The Sure Foundation

HELEN ROSSER

I built a place on the sand,
And stone foundations 'neath it laid;
Above it bent a concrete dome;
Its walls of marble white were made;
Upon its hard, cold floor I spread
A costly carpet, soft, and warm;
And here I fancied I was safe
From raging wind, and driving storm.

The breeze became a furious gale,
The rain descended thick and fast,
The ocean waves beat on the shore,
And reached my stately house at last.
My palace trembled, shook, and fell;
I fled a safe retreat to find,
Where I might wait till dawn of day,
Protected from the rain and wind.

I built a cottage on the Rock,
'Twas just a humble little home;
It had no wondrous marble walls,
No carpet and no concrete dome.
When hungry, here I ate my bread,
When cold, I entered in to warm,
And here I knew that I was safe
From raging wind, and driving storm.

The breeze became a furious gale,
The rain descended thick and fast;
The ocean waves beat on the shore,
And reached my humble house at last.
But though the storm beat round about,
My cottage bravely stood the shock,
Unmoved by furious wind or wave,
For it was founded on the Rock.

Gaston, Ore.

THE FIELD

Upper Columbia

Coeur d' Alene

The interest at our meetings here has been good from the very start till the close of our last service the 30th of March. The work will be carried forward now by the local members. It has been decided to keep up the Sunday night meetings, and the young people's society will have programs arranged for the service. We believe that others who are attending our meetings will yet unite with us. Our school has outgrown its present quarters, so we have decided to build a new schoolroom. We have space on our land, and have already built the foundation of concrete. The building will be 20 by 36 feet, and we hope to have it completed by the last of May. We expect to furnish the school up to date and make it all that it can be, so that all can do their best if they apply themselves to their work. We are planning to start our school this year on time, and with the increased facilities expect better results than ever before.

We shall be glad to hear from our absent church members; those who live out of the city, you will want a share in this work. You can send your donations to Mrs. R. Cook, Coeur d' Alene, Idaho. The building will cost about $500.

W. WOODFORD.

Kennewick and Pasco

THE brethren and sisters of Kennewick and Pasco met at Brother Archie Spence's for our quarterly meeting. We were expecting a minister to help us out, but being disappointed in that our help depended upon the Lord. We went ahead with the service and found that the Lord did not disappoint us. We were all impressed with the thought of a decided coming together and being of one mind and heart in these last days, having a clear glimpse into the sanctuary in Heaven and there seeing the work carried on in our behalf, making the ordinance very solemn to each one present. Brother Tolton read from Desire of Ages the importance of being of one mind in the Message as Jesus and the Father are one, also the importance of this ordinance being celebrated until Jesus our Savior shall come in all His glory to take us to Himself. May this brotherly love continue is our prayer.

ALEX HENDER, Elder.

Eugene

THE work has been making some progress in Eugene and the adjacent country during the past six months. Six months ago the Eugene church was composed of sixteen scattered, unorganized members. Now the church is well organized and has a membership of fifty active members who live in or near Eugene. This addition to this church has increased the conference membership to 31, eighteen by letter and thirteen by baptism. Plans are well laid for the erection of a nice church before next winter. We hope to see Eugene one of our strongest churches in two or three years. L. A. GIBSON.

Miss Irene Anderson and Edward J. Terrill were united in marriage February 4, near Eugene, Oregon, Eld. L. A. Gibson officiating. The wedding was a quiet one at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Terrill reside near Brownsville, Oregon.

The Watchman for May, 1913

The following refers to some of the contents which will appear in the May Watchman.

- God's Message for Today.
- The Rich Man and Lazarus.
- The Attitude of Popular Christianity Toward the Jews.
- An Epidemic in Crime.
- Some May History: Historical Extracts Showing Response of Bible Predictions.

Political Conditions and the Last Message in Turkey.

"Prepare War."
Recollections of Life in the East Indies.

In view of the recent disasters by fire and flood through the agency of which the Lord is no doubt endeavoring to gain the serious attention of men, we believe the time has fully come to arise as one man and give the message for this time, by circulating this truth-laden magazine.

Subscriptions can be obtained by properly setting forth the meaning of the things that are coming upon the earth. In addition to the articles above mentioned the Outlook Department will contain comments on the very latest events before going to press. Special cover design.

The Watchman gives the trumpet a certain sound.

Send the tract society two subscriptions at $1.00 each and secure the third subscription to yourself or one of your friends.

Rates in quantities 10 to 40, 5 cents.

50 or more, 4 cents.
Canada 5 cents straight.

The Call has Come

FOR a missionary number of Our Little Friend, a number that the children of our schools and others could use in practical, personal missionary work, this special issue to appear just before the close of school, so that the children can get the field experience following their regular course of missionary work in the schools.

Our Little Friend is endeavoring to provide just the kind of little paper our little missionaries would enjoy circulating, and we feel confident that this one will be loved and appreciated by all.

Let every child have at least ten for his own use.

Single copies, each 5 cents
Five to ten copies, each 4 cents
Ten or more copies, each 3 cents

The paper is to be sold for five cents and the proceeds devoted to missions—the child widows of India.

LET ALL THE CHILDREN HELP

Order through your tract society.

WHAT THIS SPECIAL NUMBER WILL CONTAIN

Children of India—their homes, their games, their work, their joys, and their sorrows.

African children.—How they play leap-frog, blind man's buff, "chule, chule, chule," and other games. How they learn to work, and what they need.

Child study in China.—The little dirty, loving, amusing, and interesting yellow cousins of ours in the largest nation of earth.

Japanese children.—Their Doll Festival, which belongs to the girls, of course; and the Boys' Festival, when they fly kites and spin tops.

"Tommy, Frissel, and Hoke."
—Three little colored children, and how they had a chance to go to school.

Millie Stone, the fisherman's daughter, and how she earned money for the child widows of India.

How Mollie Became a Missionary.—A true story of a little girl who from childhood wanted to be a missionary, and some of her experiences in becoming one.

Little Folks of Brazil.

A Little Korean Boy.

What One Church School Did.

The Greatest Missionary.—His work and ours.

Missionary poems and recitations, and numerous pictures which are stories in themselves.

The above articles tell actual facts, and are written, with one or two exceptions, especially for this number, by those who have recently been or are now in the various missionary fields.

How many copies will you sell for missions?

"Why do not more people come to tell us of the gospel?" asked an American woman. "Is it because they do not love us, or because they do not love Jesus very much?"

Our Little Friend

Announces an advance in subscription rates, effective July 1, 1913.

Single subscriptions advanced from sixty cents a year to 70 cents a year. Clubs advanced from 50 cents a year to 60 cents a year. An advance of ten cents a year in each case. All subscriptions or renewals sent in by the tract society before July 1 will be entered at the old rates. Those leaving the tract society on or after that date will be entered at the new rates. Let us all get our renewals in early, even if our subscription does not expire for a few months.

"Who steals my purse steals trash,
'Tis something, nothing.
'Twas mine, 'tis his, and has been a slave to thousands.
But he who filches from me my good
name,
Robs me of that which not enriches him,
And makes me poor indeed."

The canvassers' institute closed Friday. It was a profitable meeting. About twenty-five will enter the field for the summer.

The choral society rendered the cantata "R u t h" Saturday evening. There are forty voices in the organization. The chapel was filled with appreciative listeners.

Elder W. L. Killen spoke at chapel Thursday. He showed the importance of settling upon a line of work and continuing it to success. There is always a temptation and tendency to change to some new line.

The graduation class holds a devotional meeting each Sabbath morning at six o'clock, and a business meeting each Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Plans are pretty well perfected for commencement.

E. M. Oberg gave an inspiring talk at chapel period Tuesday. He brought out clearly the many departments of work in connection with the giving of the message showing there is a place for each one, and then gave especial consideration to the canvassing work.

Gov. Ernest Lister addressed the school and villagers Friday morning. Aside from some questions of state matters, he brought out the truth that the young men and the young women of the present will soon be the burden-bearers in the great field of human activity and in view of this he showed the importance of the improvement of present opportunities.

Can You Answer?

Who was the first president of the General Conference?

Is it right to offer rewards in our Sabbath-schools?

Can Satan read our thoughts?

Is the Holy Spirit a personal being?

What should be our attitude regarding the wedding ring?

Why did God permit the post-diluvians to eat meat?

Should Christmas be observed by Seventh-day Adventists?

The answers to these and many similar questions are given in the little book, "Outline Studies from the Testimonies," by Prof. C. L. Taylor. Twenty-five cents at your tract society.

President Woodrow Wilson gives a splendid talk in the May Signs Magazine. It alone will sell the magazine. But there are seventeen others just as good and important. You will want ten or twenty of them, sure.

Important to General Conference Visitors

If you expect to attend the coming session of the General Conference, and have not yet given notification of the same, making application for accommodations, it is essential that you do so at once. Many requests are being received for reservations for rooms or tents. We wish to make proper provision for all. If any considerable number of people should neglect to notify us in time to make needed provision, there will of necessity be disappointment to some. We must know before the time of meeting of all who are coming in order to provide a sufficient number of tents, cots, mattresses, chairs, etc.

No one should take it for granted that we know of all who will attend and will provide accordingly. Make your application at once, stating the accommodations desired and the number of persons to use the same. Bear in mind that furnished rooms are very scarce, and we guarantee tent accommodations only to those who place their orders with us. Address L. A. Hansen, Takonia Park, Washington, D. C.

See the announcement in the Review and Herald for rates. No deposit need be sent with your order.

W. T. KNOX,
For the Committee.

The Missionary Volunteer reading courses have outgrown the English language. Some have joined our circle who can not read it, and we are glad to have them. The members of our circle in South America read Spanish. Our German friends in this country, Canada, and elsewhere have a course this year in their own language. Quite a while ago Brother Kuniya wrote from Japan of their plans for a Japanese Missionary Volunteer.
