COVER

PROJECTS TO BE AIDED by the Thirteenth Sabbath Offering include Holbrook Mission School in Arizona, Pine Forge Academy in Pennsylvania, and Yellowknife, capital of the Northwest Territories in Canada.

Thirteenth Sabbath Offering Projects

by Morten Juberg

For the first time in eight years, North American church members will have an opportunity to help home projects in the Thirteenth Sabbath Offering.

Three varied projects will benefit from the offering to be received on June 24. They include a new boys' dormitory at Pine Forge Academy, Pine Forge, Pennsylvania; an evangelistic and educational center at Yellowknife in the Northwest Territories of Canada; and industrial equipment at the Indian Mission School, Holbrook, Arizona.

Pine Forge Dormitory

Situated on a 575-acre tract of rolling, wooded hills in eastern Pennsylvania, the academy is one of two boarding schools for the church's black youth in North America.

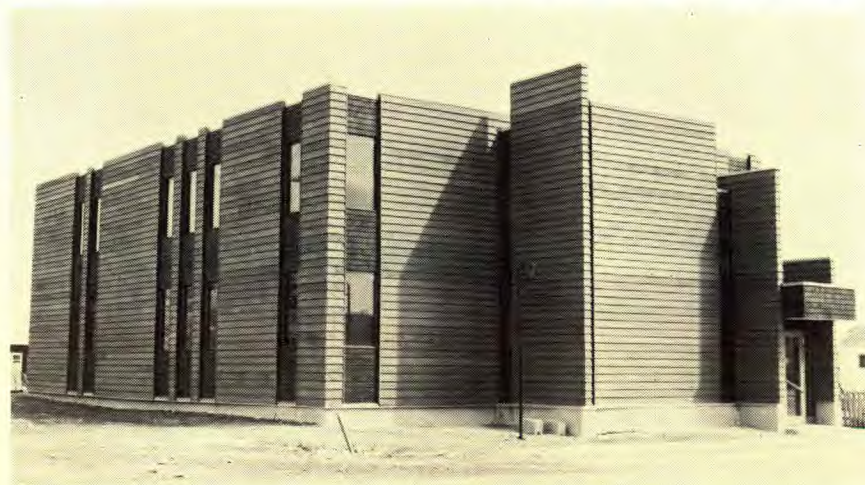

The desperate need on this campus is for a boys' dormitory. Picture a 250-year-old building used as a way station on the underground railroad for slaves during the Civil War. Suffering from two and a half centuries of aging and deterioration, this building is the present dormitory.

As many as four boys crowd into one room, with scarcely any place to study. Recognizing the great need, the Allegheny East and West Conferences, which support the school, have been raising funds for the dormitory. A liberal Thirteenth Sabbath Offering will give the extra boost needed so construction can begin.

Yellowknife Complex

The Northwest Territories stretch an almost endless two thousand miles along the north edge of the Canadian provinces. Larger than half the continental United States, this vast territory has a small population. Capital of the area is Yellowknife, a town of 7,000.

Medical work began in the area in 1969 when Dr. Steven Tarangle, an Adventist physician from Edmonton, set up a practice in Yellowknife. That same year an Adventist pastor, Henry Bartsch, moved to Yellowknife.

Sabbath School and church services soon outgrew the Bartsch living room and expanded into the basement of a new clinic built by Dr. Tarangle.

The need in Yellowknife is for a multi-purpose building that will house a church, evangelistic and youth center, a school, reading room and lending library, welfare center, and living quarters.

There is good reason for combining these facilities. Lumber is scarce. Permafrost poses problems. Then, too, the building must be heated ten or eleven months of the year. It is more economical to erect a single building than several.

Your Thirteenth Sabbath Offering will be e-x-p-a-n-d-e-d at Yellowknife through a Maranatha Flights International fly-in during June, 1973, reports Herbert Larsen, lay activities secretary for the Alberta Conference, an aviator himself. Fifteen to twenty planes are expected to bring as many as fifty skilled artisans, carpenters, electricians, plumbers—all donated labor—to give a real push to construction of the center.

This new center will serve as the hub for an expanding work in the North country.

Holbrook Industrial Equipment

Anyone who travels through the reservation lands of the Southwest cannot escape noticing the barrenness of the area. The Indian Mission School at Holbrook, though not on Indian reservation lands, is located on 220 acres of equally forbidding land.

Around the school are the reservation lands of the Navajo, Hopi, Apache, Pappago, Pima, Flathead, Ute, and Zuni Indians.

The greatest need at the school is for industrial equipment. The boys are taught practical trades—auto mechanics, carpentry, plumbing, and electrical wiring. Tools of every kind and shop equipment head the list of “must have soon” items.

Girls have an equally meaningful curriculum which includes home economics, typing, crafts, and book-keeping. All of this is available to students in grades one to eight for $82.50 a year. High school students pay $150 per year.

It takes no imagination to see that anything extra at this school has to come as a gift. There is no “stretch” in the school budget for needed extras.

The Need

These projects were selected for the Thirteenth Sabbath overflow offering because of a need. In each case the situation borders on the desperate. If work is to continue at each one of these centers, there will have to be a generous offering on Sabbath, June 24.

BOY SCOUTS COMMEND SAN

Former United Nations Secretary General U Thant, third from right, poses with Cortlandt Symonds, holding certificate, and representatives of the West Suburban Council Boy Scouts of America at a scouting festival held in LaGrange, Illinois, May 13. Symonds, a member of the hospital's Civic Advisory Board and co-chairman of the current development program, accepted a certificate on behalf of Hinsdale, which was recognized for its contribution to world friendship and understanding by the exchange of medical personnel with hospitals of other nations. The theme of the 1972 Scout-O-Rama was "The Wide Wide World of Scouting."

EMPLOYEES SPONSOR STUDENT MISSIONARY

Pointing out the spot on the map in Haiti where she will spend the summer, Crystal Cantrell shares her enthusiasm for the student missionary program with Joyce Pierce, a former student missionary to Peru. The two are junior nursing students at Andrews University School of Nursing and are completing their clinical affiliation at Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital this spring. Donations from San employees will provide transportation for Crystal to Haiti where she will work with the S.D.A. Polyclinique near Port-au-Prince. Joyce was sponsored as a student missionary to Peru in 1970 by Southwestern Union College, Keene, Texas.

MISSION '72 REACHES PATHFINDER AIDE

Decatur Pathfinders were happy not long ago to see baptized an Army veteran who had been helping with their drills.

A couple years ago an Adventist girl, Nancy O'Bryen, married Lynn Whitaker, then in the Army. When he was discharged they moved to Decatur, and at times he would come to church with her.

Lynn became acquainted with the Pathfinder leader, W. O. Taylor, and offered to help him. He said he was interested in young people and at the same time wanted to learn more about the church.

Then Mission '72 began. He and Nancy attended meetings, and one night he was especially touched by the Holy Spirit's appeal. Elder P. M. Matacio had a stirring sermon and Henry Hagner, music director, sang.

At dismissal, Lynn shook hands with Elder J. R. Carner in the foyer.

"Here they go, Elder Carner!" he said, taking his pack of cigarettes and twisting them into uselessness. "I want to give my life to the Saviour."

After a few more weeks of attending meetings, losing and winning with the tobacco, he came out victorious and was baptized, along with 11 others.

"O, we are the Pathfinders strong, The servants of God are we," can be sung with greater meaning for Lynn at meetings these days.

THREE HAPPY PEOPLE

As the result of a pamphlet which came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Grabowski of Franklin Park, they joined the West Central church in Oak Park. When the pamphlet was returned to the church with a request for more information, George Dettloff, lay activities leader, gave it to Edwin Popp (right). He started giving them Bible studies using the Amazing Facts followed by 19 film studies. Mr. Popp, a member of the West Central church since 1931, felt rewarded for his efforts at the Grabowskis' baptism.

A group of students and teachers went to the Northern Illinois University campus to share their faith. Vegetarian food samples heightened interest.

B.V.A. PRAYER WEEK HAS ACTION TOO

Week of Prayer this spring was quite a unique experience for most of the students at Broadview Academy.

Pastor Fred Kasischke from the Hinsdale church was the speaker and coordinator of activities.

The topics for the regular morning meetings, to name a few, were: "Before You Pass It On" and "The Check List Christian." These meetings helped the students apply daily Christian living with witnessing. The evening meetings were informal and quite enjoyable. Later on in the evening the students were invited to a "rap session." There, students talked about various interesting topics and each one had an opportunity to voice his opinions.

On Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, a group of students and teachers went to the Northern Illinois University campus to share their faith with the young people there. The teachers took two vans from which vegetarian food samples were served. Many of the students were interested in the food and asked where it could be obtained. The Broadview students had many inspiring experiences those two days.

TEMPERANCE PROGRAM EXHIBITED AT PUBLIC HEALTH CONVENTION

For the third time, the Illinois Conference sponsored a temperance booth at the Illinois Public Health Association convention.

James Barringer, I.P.H.A. president, wrote the Illinois Conference: "I had the privilege of having numerous people comment on how beneficial they felt your exhibit was to them. It is only through the support of organizations such as yours that our association can conduct these educational meetings.

"I sincerely hope that our association will again have the privilege of having your organization taking an integral part in our 33rd Annual Meeting to be held in April of 1973."

A honeymooning couple visited the Stop-Smoking booth, and the husband wrote the following appeal for help: "The exhibit on smoking was most interesting and I would appreciate more information on the subject. My wife and I are both chain smokers and have been smoking two packs a day for over three years. We both know the effects of smoking on our system and the particular harm that may come to us in the future, but it is impossible for us to quit or even cut down.

"We have contemplated various cessation clinics sponsored by the American Cancer Association, but there are none in the immediate area and they are also quite expensive. Any information relating to smoking will be most helpful and appreciated."

Pastor Norman Kinney discusses the Five-Day Plan at the temperance booth.

Two temperance displays, one at the Franklin Park Health Fair and the other at the Eastland Shopping Center Mall at Bloomington, have also been sponsored. Elder C. N. Eckman, district pastor, is enrolling smokers in the Five-Day Plan being conducted in connection with the university in Bloomington.

HINSDALE TEENS FOR CHRIST HOLD RETREAT

Fifty-two teen-agers from Hinsdale and their sponsors spent the second weekend in May learning ways of witnessing, and going out into the community to put them into practice.

The Teens for Christ met at the Good Samaritan Retreat in Knoxville, Illinois. Ken Bariel and Pastor Fred Kasischke sponsor the group.

"Dear God, thank you so much for sending these two boys to see me today," was the prayer of an elderly woman visited. "It gets so lonely at times."

Besides the experiences in the homes and the resulting impression upon the teen-agers themselves, 12 families were enrolled in the Voice of Prophecy Bible course.

The young people conducted their own Sabbath School and church but the main "learning procedure of witnessing" was led by Gary Ehlert, publishing secretary of the Wisconsin Conference.

Freeport members have purchased a site for their new church.

NEW CHURCH TO BE BUILT IN DARK COUNTY

The newly organized Freeport church recently purchased 9½ acres for their future church home.

The building site is located on the northwest side of Freeport on U.S. 20. The congregation is presently meeting in the First Presbyterian church in the city.

L. J. Marsa, pastor, undertook the responsibility of dark county work in northwestern Illinois in the fall of 1971.

Recently Elder and Mrs. Roland Lehnhoff and David Peterson conducted a three-week evangelistic crusade in the Masonic Temple ballroom in Freeport. Evening attendance was excellent during the entire series. Several interests and decisions have come from these meetings, and a baptism is planned for the near future.

The dark county work in this area is a real challenge. The Lord has indicated in many ways that a new sanctuary in northwestern Illinois will someday be realized.

CARTHAGE COMMUNITY SERVICES UNIT OPENS

With the mayor cutting the ribbon, the Carthage Community Services Unit opened officially on Tuesday, May 16.

Jerry Nutt, manager of Carthage radio station WCAZ, was present and recorded the speeches. A later news report told of the opening, and Elder Jack Martz's speech was broadcast in its entirety. News articles and pictures were in the local papers. Mr. Nutt promised to call upon listeners for specific items as the need crops up.

The well-located unit will be open every Tuesday from 9:30 to 4:30. A telephone number will be on the door where people can call at any time. The unit is working in cooperation with the welfare agency, the police, the fire department, and the Red Cross. One of the welfare case workers spent some time helping get things organized.

As Mrs. Ruth Hurt, director, Elder John Graham, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Swan were ready to leave after the opening, a car drove up. A man who works for the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services told them he had three carloads of good clean clothing, shoes, drapes, and rugs that the unit could have.

Opening this unit has already done much good in public relations.

B.V.A. TEMPERANCE CLUB SPONSORS CROSS-STATE RUN

The temperance club of Broadview Academy sponsored a cross-state run. Fifty-five students ran the width of Northern Illinois to demonstrate healthful living. Samples of water from Lake Michigan and the Mississippi River were collected and checked for pollution content. Tom Roy and Chris Kagels were group leaders. Each student had to run 30 miles to qualify.

WHERE AND WHEN TO HEAR THE VOICE OF PROPHECY BROADCAST

Five Indiana stations currently carry the Voice of Prophecy broadcasts.

At 8:30 a.m. Sundays in Ft. Wayne the program is heard on stations WMEE (1380) and WMEF-FM (106.1).

Indianapolis area listeners hear the program Sundays at 9:30 a.m. over WIRE (1430) and at 11:30 a.m. over WSMJ-FM (99.5). WSMJ-FM also carries the daily broadcast Monday through Saturday at 5:30 p.m.

Those who listen to Peru's station WARU (1600) can tune in for the Voice of Prophecy at 10 a.m. Sundays.

Listeners in the Evansville area hear the Voice of Prophecy over the Henderson, Kentucky, radio station (WSON 860, 10:30 a.m.), and those living around New Albany listen to the program broadcast from Louisville, Kentucky (WHAS 840, 8:30 a.m.).

Invite your neighbors to listen. This is an easy way to share your faith.

PAOLI CHURCH ORGANIZED

The newest church of the one-hundred-year-old Indiana Conference was organized at Paoli on May 6.

The 34 charter members meet in a new church building located three miles west of Paoli on U.S. 150.

Elder Francis Wernick, president of the Lake Union Conference, spoke both in the morning and at the afternoon organization service. Elder Robert Dale, president of the Indiana Conference, was in charge of organization. Special music was given by Elder Larry

NEW PASTOR ASSIGNED TO KOREAN CHURCH

Charles Moon, a graduate of Korean Union College and Andrews University, has been asked by the conference executive committee to serve as pastor of the Korean church in Chicago.

Pastor Moon, who was born in Hamyang, Korea, worked as assistant editor of Signs of the Times at the publishing house in Seoul, Korea, from 1959 to 1961. He attended the Baptist Bible College in Denver, Colorado, where he received a B.A. in Biblical education in 1963. In 1965 he received his M.R.E. degree from the Baptist Theological Seminary in Denver. In 1969 he received his B.D. degree from Andrews University.

Charles and his wife Emeko have two children, Eliot and Michael.

church service. Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rupright of Lafayette, who donated the outer shell of the new church building, were present.

A potluck dinner was enjoyed in a nearby park under the flowering dogwood trees.

Most of the members had been meeting until two years ago as the Marengo Company and the Springs Valley Company. These two combined in May, 1970, and met at the Marengo meeting place. In June, 1971, the new church was erected and since then services have been held there. Finishing work was still being done. Several families have moved into the area in the past few months, and nine persons joined the church by baptism in November, 1971.

MOTHERS HONORED ON THEIR DAY

Mrs. Lou Jones, Mrs. Ardella Slaten, and Mrs. Elies Whitfield, were honored by the Detroit Center Sabbath School on May 13.

Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Slaten received corsages of white carnations for being the oldest mothers. Both are 73 years old.

Mrs. Whitfield received a corsage of red carnations for being the "most recent" mother at Detroit Center. Her son, Everett Charles Whitfield, was born on March 19.

Each mother in attendance received a long-stemmed pink carnation from the Sabbath School department. Children from the junior division paid tribute to them with an appropriate Mother's Day recitation.

FLINT GIRL FINDS MEANING IN LIFE

Lelia Faye Irvin reached out for God during the Reach Out for Life meetings in Flint.

Although she was born and reared in an Adventist home, Lelia's decision to accept Christ as her personal Saviour followed a search for meaning in life through the friendship of non-Christians, worldly pleasures, and the use of drugs.

Not finding the answer in any of these activities and finally believing that life was meaningless, she took a drug dosage hoping to end her life.

But God had other plans for Lelia. In the emergency room of Hurley Hospital during unsuccessful treatment to rid her stomach of the drug, she managed to say, "Lord, have mercy." God heard and answered her prayer. Immediately the stomach pumping brought up the substance which moments before threatened her life.

Lelia Faye Irvin has discovered that a meaningful life is found in Jesus Christ.

Shortly afterwards, Lelia was rebaptized and since has inspired individuals, groups, and churches as she relates the miraculous change in her life since Jesus has taken control.

One Sabbath while addressing her fellow church members she said, "I know it sounds funny to hear me talking about prayer because before this I didn't believe in prayer. I didn't need to pray. I felt I had everything. But I know now I didn't have anything, and God does answer prayer. I know He answers prayer because He has answered mine. I believe God let me come back here to tell all of you that Jesus is coming soon and we'd better get ready.

"Before this I wouldn't have had the nerve to stand up here and talk like this; that's why I know something has happened to me. I'm just so happy Jesus spared my life so that I can come back here and witness for Him."

What a testimony! Lelia is working now to acquaint those whom she knows with Jesus.

CHOIR SINGS FOR DORCAS PROGRAM

The Sumpter Community Chorus, an interracial and interdenominational group, directed by Mrs. Dorothy Clark, presented a music festival at the Belleville Heights church on May 7.

The Gospel Four from the Belleville church also participated in the program.

The Dorcas society, under the leadership of Mrs. Ernestine Humphrey, sponsored the program. Mrs. Marjorie Andrews, president of the Motor Cities Dorcas Federation, gave a talk on the objectives of the Dorcas society and told how each person could participate in Dorcas.

NEWS NOTE

• Of the 35 who completed the recent Five-Day Plan at Lakeview, 31 said they have kicked the habit. The program was a joint effort on the part of Lakeview High School and Battle Creek Sanitarium. Those conducting the stop-smoking clinic were: David Brophy, leader of the adult education program at Lakeview High School; Alfred Hanscom, Duane Wacker, Clayton Whetmore, and Alvin Ratzlaff (all Battle Creek Adventist doctors), Chaplain Harold Flynt, and Daniel Williams of the American Cancer Society.

NEW CONTROLLER COMES TO BATTLE CREEK

Daniel R. Purple of Peoria, Illinois, is the new controller at Battle Creek Sanitarium. He replaces Axel V. Thomsen who retired after 13 years of service.

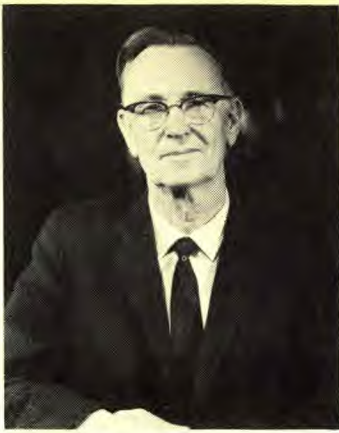

Mr. Purple graduated from Pacific Union College in 1964 and went to the South American Division as cashier. After returning to the States he worked in an accounting firm in Peoria. For the past three years he was controller at Galesburg Cottage Hospital, a 200-bed facility at Galesburg, Illinois.

Purple married his wife Margurette, of Oregon, in 1959. They have three children, Denise, 10; Stanley, 8; and Timothy, 5.

JACKSON GROUP HELPS COMMUNITY

The ladies of the Jackson Dorcas group now meet twice a month in one of the member's homes. A project was adopted after a local newspaper told of the need for baby clothing at the Florence Crittenden Home, Jackson's home for unwed mothers. The Adventist ladies tied quilts, knitted sweater sets, and mended, sorted, and packaged layettes. Recently the group presented 18 layettes to the director of the home for girls, Barbara Stark, left, and Goldie Kieling, right, made the presentation.

ACCIDENT TAKES PASTOR'S LIFE

An automobile accident took the life of Elder Ernest J. Stevenson, associate pastor of the Berrien Springs church, on Sabbath, June 3.

Elder Stevenson was on his way to a speaking appointment at Paw Paw when a car, out of control, crossed the median strip on Interstate 94 colliding with the Stevenson car. He was killed instantly.

Funeral services were held in the Berrien Springs church Tuesday evening, June 6. An obituary will appear in a future issue.

PHYSICAL FITNESS PROGRAM ADOPTED IN BERRIEN SPRINGS CHURCH SCHOOL

For the first time in the history of the Berrien Springs Village church school the 167 children of all six grades have been involved in a once-a-week physical fitness program.

This has come about because school leaders definitely believe in the development of the spiritual, mental, and physical aspects of the children in their care.

The physical fitness program directed by Mrs. Murray Robinson includes the following activities: rhythmic gymnastics using balls; skipping ropes or sticks; self-testing for physical fitness and skills; basic sport skills; movement exploration and singing games for the younger grades; and track and field events for the older children.

According to a spokesman for the faculty, "Without healthy bodies one cannot be a cheerful Christian. Well-conducted, physical education promotes good mental health; and with each child happily participating, character, self-control, obedience, loyalty, and good sportsmanship are developed."

Herbert H. Hill

HILL REPLACES LANE AT BATTLE CREEK

Elder Herbert H. Hill has been named administrator at Battle Creek Sanitarium.

He replaces Richard Lane, who recently left to become administrator of the McPherson Community Hospital in Howell, Michigan.

For the past five years Hill has been assistant administrator for employee relations at Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital.

The new administrator comes with knowledge of alcohol problems, having served three years as director and twelve years as executive director of Education for Alcohol Problems in Seattle, Washington. During that time he was appointed by the governor as a member of the Advisory Board of the Washington State Health Department and to the Governor's Task Force on Alcoholism for the State of Washington. He has served in several other alcoholic prevention organizations.

Elder Hill is currently director-at-large of the American Council on Alcohol Problems, and is director of the Institute on Alcohol and Drug Dependency, Andrews University, Berrien Springs. He will be inducted into the American College of Hospital Administrators this August. Hill is also on the Advisory Committee of the Department of Health in the General Conference.

He and his wife Betty have two daughters, Sharon, 16, and Connie, 14.

RECEPTION HELD FOR TEACHERS AT MADISON JUNIOR ACADEMY

All four teachers at Madison Junior Academy were honored at a farewell Saturday night, May 13.

Since Miss Belle Petersen is retiring after 46 years of teaching the main theme was a "This Is Your Life" program featuring letters, slides, and appearances by friends, relatives, and former students affected by Miss Petersen's long and fruitful career.

Maurice Hoppe, ninth-grade teacher and principal, is leaving for Illinois.

Mrs. Marilyn Anderson, teacher of grades 1 to 3 for the past four years, is planning to teach in Oakland, Wisconsin, church school next year. Since she lives across the street from that school, she will save the hours and expense of commuting.

Jon Gibson returned from Africa and began his teaching duties after school started to fill in for a teacher whose health failed at mid-year. He is to be principal of the Rhinelander church school next year.

Dale Bossenberry, a lay elder of the Madison church, emceed the program which looked like Christmas and the Fourth of July. One of the gifts to Miss Petersen was an eight-foot potted evergreen tree on which friends had hung envelopes containing cash and well wishes.

The fireworks came in the form of sparklers bordering a large cake complete with schoolhouse and farewell message.

Sparklers blaze around the little red schoolhouse on the cake prepared as a tribute to Miss Belle Petersen.

C. Keith Gibbons

WISCONSIN HAS NEW EDUCATIONAL AND SABBATH SCHOOL SECRETARY

Dr. C. Keith Gibbons, presently associate professor of education at Walla Walla College, has accepted the position of education and Sabbath School secretary in the Wisconsin Conference.

He replaces Elder Melvin Rosen who is now working in the same position in Illinois. Gibbons has taught in every level from first grade through university graduate courses.

He served as principal in denominational church schools for 14 years in Washington state. He also was supervisor of student teachers at the University of Idaho for two years and has been in the educational department at Walla Walla College the past four years.

Gibbons earned his B.A. at Walla Walla College in 1960 and his M.A. in 1966. In 1968 the University of Idaho granted him the degree Doctor of Education.

"Elder Rosen has built a strong educational system in our conference," said Kenneth J. Mittleider, conference president, "and when felt impressed to accept Illinois' invitation, we prayed for a man to carry on and continue to build a strong educational program centered in Christ. We believe God has sent us that man."

NORTHERN WISCONSIN CAMP MEETING HELD

Northern Wisconsin's camp meeting on May 19 and 20 was attended by members from 15 Wisconsin churches.

Elder Glenn Aufderhar, conference stewardship secretary, had the Friday evening service. He gave reasons why every Christian should consider the Bible his most valuable possession and study it daily.

Sabbath School, organized by Elder Mel Rosen, conference Sabbath School secretary, featured a mission report by Elder James Snell, recently returned missionary from Bangkok, Thailand, and now pastor of the Eau Claire district. Elder A. W. Bauer, Lake Union lay activities director, conducted the general lesson study.

Elder Frank L. Jones, Lake Union Conference secretary, during the worship hour emphasized Isaiah's complete message and highlighted the life of this prophet of God.

Don Prior, vice-president from Andrews University, announced a new one-year occupational training program. Students can earn much of their way in more than fifteen occupations including building trades, flying, agriculture, food production, and cosmetology.

Elder Robert Knutson and Louise Larmon brought the Madrigals from Wisconsin Academy for an afternoon musical program.

A baptism in the lake concluded the camp meeting service.

RHINELANDER TO HOLD REACH OUT MEETINGS

Enthusiasm runs high in Rhinelander for the Reach Out for Life meetings scheduled for June. From left: J. Lynn Martell, conference evangelist, and Stanley Cottrell, district pastor, share a text with Melbert Schneider; Robert Thomson, ministerial secretary; Cynthia Schneider; and Matthew Schneider, just before the three youths were baptized. The young people made their decisions in Mission '72 meetings Cottrell held in Crandon. With their youthful enthusiasm and preparation by members, the church is praying for and expecting successful meetings.

Lo-Cal Casserole

(123 calories per 1 cup serving)

- ½ tablespoon margarine
- 1 cup water
- ½ cup chopped onion
- ½ cup chopped green pepper
- 1 clove garlic minced or pressed
- 1 can sauerkraut (27 ounce)
- noncaloric sweetener—equivalent to 2 tablespoons sugar
- ⅓ cup STRIPPLE ZIPS® (1 ounce)
- 5 VEJA-LINKS®
- 2 tablespoons hot water

Heat margarine and 1 cup water in a large heavy saucepan. Add onion, green pepper, and garlic. Cook covered at medium heat until vegetables are tender. Drain and rinse sauerkraut thoroughly. Add sauerkraut, sweetener and STRIPPLE ZIPS to vegetable mixture. Blend thoroughly. Cut each of the VEJA-LINKS into six cross cut pieces. Place half the sauerkraut mixture in a shallow 2 quart casserole dish. Place VEJA-LINKS slices evenly over sauerkraut. Spread remaining sauerkraut mixture over VEJA-LINKS. Sprinkle with hot water. Bake covered at 350° F. for 25 minutes. Serves 6.

Ling Ping Chow

- 1 can SOYAMEAT™—FRIED CHICKEN STYLE (13 ounce)

Marinade:

- ½ cup soy sauce
- ¼ cup water
- liquid drained from mushrooms
- liquid drained from SOYAMEAT™—FRIED CHICKEN STYLE
- ¼ teaspoon garlic powder
- ¼ teaspoon ginger (optional)
- 2 tablespoons margarine
- ⅔ cup cross cut sliced celery
- 1 cup sliced onion
- 1 can sliced mushrooms (4 ounce), drained
- 1 teaspoon chopped pimiento
- ¼ cup marinade (above)
- ¾ cup water
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 2 tablespoons sliced almonds

Drain SOYAMEAT, reserving liquid. Slice each piece SOYAMEAT in half crosswise. Prepare a marinade by combining the soy sauce, water, mushroom liquid, SOYAMEAT liquid, garlic powder and ginger. Place sliced SOYAMEAT in this marinade and allow to marinate for 15 minutes. Remove SOYAMEAT from marinade. Melt margarine in a heavy saucepan. Add celery and onions. Cover and cook at medium heat until vegetables are tender-crisp but not browned. Add mushrooms and pimiento. Combine ¼ cup marinade, water, and cornstarch. Add to vegetable mixture. Boil until sauce is clear and thickened. Add drained marinated SOYAMEAT. Mix gently to blend vegetables and SOYAMEAT. Simmer uncovered for 3 minutes. Sprinkle with almonds and serve. Rice is an excellent accompaniment with this entree.

Sesame Zucchini

- 3 tablespoons margarine
- 1 cup thinly sliced onion
- 1 tablespoon sesame seed
- 4 to 5 cups peeled zucchini squash, cut into thin strips 2 inches long
- ½ packaged sliced WHAM™ (8 ounce package), finely diced
- ¼ teaspoon paprika
- 1 tablespoon soy sauce
- 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

Melt margarine in a heavy skillet. Add onions. Sauté at medium heat until onions are tender but not browned. Add sesame seed. Sauté 2 minutes. Add zucchini strips. Cover. Cook at medium heat 5 minutes. Add diced WHAM, paprika, and soy sauce. Cook 5 minutes, occasionally stirring mixture gently. Place mixture in a shallow baking dish. Top with Parmesan cheese. Broil until cheese melts. Serves 4.

Chili Cheese-a-roni

- 1 cup dry macaroni
- 1 tablespoon oil
- ¼ cup chopped green pepper
- ½ cup chopped onion
- 1 can WORTHINGTON CHILI (20 ounce)
- 1 cup chopped canned tomatoes
- ½ teaspoon sugar
- ¼ teaspoon garlic powder
- 1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese

Cook macaroni according to package directions. Drain and set aside. Pour oil into a heavy saucepan. Add green pepper and onion. Cover and cook at medium heat until vegetables are tender. Add WORTHINGTON CHILI, tomatoes, sugar and garlic powder. Mix to blend. Simmer uncovered for 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in cooked macaroni. Pour mixture into a buttered 1½ quart casserole dish. Top with shredded cheese. Bake uncovered at 350° F. for 20 minutes. Yields 5 cups. Serves 6.

Prosage® Souffle

- 12 slices white or wheat bread, crusts removed
- 2 tablespoons corn oil
- 1 cup chopped onion
- ¼ cup diced green pepper
- 1 cup diced celery
- 1 tablespoon minced parsley
- 1 pound PROSAGE®
- 2 tablespoons corn oil
- 3 eggs
- 2 cups milk
- ¼ teaspoon sage
- 1 packet G. Washington's Golden Seasoning and Broth Mix

Line a greased rectangular 8" x 12" x 2" 2 quart casserole dish with 6 slices bread. Pour corn oil into a large skillet. Add onion, green pepper, and celery. Cover and cook until vegetables are tender. Add parsley. Mix well. Place half this mixture over the bread in the casserole. Slice according to package markings and fry PROSAGE in corn oil. Cut each fried piece in half. Place pieces over vegetable mixture. Top with remaining vegetables. Place 6 remaining slices of bread over vegetables. Combine eggs, milk, sage, and seasoning mix. Beat thoroughly. Pour over bread. Cover tightly and chill 4 or 5 hours or overnight. Place casserole in a pan of hot water. Bake uncovered at 325° F. for 1 hour and 15 minutes. Garnish with stuffed olives, pimiento, or parsley. Serves 6.

CAMPUS COP RETIRES AT 70

Retiring security officer Wesley Christiansen, 70, accepts a plaque from Dr. Richard Hammill, president of Andrews University. The plaque bears the badge which Christiansen wore for many years and a plate that reads, "In recognition of 23 years of devoted, efficient, and perceptive service in the security department of Andrews University." The 23 full-time years were from 1944 to 1967, but Christiansen stayed on the security force part-time until April.

L.L.U. AND A.U. TO SPONSOR RUSSIA STUDY TOUR

Next year an overseas study tour will be jointly sponsored by A.U. and Loma Linda University. The General Conference Department of Education has granted its approval.

Leaving June 27, 1973, the tour group will spend one month in Russia, covering more than 7,500 miles inside the Soviet Union, going deep into Siberia. Fabled Tashkent and Samarkand in Central Asia are also on the itinerary.

Richard Schwarz of A.U. and Alonzo Baker of L.L.U. will lead the tour. Both men have taught Russian history and government, and both have visited there recently.

The group will be made up of Adventists only. The first Sabbath will be spent in Leningrad, the second at the Adventist church in Moscow. There will be no Sabbath travel. Vegetarian meals will be available.

For further information contact Dr. Richard Schwarz, Chairman, Department of History, Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Michigan 49104.

INDIAN MOUND TO BE EXCAVATED BY STUDENTS

An Indian mound in northern Minnesota will be excavated as part of a seven-week archaeological field school, July 3 to August 18. The behavioral science department will sponsor the school. Dr. Robert Kistler, department chairman, has designated the site of the field school as Quetico canoe country about 15 miles west of International Falls, Minnesota. The director will be Edward Lugenbeal, who is on doctoral study leave from the Geoscience Research Institute in Berrien Springs.

Excavation of the Indian mound will involve cataloging, classifying, and cleaning artifacts found. Although most of the artifacts recovered this summer will go to the State of Minnesota, hopefully a number can be brought back to A.U. for display.

FRANCIS D. NICHOL SCHOLARSHIP ESTABLISHED

An endowed scholarship in the name of Francis D. Nichol has been set up by a former A.U. student, Donald J. Barr of Almonte, Ontario. It was given in memory of Elder Nichol's outstanding contribution to the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Elder Nichol was editor of the Review and Herald for 21 years (1945 to 1966) and was previously associate editor for 17 years (1928 to 1945). He was also editor of the S.D.A. Bible Commentary and author of numerous books and pamphlets.

The scholarship amounts to $5,704.44. Proceeds are to be given each year to a student or students in their first year at A.U. The grant is to be awarded to a candidate who is in good standing at the school, who gives the most promise for future service to God, and who is in most need of assistance.

In announcing the scholarship, university President Richard Hammill stated, "I do not know of a better investment that any person can make than to set up an endowed scholarship which year by year will be used to assist some young person in preparing himself for more effective service for God and for his fellowmen. An endowed scholarship like this is an investment in the future, in that it provides for the training of workers for the Lord for future generations."
