we are submitting the following projected Conference MV Calendar of events for 1965:

- Jan. 29 to 31—Conference MV-JMV-Federation Officers' Council

- March 20 to 27—MV Week of Prayer

Workers Attend Ingathering Banquet

The ornate Imperial Inn, which contains one of Chicago's finest banquet rooms, was the scene of the annual Ingathering Victory Banquet for the Lake Region Conference workers.

On January 3, the workers of the Conference gathered in this lovely red and gold setting to celebrate the attainment of a record Conference Ingathering goal of $70,000. One by one, the workers reported the completion of their church goals ranging from $100 to $16,450. It soon became apparent that the amounts being reported would exceed any achievement made previously in the Ingathering campaign.

Elder C. E. Moseley, field secretary of the General Conference, was the guest speaker. He shared with the workers the highlights of his recent trip to Poland. Elder Vernon Flory, Home Missionary Secretary of the Lake Union Conference, expressed his appreciation to the workers for their outstanding success.

Everyone enjoyed the tastefully prepared dinner. Also adding to the enjoyment of the occasion were solos by Mrs. Aylene Dumas Lee, internationally known soprano, Elder R. W. Bates and Elder T. M. Kelly. We are grateful to our conference president, Elder C. E. Bradford for initiating this event.

Metropolitan S.D.A. Dorcas Christmas Project

Food baskets numbering 28 made 37 people happy and a few little hearts flutter with delight because of the dolls that were dressed and included in the Christmas baskets from the Metropolitan S.D.A. Dorcas Society.

Twenty-five dollars purchased so much at the market, such as 100 lbs. of potatoes, 50 lbs. of onions, 6 bags of carrots, 36 stalks of celery, plus cases of apples, oranges and pears. Mrs. Armstrong and a friend had solicited fruit from the merchants in their neighborhood. There was plenty on hand to make generous Christmas baskets.

The Dorcas Christmas Project this year was to help one of the wards at Wayne County General Hospital. They were given a Steps to Christ book (donor, James Owen) along with a pair of knitted slippers, hard candy and fruit. Thus 100 older folk were remembered at the hospital.

The Metropolitan S.D.A. Dorcas Society, under the leadership of Ivy Caulfield and workers—Genevieve Caesario, Doris Piggins, Tressie Newman and many others have witnessed the love of Jesus to many folk this year in numerous ways.

Religious Liberty Offering Postponed to Feb. 20 In Michigan

Elder R. R. Hegsted, editor of Liberty magazine, will speak at the Michigan Conference Workers' Meeting, on February 10, at the devotional hour of 8:30 a.m., and again at the evening hour, 7:30 p.m. The meetings will be held at the conference office in Lansing.

Elder R. R. Hegsted

Proven pointers for presenting Liberty magazine and the commitment plan will be given at that time. To enable Elder Hegsted to brief the workers on pertinent and up-to-date facts concerning religious freedom before the offering is taken, the date has been postponed from January 16, to February 20 (Michigan only).

Elder R. G. Campbell, manager of the Review and Herald Periodical Department, tells us that Michigan leads the world field in Liberty subscriptions—25,000. Certainly we will continue to hold high this banner for religious freedom during 1965.

Since Michigan's never-used Saturday-Sunday closing law of 1962 was declared invalid and unconstitutional by all eight Supreme Court justices on Nov. 2, 1964, ministerial associations all over the state are clamoring for a strict uncompromising Sunday law. The association in Jackson County, is seeking to encourage merchants who will close Sundays to place in their store windows signs saying, "We believe. We're closed on Sunday."

Book Ministry

Mrs. Ralph Lapham of Rt. 4, Coldwater, Mich., was reading to little Debra Covell from one of her set of books, "The Bible Story" by Arthur S. Maxwell, when photographed by Mrs. Charles Fraser, associate press secretary of the Coldwater-Quincy Church. Mrs. Fraser and Debra visited Mrs. Lapham to see how she was enjoying the books which she received as a gift through a registration drawing at the Coldwater 4-H Club Fair in August.

Mrs. Lapham, who has 28 grandchildren to visit her occasionally, is taking great pleasure in the books, and also in additional literature furnished her. Mrs. Fraser and Debra, daughter of Pastor Covell, visited Mrs. Lapham during National Children's Book Week.

Association Press Secretary

Most editors have contrary thinking in this matter. Let me quote from the pen of one: "The Michigan Supreme Court has thrown out the 'Sunday Closing Law' which was a mish-mash of confusing regulations and a flagrant attempt by the 'state' to control the lives of its citizens. Restoration of the right to buy at our convenience, or to choose not to buy, maintains the dignity of freedom of choice which Americans cherish. It was a discussion we all can greet with enthusiasm."

Modern-day religious liberty is but the fulfilment of the last-hour prophecies of Daniel and Revelation. In the soon-coming conflict we shall see exemplified the prophet's words, "The dragon was wroth with the woman and went to make war with the remnant of her seed which keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ."

May God continue to bless our united efforts for the cause of religious freedom until He comes to claim His own.

Remember the offering date, February 20.

Dept. of Religious Liberty

MICHIGAN ACADEMY DEVELOPMENT

The wise man has said in Proverbs 22:6, "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

Leslie W. Cox

This is a promise from God. It does not say that if the right training is given a child, he will never depart from the way of the Lord. It does say when he is old he will not depart from it. When he thinks things through in the right perspective he will see that God's way is the best way and follow it.

This admonition of Solomon is not only to parents, but to all of God's people. We are all responsible for the training of the children and youth. What a blessed privilege is ours! We are to train the children and youth in the way that God has directed.

We as parents, along with those who help the young people with their schooling, sometimes think of the sacrifices we have made and wonder if it is worth it all. I have in my study a graduation picture of my daughter on the back of which are these words, "I want to thank you for all you have done for me in my life and also for giving me a Christian education. I have enjoyed all of it. May God bless you." This means much to me. Young folks do not forget quickly the things that are done for them. They may not express themselves the way we think they should at the time, but they do remember.

When it comes to educating our youth for the cause of Christ is there any limit to what we should do? What else besides our children can we take to heaven with us? The Psalmist says, "Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord," (Ps. 127:3) and we should guard, keep and educate them for the sake of the Lord.

As we in Michigan undertake the development of our academies what an opportunity is ours. Not only are we helping our own but we are helping others to be trained in 'the way they should go.' If you and I could see the end from the beginning I wonder how many of us would do even more than we are at the present time. Are you doing enough?

The academies of Michigan belong to the conference, and the conference consists of all members who are on our church books throughout the state. These academies belong to us. We as the constituency of the conference have a job to do and with the help of God we can do it. Let us not think of our task in terms of dollars and cents, but rather as winning souls for God's eternal kingdom.

When Jesus comes to us and asks the question, "Where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?" (Isa. 13:20) you will be able to look around you at the youth trained in our schools and academies and say, "Lord here they are; we have provided the means for them to be trained up in the way they should go and they have not departed from it."

What a blessed day of rejoicing that will be. May each of us here in Michigan do our part now that we may one day enjoy eternal life with the young people we have helped on the way to the kingdom.

Ithica Church Marks 100 Years

On Sabbath, January 2, the Ithica Church marked its one hundredth anniversary. It was in 1865 that 36 believers established their membership and elected officers under the direction of Elder I. D. VanHorn.

First to preach the message in that area were "boy preachers" S. M. Butler and I. H. Evans, both born in Gratiot County.

The original church building burned in 1867, and it was not until 1884 that the present structure was erected with lumber hauled on sleighs through deep snow by David Stevenson from his farm near Ola. He also gave the lumber for the handmade pews which are still in use.

Our pioneers were a hardy lot. When David Stevenson found it too muddy to bring his family to Ithica by horse and carriage, he himself walked the eleven miles to Sabbath services, not willing to miss one day of church.

Elder and Mrs. James White visited the church in Ithica in the summer of 1867. A young lady from Gratiot County, Julia Burgess, was a hired girl in their home in Battle Creek. She married their hired man, J. O. Corliss, and they became pioneers in establishing the work in Australia.

Ira Woodman, a former Ithica member, served the denomination as a conference president, and was manager of the Pacific Press Publishing Association at the time of his retirement. Another member who served as a conference president was Burt White. His son, Wayne, is at the present

The church at Ithica recently marked its one hundredth anniversary.

Some years ago, 33 members of the Ithica Church transferred their membership at the time of the organization of the Ola congregation. The nearly 100 members of the Ithica Church today look forward with faith and courage, anticipating the time when our Lord's promise to return will be fulfilled.

The Pilgrims' Three Homes

"Dear to the Heart of the Christian" was the theme of the Thanksgiving program presented by Northview Junior Academy Tuesday evening, Nov. 24, 1964, in the Cadillac Church.

Songs, recitations, talks and verse-speaking choir selections showed how dear are Christian homes, church schools, Sabbath Schools, churches, and our American liberty to the heart of the Christian.

The Academy Junior Choir, dressed in white capes with red bows sang the theme song, "Dear to the Heart of the Christian" and three other songs. Solos were sung by Douglas Bailey, grade one, and by Valerie Bailey, grade two.

The highlight of the program was a play, "The Pilgrims' Three Homes," in which every student had a part. The play depicted the hardships of the Pilgrims in England, Holland, and America. The final scene dramatized the first Thanksgiving and closed with the Indians' gift of popcorn to the Pilgrims. Elder Brewster was played by Rande Dager, Governor Bradford by Keith Greeley, Captain Miles Standish by Jon Dunn, Massasoit by Jerry Peck, and Squanto by Tim Sorenson.

1965 Michigan A.T.S. Academy Oratorical Contest To Be Held, Feb. 13

The 1965 Temperance Oratorical Contest for Michigan Academies will be held Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock, February 13, at Battle Creek Academy.

The accompanying picture is of the 1964 contest winner, Daryll Ward, of Adelphian Academy, and son of Elder and Mrs. James Ward, of Detroit. Daryll's dynamic oration, "Your Business," took top honors in a field of eight contestants bringing him the $25 cash prize. The following Michigan academies participated: Grand Ledge, Andrews, Battle Creek, and Adelphian. These schools had previously conducted their own oratorical "run-offs."

Everyone is cordially invited to hear these inspirational orations. A.T.S. jingles and posters will be judged that evening also and prizes awarded. An impartial, distinguished, non-S.D.A. panel will judge the contestants.

"There is no class of persons capable of accomplishing more in the warfare against intemperance than our God-fearing youth."—Ellen G. White. The church needs to harness this power for good during these final days of earth's history.

Michigan Temperance Dept.

tion of the new mathematics is expected. There is little choice. It may require forgetting the old, but mastery of the new is the order of the day.

Into its course in methods for teaching arithmetic, the Home Study Institute introduced several years ago an important section. An entirely new and complete course, presenting throughout the lessons the new processes as well as content, is now being distributed.

These lessons were recently prepared by a skillful teacher and writer, Dr. Agnes R. Eroh, associate professor of education at Atlantic Union College.

WILL HAVE GARDEN CENTER STORE

Grounds Department Has New Quarters

The Andrews University grounds department recently moved into its new building, according to Benjamin Nutt, grounds superintendent.

The new brick and block structure, located at the back of the campus next to the old tennis courts, measures 60 by 100 feet. It has space for housing of grounds equipment, a shop area for maintenance of equipment, a garden center store at the front of the building, and two offices, one for Mr. Nutt and one for Raymond Hill, assistant professor of agriculture.

The $35,000 building was constructed by the university plant services department, with Adrian Roosenberg of Berrien Springs as construction superintendent.

The garden center store will sell landscaping and gardening supplies, seed and nursery stock, bedding plants and flowers, according to Nutt. At the peak season, there are hundreds of thousands of plants and seedlings in the university greenhouse.

When Mr. Nutt came to Andrews in 1956 the grounds department had about a dozen workers. Now there are about 60 students employed by the department to keep the expanding campus neat and trimmed. The total amount earned by students during the first three months of this school year was more than $9,000, said Nutt.

In addition to landscaping on the campus, the grounds department does work in newly developed areas around the university-owned faculty housing. During the winter the department is in charge of snow removal from campus sidewalks and building entrances.
