MESSAGE GOES OUT AS . . .

Word of Life Comes to Battle Creek

"The only reason I came tonight was because a little boy invited me."

This statement was made by a non-Adventist lady who attended the opening night of the Word of Life meetings at the Battle Creek Tabernacle, April 17. It was the thirtieth evangelistic crusade in Michigan, headed by Elden Walter, since his team arrived in Michigan in 1960.

About 1,000 people were on hand Saturday night for the first of the 23 nightly meetings.

A different half hour movie is shown each night, depicting some area of the world visited by Elder Walter on a recent round-the-world trip. This summer the team plans to make a flying trip to South America to make additional hundreds of feet of movies

With his enthusiastic directing of the music, Elder Richard Lange does not have to do much coaxing to get the audience to join in the song service with 100 per cent participation.

Each night of the week, Elder Elden Walter opens the Word of Life. Church members find it highly rewarding to attend a series of evangelistic meetings in order to review the various Bible doctrines.

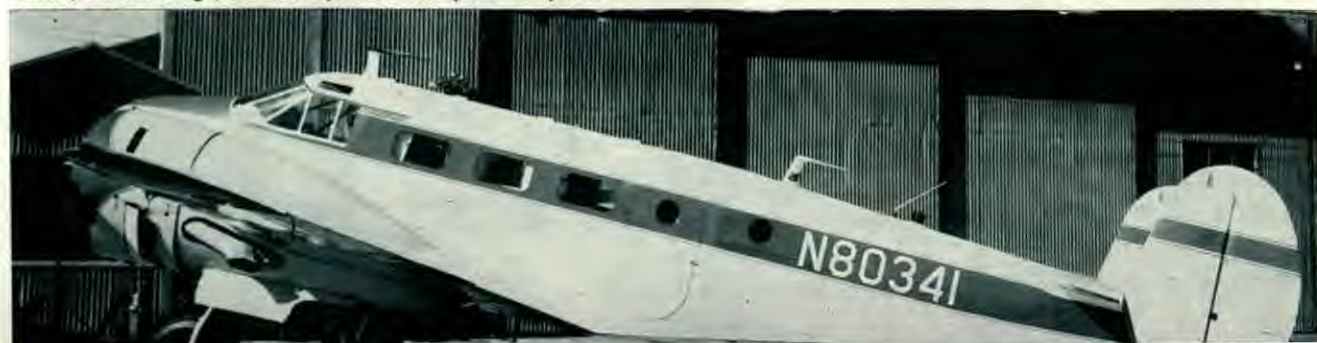

Music on the organ and piano set the mood not only for the singing but also for the spoken word. In the foreground is Mrs. Helen Lange at the organ. Mrs. Arlys Walter is at the piano.

for showing in the future. (See story of trip on p. 5.)

The message in music follows the film. Richard Lange, who will soon have four songs published by Sing-spiration, a religious music company, and who has written 15 to 20 songs, which he has sung in evangelistic meetings, has no difficulty inspiring

(See WORD OF LIFE on p. 5)

This twin Beechcraft will take the Word of Life team on a month-long trip to South America. Each of the members of the group—Elden Walter, Richard Lange, and Cline Johnson—are proficient pilots.

Tithe and Offerings Report

From time to time it is a good thing for our people throughout the field to see how the financial situation is being carried on. Above is a copy of our tithe and mission offering statement for the first thirteen weeks, ended March 31, 1965.

J. D. Smith

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I note the fine gains that have been made in the tithe and offerings. It seems almost phenomenal that our faithful membership is able to contribute such large offerings, along with the tithe that they return to the Lord.

Even with this splendid record, we are aware of the fact that there are some people still not paying tithe, and those who are failing to do this are losing a very great blessing, because the Lord has promised, if we will try Him, He will pour out a blessing such as we are not able to receive.

JERE D. SMITH, President

Sundin Appointed Dental Secretary

At a recent meeting of our Union Conference Committee we invited Robert H. Sundin, D.D.S. to act as dental secretary for the Lake Union Conference.

Doctor Sundin is located at Decatur, Mich., about thirty miles from the office and is a very busy practicing dentist, but will devote such time as he is able to the interests of our dental work, and the locating of graduates of our dental college in the Lake Union territory.

We appreciate his willingness to act in this capacity, and any who are interested in locating dentists in this field may feel free to write to Doctor

Sundin at the Lake Union office and mail will be forwarded to him.

JERE D. SMITH, President

A Field for Evangelism

It is not the eye that sees the beauty of the heaven nor the ear that hears the sweetness of music, but the soul. The more noble and excellent the soul is, the greater and more savory are its perceptions.

A few perceptions from a recent General Conference report are for the eye, the ear and, indeed, the soul. In grades one through ten, 48,878 youngsters are enrolled this year in our schools in the North American Division. But 32,629 of them are unbaptized. Most of these are eligible and receptive if some effort were applied to them. Our portion of these in the Lake Union is listed as 5,656. Of these 3,750 are not baptized. Also, in the Division the one-room schools dropped from 11 per cent in 1963 to eight per cent in 1964. In spite of this we have a gain in number of teachers and total number of pupils.

We have had a gain in total number of teachers in the Lake Union in all of our conferences but one. It remains the same. Losses prevail in all conferences in number of schools in our union except Indiana. There is a gain of one there. All of our conferences show a gain in enrollment in the first eight grades, and all but one show a gain in grades nine and ten.

Sometimes we feel sorry for ourselves because of cost. Some comparisons might not be very comforting, but it helps us to know where we stand. There are 66 conferences in the list, and this is the range for men teachers in the average weekly wage. Ours range in the list 30, 32, 41, 47, 54 and 58. This includes the Lake Union range as well as the local fields. For women teachers it is as follows: 8, 9, 14, 26, 38, 60.

Coming back again to our one-room schools, I thought it might be good for us to know that the Lake Union and the Southern Union are tied in number of one-teacher schools with 64. We are almost double other unions in this feature. The Pacific Union has only 35 such schools. Our conferences are listed as follows: 3, Lake Region; 9, Illinois; 15, Indiana; 15, Wisconsin; 22, Michigan.

Whether we operate a one-teacher school or a larger one let us remember there is but one purpose for our system—we want to see the lambs of the flock saved.

Our Opportunity To Reach Millions

The Ukrainian Signs magazine is continuing to reach out into many remote places in several countries. It is exerting a powerful influence upon the hearts of a people who have lost their homeland, are experiencing unbelievable hardships, sorrow, and privations, and whose hearts are searching for truth, light, and hope.

There are many evidences that God is blessing the Ukrainian magazine as it proclaims the last warning message and points the way to our Saviour, the Hope of the World. You too will rejoice as we share with you the following few short excerpts of letters:

"Dear Friends: I am delighted to receive your literature, for it draws me nearer to the Bible. I read many other Ukrainian publications, but I prefer your magazine, because it explains the Bible to me the most clearly and simply."

"Dear Editor of Signs of Our Time: Best wishes to you for 1965! I have been reading your (Ukrainian) Signs of Our Time since 1957, and find that this magazine gives me much spiritual encouragement. It explains the Scriptures and points out important present-day events."

The following letter comes from South America, where thousands of Ukrainian people would gladly accept literature in their own language, for they have very little available:

"I sincerely thank you for your magazine. I have been receiving a club of 10 each month, but have not received any since June. Each month I have been distributing these copies to friends and neighbors, and they have gladly accepted them. Please continue to send them to me if possible, as I am unable to pay for them myself. Your magazine is greatly appreciated here. May the Lord continue to bless you."

Yes, these are heartwarming letters, but our greatest concern is that the field is so large and we are touching just a very small part of it. What a challenge it is as we think of the thousands of Ukrainian people in Canada, the U.S.A., South America, Australia, and other countries, and the more than 45 millions in Europe! Surely we must do much more than we are before the work is finished! Will you not help us send thousands of copies of the Ukrainian Signs to these people who are hungering for the Word of life?

Ukrainian Signs of Our Time

The Happiest People on Earth

by MARENUS H. JENSEN

In his book, The 7th Day, Booton Herndon has considerable to say about Seventh-day Adventists' being so liberal in their giving to their church. Indeed, he lists this as one of the five reasons why Seventh-day Adventists are the happiest people in the world, and points out that they give four times as much money to their church as the average church member.

We do not give because we feel that we have to; we love to give. We look upon giving not as a great sacrifice, but a safe investment, recommended to us by Christ. He advised us to lay our treasures up in heaven. We would rather spend our money to relieve human suffering than spend it to bring suffering upon ourselves through indulgence in injurious habits.

perhaps starving in a concentration camp. Or suppose a son was shot and stripped of all clothing and left to die on the frozen ground. What would my heart of love desire most? A sermon? No. A Bible study? No. A tract? No. A card of sympathy? No. A bouquet of lilies? No. Nothing would bring me more joy and comfort than to know that loving hands were placing a pillow under his aching head, a blanket over his chilled body.

God is a Father. His heart of love is touched as He sees His church here on earth ministering to the suffering. God shows His appreciation by reserving His greatest blessing for those who do this type of work—the welfare workers. Note the invitation extended through His Son, "Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me." (Matt. 25:34, 35.)

On May 8 you will have the joy of giving to this world-wide program of love sponsored by you and your church. Make this one of the most liberal offerings you have ever given.

President Johnson Signs School-aid Bill

In the little red schoolhouse where he went to school as a child, President Johnson signed into law the nation's first general school-aid bill for poverty-stricken children. The bill provides funds to improve school facilities for the country's 5 million school-age children whose families earn less than $2,000 a year. From a religious standpoint the bill was significant because it is the first bill to clear both the House and the Senate without a stall over church-state questions. Amendments were proposed to ease the church-state conflict but none passed either house of Congress. Under terms of the bill, both church school and public school youngsters qualify for aid.

Entered as second-class matter in the Post Office, Berrien Springs, Mich. Printed weekly, 50 times a year (omitting the weeks of July 4 and December 25), by the University Press, Berrien Springs, Mich. Yearly subscription price, $2.00.

A large portion of Mr. Herndon's book is devoted to the welfare work carried on by Seventh-day Adventists. He seems to feel that we find some of our greatest joy and happiness in being able to relieve the needs and sufferings of God's children here on earth. In this he is right. And as I read my Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy, I am convinced that no other type of service so touches God's great heart of love.

I can understand this. Suppose my children were in the hands of rebels,

God Leads His Churches

The future is always brighter when we remember how God has led us in the past. Certainly those of the Battle Creek-Kalamazoo-Jackson District can see how God leads His children along. The members of the Kalamazoo Church have purchased a brick building with a seating capacity of approximately 300. The building contains several rooms on the lower floor which are especially suited for Sabbath School rooms. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit being the foundation of their faith has inspired them to name their church "Trinity Temple" as a monument to God. Trinity Temple S.D.A. Church of Kalamazoo, Mich., 117 W. North St., extends a cordial and warm welcome to all.

The members of Jackson, Mich. just completed the first phase of a building program. They have now purchased three lots large enough to accommodate their future church which will seat 200. Mr. and Mrs. Hibler were instrumental in leading the way for the purchase of the church site. Every member of the church rallied to the task, under the leadership of Mr. Watkins, building program chairman.

The membership of the Battle Creek, Mich., Church has reached and exceeded its Message Magazine Subscription Goal before the campaign began. Home Missionary leader, George Brown, has set an inspiring pace for his church. This enthusiasm for the Message Magazine by the Battle Creek membership was caught by the whole District. The entire District reached its goal and sent their pastor to the Conference Workers' Meeting with subscription names in one hand and funds in the other to report a task "well done."

The Lord has also blessed the District with a baptism the first Sabbath of January, and another one is being planned for Sabbath, May 8, 1965, which will be the closing of a week of revival meetings to be conducted by Elder H. D. Singleton, Regional Department secretary of the General Conference.

Miss Elaine Brown, MV leader in Battle Creek, was successful in planning a District Youth Day, at which time Elder J. M. Phipps, Conference evangelist was guest speaker. Three youth came forward in surrender. Many others pledged anew their loyalty and devotion to God as Elder Phipps made a most stirring appeal.

The future is always brighter, when we remember how God has led us in the past.

D. H. RAND, Pastor

Bierlien's Join Michigan Workers

We wish to welcome to the Michigan family of workers Leonard A. Bierlien and family. Brother Bierlien is pastoring the church at Ironwood in the Upper Peninsula.

A native of Wisconsin, Bierlien attended the Lincoln County Teacher's College and Wisconsin State University in that state, and also Emmanuel Missionary College in Michigan. Since 1952 he has labored as literature evangelist, publishing department assistant and secretary, and district pastor in the Wisconsin, Southern New England, and West Virginia conferences.

Bierlien served one year in the United States Marine Corps. In 1947 he was married to the former Audrey Malgohn of Merrill, Wis. They have three children: Jan, 13; Jill, 10; and Jay, 7.

the audience to join in the singing. Vocal solos, duets, trios, quartets, and instrumental numbers add variety to the half hour of music. Preliminary announcements are given each night by the campaign manager, Cline Johnson, the newest member of the team. He and his wife, Charlotte, come from the same large southern state as another famous American couple of the same last name. Then Elder Walter opens the Word of Life, and each night presents a message.

With clock-work precision, the program moves from one phase to another. After the sermon, Richard Lange joins in presenting appeal in song.

It was two and one half years ago that the team first conducted a series in Battle Creek, which culminated in the baptism of 120 persons. The Tabernacle pastor, W. B. Quigley, and members of his congregation, have been particularly busy in the last few weeks preparing for the current campaign. The area has been covered by church laymen and young people from the MV society, who distributed the first lesson of the Faith for Today Bible correspondence course to many residents in Battle Creek. The job of distributing 30,000 handbills alone took many hours.

During the 10 weeks preceding the effort, former members and new interests were visited. Adventist physicians and dentists in the Battle Creek area sent out hundreds of personal letters to patients, inviting them to the meetings. One doctor sent over 200 letters himself.

In addition, 300 invitations to Voice of Prophecy and Faith for Today contacts were mailed, 14 billboards were placed strategically throughout the area, 300 placards were posted in prominent places, and three newspaper advertisements appeared. Most important, hundreds of personal invitations were given by members of the church to their neighbors, relatives, and friends.

As this issue of the HERALD goes to press, the meetings have only begun. The members in Battle Creek request the prayers of God's people throughout the Lake Union, that the Holy Spirit will be present to bring conviction to many persons who are looking for security in these uncertain times.

About 1,000 people were present for the opening night meeting at the Battle Creek Tabernacle.

Team South America Bound

A unique feature of the three men in The Word of Life team is that they are all pilots. Elden Walter is rated as a commercial, instrument, and multi-engine pilot. He is also a certified flight instructor. Cline Johnson is a private pilot with varied flying experience, and Richard Lange is completing requirements for his private pilot rating, which he plans to get later this spring.

In June and July, the team will spend several weeks in Omaha, Neb., conducting the mid-west field school of evangelism for Andrews University. Immediately following this, they plan to take a one-month tour of South America, taking pictures and visiting Adventist missions, schools and hospitals. These films will be added to the Word of Life film library for use in the future meetings.

As most tourists, the three families plan to go by air. The primary difference is that they are going in their own airplane, a twin Beechcraft (D-18). This 9-passenger, two-engine airplane is a team project, with all three members contributing toward its purchase, specifically for the purpose of making this trip. They do not plan to keep the airplane after their South American jaunt, but they feel it will enable them to cover the vast distances rapidly, getting in and out of areas which are not conveniently served by commercial airlines.

One of the principal places of interest they plan to visit will be Pucallpo, Peru, the home base of the "Fernando Stahl," the now famous airplane which was christened in memory of the pioneer missionary to South America. Their trip will follow the continental route through Mexico, where they will stop at various Adventist institutions, Panama, and South America. In all, they plan to visit 18 countries.

Additional information about their trip will be printed from week to week as they send back reports to their friends in the Lake Union via the LAKE UNION HERALD.

Bed time in a Christian home. Freddy was curled up warmly in his Daddy's lap, his mind lost in one of his favorite bedtime Bible stories. His father was vividly describing the coming of Jesus. His eyes widened as his father's gestures and modulated tone painted in vivid colors the small white cloud becoming bigger and bigger. His heart fairly leaped as his mind envisioned pure angels taking Grandma and Grandpa by the hand, and then Mother and Daddy, and presenting them to the lovely Jesus—the flaming center of the scene.

W. B. Quigley

But all of a sudden Daddy's voice changed. A new note rang as his eyes narrowed and fixed upon Freddy's transfixed gaze. With slowed pace and firm lip Daddy bore down, for Freddy had been naughty that afternoon, and Father was going to bring home a point. "Freddy, Jesus can only take noble Christian boys to Heaven. Wouldn't it be a terrible thing if Freddy's angel would look down and say, with shaking head, 'I'm sorry, Freddy, you cannot come.' Freddy, wouldn't Mother and Daddy feel badly?"

Immediately the father saw that the blow was too severe. The faith of this child was so complete in his parent that the point Daddy was making was entirely beyond his comprehension. The child frantically clutched his father tightly in a vice-like grip, and bursting into unquenchable tears, "But, but Daddy! You wouldn't go off and leave me, would you?" Perhaps Daddy hadn't figured on such a complete upset in an innocent child's mind, who simply knew his father would carry him right on to God's wonderful heaven with him.

Leave Freddy? Never! He'd die first! How could he think of a thing like that? "Why no, son, Daddy wouldn't ever go off to heaven without you! And if you will do your part, by being a faithful Christian boy, and Daddy will do his part, we will never need to be separated." The child, satisfied with his father's loving answer, was soon safe in dreamland. But not the father! Long into the night he pondered this new vision of responsibility to a child's implicit trust. As a Christian he had a goal. That goal was the salvation of his family. A new decision was made to pursue this fabulous goal with all the strength God had given him.

Surely the parent does not exist who would sacrifice his son or daughter's salvation at the altar of some selfish pleasure or possession. If the gains and losses of eternity were all laid out on the table just now, we'd give anything, life itself, for the eternity of these dear ones. Yet, that's not the price in God's terms today. The price is costly, but not that costly, and yet some still refuse to pay it. The price of our children's salvation is found in the trinity of influences ordained to mold human life from the cradle to the grave after the divine likeness: the Christian home, the Christian school, and the true church. And of these three vital institutions, we read, "...of all the institutions in our world, the school is the most important."—Fundamentals of Christian Education, p. 226.

Three years ago one of our Union Conferences took a membership survey among its 415 churches, incorporating some 86,000 members. Results were analyzed by the Pacific Union College statistical corps and the electronic brain deciphered the reports. Here's what came forth regarding Christian education. Three classes of youth were noted, and the results of their Christian profession as Seventh-day Adventists. First, were youth who went through the first twelve grades of education with no S.D.A. schooling. Of this group, 68 per cent never joined the Adventist church; 32 per cent did. Second, were youth with some S.D.A. education during the first twelve years. Of these 43 per cent never became Seventh-day Adventists; 57 per cent did. The third class of youth were those who spent all twelve years in Seventh-day Adventist schools. Please notice the dramatic contrast. 97 per cent became Seventh-day Adventists! Only 3 per cent did not! Christian education triples the number of our youth who will be in God's everlasting Kingdom, if professing of Christ and church membership mean anything!

Now we must ask, "What is Christian education worth?" A million dollars? A hundred million? Can we place a value on the salvation of just one soul?

Perhaps we should also ask, "What are the Michigan academies worth?"

Presbyterians Visit S.D.A. Church

As a part of their study of different religious faiths, 20 young people from the Cherry Hill United Presbyterian Church in Dearborn attended the Detroit-Oakwood Boulevard Church last March 20, 1965. These observers could not have picked a better day in which to come because the church service on that day was conducted entirely by a youth group from Adelphian Academy. Jack Chaffin, a local elder (third from right, back row), acted as host to the visitors. As a souvenir of their visit, the guests were presented with copies of Elder Fordyce Detamore's booklet entitled "What Do You Believe in Your Church?" (Photo by Holthe)

Romeo D. Brion, Press Secretary

They are priceless, aren't they? Let us as believers in God's great final message of truth give, and give, and give so that our youth may be saved, and if possible, have the joy of being workers in His kingdom before Jesus comes.

New Jerusalem Limited

Many members of the Coldwater-Quincy Church and friends broke their usual Friday evening study routine by going to church, and received a blessing and inspiration in a special service on April 9th.

A group of 25 young people and their chaperones from the Farmington Church at Detroit, Mich. travelled the 90 miles to the Quincy Church to present a special program called, "The New Jerusalem Limited."

A ticket seller's booth on the podium was manned by Jim Elie who alternately smiled at eager customers or gave serious advice to those who did not wish to accept the requirements. "The tickets are not for sale—they are free, with certain conditions," he told each one, naming conditions for passage to New Jerusalem.

Lame and blind children and adults from various walks of life came to join those in the waiting room. Some, who did not wish to accept the conditions, went away sadly or defiantly.

As each one made a decision about taking the trip, a large picture of an open Bible was shown, with the words from Joshua 24:15, "Choose you this day whom ye will serve," spotlighted. A hidden narrator read other Bible passages, followed by a special song from some of the Pathfinders.

A dramatic and touching end of the program came when the worldly girl who wasn't ready to accept passage came rushing back to the silent, darkened ticket seller's booth calling out that she was now ready, only to find that she was too late.

The passengers returned dressed as angels, and sang, "Almost Persuaded."

Another First for G.L.A.

The Student Association of Grand Ledge Academy has had a 7-inch, 33 1/4 r.p.m. recording made of campus musical groups.

Featured during the 13 minutes of playing time are the Senior Trio, the Senior Male Quartet, and the Junior Trio.

Snider Recording Company did the recording, which took almost 6 hours.

The suggested donation for this record is $1.50.

WISCONSIN

Pathfinder Camporee, June 11 to 13

Those who attended the Pathfinder Camporee last year at Camp Wahdoon remember it as one of the high spots of Pathfinder work in Wisconsin. Three hundred people were present and the weekend was action-packed with camping, hikes, stories, sermons, events, and just plain inspiration. This year promises to be even better. The events include such fascinating names as the Stew Boil, Disaster on the Trail, Buried Treasure (the real thing) and a real obstacle course.

Pathfinders at the 1964 Camporee demonstrate their lashing skills.

As is customary, the Pathfinder Clubs will come on Friday, June 11, prepared to be completely self-sufficient as far as food and camping gear is concerned. The Camporee will end early Sunday afternoon. Every Pathfinder Club in the state should be present. In addition, we invite those churches with Pathfinder aged young people but without an official club, to send a representation. Make plans now to attend the Pathfinder Camporee.

ADRIAN ZYTKOSKEE
MV Secretary

Judging the Stew Boil seems to be a pleasant task.

(Left) Each club must come prepared to be self-sufficient and to enjoy a busy, pleasant weekend. (Right) There is always room for one more at Camporee.

We've Got the Pennies: We Need the People

Over 2,500,000 Pennies are in for Camp Wahdoon! While this only fills a part of our financial needs it represents an overflow of providential proportions. The response of the people of Wisconsin to this program has been tremendous.

More Important Contributions

Now, however, we are asking for an even more important contribution. We need all of the Wisconsin young people of camp age at Camp Wahdoon this summer! This is the reason for the saving and the sacrifice, the pennies and the prayers. Applications will be in your churches shortly. Bus transportation for a fee is being arranged from the southern part of the state. Plan to have your young people at Camp Wahdoon.

Camp Schedule

- June 11 to 13—Pathfinder Camporee—Camp Wahdoon
- June 20 to 27—Junior Boys' Camp, ages 9 to 11—Camp Wahdoon

A 50 to 75 mile canoe trip will be one of the big events planned for the Wilderness camps this summer. You won't want to miss it.

"The Call of the Wild"

1965 is the year for new things in Wisconsin. "2,000,000 Pennies for Camp Wahdoon" was something new. Camp Wahdoon itself is new. Wilderness camps are new. This last is the subject of this article.

We are planning two full-fledged Wilderness Camps this year at Camp Wahdoon. They will be limited to young people aged 14 to 16 with Boys' Wilderness Camp being held June 20 to 27, and Girls' Wilderness Camp, June 27 to July 4. These are not ordinary camps but rather a unique camping experience designed especially for young people of this age.

These camps will be completely separate from our main camps and will involve a different type of program. Young people will be expected to furnish their own camping gear and they will camp out during the entire week. Cooking will be done out-of-doors. Furniture will be constructed in the wilderness manner. A 50 to 75

Wilderness camping—for youth 14 to 16 years of age—is designed to teach practical information in outdoor living and how to enjoy nature.

Illinois 16th Biennial Session Election Returns

The 450 delegates assembled at Broadview Academy re-elected Elder Wm. A. Nelson and other departmental leaders to serve the constituency for another biennium.

Elder Nelson is giving enthusiastic leadership to Illinois. Growth in membership, financial strength, evangelism, improvements in and building of new churches, and numerous other changes symbolize his dynamic leadership.

The departmental secretaries were re-elected to their positions with the exception of Elder H. M. Lodge who requested retirement after 42 years of denominational service. E. L. Allen was elected to assume the responsibilities of the Sabbath School and Religious Liberty departments, formerly carried by Elder Lodge. Elder Allen will also continue as Public Relations secretary. In addition, Dr. Hans S. Sjoren was elected as Dental secretary, a new office in this conference.

The special highlights of the day were the devotional by Elder R. S. Watts of the General Conference, reports, good food, fellowship, and the welcoming of a new church into the sisterhood of churches. This gives Illinois a total of 74 churches.

The church newly organized and welcomed into fellowship by their pastor, E. G. Schneider, was Savanna.

The president reports a total membership of 7,320, an increase of 511 over the previous biennium in the conference. Illinois shows favorable gains in every aspect of its field.

We can thank God for this blessing. May He add enthusiasm, humility, love, motivation, and courage to the Illinois constituents and leaders for the next two years.

E. L. ALLEN, Public Relations Secretary

S.D.A. Church—One of 28 In Kewanee

Kewanee, Ill., is located 130 miles southwest of Chicago. It has eight parks covering over 400 acres of improved grounds and buildings which provide the community all forms of recreation.

Kewanee was founded in 1854. Initially it was called Berriam, then changed to Kewanee in keeping with the Sac and Fox Indian tribes who roamed the area for many years. The word "Kewanee" is "prairie chicken," and the town was named this because this same prairie chick was here in large numbers and was a substantial part of the food of these Indian tribes.

In the winter of 1904, Elder Nord, an evangelist, held meetings in a building on Beach St. He called his meetings "The Star of Hope."

In the early 1920's more Sabbath keepers came to Kewanee and meetings were held for some time in the home of Mrs. Ida Hughes.

In 1927 a revival was held in a tent at Tenney and Division Sts. by Evangelist Byron Post; a group was organized into a company with 15 members.

The revival meetings held in the year 1935 were conducted by Elder A. Wellman and Elder John Osborn. The meetings were held in the old Majestic theater. At the close of the meetings, eleven persons were baptized into the faith.

When the Clarence Lynd home burned in the year 1937 the original church records, except those of the early group, were destroyed by fire.

Twenty-nine charter members met in various homes and halls until a lot was given to the church in December, 1946.

The Kewanee Seventh-day Adventist Church is located at 121 Mosher Ave. in Kewanee.

In 1949 the church bought a country school building at auction for $500. This building was moved to the lot at 121 Mosher Ave. The building was dedicated in 1950 when Elder H. L. Calkins was the district pastor.

The church will easily seat 75 people. There have been no changes in location and the 47 members are still meeting in the same building today. Kewanee is one of three churches in the Moline District of which Elder L. G. Euler is pastor.

LOIS E. PARRICK, office secretary
Public Relations Department

Several Chicago area laymen are sponsoring a program in famous Orchestra Hall, 216 South Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill., Friday night, May 7, at 7:30 p.m.

The program will be presented in stereo sound with visual aids, background music, and a number of vocal selections. It will be built around the theme, "The Second Coming of Christ," or "Some Golden Daybreak."

Seventh-day Adventists within driving distance of Chicago will want to attend. Plan to come and bring many friends.

Youth Wants to Know

A recent campus visitor is shown above. Elder Clarence Gruesbeck (behind pulpit), pastor of the North Shore Church in Chicago, was the speaker at B.V.A. for their spring Week of Prayer. His theme on "Youth Wants to Know" gave an insight to the students on the basic concepts of Christian living.

WHY TITHE?

TITHING TEACHES the happy virtue of gratitude. We tend to think of ourselves as "self-made." We forget that all we have we have received.

Tithing changes this attitude, too, for Tithing is an acknowledgement that "it is He that hath made us and not we ourselves." The man who tithes is saying "Thank you" to God for health, food, family, love, and life.

Tithing teaches that the love of God is the creative factor in every man's life.

INDIANA

Accident Kills Pastor and Mrs. DeLong

The Indiana Conference regrets to announce the death of one of its young ministers and his wife. Monday, April 12, Pastor Robert L. DeLong, Jr. and his wife, Susan, were on their way to pick up a truck that was to be used to haul clothing to tornado victims in Marion, Ind., when they met with a tragic automobile accident.

Robert L. DeLong, Jr. accident.

Pastor DeLong was killed instantly and Mrs. DeLong died April 17 at 5 a.m. in the Anderson Community Hospital of serious injuries.

A memorial service was held in Anderson, Ind., on Wednesday, April 14, for Pastor DeLong, and on Monday, April 19, for Susan. Both bodies were taken to Pastor DeLong's home town, Kalamazoo, Mich., for funeral services and burial.

Pastor DeLong joined the ministerial staff of the Indiana conference last August as assistant pastor in the Anderson district. He and Susan Foster, a graduate of Indiana Academy, were married last December 20. He was a 1964 graduate of Andrews University. Obituaries will appear later.

Tragedy in Indiana

Tragedy has struck in Indiana. As these lines are being written, the debris from the tornado has not yet been cleared away. Communications to some areas are still down. Indiana will long remember this greatest natural tragedy in its history. Well over 100 have died, over a thousand are injured, and millions of dollars have been lost in property damage.

Today our conference treasurer is writing out a check for $1,113.50. This is going for the purchase of new blankets and sheets. These, along with other items of clothing, are being given to the needy victims in Indiana, our Hoosier state. This is not the end. Many hundreds of dollars are yet to be spent by Seventh-day Adventists to help a neighbor who is in need.

Coming back to this check for $1,113.50. This is a part of a lump sum that has come to us from the General Conference Disaster Relief fund. Maybe you didn't know when you gave two years ago that some of this would be coming back to Indiana, but here it is. The total may well be $2,000 or more that will be coming back to us to help in this one disaster.

Did I hear someone say a disaster could not strike in Indiana? Had someone believed that we could never be the victims?

I am sorry that we gave less than one dollar per member to this offering two years ago in Indiana. This would not buy a good meal for some starving person. This would not pay for one sheet that we are giving out to some needy victim here in Indiana this year.

What are we going to do in the offering that is taken on May 8? I appeal to everyone in Indiana to double this year what they gave two years ago. Can we not now show our appreciation to the General Conference for remembering us in this, our time of need?

Around the world tragedies will continue to strike. Let us give sacrificially on May 8.

RALPH COMBES, Secretary
Home Missionary Department

The entire King James Version of the Bible is now recorded for use by the blind on 67 records playing at 16 2/3 revolutions per minute.

The gap between the number of the world's people who can read the Holy Scriptures and those who have a Bible is widening annually, reports the American Bible Society. Dr. Elaine Giddings

Featured will be about 25 musical and literary numbers created and performed by students. "The theme," says Dr. Elaine Giddings, who is director of the production, "is 'stages.' It allows a wide variety of contributions."

Each of the numbers, which were selected from a total of 150 entries, is about three minutes long. Four of them are musical; the rest are performances of poetry and prose; 14 are humorous.

The musical numbers include a brass fanfare; a cello, bassoon, an oboe trio; a musical setting for "Hey Nonny No"; and the finale of the program, "Aprilliad" for chorus and orchestra, composed by Peter Mathews, junior music major.
